<sup>4</sup> David and all the Israeli soldiers [SYN] went to Jerusalem. At that time, Jerusalem was called Jebus, and the people who lived there were the Jebus people-group. <sup>5</sup> Those people said to David, "Your soldiers will not be able to get inside our city!" But David's soldiers captured the city, even though it had strong walls around it, and since then it has been called "The City of David".

<sup>6</sup> What happened was this:: David said to his soldiers, "The one who leads our soldiers to attack the Jebus people-group will become the commander of all my army." Joab, the son of Zeruiah, led the soldiers, so he became the commander of all the army.

<sup>7</sup> After they captured the city which had strong walls around it, David moved there. That is why they named it 'The City of David'. <sup>8</sup> David's workers rebuilt the city, starting where the land was filled in and extending to the wall that was around the city. Joab's men repaired the other parts of the city. <sup>9</sup> David became more and more powerful/influential, because the Almighty Commander of the armies of angels was with/helping him.

The list of David's most mighty warriors

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh had promised that David would become the king. And all the Israeli people ◀were happy that David was/supported David as▶ their king.

There were many soldiers/warriors who helped David's kingdom to remain strong.

Jashobeam was from the Hacmon clan. He was one of the leaders of David's most powerful soldiers. One time he fought against 300 enemies and killed them all with his spear.

<sup>12</sup> Another one was Eleazar, who was the son of Dodo from the clan of Ahoh. <sup>13</sup> One day he was with David at Pas Dammim when the soldiers of Philistia gathered there for the battle. There was a field of barley there. At first the Israeli soldiers ran away from the soldiers of Philistia, <sup>14</sup> but then David and Eleazar stopped in the middle of the field and fought to defend it and killed many of the soldiers of Philistia. Yahweh enabled them to win a great victory on that day.

<sup>15</sup> One time three of David's thirty most mighty warriors came to David when he was camping next to the huge rock outside the cave near Adullam. At that same time, the army of Philistia had camped in the Rephaim Valley. <sup>16</sup> David was in a fortress, and some of the soldiers of Philistia were occupying Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup> One day David was very thirsty and said, "I wish that someone would bring me some water from the well near the gate at Bethlehem!" <sup>18</sup> So those three most outstanding warriors forced their way through the camp of Philistia soldiers and drew some water from the well, and brought it to David. But he would not drink it. Instead, he poured it out on the ground to be an offering to Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> He said, "Yahweh, it would certainly not be right for me to drink this water! That would be like [RHQ] drinking the blood of these men who were willing/ready to die for me!" So he refused to drink it.

That was one of the things that those three most outstanding warriors did.

<sup>20</sup> Joab's younger brother Abishai was the leader of the 30 most mighty warriors. One time Abishai fought 300 enemy soldiers with his spear and killed them. <sup>21</sup> So he became as famous as those three most outstanding warriors. He became their commander, even though he was not one of those three men.

<sup>22</sup> Jehoiada's son Benaiah was a brave soldier from Kabzeel town who did heroic deeds. He killed two of the best warriors from the Moab people-group. One day he went down into a pit when snow was falling on the ground and killed a lion there. <sup>23</sup> He also killed a soldier from Egypt who was ◀7-1/2 feet/2.3 meters▶ tall. The soldier from Egypt carried a spear that was as long as a weaver's rod. Benaiah had only a club, but he grabbed the other man's spear and killed him with it. <sup>24</sup> Those are some of the things that Benaiah did. So he became as famous as the three mighty warriors. <sup>25</sup> He was more honored than the other members of the group of thirty most mighty warriors, but he did not become a member of the group of three most outstanding warriors. David appointed him to be the leader of his bodyguards.

Heled, the son of Baanah, also from Netophah town;

- <sup>31</sup> Ithai, the son of Ribai, from Gibeah town in the land that belonged to the tribe of Benjamin;

 Naarai the son of Ezbai;
 Mibhar the son of Hagri;
 Naharai, the man who carried Joab's weapons, from Beeroth town;

 and Jaasiel from Zobah town/clan.

Some warriors joined David

<sup>3</sup> Their leader was Ahiezer. Next in command was Joash. They were both sons of Shemaah from Gibeah city. These are the names of some of those warriors:

Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth;

Beracah;

Jehu from Anathoth town;

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah from the Gibeon city, who was a leader of the thirty mighty warriors;

Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad from Gederah town;

<sup>8</sup> Some men from the tribe of Gad east of the Jordan River joined David when he was at his fortress in the caves in the desert. They were brave warriors who were trained for fighting battles and able to use shields and spears well. They [SYN] were as fierce as [SIM, MTY] lions, and they could run as fast as [HYP, SIM] deer/gazelles on the hills/mountains.

Next in command was Obadiah.

Next was Eliab.

Next was Jeremiah.

Next was Eliel.

Next was Elzabad.

<sup>16</sup> Some other men from the tribe of Benjamin and from Judah also came to David in his fortress. <sup>17</sup> David went out of the cave to meet them and said to them, "If you have come peacefully to help me, I am eager to have you join with me. But if you have come to enable my enemies to capture me, even though I [SYN] have not done anything to harm you, I hope/wish that the God whom our ancestors ◀worshiped/belonged to▶ will see it and condemn/punish you."

<sup>18</sup> Then God's Spirit came upon Amasai, who was another leader of the thirty greatest warriors, and he said,

"David, we want to be with you;

you who are the son of Jesse, we will join you.

We know that things will go very well [DOU] for you and for those who are with you, because your God is helping you."

<sup>19</sup> So David welcomed those men, and he appointed them to be leaders of his soldiers. Some men from the tribe of Manasseh also joined David when he went with the soldiers of Philistia to fight against Saul's army. But David and his men did not really help the army of Philistia. After the leaders of Philistia talked about David and his soldiers, they sent David away. They said, "If David joins his master Saul again, we will all be killed {his army will kill all of us}!" <sup>20</sup> When David went to Ziklag, these were the men from the tribe of Manasseh who went with him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, another man whose name was Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. Each of them had been a commander of 1,000 men in Saul's army. <sup>21</sup> They were all brave soldiers, and they helped David to fight against the groups of men who roamed throughout the country, robbing people. So those men became commanders in David's army. <sup>22</sup> Every day more men joined David's men, and his army became large, like [SIM] the army of God (OR, a very huge army).

<sup>23</sup> These are the numbers of soldiers who were ready for battle who joined David at Hebron city. They came to help him to become the king of Israel to replace Saul, as Yahweh had promised would happen.

<sup>24</sup> There were 6,800 men from Judah, who carried shields and spears.

<sup>27</sup> Jehoiada, who was a leader descended from Aaron, was in that group of descendants of Levi, and there were 3,700 men with him.

<sup>28</sup> Zadok, a strong young soldier, was also in that group, and there were 22 other leaders from his clan who came with him.

<sup>29</sup> There were 3,000 men from the tribe of Benjamin who were Saul's relatives. Most of them had previously wanted one of Saul's descendants to be the king.

<sup>30</sup> There were 20,800 men from the tribe of Ephraim who were all brave warriors and trained for fighting battles and famous in their own clans.

<sup>31</sup> There were 18,000 men from the half of the tribe of Manasseh that lived west of the Jordan River. They were all chosen to go and help David become the king.

<sup>32</sup> There were 200 men who were leaders from the tribe of Issachar, along with their relatives. Those leaders always knew what the Israelis should do, and they knew the right time to do it.

<sup>33</sup> There were 55,000 men from the tribe of Zebulun. They were all experienced warriors and knew how to use all kinds of weapons well. They were completely loyal to David.

<sup>34</sup> There were 1,000 officers from the tribe of Naphtali. With them were 37,000 soldiers, each carrying shields and spears.

<sup>35</sup> There were 28,600 soldiers from the tribe of Dan, all trained to fight battles.

<sup>37</sup> There were also 120,000 soldiers from the area east of the Jordan River who joined David. They were from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the eastern half of the tribe of Manasseh. They had all kinds of weapons.

<sup>38</sup> All those men were soldiers who volunteered to be in David's army. They came to Hebron wanting very much to enable David to be the king of all of the Israeli people.

<sup>39</sup> The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, because their families had given them food to take with them. <sup>40</sup> Also, their fellow Israelis came from as far away as the area where the tribes of Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali lived, bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. They brought a lot of flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, olive oil, cattle and sheep. And throughout Israel, the people were very joyful.

Bringing back the Sacred Chest

<sup>1</sup> One day David talked with all his army officers. Some of them were commanders of 100 soldiers and some were commanders of 1,000 soldiers. <sup>2</sup> Then he summoned the other Israeli leaders and said to all of them, "If it seems to you to be a good thing for us to do, and if it is what Yahweh our God wants, let's send a message to our fellow Israelis in all the areas of our country, including the priests and other descendants of Levi who are living among them in their towns and in the nearby pasturelands, to come and join us, <sup>3</sup> because we want to bring the Sacred Chest of our God back to us. While Saul was the king, we did not go to God's presence to ask him what we should do.” <sup>4</sup> All the people agreed with David, because they all thought that it was the right thing to do.

<sup>5</sup> So David gathered all the Israeli people, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo-Hamath town in the north, and told them that he wanted them to help bring the Sacred Chest of God back to Jerusalem from Kiriath-Jearim city. <sup>6</sup> David went with all the Israeli people to Baalath town, which is another name for Kiriath-Jearim, to get the Sacred Chest. The people believed that God ruled from between the statues of winged creatures that was above the lid of the Sacred Chest [MTY].

<sup>7</sup> The people put the Sacred Chest on a new cart and transported it from Abinadab's house. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the oxen that were pulling the cart. <sup>8</sup> David and all the Israeli people were celebrating in God's presence with all their strength. They were singing and playing lyres, harps, tambourines, and cymbals, and blowing trumpets.

<sup>12</sup> That day, David was afraid of God. He asked himself, “◀How can I bring God's Sacred Chest to my city?/I am afraid to bring God's Sacred Chest to my city.▶” [RHQ]

David's palace and his family

<sup>1</sup> One day Hiram, the king of Tyre city, sent some messengers to David to talk about making an agreement between their countries. Then Hiram sent cedar logs, bricklayers, and carpenters to build a palace for David. <sup>2</sup> When that happened, David knew that Yahweh had truly caused him to be the king of Israel, and that he had caused his kingdom to be greatly respected. Yahweh did this because he loved his Israeli people.

David's army defeated the army of Philistia

<sup>8</sup> When the army of Philistia heard that David has been appointed to be king of all of Israel, they came to capture him. But David heard that they were coming, so he and his soldiers marched out to fight against them. <sup>9</sup> The army of Philistia had attacked the people in the Rephaim Valley southwest of Jerusalem and had robbed them. <sup>10</sup> David asked God, “Should my men and I go and attack the army of Philistia? If we go, will you enable us to defeat [IDM] them?”

Yahweh replied, “Yes, go, and I will enable you to defeat [IDM] them.”

<sup>11</sup> So David and his men went up to a town where the soldiers of Philistia were staying and defeated them. Then David said, "God has enabled me and my soldiers to overwhelm my enemies like [MET] a flood." So they named that place {That place is called} 'Baal-Perazim' which means 'Yahweh breaks through'. <sup>12</sup> As the soldiers of Philistia fled, they left their idols there. So David commanded his soldiers to burn those idols.

<sup>13</sup> But soon the army of Philistia attacked the people in that valley again. <sup>14</sup> So again David prayed to God to ask him what he should do, and God replied, saying "Do not attack the army of Philistia from the front. Instead, go around them, and attack them from the rear in front of the balsam trees. <sup>15</sup> When you hear something in the tops of the balsam trees that sounds like soldiers marching, attack them. I, God, will have gone ahead of you to enable you to defeat the army of Philistia." <sup>16</sup> So David did what God commanded him to do, and he and his army defeated the army of Philistia, all the way from Gibeon city in the east to Gezer city in the west.

They brought the Sacred Chest to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> David commanded his workers to build some houses for him in Jerusalem. He also told them to set up a tent in which to put the Sacred Chest. <sup>2</sup> He said, "Only the descendants of Levi are permitted to carry God's Sacred Chest, because they are the ones whom God chose to carry it and to serve him forever."

<sup>3</sup> David summoned all the people of Israel to come to Jerusalem. He wanted the Sacred Chest of Yahweh to be put in the place that he had made for it. <sup>4</sup> He summoned the descendants of Aaron, who was the first Supreme Priest, and the other descendants of Levi.

<sup>11</sup> David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar and these other descendants of Levi: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup> David said to them, "You are the leaders of the clans descended from Levi. You and the other descendants of Levi must purify yourselves, in order to be able to do this special work for Yahweh. You must bring the Sacred Chest of Yahweh, the God of us Israelis, up to the place that I have made for it here in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> The first time that we tried to bring it, we did not ask Yahweh how we should carry it {it should be carried}. You descendants of Levi were not the ones who carried it, so Yahweh our God punished us."

<sup>14</sup> Then the priests and the other descendants of Levi performed the rituals to purify themselves, in order that it would be proper for them to do the work of carrying the Sacred Chest of Yahweh, the God of us Israeli people. <sup>15</sup> The descendants of Levi inserted the poles into the rings on the Sacred Chest so that with them, they could carry the Sacred Chest on their shoulders, like Moses had commanded, and like Yahweh had said that they should.

<sup>16</sup> David told the leaders of the descendants of Levi to appoint some of their relatives to sing joyful songs and play lyres, harps, and cymbals while they were carrying the Sacred Chest.

<sup>17</sup> So they appointed Heman and his relatives Asaph and Ethan. Heman was the son of Joel; Asaph was the son of Berekiah. Ethan, a descendant of Merari, was Kushaiah's son. <sup>18</sup> There was also another group of descendants of Levi who were appointed: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, and two of the Sacred Tent gatekeepers, Obed-Edom and Jeiel.

<sup>23</sup> Berekiah and Elkanah were two of the men who guarded the Sacred Chest. <sup>24</sup> The priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer were appointed to blow trumpets in front of the Sacred Chest. Obed-Edom and Jehiah also guarded the Sacred Chest.

<sup>25</sup> David and the Israeli leaders and the officers who commanded 1,000 soldiers went to bring the Sacred Chest back from Obed-Edom's house. They were very joyful as they brought it to Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> God helped the descendants of Levi who carried the Sacred Chest of Yahweh; therefore David and the leaders sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams/male sheep to thank him. <sup>27</sup> All the descendants of Levi who carried the Sacred Chest, all the singers, and Kenaniah, the man who directed those who sang, wore robes of fine white linen and sacred vests made of fine linen. David also wore a sacred vest made of white linen. <sup>28</sup> So all of the Israeli people joined in bringing the Sacred Chest up to Jerusalem. They shouted joyfully, while the musicians blew horns and trumpets, and played cymbals, lyres, and harps.

16

<sup>1</sup> They brought the Sacred Chest to Gibeon and put it inside the Sacred Tent that David had told his workers to set up. Then they brought offerings to be completely burned on the altar and offerings to enable them to maintain fellowship with God. <sup>2</sup> When David had finished presenting all those offerings, he asked Yahweh to bless the people. <sup>3</sup> He gave a loaf of bread, some dates, and some raisins to every Israeli man and woman who was there.

<sup>4</sup> Then David appointed some of the descendants of Levi to stand in front of the Sacred Tent in which the Sacred Chest had been placed, to lead the people who worshiped and thanked and praised Yahweh, the God of the Israeli people. <sup>5</sup> Asaph, who played the cymbals, was their leader. Zechariah was his assistant. The other descendants of Levi who helped Asaph were Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel. They played lyres and harps. <sup>6</sup> Benaiah and Jahaziel were priests who blew trumpets frequently in front of the Sacred Tent in which was the Sacred Chest.

David's song of praise

<sup>7</sup> On that day, David gave to Asaph and his helpers this psalm to praise Yahweh:

- 8 Thank God, and pray to him [MTY].
Tell the people of all nations what he has done.
- 9 Sing to him; sing songs to praise him.
Tell about all his miraculous deeds.
- 10 Be glad that you belong to him [MTY];
those who want to know Yahweh better should rejoice.
- 11 Trust in Yahweh and in his power; continually seek to get help from him.
- 12 Do not forget the wonderful things that he has done, the miracles and the just laws that he has given to us.
- 13 We people are the descendants of his servant Jacob;
we are the people of Israel whom he has chosen.
- 14 Yahweh is our God.
His just/fair laws are known by people throughout the world.
- 15 He never forgets the agreement that he has made:
he made a promise that will last for 1,000 generations.
- 16 That is the agreement that he made with Abraham, and he repeated that agreement to Isaac.
- 17 It was an agreement for the Israeli people, and he wanted that agreement to endure forever.
- 18 What he said was, "I will give the Canaan region to you, to belong to you and your descendants forever."
- 19 He said that to them when there were only a few of them, a tiny group of people who were living in that land ◀like strangers/that belonged to other people▶;
- 20 they continued to wander from one place to another,
from one kingdom to another.
- 21 But he did not allow others to oppress them,
and he warned kings by saying to them,
- 22 "Do not harm the people whom I have chosen!
Do not harm my prophets!"
- 23 You people throughout the world, sing to Yahweh.
Every day proclaim to others that he has saved us.
- 24 Tell the people of the nations that he is great;
tell all the people-groups the marvelous things that he has done.
- 25 Yahweh is great, and he deserves to be praised very much.
He should be revered more than all the gods,
- 26 because all the gods that the other people-groups worship are only idols, but Yahweh is truly great; he created the skies.
- 27 He is glorious and majestic;
his power and joy fill his Sacred Tent.
- 28 You people in nations all over the world, praise Yahweh!
Praise Yahweh for his glorious power [HEN]!
- 29 Praise Yahweh like he [MTY] deserves to be praised.
Bring an offering and come to his Sacred Tent.
Worship Yahweh because he is holy.

- <sup>30</sup> Everyone on the earth should tremble in front of Yahweh.
He put the earth firmly in its place; and nothing ever will be able to move/shake it.
- <sup>31</sup> Everything in the sky and on the earth should be happy.
People everywhere should say, "Yahweh is our king!"
- <sup>32</sup> The oceans and all the creatures that are in the oceans should shout to praise him; the fields and everything that is in them should rejoice.
- <sup>33</sup> When they do that, it will be as though the trees in the forest will sing joyfully in front of Yahweh.
That will happen when he comes to judge everyone on [MTY] the earth.
- <sup>34</sup> Thank Yahweh, because everything that he does is good.
He faithfully loves us forever.
- <sup>35</sup> Say to him, "God, you are the one who rescues us, so gather us together and save us from the armies of other nations.
When you do that, we will thank you [MTY], and we will be happy to praise you."
- <sup>36</sup> Praise Yahweh, the God of us Israeli people,
He has always existed, and he will exist forever.
After the people finished singing that song, they all said, "◀Amen/May it be so▶!", and they praised Yahweh.

Worship at Jerusalem and Gibeon

<sup>39</sup> David also told Zadok the Supreme Priest and the other priests who worked with him to remain in front of Yahweh's Sacred Tent, which was still at the place where the Israeli people worshiped God there in Gibeon city. <sup>40</sup> Every morning and every evening they burned offerings on the altar, obeying the rules/laws that had been written by Moses, rules/laws which Yahweh had given to the Israeli people. <sup>41</sup> With them were Heman and Jeduthun and other descendants of Levi. They [MTY] were chosen to sing songs to praise Yahweh because he faithfully loves his people forever. <sup>42</sup> Heman and Jeduthun were appointed to play the trumpets and cymbals when the other descendants of Levi sang sacred songs. The sons of Jeduthun were appointed to guard the gates of the Sacred Tent.

Yahweh's promise to David

<sup>1</sup> After David began to live in his palace, he said to the prophet Nathan, "It does not seem right that I am here living in a palace made of cedar wood, but Yahweh's Sacred Chest is kept inside a tent!"

<sup>2</sup> Nathan replied to David, "Whatever you are thinking about doing, do it, because God is with/guiding you."

<sup>3</sup> But that night God spoke [MTY] to Nathan. He said,

<sup>4</sup> "Go and tell my servant David that this is what I, Yahweh, am saying to him: 'You are not the one who should build a temple for me to live in. <sup>5</sup> I have not lived in any building, from the day that I brought the people of Israel up out of Egypt until now. Instead, I have lived in a tent, moving from one place to another with the Israelis when they moved to other places [DOU]. <sup>6</sup> Wherever I went with all the Israelis as they traveled, I never [RHQ] said to any of their leaders whom I appointed to lead [MET] them, “Why have you not built me a temple made of cedar wood?” ’

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what you should say to my servant David: ‘I, the Almighty Commander of the armies of angels, took you from a pasture where you were taking care of sheep, and I appointed you to be the ruler of my Israeli people. <sup>8</sup> I have ◀been with/helped▶ you wherever you have gone, and I have gotten rid of all your enemies as you advanced. And now I will cause you to become very famous, as well-known as the names of the greatest men who have ever lived on the earth. <sup>9-10</sup> Formerly, during the time that I appointed leaders for my Israeli people, many violent groups oppressed them. But this will not happen any more. I have chosen a place where my Israeli people can live peacefully and no one will disturb them any more. I will give not allow them to be attacked by their enemies. And I will defeat all your enemies.

I declare to you that I, Yahweh, will enable your descendants to rule after you die. <sup>11</sup> When your life ends [EUP], and you die and go to be with your ancestors who have died, I will appoint one of your sons to become king, and I will enable his kingdom to ◀be strong/resist all their enemies▶. <sup>12</sup> He is the one who will arrange for a temple to be built for me. And I will enable his descendants to be kings [MTY] of Israel forever. <sup>13</sup> I will be like a father to him, and it will be as though he is a son to me. I stopped loving Saul, the one who was the king before you became king, but I will never stop loving your son. <sup>14</sup> I will cause him to rule over my people [MTY], and his kingdom will endure forever [DOU].’ ”

David's prayer

<sup>16</sup> Then David went into the Sacred Tent and sat in the presence of Yahweh, and prayed this:

“Yahweh my God, I am certainly not [RHQ] worthy for you to have done all these things for me, and my family is not worthy, either.

<sup>17</sup> “And O God, now, in addition to everything else, you have spoken about what will happen to my descendants in the future for many generations. Yahweh my God, you have acted toward me as though I was the most important man on the earth!

<sup>18</sup> “What more can I, David, say to you for honoring me? Although you know very well what I am like, <sup>19</sup> Yahweh, for my sake and because it is what you wanted to do, you have done these great things for me, and you have revealed to me these things that you are promising to do.

<sup>20</sup> “Yahweh, you are great. There is no one like you. Only you are God, which is what we have always heard. <sup>21</sup> And there is no nation in the world like Israel [RHQ]. Israel is the only nation on the earth whose people you rescued. You performed great and awesome miracles, rescuing our ancestors from being slaves in Egypt, and expelling the people of other people-groups who were in Canaan. <sup>22</sup> You have caused us your Israeli people to belong to you forever, and you, Yahweh, have become our God!

<sup>23</sup> “And now Yahweh, I pray that you will cause the things that you have promised to do for me and my descendants [MTY] to be fulfilled forever. <sup>24</sup> When that happens, you [MTY] will be famous forever. And people will exclaim, ‘The Almighty

Commander of the armies of angels, is the God who rules Israel!’ And you will cause that forever there will be descendants [MTY] of mine who will rule.

<sup>25</sup> “You, my God, have revealed to me that you will cause some of my descendants to become kings. So I am brave enough to pray like this to you. <sup>26</sup> Yahweh, you are God! You have promised to do these good things for me. <sup>27</sup> And now you, Yahweh, have promised to bless my descendants [MTY], in order that they will continue to rule forever. That will happen because you, Yahweh, are the one who has blessed them, and you will keep blessing them forever.”

David's military victories

<sup>2</sup> His army also defeated the army of the Moab people-group. The people were forced to accept David as their ruler, and also to pay money each year to David’s government, in order that David’s army would protect them.

<sup>3</sup> David’s army also fought against the army of Hadadezer, the king of the Zobah region in Syria near Hamath city, when Hadadezer was trying to establish control over the area near the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup> David’s army captured 1,000 of Hadadezer’s chariots, 7,000 chariot-drivers, and 20,000 soldiers. They hamstrung/crippled most of their horses; there were only 100 horses that they did not cripple.

<sup>5</sup> When the army of Syria came from Damascus city to help Hadadezer’s army, David’s soldiers killed 22,000 of them. <sup>6</sup> Then David stationed groups of his soldiers in Damascus, and the people of Syria were forced to accept David as their ruler, and to pay to David’s government each year the payment/tax that he demanded. And Yahweh enabled David’s army to win battles everywhere they went.

<sup>7</sup> David soldiers took the gold shields that were carried by the officers of Hadadezer’s army and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> They also brought from Tebah (OR, Tibhath) and Cun, two towns that belonged to Hadadezer, a lot of bronze, which David’s son Solomon later used to make the huge bronze basin and the pillars and other bronze items for the temple.

<sup>11</sup> King David dedicated those things to Yahweh, like he had done with the silver and gold that his soldiers had taken from the Edom and Moab people-groups, and from the Ammon people-group and from the people of Philistia, and from the descendants of Amalek.

<sup>12</sup> One of David’s army commanders, Abishai, whose mother was Zeruiah, went with his army and killed 18,000 soldiers from Edom in the Salt Valley. <sup>13</sup> Then David stationed groups of his soldiers there in Edom, and the people of Edom were forced to accept David as their king and to pay money to David’s government every year. And Yahweh enabled David’s army to win battles wherever they went.

David's officials

<sup>14</sup> David ruled over all the Israeli people, and he always did for them what was just and fair. <sup>15</sup> Zeruiah’s son Joab was the chief army commander. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the record-keeper. <sup>16</sup> Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were the Supreme Priests. Shavsha was the official secretary. <sup>17</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada ruled over the Kereth and Peleth groups who were David's bodyguards. And David's sons were his most important officials.

The battle against the Ammon people-group

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, Nahash, the king of the Ammon people-group, died. Then his son Hanun became their king. <sup>2</sup> When David heard about that, he thought to himself, "Nahash was kind to me, so I will be kind to his son." So David sent some officials there, to tell Hanun that he was sorry to hear that Hanun's father had died.

But when David's officials came to Hanun in the land where the Ammon people-group lived, <sup>3</sup> the leaders of the Ammon people-group said to Hanun, "Do you think that it is really to honor your father that King David is sending these men to say that he is sorry that your father died? We think that his men have come to ◀look around/spy▶ our city in order to determine how his army can conquer us."

<sup>4</sup> Hanun believed what they said, so he commanded some soldiers to seize the officials whom David had sent, and shave off their beards, and insult them by cutting off the lower part of their robes, and then send them away. So his soldiers did that.

<sup>5</sup> The officials were greatly humiliated/ashamed. When David found out about what had happened to his officials, he sent some messengers to them to tell them, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown again, and then return home."

<sup>8</sup> When David heard about that, he sent Joab and all his army. <sup>9</sup> The soldiers of the Ammon people-group came out of their city and lined up for battle at the entrance to their capital city, Rabbah. Meanwhile, the other kings who had come with their armies stood in their positions in the open fields.

<sup>14</sup> So Joab and his troops advanced to fight the army of Syria, and the soldiers from Syria ran away from them. <sup>15</sup> And when the soldiers of the Ammon people-group saw that the soldiers from Syria were running away, they also started to run away from Abishai and his army, and they retreated back inside the city. So Joab and his army returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> After the leaders of the army of Syria realized that they had been defeated by the army of Israel, they sent messengers to another part of Syria on the east side of the Euphrates river, and brought troops from there to the battle area, with Shophach, the commander of Hadadezer's army, leading them.

<sup>17</sup> When David heard about that, he gathered all the Israeli soldiers, and they crossed the Jordan River. They advanced and took their battle positions to attack the army of Syria. <sup>18</sup> But the army of Syria ran away from the soldiers of Israel. However, David's soldiers killed 7,000 of their chariot-drivers and 40,000 other soldiers. They also killed Shophach, their army commander.

<sup>19</sup> When the kings who had been ruled by Hadadezer realized that they had been defeated by the Israeli army, they made peace with David, and agreed to allow him to rule them.

So the rulers of Syria did not want to help the rulers of the Ammon people-group any more.

David's army captured the capital city of Ammon

<sup>1</sup> In that region, kings usually went with their armies to fight their enemies ◀in the springtime/when the cold season ended▶. But that year, David did not do that. Instead, he stayed in Jerusalem, and he sent his commander Joab to lead the army. Joab took his troops. They crossed the Jordan River and ruined the land of the Ammon people-group. Then they went to Rabbah, the capital city, and surrounded it. David stayed in Jerusalem for a while. But later he took more troops and went to help Joab. Their armies attacked Rabbah and destroyed it. <sup>2</sup> Then David took the crown from the head of the king of Rabbah (OR, from the head of their god Milcom) and put it on his own head. It was very heavy; it weighed ◀75 pounds/34 kg▶, and it had many very valuable stones fastened to it. They also took many other valuable things from the city. <sup>3</sup> Then they brought the people out of the city and forced them to work for their army, using saws and iron picks and axes. David's soldiers did this in all the cities of the Ammon people-group. Then David and all of his army returned to Jerusalem.

Wars against the giants in Philistia

<sup>5</sup> In another battle against the soldiers of Philistia, Elhanan, the son of Jair, killed Lahmi, the younger brother of the giant Goliath from Gath town, who had a spear which was as thick as a weaver's rod.

<sup>6</sup> There was another battle near Gath. A ◀huge man/giant▶ was there who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He was descended from the Rapha giants. <sup>7</sup> When he made fun of the soldiers of Israel, Jonathan, the son of David's older brother Shimea, killed him.

David commanded that the soldiers be counted

<sup>1</sup> Satan decided to cause the Israeli people to have trouble. So he incited David to find out how many men in Israel were able to be in the army.

<sup>2</sup> So David commanded Joab and the other army commanders, "Count all the men in Israel who are able to be in the army. Start at Beersheba town in the south and go all the way to Dan city in the north. Then come back and report to me, in order that I may know how many men there are.”

<sup>3</sup> But Joab replied, “Your majesty, even if Yahweh allowed us to have 100 times as many soldiers as we have now, you would [RHQ] still rule all of them. So why do you want us to do this? You will surely [RHQ] cause all the people of Israel to be guilty of sinning.”

<sup>4</sup> But David would not change his mind. So Joab and his soldiers went everywhere in Israel and in Judah, and counted the people. Then they returned to Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup> and they reported to David that there were 1,100,000 men in Israel who could be in the army, and 470,000 in Judah. <sup>6</sup> Joab did not count the men from the tribes of Levi and Benjamin, because he was disgusted with what the king had commanded.

God punished the people of Israel

<sup>7</sup> David’s command to count the people caused God to become angry, so he told David that he had decided to punish the people of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Then David prayed, saying, “Yahweh, what I did was very foolish. I have sinned greatly by what I have done. So now I plead with you, please forgive me.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Yahweh said to Gad, David’s prophet, <sup>10</sup> “Go and tell this to David: I am allowing you to choose one of three things to punish you. I will do whichever one you choose.”

<sup>11</sup> So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what Yahweh says: ‘You can choose one of these punishments: <sup>12</sup> three years of famine in Israel, or three months during which your armies will run away from their enemies who will attack them with swords, or three days during which I will send my angel to cause many people in the country to die because of a ◀plague/very serious illness▶.’ So, you must decide what I will say to answer Yahweh, the one who sent me.”

<sup>13</sup> David replied to Gad, “I am very distressed. But allow Yahweh to punish [MTY] me, because he is very merciful. Do not allow humans to punish me, because they will not be merciful.”

<sup>14</sup> So Yahweh sent a plague on the people of Israel, and 70,000 of them died because of it. <sup>15</sup> And God sent an angel to destroy the people in Jerusalem by the plague. But when the angel was standing at the ground where Araunah, from the Jebus people-group, threshed grain, Yahweh saw all the suffering that the people had endured, and he was grieved. So he said to the angel, “Stop what you are doing [IDM]! That is enough [IDM]!”

<sup>16</sup> David looked up and saw the angel whom Yahweh had sent, standing between the sky and the ground. The angel had a sword in his hand that was pointed toward Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of the city, who were wearing clothes made of rough sackcloth, prostrated themselves on the ground.

<sup>17</sup> David said to God, “I am [RHQ] the one who ordered the men who could be in the army to be counted. I am the one who has sinned and done what is very wrong, but these people are as innocent as [MET] sheep. They have certainly not [RHQ] done anything that is wrong. So Yahweh my God, punish [IDM] me and my family, but do not allow this plague to continue to cause your people to become sick and die.”

<sup>18</sup> Then the angel who was sent by Yahweh told Gad to go up to the place where Araunah threshed grain and tell David to build an altar to worship Yahweh there. <sup>19</sup> So after Gad told David, he obeyed the message that Yahweh [MTY] had given to Gad, and he went up there.

<sup>20</sup> While Araunah was threshing some wheat, he turned and saw the angel. His four sons who were with him also saw the angel, and they hid themselves. <sup>21</sup> Then David approached. When Araunah saw him, he left the place where he was threshing grain and prostrated himself, with his face touching the ground.

<sup>22</sup> David said to him, "Please sell me your threshing place in order that I can build an altar here to worship Yahweh. Then he will stop this plague. I will pay the full price."

<sup>23</sup> Araunah replied, "Take it! Your majesty, do whatever you want to. I will give you the oxen that thresh the grain for an offering to be completely burned on the altar. And I will give you the threshing boards to use as wood on the altar, and I will give you grain for a grain offering. I will give all those things to you."

<sup>24</sup> But the king said to Araunah, "No, I will not take these things as a gift. I will pay you the full price for it. I will not take things that belong to you, things that have cost me nothing and offer them as sacrifices to Yahweh to be completely burned on the altar."

<sup>25</sup> So David paid Araunah 600 pieces of gold for the whole area. <sup>26</sup> David built an altar to worship Yahweh there, and he offered sacrifices to be completely burned on the altar and sacrifices to restore fellowship with Yahweh. David prayed to Yahweh, and Yahweh answered by sending a fire from heaven to burn up the offerings on the altar.

<sup>1</sup> Then David said, "Here, at the edge of Jerusalem, is where we will build the temple for our God Yahweh, and where we will make the altar for burning the offerings that the Israeli people will bring."

The preparations for the temple

<sup>2</sup> So David commanded that the foreigners who lived in Israel must gather together. When they did that, he appointed some of those men to cut huge stones from the quarries and to smooth their surfaces, to be used to build the temple of God. <sup>3</sup> David provided a large amount of iron for making nails and hinges for the doors in the gates of the temple. He also provided so much bronze for making the altar and various utensils, that no one could weigh it all. <sup>4</sup> He also provided money for buying a large amount of cedar logs. Because there was a huge number of them, no one was able to count them. Those were logs that men from Tyre and Sidon cities sent to David.

<sup>5</sup> David provided all those things because he thought, "My son Solomon is still young and he does not know what he needs to know about building, and the temple of Yahweh must be ◀magnificent/very beautiful▶. It must be a glorious building that will become famous, and people throughout the world must consider it to be glorious/splendid. So now I will begin to prepare for it to be built, and Solomon will be responsible for building it." So David collected a great amount of building materials before he died.

<sup>7</sup> He said to him, "I wanted [IDM] to build a temple to honor [MTY] Yahweh, my God.

<sup>8</sup> But Yahweh told a prophet to tell me, ‘You have killed many men [MTY] in the battles that you have fought. I have seen the blood of all the people whom you killed, so you will not be the one who will arrange for a temple to be built to honor me [MTY]. <sup>9</sup> But you will have a son who will be king of Israel after you die. He will be a man who is peaceful and quiet, not a man who kills others. And I will cause that there will be peace between him and his enemies who are in all the nearby lands. His name will be Solomon, which sounds like the word for peace. During the time that he is king, people in Israel will be peaceful and safe. <sup>10</sup> He is the one who will arrange for a temple to be built to honor me [MTY]. He will be like a son to me, and I will cause some of his descendants to rule [MTY] over Israel forever [HYP].’

<sup>11</sup> “So now, my son, I hope/wish that Yahweh will help you, and enable you to be successful in arranging for building the temple of Yahweh, your God, which is what he said that you would do. <sup>12</sup> I also hope/wish that he will enable you to be wise and to understand what you need to know, and enable you to obey his laws while you rule over Israel. <sup>13</sup> If you carefully obey all the laws and regulations/commands that Yahweh gave to Moses to give to us Israeli people, you will be successful. So be steadfast/strong and courageous. Do not be afraid of anything, and do not become discouraged!

<sup>14</sup> “I have tried hard to provide materials for building the temple of Yahweh. I have provided nearly 4,000 tons of gold, and nearly 40,000 tons of silver. I have also provided a very large amount of iron and bronze; no one has been able to weigh it all. I have also gathered/provided lumber and stone for the walls of the temple, but you may need to get some more of those things. <sup>15</sup> There are many men in Israel who have good ability to cut big stones for making stone walls, and carpenters, and men who are very skilled at making various kinds of things. <sup>16</sup> There are many men who know how to make things from gold and silver and bronze and iron. So now I say to you, begin the work of building the temple, and I hope/wish that Yahweh will help/be with you.”

<sup>17</sup> Then David commanded that all the Israeli leaders must assist Solomon. He said to them, <sup>18</sup> “Yahweh our God is certainly with/helping you [RHQ]. He has allowed you to have peace with all the nearby nations [RHQ]. He has enabled my army to conquer [IDM] them, so now Yahweh and my people control them. <sup>19</sup> Now you must obey Yahweh completely. Help Solomon to arrange for building the temple for Yahweh God, in order that you can bring the Sacred Chest that contains the Ten Commandments and the other sacred items that belong to God into the temple that you will build to honor Yahweh.”

The duties of the descendants of Levi

<sup>2</sup> David gathered the leaders of Israel and the priests and other descendants of Levi. <sup>3</sup> He commanded some of his officials to count the descendants of Levi who were at least thirty years old, and they found out that there were 38,000 of them. <sup>4</sup> Then David said, “From those 38,000 men, I want 24,000 of them to supervise the work at the temple of Yahweh, and I want 6,000 of them to be officials and judges. <sup>5</sup> I want 4,000 to be guards at the gates, and 4,000 to praise Yahweh, using the musical instruments that I have provided for them.”

The descendants of Gershon

<sup>8</sup> There were three sons of Ladan: Jehiel was the oldest, and his younger brothers Zetham and Joel.

<sup>9</sup> There were three of the sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran. They were all leaders of the clans of Ladan.

Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were counted as though they were one family.

The descendants of Kohath

Aaron and his descendants were set apart to dedicate the very holy things, to offer sacrifices to Yahweh, to serve in his presence, and to declare to the people what Yahweh [MTY] would do to bless them. They were to do those things forever.

Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah had many sons.

Jeriah was his oldest son, and his younger brothers were Amariah, Jahaziel, and Jekameam.

Micah was the oldest son, and his younger brother was Isshiah.

The descendants of Merari

The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.

<sup>24</sup> Those were the descendants of Levi, whose names were listed according to their families/clans. They were chosen for special jobs by ◀casting lots/throwing small marked stones▶. Each person who was at least 20 years old was listed. They all worked in the temple of Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> David had said previously, “Yahweh, the God to whom we Israeli people belong, has enabled us to have peace, and he has come to live in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, the descendants of Levi no longer need to carry the Sacred Tent and the items used in the work there.” <sup>27</sup> Obeying the final instructions of David before he died, instructions for doing this work at the temple, they counted only the descendants of Levi who were at least 20 years old.

work at the temple. <sup>29</sup> They were also in charge of the sacred loaves of bread that were placed each week on the table in the temple, the flour for the grain offerings, the wafers that were made without yeast, and the measuring the ingredients and mixing them and baking that bread and those wafers. <sup>30</sup> They were also told to stand every morning at the temple and thank Yahweh and praise him. They were also required to do the same thing every evening. <sup>31</sup> And they were to do the same thing whenever offerings that were to be completely burned on the altar were presented/offered to Yahweh on Sabbath days and during the new moon celebrations and other religious festivals. They were told how many of them should be there and what they should do each time.

<sup>32</sup> So the descendants of Levi did the work that was assigned to them by their fellow Israelis who were descendants of Aaron. They did that work in the area surrounding the Sacred Tent, and in the Sacred Tent, and later at the temple.

The duties of the priests

<sup>2</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died before their father died, and they had no children. So their younger brothers Eleazar and Ithamar became the priests. <sup>3</sup> Zadok, who was a descendant of Eleazar, and Ahimelech, who was a descendant of Ithamar, helped David to separate his descendants into two groups. Each group had certain duties. <sup>4</sup> There were more leaders among the descendants of Eleazar than there were among the descendants of Ithamar. So they appointed 16 leaders from Eleazar's descendants and eight leaders from Ithamar's descendants. <sup>5</sup> There were temple officials and priests, including descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar, to make sure that the work was divided fairly. So they decided what work each person would do by ◀casting lots/throwing marked stones▶.

<sup>6</sup> Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel, who was a descendant of Levi, wrote down the names of the leaders of each group while David and his officials were watching. Zadok, the Supreme Priest, and Ahimelech his assistant, and the leaders of the families of the priests and of the families of the other descendants of Levi also watched.

Next Jedaiah was selected.

Next, Seorim was selected.

<sup>9</sup> Next, Malkijah was selected.

Next, Mijamin was selected.

<sup>10</sup> Next, Hakkoz was selected.

Next, Abijah was selected.

Next, Shecaniah was selected.

<sup>12</sup> Next, Eliashib was selected.

Next, Jakim was selected.

<sup>13</sup> Next, Huppah was selected.

Next, Jeshebeab was selected.

<sup>14</sup> Next, Bilgah was selected.

Next, Immer was selected.

<sup>15</sup> Next, Hezir was selected.

Next, Happizzetz was selected.

<sup>16</sup> Next, Pethahiah was selected.

Next, Jehezkel was selected.

Next, Gamul was selected.

Next, Maaziah was selected.

<sup>19</sup> Those were the men who were chosen to be the leaders of the groups that would serve in the temple, obeying the regulations that were set down by Aaron, regulations which Yahweh, the God to whom the Israeli people belonged, had given to him.

The other descendants of Levi

Amram was the ancestor of Shubael and Jehdeiah.

Those were descendants of Levi who were listed according to the leaders of their families. <sup>31</sup> The jobs they would do were decided by ◀casting lots/throwing marked stones▶, like their fellow Israelis, the descendants of Aaron, did. They cast lots {The lots were cast} while King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the leaders of the families of the priests and the other descendants of Levi watched. They gave the same jobs to the families of each oldest brother and each youngest brother.

The guards of the temple gates

From the descendants of Korah, there was Meshelemiah, the son of Kore, who was one of the sons of Asaph.

His oldest son was Shemaiah. His other sons were Jehozabad, Joah, Sacar, Nethanel, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel, Issachar, and Peullethai. It was because God had blessed him that he had many sons.

<sup>6</sup> Obed-Edom's son Shemaiah also had sons. They were leaders in their father's family because they were capable of doing many things well. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. Shemaiah's relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also capable men.

<sup>8</sup> All of those descendants of Obed-Edom and their sons and relatives were capable people and strong workers. Altogether there were 62 of them.

<sup>9</sup> Another guard was Meshelemiah. He and his sons and relatives were also capable people. There were 18 of them altogether.

<sup>10</sup> Another guard was Hosah's son Shimri, a descendant of Merari. Hosah appointed Shimri to be the leader, even though he was not Hosah's oldest son. <sup>11</sup> Hosah's other sons were Hilkiah, Tabaliah, and Zechariah. Altogether there were 13 sons and relatives of Hosah.

The group of Shelemiah's son Zechariah, who was a wise counselor, was selected to guard the North Gate.

<sup>15</sup> Then Obed-Edom's group was selected to guard the South Gate, and his sons were selected to guard the entrances to the temple storerooms.

<sup>16</sup> Then Shuppim's group and Hosah's group were selected to guard the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road to the temple.

The work for the guards was divided evenly. <sup>17</sup> Each day there were six descendants of Levi who guarded the East Gate, four who guarded the North Gate, four who guarded the South Gate, and two at a time who guarded the entrances to the storerooms. <sup>18</sup> At the West gate there were two men who guarded the courtyard and four who guarded the road outside the courtyard.

<sup>19</sup> Those were the groups of men who were descendants of Korah and Merari who guarded the gates of the temple.

Other work at the temple

<sup>20</sup> Other descendants of Levi were in charge of the chests that contained the money that was dedicated to Yahweh, money that the people brought to the temple.

<sup>21</sup> One of those men was Ladan, a descendant of Gershon. He was the ancestor of several family groups. Jehiel was the leader of one of those family groups. <sup>22</sup> Others who had that work were Zetham and his younger brother Joel, who were the sons of Jehiel.

<sup>24</sup> From the descendants of Amram, Shubael, a descendant of Moses's son Gershom, was the leader who was in charge of the money chests. <sup>25</sup> Others who did that work were the descendants of Gershom's younger brother Eliezer. Those men were Eliezer's son Rehabiah, Rehabiah's son Jeshaiiah, Jeshaiiah's son Joram, Joram's son Zicri, and Zicri's son Shelomith. <sup>26</sup> Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the valuable things that had been dedicated to Yahweh by King David, by the leaders of the family groups, by the army commanders of 1,000 soldiers and commanders of 100 soldiers, and by other army commanders. <sup>27</sup> Some of the things that those army officers had taken from Israel's enemies in battles they dedicated for the repair of the temple of Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> And Shelomith and his relatives were also in charge of everything that had been dedicated to Yahweh by the prophet Samuel, by King Saul, and by David's two army commanders Ner and Joab.

<sup>29</sup> From the descendants of Izhar, Kenaniah and his sons were given work outside the temple area. They were officials and judges in various places in Israel.

<sup>30</sup> From the descendants of Hebron, Hashabiah and his relatives were responsible for the work done for Yahweh and for the king in all the area west of the Jordan river. There were 1,700 of them who were able to do their work well. <sup>31</sup> It was written in the records of the descendants of Hebron that Jeriah was their leader. When David had been ruling for almost 40 years, they searched in those records, and they found names of capable men descended from Hebron who were at Jazer city in the Gilead region. <sup>32</sup> Jeriah had 2,700 relatives who were able to do their work well, and who were leaders of their families. King David put them in charge of governing the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the eastern half of the tribe of Manasseh, to be sure that all the people did what God and the king told them to do.

Army commanders

<sup>1</sup> This is a list of the Israeli men who served the king in the army. Some were leaders of families, some were commanders of 100 men, some were commanders of 1,000 men, and some were their officers. There were 24,000 men [DOU] in each group. Each group served one month of each year.

<sup>2</sup> Jashobeam, the son of Zabdiel, was in charge of the group that served during the first month of each year. <sup>3</sup> He was a descendant of Perez, and he was the commander of all the army officers during the first month of each year.

<sup>5</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the Supreme Priest, was the commander of the group that served during the following/third month. <sup>6</sup> He was the one who was a mighty warrior among David's thirty greatest soldiers, and he was their leader. His son Ammizabad was his assistant.

<sup>7</sup> Asahel, Joab's younger brother, was the commander of the group that served during the following/fourth month. Asahel's son Zebadiah became the commander after Asahel was killed.

Jaasiel, the son of Abner, was the administrator of the tribe of Benjamin.

Those were the leaders over the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> *When David told Joab to count the men of Israel, he did not tell him to count the men who were less than 20 years old, because Yahweh had promised many years previously that there would be as many people in Israel as there are stars in the sky.*

<sup>24</sup> *Joab and his helpers started to count the men of Israel, but they did not finish counting them because Joab knew that Yahweh was angry about their being counted. Yahweh punished [MTY] the people of Israel because of this counting, and as a result the total number of Israeli men able to serve in the army was not written on the scroll about King David's rule.*

The king's other officials

<sup>25</sup> Azmaveth, the son of Adiel, was in charge of the king's storehouses.

Jonathan, the son of Uzziah, was in charge of the storehouses in various towns and villages in Israel, and also in charge of the watchtowers.

Zabdi from Shepham town was in charge of storing the wine from the grapes produced in vineyards.

Shaphat the son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys.

Jehdeiah from Meronoth town was in charge of the donkeys.

All of those officials were in charge of the things that belonged to King David.

Joab was the chief commander of the army.

<sup>1</sup> David summoned all the leaders of Israel to come to Jerusalem. He summoned the leaders of the tribes, the leaders/commanders of the groups that worked for the king, the commanders of 100 soldiers, the commanders of 1,000 soldiers, those who were in charge of the property and livestock that belonged to the king and his sons, all the palace officials, and his mighty soldiers and bravest warriors.

<sup>2</sup> David stood up and said, "My fellow Israelis, listen to me. I wanted [IDM] to build a temple to be a place where we would put the Sacred Chest of Yahweh, where it would stay permanently. And I made plans to build it. <sup>3</sup> But God said to me, 'You are not the one who will arrange to build a temple for me [MTY], because you are a warrior and you have killed many people [MTY] in battles.'

<sup>4</sup> "But Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelis belong, had chosen me and my descendants to be the kings of Israel forever. First he chose the tribe of Judah, and from the people [MTY] of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he chose me to be the king over all of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh has given me many sons, but from them he chose my son Solomon to be the next king to rule [MTY] the kingdom of Israel. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, 'Solomon your son is the one who will arrange to build my temple and the courtyards around it, because I have chosen him to be like my son and I will be like [MET] his father. <sup>7</sup> I will enable his kingdom to endure forever if he continues to obey my laws and commands, like you are doing now.'

<sup>8</sup> "So now, while all you people of Israel, all of you who belong to Yahweh, are watching, and while God is listening, I command you leaders to carefully obey all the commands of Yahweh our God, in order that you may continue to possess this good land and enable your descendants to inherit it forever.

<sup>9</sup> "And you, my son Solomon, must know God like I know him, and you must serve him faithfully and because you want to. You must do that because he knows what everyone is thinking and he understands the reasons that people do what they do. If you seek to know him, he will heed your prayers. But if you abandon/reject him, he will abandon/reject you forever. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh has chosen you to arrange to build a temple for him. So think about what I have said, and be strong and do what he is wanting you to do."

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave to his son Solomon the scroll on which were written the plans for the main rooms of the temple, its porch, its storerooms, all the other upper and lower rooms, and the Very Holy Place where God would forgive the sins that people had committed. <sup>12</sup> David wrote for him the plans that God's Spirit had put into his mind for building the courtyards and all the rooms that surrounded the temple, including the room where the money and other valuable things that were dedicated to God would be kept. <sup>13</sup> He gave Solomon instructions for the groups of priests and other descendants of Levi, about all the work that they must do to serve in Yahweh's temple, and about taking care of all the things that would be used in the work at the temple. <sup>14</sup> He wrote down how much gold and how much silver should be used to make all the items in the temple: <sup>15</sup> how much gold for making the gold lampstands and the lamps, how much silver to make the silver lamps and lampstands, <sup>16</sup> how much gold for making the table on which the priests would put the sacred bread, how much silver to use to make the other tables, <sup>17</sup> how much pure gold for the meat forks and the bowls and the cups, how much gold for each gold dish, how much silver for each silver dish, <sup>18</sup> and how much pure gold to make the altar for burning incense. He also gave to Solomon his plans for making the golden statues of winged creatures that would be above the Sacred Chest of Yahweh, like a chariot for him.

<sup>19</sup> Then David said, “I have written all these plans while Yahweh was directing [MTY] me. He has enabled me to understand all the details of his plan for the temple that is to be built.”

<sup>20</sup> David also said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and do this work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, because Yahweh our God will be with/helping you. He will not fail to help you or abandon you until you finish all the work of making his temple. <sup>21</sup> The groups of priests and other descendants of Levi are ready to begin their work at the temple, and every man who has a special skill will help you in all the work. And my officials and the other people will obey you, whatever you command them to do.”

Gifts for building the temple

<sup>1</sup> Then King David said to all the people who had gathered there, “My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen to be the next king, is young and does not have much experience. This work of building the temple is great/important, because this glorious building will not be to honor people, but to honor Yahweh our God. <sup>2</sup> From all the things that I possess, I have provided what will be needed to build the temple of my God—the gold for the things to be made of gold, the silver for the things to be made of silver, bronze for the things to be made of bronze, iron for the things to be made of iron, wood for the things to be made of wood, and large amounts of onyx and turquoise and other valuable stones of various colors, and marble and all kinds of valuable stones. <sup>3</sup> In addition to all these things that I have given for the temple, I am giving treasures of gold and silver, because I very much desire that this holy temple for my God be built. <sup>4</sup> I am giving 110 tons of gold from Ophir and 260 tons of refined silver to cover the walls of the buildings, <sup>5</sup> for making the other items of gold and silver, and for the other work to be done by the craftsmen. So now, I ask you, are there others willing to show by contributing other gifts for the building of the temple [EUP] that they have dedicated themselves to Yahweh?”

<sup>6</sup> Then the leaders of the families/clans, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of 1,000 soldiers and the commanders of 100 soldiers, and the officials who supervised the work that the king wanted done, gave gifts ◀willingly/because they wanted to give them▶. <sup>7</sup> For the work at the temple they gave 190 tons and ◀185 pounds/84 kg▶ of gold, 375 tons of silver, 675 tons of bronze, and 3,750 tons of iron. <sup>8</sup> And any people who owned valuable stones gave them to be put in the storeroom of the temple. Jehiel, a descendant of Gershon, was appointed to be in charge of them. <sup>9</sup> The people were happy to see that their leaders wanted to give those things, because they knew that their leaders were happy and enthusiastic to give those things to Yahweh. And King David also was very happy.

David's prayer

<sup>10</sup> Then, while all the people there were listening, David prayed, saying, “We praise you, Yahweh,
the God whom our ancestor Jacob worshiped.
We will praise you forever!

only you are truly glorious and majestic and wonderful.
And that is true because everything in heaven and on the earth is yours.
You are the king of all the people in this world;
you are the ruler of everything.

<sup>12</sup> Because you are very powerful [DOU],

you are able to cause anyone to be great and strong.

<sup>13</sup> So now, our God, we thank you, and we praise you [MTY] for being very great.

<sup>14</sup> But my people and I are not really able to give anything to you, because everything that we have comes from you, and what we have given to you are only the things that we have received from you [MTY].

<sup>15</sup> In this land we are like [MET] foreigners and strangers, like our ancestors were.

Our time here on this earth is like [SIM] a shadow that disappears quickly;

we know that there is nothing that can enable us to escape dying.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh our God, we have gathered all these things to use in building your [MTY] temple,

but all of it really belongs to you, and you have given it to us [MTY].

<sup>17</sup> My God, I know that you test us people, and you are pleased if you find out that we do what is right.

All these things I have given to you because I wanted to.

And now I have seen that your people have also joyfully and generously given things to you.

I desire/hope that your people will continue to desire to do things like this forever, and that they will always be loyal to you.

<sup>19</sup> And now, please enable my son Solomon to faithfully and sincerely [DOU] obey your commands and laws and decrees [DOU] and to do everything that is needed to build this beautiful building for which I have provided all these things."

<sup>20</sup> Then David said to all the people who were gathered there, "Praise Yahweh our God!" So they all praised Yahweh the God whom their ancestors ◀also worshiped/belonged to▶. They prostrated themselves on the ground in front of Yahweh and in front of the king.

Solomon was crowned to become the king

<sup>21</sup> The next day the people offered sacrifices to Yahweh. They presented many animals to be completely burned on the altar: 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 male sheep, plus offerings of wine, and many other sacrifices on behalf of all the people of Israel. <sup>22</sup> On that day the people were joyful and ate and drank while Yahweh was watching.

Then for the second time they declared that Solomon was now the king. While Yahweh was watching, they anointed him with olive oil to be the king, and they anointed Zadok to be the Supreme Priest. <sup>23</sup> So Solomon sat on the throne because Yahweh wanted him to be the king to succeed his father David. During the following years Solomon prospered, and all the Israeli people obeyed him. <sup>24</sup> King David's other sons and all the officers and mighty warriors accepted Solomon as their king, and they solemnly promised to obey him.

<sup>25</sup> Yahweh caused Solomon to be highly respected by all the Israeli people, and they honored him very much. No king of Israel was honored as much as Solomon was.

The death of David

<sup>26</sup> Jesse's son David was the king who ruled all of Israel. <sup>27</sup> He ruled for 40 years: Seven years in Hebron city and 33 years in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> He became an old man who was very rich and greatly honored by all the people. Then he died, and his son Solomon became the king of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> A record of all the things that King David did while he ruled, from the beginning to the end, was put on scrolls written by the prophets Samuel, Nathan, and Gad.
<sup>30</sup> They told about his powerful rule [HEN], and all the things that happened to him and to the people of Israel and in the nearby kingdoms while he was ruling Israel.

This book contains the account of the reign of King Solomon and of the other kings of Judah until the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem. We call this book 2 Chronicles

Solomon prayed for wisdom

<sup>2-5</sup> When David was king, he had arranged for a new Sacred Tent to be made in Jerusalem. Then David and the Israeli leaders had brought God's Sacred Chest from Kiriath-Jearim city to the new Sacred Tent in Jerusalem that he had prepared for it. But when Solomon became the king, the first Sacred Tent was still at Gibeon city. That was the tent that Moses, the man who served God well, had arranged to be made in the desert. And the bronze altar that Bezalel, the son of Uri and grandson of Hur, had made was also still in Gibeon, in front of the first Sacred Tent.

One day Solomon summoned the army commanders of 1,000 soldiers and the commanders of 100 soldiers and the judges and all the other leaders in Israel. He told them to go with him to Gibeon. So they all went to a hill in Gibeon where the Sacred Tent was, and Solomon and all the others with him worshiped Yahweh there.

<sup>8</sup> Solomon replied, "You were very kind to David my father, and now you have appointed me to be the king to succeed him. <sup>9</sup> So Yahweh my God, you have caused me to become the king to rule people who are as many as the particles of dirt on the earth. So do what you promised my father David. <sup>10</sup> Please enable me to be wise and to know what I should do, in order that I may rule these people well, because there is no one who can rule all this great nation of yours without your help."

<sup>11</sup> God replied, "I am pleased with what you desire; you have not requested a huge amount of money or to be honored or that your enemies be killed. And you have not requested that you live for a long time. Instead, you have requested that I enable you to be wise and to know what you should do in order that you may govern well my people whom I have appointed you to rule. <sup>12</sup> Therefore I will enable you to be wise and to know what you should do to rule my people well. But I will also enable you to have a huge amount of money and to be honored, more than anyone who was previously a king ever was honored, more than anyone who later becomes king will be honored." <sup>13</sup> Then Solomon and the people who were with him all left from being in front of the Sacred Tent on the hill in Gibeon, and they returned to Jerusalem. From there he ruled the Israeli people.

<sup>14</sup> Solomon acquired 1,400 chariots and 12,000 men who rode on horses. He put some of the chariots and horses in Jerusalem, and put some of them in various other cities. <sup>15</sup> During the years that Solomon was king, silver and gold were as common in Jerusalem as stones, and lumber from cedar trees were as plentiful as lumber from ordinary sycamore trees in the foothills. <sup>16</sup> Solomon's horses were imported/brought from Egypt and from the Kue region in Turkey. <sup>17</sup> In Egypt his men paid 15 pounds of silver for each chariot and 3-3/4 pounds of silver for each horse. They also exported/sold many of them to the kings of the Heth and Aram people-groups.

Preparations for building the temple

<sup>1</sup> Solomon ordered that a temple should be built where Yahweh would be worshiped and also that a palace should be built for himself. <sup>2</sup> He selected 70,000 men to carry the building supplies and 80,000 men to cut stones ◀from quarries/walls of rock▶ in the hills. He also chose 3,600 men to supervise them.

“Many years ago when my father David was building his palace, you sent to him cedar logs. Will you send me cedar logs, too?”

<sup>4</sup> “We are about to build a temple where we will worship Yahweh our God. We want to dedicate it to be a place where we will burn fragrant incense to honor him, and a place to put loaves of sacred bread, and for making sacrifices every morning and every evening and every Sabbath day, and to celebrate on the day of every new moon and at other special religious festivals to honor Yahweh our God. We want to do those things forever, like Yahweh has commanded. <sup>5</sup> We want this temple to be a great temple, because our God is greater than all other gods. <sup>6</sup> But no one can really build a temple that would be big enough for God to live in, because even the highest heavens are not big enough for him. And I am worthy only to build a place where we can burn sacrifices to him.

<sup>8</sup> I know that your workers are skilled in cutting timber, so also please send me cedar logs, pine logs, and juniper logs from the Lebanon mountains. My workers will work with your workers. <sup>9</sup> In that way, those workers will provide me with plenty of lumber. We will need plenty, because I want the temple that we will build to be large and beautiful. <sup>10</sup> I will pay your workers, the men who cut the logs, 100,000 bushels of ground wheat, 100,000 bushels of barley, 110,000 gallons of wine, and 110,000 gallons of olive oil.”

“Praise Yahweh, the God to whom the Israeli people belong, the one who created the sky and the earth! He has given King David a wise son, one who is very smart/intelligent and who has good skill and understanding. He wants to build a temple for Yahweh and a palace for himself.

<sup>13</sup> “I will be sending to you Hiram-Abi, a man who is very skilled. <sup>14</sup> His mother was from the tribe of Dan, and his father was from here in Tyre. He is very able to make things from gold and silver and bronze and iron and stone and wood, but he also makes nice things from purple and blue and red cloth, and he does all kinds of engraving. He can make things using any design/pattern that you give to him. He will work with your craftsmen, and the craftsmen who did work for your father, King David.

<sup>15</sup> “Now please send us the wheat and barley and olive oil and wine that you promised to send to us. <sup>16</sup> When you do that, my workers will cut from trees in the Lebanon mountains all the logs that you need and bring them down to the sea. Then we will tie the logs together to form rafts with them, and float them in the sea to Joppa city. From there, you can arrange for them to be taken up to Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> Solomon told his workers to count all the people from other countries who were living in Israel, similar to what his father David had done. There were 153,600 of them. <sup>18</sup> Solomon assigned 70,000 of them to carry materials, and 80,000 to cut stone from quarries in the hills, and 3,600 of them to supervise the others and be sure that they worked steadily.

Solomon's workers built the temple

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon's workers started to build the temple for Yahweh in Jerusalem. They built it on Moriah Hill, where an angel from Yahweh had appeared to his father David. They built it on the ground that Araunah, a descendant of the Jebus people-group, had sold to David and where David said that it should be built. <sup>2</sup> They began the work in April, when Solomon had been ruling almost four years.

<sup>7</sup> They covered the ceiling beams, the door frames, the walls and the doors of the temple with very thin sheets of gold. They also carved statues of winged creatures on the walls. <sup>8</sup> They also built the Very Holy Place inside the temple. It was 30 feet wide and 30 feet long. They covered its walls with sheets of pure gold that altogether weighed 23 tons. <sup>9</sup> They used 1-1/4 pounds of gold to cover the heads of the nails. They also covered the walls of the upper rooms with sheets of gold.

<sup>13</sup> It was 30 feet from the outer wing of the one statue to the outer wing of the other statue. The statues faced the doorway to the main room.

<sup>14</sup> Solomon's workers made a curtain to separate the main room from the Very Holy Place. It was made of blue, purple, and red thread and fine linen. There were figures of winged creatures that were embroidered on the curtain. <sup>15</sup> They made two bronze pillars and put them at the entrance of the temple. They were each 27 feet high. Each had a top over it that was 7-1/2 feet high. <sup>16</sup> The workers made carvings that resembled chains and put them on top of the pillars. They made carvings that resembled pomegranates and attached them to the chains. <sup>17</sup> They set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the south side of the entrance and the other on the north side. The one on the south side was named Jakin and the one on the north side was named Boaz.

<sup>1</sup> Solomon's workers made a square bronze altar that was 10 yards wide on each side, and it was 5 yards high. <sup>2</sup> They also made a very large round tank that was made of metal and cast in a clay mold. It was 10 yards wide/across, and 5 yards high. It was 15 yards around it. <sup>3</sup> Below the outer rim there were two rows of small figures of bulls that were part of the metal of the basin. Each row had 300 figures of bulls.

<sup>4</sup> The basin was set on twelve statues of bulls. There were three statues that faced north, three that faced west, three that faced south, and three that faced east. <sup>5</sup> The sides of the tank were 3 inches thick, and its rim was shaped like a cup that curved outward like the petals of flowers. The basin held about 16,500 gallons of water.

<sup>6</sup> They also made ten basins for washing the animals that were to be sacrificed. The priests used the very large tank for washing themselves.

<sup>7</sup> They also made ten gold lampstands according to what Solomon had instructed them. They put them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north side.

<sup>8</sup> They made ten tables and put them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north side. They also made 100 gold bowls.

<sup>9</sup> They also constructed one courtyard for the priests, and a larger courtyard for the other people. They made doors for the courtyards and covered them with thin sheets of bronze. <sup>10</sup> They placed the very large tank on the south side of the temple, at the southeast corner.

So Hiram and his workers finished the work that King Solomon had given him to do at the temple of God. <sup>12</sup> These were the things that they made:

the two large pillars, the two bowl-shaped top parts on top of the pillars, the two sets of carvings that resembled chains to decorate the tops of the two pillars, <sup>13</sup> the 400 carvings that resembled pomegranates that were placed in two rows, that decorated the bowl-shaped tops of the two pillars,

All those things that Hiram and his workers made for King Solomon were made of polished bronze. <sup>17</sup> They made them by pouring melted bronze into the clay molds that Hiram had set up near the Jordan river between Succoth and Zarethan cities. <sup>18</sup> All of those things that Solomon told them to make used a very large amount of bronze; no one tried to weigh it all.

the golden altar,

the tables on which the priests put the sacred bread,

<sup>20</sup> the pure gold lampstands and the pure gold lamps, in which the priests put oil to burn in front of the Most Holy Place as God had told Moses that the priests should do,

<sup>21</sup> the pure gold decorations that resembled flowers, and the lamps and tongs,

<sup>22</sup> the pure gold wick trimmers and bowls for sprinkling, and dishes and lamp snuffers, the gold doors of the temple and the doors to the main hall.

5

<sup>1</sup> After Solomon's workers had finished building the temple, Solomon put in the temple storage rooms everything that his father David had dedicated to Yahweh—all the silver and gold and all the other things that were used at the temple.

The Sacred Chest was brought to the temple

<sup>2</sup> Then King Solomon summoned to Jerusalem all the elders of Israel, all the leaders of the tribes and of the families/clans. He wanted them to help to bring to the temple Yahweh's Sacred Chest from Zion Hill, where it was in the part of the city called 'The City of David'. <sup>3</sup> So all the leaders of Israel gathered together along with the king, during the Festival of Living in Temporary Shelters, in October.

<sup>7</sup> The priests then brought the Sacred Chest into the Most Holy Place, the inner room of the temple, and they placed it under the wings of the statues of winged creatures. <sup>8</sup> The wings of those statues spread out over the Sacred Chest and over the poles by which it was carried. <sup>9</sup> The poles were very long, with the result that they could be seen by those who were standing at the entrance to the Most Holy Place, but they could not be seen by anyone standing outside the temple. Those poles are still there. <sup>10</sup> The only things that were inside the Sacred Chest were the two stone tablets that Moses had put there at Sinai Mountain, where Yahweh made an agreement with the Israeli people after they came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priests left the Holy Place. All the priests who were there, from every group, had performed the rituals to cause them to be acceptable to God. <sup>12</sup> All the descendants of Levi who were musicians—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, their sons and their other relatives—stood on the east side of the altar. They were wearing linen clothes, and they were playing cymbals, harps, and lyres. There were 120 other priests who were blowing trumpets. <sup>13</sup> The men blowing trumpets, those playing the cymbals and other musical instruments, and the singers, made music together, praising Yahweh and singing this song:

he faithfully loves us forever.”

Then suddenly the temple was filled with a cloud. <sup>14</sup> The glorious radiance of Yahweh filled the temple, with the result that the priests were not able to continue doing their work.

6

<sup>3</sup> Then while all the people stood there, Solomon turned toward the people and he asked God to bless them. <sup>4</sup> He said to them, “Praise Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelis belong, who has caused to happen what he promised to my father David. What he said to David was this:

<sup>5</sup> ‘From the time that I brought my people out of Egypt, I have never chosen a city in Israel in which a temple should be built for people to worship me there. Nor did I choose anyone to be the leader of my Israeli people. <sup>6</sup> But now I have chosen Jerusalem to be the place for people to worship me, and I have chosen you to rule my Israeli people.' "

<sup>7</sup> Then Solomon said, "My father David wanted to build a temple for Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelis belong. <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh said to him, 'You have wanted to build a temple for me, and what you wanted to do was good. <sup>9</sup> However, you are not the one who I want to build the temple; it is one of your own sons who I want to build a temple for me.'

<sup>10</sup> "And Yahweh has done what he promised to do. I have become the king of Israel to succeed my father, and I am ruling the people, like Yahweh promised, and I have arranged for this temple to be built for us to worship Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelis belong. <sup>11</sup> I have put the Sacred Chest in the temple, in which are the stone tablets on which are engraved the Ten Commandments of the agreement that Yahweh made with us Israeli people."

Solomon's prayer to dedicate the temple

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon stood in front of the altar which was in front of the people of Israel who had gathered there. <sup>13</sup> His workers had built a bronze platform there for him to stand on, which was 7-1/2 feet long and 7-1/2 feet wide and 4-1/2 feet high. They put it in the outer courtyard. Solomon stood on that platform and then knelt down in front of all the people of Israel who had gathered there, and he spread out his arms toward heaven, <sup>14</sup> and he prayed,

"Yahweh, the God to whom we Israeli people belong, there is no God like you in heaven or on the earth. You solemnly promised that you would faithfully love us, and that is what you have done for us who earnestly do what you want us to do.

<sup>15</sup> "You have done the things that you promised my father David, who served you very well, that you would do. Truly, you promised to do those things for him, and today we see that by your power you have caused it all to happen.

<sup>16</sup> "So now, Yahweh, the God we Israelis belong to, please do the things that you promised to my father David that you would do. You said that there would always be some of his descendants to rule Israel, if they faithfully conduct their lives as he did. <sup>17</sup> So now, God of us Israeli people, cause what you promised David, who served you well, to happen.

<sup>18</sup> "But, my God, will you really live on earth among people? There is surely not enough space for you in the sky, or even in the heaven! So there is surely not enough space for you to live in this temple that my workers have built. <sup>19</sup> But Yahweh, my God, please listen to my prayer, while I am pleading with you this day and do what I am requesting. <sup>20</sup> Please protect this temple day and night. This is the place about which you have said, 'I will always be there.' Please listen to my prayer about this place. <sup>21</sup> Listen to me when I pray, and listen to your Israeli people when they pray. Listen from heaven, where you live; and when you hear us pray, forgive us.

<sup>22</sup> "If someone is accused of doing something wrong to another person, and they bring him to testify in front of your altar outside this holy temple, and if he says, 'I did not do that; may God punish me if I am not telling the truth,' <sup>23</sup> then you listen from heaven, and you decide who is telling the truth. Then punish the person who is guilty as he deserves to be punished, and declare that the other person is innocent.

<sup>24</sup> "And when your Israeli people are defeated by their enemies because they sinned against you, and forced to go to some distant country, if they turn away from their sinful behavior and turn toward this temple and admit that you have justly punished them, and plead that you will forgive them, <sup>25</sup> listen to them from heaven and forgive your Israeli people for the sins that they have committed, and bring them back to this land that you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>26</sup> “When you do not allow any rain to fall because your people have sinned against you, if they turn toward this temple and admit that you have justly punished them, and turn away from their sinful behavior and humbly pray to you, <sup>27</sup> hear from heaven and forgive the sins of your Israeli people. Teach them the right way to conduct their lives. Then cause it to rain here on the land that you gave to your people to belong to them permanently.

<sup>28</sup> “And when the people of this land experience famines or if there is a plague, or when their crops are destroyed by very hot winds or by mildew or by locusts or grasshoppers, or when their enemies surround any of their cities in order to attack them, if any of those bad things happen to them, <sup>29</sup> when your Israeli people earnestly plead with you, knowing in their inner beings that they are suffering because they have sinned, if they stretch out their hands toward this temple and pray, <sup>30</sup> hear from your home in heaven, and forgive them. You alone know what each person is thinking, so reward each person according to everything that he does, <sup>31</sup> in order that they will revere you and conduct their lives as you want them to, all the time that they live in this land that you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup> “There will be some foreigners who do not belong to your Israeli people who have come here from countries far away because they have heard that you are very great and that you perform great miracles. If they turn toward this temple and pray, <sup>33</sup> from your home in heaven listen to their prayer, and do for them what they request you to do. Do that in order that all the people-groups in the world will know about you and revere you, like we, your own Israeli people do. And then they will know that this is the temple that I have caused to be built for you.

<sup>34</sup> “When you send your people to go to places to attack their enemies, if they pray to you, wherever they are, if they turn toward this city that you have chosen and toward this temple that I have caused to be built to honor you, <sup>35</sup> listen in heaven to their prayers; listen to what they plead for you to do, and assist them.

<sup>36</sup> “It is true that everyone sins. So, when your people sin against you, and you become angry with them, you may allow their enemies to capture them and take them to their countries, even to countries that are far away. <sup>37</sup> When that happens, while they are in the countries to which they were forced to go, if they are sorry for having sinned, if they say, ‘We have sinned; we have done things that are wrong and have done things that are very wicked,’ <sup>38</sup> if they repent very sincerely, and if they turn toward this land that you gave to our ancestors, and toward this city that you have chosen to be the place where we should worship you, and toward this temple that I have caused to be built for you and pray, <sup>39</sup> then from your home in heaven hear their prayer, and listen to them while they plead for your help, and do what they ask you to do, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>41</sup> Yahweh our God, come and stay in this place with the Sacred Chest, the chest that shows that you are powerful.

Yahweh God, cause your priests to know clearly that you have blessed them.

Cause us your people to rejoice because of all the good things that you do for us.

<sup>42</sup> Yahweh God, do not reject me the king whom you have appointed to be the king of Israel;

do not forget that you greatly loved David, who served you very well.”

Solomon dedicated the temple

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from the sky and burned all the offerings and sacrifices that were on the altar, and the glorious radiance of Yahweh filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> The radiance was extremely bright, with the result that the priests could not enter the temple of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> When all the Israeli people who were there saw the fire coming down and the glory of Yahweh above the temple, they prostrated themselves with their faces touching the ground. They worshiped and thanked Yahweh, singing,

<sup>4-5</sup> Then the king and all the people who were there dedicated the temple to Yahweh by offering more sacrifices to him. King Solomon gave 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep and goats to be sacrificed. <sup>6</sup> The priests stood in their positions, and the other descendants of Levi stood in their positions holding the musical instruments to praise Yahweh, instruments that King David had caused to be made for praising Yahweh and thanking him. They sang, “He faithfully loves us forever.” Facing the other descendants of Levi the priests stood, blowing their trumpets, while all the Israeli people were standing and listening.

<sup>7</sup> Solomon dedicated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple. Then he gave offerings to be completely burned there along with the fat of the animals to be sacrificed to maintain fellowship with Yahweh. The priests burned them there in the courtyard because in addition to those things there were offerings of grain, with the result that there was not enough space on the bronze altar to burn all those sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup> Solomon and the other people celebrated the Festival of Living in Temporary Shelters for seven days. There was a huge group of people who celebrated with him. Some of them came from as far away as Lebo-Hamath in the far north and the border of Egypt in the far south. <sup>9</sup> On the eighth/next day they gathered again to worship Yahweh. They had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the Festival of Living in Temporary Shelters for seven days. <sup>10</sup> Then on the next day Solomon sent them to their homes. They were very joyful because of all the good things that Yahweh had done for David and Solomon and for all his Israeli people.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon's workers finished building the temple and Solomon's palace. And Solomon finished doing everything else that he had planned to do. <sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh appeared to him one night in a dream and said to him,

“I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this temple to be the place where my people will offer sacrifices to me.

<sup>13</sup> “When I prevent any rain from falling, or when I command locusts to eat all the crops, or when I send a plague among my people, <sup>14</sup> if the people who belong to me humble themselves and pray, and request me to help them, and if they turn away from their sinful behavior, then I will hear from heaven. I will forgive them for having sinned and I will cause them to prosper again. <sup>15</sup> I [SYN] will see them and I [SYN] will hear them when they pray to me in this place. <sup>16</sup> I have chosen and have ◀set apart/dedicated▶ this temple in order that people may worship [MTY] me there forever. I will always watch over [MTY] it and protect [IDM] it.

<sup>17</sup> “And as for you, if you obey me as David your father did, and if you do all that I command you to do, and obey all my laws and decrees, <sup>18</sup> I will make sure that your descendants will always be kings, which is what I promised to David your father, saying, 'Some of your descendants will always be the kings of Israel.'

<sup>19</sup> "But if you Israelis turn away from me and disobey the decrees and commands that I have given to you, and you start to worship other gods, <sup>20</sup> I will cause you to be expelled from this land that I have given to you, and I will abandon this temple that I have set apart to be the place where people should worship me. I will cause it to be despised and ridiculed by people of all nations. <sup>21</sup> Although this temple is now greatly respected, when that happens, all the people who pass by will be appalled, and they will say, 'Why has Yahweh done terrible things like this to this country and to this temple?' <sup>22</sup> And others will reply, 'It happened because they rejected Yahweh, the God to whom their ancestors belonged, the one who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and they have been worshiping other gods and trying to please them. And that is why Yahweh has caused them to experience all these disasters.' "

Other things that Solomon did

<sup>7</sup> Solomon forced people from many other groups who were not Israelis to work for him like slaves. They were people from the Heth, Amor, Periz, Hiv, and Jebus people-groups. <sup>8</sup> They were descendants of groups whom the Israelis had not completely destroyed. Solomon forced them to become his slaves, and they are still slaves. <sup>9</sup> But Solomon did not force Israelis to work for him. Israelis became his soldiers and commanders of his chariots and his chariot-drivers. <sup>10</sup> They were also King Solomon's chief officials. There were 250 of them, and they supervised the workers.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon moved his wife, who was the daughter of the king of Egypt, from the place outside Jerusalem called 'The City of David' to the place that his workers had built for her. He said, "I do not want my wife to live in the palace that my father King David's workers built, because the Sacred Chest was in that palace for a while, and any place where the Sacred Chest has been is holy."

<sup>12</sup> On the altar that Solomon's workers had built in front of the entrance to the temple, Solomon sacrificed many offerings that were to be completely burned. <sup>13</sup> He did that to obey the rules about what sacrifices Moses had declared should be made. These included sacrifices for every day and for the Sabbath days and to celebrate each day on which there was a new moon and for the three other festivals that were celebrated each year. Those festivals were the Festival of Eating Unleavened Bread, the Harvest Festival, and the Festival of Living in Temporary Shelters. <sup>14</sup> Obeying what his father David had commanded, he appointed the groups of priests for their work, and he appointed the descendants of Levi to lead the people while they sang to praise Yahweh and while they assisted the priests in their daily work. He also appointed groups of them to guard all the gates, because that was also what David, the man who pleased God very well, had commanded. <sup>15</sup> The priests and other descendants of Levi obeyed completely everything that the king commanded, including taking care of the storerooms.

<sup>16</sup> They did all the work of building the temple that Solomon told them to do, until it was all completed. So they finishing building the temple.

<sup>17</sup> Then some of Solomon's men went to Ezion-Geber and Elath cities on the coast of the Red Sea, an area that belonged to the Edom people-group. <sup>18</sup> King Hiram sent to Solomon from Tyre city some ships that were commanded by his officers. They were men who were experienced sailors. These men went in the ships with Solomon's men to the Ophir region and brought back about 17 tons of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

The queen of Sheba visited Solomon

<sup>1</sup> The queen who ruled the Sheba area in Arabia heard that Solomon had become famous, so she traveled to Jerusalem to ask him questions that were difficult to answer. She came with a large group of servants, and she brought camels that were loaded with spices, and valuable gems, and a lot of gold. When she met Solomon, she asked him questions about all the things/topics in which she was interested. <sup>2</sup> Solomon answered all her questions. He explained everything that she asked about, even things that were very difficult.

<sup>9</sup> Then the queen gave to Solomon about 4-1/2 tons of gold and a large amount of spices and gems. Never had King Solomon received more spices than the queen gave him at that time.

<sup>10-12</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba everything that she wanted. He gave her more than she had given to him. Then she and those who came with her returned to her own land.

In the ships that belonged to King Hiram, Hiram's workers and Solomon's workers brought gold from Ophir. They also brought a large amount of juniper wood and gems. King Solomon told his workers to use that wood to make railings in the temple and in his palace and also to make harps and lyres for the musicians. That wood was the the finest wood that had ever been seen in Israel.

Solomon's wealth

<sup>13</sup> Each year there was brought to Solomon a total of 25 tons of gold. <sup>14</sup> That was in addition to the taxes paid to him by the merchants and traders. Also, the kings of Arabia and the governors of the districts in Israel brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup> King Solomon's workers took this gold and hammered it into thin sheets and covered 200 large shields with those thin sheets of gold; they put almost 7-1/2 pounds of gold on each shield. <sup>16</sup> His workers made 300 smaller shields. They covered each of them with almost 4 pounds of gold. Then the king put those shields in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup> His workers also made for him a large throne. Part of it was covered with decorations made from ivory and part of it was covered with very fine gold. <sup>18</sup> There were six steps in front of the throne. There was a gold footstool that was attached to the throne. At each side of the throne there was an armrest, and alongside each armrest there was a small statue of a lion. <sup>19</sup> On the six steps there were twelve statues of lions, one on each side. No throne like that had ever existed in any other kingdom. <sup>20</sup> All of Solomon's cups were made of gold, and all the various dishes in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon were made of gold. They did not make things from silver, because during the years that Solomon ruled, silver was not considered to be valuable. <sup>21</sup> The king had a fleet of ships that sailed with the ships that King Hiram owned. Every three years the ships returned from the places to which they had sailed, bringing gold, silver, ivory, monkeys, and baboons (OR, peacocks).

Solomon's death

<sup>29</sup> Lists of all the other things that Solomon did are recorded in the scrolls written by the prophet Nathan and by the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh city, and in the scroll in which were written the visions that the prophet Iddo saw concerning King Jeroboam. <sup>30</sup> Solomon ruled from Jerusalem all of Israel for 40 years. <sup>31</sup> Then Solomon died and was buried in the part of Jerusalem called 'The City of David'. And his son Rehoboam became the king.

10

The people of Israel rebelled against Rehoboam

<sup>1</sup> All the people of Israel went to Shechem city in order to appoint Rehoboam to be their king. So Rehoboam also went there. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had fled to Egypt to escape from King Solomon. But when he heard about the people wanting to appoint Rehoboam to be their king, he returned to Israel from Egypt <sup>3</sup> So the leaders of the northern tribes summoned him, and he went with them to talk to Rehoboam. They said to Rehoboam, <sup>4</sup> "Your father Solomon forced us to work very hard for him. If you do not force us to work that hard, and if you charge us less taxes than we were paying to him, we will serve you faithfully."

<sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted his older men who had advised his father Solomon while he was still alive. He asked them, "What shall I say to answer these men?"

<sup>7</sup> They replied, "If you will be kind to these people and do things that will please them, and if you say kind things to them when you answer them, they will always serve you."

<sup>8</sup> But he ignored what the older men advised him to do. Instead, he consulted the younger men who had grown up with him, who were now his advisors. <sup>9</sup> He said to them, "How should I answer the men who are asking me to reduce the work and taxes that my father required from them?"

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him replied, "Those men have said that your father forced them to work very hard for him, so they want you to reduce the work and taxes that your father required from them. But this is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>11</sup> What I mean is that my father required you to work hard and pay high taxes. But I will make those loads heavier. It was as though my father whipped you, but I will whip you with whips that have pieces of metal in them.' "

<sup>12</sup> Three days later, Jeroboam and all the leaders came to King Rehoboam again, which is what he had told them to do. <sup>13</sup> The king ignored the advice of the older men and spoke harshly to the Israeli leaders. <sup>14</sup> He told them what the younger men had advised. He said, "My father put heavy burdens of work and taxes on you, but I will put heavier burdens on you. It was as though he beat you with whips, but I will beat you with whips that have pieces of metal in them!" <sup>15</sup> So the king did not pay any attention to the Israeli leaders. But this happened in order that what Yahweh had told the prophet Ahijah about Jeroboam would happen.

<sup>16</sup> When the Israeli leaders realized that the king did not pay any attention to what they said, they shouted,

"We do not want anything to do with this descendant of King David!

We will not pay attention to what this grandson of Jesse says!

You people of Israel, let's go home!

As for this descendant of David, he can rule his own kingdom!"

So the Israeli leaders returned to their homes.

<sup>18</sup> Then King Rehoboam went with Adoniram to talk to the Israeli people. Adoniram was the man who supervised all the men who were forced to work for Rehoboam. But the Israeli people killed him by throwing stones at him. When that happened, King Rehoboam quickly got in his chariot and escaped to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Ever since that time, the people of the northern tribes of Israel have been rebelling against the descendants of King David.

11

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he gathered 180,000 of the best soldiers from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. He wanted them to fight against the northern tribes of Israel and defeat them, in order that he could rule all the tribes of the kingdom again.

<sup>2</sup> But Yahweh spoke to the prophet Shemaiah and said this to him: <sup>3</sup> "Go and tell this to Solomon's son Rehoboam, the king of Judah, and to all the Israeli people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin: <sup>4</sup> 'Yahweh says that you must not go to fight against the people of Israel; they are your distant relatives. All of you must go home. What has happened is what Yahweh wanted to happen.' " So Shemaiah went and told that to them, and they all heeded what Yahweh had commanded them to do, and they did not attack Jeroboam and his soldiers.

Rehoboam fortified cities in Judah

<sup>13</sup> The priests and other descendants of Levi throughout Israel supported Rehoboam. <sup>14</sup> The descendants of Levi who lived outside the territory of Judah and Benjamin abandoned their property and their pastureland, and they came to Jerusalem and to other places in Judah, because Jeroboam and his sons would not allow them to do the work of priests of Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Instead, Jeroboam appointed the priests that he wanted to work at the altars he commanded to be built on the hilltops, to offer sacrifices to the idols that he commanded to be made that resembled goats and calves. <sup>16</sup> And people from every tribe in Israel who wanted to worship Yahweh, the God to whom the Israelis belonged, went with the descendants of Levi to Jerusalem to live there and to offer sacrifices to Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshiped. <sup>17</sup> They caused the kingdom of Judah to be strong, and for three years they were happy that Solomon's son Rehoboam was the king. During that time they conducted their lives righteously as David and Solomon had done previously.

Rehoboam's family

<sup>18</sup> Rehoboam married Mahalath. She was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth, and her mother was Abihail, the daughter of Eliab and granddaughter of Jesse. <sup>19</sup> Rehoboam and Mahalath had three sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup> Later Rehoboam married Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, and they had four sons: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah more than he loved any other of his wives and slave wives. Altogether he had 18 wives and 60 slave wives, and 28 sons and 60 daughters.

<sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed his son Abijah to be the leader of his older and younger brothers, because he wanted to appoint Abijah to be the next king. <sup>23</sup> He very wisely sent some of his other sons to other cities in the areas of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the other cities that had walls around them. He gave them plenty of supplies and many wives.

The army of King Shishak of Egypt invaded Judah

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and the other leaders of Judah who had gathered in Jerusalem because they were afraid of the army of Shishak. Shemaiah said to them, “Yahweh says this: ‘You have abandoned me; so now I am abandoning you, to allow you to be captured by the army of Shishak.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> When Yahweh realized that they had humbled themselves, he gave this message to Shemaiah: “Because they have humbled themselves, I will not allow them to be destroyed. Instead, I will soon rescue them. I will not use Shishak’s army to completely destroy the people of Jerusalem, <sup>8</sup> but they will conquer Jerusalem and force the people there to do what Shishak wants them to do. As a result, the people of Jerusalem will learn that it is better to serve me than to serve the kings of other countries.”

<sup>9</sup> When Shishak’s army attacked Jerusalem, they took/carried away the valuable things that were in the temple of Yahweh and the valuable things that were in the king’s palace. They took everything that was valuable, including the gold shields that Solomon’s workers had made. <sup>10</sup> So King Rehoboam’s workers made bronze shields to be used instead of the gold ones and gave the bronze shields to the commanders of the men who guarded the entrance to his palace. <sup>11</sup> After that, whenever the king went to the temple, the guards went with him, carrying those bronze shields. Then when the king left, they would return the shields to the guards’ room.

<sup>13</sup> King Rehoboam again was in complete control in Jerusalem and continued to be the king of Judah. He was 41 years old when he became the king. He ruled for 17 years in Jerusalem, which is the city that Yahweh had chosen from all the tribes in Israel to be the place in which people were to worship him. <sup>14</sup> Rehoboam’s mother’s name was Naamah. She was from the Ammon people-group. Rehoboam did evil things because he did not try to find out what Yahweh wanted him to do.

King Abijah’s rule in Judah

There was a war between the armies of Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup> Abijah went into the battle, taking 400,000 of his capable soldiers, and Jeroboam prepared to fight them, taking 800,000 of his capable troops.

<sup>4</sup> Abijah stood on the top of Zemaraim Mountain, which is in the hilly area that belonged to the tribe of Ephraim, and he shouted, “Jeroboam and all you other people of Israel, listen to me! <sup>5</sup> You should know that Yahweh, the God to whom all we Israelis belong, has appointed David and his descendants to be the kings of Israel forever. He has confirmed that by making a permanent agreement. <sup>6</sup> But Jeroboam, who was only an official of David’s son King Solomon, rebelled against his king. <sup>7</sup> And when Solomon’s son Rehoboam became king and was still young and inexperienced,

<sup>8</sup> “And now you are planning to fight against the kingdom that Yahweh established to be governed by David’s descendants. It is true that you have a huge army, and you and your soldiers have brought with you the golden statues of calves that Jeroboam’s workers made to be gods for all of you. <sup>9</sup> But you expelled the priests that Yahweh appointed, men who are descendants of Aaron the first Supreme Priest, and you expelled the descendants of Levi, and you appointed the priests that you wanted, like the people of other countries do. You allow anyone to become a priest of idols that are not gods if he comes to dedicate himself to be a priest by sacrificing a young bull and seven rams.

<sup>10</sup> “As for us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not abandoned him. Our priests who serve Yahweh are descendants of Aaron, and the descendants of Levi assist them. <sup>11</sup> Every morning and every evening they present to Yahweh offerings to be completely burned on the altar, and they burn fragrant incense. Each week they place the sacred bread on the sacred table, and each morning they light the lamps that are on the gold lampstand. We are obeying what Yahweh our God requires us to do. But you have abandoned him. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh is with us; he is our leader. The priests whom he has appointed will blow their trumpets to signal that we are ready to fight a battle against you. You Israeli men, do not fight against Yahweh, the God to whom your ancestors belonged, because you will not be successful and win the battle against him.”

<sup>13</sup> While he was speaking, Jeroboam sent some of his troops around the army of Judah. So while the soldiers who were with Jeroboam were in front of the army of Judah, the other soldiers of Israel were behind the army of Judah. <sup>14</sup> When the soldiers of Judah turned and saw that they were going to be attacked from the front and from the rear, they cried out to Yahweh. The priests blew their trumpets, <sup>15</sup> and the men of Judah shouted a loud battle-cry. Then Yahweh enabled Abijah and the army of Judah to defeat Jeroboam and the army of Israel. <sup>16</sup> The soldiers of Israel fled from the soldiers of Judah, and God enabled the army of Judah to defeat them. <sup>17</sup> Abijah and his troops struck the capable soldiers of Israel and killed 500,000 of them.

<sup>19</sup> Abijah’s army pursued the army of Jeroboam, and they captured from the people of Israel the cities of Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron, and the surrounding villages. <sup>20</sup> During the remaining time that Abijah ruled, Jeroboam did not become powerful again. Then Yahweh caused him to become very ill, and he died.

<sup>22</sup> An account of the other things that Abijah did while he was the king, including what he said and what he did, is in the scroll written by the prophet Iddo.

14

<sup>1</sup> When Abijah died, he was buried in the part of Jerusalem called ‘The City of David’. His son Asa became the king. While Asa was ruling, there was peace in Judah for ten years.

King Asa’s rule in Judah

<sup>4</sup> Asa commanded the people of Judah to worship only Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshiped, and to obey his laws and commands. <sup>5</sup> His workers destroyed all the shrines on the hilltops and the altars for burning incense to idols in every town in Judah. As a result, there was peace while Asa ruled the kingdom of Judah. <sup>6</sup> His workers built cities and constructed walls around them. No army attacked Judah during that time, because Yahweh enabled them to have peace.

<sup>7</sup> Asa said to the people of Judah, "We should protect these towns by building walls around them, with watchtowers and gates that have bars. This country still belongs to us because we have requested Yahweh our God to help us. We requested him for his help, and he has given us peace in our entire country." So they built buildings and prospered.

<sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah. They all carried large shields and spears. He also had 280,000 men from the tribe of Benjamin in his army. They carried smaller shields, and bows and arrows. They were all brave soldiers.

<sup>11</sup> Then Asa cried out to Yahweh his God, saying, "Yahweh, there is no one like you who can help those who have very little power to resist a mighty army. Yahweh our God, help us, because we are relying on you; and trusting in you we have come to fight against this huge army. Yahweh, you are our God; do not allow anyone to defeat you."

<sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh enabled Asa and the army of Judah to defeat the army from Ethiopia. They fled, <sup>13</sup> and Asa and his army pursued them to the southwest as far as Gerar. A huge number of the soldiers from Ethiopia were killed, with the result that those who were not killed were unable to fight any more. They were greatly defeated by Yahweh and his army, and the men of Judah carried away a great amount of their possessions. <sup>14</sup> The men of Judah were able to destroy the people in villages near Gerar because Yahweh had caused the people there to become terrified and unable to fight. The army of Judah took away all the valuable things from those villages. <sup>15</sup> They also attacked the places where the local people who took care of domestic animals had set up their tents, and they took away big herds of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

The reforms that Asa introduced

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of God came upon Azariah, the son of Obed. <sup>2</sup> Azariah went to talk with Asa, and said to him, "Asa and all you men of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, listen to me. Yahweh is with you whenever you are trusting in him. If you request him to help you, he will help you, but if you abandon him, he will abandon you. <sup>3</sup> For many years the Israeli people did not know the true God, and they did not have priests or God's laws. <sup>4</sup> But when they experienced trouble, they turned to Yahweh our God, and requested him to help them. And he helped them. <sup>5</sup> At that time, people were not safe when they traveled, because all the people who lived in the nearby countries were experiencing many difficulties. <sup>6</sup> The people of various nations were thoroughly defeated by armies of other nations, and people in some cities were crushed by armies from other cities, because God was allowing them to experience many difficulties. <sup>7</sup> But you people, you must be strong and do not become discouraged, because God will reward you for what you do to please him."

<sup>8</sup> When Asa heard what the prophet Azariah said, he was encouraged. He commanded his workers to remove all the detestable idols from everywhere in the land of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, and from the towns that his soldiers had captured in the hills of the tribe of Ephraim. Asa's workers repaired the altar where people offered sacrifices to Yahweh that was in front of the entrance to the temple in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Then he gathered all the people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin and many people from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were living among them. He was able to do that because many people from those tribes in Israel had come to me to Judah when they realized that Yahweh, the God that Asa worshiped, was helping him.

<sup>10</sup> After Asa had been ruling for almost 15 years, in May of that year, those people gathered in Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> At that time they sacrificed to Yahweh 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep and goats, from the animals that they had captured when they defeated the army of Ethiopia/Sudan. <sup>12</sup> They solemnly made an agreement to very sincerely worship Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshiped. <sup>13</sup> They promised to execute all those who would not worship Yahweh, including those who were important and those who were not important, both men and women. <sup>14</sup> They shouted and blew trumpets and other horns while they solemnly promised to do that. <sup>15</sup> All the people who were living in Judah were happy with the agreement because they had solemnly and very sincerely promised to keep it. They eagerly requested help from Yahweh, and he helped them. So he enabled them to have peace throughout their country.

<sup>16</sup> King Asa's grandmother Maacah had made a disgusting pole for worshipping the goddess Asherah. So Asa commanded his workers to cut down that pole and chop it into pieces and burn it in the Kidron Valley. He then did not allow Maacah to continue to influence the people because of her being the mother of the previous king. <sup>17</sup> Although Asa's workers did not get rid of the shrines on the hilltops in Israel, he was very determined to do what pleased Yahweh all his life. <sup>18</sup> He ordered his workers to bring into God's temple all the silver and gold and other valuable items that he and his father had dedicated to God.

The final years that Asa ruled Judah

<sup>1</sup> When Asa had been ruling Judah for almost 36 years, King Baasha of Israel went with his army to attack Judah. They captured the town of Ramah north of Jerusalem and started to build a wall around it, in order to prevent any people from entering or leaving the area in Judah that was ruled by King Asa because the only road into Judah from Israel went through Ramah.

<sup>2</sup> So Asa told his workers to take all the silver and gold that was in the storerooms of the temple and in his own palace, and take and give it to Ben-Hadad, the king of Syria, who was ruling in Damascus. He sent him a message, saying <sup>3</sup> "I want there to be a peace treaty between me and you, like there was between my father and your father. Look, I am sending you a lot of silver and gold. So please cancel the treaty that you have made with Baasha, the king of Israel, in order that he will take his soldiers away from attacking mine, because he will be afraid of your army."

his troops to stop fortifying Ramah and doing other work there. <sup>6</sup> Then King Asa gathered all the men of Judah, and they took away from Ramah all the stones and timber that Baasha's men had been using to build the wall around that town. They took those materials to the town of Geba and the city of Mizpah north of Jerusalem and built walls around them.

<sup>7</sup> At that time the prophet Hanani went to King Asa and said to him, "Because you relied on the king of Syria and not on Yahweh our God, you missed your opportunity to destroy the army of the king of Syria. <sup>8</sup> The huge armies from Ethiopia and Libya with all their chariots and soldiers riding on horses were certainly very powerful. But when you relied on Yahweh, he enabled your army to defeat them. <sup>9</sup> That happened because Yahweh sees what is happening all over the earth, and he strengthens those who completely trust him. You have done a very foolish thing, so from now on other armies will be fighting your army."

<sup>10</sup> Asa was very angry with the prophet because of what the prophet had said. So he commanded his officials to put Hanani in prison. At that same time, he started to treat some of his people very cruelly.

<sup>11</sup> All the things that Asa did while he was ruling, from the time he started to rule until he died, are written in the scroll containing the record of the activities of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup> When Asa had been ruling for almost 39 years, he was afflicted with a disease in his feet. The disease was very severe, but in spite of that, he did not request help from Yahweh. Instead he sought help only from doctors. <sup>13</sup> When he had been ruling for almost 40 years, he died. <sup>14</sup> He was buried in the tomb that his workers had made for him in the part of Jerusalem called 'The City of David'. They laid his corpse on a bed covered with spices and various perfumes that had been mixed together. They also lit a huge fire to honor him.

King Jehoshaphat's rule in Judah

<sup>1</sup> Asa's son Jehoshaphat became the king of Judah, and he enabled his army to become very strong, with the result that they could resist attacks from the army of Israel. <sup>2</sup> He put soldiers in all the cities in Judah around which they had built walls, and he put soldiers in other places in Judah and in the towns in the area belonging to the tribe of Ephraim that soldiers of his father Asa had captured.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh helped Jehoshaphat because when he started to rule Judah, he did the things that pleased Yahweh like his ancestor King David had done. He did not worship the idols of Baal. <sup>4</sup> Instead, he sought advice from the God whom his father had worshiped, and he obeyed God's commands, and did not do the evil things that the kings of Israel continually did. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh enabled him to completely control his kingdom. All the people of Judah brought gifts to him, with the result that he became very rich and was greatly honored. <sup>6</sup> He was completely devoted to doing what pleased Yahweh. His workers got rid of the shrines on the hilltops and the poles for worshipping the goddess Asherah throughout Judah.

<sup>10</sup> The people in all the kingdoms surrounding Judah became very afraid of what Yahweh might do to punish them if they fought against Judah, so they did not start wars with Jehoshaphat's army. <sup>11</sup> Some people from Philistia brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, and they also brought to him the silver that he demanded that they pay to him. Some Arabs brought to him 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats.

Jehoshaphat also placed in Jerusalem soldiers who were experienced. <sup>14</sup> The leaders and numbers from each tribe were as follows:

From the tribe of Judah,

Adnah was the leader of the soldiers, and he commanded 300,000 soldiers.

Eliada, who was a brave soldier, was the leader of the soldiers; he commanded 200,000 men who had bows and arrows and shields.

<sup>19</sup> Those were the soldiers who served the king in Jerusalem, in addition to the men whom the king had placed in the other cities in Judah that had walls around them.

18

The prophet Micaiah warned King Ahab of Israel

<sup>2</sup> Several years later, he went down from Jerusalem to Samaria to visit Ahab. Ahab welcomed him and the people who had come with him by slaughtering many sheep and cattle for a feast. <sup>3</sup> Then he asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you and your army go with my army to attack Ramoth city in the Gilead region?" Jehoshaphat replied, "My soldiers and I will go to the battle when you tell us to go." <sup>4</sup> Then he added, "But we should ask Yahweh first, to find out what he wants us to do."

<sup>5</sup> So the king of Israel gathered all his 400 prophets and asked them, "Should we go to attack the people of Ramoth city, or should we not do that?"

They replied, "Yes, go and attack them because God will enable your army to defeat them."

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel replied, "There is still one man here, whom we can ask to find out what Yahweh wants, his name is Micaiah, the son of Imlah. But I hate him because he never says anything good about me. He always predicts that bad things will happen to me."

Jehoshaphat replied, "King Ahab, you should not say that!"

<sup>9</sup> The king of Israel and the king of Judah were sitting there on their thrones, wearing their royal robes. They were at the place where people threshed grain, near the gate of Samaria city. All of Ahab's prophets were standing in front of them, predicting what was going to happen.

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Listen to me! All the other prophets are unitedly predicting that the king will be successful in the battle. So be sure to agree with them and say that the king's army will be successful!"

<sup>14</sup> When Micaiah arrived, the king of Israel asked him, "Should we go to attack Ramoth, or not?"

Micaiah replied, "Sure, go! Yahweh will enable your army to defeat them!"

<sup>15</sup> But King Ahab realized that Micaiah was lying, so he said to Micaiah, "I have told you many times that you must always tell only the truth when you say what Yahweh has revealed to you!"

<sup>16</sup> Then Micaiah replied, "The truth is that in a vision I saw all the troops of Israel scattered on the mountains. They seemed to be like sheep that did not have a shepherd. And Yahweh said, 'Their master has been killed. So tell them all to go home peacefully.' "

<sup>17</sup> Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I told you that he never predicts that anything good will happen to me! He always predicts that bad things will happen to me."

"Some suggested one thing, and others suggested something else.

<sup>20</sup> "Finally one spirit, having received a message from Satan, came to Yahweh and said, 'I can do it!'

"Yahweh asked him, 'How will you do it?'

<sup>21</sup> "The spirit replied, 'I will go and inspire all of Ahab's prophets to tell lies.' Yahweh said, 'You will be successful; go and do it!'

<sup>22</sup> "So now I tell you that Yahweh has caused your prophets to lie to you. Yahweh has decided that something terrible will happen to you."

<sup>25</sup> King Ahab commanded his soldiers, "Seize Micaiah and take him to Amon, the governor of this city, and to my son Joash. <sup>26</sup> Tell them that I have commanded that they should put this man in prison and give him only bread and water. Do not give him anything else to eat until I return safely from the battle!"

<sup>27</sup> Micaiah replied, "If you return safely, it will be clear that it was not Yahweh who told me what to say to you!" Then he said to all those who were standing there, "Do not forget what I have said to King Ahab!"

<sup>28</sup> So the king of Israel and the king of Judah led their armies to Ramoth, in the Gilead region. <sup>29</sup> King Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I will put on different clothes, in order that no one will recognize that I am the king. But you should wear your royal robe." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they both went into the battle.

19

<sup>1</sup> When King Jehoshaphat was returning safely to his palace in Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> the prophet Jehu, the son of the prophet Hanani, went out of the city to meet the king, and said to him, "It was not right for you to help a wicked man and to love those who hate Yahweh. Because of what you have done, Yahweh is angry with you. <sup>3</sup> But you have done some good things; you got rid of the poles in this country for worshipping the goddess Asherah, and you have strongly determined to do what pleases God."

Jehoshaphat appointed men to settle disputes

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. But one time, like he had done once previously, he went out among all the people in the country, from Beersheba city in the far south to the hilly area of the tribe of Ephraim in the far north, and he convinced them to return to worshipping Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshipped. <sup>5</sup> He appointed judges throughout Judah, in each of the cities that had walls around them. <sup>6</sup> He told them, "Make your decisions carefully, because you are judging cases not in order to please people but to please Yahweh. And he will be watching you whenever you make a decision. <sup>7</sup> So now revere Yahweh, and judge cases carefully, and do not forget that Yahweh our God never acts unjustly, and he never does what people want because of their offering him money; he never accepts bribes."

<sup>8</sup> In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some priests and other descendants of Levi and some leaders of Israeli families to be judges. He told them to do what Yahweh's laws said was right when they settled disputes. Those men lived in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He told them this: "You must always do your work faithfully, revering Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> In every dispute that your fellow Israelis who live in the cities want you to settle, you must warn them to not sin against Yahweh by telling lies during the trial. If you do not warn them, God will punish both you and your fellow Israelis. If you warn them, you will not be sinning. You must warn them whether someone has accused them of murdering someone, or of disobeying some other law or command or decree of Yahweh."

<sup>11</sup> Amariah the Supreme Priest will supervise you in any matter that Yahweh is concerned about, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will supervise you in any matter that I am responsible for. And the descendants of Levi will assist you. Act courageously, and I pray that Yahweh will help those who do their work well."

Jehoshaphat's army defeated armies from Moab and Ammon

<sup>2</sup> Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, "A huge army is coming to attack your army. They are coming from the Edom region, from the eastern side of the Dead Sea. They have already come to Hazazon-Tamar!" Another name for that place is En-Gedi.

<sup>3</sup> Jehoshaphat became very afraid, so he decided to ask Yahweh what he should do. He also proclaimed that all the people of Judah should fast. <sup>4</sup> The people of Judah gathered together to request Yahweh to help them. They came to Jerusalem from every town in Judah to seek help from Yahweh.

"Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors belonged to, you are surely the God who rules from heaven. You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. You have great power, and no one can successfully oppose you. <sup>7</sup> Our God, you expelled the people who lived in this land while your Israeli people advanced, and you certainly gave it to us who are descendants of your friend Abraham, to belong to us forever. <sup>8</sup> We have lived here and have built a temple where we, your people, worship you. We said, <sup>9</sup> 'If we experience disasters, either from our enemies attacking us or from you punishing us, or if we experience a plague or a famine, we will stand in your presence in front of this temple that is built to honor you, and we will cry out to you when we are distressed/suffering, and you will hear us and will rescue us.'

<sup>10</sup> You would not allow our Israeli ancestors to enter the countries of Ammon and Moab and Edom when they were traveling from Egypt to Canaan. So our ancestors turned away from those areas and did not attack the people there and did not destroy them. But now they are coming here to attack us. <sup>11</sup> We did not destroy them. But now look at how they are repaying us by trying to expel us from the land that you gave to our ancestors to belong to them and their descendants forever. <sup>12</sup> So, our God, please punish them, because we do not have enough power to resist/defeat this huge army that is coming to attack us. We do not know what to do. But we are pleading for you to help us."

<sup>14</sup> Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon Jahaziel, who was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Benaiah, who was the son of Jeiel, who was the son of Mattaniah. He was a descendant of Levi and a descendant of Asaph. He stood up in front of the whole group that was gathered there, <sup>15</sup> and said, "King Jehoshaphat and all you who live in Jerusalem and in other places in Judah, listen! This is what Yahweh says to you: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this huge army that is coming to attack you, because it is not you who will win this battle. It is God who will win it.

<sup>16</sup> Tomorrow march down toward them. They will be climbing up through Ziz Pass north of En-Gedi. You will meet them at the end of the gorge near the Jeruel Desert.

<sup>17</sup> But you will not need to fight this battle. You soldiers from Jerusalem and other places in Judah, just take your positions, and then stand still and watch what will happen. You will see Yahweh rescue you. Do not be afraid or discouraged. March toward them tomorrow, and Yahweh will be with you.' "

<sup>18</sup> Jehoshaphat prostrated himself with his face touching the ground, and all the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah who were there knelt down to worship Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> Then some descendants of Levi who were descendants of both Kohath and Korah stood up and loudly praised Yahweh, the God whom the Israelis belonged to.

<sup>20</sup> Early the next morning the army left to go to the desert near Tekoa town. While they were leaving, Jehoshaphat stood up and said to the people, "You people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah, listen to me! Trust in Yahweh our God; if you do that, you will be strong. Trust in what his prophets have said; if you do that, you will be successful." <sup>21</sup> Then, after consulting with some of the people, he appointed some men to go in front of the army, singing to Yahweh and praising him because of his being holy and wonderful. They were singing,

"Thank Yahweh,
because he faithfully loves us forever."

<sup>22</sup> When they began to sing and praise Yahweh, Yahweh caused the soldiers from Ammon and Moab and Edom who were invading Judah to panic, with the result that they were defeated. <sup>23</sup> The soldiers from Ammon and Moab started to fight against the soldiers from Edom, and they completely annihilated the soldiers from Edom. After they finished slaughtering the men from Edom, they started to attack each other.

<sup>25</sup> So Jehoshaphat and his soldiers went to take the possessions of their enemies, and they saw that there was a lot of equipment and clothing and other valuable things; there was more than they could carry away. There were very many things, with the result that it took three days for them to collect it all. <sup>26</sup> The following day they gathered in Beracah Valley and praised Yahweh there. That is why that valley is still called Beracah, which means praise.

<sup>27</sup> Then while Jehoshaphat led them, all the soldiers who were from Jerusalem and other places in Judah returned to Jerusalem. They were happy because Yahweh had enabled them to defeat their enemies. <sup>28</sup> When they arrived at Jerusalem, they went to the temple, playing harps and lutes and trumpets.

<sup>29</sup> People in the kingdoms of the nearby countries became very afraid when they heard how Yahweh had fought against the enemies of the Israelis. <sup>30</sup> Then there was peace in the kingdom that was ruled by Jehoshaphat, because God had caused the surrounding nations not to attack it.

The final years that Jehoshaphat ruled

<sup>31</sup> Jehoshaphat continued to rule Judah. He was 35 years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for 25 years. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup> He did things that were pleasing to Yahweh, like his father Asa had done, and he did not stop doing those things. <sup>33</sup> But he did not get rid of the shrines on the hilltops, and many of the people still did not faithfully do what the God whom their ancestors belonged to wanted.

<sup>34</sup> A record of the other things that Jehoshaphat did while he ruled, from when he began to rule until he died, is in the scrolls written by the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani. They are also in the scroll called "The History of the Kings of Israel."

<sup>35</sup> During his reign, Jehoshaphat made a treaty with Ahaziah, the king of Israel, who was a very wicked king. <sup>36</sup> They agreed that their workers would build a fleet of ships to use to buy and sell things with other countries. After those ships were built at Ezion-Geber on the Gulf of Aqaba, <sup>37</sup> Eliezer the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah city warned Jehoshaphat. He said, "You have made an alliance with Ahaziah, who is a wicked king. Therefore, Yahweh will destroy the ships that your workers have made." And the ships were wrecked, and were not able to sail to other countries.

King Jehoram of Judah

<sup>4</sup> After Jehoram was completely in control of his father's kingdom, he had all of his younger brothers executed, along with some of the leaders of the nation. <sup>5</sup> Jehoram was 32 years old when he became the king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. <sup>6</sup> But he did many of the evil things that the kings of Israel had done. He did many things that Yahweh considers to be evil, things that the family of Ahab had done, because he married one of Ahab's daughters. <sup>7</sup> However, because of the agreement that Yahweh had made with King David, Yahweh did not want to get rid of the descendants of David. He had promised that David's descendants would always be the ones who ruled Judah.

<sup>12</sup> One day, Jehoram received a letter from the prophet Elijah. Elijah had written this in the letter:

"This is what Yahweh, the God whom your ancestor King David worshiped, says: 'You have not done things that please me like your father Jehoshaphat did or what King Asa did. <sup>13</sup> Instead, you have continually done the evil things that the kings of Israel have done. You have encouraged the people in Jerusalem and other places in Judah to stop worshiping Yahweh, like the descendants of Ahab did. You have also murdered your own brothers, who were more righteous men than you are.

<sup>14</sup> So now Yahweh is about to very severely punish the people in your kingdom and even your own children and your wives and everything that you own. <sup>15</sup> And you yourself will have an intestinal disease that will continue to become worse, and you will suffer from it until you die.' "

<sup>18</sup> After that happened, Yahweh caused Jehoram to be afflicted with an intestinal disease that no one could cure. <sup>19</sup> About two years later, while he was in great pain, he died because of that disease. The people of Judah had made bonfires to honor his ancestors when they died, but they did not make a bonfire for Jehoram.

<sup>20</sup> Jehoram was 32 years old when he became the king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. No one was sorry when he died. His corpse was buried in the part of Jerusalem called 'The City of David', but he was not buried where the other kings of Judah had been buried.

King Ahaziah of Judah

<sup>1</sup> The people of Jerusalem appointed Jehoram's youngest son Ahaziah as their king, because the men from Philistia who had invaded Judah with some Arabs had killed all of Jehoram's other sons. So Ahaziah started to rule Judah.

<sup>3</sup> King Ahaziah conducted his life just like the members of Ahab's family had done, because his mother encouraged him to do things that are evil. <sup>4</sup> He did things that Yahweh considers to be evil, like the descendants of Ahab had done, because after Ahaziah's father died, they became his advisors. And Ahaziah died as a result of heeding their bad advice. <sup>5</sup> He also did what they advised when he went with Joram, the son of King Ahab of Israel, to fight against the army of Hazael, the king of Syria, at Ramoth-Gilead.

<sup>6</sup> Then King Ahaziah went down to Jezreel city to see Joram, the son of King Ahab, because he had been wounded. <sup>7</sup> It was during that visit that God caused Ahaziah to die. When Ahaziah arrived, he went with Joram to meet Jehu, the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had appointed to kill all the descendants of Ahab. <sup>8</sup> While Jehu and the men who were with him were killing the descendants of Ahab, they found the leaders of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives who had been working for Ahaziah, and they killed all of them. <sup>9</sup> Then Jehu went to find Ahaziah, and his soldiers found Ahaziah while he was hiding in Samaria city. They brought him to Jehu and executed him. Then they buried his corpse, because they said, "He deserves to be buried, because he was a descendant of Jehoshaphat, who tried hard to please Yahweh." There were no descendants of Ahaziah who were powerful enough to become the kings of Judah.

Athaliah and Joash

<sup>10</sup> When Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son had been killed, she commanded that all the members of Ahaziah's family who might become king must be executed. <sup>11</sup> But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram, took Joash, Ahaziah's very young son, away from the other sons of the king who were about to be murdered, and she hid him and his nursemaid in a bedroom in the temple. Because Jehosheba, who was the daughter of King Jehoram and the wife of the Supreme Priest Jehoiada, was Ahaziah's sister, she hid the child, with the result that Athaliah could not kill him. <sup>12</sup> He remained hidden there for six years while Athaliah ruled Judah.

The revolt against Athaliah

<sup>1</sup> After Joash had been hidden in the temple for six years, Jehoiada the priest decided that it was necessary to do something. So he made an agreement with the army commanders of groups of 100 soldiers: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zicri. <sup>2</sup> They went throughout Judah and gathered the descendants of Levi and the leaders of Israeli families from all the towns. When they came to Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> the whole group went to the temple and made an agreement with the young king there. Jehoiada said to them, "This is the son of the previous king of Judah. So he is the one who must rule, like Yahweh promised that the descendants of King David must do.

<sup>4</sup> "So this is what you must do: One-third of you priests and other descendants of Levi who are starting their work on the Sabbath day must guard the doors of the temple. <sup>5</sup> One-third of you must guard the king's palace, and one-third of you must guard the Foundation Gate. All the other people will be in the courtyards outside the temple. <sup>6</sup> Only the priests and the descendants of Levi who work there will enter the temple. They will be allowed to enter the temple because they are set apart for that work. All the others must remain in the courtyards, obeying what Yahweh has commanded. <sup>7</sup> You descendants of Levi must stand around the young king, each of you with your weapon in your hand. Anyone else who tries to enter the temple you must kill. And stay close to the young king, wherever he goes."

<sup>8</sup> So the descendants of Levi and all the men of Judah did what Jehoiada had told them. He did not allow anyone to go home after having finished his work on that Sabbath day. Each commander took charge of his men, the ones who were finishing their work on that day and those who were starting their work on that day. <sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada gave each of the commanders the spears and the large and small shields that had been put there in the temple by King David. <sup>10</sup> He commanded all the guards to stand in their positions, each with his sword in his hand, all around the king—around the altar and the temple, from the north side to the south side.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jehoiada and his sons brought Joash out. They put a crown on his head and gave him a scroll on which were written the rules that the kings needed to obey, and proclaimed that he was now the king. They anointed him with olive oil and shouted, "We hope that the king will live for many years!"

<sup>14</sup> Jehoiada the Supreme Priest said to the army commanders, "Kill her, but do not kill her at the temple of Yahweh!" Then he said to them, "Bring Athaliah out in front of the troops and kill anyone who tries to follow her!" <sup>15</sup> She tried to flee, but they seized her as she reached the gate where horses enter the palace area, and they killed her there. <sup>16</sup> Then Jehoiada made an agreement that he and the king and all the other people would be Yahweh's people. <sup>17</sup> Then all the people who were there went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars of Baal. They also killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of those altars.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehoiada appointed the priests, who were also descended from Levi, to work at the temple. They were part of the group to whom King David had given various jobs at the temple, to sacrifice the animals that were to be completely burned on the altar, doing what was written in the laws that Moses had given to them. He also told them to rejoice and sing, which was also what David had commanded. <sup>19</sup> He also put guards at the gates of the temple in order that anyone who was unacceptable to God would not be allowed to enter.

<sup>20</sup> Jehoiada took with him the army commanders, the important men, the leaders and many others, and brought the king down from the temple. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate, and put the king on his throne. <sup>21</sup> Then all the people of Judah rejoiced. And there was calm throughout the city, because Athaliah had been killed.

King Joash of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Joash was seven years old when he became the king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for 40 years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba city. <sup>2</sup> Joash did what pleased Yahweh as long as Jehoiada was the Supreme Priest. <sup>3</sup> Jehoiada chose two women to be Joash's wives. And they bore Joash sons and daughters.

<sup>4</sup> Some years later, Joash decided that the temple should be repaired. <sup>5</sup> He summoned the priests and other descendants of Levi and said to them, "Go to the towns in Judah and collect from the people the tax money that they are required to pay each year, and use that money to pay for repairing the temple. Do it immediately." But the descendants of Levi did not do it immediately.

<sup>6</sup> So the king summoned Jehoiada and said to him, "Why have you not required the descendants of Levi to bring to Jerusalem from various places in Judah the annual/yearly tax that Moses said that the people of Judah must pay, for taking care of the Sacred Tent?"

<sup>7</sup> The temple needed to be repaired because the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had entered into the temple and had wrecked some of the things, and had also used some of the sacred items that were in it for the worship of Baal.

<sup>8</sup> So, obeying what the king commanded, the descendants of Levi made a chest and placed it outside the temple, at one of the entrances. <sup>9</sup> Then the king sent letters everywhere in Judah, requesting everyone to bring their tax money to the temple, like Moses had required the Israeli people to do when they were in the desert. <sup>10</sup> All the officials and the other people agreed, and they brought their contributions gladly. They put the money into the chest until it was full. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the descendants of Levi brought the chest to the king's officials, and they saw that there was a lot of money in it, the king's secretary and the assistant to the Supreme Priest would take all the money from the chest, and then put the chest back in its place. They did this frequently, and they collected a huge amount of money. <sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave the money to the men who were supervising the work of repairing the temple. Those men hired stoneworkers and carpenters to repair the temple. They also hired men who worked with iron and bronze to repair things in the temple that were broken.

<sup>13</sup> The men who did the repair work worked hard, and the work of repairing the temple progressed. They rebuilt the temple so that it was like it was originally, and they even made it stronger. <sup>14</sup> When they had finished the repair work, they brought to the king and to Jehoiada the money that they had not used for the repairs. That money was used to make things to use for offering the sacrifices that were completely burned on the altar, and to make bowls and other gold and silver things for the temple. As long as Joash lived, the people continually brought to the temple sacrifices that were to be completely burned on the altar.

<sup>15</sup> Jehoiada lived to become very old. He died when he was 130 years old. <sup>16</sup> He was buried where the kings had been buried, in the part of Jerusalem called 'The City of David'. He was buried there because of the good things that he had done in Judah for God and for God's temple.

Joash and the people of Judah turned away from Yahweh

<sup>17</sup> After Jehoiada died, the leaders of Judah went to Joash, bowed in front of him, and persuaded him to do what they wanted. <sup>18</sup> So they and the other people stopped worshiping at the temple, and they started worshiping the poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah and other idols. Because of their doing those sinful things, God was very angry with the people of Jerusalem and with the people in other places in Judah. <sup>19</sup> Although Yahweh sent prophets to persuade them to return to him, and although the prophets told them about the evil things that they had done, the people would not pay attention.

<sup>20</sup> Then God's Spirit came upon Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the Supreme Priest. He stood up front of the people and said, "This is what God says: 'Why are you disobeying what I, Yahweh, have commanded? You have abandoned me, so I will abandon you.' "

<sup>23</sup> Near the end of that year (OR, early in the following year), the army of Syria marched to attack the army of Joash. They invaded Judah and attacked Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They seized many valuable things and sent them to their king in Damascus, their capital city. <sup>24</sup> The army of Syria that came to Judah was very small, but Yahweh allowed them to defeat the large army of Judah, because he was punishing Joash and the other people of Judah for having abandoned him, the God whom their ancestors worshiped. <sup>25</sup> Before the battle ended, Joash was severely wounded. Then his officials decided to kill him for murdering Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the Supreme Priest. They killed him while he was in his bed. He was buried in the part of Jerusalem called 'The City of David', but they did not bury him in the place where the other kings had been buried.

<sup>26</sup> Those who conspired to kill him were Zabad the son of Shimeath, who was a woman from the Ammon people-group, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith, who was a woman from the Moab people-group. <sup>27</sup> An account of the things that were done by the sons of Joash and the many prophecies about Joash and what he did to repair the temple are written in the scroll called 'the History of the Kings of Judah and Israel'. Then after Joash died, Amaziah his son became the king.

King Amaziah of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Amaziah was 25 years old when he became the king of Judah, and he ruled from Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Amaziah did many things that pleased Yahweh, but he did not do them enthusiastically. <sup>3</sup> As soon as he was in complete control of his kingdom, he caused to be executed the officials who had murdered his father. <sup>4</sup> But he did not command their sons to be executed; he obeyed what was in the laws that Moses had written. In those laws Yahweh had commanded, "People must not be executed because of what their children have done, and children must not be executed for what their parents have done. People must be executed only for the sins that they themselves have committed."

<sup>5</sup> Amaziah summoned the men of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin to come to Jerusalem, and there he put them in groups, each clan in a group by themselves. Then he appointed officers to command each group. Some officers commanded 100 men and some commanded 1,000 men. They counted the men who were at least 20 years old; altogether there were 300,000 men. They were all men who were prepared to be in the army, and able to fight well, using spears and shields. <sup>6</sup> Amaziah also hired 100,000 capable soldiers from Israel and paid almost four tons of silver for them.

<sup>7</sup> But a prophet came to him and said, “Your majesty, you must not allow those soldiers from Israel to march with your soldiers, because Yahweh does not help the people of the tribe of Ephraim or from anywhere else in Israel. <sup>8</sup> Even if your soldiers go and fight courageously in battles, God will cause your enemies to defeat you; do not forget that God has the power to help armies or to cause them to be defeated.”

<sup>9</sup> Amaziah asked that prophet, “If I do that, what about the huge amount of silver that I paid to hire those soldiers from Israel?”

The prophet replied, “Yahweh is able to pay you back more money than you paid to hire those soldiers.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Amaziah became brave, and he led his army to the Salt Valley. There they killed 10,000 men from the Edom people-group. <sup>12</sup> The army of Judah also captured 10,000 others, and took them to the top of a cliff and threw them all down over the cliff, with the result that their corpses were all smashed to pieces.

<sup>13</sup> While that was happening, the soldiers from Israel whom Amaziah had sent home after not allowing them to fight along with his soldiers, raided cities and towns in Judea, from Samaria city to Beth-Horon town. They killed 3,000 people and took away a great amount of valuable things.

<sup>14</sup> When Amaziah returned to Jerusalem after his army had slaughtered the soldiers from Edom, he brought the idols that were worshiped by the people of Edom. He set them up to be his own gods. Then he bowed down to worship them and offered sacrifices to them. <sup>15</sup> Because of that, Yahweh was very angry with Amaziah. He sent a prophet to him, who said, “Why do you worship these foreign gods that were not even able to save their own people when your army attacked them?”

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, the king said to him, “We certainly did not appoint you to be one of my advisors. So stop talking! If you say anything more, I will tell my soldiers to kill you!”

So the prophet said, “I know that God has determined to get rid of you, because you have begun to worship idols, and have not heeded my advice.” Then the prophet said nothing more.

<sup>18</sup> But Jehoash replied to King Amaziah, “One time a thistle growing in the mountains in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar tree saying, ‘Let your daughter marry my son.’ But a wild animal in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle under its feet.

<sup>19</sup> The meaning of what I am saying is that you are saying to yourself that your army has defeated the army of Edom, so you have become very proud. But you should stay at your home. It would not be good for you to cause trouble, which would result in you and your kingdom of Judah being destroyed.”

<sup>20</sup> But Amaziah refused to heed Jehoash's message. That happened because God wanted Jehoash's army to defeat them, because they were worshiping the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup> So Jehoash's army attacked. Their two armies faced each other at Beth-Shemesh city in Judah. <sup>22</sup> The army of Judah was badly defeated by the army of Israel, and all the soldiers of Judah fled to their homes. <sup>23</sup> King Jehoash's army also captured King Amaziah there. Then he brought Amaziah to Jerusalem, and his soldiers tore down the wall that was around the city, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. That was a section that was about 600 feet long. <sup>24</sup> His soldiers also carried away the gold and silver and other valuable furnishings from the temple which the descendants of Obed-Edom had previously been guarding. They also took away the valuable things in the palace, and they took to Samaria some prisoners whom they had captured.

King Uzziah of Judah

<sup>1-2</sup> After King Amaziah died, all the people of Judah appointed his son Uzziah, who then was 16 years old, as their king. One of the things that happened while he was the king was that his men captured Elath town on the Gulf of Aqaba and rebuilt it.

<sup>3</sup> Uzziah ruled in Jerusalem for 52 years. His mother was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Uzziah did things that Yahweh considered to be good, like his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup> He tried to please God while the priest Zechariah was living, because Zechariah taught him to revere God. As long as Uzziah tried to please God, God enabled him to be successful.

<sup>9</sup> Uzziah's workers built watchtowers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the place where the wall turns, and they placed weapons in them. <sup>10</sup> They also built watchtowers in the desert and dug many wells. They did that to provide water for a lot of the king's cattle that were in the foothills and in the plains. Uzziah liked farming, so he also stationed workers to take care of his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile areas.

<sup>11</sup> Uzziah's army was trained for fighting battles. They were in groups that were always ready to go into battle. Jeiel, the king's secretary, and Maaseiah, one of the army officers, counted the men and placed them in groups. Hananiah, one of the king's officials, was their commander. <sup>12</sup> There were 2,600 leaders of those groups of soldiers. <sup>13</sup> In the groups that those leaders commanded there were a total of 307,500 well-trained soldiers. It was a very powerful army which was ready to help the king fight against his enemies. <sup>14</sup> Uzziah gave to each soldier a shield, a spear, a helmet, a vest made of iron plates, a bow and arrows, and a slingshot. <sup>15</sup> In Jerusalem his skilled workers made machines to put on the watchtowers and on the corners of the walls, to shoot arrows and to hurl large stones. He became very famous even in distant places, because God helped him very much and enabled him to become very powerful.

<sup>16</sup> But because Uzziah was very powerful, he became very proud, and that led to his being punished. He disobeyed what Yahweh his God had commanded. He went into the temple to burn incense on the altar where God had said that only the priests should burn incense. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the Supreme Priest and 80 other brave priests followed him into the temple. <sup>18</sup> They rebuked him and said to him, "Uzziah, it is not right for you to burn incense to honor Yahweh. That duty is only for the priests, those who are descendants of Aaron our first Supreme Priest! You must leave immediately, because you have disobeyed Yahweh our God, and he will not honor you for what you have done!"

<sup>19</sup> Uzziah had in his hand a pan for burning incense. He became very angry with the priests, but suddenly there was leprosy on his forehead. <sup>20</sup> When Azariah the Supreme Priest and all the other priests who were there looked at him, they saw the leprosy on his forehead, so they quickly took him outside. And truly the king was eager to leave the temple, because he knew that it was Yahweh who had caused him to have that leprosy, and he did not want it to become worse.

<sup>21</sup> King Uzziah had leprosy until he died. And because he had leprosy, he lived in a house that was not near other houses, and he was not allowed to enter the courtyard of the temple. His son Jotham supervised the palace and ruled the people of Judah.

<sup>22</sup> A record of all the other things that Uzziah did while he was the king of Judah was written by the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. <sup>23</sup> Because Uzziah was a leper, when he died, they would not bury him in the tombs where the other kings were buried. Instead, he was buried in a nearby cemetery that the kings owned. Then his son Jotham became the king of Judah.

King Jotham of Judah

<sup>2</sup> Jotham did many things that pleased Yahweh like his father Uzziah did. He obeyed Yahweh and did things that are right. He did many things that his father Uzziah had done, but he did not burn incense in the temple, like his father had done. However, the people of Judah continued to sin against Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> During the time that Jotham was the king of Judah, his army attacked and defeated the army of the Ammon people-group. Then, every year during the next three years, he required the Ammon people-group to pay to him four tons of silver, 60,000 bushels of wheat, and 60,000 bushels of barley.

<sup>7</sup> A record of everything else that Jotham did during the time that he was the king, including the wars that his army fought, is written in the scroll called 'the History of the Kings of Israel and Judah'. <sup>8</sup> After Jotham had ruled Judah for 16 years, he died when he was 41 years old. <sup>9</sup> He was buried in Jerusalem, and his son Ahaz became the king of Judah.

King Ahaz of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Ahaz was 20 years old when he became the king of Judah. He ruled from Jerusalem for 16 years. His ancestor King David was a good king, but Ahaz was not like David. He constantly disobeyed Yahweh <sup>2</sup> and was as sinful as the kings of Israel had been. He made idols of the god Baal. <sup>3</sup> He burned incense in Hinnom Valley. He even killed some of his own sons and offered them as sacrifices to be completely burned. That imitated the disgusting customs of the people-groups who previously lived there, people whom Yahweh had expelled as the Israelis advanced through the land. <sup>4</sup> Ahaz offered sacrifices to idols at shrines on hilltops and under every big green tree.

The army of the king of Israel also defeated the army of Judah and killed very many of their soldiers. <sup>6</sup> In one day the army of Remaliah's son, King Pekah of Israel, killed 120,000 soldiers in Judah. That happened because the people of Judah had abandoned Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshipped. <sup>7</sup> Zicri, a warrior from the tribe of Ephraim, killed king Ahaz's son Maaseiah, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, the king's assistant. <sup>8</sup> The soldiers of Israel captured 200,000 of the people of Judah, including many wives and sons and daughters of the soldiers of Judah. They also seized and took back to Samaria many valuable things.

<sup>9</sup> But a prophet of Yahweh whose name was Obed was there in Samaria. He went out of the city to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "Because Yahweh, the God whom your ancestors belonged to, was angry with the people of Judah, he allowed you to defeat them. But God has seen the cruel way that you slaughtered them. <sup>10</sup> And now you want to sin by causing men and women from Judah to become your slaves, but you have certainly also sinned against Yahweh our God! <sup>11</sup> So listen to me! Send back to Judah your fellow-countrymen whom you have captured, because Yahweh is extremely angry with you for what you did to them."

<sup>14</sup> So, while their leaders and others were watching, the soldiers released the prisoners, and also gave back to them the valuable things that they had captured. <sup>15</sup> The leaders who were selected took some of the clothes that the soldiers had taken from the prisoners and gave those clothes back to the people who were naked. They also gave to the prisoners sandals and other clothes and things to eat and drink, and they gave them olive oil to rub on their wounds. They gave donkeys to those who were very weak, in order that they could ride on them. Then they led them all to Jericho, the city that had many palm trees. Then those leaders of Israel returned to Samaria.

and attacked Judah and taken away many of the people of Judah as prisoners. <sup>18</sup> At the same time, men from Philistia had raided/attacked towns in the foothills and in the southern desert of Judah. They had captured Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, and Gederoth cities, as well as Soco, Timnah and Gimzo towns and the nearby villages. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh allowed those things to happen in order to humble king Ahaz, because he had encouraged the people of Judah to do wicked things and had disobeyed Yahweh very much. <sup>20</sup> Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, sent his army saying that they would help Ahaz, but instead of helping him, they caused him to experience trouble. <sup>21</sup> Ahaz's soldiers took some of the valuable things from the temple and from the king's palace and from other leaders of Judah and sent them to the king of Assyria to pay him to help them, but the king of Assyria refused to help Ahaz.

<sup>22</sup> While King Ahaz was experiencing those troubles, he disobeyed Yahweh even more. <sup>23</sup> He offered sacrifices to the gods that were worshiped in Damascus, whose army had defeated his army. He thought, "The gods that are worshiped by the kings of Syria have helped them, so I will offer sacrifices to those gods in order that they will help me." But worshiping those gods caused Ahaz and all of Israel to be ruined.

<sup>24</sup> Ahaz gathered all the furnishings that were used in the temple and broke them into pieces. He locked the doors of the temple and set up altars for worshiping idols at every street corner in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup> In every town in Judah, his workers built shrines to burn sacrifices to other gods, and that caused Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshiped, to be very angry.

<sup>26</sup> A record of the other things that Ahaz did while he was the king, from when he started to rule until he died, is written in the scroll called 'The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel'. <sup>27</sup> Ahaz died and was buried in Jerusalem, but he was not buried in the tombs where the other kings had been buried. Then his son Hezekiah became the king.

King Hezekiah of Judah

Hezekiah purified the temple

<sup>3</sup> During March of the first year that Hezekiah was ruling Judah, he unlocked the doors of the temple, and his workers repaired them. <sup>4</sup> Then he gathered the priests and other descendants of Levi in the area on the east side of the temple, <sup>5</sup> and he said to them, "You descendants of Levi, listen to me! Consecrate yourselves. And then consecrate the temple of Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors worshiped/belonged to. Remove from the temple all the things that are not pleasing to God. <sup>6</sup> Our ancestors disobeyed God; they did many things that he considered to be evil, things that were not pleasing to him. They abandoned this place where Yahweh lives, and they have turned away from him. <sup>7</sup> They locked the doors of the temple and extinguished the lamps. They did not burn any incense, and they did not offer any sacrifices that were to be completely burned on the altar. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, Yahweh has become very angry with us people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah, and he has caused other people to become frightened and horrified when they hear what Yahweh did to punish us. And they ridicule us. You know this very well. <sup>9</sup> That is why our fathers have been killed in battles, and our sons and daughters and our wives have been captured and taken to other countries. <sup>10</sup> But now I intend to make an agreement with Yahweh, our God, in order that he will no longer be angry with us. <sup>11</sup> You who are like my sons, do not waste any time. Do immediately what Yahweh wants you to do. Yahweh has chosen you to stand in his presence and offer sacrifices and burn incense."

From the descendants of Kohath there were Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah.

From the descendants of Merari there were Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel.

From the descendants of Gershon there were Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah.

From the descendants of Asaph there were Zechariah and Mattaniah.

From the descendants of Jeduthun there were Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup> When those men had gathered their fellow descendants of Levi and had consecrated themselves, they entered the temple in order to consecrate it. That was what the king had commanded them to do, and they were also obeying what Yahweh had commanded. <sup>16</sup> The priests entered the temple to consecrate it. They brought out into the courtyard of the temple everything that they had found in the temple that was not pleasing to Yahweh. Then the descendants of Levi took those things down to the Kidron Valley and burned them there. <sup>17</sup> The priests and other descendants of Levi started this work on the first day of March and finished purifying the courtyard of the temple on the eighth day of that month, and they finished purifying the temple one week later.

<sup>25</sup> The king then told the descendants of Levi to stand in the temple with their cymbals and harps and lyres, obeying what David and his prophets Gad and Nathan had commanded. Those were things that Yahweh had told his prophets that the descendants of Levi should do. <sup>26</sup> So the descendants of Levi went and stood in the temple, ready to play the musical instruments that King David had given to them. And the priests were ready to blow their trumpets.

<sup>27</sup> Then Hezekiah told some of the priests to burn the animals that would be sacrificed on the altar. When they started to burn the animals, the people started to sing to praise Yahweh, while the other descendants of Levi were playing their instruments. <sup>28</sup> All the people who were there bowed to worship Yahweh, while the singers sang and the trumpeters blew their trumpets. They continued to do this until they had finished slaughtering all the animals that would be completely burned.

<sup>31</sup> Then Hezekiah said, "You have now dedicated yourselves to Yahweh. So come close to the temple and bring animals to be sacrificed and other offerings to thank Yahweh for what he has done for you." And those who wanted to bring animals to be completely burned on the altar brought them.

<sup>32</sup> Altogether they brought 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 male lambs to be completely burned on the altar. <sup>33</sup> The other animals that they brought were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep and goats that were set apart to be sacrifices. <sup>34</sup> But there were not enough priests to remove the skins from the animals that would be completely burned on the altar. So their fellow descendants of Levi helped them until that work was finished, and until other priests had purified/consecrated themselves to do that work. It was necessary for them to do that because many of the priests had not yet performed the rituals to consecrate themselves for that work, like the descendants of Levi had done.

<sup>35</sup> In addition to the all the offerings that were completely burned on the altar, the priests also burned the fat of the other animals that were sacrificed to maintain good fellowship with Yahweh, and the usual wine offerings.

So the worship at the temple began again. <sup>36</sup> And Hezekiah and all the other people of Judah celebrated, because God had enabled them to do all those things very quickly.

Preparations to celebrate the Passover Festival

<sup>1-3</sup> The king and his officials and all the other people who had gathered in Jerusalem wanted to celebrate the Passover Festival. But they were not able to celebrate it at the usual time, because many of the priests had still not performed the rituals to purify themselves; therefore they were not allowed to do serve in the festival. Also, everyone had still not come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover. So they decided to celebrate it one month later than usual. <sup>4</sup> The king and all the other people who had gathered thought that was a good plan. <sup>5</sup> So they decided to send messages to all the towns in Judah and in Israel, from Beersheba in the far south to Dan in the far north, including towns in the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, to invite people to come to the temple in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover Festival to honor Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people worshiped/belonged to. Many of the people had not previously celebrated that festival, even though it had been written in the laws of Moses that they should do that.

“You Israeli people, you who survived after being slaves of the kings of Assyria, return to Yahweh, the God whom our great ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob worshiped/belonged to, in order that he may return to you. Your fathers and brothers did not faithfully obey Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors worshiped.<sup>7</sup> Do not act like they did, because what they did caused other people to become disgusted with them.<sup>8</sup> Do not be stubborn as our ancestors were. Do what Yahweh desires. Come to Jerusalem to the temple, which he has set apart forever. Do what pleases Yahweh our God, in order that he will no longer be angry with you.<sup>9</sup> If you return to Yahweh, the people who have captured our brothers and sisters and our children will be kind to them, and allow them to return to this land. Do not forget that Yahweh our God is kind and merciful. If you return to him, he will no longer reject you.”

<sup>10</sup> The messengers went to all the towns in the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far north as the tribe of Zebulun, and gave them this message, but most of the people there scorned them and ridiculed them.<sup>11</sup> But some of the people of the tribes of Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.<sup>12</sup> Also in Judah God motivated the people to be united in wanting to do what Yahweh wanted them to do, which is what the king and his officials had told them to do in the message that they sent.

They celebrated the Passover Festival

<sup>13</sup> So a huge crowd of people gathered in Jerusalem in May, to celebrate the Festival of Eating Unleavened Bread.<sup>14</sup> They removed the altars of Baal in Jerusalem and took away the altars for burning incense to honor other gods, and burned them in Kidron Valley.

<sup>15</sup> They slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of that month. Some of the priests and the other descendants of Levi were ashamed because they had not performed the rituals to cause them to be acceptable to work for Yahweh. So they performed those rituals, and brought to the temple animals to be completely burned on the altar.

<sup>16</sup> Then they stood at the places where Moses had written in his laws that they should stand. Then the descendants of Levi gave to the priests bowls containing blood of the animals that were being sacrificed, and the priests sprinkled the altar with some of the blood.<sup>17</sup> Many people in the crowd had not purified themselves, and therefore they were not able to kill the lambs and dedicate them to Yahweh. So it was necessary for the descendants of Levi to kill the lambs for them.<sup>18</sup> Although most of the people who had come from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Issachar had not purified themselves, they ate the food of the Passover Festival anyway, ignoring the rules written by Moses. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying “Yahweh, you always do what is good; I pray that you will forgive everyone<sup>19</sup> who sincerely wants to honor you, the God whom our ancestors worshiped, even if they have not purified themselves by obeying the sacred laws that you gave to us.”<sup>20</sup> And Yahweh heard what Hezekiah prayed; he forgave the people, and did not punish them.

<sup>21</sup> The Israeli people who were there in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Eating Unleavened Bread for seven days. They rejoiced greatly as they celebrated, while the priests and other descendants of Levi sang to Yahweh every day, and played musical instruments to praise God.

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah thanked all the descendants of Levi for doing this work for Yahweh, and for very skillfully leading the people who were worshipping. For those seven days the people ate the Passover food and brought offerings to maintain fellowship with Yahweh and praised Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors belonged to/had worshiped.

<sup>23</sup> Then the whole group decided to celebrate for seven more days, so they did: They celebrated joyfully for seven more days. <sup>24</sup> King Hezekiah provided 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to be slaughtered for the people to eat during the festival, and the officials also gave them 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep and goats. Many priests consecrated themselves. <sup>25</sup> All the people of Judah rejoiced, including the priests and other descendants of Levi and all the people from Israel who had come, and including some from other countries who were living in Israel and some from other countries who were living in Judah. <sup>26</sup> Everyone in Jerusalem was very joyful, because nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem since the time when David's son Solomon was the king of Israel. <sup>27</sup> The priests and the other descendants of Levi stood up to bless the people, and God heard them in heaven, the holy place where he lives.

31

<sup>1</sup> After the festival ended, the Israelis who were there went to all the towns in Judah and smashed the stones/pillars for worshiping idols, and cut down the poles for worshiping the goddess Asherah. They destroyed the shrines on the hilltops and the altars of Baal throughout the areas where the tribes of Judah and Benjamin lived, and also in the areas of the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh. After destroying all of them, they returned to their own towns.

The offerings for the priests and Levites

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah divided the priests and other descendants of Levi into groups. He appointed some of the groups to offer sacrifices that would be completely burned on the altar and offerings to maintain fellowship with Yahweh. He appointed some groups to do other work at the temple: some to lead the people in their worship, some to thank Yahweh, and some to sing songs to praise to Yahweh at the gates of the temple. <sup>3</sup> The king contributed some of his own funds to buy animals that would be sacrificed in the morning and in the evening of each day, and on the Sabbath days, to celebrate the new moons, and during the other feasts, according to what was written in the laws that Yahweh gave to Moses. <sup>4</sup> Hezekiah told the people living in Jerusalem to give to the priests and the other descendants of Levi the portions of meat that should be given to them, in order that they could devote all their time to obeying the laws of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> As soon as he told that to the people, they generously gave the first part of their harvest of grain, and the first part of the new wine that they produced, and olive oil and honey, and of the crops that grew in their fields. They brought to the temple a tenth of all their crops. <sup>6</sup> The men of Israel and Judah who were living in various towns in Judah also brought a tenth of their cattle and sheep and goats, and a tenth of other things that they had dedicated to Yahweh their God, and they piled all those things in heaps. <sup>7</sup> They started to do that in May and finished doing it in September. <sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and his officials saw the heaps, they praised Yahweh and requested God to bless the people.

<sup>9</sup> But Hezekiah asked the priests and other descendants of Levi, "Why are these heaps of things here?" <sup>10</sup> Then Azariah the Supreme Priest, a descendant of Zadok, replied, "Since the time that the people started to bring their offerings to the temple, we have had even more food than we need. This has happened because Yahweh has greatly blessed our fellow Israelis, with the result that all this is left over after we priests and other descendants of Levi took all that we need!"

<sup>11</sup> Then Hezekiah ordered that they should prepare storerooms in the temple. So they did that. <sup>12</sup> Then they brought into the storerooms all the tithes and offerings and the things dedicated to Yahweh which the people had brought. One of the descendants of Levi whose name was Conaniah was in charge of those things, and his younger brother Shimei was his assistant. <sup>13</sup> Those two men supervised Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath and Benaiah while they did the work. They were appointed by King Hezekiah; Azariah was in charge of everything that was done in the temple.

<sup>14</sup> Kore the son of Imnah, another descendant of Levi, who guarded the east gate of the temple, was in charge of the offerings to God that were made voluntarily. He distributed to the priests and other descendants of Levi the offerings and other things that were dedicated to Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah faithfully assisted him in the towns where the priests lived. They distributed those things to the groups of their fellow priests; they distributed them to everyone, from the youngest to the oldest.

<sup>16</sup> They also distributed things to the males who were at least 30 years old, those whose names were written on the scrolls where lists of family names were written. They were males who were allowed to enter the temple to perform their tasks/work each day, the tasks that each group had been assigned to do. <sup>17</sup> The names of the priests were on the scrolls where their clans' names were written. They also distributed things to groups of other descendants of Levi, those who were at least 20 years old. <sup>18</sup> They included all their little children and wives and other sons and daughters whose names were on the scrolls where their clans' names were written, because they also faithfully had dedicated themselves to Yahweh.

<sup>19</sup> Hezekiah also appointed other men to distribute portions of those offerings to the priests and other descendants of Levi who were living in the pasturelands around the towns in Judah. But they gave things only to those who were descendants of Aaron the first Supreme Priest, whose names were on the scrolls containing the names of their clans.

<sup>20</sup> That is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah. He always faithfully did things that Yahweh his God considered to be right and good. <sup>21</sup> In everything that he did for the worship in the temple, and as he obeyed God's laws and commands, he tried to find out what his God wanted, and he worked energetically. So he was successful.

The army of King Sennacherib of Assyria invaded Judah

<sup>1</sup> After King Hezekiah had obeyed Yahweh's instructions and had done all those things, King Sennacherib of Assyria came with his army and invaded Judah. He commanded his soldiers to surround the cities that had walls around them, thinking that they would break through those walls and conquer those cities. <sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come with his army and that they intended to attack Jerusalem, <sup>3-4</sup> he consulted with his officials and army leaders. They said among themselves, "Why should we allow the king of Assyria and his army to come and find plenty of water to drink?" So they decided to stop the water from flowing outside the city. So a large group of men gathered together and blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through that area. <sup>5</sup> Then they worked hard to repair all the sections of the city wall that had been broken, and they built watchtowers on the walls. They built another wall outside/around the wall that was already outside the city, and they strengthened the defenses on the sloping terraces on the east side of the area called 'The City of David'. They also made a large number of weapons and shields.

<sup>6</sup> Hezekiah appointed army commanders, and he gathered them in front of him in the square at one of the city gates, and he encouraged them by saying this to them: <sup>7</sup> “Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged on account of the king of Assyria and the huge army that is with him, because Yahweh is with us, and his power is greater than their power. <sup>8</sup> They have to rely on the power of humans, but we have Yahweh our God to help us and to fight battles for us.” So the people became more confident because of what Hezekiah, the king of Judah, said.

<sup>9</sup> Later, when Sennacherib and all his soldiers were surrounding Lachish city, he sent some officers to Jerusalem to give this message to King Hezekiah and to all the people of Judah who were there:

<sup>10</sup> “I am Sennacherib, the great king of Assyria, and this is what I say: ‘While you are staying in Jerusalem, my soldiers are surrounding the city. So why [RHQ] are you so confident? <sup>11</sup> Hezekiah says to you, “Yahweh our God will save us from being defeated by the army of the king of Assyria,” but he is misleading you. He wants you to die from having no food or water. <sup>12</sup> Isn’t Hezekiah the one who told his men to get rid of your god Yahweh’s shrines and altars on the hilltops, saying to you people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah, “You must worship at only one altar and burn sacrifices on only that altar”?’

<sup>13-14</sup> ‘Do you people not know what I and my ancestors have done to all the people-groups in other countries? We destroyed them all, and none of the gods of those nations were ever able to prevent my troops from conquering them! So how can your god prevent my soldiers from conquering you? <sup>15</sup> So do not allow Hezekiah to deceive you like this. Do not believe what he says, because no god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to rescue his people from being conquered by my army and the armies of my ancestors. So certainly your god will not be able to rescue you from my power’ .”

<sup>16</sup> Sennacherib’s officers said more things to belittle Yahweh the God of the Israelis and Hezekiah, who served God well. <sup>17</sup> King Sennacherib wrote more letters insulting Yahweh, the God whom the Israelis belonged to/worshipped. He said things like this: “The gods worshipped by the people-groups in other countries did not rescue their people from my power. Similarly, the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my power.” <sup>18</sup> Then King Sennachereb’s officers shouted in the Hebrew language to the people who were on the wall, in order to cause them to be terrified, thinking that as a result the army of Assyria could capture the city without a battle. <sup>19</sup> They belittled the God worshipped by the people of Jerusalem as they belittled the gods of the other people-groups of the world—saying that they were only idols made by humans.

<sup>20</sup> Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah cried out to God, praying about this. <sup>21</sup> And that night Yahweh sent an angel who killed all the soldiers of Assyria and their leaders and their officers in the place where the king of Assyria and his army had set up their tents. So the king of Assyria left and returned to his own country, very disgraced. And one day when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons struck him with their swords and killed him.

<sup>22</sup> That is how Yahweh rescued Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the power of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and from their other enemies. Yahweh took care of them (OR, gave them peace) everywhere in the country. <sup>23</sup> Many people brought offerings for Yahweh to Jerusalem, and also brought valuable gifts for King Hezekiah. And from that time, Hezekiah was highly respected/honored by the people of all the other nations.

Hezekiah became proud

<sup>24</sup> About that time, Hezekiah became very ill. He was about to die. But he prayed to Yahweh, and Yahweh answered his prayer. He performed a miracle and healed Hezekiah. <sup>25</sup> But Hezekiah [SYN] was very proud, and he did not thank Yahweh for being kind to him. Therefore Yahweh was angry with him and and punished him and the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah. <sup>26</sup> Then Hezekiah said that he was sorry for being proud, and the people of Jerusalem also said that they were sorry for their sins. So Yahweh did not punish them during the remaining years that Hezekiah was their king.

Hezekiah became very rich

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah became very rich and was greatly honored. His workers made storerooms for his silver and gold, and for his very valuable stones, and for spices and shields and other valuable things. <sup>28</sup> His workers also built buildings to store the grain and wine and olive oil that people produced and brought to him. They also made stalls for various kinds of cattle and pens for his flocks of sheep and goats. <sup>29</sup> They built towns and acquired for the king many flocks of sheep and goats and herds of cattle, because God had enabled him to become very rich.

<sup>32</sup> A record of the other things that happened while Hezekiah was ruling, and the things that he did to please God, is on the scroll in which is written the vision that Yahweh gave to the prophet Isaiah. It is also written in the scroll called 'The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel'. <sup>33</sup> When Hezekiah died, he was buried in the tombs where the most respected kings of Judah were buried. Everyone in Jerusalem and other places in Judah honored him. Then his son Manasseh became the king.

King Manasseh of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was 12 years old when he became the king of Judah, and he ruled from Jerusalem for 55 years. <sup>2</sup> He did many things that Yahweh considered to be evil. He imitated the disgusting things that were formerly done by the people-groups that Yahweh had expelled from Israel as his people advanced through the land. <sup>3</sup> He commanded his workers to rebuild the shrines for worshiping idols that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. He told them to set up altars to honor the statues of Baal, and to make altars to honor the goddess Asherah. He bowed down to worship all the stars. <sup>4</sup> He directed his workers to build altars for foreign gods in the temple, about which Yahweh had said, "It is here in Jerusalem that I want people to worship me, forever." <sup>5</sup> He directed that altars for worshiping all the stars be built in both of the courtyards outside the temple. <sup>6</sup> He even sacrificed some of his own sons and burned them in a fire in Hinnom Valley. He performed rituals to practice sorcery. He asked fortune-tellers for advice. He performed witchcraft. He talked to people who consulted the spirits of people who had died to find out what would happen in the future. He did many things that Yahweh considered to be very evil, things that caused Yahweh to become very angry.

<sup>7</sup> Manasseh took a carved idol that his workers had made and put it in the temple. That is the temple concerning which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "My temple will be here in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen where I want people to worship me, forever. <sup>8</sup> If they will obey all the laws and decrees and regulations that I told Moses to give to them, I will not again force the Israeli people to leave this land that I gave to their ancestors." <sup>9</sup> But Manasseh led the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah to do things that are wrong, with the result that they did more evil than was done by the people in the people-groups that Yahweh had expelled as the Israeli people advanced through the land.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke to Manasseh and the people of Judah, but they paid no attention. <sup>11</sup> So Yahweh caused the army commanders of Assyria and their soldiers to come to Jerusalem, and they captured Manasseh. They put a hook in his nose and put bronze chains on his feet and took him to Babylon. <sup>12</sup> There, while he was suffering, he humbled himself greatly in the presence of Yahweh, the God whom his ancestors worshiped, and pleaded with Yahweh to help him. <sup>13</sup> When he prayed, Yahweh heard him and pitied him. So he allowed him to return to Jerusalem and to rule his kingdom again. Then Manasseh realized that Yahweh is an all-powerful God.

<sup>14</sup> Later, Manasseh's workers rebuilt the eastern section of the outer wall around Jerusalem, and they made it higher. That section extended from Gihon Spring north to the Fish Gate, and around the part of the city that they called Ophel Hill. Manasseh also appointed army officers to guard each of the cities in Judah that had walls around them. <sup>15</sup> Manasseh's workers removed from the temple the idols and the stone statues of gods of other nations. Manasseh also told them to remove the altars that they had previously built on Zion Hill and in other places in Jerusalem. He had all those things thrown out of the city. <sup>16</sup> Then he told them to repair the altar of Yahweh, and he offered sacrifices to restore fellowship with Yahweh and to thank him. And he told the people of Judah that they must worship only Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> The people continued to offer sacrifices on the hilltops, but only to Yahweh their God.

<sup>18</sup> The other things that happened while Manasseh was ruling, including his prayer to God and the messages from Yahweh that the prophets gave to him, are written in the scroll called 'The History of the Kings of Israel'. <sup>19</sup> What Manasseh prayed and how God pitied him because he pleaded to God, and also his sins and ways in which he disobeyed God, and the list of places where he built shrines and set up poles to honor the goddess Asherah and other idols before he humbled himself, are written in what the prophets wrote. <sup>20</sup> Manasseh died and was buried in his palace. Then his son Amon became the king of Judah.

King Amon of Judah

<sup>21</sup> Amon was 22 years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for two years. <sup>22</sup> He did things that Yahweh considered to be evil, like his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped all the idols that Manasseh's workers had made. <sup>23</sup> But he did not humble himself and turn to Yahweh like his father did. So he became more sinful than his father had been.

<sup>24</sup> Then Amon's officials made plans to kill him. They assassinated him in his palace. <sup>25</sup> But then the people of Judah killed all those who had assassinated Amon, and they appointed his son Josiah to be their king.

King Josiah of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he became the king of Judah. He ruled from Jerusalem for 31 years. <sup>2</sup> He did things that were pleasing to Yahweh and conducted his life like his ancestor King David had done. He fully obeyed [IDM] all the laws of God.

<sup>3</sup> When he had been ruling for almost eight years, while he was still a young man, he began to worship God like his ancestor King David had done. Four years later, he began to get rid of all the pagan shrines on hilltops in Jerusalem and in other places in Judah, and the poles to honor the goddess Asherah, and the carved idols and statues of gods. <sup>4</sup> While he directed them, his workers tore down the altars where people worshiped Baal. They smashed the altars that were near those altars, where people burned incense. They smashed the poles to honor the goddess Asherah and the idols and statues. They smashed them to bits and scattered the bits over the graves of those who had offered sacrifices to them. <sup>5</sup> They burned the bones of the priests who had offered sacrifices; they burned them on their own altars. In that way Josiah caused Jerusalem and other places in Judah to be acceptable places to worship Yahweh again. <sup>6</sup> In the towns in the tribes of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far north as the tribe of Naphtali and in the ruins around all those towns, <sup>7</sup> Josiah's workers tore down the pagan altars and the poles to honor the goddess Asherah, and crushed the idols to powder. They also smashed to pieces all the altars for burning incense throughout Israel. Then Josiah returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> When Josiah had been ruling for almost 18 years, he did something else to cause the land and the temple to be acceptable places to worship Yahweh. He sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the governor of the city and Joah the son of Joahaz, who wrote on a scroll what happened in the city, to repair the temple of Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup> They went to Hilkiyah the Supreme Priest and gave him the money that had been brought to the temple. That was the money that the descendants of Levi who guarded the doors of the temple had collected from the people of the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim and other places in northern Israel, and also from all the people in Jerusalem and other places in the tribes of Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>10</sup> Then Hilkiyah gave some of the money to the men who had been appointed to supervise the work of repairing the temple. The supervisors paid the men who did the repair work. <sup>11</sup> They also gave some of the money to the carpenters and builders to buy the cut stones and the timber for the joists and the beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to decay.

<sup>12</sup> The workers did their work faithfully. Their supervisors were Jahath and Obadiah, who were descendants of Levi's son Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, who were descendants of Levi's son Kohath. All the other descendants of Levi, those who played musical instruments well, <sup>13</sup> supervised all the workers as they did their various jobs. Some of the descendants of Levi were secretaries and some kept records and some guarded the gates of the temple.

The scroll containing God's laws was found

<sup>14</sup> While they were giving to the supervisors the money that had been taken to the temple, Hilkiyah the Supreme Priest found a scroll on which were written the laws that Yahweh had told Moses to give to the people. <sup>15</sup> So Hilkiyah said to Shaphan, "I have found in the temple a scroll on which are written the laws that God gave to Moses!" Then Hilkiyah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup> Shaphan took the scroll to the king and said to him, "Your officials are doing everything that you told them to do. <sup>17</sup> They have taken the money that was in the temple, and they have given it to the men who will supervise the workers who will repair the temple.”<sup>18</sup> Then Shaphan said to the king, “I have brought to you a scroll that Hilkiyah gave to me.” And Shaphan started to read it to the king.

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiyah and the others went to talk with a woman whose name was Huldah, who was a prophetess who lived in the newer part of Jerusalem. Her husband Shallum who was the son of Tikvah, took care of the robes that were worn in the temple.

<sup>23</sup> When they told her what the king had said, she said to them, “This is what Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: ‘Go back and tell the king who sent you<sup>24</sup> that this is what Yahweh says: “Listen to this carefully. I am going to cause a disaster to strike Jerusalem and all the people who live here. I will cause them to experience the curses that were written in the scroll that was read to the king of Judah.<sup>25</sup> I will do that because they have rejected me, and they burn incense to honor other gods. They have caused me to become very angry because of all the idols that they have made (OR, because of all the wicked things that they have done), and my anger is like a fire that will not be extinguished.<sup>26</sup> The king of Judah sent you to ask what I, Yahweh, want. Go and tell him that this is what I, Yahweh, the God whom you Israelis worship, say about what you read:<sup>27</sup> “Because you heeded what was written in the scroll, and you humbled yourself when you heard what I said to warn about what would happen to this city and the people who live here, and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you.<sup>28</sup> So I will allow you to die and be buried peacefully. I will cause a great disaster to strike this place and the people who live here, but you will not be alive to see it.” ’ ”

So they reported her reply to the king.<sup>29</sup> Then the king summoned all the elders of Jerusalem and other places in Judea.<sup>30</sup> They went up together to the temple with the leaders of Judah and many other people of Jerusalem and the priests and other descendants of Levi, from the least important to the most important ones. And while they listened, the king read to them everything that was in the scroll containing God’s laws that had been found in the temple.

<sup>32</sup> Then the king said that everyone who lived in Jerusalem and from the tribe of Benjamin should promise that they also would obey those laws. And they did that, agreeing that they would keep the agreement that God, whom their ancestors had worshiped, had made with them.

<sup>33</sup> Josiah instructed his workers to remove all the detestable idols from everywhere in the land of the Israeli people, and he commanded that all the people from Israel who were there should worship only Yahweh their God. And as long as Josiah was alive, the people did what was pleasing to Yahweh, the God whom their ancestors worshiped.

Josiah led them in celebrating the Passover Festival

<sup>8</sup> His officials also voluntarily contributed animals for the people and the priests and the other descendants of Levi. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials who were in charge of the temple, gave to the priests 2,600 lambs and 300 cattle to be sacrifices for the Passover. <sup>9</sup> And Conaniah along with his younger brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the leaders of the other descendants of Levi, provided 5,000 lambs and 500 cattle for the other descendants of Levi, to be sacrifices for the Passover.

<sup>15</sup> The musicians, who were descendants of Asaph, stood in their places, as King David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's prophet had commanded. The men who guarded the gates of the temple did not need to leave their places, because their fellow descendants of Levi prepared food for them to eat.

<sup>16</sup> So on that day everything that needed to be done for worshiping Yahweh was done. They celebrated the Passover Festival, and they presented offerings to be completely burned on the altar, which was what Josiah had commanded. <sup>17</sup> The Israelis who were there celebrated the Passover Festival on that day, and for seven days they celebrated the Festival of Eating Unleavened Bread. <sup>18</sup> The Passover Festival had not been celebrated like that in Israel since the time that the prophet Samuel lived. None of the other kings of Israel had ever celebrated the Passover like Josiah did, along with the priests, the other descendants of Levi, and all the other people of Judah and Israel who were there with the people who lived in Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> They celebrated this Passover Festival when Josiah had been ruling for almost 18 years.

The end of Josiah's life

<sup>22</sup> But Josiah would not pay attention to him. Instead, he disguised himself in order to be able to attack the army of Egypt without anyone recognizing him. He did not pay any attention to what God had told Neco to say. Instead, he and his army went to fight Neco's army at the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>23</sup> Some Egyptian archers shot King Josiah. He told his officers, "Take me away from here because I am badly wounded." <sup>24</sup> So they took him out of his chariot and put him in another chariot that he had brought with him, and they took him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs where his ancestors had been buried, and all the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah mourned for him.

<sup>25</sup> The prophet Jeremiah composed a song to mourn for Josiah, and all the men and women singers in Israel still mourn for Josiah by singing that song. That became a custom in Israel; the words of that song are written in a scroll of funeral songs.

<sup>26-27</sup> A record of the other things that happened while Josiah ruled, from the time he started to rule until he died, including how he faithfully honored God by obeying everything that was written in the laws of Yahweh, is in the scroll called 'The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah'.

King Jehoahaz of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of Judah chose Josiah's son Jehoahaz and appointed him as the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became the king, but he ruled from Jerusalem for only three months. <sup>3</sup> King Neco of Egypt captured him and prevented him from ruling any longer. He also forced the people of Judah to pay him a tax of almost four tons of silver and about 75 pounds of gold. <sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt appointed Jehoahaz's younger brother Eliakim to be the king of Judah. He changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. After Neco captured Jehoahaz, he took him to Egypt.

King Jehoiakim of Judah

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became the king of Judah, and he ruled from Jerusalem for 11 years. He did things that Yahweh his God considers to be evil. <sup>6</sup> Then the army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked Jehoiakim's army. They captured Jehoiakim and bound him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers also took valuable things from the temple; they took them to Babylon and put them in king Nebuchadnezzar's palace there.

<sup>8</sup> A record of the other things that happened while Jehoiakim was ruling, the detestable things that he did, including the evil things that people said that he did, is written in the scroll called 'The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah'. After he was taken to Babylon, his son Jehoiachin became the king of Judah.

King Jehoiachin of Judah

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became the king of Judah, and he ruled from Jerusalem for only three months and ten days. He did things that Yahweh considers to be evil. <sup>10</sup> During the spring of the next year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent soldiers to bring him to Babylon. They also took to Babylon many valuable things from the temple of Yahweh. Then Nebuchadnezzar appointed Jehoiachin's uncle, Zedekiah, to be the king of Judah.

King Zedekiah of Judah

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became the king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for 11 years. <sup>12</sup> He did many things that Yahweh his God considered to be evil. And he did not humble himself when the prophet Jeremiah gave him a message from Yahweh to warn him. <sup>13</sup> He would not return to Yahweh, the God that the people of Israel said that they worshiped. Zedekiah also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had forced him to solemnly promise using God's name to be loyal to him. Zedekiah became very stubborn. <sup>14</sup> Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and also the people of Judah became more wicked again, doing all the detestable things that the people of the other nations did, and causing the temple in Jerusalem that Yahweh had caused to be holy to become an unacceptable place to worship him.

Jerusalem was ruined

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh, the God whom the ancestors of the people of Judah belonged to/worshiped, gave messages to his prophets many times, and the prophets told those messages to the people of Judah. Yahweh did that because he pitied his people and did not want his temple to be destroyed. <sup>16</sup> But the people continually made fun of God's messengers. They despised God's messages. They ridiculed his prophets, until finally God became extremely angry with his people, with the result that nothing could stop him from destroying Judah. <sup>17</sup> He incited the king of Babylonia to attack Judah with his army. They killed the young men with their swords, even in the temple. They did not spare/pity anyone, young men or young women or old people. God enabled the army of Nebuchadnezzar to kill all of them. <sup>18</sup> His soldiers took to Babylon all the things that were used in God's temple—big things and little things, all the valuable things, and the valuable things that belonged to the king and his officials. <sup>19</sup> They burned the temple, and they broke down the wall surrounding Jerusalem. They burned all the palaces in Jerusalem and destroyed all the remaining valuable things there.

<sup>23</sup> "I, Cyrus, the king of Persia, declare that Yahweh, the God who rules in heaven, has enabled me to become the ruler of all the kingdoms of this world. And he wants me to command that my workers build a temple {a temple be built} for him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Any of his people living among you people of Persia are allowed to go to Jerusalem. And I will pray that Yahweh will be with them.”

This book contains the account of some of the people of Judah returning to Judah and rebuilding the temple. We call this book
Ezra

Cyrus let the Jews return to Jerusalem

<sup>2</sup> "I, King Cyrus, who rule the Persian Empire, declare this: 'Yahweh, the God who is in/rules from heaven, has caused me to become the ruler of all the kingdoms that I know about on the earth. And he has appointed me to enable his people to build a temple for him in Jerusalem, in Judah land. <sup>3</sup> All you people who belong to God may go up to Jerusalem to rebuild this temple for Yahweh, the God who lives in Jerusalem, the God who is worshiped by you Israeli people. I desire/hope that your God will be with you and help those who go there. <sup>4</sup> Those people who are in places where Israelis are living, whose ancestors were exiled here, should contribute silver and gold to those who go. They should also give them supplies that they will need for the journey to Jerusalem. They should also give them some livestock, and gifts of money to help build the temple of God in Jerusalem.' "

<sup>5</sup> Then God motivated some of the priests and ◀Levites/men who did work in the temple▶ and some of the leaders of the tribes that were descended from Judah and Benjamin to return to Jerusalem. Those whom God motivated got ready to return to Jerusalem and build the temple for Yahweh there. <sup>6</sup> All of their neighbors helped them by giving them things made of silver and things made of gold, and supplies for the journey, and livestock. They also gave them other valuable gifts, and also gave them money to buy things for building the temple. <sup>7</sup> King Cyrus brought out the valuable things that King Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers had taken from the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem and put in the temple of Nebuchadnezzar's gods in Babylon. <sup>8</sup> Cyrus commanded Mithredath, the treasurer of the Persian Empire, to count all these items and then give them to Sheshbazzar, the leader of the group that was going to return to Judah.

- 30 large gold dishes
- 1,000 large silver dishes
- 29 silver ◀censers/incense burning pans▶
- <sup>10</sup> 30 gold bowls
- 410 silver bowls
- 1,000 other items.

<sup>11</sup> All together, there were 5,400 items made of silver or gold, that were given to Sheshbazzar to take with him when he and the others returned to Jerusalem.

The list of groups that returned to Judah

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers had captured many Israeli people and taken them to Babylonia. Many years later, some Israeli people returned to Judah. Some returned to Jerusalem, and some returned to other places in Judah. They went to the towns where their ancestors had lived. This is a list of the groups who returned.

<sup>2</sup> The leaders of those groups were Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah.

There were:

People whose ancestors had lived in these towns in Judah:

<sup>23</sup> 128	from Anathoth
<sup>24</sup> 42	from Azmaveth
<sup>32</sup> 320	from Harim

973	descendants of Jedaiah (that is, those from the family of Jeshua)

The ones from the rest of the tribe of Levi who returned were:

<sup>43</sup> The ◀temple workers/men who would work in the temple▶ who were descendants of these men:

Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

<sup>59</sup> There was another group who returned to Judah from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer towns in Babylonia. But they could not prove that they were descendants of people who previously lived in Israel.

<sup>62</sup> The people in that group searched in the documents that had the names of the ancestors of all the clans, but these men's names were not found. So they were not permitted to do the work that priests did. <sup>63</sup> The governor told them that they would need to ask a priest to consult Yahweh by ◀casting/throwing the sacred lots/stones that had been marked▶, to determine if those men were truly Israelis. When the priests did that, if the stones showed that those men were Israelis, they would be permitted to eat the shares of the sacrifices that were given to the priests.

brought with them from Babylonia 736 horses, 245 mules, <sup>67</sup> 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

<sup>68</sup> When they arrived at the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem, some of the clan leaders gave money for the supplies needed to rebuild the temple at the place where the temple had been previously. <sup>69</sup> They all gave as much money as they were able to give. Altogether they gave 61,000 gold coins, ◀6,250 pounds/3,000 kg.▶ of silver, and 100 robes for the priests.

<sup>70</sup> Then the priests, the other descendants of Levi, the musicians, the temple guards, and some of the other people started to live in the towns and villages near Jerusalem. The rest of the people went to the other places in Israel where their ancestors had lived.

They rebuilt the altar in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> After the Israeli people returned to Israel, and had begun to live in their towns, ◀in the autumn of/after the hot season ended in▶ that year, they all gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Then Jeshua, the son of Jehozadak, and his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his friends, all began to rebuild the altar of God, the one whom the Israeli people worshipped. They did that in order that they could sacrifice burned offerings on it, according to what the prophet Moses had written in the laws that God gave to him. <sup>3-6</sup> Even though they were afraid of the people who were already living in that area, they rebuilt the altar at the same place where the previous altar had been. Before they started to lay the foundation of Yahweh's temple, the priests started to burn sacrifices to Yahweh on the altar. They offered sacrifices every morning and every evening. Fifteen days after they started to offer these sacrifices, the people celebrated the Festival of Living in Temporary Shelters, as Moses had commanded them to do in the laws that God gave to him. Each day the priests offered the sacrifices that were required for that day. In addition, they presented the regular burned offerings and the offerings that were required for the New Moon Festivals and the other festivals that they celebrated each year to honor Yahweh. They also brought other offerings only because they desired to bring them, not because they were required to bring them.

They rebuilt the temple

<sup>7</sup> Then the Israelis hired masons and carpenters, and they bought logs from cedar trees from the people of Tyre and Sidon cities, and they gave those people food and wine and olive oil for the logs. They brought the logs down from the mountains in Lebanon to the Mediterranean seacoast and then floated them along the coast of the Sea, to Joppa. King Cyrus permitted them to do that. Then the logs were brought from Joppa inland up to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> The Israelis started to rebuild the temple in the ◀spring/time before the hot season▶ of the second year after they returned to Jerusalem. Zerubbabel and Jeshua and all the people who had returned to Jerusalem worked on the building. All the ◀Levites/men who did work in the temple▶ supervised this work. <sup>9</sup> Jeshua and his sons and his other relatives, and Kadmiel and his sons, who were descendants of Hodaviah, also helped to supervise the work. The family of Henadad, who were also all Levites, joined with them in supervising this work.

<sup>10</sup> When the builders finished laying the foundation of the temple, the priests put on their robes and stood in their places, blowing their trumpets. Then the Levites, who were descendants of Asaph, clashed/banged their cymbals to praise Yahweh, just as King David had many years previously told Asaph and the other musicians to do.

<sup>11</sup> They praised Yahweh and thanked him, and they sang this song about him:

He faithfully loves us Israeli people, and he will love us forever.”

Then all the people shouted loudly, praising Yahweh because they had finished laying the foundation of Yahweh’s temple. <sup>12</sup> Many of the old priests, Levites, and leaders of families remembered what the first temple was like, and they cried aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid because they knew that the new temple would not be as beautiful as the first temple. But the other people shouted joyfully.

Their enemies opposed rebuilding the temple

<sup>1</sup> The enemies of the people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin heard that the Israeli people who had returned from Babylonia were rebuilding a temple for Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people worshipped. <sup>2</sup> So they went to Zerubbabel the governor and the other leaders, and said deceptively, “We want to help you build the temple, because we worship that same God whom you worship, and we have been offering sacrifices to him since Esarhaddon, the King of Assyria, brought us here.”

<sup>3</sup> But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the other Israeli leaders replied, “We will not allow you to help us build a temple for our(exc) God. We will build it ◀ourselves/without your help▶ for Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, like Cyrus, the King of Persia, told us to do.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the people who had been living in that land before the Israelis returned tried to cause the Jews to become discouraged and become afraid, and to cause them to stop building the temple. <sup>5</sup> They bribed government officials to oppose what the Israelis were doing and prevent them from continuing to work on the temple. They did that all during the time that Cyrus was King of Persia. They continued to do it when Darius became the King of Persia.

Opposition to rebuilding Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup> During the first year that Darius’ son Xerxes was king, the enemies of the Jews wrote a note to the king saying that the Jews were planning to rebel against the government.

<sup>7</sup> Later, when Xerxes’ son Artaxerxes became the King of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and their colleagues/companions wrote a letter to him. They wrote the letter in the Aramaic language, and it was translated into another language that the king knew.

<sup>8</sup> Rehum, the high commissioner, and Shimshai, the provincial secretary, wrote the letter to King Artaxerxes concerning what was happening in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> They stated that the letter was from Rehum the high commissioner/governor and Shimshai the provincial secretary and from their associates, the judges, and other government officials, who were from Erech city, Babylon city, and Susa city in Elam district. <sup>10</sup> They also wrote that they represented the other people-groups whom the army of the great and glorious/famous King Ashurbanipal had ◀deported/forced to move from their homes▶ and taken to live in Samaria and in other cities in the province west of the Euphrates River.

“To King Artaxerxes,

From the officials who serve you who live in the province west of the Euphrates River:

<sup>12</sup> “Your majesty, we want you to know that the Jews who came here from your territories are rebuilding this city, Jerusalem. These people are wicked and want to rebel against you. Now they are repairing the foundations of the walls/buildings and building the walls of the city.

<sup>13</sup> “It is important for you to know that if they rebuild the city and finish building the walls, they will stop paying any kind of taxes. As a result, there will be less money in your treasury. <sup>14</sup> Now, because we are loyal to [IDM] you, and because we do not want you to be humiliated [IDM], we are sending this information to you.

<sup>15</sup> And, we suggest that you order/tell your officials to search the records that your ancestors made/wrote. If you do that, you will find out that the people in this city have always rebelled against the government. You will also find out that from long ago these people have caused trouble for kings and for rulers of provinces. They have always revolted against those who ruled them. That is the reason that this city was destroyed by the Babylonian army. <sup>16</sup> We want you to know that if they rebuild this city and finish building its walls, you will no longer be able to control/rule the people in this province west of the Euphrates River.”

“To Rehum, the high commissioner, and Shimshai, the provincial secretary, and their colleagues in Samaria and in other parts of the province that is west of the Euphrates River: I ◀send you my greetings/wish that things will go well for you▶.

<sup>18</sup> The letter that you sent to me was translated and read to me. <sup>19</sup> So then I ordered my officials to search the records. I have found out that it is true that the people of that city have always revolted against their rulers, and that the city is full of people who have rebelled and caused trouble. <sup>20</sup> Powerful kings have ruled in Jerusalem, and they have also ruled over the whole province west of the Euphrates River. The people in that province were paying all kinds of taxes to those kings. <sup>21</sup> So you must command that the people must stop rebuilding the city. Only if I tell them that they may rebuild it will they be allowed to continue. <sup>22</sup> Do this immediately [LIT], because I do not want those people to do anything to harm the things/area about which I am concerned.”

<sup>23</sup> Messengers took that letter to Rehum and Shimshai and their colleagues and read it to them. Then Rehum and the others went quickly to Jerusalem, and they forced the Jews to stop rebuilding the city wall.

Tattenai's letter to King Darius

<sup>1</sup> At that time two prophets gave messages from God to the Jews in Jerusalem and other cities in Judah. The prophets were Haggai and Zechariah, who was a descendant of Iddo. They spoke those messages representing God, whom the Israelis worshipped/belonged to, the one who was their true king. <sup>2</sup> Then Zerubbabel and Shealtiel led many other people as they started again to rebuild the temple of God in Jerusalem. And God's prophets Haggai and Zechariah were with them and helped them.

<sup>3</sup> Then Tattenai the governor of the province west of the Euphrates River and Shethar-Bozenai his assistant and some of their officials went to Jerusalem and said to the people, “Who has permitted you to rebuild this temple and put furnishings in it?”

<sup>4</sup> They also requested the people to tell them the names of the men who were working at the temple. But the people refused. <sup>5</sup> However, God was taking care of the Jewish leaders, so their enemies were not able to prevent the people from continuing to rebuild the temple. They continued to work while their enemies sent a report to King Darius, and asked him what he wanted them to do about it.

“King Darius, we hope that things are going well for you!

<sup>8</sup> “We want you to know that we went to Judah Province, where the temple of the great God is being rebuilt. The people are building it with huge stones, and they are putting wooden beams in the walls. The work is being done very carefully, and they are progressing well.

<sup>9</sup> “We asked the Jewish leaders, ‘Who has permitted you to rebuild this temple and put furnishings in it?’ <sup>10</sup> And we requested them to tell us the names of their leaders, in order that we could tell you who they were.

<sup>11</sup> “But instead of telling us their leaders’ names, what they said was, ‘We serve the God who created the heaven and the earth. Many years ago a great king who ruled us Israeli people told our ancestors to build a temple here, and now we are rebuilding it.

<sup>12</sup> ““But God, who rules in heaven, allowed the armies of Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylonia, to destroy that temple, because our ancestors did things that caused God to become very angry. Nebuchadnezzar’s army took many of the Israeli people to Babylonia.

<sup>13</sup> ““However, during the first year that Cyrus the King of Babylon started to rule, he decreed that the temple of God should be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup> Cyrus returned to the Jewish leaders all the gold and silver cups that had been taken from the temple in Jerusalem and which had been put in the temple in Babylon. Those cups were given to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom King Cyrus had appointed to be the governor in Judah.

<sup>15</sup> ““The king instructed him to take the cups back to Jerusalem, to the place from which they had previously been taken. He also decreed that they should rebuild the temple at the place where it had been before. So Cyrus appointed Sheshbazzar to be the governor in Judah. He also sent all those things made of gold and silver, for Sheshbazzar to put in the new temple. <sup>16</sup> So Sheshbazzar did that. He came here to Jerusalem, and supervised the men who laid the foundation of the temple. And since that time, the people have been working on the temple, but it is not finished yet.’

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore, your majesty, please order someone to search in the place in Babylon where the important records are kept, to find out whether it is true that King Cyrus decreed that God’s temple should be rebuilt in Jerusalem. Then you can tell us what you want us to do about this matter.”

What King Darius commanded

<sup>1</sup> Later Darius became the ruler of the Persian Empire. When the enemies of the Israelis forced them to stop rebuilding the temple, the Persian officials sent a message to King Darius. They asked him to search the records in the ◀archives/government records▶, in the building where the king stored the important documents, to find out whether King Cyrus had authorized that the temple should be rebuilt. <sup>2</sup> The king commanded someone to search there, but those documents were not there in Babylon. They found a scroll at the fort in Ecbatana, in Media province, that contained the information that they wanted to know.

This is what was written on that scroll:

<sup>3</sup> “During the first year that Cyrus ruled the empire, he sent out a decree concerning the temple of God which is at Jerusalem. In the decree it was stated that a new temple must be built at the same place that the Israeli people previously had offered sacrifices, where the original foundation of the first temple was. The temple must be 90 feet high and 90 feet wide. <sup>4</sup> The building must be made from large stones. After putting down three layers of stones, a layer of timber must be put on top of them. This work will be paid for by money from my treasury. <sup>5</sup> Also, the gold and silver utensils that King Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple of God in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon must be taken back to Jerusalem. They must be put in God’s temple just as they were in the previous temple.”

“This is a message for Tattenai, the governor of the province west of the Euphrates River, and for his assistant Shethar-Bozenai, and for all your colleagues: Stay away from that area! <sup>7</sup> Do not ◀interfere with/hinder▶ the work of building the temple of God! The temple must be rebuilt at the same place where the former temple was. And do not hinder the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews while they are doing this work.

<sup>8</sup> “Furthermore, I declare that you must help these leaders of the Jews as they rebuild this temple of God by giving them funds for the building work.

<sup>9</sup> “The Jewish priests in Jerusalem need young bulls and rams and lambs to sacrifice as they make burned offerings to the God of heaven. You must give them the animals that they need. Also, you must be certain to give them the wheat, salt, wine, and olive oil that they need each day for those sacrifices. <sup>10</sup> If you do that, the Jewish priests will be able to offer sacrifices that please the God who is in heaven, and they will pray that God will bless me and my sons.

They completed and dedicated the temple

<sup>13</sup> Tattenai, the governor of the province, and his assistant Shethar-Bozenai and their colleagues read the message and immediately obeyed the decree of King Darius. <sup>14</sup> So the Jewish leaders continued their work of rebuilding the temple. They were greatly encouraged by the messages that the prophets Haggai and Zechariah preached. The Israelis continued building the temple, just like God had commanded them to do and like King Cyrus had decreed. <sup>15</sup> They finished building it on March 12, during the sixth year that King Darius ruled.

<sup>16</sup> Then the priests and the Levites and all the other Israeli people who had returned from Babylon very joyfully dedicated the temple. <sup>17</sup> During the ceremony to dedicate the temple, they sacrificed 100 young bulls, 200 rams, and 400 lambs. They also sacrificed twelve male goats as an offering in order that God would forgive the sins of the people of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup> Then the priests and Levites were divided into groups that would take turns to serve at the temple. They did this according to what Moses had written many years previously in the laws that he wrote.

They celebrated the Passover Festival

<sup>19</sup> On April 21, the Jews who had returned from Babylon celebrated the Passover Festival. <sup>20</sup> To qualify themselves for offering the sacrifices, the priests and Levites had already purified themselves by performing certain rituals. Then they slaughtered the lambs for the benefit of all the people who had returned from Babylon, for the other priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup> Those who had returned from Babylon and the other people in that land who had turned away from their immoral practices in order to worship Yahweh, the God of the Israeli people, ate the Passover meal. <sup>22</sup> They celebrated the Unleavened Bread Festival of Eating Unleavened Bread for seven days. The Israeli people throughout the land were joyful because Yahweh had changed the attitude of the king of Assyria toward them, and as a result, the king had helped them to rebuild the temple of God, the one whom they worshipped.

Ezra went to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Many/Fifty years later, while Artaxerxes was the king of Persia, I, Ezra came from Babylon here to Jerusalem. I am the son of Seraiah and the grandson of Azariah, and the great-grandson of Hilkiah. <sup>2</sup> Hilkiah was the son of Shallum, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Ahitub, <sup>3</sup> who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Azariah, who was the son of Meraioth, <sup>4</sup> who was the son of Zerariah, who was the son of Uzzi, who was the son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup> who was the son of Abishua, who was the son of Phinehas, who was the son of Eleazar, who was the son of Aaron, the first Supreme Priest. <sup>6</sup> I am a man who knows very well the laws that Moses wrote. Those were the laws that Yahweh, the God whom we Israeli people ◀worship/belong to▶, had given to us Israeli people. When I arrived in Jerusalem, Yahweh my God was kind to me, and as a result the people gave me everything that I had requested the king to tell them to give to me. <sup>7</sup> Some of the priests, some other descendants of Levi, some singers, some ◀gatekeepers/men who guarded the gates of the temple▶, and some men who worked in the temple, and some other Israeli people came up with me here to Jerusalem. That was during the seventh year that Artaxerxes was the king of Persia.

<sup>8-9</sup> We left Babylon on April 8, which was the first day of the Jewish year. Because God was very kind to us, we arrived safely in Jerusalem on August 4 of that year. <sup>10</sup> During my entire life, I devoted myself to studying the laws of Yahweh, and how to obey those laws. I had also taught those laws and all their regulations to the Israeli people for many years.

The letter that Artaxerxes gave to Ezra

<sup>11</sup> King Artaxerxes knew that I am a priest who knows the Jewish laws very well. He knew that for many years I had studied those laws and had taught all the rules and regulations of those laws to the Israeli people. So before I left Babylon to come to Jerusalem, he wrote a letter, and gave a copy to me. This is what he wrote:

<sup>12</sup> "This letter is from me, Artaxerxes, the greatest of the kings. I am giving it to Ezra the priest, who has studied very well all the rules and regulations that the God who is/rules in heaven gave to the Israeli people.

<sup>13</sup> "Ezra, I command that when you return to Jerusalem, any of the Israeli people in my kingdom who want to are allowed to go with you. That includes any priests and

- other* descendants of Levi who will work in the temple who want to go. <sup>14</sup> I, along with my seven counselors/advisors, am sending you to Jerusalem, in order that you can determine what is happening there and in other towns in Judah. You are taking with you [MTY] a copy of God's laws; make sure that the people are doing everything that is written in those laws. <sup>15</sup> We are also saying that you should take with you the silver and gold that I and my advisors are wanting to give to you, in order that you will present it to be an offering to the God who rules the Israeli people and who lives in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> You should also take any silver and gold that the people in the entire Babylonia province give to you, and the money that the priests and other Israeli people have happily said that they would give to you to be offerings for building the temple of their God in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> With this money, you should buy the bulls, rams, lambs, and the grain and wine that the priests will burn on the altar outside the temple of your God in Jerusalem.
- <sup>18</sup> "If there is any silver or gold that remains you have bought all those things, you and your companions/colleagues are permitted to use it to buy whatever you desire, but buy only things that you know that God wants you to buy. <sup>19</sup> We have given to you some valuable items to be used in the temple of your God. Take them also to Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> If you need any other things for the temple, you are permitted to get the money for those things from the building here where my government's money is kept/stored.
- <sup>21</sup> "And I, King Artaxerxes, command this to all the treasurers in the province west of the Euphrates River: 'Give to Ezra, the priest who has studied very well the laws of the God who is/rules in heaven, everything that he requests, and give it to him quickly. <sup>22</sup> The most that you should give to him is ◀7,500 pounds/3,400 kg▶ of silver, 500 bushels of wheat, 550 gallons of wine, and 550 gallons of olive oil, but give to him all the salt that they need. <sup>23</sup> Be sure that you provide whatever their God requires for his temple, because we certainly do not [RHQ] want him to be angry with me or with my descendants who will later be kings. <sup>24</sup> We are also commanding that none of the priests, descendants of Levi, musicians, temple guards, or other men who work in the temple, will be required to pay any kind of taxes.'
- <sup>25</sup> "Ezra, your God has enabled you to become very wise. Using that wisdom, appoint men in the province west of the Euphrates River who will judge cases involving the people, and men who will judge cases involving the government. You must appoint men who know the laws of your God. All of you must teach God's laws to others who do not know them. <sup>26</sup> Everyone who does not obey God's laws or the laws of my government must be punished severely. Some of them will be executed, some will be put in prison, some will be sent out of the country or have all their property taken away from them."

Ezra praised Yahweh

<sup>27</sup> *Because King Artaxerxes was very kind like that, I said, "Praise Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors worshiped/belonged to! He has caused the king to want to honor the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> Because God was very kind to me, the king and all his advisors and all his powerful officials have also been kind to me. So, because God has helped me, I have become encouraged, and I have been able to persuade some of the Israeli leaders to go up to Jerusalem with me."*

The clans that returned with Ezra to Jerusalem

Daniel, from the clan descended from Aaron's son Ithamar

Hattush, the son of Shecaniah, from the clan descended from King David

Ezra and the others prepared to return to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> I gathered all of them together at the canal that goes from Babylon to Ahava town. We set up our tents there and stayed there for three days. During that time I checked the lists of names and found out that there were priests going with us, but no other descendants of Levi who could help them in the temple. <sup>16</sup> So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, two men whose names were Elnathan, and Jarib, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were all leaders of the people. I also summoned Joiarib and another Elnathan, who were wise. <sup>17</sup> I sent them all to Iddo, the leader of the descendants of Levi, who was living in Casiphia town, to request that he and his relatives and other men who had worked in the temple send to us some men who would go/come with us to work in God's new temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> Because God was kind to us, they brought to us a man named Sherebiah and 18 of his sons and other relatives. Sherebiah was a very wise man, a descendant of Mahli, who was a grandson of Levi. <sup>19</sup> They also sent to us Hashabiah, along with Jeshaiah, descendants of Levi's son Merari, and 20 of their relatives. <sup>20</sup> They also sent 220 other men to work in the temple. Those men's ancestors had been appointed by King David to assist the descendants of Levi who helped the priests in the temple. I listed/wrote the names of all those men.

<sup>21</sup> There alongside the Ahava Canal, I told them that we all would ◀fast/abstain from eating food▶ and pray. I also told them that we should humble ourselves in the presence of our God. We prayed that God would protect us while we traveled, and also protect our children and our possessions/belongings. <sup>22</sup> Previously we had told the king that our God takes care of all those who truly trust in him, but that he becomes very angry with those who refuse to obey him. So I would have been ashamed if I had asked the king to send soldiers and men riding on horses to protect us from our enemies while we were traveling along the road. <sup>23</sup> So we ◀fasted/abstained from eating food► and requested God to protect us, and he ◀answered our prayers/did what we requested.▶

The gifts for the temple

<sup>24</sup> I chose twelve of the leaders of the priests, Sherebiah and Hashabiah and ten of their relatives. <sup>25</sup> I appointed them to supervise carrying to Jerusalem the gifts of silver and gold and the other valuable items that the king and his advisors and other officials, and the Israeli people who were living in Babylonia, had contributed for the temple of our God. <sup>26</sup> As I gave these various items to those priests, I weighed each of the items. This was the total: 25 tons of silver, 100 items made from silver that altogether weighed 7,500 pounds, ◀7,500 pounds/3,400 kg.▶ of gold, <sup>27</sup> 20 gold bowls that altogether weighed ◀19 pounds/8.6 kg.▶, and two items made of polished bronze that were as valuable as ones made of gold.

<sup>28</sup> I said to those priests, “You belong to Yahweh, the God whom our ancestors ◀worshiped/also belonged to▶, and these valuable things also belong to him. The people themselves gave these things to be offerings to Yahweh ◀voluntarily/because they wanted to▶. <sup>29</sup> So guard them carefully, and when we arrive in Jerusalem, weigh them in the presence of the priests, the descendants of Levi who will help the priests, and the other Israeli leaders there. They will then put them in the storerooms in the new temple.” <sup>30</sup> So the priests and other descendants of Levi took from me all the gifts of silver and gold and the other valuable items, in order to carry them to the temple in Jerusalem.

They returned to Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup> On April 19, we left the Ahava Canal and started to travel to Jerusalem. Our God took care of us, and while we traveled, he prevented our enemies and bandits from ◀ambushing us/suddenly attacking us▶. <sup>32</sup> After we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested for three days. <sup>33</sup> Then on the fourth/next day we went to the temple. There the silver and gold and the other items were weighed and given to the priest Meremoth, the son of Uriah. Eleazar the son of Phinehas and two descendants of Levi, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui, were with him.

<sup>35</sup> We who had returned from Babylonia offered to God sacrifices on the altar. We offered twelve bulls for all us Israeli people. We also offered 96 rams and 27 lambs. We also sacrificed twelve goats to atone for the sins that all the people had committed. These were all completely burned on the altar. <sup>36</sup> Some of us who returned from Babylonia took to the governors and other officials of the province west of the Euphrates River the letter that the king had given to us. After they read the letter, they did all that they were able to do for us Israeli people and for the temple of God.

Ezra prayed about the Israeli people marrying foreign wives

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, the Jewish leaders came to me and said, “Many Israelis, and even some priests and other men who are descendants of Levi who work in the temple, have not kept themselves from doing what the other people who are living in this land do. They are practicing the detestable things that the Canaan, Heth, Periz, Jebus, Ammon, and Amor people-groups, and the people from Moab and Egypt do. <sup>2</sup> Specifically, some Israeli men have married women who are not Israelis, and they have allowed their sons to do the same thing. So we, God’s sacred people, have become ◀contaminated/polluted in God's sight►. And some of our leaders and officials have been the first/worst ones to do this."

<sup>3</sup> When I heard that, I became very angry, with the result that I tore my clothes and tore some hair from my head and from my beard. Then I sat down, very shocked/dismayed. The Israelis knew that God had warned us that he would punish us if we disobeyed what he had said to us about marrying women who are not Israelis. <sup>4</sup> So many of the Israelis trembled/were afraid when they heard that some of those who had returned from Babylonia had sinned by disobeying the God of us Israelis like that. They came and sat with me until it was time to offer the evening sacrifices of grain.

<sup>5</sup> When it was time to offer those sacrifices, I was still sitting there, wearing those torn clothes and mourning/sad. I stood up, and then I quickly prostrated myself on the ground. I lifted up my hands to Yahweh, my God, <sup>6</sup> and this is what I prayed:

"Yahweh my God, I am very ashamed to raise my head in front of you. The sins that we Israelis have committed are very great; it is as though they have risen up higher than our heads, and our guilt for committing those sins, it is as though it rises up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup> Since the time that our ancestors lived until now, we have been very guilty. That is the reason that we and our kings and our priests have been defeated by the armies of the kings of other lands. They killed some of our people, they captured some, they robbed some, and they caused them all to be disgraced, just like we are today.

<sup>8</sup> "But now, Yahweh God, you have been very kind to us. You have allowed some of us to ◀survive/continue to live►. You have revived our spirits [IDM] and allowed us to escape from being slaves in Babylonia and to return safely [IDM] to live in this sacred place. <sup>9</sup> We were slaves, but you did not abandon us. Instead, because you faithfully love us, you caused the kings of Persia to be very kind to us. You have allowed us to continue to live and to rebuild your temple which had been completely destroyed. You have allowed us to start to live safely here in Jerusalem and in other towns in Judah.

<sup>10</sup> "Our God, what more can we say now [RHQ]? In spite of all that you have done for us, we have disobeyed your commands. <sup>11</sup> They are commands that you gave to your servants, the prophets, to tell to us. They said that the land that we would occupy was polluted because of the detestable/disgusting things that were done by the people who lived there. They said that in the land there were people from one end to the other who did immoral/shameful things. <sup>12</sup> They said, 'Do not allow your daughters to marry their sons! Do not allow your sons to marry their daughters! Do not even try to cause things to go well for those people-groups! If you obey these instructions, your nation will be strong, and you will enjoy the good crops that grow on the land, and the land will belong to your descendants forever.'

<sup>13</sup> "You punished us because we were very guilty for having done wicked things. But you have not punished us as much as we deserve to be punished. I say this because you, our God, have allowed some of us to survive. <sup>14</sup> However, some of us are again disobeying your commands, and we are marrying women who do those detestable things. If we continue to do that, surely you will get rid of all of us [RHQ], with the result that none of us will remain alive. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship/belong to, you are fair/just. We are guilty. We are only a few people who have escaped from Babylonia, but we pray to you, even though we do not deserve to stand in your presence."

The men agreed to divorce their foreign wives

<sup>1</sup> While I was kneeling down in front of the temple and praying and crying, I was confessing the sins that the Israeli people had committed. Many people, men and women and children, gathered around me and also cried very much. <sup>2</sup> Then Shecaniah, the son of Jehiel from the clan of Elam, said this to me: “We have disobeyed God. Some of us have married women who are not Israelis. But we can still confidently expect Yahweh to be merciful to us Israeli people. <sup>3</sup> We will do what you, and the others who have an awesome respect for what our God has commanded, tell us to do. We will do what God told us in his laws. We will make an agreement with our God, saying that we will divorce our wives who are not Israelis, and we will send them away with their children. <sup>4</sup> ◀It is your responsibility to/Because you are our leader, you must▶ tell us what to do. So get up, and be courageous, and do what is necessary. We will ◀support you/tell people to do what you say▶.”

<sup>5</sup> So I stood up and demanded that the leaders of the priests, the other descendants of Levi, and all the other Israeli people solemnly declare that they would do what Shecaniah said that they should do. So they all solemnly promised to do that. <sup>6</sup> Then I went away from the front of the temple and went to the room where Jehohanan lived. I stayed there that night, but I did not eat or drink anything. I was still sad because some of the Israelis who had returned from Babylonia had not faithfully obeyed God’s laws.

<sup>7</sup> Then we sent a message to all the people in Jerusalem and in other towns in Judah, saying that all those who had returned from Babylonia should come to Jerusalem immediately. <sup>8</sup> We said that if any of them did not arrive within three days, the leaders of the people would order that all the property of those people would be taken from them, and that they would no longer be considered to belong to the Israeli people; they would be considered to be foreigners.

<sup>9</sup> So within three days, on December 19, all the people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. They were there, sitting in the courtyard in front of the temple. They were trembling because it was raining hard and because they were worried that they would be punished for what they had done. <sup>10</sup> Then I stood up and said to them, “Some of you men have committed a very bad sin. You have married women who are not Israelis. By doing that, you have made us Israeli people more guilty than we were before. <sup>11</sup> So now you must confess to Yahweh, the God whom your ancestors worshiped/belonged to, the sin which you have committed, and you must do what he wants. Separate yourselves from the people of other nations and from the women from those nations whom you have married.”

<sup>12</sup> The whole group answered, shouting loudly, “Yes, what you have said is right! We will do what you have said.” <sup>13</sup> But then one of them said, “But we are a very large group, and it is raining hard. Also, there are many of us who have committed this bad sin. This is something that we cannot ◀take care of/handle▶ in one or two days, and we cannot stand here in this rain. <sup>14</sup> So allow our leaders to decide for all of us what we should do. Tell everyone who has married a woman who is not Israeli to come at a time that you decide. They should come with the elders and judges from each city. If we do that, our God will stop being angry with us because of what we have done.”

<sup>15</sup> Jonathan the son of Asahel, Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah, Meshullam, and Shabbethai, a descendant of Levi, were the only ones who objected to this.

<sup>16</sup> All the others who had returned from Babylonia said that they would do it. So I chose leaders of each of the clans, and I wrote down their names. On December 29, these men came and sat down to investigate the matter. <sup>17</sup> By March 27 of the next year they finished determining which men had married women who were not Israelis.

The men who had married foreign wives

<sup>18</sup> This is a list of the names of the priests who had married non-Israeli women, and the clans to which they belonged. From the clan of Jeshua and his brothers, who were sons of Jehozadak, there were Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

<sup>44</sup> Each of those men had married a woman who was not an Israeli. But immediately they divorced those women and sent them and their children away.

This book contains the account of Nehemiah supervising the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem and of teaching the people the laws that God wanted them to obey. We call this book Nehemiah

Nehemiah's prayer

<sup>1</sup> I am Nehemiah, the son of Hacaliah. I am writing this account of what I did when I returned to Jerusalem. After King Artaxerxes had been ruling the Persian Empire for almost 20 years, near the end of that year, I was in Susa, the capital of Persia.

<sup>2</sup> My brother Hanani came to visit me. He and some other men had just returned from Judah. I queried them about the Jews who were living there, whose parents had been ◀exiled/taken forcefully▶ to Babylonia many years previously. I also asked them about what was happening in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> They said to me, "The Jews in Jerusalem who returned there from Babylonia are living in a very difficult situation. The walls of the city have been broken down, and even the city gates have been burned down."

<sup>4</sup> When I heard that, I sat down and cried. For several days I mourned, and I ◀fasted/abstained from eating food▶, and I prayed to our God, who is/rules in heaven.

<sup>5</sup> I said, "Yahweh, you who are/rule in heaven, you are a wonderful and awesome God. You keep your promise to faithfully love those who love you and who obey your commands. <sup>6</sup> Now please look down and listen to what I am praying. I pray during the day and at night for your Israeli people. I confess that we Israeli people have sinned. Even my family and I have sinned against you. <sup>7</sup> We have acted very wickedly. Many years ago your servant Moses gave us your laws and all the things you commanded us to do [DOU], but we have not obeyed/done them.

<sup>8</sup> "But please remember what you told your servant Moses. You said, 'If you sin, I will scatter you among the ◀heathen nations/nations that do not believe in me▶. <sup>9</sup> But if you return to me and obey my commands, even if you have been exiled to very remote/distant places on the earth, I will bring you back here to Israel, the land that I [MTY] have chosen to be honored in.'

<sup>10</sup> "We are your servants. We are the people whom you brought here by your very great power [MTY, DOU] <sup>11</sup> Yahweh, please hear this prayer of mine, and the prayers of all your people who are delighted to revere you [MTY]. Today I will go to the king, to request that he do me a great favor. Please motivate him to act kindly toward me, in order that I will be successful in obtaining what I want."

At that time, I was the one whose work was to taste all the food and drink before it was served to the king, to be sure that no one had put poison in it.

Artaxerses allowed Nehemiah to go to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> After King Artaxerxes had been ruling the Persian Empire for almost 20 years, ◀during the spring/before the hot season▶ of that year, when it was time to serve wine to him during a feast, I took the wine and gave it to him. I had never looked sad when I was in front of him before, but on that day he saw that I looked very sad. <sup>2</sup> So he asked me, "Why are you sad? I know that you are not sick. It must be that you are troubled about something." Then I was very afraid, because it was not proper to be sad when I came to the king (OR, because I was worried what the king would do to me if he refused to do what I was about to request him to do).

<sup>3</sup> I replied, “Your majesty, I hope you will live a very long time! But ◀how can I prevent myself from being sad, because the city where my ancestors are buried has been destroyed and is in ruins?/I cannot keep myself from looking sad, because the city where my ancestors are buried has been destroyed and is in ruins.▶ [RHQ] Even the city gates have been completely burned.”

I prayed silently to our God who is/rules in heaven. <sup>5</sup> Then I replied, “If you are willing to do it, and if I have pleased you, send me to the city of Jerusalem in Judah province where my ancestors are buried, in order that I may help people to rebuild the city.”

<sup>6</sup> While the queen was sitting beside the king, he asked, “If I allow you to go, how long will you be gone? When will you return?” I told the king how long I would be gone, and the king gave me permission to go, and I told him what day I wanted to leave.

<sup>7</sup> I also said to the king, “If you are willing to do it, write letters for me to take to the governors of the province west of the Euphrates River. Tell them to allow me to travel safely through their province until I arrive in Judah. <sup>8</sup> Also, please write a letter to Asaph, the man who takes care of your forest in that area, telling him to give me timber to make the beams to support the gates of the fortress that is near the temple, and timber for making the walls of the city, and for building the house in which I will live.” The king did what I requested him to do, because my God was graciously/kindly ◀helping/acting for▶ me.

<sup>10</sup> But when two government officials, Sanballat from a village near Horon and Tobiah from the Ammon people-group, heard that I had arrived, they were very angry that someone had come to help the Israeli people.

Nehemiah inspected the walls of Jerusalem

<sup>11-12</sup> When I arrived in Jerusalem, I did not tell anyone what thoughts God had given to me about what I should do there. Three days after I arrived in Jerusalem, I went out of the city in the evening, taking a few other men with me. I was riding a donkey; we had no other animals with us.

<sup>13</sup> We left the city, going out through the Valley Gate, then past the well called the Jackal (OR, Dragon’s) Well, and then past the gate called the Rubbish/Garbage Gate. We inspected all the walls that had been broken down and all the gates that had been burned down. <sup>14</sup> Then we went to the Fountain Gate and to the pool called the King’s Pool, but my donkey could not get through the narrow opening (OR, the rubble).

<sup>15</sup> So we turned back and went along the Kidron Valley. We inspected the wall there before we turned back/around and entered the city again at the Valley Gate. <sup>16</sup> The city officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because I had not told anyone about what I planned to do. I had not said anything about it to the Jewish leaders or the officials or the priests or any of the others who would be helping me in the work that I wanted to do.

<sup>17</sup> But now I said to them, “You all know very well the terrible things that have happened to our city. The city is ruined; even the gates are burned down. So we should rebuild the city wall. If we do that, we will no longer feel humiliated/disgraced.”

<sup>18</sup> Then I told them about how God had kindly/graciously helped me when I talked to the king, and what the king had said to me.

They immediately replied, "Let's start rebuilding!" So they started to do this good work.

<sup>19</sup> But when Sanballat, Tobiah, and Gershom the Arab king of the Kedar region heard about what we planned to do, they made fun of us and ridiculed us. They said, "What is this work that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king again?" [RHQ]

<sup>20</sup> But I replied, "Our God who is/rules in heaven will help our plans to succeed. But as for you, you have no right to decide anything about this city, because you have not participated in what has happened in this city in previous years."

They rebuilt the wall around Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> ◀This is a list/These are the names▶ of the people who helped to rebuild the wall around Jerusalem. Eliashib the Supreme Priest and the other priests began to rebuild it at the Sheep Gate. They also put the gates in their places. They built the wall as far as the Tower of 100 Soldiers and further north to the Tower of Hananel, and they dedicated it to God. <sup>2</sup> Next to them, beyond the Tower of Hananel, men from Jericho built part of the wall. Next to them, Zaccur, the son of Imri, built part of the wall.

Harhaiah made things from gold, and Hananiah made perfumes. <sup>9</sup> Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, who ruled half of Jerusalem District, repaired part of the wall. <sup>10</sup> Next to him, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph repaired part of the wall near his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah repaired part of the wall. <sup>11</sup> Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab, repaired a section of the wall, and also repaired the Tower of the Ovens. <sup>12</sup> Next to them, Shallum the son of Hallohesh, who ruled the other half of Jerusalem District, repaired part of the wall. His daughters helped him with the work.

<sup>13</sup> Hanun and people from Zanoah city repaired the Valley Gate. They put the gates in their places, and also put in the bolts and bars for locking the gate. They repaired the wall for ◀1,500 feet/500 meters▶, as far as the Dung Gate.

<sup>14</sup> Malchijah the son of Rechab, who ruled Beth-Haccherem District, repaired the Dung Gate. He also put in their places the bolts and bars for locking the gate.

<sup>15</sup> Shallum the son of Colhozeh, who ruled Mizpah District, repaired the Fountain Gate. He put/built a roof over the gate, and put in their places the gates and the bolts and the bars for locking the gate. Near the Pool of Shelah he built the wall next to the king's garden, as far as the steps that went down from the City of David. <sup>16</sup> Next to him, Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, who ruled half of the Beth-Zur District, repaired the wall as far as the tombs in the City of David, to the reservoir that the people had made and the army barracks.

<sup>28</sup> A group of priests repaired the wall north from the Horse Gate. Each one repaired the section near his own house. <sup>29</sup> Next to them, Zadok the son of Immer repaired the section in front of his house. Next to him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, who ◀was the gatekeeper at/opened and closed▶ the East Gate, repaired the next section. <sup>30</sup> Next to him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired a section. That was the second section that they repaired. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berekiah, made repairs across from where he lived. <sup>31</sup> Next to them, Malchijah, who also made things from gold, repaired a section as far as the building used by the temple servants and merchants, which was close to the Inspection Gate. This was the gate into the temple that was near the room on top of the northeast corner of the wall. <sup>32</sup> Other men who made things from gold, along with merchants, repaired the last section of the wall, as far as the Sheep Gate.

Enemies opposed rebuilding the wall

<sup>1</sup> When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the city wall, he was very angry. He was enraged/furious. He made fun of us Jews. <sup>2</sup> While his colleagues and officials of the army troops who had come from Samaria were listening, he said, "What do these feeble/pathetic Jews think they are doing? Do they think that if they offer enough/many sacrifices, their gods will hear them and enable them to finish building the wall in one day? The stones that were in the wall previously have been weakened by being burned in a fire. Those stones that they are pulling out of the rubbish/garbage heaps—do they think that they can make them strong again?" [RHQ]

<sup>4</sup> Then I prayed. I said, “Our God, hear us, because they are ridiculing us! Cause the words of their insults to fall back on them! Allow their enemies to come and capture them and force them to go to a foreign land! <sup>5</sup> They are guilty; they have said things that caused you to be angry while the people here who are building the wall are listening; so punish them!”

<sup>6</sup> But after some time, we finished building the wall around the whole city, up to half as high as the first wall had been. We were able to do that because we worked very hard.

<sup>7</sup> But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the men from Arabia, the people from the Ammon people-group and from Ashdod city heard that the work on the wall was continuing and that we were filling in the gaps in the wall, they became very angry. <sup>8</sup> They all planned to come and fight against the people of Jerusalem [MTY] and to cause trouble. <sup>9</sup> But we prayed to our God to protect us, and we put men around the walls to guard the city day and night.

<sup>10</sup> Then the people of [MTY] Judah started to say, “The men who are working on the wall are becoming very tired. There is a lot of heavy rubble that we must remove; we ourselves cannot finish the work.

<sup>11</sup> “Besides, our enemies are saying, ‘Before the Jews see us, we will swoop down on them and kill them and stop their work on the wall!’ ”

<sup>12</sup> The Jews who were living near our enemies came and told us many times, “You should leave the city and go to other places, in order that your enemies will not attack you!”

<sup>13</sup> So I put guards at the places where the wall was not very high yet and at places where there were gaps in the wall. I put guards to protect each of their family groups. I gave the guards daggers, spears, and bows and arrows. <sup>14</sup> Then after I inspected everything, I summoned the leaders and other officials and many of the other people, and I said to them, “Do not be afraid of our enemies! Think about what Yahweh, who is great and glorious, can do! And fight to protect your friends, your families, and your homes!”

<sup>15</sup> Our enemies heard that we knew what they were planning to do and that God had ◀spoiled their plans/prevented them from doing what they planned▶. But we were sure that God would defend us, so we all started to work on the wall again.

<sup>16</sup> But after that, only half of the men who were working for me worked on the wall. The others stood there on guard, holding their spears, shields, bows and arrows, and wearing their coats made of metal plates. To encourage the people who were building the wall, their leaders stood behind them. <sup>17</sup> Those who carried baskets of supplies on their heads/shoulders and those who built the wall did their work with one hand, and held a weapon with the other hand. <sup>18</sup> All those who were building the wall had a dagger fastened to their side. The man who would blow the trumpet if our enemies attacked was standing at my side.

<sup>19</sup> Then I said to the officials, the other important men, and the other people, “This wall is very long, and we are far apart from each other along the wall. <sup>20</sup> If you hear the man blowing the trumpet, gather around us at that place. Remember that our God will fight for us!”

<sup>21</sup> So we continued to work. Half of the men continued to hold their spears all day, from when the sun rose in the morning until the stars appeared at night. <sup>22</sup> At that time, I also said to the people, “Tell every worker and his helper that they must stay inside Jerusalem at night. By doing that, they can guard us at night, and they can work on the wall during the daytime.” <sup>23</sup> During that time, none of us ever took off our clothes (OR, we wore our clothes all the time)—I and my relatives and my workers and the guards who were with me. And we had our weapons with us, in our hands.

Nehemiah helped the oppressed people

<sup>3</sup> Others said, “The fields and vineyards and houses that we own, it has been necessary for us to ◀mortgage them/promise to give them to someone if we do not pay back to him the money he has loaned us▶ in order to get money to buy grain, during this ◀famine/time where there is not much food▶.”

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard these things that they were complaining about. <sup>7</sup> So I thought about what I could do about it. I told the leaders and officials who were responsible for this work, “You are charging interest to your own relatives when they borrow money from you!” Then I called together a large group of people, <sup>8</sup> and I said to their leaders, “Some of our Jewish relatives have been forced to sell themselves to become slaves of people who have come from other countries. As much as we have been able to, we have been buying them back out of slavery. But now you are forcing your own relatives to sell themselves to you, their fellow Jews, as slaves!” When I said that to them, they were silent. There was nothing that they could say because they knew that what I said was true.

<sup>9</sup> Then I said to them, “What you are doing is terrible [EUP]! You certainly ought to [RHQ] obey God and do what is right! If you did that, our enemies who do not revere Yahweh would see that we are doing what is right and would not ridicule us. <sup>10</sup> My fellow Jews and I and my servants have lent money and grain to people without charging interest. So you all should stop charging interest on these loans. <sup>11</sup> Also, you must give back to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive tree orchards, and their houses that you have taken from them. You must also give back to them the interest that you charged them when they borrowed money, grain, wine, and olive oil from you, and you must do it today!”

<sup>12</sup> The leaders replied, “We will do what you have said. We will return to them everything that we forced them to give to us, and we will not require that they give us anything more.”

Then I summoned the priests, and I forced the leaders to vow in front of them that they would do what they had promised to do. <sup>13</sup> I shook out the folds of my robe and said to them, “If you do not do what you have just now promised to do, I hope/desire that God will shake you like I am shaking my robe. He will take away your homes and everything else that you own.”

They all replied, “Amen/May it be so!” And they praised Yahweh. Then they did what they had promised to do.

<sup>14</sup> I was appointed to be the governor of Judea in the twentieth year that Artaxerxes was the king of Persia. For the next twelve years, until he had been ruling for almost 32 years, neither I nor my officials accepted the money that we were allowed/entitled to receive to buy food because of my being the governor. <sup>15</sup> The men who were governors before I became the governor had burdened the people by requiring them to pay a lot of taxes. They had forced each person to pay to them 40 silver coins every day, in addition to giving food and wine to them. Even their servants/officials oppressed the people. But I did not do that, because I revered God.

<sup>16</sup> I also continued to work on the wall, and I did not take land from people who were unable to pay back the money that they had borrowed from me. All those who worked for me joined me to work on the wall. <sup>17</sup> Also, every day I was responsible to feed 150 Jewish officials, and also official visitors who came from nearby countries. <sup>18</sup> Each day I told my servants to serve us the meat from one ox, six very good sheep, and chickens. And every ten days I gave them a large new supply of wine. But I knew that the people were burdened by paying lots of taxes, so I did not accept the money that I was entitled/allowed to receive to buy all this food because of my being the governor.

Plots against Nehemiah

<sup>1</sup> Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem, and our other enemies heard a report that we had finished rebuilding the wall, and that now there were no more ◀gaps/places where the wall was not finished▶ (although we had not yet put the doors in the gates). <sup>2</sup> So Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, in which they said “Come and talk with us at a place in Ono Plain north of Jerusalem.” But I knew that really they wanted to harm me if I went there.

<sup>3</sup> So I sent messengers to them, to tell them, “I am doing an important work, and I cannot go down there. ◀Why should I stop doing this work just to go down to talk with you?/I do not want to stop doing this work just to go down to talk with you.▶” [RHQ] <sup>4</sup> They sent me the same message four times, and each time when I replied to them I said the same thing.

“Some people in the nearby countries have heard a report that you and the other Jews are rebuilding the wall in order to be able to resist attacks, because you are planning to revolt against the king of Babylon. And the report also says that you are planning to become the king of the Israelis. Geshem says that what they have reported is true. <sup>7</sup> People are also saying that you have appointed some prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem that you, Nehemiah, are now the king in Judea. King Artaxerxes will certainly hear these reports, and then you will be in big trouble. So I suggest that we should meet together to talk about this matter.”

<sup>8</sup> When I read that message, I sent the messenger back to Sanballat to say, “None of what you are saying is true. You have ◀made this up/concocted this▶ in your own head/mind.” <sup>9</sup> I said that because I knew that they were trying to cause us to be afraid, with the result that we would stop working on the wall. So I actually became more determined (OR, I prayed to God to help me) to continue the work.

<sup>10</sup> One day I went to talk with Shemaiah, son of Delaiah and grandson of Mehetabel. I went to talk with him in his house, because he was not able (OR, allowed) to leave his house. He said to me, "You and I must enter the very sacred place in the temple and lock the doors, because people are going to come to kill you at night."

<sup>11</sup> I replied, "I ◀am not that kind of person/do not do things like that▶ [RHQ]! I would not run and hide in the temple to save my life! No, I will not do that!" <sup>12</sup> When I thought about what he had said, I realized that God had not told Shemaiah to say that to me. I realized that Tobiah and Sanballat had bribed him to say that to me. <sup>13</sup> They had bribed him to cause me to be afraid. They wanted me to disobey God's commands and sin by hiding in the temple. If I did that, they would be able to ruin my reputation [MTY] and discredit me.

<sup>14</sup> So I prayed, "My God, do not forget what Tobiah and Sanballat have done. Punish them. And do not forget that the female prophet Noadiah and some of the other prophets have also tried to cause me to be afraid."

They finished building the wall

<sup>15</sup> On October 2 we finished rebuilding the wall. We did it all in 52 days. <sup>16</sup> When our enemies in the nearby countries heard about that, they realized that they had been humiliated, because everyone knew that it was because God helped us that we had been able to do this work and that they had not been able to force us to quit.

<sup>17</sup> During this time, the Jewish leaders had been sending many messages/letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah had been sending messages back to them. <sup>18</sup> Many people in Judea were closely associated with Tobiah, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah. Furthermore, Tobiah's son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berekiah. <sup>19</sup> People often talked in my presence about all the good things that Tobiah had done, and then they would tell him everything that I said. So Tobiah sent many letters to me to try to cause me to become afraid.

<sup>1</sup> After the wall had been finished and we had put the gates in their places, we assigned to the temple guards and to the members of the sacred choir and the other descendants of Levi the work that they were to do. <sup>2</sup> I appointed two men to help me to govern Jerusalem, my brother Hanani and Hananiah who was the commander of the fortress in Jerusalem. Hananiah always did his work reliably, and he revered God more than most other people do. <sup>3</sup> I said to them, "Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until late each morning. And close the gates and put the bars across the doors ◀late in each afternoon/before sunset▶ while the gatekeepers are still guarding the gates." I also told them to appoint some people who lived in Jerusalem to be guards on the wall, and to assign some of them to be guards at certain other places and to assign others to guard the area close to their own houses.

A list of those who returned to Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup> The city of Jerusalem covered a large area, but at that time not many people lived in the city, and they had not built many new houses yet [HYP]. <sup>5</sup> To defend the city, we needed more people there. Then God gave me the idea to summon the leaders and officials and other people, and to look in the books in which were written the names of all the people and their clans. So I found the records of the people who had first returned from Babylonia. This is what I found written in those records:

<sup>6</sup> ◀This is a list/Here are the names▶ of the people who returned to Jerusalem and to other places in Judea. They had been living in Babylonia since King Nebuchadnezzar's army had captured their relatives/ancestors and took them to Babylonia. But they had returned to Judea and were living in the towns where their ancestors had lived.<sup>7</sup> Their leaders were Zerubbabel, Joshua, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah, and me.

This is a list of the number of men in each clan who returned:

- <sup>8</sup> 2,172 men from the clan of Parosh;
- <sup>9</sup> 372 men from the clan of Shephatiah;
- <sup>10</sup> 652 men from the clan of Arah;

- <sup>24</sup> 112 men from the clan of Hariph, whose other name is Jorah;
- <sup>25</sup> 95 men from the clan of Gibeon, whose other name is Gibbar.

- 188 men from Bethlehem and Netophah
- <sup>27</sup> 128 men from Anathoth;
- <sup>28</sup> 42 men from Beth-Azmaveth
- <sup>29</sup> 743 men from Kiriath-Jearim, Kephirah and Beeroth;

The following priests also returned:

- <sup>39</sup> 973 from the clan of Jedaiah who are descendants of Jeshua;
- <sup>40</sup> 1,052 from the clan of Immer;
- <sup>41</sup> 1,247 from the clan of Pashhur;
- <sup>42</sup> 1,017 from the clan of Harim.

- <sup>74</sup> from the clan of Jeshua and Kadmiel, who are descendants of Hodevah who is also known as Hodaviah;
- <sup>44</sup> 148 singers who are descendants of Asaph.

Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

Sotai, Sophereth who is also called Hassophereth, Perida who is also known as Peruda,

<sup>61-62</sup> Another group of 642 people from the clans of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda also returned. They came from the towns of Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Kerub, Addan (which is also known as Addon), and Immer in Babylonia. But they could not prove that they were descendants of Israelis.

<sup>70</sup> Some of the leaders of the clans gave gifts for the work of rebuilding the temple. I, being the governor, gave ◀17 pounds/8.6 kg.▶ of gold, 50 bowls to be used in the temple, and 530 robes for the priests. <sup>71</sup> Some of the leaders of the clans gave a total of ◀337 pounds/153 kg.▶ of gold, and ◀3,215 pounds/1,460 kg.▶ of silver. <sup>72</sup> The rest of the people gave a total of ◀337 pounds/153 kg.▶ of gold, ◀2,923 pounds/1,330 kg.▶ of silver, and 67 robes for the priests.

<sup>73</sup> So the priests, the other descendants of Levi who helped the priests, the temple guards, the musicians, the temple workers, and many ordinary people, who were all Israelis, started to live in the towns and cities of Judea where their ancestors had lived.

Ezra read from the laws of Moses

<sup>1-2</sup> Ezra, who taught people the laws of Moses, had a scroll on which the laws of Moses were written. Those were the laws that Yahweh had commanded the Israeli people to obey. On October 8 of that year, all the people gathered together in the plaza/square that was close to the Water Gate. Men and women and children who were old enough to understand gathered together. Someone told Ezra to bring out that scroll. <sup>3</sup> So he brought it out and read it to the people. He started reading it early in the morning and continued reading it until noontime. All the people listened carefully to the laws that were written on the scroll.

<sup>5</sup> Ezra stood on the platform above the people, where they could all see him. He opened the scroll; and as he did that, all the people stood up, and they continued to stand, to show respect for God's word. <sup>6</sup> Then Ezra praised Yahweh, the great God, and all the people lifted up their hands and said, "Amen! Amen!" Then they all bowed down with their foreheads touching the ground, and they worshiped Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup> Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah, were all ◀Levites/men who worked in the temple▶. They explained the meaning of the laws of Moses to the people who were standing there. <sup>8</sup> They also read from scrolls that contained the laws that God gave to Moses, and they interpreted into the Aramaic language what they read, making the meaning clear so that the people could understand the meaning.

<sup>9</sup> Then I, Nehemiah the governor, and Ezra, and the Levites who were interpreting what was being read to the people, said to them, "Yahweh your God considers that this day is very holy/sacred. So do not be sad or cry!" They said that because all the people were crying as they were listening to the laws of Moses.

<sup>10</sup> Then I said to them, "Now go home and enjoy some good food and drink some sweet wine. And send some of it to people who do not have anything to eat or drink. This is a day that Yahweh considers sacred. Do not be sad! Yahweh will cause you to be joyful and make you strong."

<sup>12</sup> So the people went away, and they ate and drank, and they sent portions of food to those who did not have any. They celebrated very joyfully, because they had heard and understood what had been read to them.

<sup>13</sup> The next day, the leaders of the families and the priests and other descendants of Levi met with Ezra to study carefully the laws that Yahweh had given to Moses. <sup>14</sup> While they were doing that, they realized that Yahweh had told Moses to command the Israeli people to live in shelters during that month, to remember that their ancestors lived in shelters when they left Egypt. <sup>15</sup> They also learned that they should proclaim in Jerusalem and in all the towns that the people should go to the hills and cut branches from olive trees that they have planted and from wild olive trees and from myrtle trees and palm trees and fig trees. They should make shelters from these branches, and live in those shelters during the festival, just as Moses wrote that they should do.

<sup>16</sup> So the people went out of the city and cut branches and used them to build shelters. They built shelters on the flat roofs of their houses, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the temple, and in the plazas/squares close to the Water Gate and the Ephraim Gate. <sup>17</sup> All of the Israeli people who had returned from Babylon built shelters and lived in them for one week. The Israeli people had not celebrated that festival like that since the time that Joshua lived. And they were very joyful.

<sup>18</sup> Every day during that week Ezra read to the people from the scroll that contained the laws that God gave Moses. Then on the eighth day, just as one of the laws of God said that they should do, they gathered together to end the celebration.

The people confessed their sins

<sup>1</sup> On October 31, the people gathered together again. They fasted/abstained from eating food, they wore clothes made from rough cloth, and they put dirt on their heads to show that they were sorry for their sins. <sup>2</sup> The Israeli people separated themselves from all the foreigners. They stood there and confessed their sins and the sins that their ancestors had committed. <sup>3</sup> The scroll that contained the laws of Yahweh, the God whom they worshiped, was read to them for three hours. Then for three more hours they confessed their sins and they worshiped Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> Some of the descendants of Levi were standing on the stairs. They were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, another Bani, and Kenani. <sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of the Levites called out to the people. They were Jeshua, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said, "While you are standing there, praise Yahweh your God, who has always lived and will live forever!"

Then one of them continued by praying this to God,

"Yahweh, we praise your glorious name! You are much greater than anything that we can think about or talk about!

<sup>6</sup> "You only are God. You made the sky and the heavens and all the stars. You made the earth and everything that is on it, and you made the seas/oceans and everything that is in them. You are the one who gives life to everything and helps them remain alive. All the angels who are in heaven worship you.

<sup>7</sup> "Yahweh, you are God. You chose Abram and brought him out of Ur city in Chaldea region. You gave him a new name, Abraham. <sup>8</sup> You saw that he was trustworthy. Then you made an agreement with/a promise to him, saying that you would give to him and to his descendants the land that the descendants of Canaan, Heth, Amor, Periz, Jebus, and Gergash lived in. And you have done what you promised, because you always do what is right.

<sup>9</sup> "You saw what our ancestors were suffering in Egypt. You heard them cry to you for help when they were at the Red Sea. <sup>10</sup> Because you knew that the leaders of Egypt were treating our ancestors very arrogantly, you performed many kinds of miracles that caused the king and his officials and all his people to suffer. As a result, you became famous then, and you are still famous! <sup>11</sup> You caused the Red Sea to divide, with the result that your people walked through it on the ground without getting their feet wet. After they were all safely on the other side, you caused the water to come back again, and you hurled into the deep water the soldiers of the Egyptian army that were pursuing our ancestors. Their soldiers sank into the deep sea like stones! <sup>12</sup> During each day you led our ancestors with a bright cloud that resembled a huge pillar, and each night you led them by a flaming cloud that gave them light to show them where to walk.

<sup>13</sup> “When our ancestors were at Sinai Mountain, you came down from heaven and spoke to them. You gave them many regulations and instructions that are just and reliable, and you gave them commands and laws that are good. <sup>14</sup> You taught them about your holy ◀Sabbath/day of rest▶, and you gave many kinds of laws to your servant Moses for him to tell to the people. <sup>15</sup> When they were hungry, you gave them manna from the sky; and when they were thirsty, you gave them water from a rock. You commanded them to go and take, from the people who lived there, the land which you had promised to give to them.

<sup>16</sup> “But our ancestors were very proud and stubborn [IDM], and they did not do what you commanded them to do. <sup>17</sup> They refused to heed you, and they forgot about all the miracles that you had performed for them. Instead, they became stubborn [IDM], and they appointed someone to lead them back to Egypt, where they would be slaves again! But you are a God who forgives us and who is kind and merciful to us. You do not quickly become angry. You always faithfully love us. <sup>18</sup> So, even though their leaders made an idol that resembled a calf and insulted you by saying about the idol, ‘This is our god, who brought you up out of Egypt,’ you did not desert them.

<sup>22</sup> “You helped our ancestors to defeat armies of great kings who ruled many people-groups. By doing that, you enabled our ancestors to ◀occupy/live in▶ even the most distant places in this land. They occupied the land over which King Sihon ruled from Heshbon city and the land over which King Og ruled in the Bashan area. <sup>23</sup> You caused our ancestors’ descendants to become as numerous as the stars in the sky, and you brought them into this land, the land that you told their fathers to enter and occupy. <sup>24</sup> Their sons went in and took the land from the people that lived there. You enabled them to defeat the descendants of Canaan who lived here in this land. You enabled them to conquer the descendants of Canaan and their kings and the people whom they ruled. You enabled our ancestors to do to those people whatever they wanted to do. <sup>25</sup> Our ancestors captured cities that had walls around them, and they took possession of fertile land. They took possession of houses that were full of good things, where there were wells that were already dug. They took possession of many vineyards and groves of olive trees and fruit trees. They ate all that they wanted to and became fat. They were delighted in all these good things that you gave to them.

<sup>26</sup> “But they disobeyed you and rebelled against you. They ◀turned their backs on/rejected▶ your laws. They killed the prophets who warned them that they should return to you. They badly insulted you. <sup>27</sup> So you allowed their enemies to defeat them. But when their enemies caused them to suffer, they called out to you. You heard them from heaven, and because you are very merciful, you sent them people to help them, and those leaders rescued them from their enemies.

<sup>28</sup> “But after there was a time of peace again, our ancestors again did things that displeased you. So again you allowed their enemies to conquer them. But whenever they cried out to you again to help them, you heard them from heaven, and because you act mercifully, you rescued them many times.

<sup>29</sup> “You warned them that they should again obey your laws, but they became proud and stubborn, and they disobeyed your commands. They sinned by disobeying what you commanded them to do, the things that would enable them to live a good long life if they obeyed them. They stubbornly refused [IDM] to listen to you and continued sinning. <sup>30</sup> You were patient with them for many years. You warned them through the messages your Spirit gave to the prophets. But they did not ◀heed/pay attention to▶ those messages. So again you allowed the armies of other nations to defeat them. <sup>31</sup> But because you act very mercifully, you did not get rid of them completely or abandon them forever. You are a very gracious/kind and merciful God!

<sup>32</sup> “Our God, you are great! You are mighty! You are awesome! You faithfully love us as you promised in your agreement with us that you would do! But now we are experiencing great difficulties/hardships. Great troubles have come to us, to our kings, to our other leaders, to our priests, and to our prophets. We have been experiencing these troubles since the armies of the kings of Assyria conquered us, and we are still experiencing them. We ask that you sincerely think about [LIT] all these things. <sup>33</sup> We know that you acted justly each time that you punished us. We have sinned greatly, but you have treated us fairly. <sup>34</sup> Our kings and other leaders and our priests and our other ancestors did not obey your laws. They did not heed your commands or the warnings that you gave to them. <sup>35</sup> Even when they had their own kings, and they enjoyed the good things that you did for them in this large and fertile land that you gave to them, they did not serve you. They refused to quit doing what was evil.

<sup>36</sup> “So now we are like slaves here in this land that you gave to our ancestors, the land that you gave to them in order that they could enjoy all the good things that grow here. <sup>37</sup> Because we have sinned, we cannot eat the things that grow here. The kings that now rule over us are enjoying the things that grow here. They rule us and take our cattle. We have to serve them and do the things that please them. We are experiencing great misery/distress.

The people's agreement

<sup>38</sup> “However, we Israeli people now are making an agreement/promise to obey you, and we are writing this agreement/promise on a scroll. We will write on it the names of our leaders and the names of the Levites and the names of the priests, and then we will seal it.”

The agreement

<sup>28</sup> Then the rest of the people also made a solemn agreement. The people who did it included priests, temple gatekeepers, singers, and temple workers. They also included all the men from other countries who had separated themselves from the other foreigners living in Israel. These men, along with their wives, their sons and daughters who were old enough to understand what they were doing, were people who wanted to obey God's laws. <sup>29</sup> They all joined with their leaders in making this solemn agreement. They agreed to obey all the laws that God had given to Moses. They agreed to obey everything that Yahweh our God had commanded, and all his regulations and instructions. And this is what they promised to do:

<sup>30</sup> "We will not allow our daughters to marry people who live in this land who do not worship Yahweh, and we will not allow our sons to marry them.

<sup>31</sup> "If people from other countries who live in this land bring us grain or other things to sell to us on Sabbath days or any other sacred day, we will not buy anything from them. And in every seventh year, we will not plant any crops, and we will ◀cancel all debts/declare that people will no longer have to pay back what they owe us▶.

<sup>32</sup> "We also promise that every year we will pay ◀one-eighth of an ounce/4 grams▶ of silver for the work of taking care of the temple. <sup>33</sup> With that money they can buy these things: The sacred bread that is placed before God, the grain that is burned on the altar each day, the lambs that were completely burned on the altar, the sacred offerings for the Sabbath days and for celebrating each new moon and other festivals that God told us to celebrate, and other offerings that are dedicated to God, the animals to be sacrificed to atone for the sins of the Israeli people, and anything else that is needed for the work of taking care of the temple.

<sup>34</sup> "Each year the priests, the other descendants of Levi who help the priests, and the rest of us will ◀cast lots/throw marked stones▶ to determine for that year which clans will provide wood to burn on the altar the sacrifices that are offered to Yahweh our God, in order to do what was written in the laws God gave to Moses.

<sup>35</sup> “We promise that each year each family will take to the temple an offering from the first grain that we harvest and from the first fruit that grows on our trees that year.

<sup>36</sup> “Also, we will take to the priests at the temple our firstborn sons and dedicate them to God. And we will also bring firstborn calves and lambs and baby goats to be offered as sacrifices. That is what is written in God’s laws that we must do.

<sup>37</sup> “We will also take to the priests at the temple the flour made from the first grain that we harvest each year, and our other offerings of wine, olive oil, and fruit. We will also take to the descendants of Levi who help the priests the tithes/10% of the crops that we grow on our land, because they are the ones who collect the tithes in all the villages where we work/live. <sup>38</sup> The priests who are descendants of Aaron will be with the other descendants of Levi and supervise them when they collect the tithes. Then the descendants of Levi must take 10% of the things that people bring and put them in the storerooms in the temple. <sup>39</sup> The descendants of Levi and some of the other Israeli people must take 10% of the offerings of grain, wine, and olive oil to the storerooms where the various utensils that are used in the temple are kept. That is the place where the priests who are serving at that time, the temple guards, and those who sing in the temple choir live.

We promise that we will not neglect taking care of the temple of our God.”

11

The people who settled in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> The Israeli leaders and their families settled in the sacred city, Jerusalem. The other people ◀cast lots/threw marked stones▶ to determine which family from each ten families would live in Jerusalem. The other people continued to live in the other towns and cities in Judea. <sup>2</sup> Those people asked God to bless those who volunteered to be among the 10% who moved to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Another one from the tribe of Judah was Maaseiah, who was the son of Baruch, who was the son of Colhozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah, who was the son of Adaiah, who was the son of Joiarib, who was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Judah’s son Shelah. <sup>6</sup> There were 468 men who were descendants of Perez who were valiant/courageous soldiers who lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> One of the men of the tribe of Benjamin who decided to live in Jerusalem was Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah. <sup>8</sup> Two of Sallu’s relatives, Gabbai and Sallai, also settled in Jerusalem.

Altogether, 928 people from the tribe of Benjamin settled in Jerusalem <sup>9</sup> Their leader was Joel, son of Zichri. The official who was second in command in Jerusalem was Hassenuah.

<sup>11</sup> Seraiah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub who had previously been the Supreme Priest. <sup>12</sup> Altogether, 822 members of that clan worked in the temple.

Another priest who settled in Jerusalem was Adaiah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah. <sup>13</sup> Altogether, there were 242 members of that clan who were leaders of the clan who settled in Jerusalem.

Another priest who settled in Jerusalem was Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer. <sup>14</sup> There were 128 members of that clan who were valiant soldiers who settled in Jerusalem. Their leader was Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim.

<sup>16</sup> Two others were Shabbethai and Jozabad, who were prominent men who supervised the work outside the temple. <sup>17</sup> Another one was Mattaniah, the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph. Mattaniah directed the temple choir when they sang the prayers to thank God. His assistant was Bakbukiah. Another one was Abda, the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. <sup>18</sup> Altogether, there were 284 descendants of Levi who settled in Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> The other Israeli people including priests and other descendants of Levi lived on their own property in other towns and cities in Judea.

<sup>22</sup> The man who supervised the other descendants of Levi who helped the priests and lived in Jerusalem was Uzzi, the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi belonged to the clan of Asaph, the clan that was in charge of the music in the temple. <sup>23</sup> The king of Persia had commanded that the clans should decide what each clan should do to lead the music in the temple each day.

city, in Zeboim town, in Neballat town,<sup>35</sup> in Lod town, in Ono town, and in Craftsmen's Valley.

<sup>36</sup> Some of the groups of the descendants of Levi who had lived in Judea were sent to live with the people of the tribe of Benjamin.

A list of the priests and Levites who returned

<sup>1</sup> Many priests and other descendants of Levi returned ◀from Babylonia/to Jerusalem▶ with Zerubbabel and Jeshua. They included

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

All these men were leaders of the priests during the time that Jeshua was the Supreme Priest.

<sup>8</sup> Some of the other descendants of Levi who returned were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah. They were in charge of singing songs to thank God.

<sup>9</sup> Bakbukiah, Unni, and other descendants of Levi formed a choir that stood opposite the other group and sang in reply to them.

A list of descendants of Jeshua the Supreme Priest

<sup>10</sup> Jeshua who was the Supreme Priest was the father of Joiakim, who was the father of Eliashib, who was the father of Joiada, <sup>11</sup> who was the father of Jonathan, who was the father of Jaddua.

Leaders of the clans of priests

<sup>12</sup> When Joiakim was the Supreme Priest, these were the leaders of the clans of priests:

Meraiah, from the clan of Seraiah;

Hananiah, from the clan of Jeremiah;

Jehohanan, from the clan of Amariah;

Joseph, from the clan of Shecaniah;

Helkai, from the clan of Meremoth/Maraioth;

Meshullam, from the clan of Ginnethon;

There was also a leader from the clan of Miniamin;

Piltai, from the clan of Moadiah;

Jehonathan, from the clan of Shemaiah;

Uzzi, from the clan of Jedaiah;

Eber, from the clan of Amok;

and Nethanel, from the clan of Jedaiah.

Duties of priests and Levites

<sup>22</sup> During the years that Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were Supreme Priests, they ◀wrote/kept a list of▶ the names of the clans who were descendants of Levi. When Darius was the king of Persia, they stopped writing that list. <sup>23</sup> They wrote the names of the leaders of the clans who were descendants of Levi in the Book of Events in Israel, but they stopped writing those names when Eliashib's grandson Johanan was the Supreme Priest.

<sup>24</sup> These are the leaders of the clans who are descendants of Levi: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel and others who were divided into two groups. The two groups faced each other, one group replying to the other, during the time that they praised and thanked God. They did that just as King David, the man who served God well, had instructed. <sup>25</sup> These singers included Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, and Obadiah.

The men who guarded the storerooms close to the gates of the temple were Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub. <sup>26</sup> They did that work during the time that Joiakim, who was the son of Jeshua and the grandson of Jehozadak, was the Supreme Priest, and I was the governor, and Ezra was the priest who knew the Jewish laws very well.

Nehemiah dedicated the wall

<sup>27</sup> When we dedicated the wall around Jerusalem, we summoned the descendants of Levi who help the priests from the nearby places where they were living. We asked them to join with us to celebrate when we dedicated the wall. We wanted them to sing songs to thank Yahweh and make music by playing cymbals and harps and other stringed instruments. <sup>28</sup> We summoned the descendants of Levi who habitually sang together. They came to Jerusalem from nearby areas where they had settled, and from places around Netophah town southeast of Jerusalem, <sup>29</sup> and from three places northeast of Jerusalem—Beth Gilgal city and the areas around Geba and Azmaveth. Those singers had built villages to live in near Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup> When they came to Jerusalem, the priests and other descendants of Levi who help the priests performed rituals to cause themselves to be acceptable to God, and then they performed similar rituals to purify the other people, the gates, and the wall. <sup>31</sup> Then I gathered together the leaders of Judah on top of the wall, and I appointed them to lead two large groups to march around the city on top of the wall, thanking God. As they faced the city, one group walked to the right toward the Dung Gate. <sup>32</sup> Behind their leaders marched Hoshai and half of the leaders of Judah. <sup>33-35</sup> Behind them marched a group of priests who were blowing trumpets. They were Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. Next came Zechariah, the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, a descendant of Asaph. <sup>36</sup> Behind them marched other members of Zechariah's clan: Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. They all were playing the same kinds of musical instruments that King David had played many years previously. Ezra, the man who knew the Jewish laws very well, marched in front of this group. <sup>37</sup> When they reached the Fountain Gate, they went up the steps to David's City, past his palace, and then to the wall at the Water Gate, on the east side of the city.

reached the temple while they were thanking God. They stood in their places there. The leaders who were with me also stood with me in our places.

<sup>41</sup> My group included these priests who were all blowing trumpets: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, <sup>42</sup> another Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers, whose leader was Jezrahiah, sang loudly. <sup>43</sup> After we went outside the temple, we offered many sacrifices. We men all rejoiced because God had caused us to be very happy. The women and the children also rejoiced. People far away could hear the noise that we made there in Jerusalem.

Preparations for worship in the temple

<sup>44</sup> On that day, men were appointed {they appointed men} to be in charge of the storerooms where they kept the money that people contributed for the temple. They also kept there the other things that the people contributed— the tithes and the first part of the grain and fruit that was harvested each year. Those men collected those things from the fields/farms near the cities, and took them to Jerusalem and gave them to the priests and the other descendants of Levi, as Moses had said in his laws that they should do. All the Israeli people were happy about the work that the priests and the descendants of Levi did, <sup>45</sup> because they performed the rituals to purify things, and the other rituals that God had commanded. The musicians in the temple also did their work as King David and his son Solomon had declared that they should do. <sup>46</sup> Ever since the time that David had been the king and Asaph had been his chief musician, the musicians had led the people while they sang songs to praise and thank God. <sup>47</sup> During the years that Zerubbabel and I governed the Israeli people, they all contributed the food that the singers and temple gatekeepers needed each day. They gave ◀a tithe/10%▶ of their crops to the descendants of Levi who helped the priests, and those descendants of Levi gave ◀a tithe/10%▶ of that to the priests, who were descendants of Aaron the first Supreme Priest.

Foreigners were excluded

<sup>1</sup> On that day, when someone read to the people parts of the laws that God gave to Moses, they read where it was written that no one from the Ammon people-group or the Moab people-group was ever to be allowed to be with God's people while they were gathered together to worship. <sup>2</sup> The reason for that was that the people of Ammon and the people of Moab did not give/sell any food or water to the Israelis while the Israelis were going through their areas after they left Egypt. Instead, the people of Ammon and Moab paid money to Balaam in order that he would curse the Israelis. But God commanded Balaam to bless the people, not to curse them. <sup>3</sup> So when the people heard these laws being read to them, they sent away all the people whose ancestors had come from other countries.

Purifying the storerooms

<sup>4</sup> Previously, Eliashib the priest had been appointed to be in charge of the storerooms in the temple. He was a relative of our enemy Tobiah. <sup>5</sup> He allowed Tobiah to use a large room in which they had previously stored the grain offerings and the incense, the equipment that is used in the temple, the offerings that the people had brought for the priests, and the tithes of grain and wine and olive oil that God had commanded the people to bring to the other descendants of Levi, and to the temple musicians, and to the temple guards.

<sup>6</sup> While Tobias was using that room, I was not in Jerusalem, because in the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was the king of Babylonia, I went back there to report to him. After a while I requested the king to allow me to return to Jerusalem, and he allowed me to go. <sup>7</sup> When I arrived in Jerusalem, I found out that Eliashib had done an evil thing by allowing Tobiah to use a room in God's temple. <sup>8</sup> I became very angry, and I threw out of that room everything that belonged to Tobiah. <sup>9</sup> Then I commanded that they perform a ritual to make the rooms ◀pure/acceptable to God▶ again. And I also ordered that all the equipment used in the temple and all the grain offerings and incense should be put in that room again.

<sup>10</sup> I also found out that the temple musicians and other descendants of Levi had left Jerusalem and returned to their fields/farms, because the Israeli people had not been bringing to them the food that they needed. <sup>11</sup> So I rebuked the officials, saying to them, “◀Why have you not taken care of the work in the temple?/It is disgraceful that you have not taken care of the work in the temple.▶” [RHQ] So I brought the descendants of Levi and the musicians back to the temple, and told them to do their work there again.

<sup>12</sup> Then all the people of Judah again started to bring to the temple storerooms their tithes of grain, wine, and olive oil. <sup>13</sup> I appointed these men to be in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah, who was a priest; Zadok, who knew the Jewish laws very well; and Pedaiah, a descendant of Levi. I appointed Hanan, who is the son of Zaccur and grandson of Mattaniah, to assist them. I knew that I could trust these men while they distributed those offerings to their fellow workers.

<sup>14</sup> My God, do not forget all these good things that I have faithfully done for your temple and for the work that is done there!

Other reforms instituted by Nehemiah

<sup>15</sup> During that time, I saw some people in Judea who were working on the Sabbath day. Some were pressing grapes to make wine. Others were putting grain, bags of wine, baskets of grapes, figs, and many [HYP] other things, on their donkeys and taking them into Jerusalem. I warned them that they should not sell things to the people of Judea on Sabbath days. <sup>16</sup> I also saw some people from Tyre city who were living there in Jerusalem who were bringing fish and other things into Jerusalem to sell to the people of Judea on the Sabbath day. <sup>17</sup> So I rebuked the Jewish leaders and told them, “This is [RHQ] a very evil thing that you are doing! You are causing the Sabbath days to be unholy. <sup>18</sup> Your ancestors did [RHQ] things like that, so God punished them, and as a result, this city was destroyed! And now by causing the Sabbath day to be unholy, you are going to cause God to be angry with us Israeli people and punish us more!”

<sup>19</sup> So I ordered that at ◀the beginning of every Sabbath day/every Friday evening▶ they should shut the gates of the city before it became dark. I also ordered that they should not open the gates until ◀the Sabbath day was ended the next day/Saturday evening▶. Then each Sabbath day I put some of my men at the gates, so they would make sure that nothing to sell was brought into the city on that day. <sup>20</sup> One or two times merchants [DOU] stayed outside of the city on ◀Friday night/the night before the Sabbath day▶. <sup>21</sup> I warned them, “It is useless [RHQ] for you to stay here outside the walls on Friday night! If you do this again, I will tell my men to arrest you!” So after that, they did not come on Sabbath days. <sup>22</sup> I also commanded the descendants of Levi to perform the ritual to purify themselves and to guard the city gates, to make sure that the Sabbath was kept holy by not allowing merchants to enter it on Sabbath days.

My God, do not forget this also that I have done for you! And because of your faithfully loving me, allow me to continue to live many more years!

<sup>23</sup> During that time, I also found out that many of the Jewish men had married women from Ashdod city, and from the Ammon and Moab people-groups. <sup>24</sup> The result was that half of their children spoke the language that people in Ashdod speak or some other language, and they didn't know how to speak our language. <sup>25</sup> So I rebuked those men, and I asked God to curse them, and I beat them and pulled out some of their hair. Then I forced them to solemnly promise, knowing that God [MTY] was listening, that they would never again marry foreigners, and never allow their children to marry foreigners. <sup>26</sup> I said to them, "Solomon, the king of Israel, sinned [RHQ] as a result of marrying foreign women. He was greater than any of the kings of other nations. God loved him, and caused him to become the king of all the Israeli people, but his foreign wives caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup> Do you think that we should do what you have done, and disobey our God by marrying foreign women who worship idols? [RHQ]"

<sup>29</sup> My God, do not forget that those people who have married foreign women have caused it to be a shame/disgrace to be a priest, and have caused people to despise the agreement that you made with the priests and with the other descendants of Levi who help the priests►!

<sup>30</sup> I did all that to make sure that there were no more foreign people among the Israeli people who would encourage them to worship idols. I also established regulations for the priests and other descendants of Levi, in order that they would know what work they should do. <sup>31</sup> I also arranged for people to bring the firewood that was needed to burn on the altar, as Moses had declared that we should do. I also arranged for the people to bring the first part of what they harvested each year.

My God, do not forget that I have done all these things, and bless me for doing them!

This book contains the account of Esther, the queen of Persia, protecting the Jewish people from Haman, who wanted to destroy them. We call this book Esther

The king of Persia deposed his queen

<sup>5</sup> At the end of those six months, the king invited people to another banquet. He invited to the banquet all the men who worked in the palace, including those who had important jobs and those who had unimportant jobs. This celebration lasted for seven days. It was in the courtyard of the palace in Susa. <sup>6</sup> In the courtyard were beautiful blue and white curtains that were fastened by white and purple cords/ribbons to rings that were on pillars made from expensive white stone called marble. The guests sat on gold and silver couches. The couches were on a pavement/floor which had on top of it designs made from various kinds of expensive stones. <sup>7</sup> The guests drank wine from gold cups. Each cup had a different design on it. <sup>8</sup> There was a lot of wine, because the king wanted the guests to drink as much as they wanted. But the king told the servants that they should not force anyone to drink more than he wanted.

So that caused the king to become very angry. <sup>13-14</sup> Immediately he had a meeting with the seven men who were the most important officials in Persia and Media. They were the men whom he often asked ◀for their advice/what he should do▶. And they were men who knew all the customs and laws of Persia. Their names were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. <sup>15</sup> The king said to them, "Queen Vashti has refused to obey me when I sent my servants to tell her to come here. What do our laws say that we should do to someone who acts/behaves like that?"

<sup>16</sup> While the other officials were present, Memucan told the king, "Your majesty, Queen Vashti has ◀insulted/done wrong against▶ you, but she has also insulted all your officials and everyone else ◀in your empire/that you rule over▶. <sup>17</sup> All the women throughout the empire will hear what she has done, and they will say, 'The king commanded Queen Vashti to come to him, and she refused.' So they will not obey their husbands. Instead, they will begin to not respect their husbands. <sup>18</sup> Before this day ends, the wives of all us officials in Persia and Media will hear what the queen did, and they also will refuse to obey their husbands. They will not respect us, and they will cause us to become very angry. <sup>19</sup> So if it pleases you, O king, you should write a law. Like all the other laws of Persia and Media, it will be a law that ◀no one can change/cannot be changed.▶ Write a law that states that Queen Vashti will never be allowed to see you again and will not continue to be the queen. Then you can choose another woman to be queen, a woman who deserves to be queen more than Vashti does. <sup>20</sup> Then, when everyone in your empire hears what you have commanded, all the women, including those who are important and those who are not important, will respect and obey their husbands."

<sup>21</sup> The king and the other officials liked what Memucan suggested, so he did that. He wrote a law proclaiming that. <sup>22</sup> Then he sent letters to all the provinces, stating that all men should have complete authority over their wives and their children. He wrote the letters in every language and type of writing/alphabet that was used in each province.

Esther became the new queen

<sup>1</sup> After a while, King Xerxes quit being so angry. He thought about Vashti, and he thought about the law he had made because of what she had done, and he wanted another wife. <sup>2</sup> So his personal servants said to him, "Your majesty, you should send some men to search throughout the empire for some beautiful young women/virgins for you. <sup>3</sup> After they find some, you can appoint some officials in each province to bring them to the place where you keep ◀your wives/the women you sleep with▶ here in Susa. Then Hegai, the man who is in charge of these women, can arrange for ointments to be put on their bodies to make them more beautiful. <sup>4</sup> Then the woman who pleases you most can become queen instead of Vashti." The king liked what they suggested, so he did it.

<sup>5</sup> At that time there was a Jew living in Susa, the capital, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair. Jair was a descendant of Shimei. Shimei was a descendant of King Saul's father Kish. They were all from the tribe descended from Benjamin. <sup>6</sup> Many years before that, King Nebuchadnezzar had taken ◀Mordecai/Mordecai's family▶ and brought them from Jerusalem to Babylon, at the same time he brought King Jehoiachin of Judah and many other people to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai had a cousin whose Hebrew name was Hadassah. She had a beautiful face and beautiful body/figure. Her Persian name was Esther. After her father and mother died, Mordecai took care of Esther as though she were his own daughter. <sup>8</sup> After the king commanded that they search for some beautiful women, they brought Esther and many other young women to the king's palace in Susa, and ◀the king put Hegai/Hegai was put▶ in charge of them. <sup>9</sup> Hegai was very pleased with Esther, and he treated her well. He immediately arranged for her to be given ointments to make her even more beautiful, and he ordered that special food would be given to her. He arranged that seven maids from the king's palace would take care of her, and arranged that she/they would stay in the best rooms.

<sup>10</sup> Esther did not tell anyone that she was a Jew, because Mordecai had told her not to tell anyone. <sup>11</sup> Every day Mordecai walked near the courtyard of the place where those women stayed. He asked people who entered the courtyard to find out and tell him what was happening to Esther.

<sup>12</sup> Before these women were taken to the king, they put ointments on the bodies of these women for one year to make them more beautiful. For six months they rubbed olive oil mixed with myrrh on their bodies each day. For the next six months they rubbed ointments and perfumes on their bodies. <sup>13</sup> Then, when one of these women was summoned to go to the king, she was allowed to wear whatever clothes and jewelry she chose. <sup>14</sup> In the evening, they would take her to the king's own room. The next morning, they would take her to another place where the women who had slept with the king stayed. There another official whose name was Shaashgaz was in charge of those women. Those women would live there for the rest of their lives, and one of those women would go back to the king again only if the king very much wanted her to come again, and only if he told Shaashgaz the name of the woman.

<sup>19</sup> Later all those women who had spent a night with the king were gathered together again. By that time Mordecai had become an official at the palace. <sup>20</sup> But Esther still did not tell anyone that she was a Jew. She continued to do what Mordecai had told her to do. <sup>21</sup> One day when Mordecai was doing his work in the palace, two of the king's officials were there. Their names were Bigthana and Teresh. They were the guards who stood outside the king's own rooms. They became angry with the king, and they were planning how they could assassinate/kill him. <sup>22</sup> But Mordecai heard about what they were planning, and he told that to Queen Esther. Then she told the king what Mordecai had found out. <sup>23</sup> The king investigated and found out that Mordecai's report was true. So the king ordered that those two men be hanged. When that was done, an official wrote a report/a report was written about it in a book called 'The book that records what happened while Xerxes was king'.

Haman planned to kill to the Jews

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, King Xerxes promoted/gave his most important job/work to Haman, the son of Hammedatha, who was a descendant of King Agag. Haman became more important than all his other officials. Only the king was more important. <sup>2</sup> Then the king commanded that all the other officials had to bow down in front of Haman to honor him when he walked by. But Mordecai refused to bow down to Haman.

<sup>3</sup> The other officials saw that, and they asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey what the king commanded?" <sup>4</sup> Mordecai told them that he was a Jew, and that Jews would bow down only to God. Day after day the other officials spoke to Mordecai about that, but he still refused to obey. So they told Haman about it, to see if Haman would tolerate it.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down to him, he became extremely angry. <sup>6</sup> After he found out that Mordecai was a Jew, he decided that it would not be enough to get rid of only Mordecai. He decided to kill all the Jews in all the area that Xerxes ruled.

best month and the best day to kill the Jews. Haman's advisors did that, and the day that was selected was March 7th during the following/next year.

<sup>8</sup> Then Haman went to the king and said to him, "Your majesty, there is a certain group of people who live in many areas of your empire whose customs are different from ours. They even refuse to obey your laws. So it would be good for you to get rid of them. <sup>9</sup> If it pleases you, command that they should all be killed. If you do that, I will give ◀375 tons/750,000 pounds▶ of silver to your administrators so that you can use it for your government."

<sup>12-13</sup> On April 17th Haman summoned the king's secretaries, and he dictated a letter to them that they translated and wrote to all the governors and administrators and other officials in all the provinces. They wrote copies of the letter in every language and every kind of writing/alphabet that was used in the empire. They wrote that all the Jews, including young people and old people, women and children, had to be killed on one day. That day was March 7th of the following year. They also wrote that those who killed the Jews could take everything that belonged to the Jews. They signed the king's name at the end of the letters. Then they sealed the letters with wax, and stamped the wax by using the king's ring. Then they sent the letters swiftly to every province in the empire, <sup>14</sup> The king also commanded that copies of these letters should be nailed up where all the people could see them, in every province, so that the people would be ready to do on the day the king had set what was written in the letter. <sup>15</sup> Then, according to what the king commanded, men riding horses took those letters quickly to every province in the empire. And one of the letters was read aloud to the people in the capital city, Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down and drank wine, but the people in Susa were very perplexed about why this was going to happen.

Mordecai requested help from Esther

<sup>1</sup> When Mordecai found out about those letters, he was so anguished that he tore his clothes and put on rough sackcloth and threw ashes over himself. Then he went into the city, crying very loudly. <sup>2</sup> He stood outside the gate of the palace, because no one who was wearing sackcloth was allowed to enter the palace. <sup>3</sup> In every province of the empire, when the letter from the king was read to the Jewish people, they cried and mourned. They ◀fasted/abstained from eating food▶, and wailed loudly. Many of them also put on sackcloth and threw ashes on themselves and lay on the ground. <sup>4</sup> When Esther's maids and other officials came to her and told her what Mordecai had done, she was very distressed. So she sent to Mordecai some good clothes to wear instead of the sackcloth, but he refused to take them. <sup>5</sup> Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's officials whom he had appointed to help take care of Esther. She told him to go out and talk to Mordecai to find out what was distressing him and why he was wearing sackcloth to show that he was grieving. <sup>6</sup> Hathach went to Mordecai, who was in the plaza in front of the palace gate. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him everything that had happened. He told him how much money Haman had promised to give to the government if the king commanded that all the Jews be killed. <sup>8</sup> Mordecai also gave to Hathach a copy of the decree that had been read in Susa, in which it was stated that all the Jews must be killed. He told Hathach to show the copy to Esther. He told Hathach to explain to Esther what ◀it meant/would happen▶. Then he told him to urge her to go to the king and request the king to act mercifully to her people. <sup>9</sup> So Hathach returned to Esther and told her what Mordecai said. <sup>10</sup> Then Esther told Hathach to return to Mordecai and tell this to him: <sup>11</sup> “There is a law about people going to talk to the king. All the king’s officials and all the people in the empire know this law. In that law it states that anyone who goes to the king in his inner court without having been summoned by the king must be executed. Only those to whom the king has extended his scepter/staff will not be executed. And a month has passed since the king has summoned me, so what will happen to me if I try to see him and he doesn’t want to see me?” <sup>12</sup> So Hathach went back to Mordecai and told him what Esther had said. <sup>13</sup> Mordecai replied, “Go back and tell this to Esther: ‘Do not think that just because you live there in the palace, you will escape when all the other Jews are killed. ‘If you say nothing now, someone from some other place will rescue many of us Jews, but you and your relatives will be killed. Furthermore, ◀perhaps God/who knows if God▶ has put you here as queen ◀for a situation like this/to prevent this from happening to us▶!’” [RHQ] <sup>15</sup> Then after Hathach told this to Esther, she told him to return to Mordecai and say this to him: <sup>16</sup> “Gather together all the Jews here in Susa, and tell them to ◀fast/abstain from food▶ for my sake. Tell them to not eat or drink anything for three days and nights. My maids and I will also fast. Then, I will go to talk to the king. Even if ◀I am executed/they execute me▶ for disobeying the law by seeing him when he does not hold out the scepter/staff toward me, I am willing for that to happen”. <sup>17</sup> So after Hathach told this to Mordecai, Mordecai went and did what Esther told him to do.

Esther invited Haman and the king to a banquet

<sup>1</sup> Three days later, Esther prepared a big banquet/feast. Then she put on the robes that showed that she was queen, and she went to the inner courtyard of the palace, across from the room where the king was. He was sitting on the throne, facing the entrance of the room. <sup>2</sup> When the king saw Esther standing there in the courtyard, he extended the gold scepter/staff toward her to signal that he would be glad to talk to her. So Esther came close and touched the tip of the scepter/staff. <sup>3</sup> Then the king asked her, “Esther, what do you want? Tell me, and I will give you what you want, even if you ask me to give you half of my kingdom!” <sup>4</sup> Esther replied, “Your majesty, if it pleases you, you and Haman come to the banquet that I have prepared for you!” <sup>5</sup> The king said to his servants, “Go and tell Haman to come quickly to a banquet that Esther has prepared for the two of us!” So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared for them. <sup>6</sup> While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, “Tell me what you really want. I will give it to you, even if you ask for half of my kingdom.” <sup>7-8</sup> Esther replied, “I will tell you what I want most of all. Your majesty, if you are pleased with me, and if you are willing to give me what I am requesting, please come again tomorrow to another banquet that I will prepare for the two of you. Then I will tell you what I really want”.

Haman planned to kill Mordecai

king had ◀promoted him/given him the second-most important job in the empire▶, so that all the other officials had to respect him. <sup>12</sup> Then Haman added, “And that is not all! Queen Esther invited just two of us, the king and me, to a banquet she prepared for us today. And she is inviting only the two of us to another banquet that she will prepare tomorrow!” <sup>13</sup> Then Haman said, “But those things ◀mean nothing to me/do not make me happy▶ while I keep seeing that Jew, Mordecai, just sitting there at the gate of the palace and ignoring me!” <sup>14</sup> So Haman’s wife Zeresh and all his friends who were there suggested, “Why don’t you quickly set up ◀a gallows/posts on which to hang someone▶. Make it 75 feet tall. Then tomorrow morning ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. After that, you can go to the banquet with the king and be cheerful.” That idea pleased Haman very much, so he gave men orders to set up the gallows/posts.

The king honored Mordecai

<sup>1</sup> That night the king was unable to sleep, so he summoned a servant and told him to bring the records of what had happened during all the time he had been king. So the servant brought the records and read some of them to the king. <sup>2</sup> The servant read about Bigthana and Teresh, the two men who had guarded the entrance to the king’s rooms. He read the account of when Mordecai had found out that they planned to assassinate the king and that he had told the king about it. <sup>3</sup> The king asked some of his servants, “What did we do to reward Mordecai or show that we appreciate what he did?” The servants replied, “We did not do anything for him.” <sup>4</sup> At that moment, Haman entered the outer courtyard of the palace. He wanted to talk to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had just set up. The king saw him and said, “Who is that out there in the courtyard?” <sup>5</sup> His servants replied, “That is Haman standing there in the courtyard.” The king said, “Bring him in here!” <sup>6</sup> When Haman came in, the king asked him, “What should I do for a man whom I want to honor?” Haman thought to himself, “◀Whom would the king like to honor more than me?/I think there is no one whom the king would like to honor more than me!▶” [RHQ] <sup>7</sup> So he replied to the king, “If there is someone you wish to honor, <sup>8</sup> you should tell your servants to bring him one of the robes you wear you to show that you are the king. Also tell them to bring one of the horses you have ridden. Tell them to put a fancy headdress on the horse’s head to show that it belongs to you, the king. <sup>9</sup> Then tell one of your very important officials to put the robe on the man whom you want to honor, and tell that man to sit on the horse, and then lead the horse through the city streets. And tell that official to keep shouting, ‘This is what ◀the king does/is doing▶ for the man whom he wants to honor!’ ” <sup>10</sup> The king replied to Haman, “Fine! Go and do what you said immediately! Get my robe and my horse, and do just what you suggested! Do it for Mordecai, the Jew, who is sitting outside at the gate of the palace. Do not forget anything that you suggested!” <sup>11</sup> So Haman did what the king said. He got the robe and the horse. He put the robe on Mordecai, and as Mordecai sat on the horse, Haman led the horse through the city streets proclaiming “This is what the king ◀does/is doing▶ for the man whom the king wants to honor!” <sup>12</sup> Then, Mordecai returned and sat at the gate of the palace. But Haman hurried home, covering his face because he felt completely disgraced/humiliated. <sup>13</sup> He told his wife Zeresh and his friends everything that had happened to him that day. Then his wife and his friends said to him, “Mordecai, the man who has caused you to be completely disgraced/humiliated, is a Jew. It is clear that the God whom the Jews worship is fighting for them. So you will never be able to defeat Mordecai. He will defeat you!" <sup>14</sup> And while they were still talking, some of the king's officials arrived to take Haman quickly to the banquet/feast that Esther had prepared.

Haman was executed

<sup>1</sup> So the king and Haman went to eat the second banquet/feast that Queen Esther had prepared. <sup>2</sup> As they were drinking wine, the king asked again, "Esther, what do you want me to do for you? Tell me, and I will do it for you. Even if you ask me for half of my kingdom, I will give it to you." <sup>3</sup> Esther replied, "O king, if you are pleased with me, and if you are willing to do what I ask, save me, and save my people. That is what I want you to do for me. <sup>4</sup> It is as though I and my people are cattle that have been sold to be slaughtered. It is as though we have been sold to people who want to completely destroy us. If we had only been sold to people to become their male and female slaves, I would not say anything, because that would have been a matter too small to bother you, the king." <sup>5</sup> Then King Xerxes asked her, "Who would want to do such a terrible thing? Where is he?" <sup>6</sup> Esther replied, "The man who is our enemy is this evil man Haman!" Then Haman was terrified as he stood in front of the king and queen. <sup>7</sup> The king became extremely angry. He immediately left his wine and got up and went outside into the palace garden to decide what to do. But Haman stayed, in order to plead with Queen Esther that she would spare his life. <sup>8</sup> He threw himself down on the couch where Esther was reclining. But at that moment the king returned from the garden to the room where they had been eating. He saw Haman, and assumed he was preparing to rape Esther. He exclaimed, "Are you going to rape the queen while she is here with me in my own palace?" As soon as the king said that, some officials covered Haman's head, as they did to people who were about to be hanged. <sup>9</sup> Then Harbona, one of the king's personal officials, said, "Outside, near Haman's house, there is a ◀gallows/set of poles for hanging someone▶. It is 75 feet high. Haman made it for Mordecai, the man who spared your life!" The king said, "Hang him on it!" <sup>10</sup> So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for hanging Mordecai! And then ◀the king's anger cooled off/the king was no longer so angry▶.

The king issued a decree to save the Jews

<sup>1</sup> Later on that same day, King Xerxes declared that everything that Haman, the enemy of the Jews, owned, would now belong to Queen Esther. Esther told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. When the king heard that, he sent a message to tell Mordecai to come in. <sup>2</sup> When Mordecai came in, the king took off the ring that had his official seal on it, the ring that he had previously given to Haman, and gave it to Mordecai, to indicate that Mordecai was now his most important official. And Esther appointed Mordecai to be in charge of everything that had belonged to Haman.

<sup>8</sup> So now I am also permitting you to write other letters, to save your people. You may put my name on the letters, and use my ring to seal them because no letter that has my name on it and which is sealed with my ring can ever be changed.” <sup>9</sup> Then the king summoned his secretaries, on June 25th, and Mordecai told them to write letters to the Jews and to all the governors and other officials in all of the 127 provinces, which extended from India in the east to Ethiopia in the west. They wrote these letters in all the languages that the people in each area spoke. They also wrote letters to the Jewish people, in their language. <sup>10-11</sup> They wrote in those letters that the Jews in every city were permitted by the king to gather together to protect themselves. They also were permitted to kill any group of soldiers who attacked them. They were also permitted to kill the women and children of those who attacked them, and to take the possessions of the people whom they killed. <sup>12</sup> All this was to be done on March 7th of the following year. Mordecai signed the king’s name on the letters, and sealed them with the seal that was on the king’s ring. Then he gave them to messengers, who rode on fast horses that had been raised especially for the king. <sup>13</sup> Copies of this law were to be nailed to posts in every province and read to all the people, in order that the Jews would be ready to ◀get revenge on/fight against▶ their enemies on March 7th. <sup>14</sup> The king commanded the men who took these letters to all the provinces to ride quickly on the king’s horses. And copies of the letter were also posted and read to the people in the capital city, Susa. <sup>15</sup> Before Mordecai left the palace, he put on the blue and white robe and a large gold crown that the king had given him. He also put on a coat made of fine purple cloth. When the people in Susa heard the new law, they all shouted and cheered. <sup>16</sup> The Jews in Susa were very happy, and other people honored them. <sup>17</sup> And when the new law arrived in every city and province, the Jews there celebrated and prepared feasts and were very joyful. And many men throughout the empire were circumcised and became Jews, because they were now afraid of what the Jews would do to them if they were not Jews.

<sup>1</sup> The first law that the king had commanded was to be made effective on March 7th. On that day the enemies of the Jews hoped to get rid of them. But instead, on that same day the Jews defeated their enemies. <sup>2</sup> Throughout the empire, the Jews gathered together in their cities to attack those who wanted to get rid of them. No one could fight against the Jews, because all the other people in the areas where the Jews lived were afraid of them, so they did not want to help anyone who attacked the Jews. <sup>3</sup> All the governors and other officials and important people in all the provinces helped the Jews, because they were afraid of Mordecai. <sup>4</sup> They were afraid of him because in all the provinces they knew that Mordecai was now the king’s most important official, with the authority that Haman previously had. Mordecai was becoming more famous because the king was giving him more and more power. <sup>5</sup> On March 7th, the Jews attacked and killed with their swords all of their enemies. They did whatever they wanted to do, to the people who hated them. <sup>6</sup> Just in Susa alone, the capital city, they killed 500 people. <sup>7</sup> Among those whom they killed were the ten sons of Haman. Their names were Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup> Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup> Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. <sup>10</sup> Those were grandsons of Hammedatha and sons of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. The Jews killed them, but they did not take the things that belonged to the people whom they killed. <sup>11</sup> At the end of that day someone reported to the king the number of people whom the Jews killed in Susa. <sup>12</sup> Then the king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed 500 people here in Susa, including the ten sons of Haman! So I think that they must have killed many more people in the rest of my empire [RHQ]! But okay, now what else do you want me to do for you. You tell me, and I will do it.”<sup>13</sup> Esther replied, “If it pleases you, allow the Jews here in Susa to do again tomorrow what you commanded them to do today. And command that the bodies of Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the gallows/poles.”<sup>14</sup> So the king commanded that the Jews be permitted to kill more of their enemies the next day. After he issued another order in Susa, the bodies of Haman’s ten sons were hanged.<sup>15</sup> On the next day, the Jews in Susa gathered together and killed 300 more people. But again, they did not take the things that belonged to the people whom they killed.<sup>16</sup> That happened on March 8th. On the following day, the Jews in Susa rested and celebrated. In all the other provinces, the Jewish people gathered together to defend themselves, and they killed 75,000 people who hated them, but again they did not take the things that belonged to the people whom they killed.<sup>17</sup> That occurred on March 7th, and on the following day they rested and celebrated.<sup>18</sup> After the Jews in Susa gathered together and killed their enemies on March 7th and 8th, they rested and celebrated on March 9th.<sup>19</sup> That is why every year, on March 8th, the Jews who live in villages now celebrate defeating their enemies. They have feasts and give gifts of food to each other.<sup>20</sup> Mordecai wrote down all the things that had happened. Then he sent letters to the Jews who lived throughout the empire of King Xerxes.<sup>21</sup> He told them that every year they should celebrate on the 8th and 9th of March,<sup>22</sup> because those were the days when the Jews got rid of their enemies. He also told them that they should celebrate on those days by feasting and giving gifts of food to each other and to poor people. They would remember it as the month in which they changed from being very sorrowful to being very joyful, from crying to celebrating.<sup>23</sup> So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai wrote. They agreed to celebrate on those days every year.<sup>24</sup> They would remember how Haman, son of Hammedatha, a descendant of King Agag, became an enemy of all the Jews. They would remember how he had made an evil plan to kill the Jews, and that he had ◀cast lots/thrown small marked stones▶ to choose the day to kill [DOU] them.<sup>25</sup> They would remember that when Esther told the king about Haman’s plan, the king arranged that the evil plan that Haman had made to kill the Jews would fail, and that he would be killed instead of the Jews, and that Haman and that his sons were hanged.<sup>26</sup> Because the ◀lot/small marked stone▶ that Haman threw was called Pur, the Jews called these days Purim. And, because of everything that ◀Mordecai wrote/was written▶ in that letter, and because of all that happened to them,<sup>27</sup> the Jews throughout the empire agreed to celebrate in that manner on those two days every year. They said that they would tell their descendants and those people who became Jews to be certain to celebrate this festival every year. They should celebrate just as Mordecai told them to do in the letter that he wrote.<sup>28</sup> They said that they would remember and celebrate on those two days every year, in each family, in every city, and in every province. They solemnly declared that they and their descendants would never stop remembering and celebrating those days called Purim.<sup>29</sup> Then Mordecai and Queen Esther, who was the daughter of Abihail, wrote a second letter about the Purim feast. Esther used the authority that she had because of being the queen to confirm that what Mordecai had written in the first letter was true.<sup>30-31</sup> What they wrote in the second letter was, “We wish that all of you will be living peacefully and safely/righteously. We want you and your descendants to celebrate Purim each year on the days that we two established, and to do the things that we two told you to do.” In that letter, Queen Esther and Mordecai also gave them instructions about ◀fasting/abstaining from eating food▶ and being sorrowful. Then copies of that letter were sent to all the Jews who were living in the 127 provinces of the empire.<sup>32</sup> The letter that Esther wrote about the manner in which they should celebrate the Purim feast was also written in an official record.

10

<sup>1</sup> King Xerxes required that all the people in his empire pay taxes. Even the people who lived on the islands in the Mediterranean Sea (OR, in coastal areas) were required to pay taxes. <sup>2</sup> And all the great and powerful things that Xerxes did were written in the scroll called/entitled 'The record of the things done by the kings of Media and Persia'. In this book were also written the things done by Mordecai, the man whom the king had greatly honored. <sup>3</sup> Mordecai, who was a Jew, became the king's most important official, and all the Jews also considered him to be a very great man. They all respected him, because he did many good things for the Jews, and he often asked the king to do good things for them.

This book contains the account of the intense suffering of Job and of God restoring him. We call this book Job

Job and his family

<sup>1</sup> In the land named Uz, there was a man named Job. He was a very godly/righteous [DOU] man, who greatly respected/revered God and always avoided doing evil things. <sup>2</sup> He had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup> He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 oxen, and 500 female donkeys. He also had many servants. He was the richest man in all the area east of the Jordan River.

<sup>4</sup> Each year, Job's sons made feasts in their houses to celebrate their birthdays. Whenever each one made a feast, he would invite all his brothers and his three sisters to come and eat together. <sup>5</sup> When each celebration ended, Job would summon them. He would get up early in the morning and kill animals and burn them on the altar as sacrifices, one for each of his children. He said to himself, "Perhaps one of my sons has sinned and said something evil about God in his heart."

Satan wanted to test Job

<sup>6</sup> One day, the angels came and gathered together in front of Yahweh, and Satan came too. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh asked Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan replied, "I have come from the earth, where I been traveling back and forth, seeing what is happening."

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you ◀noticed/thought about▶ my faithful servant Job? He is very godly/righteous [DOU], he greatly respects/reveres me, and he always avoids doing evil things. There is no one else on the earth like him." <sup>9</sup> Satan replied to Yahweh, "What you say is true, but Job greatly respects you only because of what you have done for him [RHQ]. <sup>10</sup> You have always [RHQ] protected [MET] him and his family and everything that he owns. You have made him very prosperous/rich. He has livestock all over this land. <sup>11</sup> But if you take away [MTY] everything that he has, he will curse you openly. [IDM]"

Then Satan left, and he prepared to cause many disastrous things to happen to Job.

<sup>13</sup> One day after that, Job's sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the home of their oldest brother. <sup>14</sup> While they were doing that, a messenger arrived at Job's home and said to him, "While your oxen were plowing the fields and the donkeys were grazing nearby, <sup>15</sup> a group of men from the Sheba area came and attacked us. They killed all your servants who were working in the fields and took away all the oxen and donkeys! I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you what happened."

<sup>16</sup> While he was still talking to Job, another messenger arrived. He said to Job, "Lightning from the sky [MTY] struck and killed all the sheep and all the men who were taking care of the sheep! I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you what happened."

<sup>17</sup> While he was still talking to Job, another messenger arrived. He said to Job, "Three groups of robbers/bandits from Chaldea land came and attacked us. They stole all the camels and killed all the men who were taking care of them. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you what happened."

<sup>18</sup> While he was still talking to Job, another messenger arrived and reported this to Job: "Your sons and daughters were feasting in the home of their oldest brother.

<sup>19</sup> Suddenly a ◀very strong wind/tornado▶ came from the desert and struck the house. The house collapsed on your sons and daughters and killed them all! I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you what happened."

<sup>20</sup> Job stood up, and tore his robe and shaved his head because he was very sad/grieved. Then he prostrated himself on the ground to worship God. <sup>21</sup> He said, "When I was born, I had no clothes on.

When I die, I will not take any clothes with me.

Yahweh gave me everything that I possessed, and now he has taken it all away.

But ◀we should/I will▶ always praise Yahweh anyway! [MTY]"

<sup>22</sup> In spite of all these things that happened to Job, he did not sin by saying that what God had done was wrong.

Satan wanted to test Job again

<sup>1</sup> On another day, the angels came again and gathered together in front of Yahweh, and Satan came too. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh asked Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan replied, "I have come from the earth, where I have been traveling back and forth, seeing what is happening."

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh asked Satan, "Have you ◀noticed/thought about▶ my faithful servant Job? He is very godly/righteous [DOU], he greatly respects/reveres me, and he always avoids doing evil things. And he still acts in a very godly/righteous manner, even though you persuaded me to let you cause disastrous things to happen to him for no reason."

<sup>4</sup> Satan replied to Yahweh, "He praises you only because you bless him [IDM]. People will give up everything they have to save their own lives. <sup>5</sup> But if you harm his body [MTY], he will surely curse you openly [IDM]!"

<sup>9</sup> His wife said to him, "Are you still trying to ◀be loyal to/faithfully trust in▶ God? You should curse God, and then you will die."

<sup>10</sup> But Job replied, "You talk like people who do not know God talk. ◀Should we accept only the good things that God does for us?/We should not accept only the good things that God does for us.▶ [RHQ] We should also accept bad things." So in spite of all these things that happened to Job, he did not say anything against God.

Job's three friends came to comfort him

<sup>11</sup> Among Job's friends were Eliphaz from Teman town, Bildad from Shuah land and Zophar from Naamah land. When they heard about all the terrible things that had happened to Job, they left their home areas and went together to Job to console/comfort him [DOU]. <sup>12</sup> When they saw Job from a distance, they almost did not recognize him. They wailed loudly, they tore their robes, and they threw dust over their heads to show how sorry they were because of what had happened to Job. <sup>13</sup> Then they sat on the ground with Job for seven days. None of them said anything to Job, because they saw that he was suffering greatly, and they did not think that anything that they said would lessen his pain.

Job spoke

- <sup>1</sup> Finally, Job spoke, and he cursed the day that he was born. <sup>2</sup> He said,
- <sup>3</sup> "I wish that the day when I was born could be eradicated, and also the night when I was conceived.
- <sup>4</sup> I wish that the day when I was born would have been covered in darkness.
I wish that God who is in heaven [MTY] would have forgotten about that day, and that the sun would not have shone on it.
- <sup>5</sup> I wish that thick/intense darkness would have filled that day, and that a black cloud would have come over it and blotted out all light and caused people to be terrified.
- <sup>6</sup> I wish that the night when I was conceived would be erased from the calendar, with the result that it would never again appear as one night in any month, and that it would not be included in any calendar.
- <sup>7</sup> I wish that no child would again be conceived on that night of the month [MET], and that no one would again be happy on that night.
- <sup>8</sup> I want those people who ◀curse/put evil spells on▶ days—those who know how to arouse/awaken the great sea monster—to curse that day.
- <sup>9</sup> I wish that the stars that shone early in the morning on that day after I was conceived will not shine again.
I want those stars to have wished in vain for light to shine;
and that they would not have shone on that day.
- <sup>10</sup> That was an evil day because my mother was able to conceive;
instead, I was born, and I have now experienced all these terrible things.
- <sup>11</sup> "I wish that I had died [RHQ] when I was born—at the time I emerged from my mother's womb.
- <sup>12</sup> I wish that my mother had not [RHQ] allowed me to live.
I wish that she had not nursed me.
- <sup>13</sup> If I had died at the time when I was born,
I would be asleep, resting peacefully in the place where the dead people are.
- <sup>14</sup> I would be resting with kings whose beautiful palaces that they built are now in ruins (OR, who rebuilt palaces that had previously been destroyed), and I would be resting with their officials who have also died.
- <sup>15</sup> I would be resting with princes who were wealthy, whose palaces were filled with gold and silver.
- <sup>16</sup> I wish that I had been buried like a child who died in its mother's womb and never lived to see the light.
- <sup>17</sup> After wicked people die, they do not cause any more troubles;
those who are very tired now will rest.
- <sup>18</sup> Those who were in prison rest peacefully after they die;
they no longer have slave-drivers who curse them.
- <sup>19</sup> Rich people and poor people are alike after they die, and those who were slaves are no longer controlled by their masters.

- 20 ◀“Why does God allow those who are suffering greatly like me to continue to remain alive?/I do not understand why God allows those who are suffering greatly like me to continue to remain alive.▶ [RHQ]
Why does he allow those who are very miserable/distressed to keep living [RHQ]?
- 21 They long/want to die, but they do not die.
They desire to die more than people desire to find a hidden treasure.
- 22 When they finally die and are buried, they are very happy.
- 23 Those who do not know where they are eventually going when they die [RHQ], people whom God has forced [MET] to continue to live in misery, ◀it is not right that they continue to live./why do they continue to live?▶ [RHQ]
- 24 I continually cry very much; as a result, I cannot eat; and I can never stop groaning.
- 25 Things that I always worried might happen to me, have happened to me;
things that I always dreaded have happened to me.
- 26 Now I have no peace in my inner being,
I have no peace;
I cannot rest;
instead, I have only troubles.”

Eliphaz replied to Job

- 1 Then Eliphaz, from Teman, replied to Job. He said,
- 2 “Will you please let me say something to you?
I am not [RHQ] able to remain silent any longer.
- 3 In the past, you have instructed/taught many people, and you have encouraged those who were weak.
- 4 By what you said, you have helped those who ◀needed spiritual help/almost quit trusting in God▶ [MET], and you have enabled them to become spiritually strong again [MET].
- 5 But now, when you experience disasters, you become discouraged.
The disasters hit you, and you are stunned.
- 6 You revere God; ◀does that not cause you to trust in him?/that should cause you to trust in him.▶ [RHQ]
If you were guiltless, you would [RHQ] be confident that God would not have allowed these disasters to happen to you!
- 7 Think about this: Do innocent people die while they are still young [RHQ]?
Does God get rid of godly people [RHQ]? No!
- 8 What I have experienced is this: Just as [MET] farmers who plant bad seeds do not harvest good crops,
just as those who start trouble for others, later bring trouble on themselves.
- 9 They die when God angrily blows his breath on them, when he is very angry with them.
- 10 Even though wicked people may be very powerful like young lions, God will get rid of them [MET].
- 11 They will die like fierce lions that starve to death when there are no animals that they can kill and eat, and their children will be separated from each other like young lions separate from each other to find food.”

Eliphaz says that he learned a secret

- 12 "I heard a message that someone came and whispered to me.
- 13 He spoke to me at night when I was having a bad dream that disturbed/frightened
me
while I was fast asleep.
- 14 It caused me to be afraid and tremble;
it caused all my bones to shake.
- 15 A ghost glided past my face and caused the hair on on the back of my neck to stand straight up.
- 16 It stopped, but I could not see what form it had.
But I could sense that there was some being in front of me, and it said in a quiet voice,
- 17 '◀Does God consider anyone to be righteous?/No human beings can be righteous in God's sight!▶ [RHQ] ◀Their creator cannot consider them to be pure./Can their creator consider them to be pure?▶ [RHQ]
- 18 God cannot be sure that his own angels will always do what is right;
he declares that some of them have done what is wrong.
- 19 So he certainly cannot trust human beings who were made from dust and clay, who are crushed as easily as moths are crushed!
- 20 People are sometimes well in the morning, but in the evening they are dead.
They are gone forever and do not even know it (OR, and no one pays any attention to it).
- 21 They are like [MET] tents that collapse suddenly:
They die suddenly before they become wise.' "

5

Eliphaz continued replying to Job

- 1 "Job, it is okay that you continue to cry out for someone to help you, but I am certain that [RHQ] no angel will come to help you!
- 2 Foolish people die because of being ◀resentful/very angry at someone▶;
people who are easily deceived are destroyed by their being jealous of others.
- 3 I have seen foolish people who seemed to be successful/prosperous, but suddenly they experienced disaster/trouble because someone cursed their home.
- 4 Their sons are never safe;
they ◀lose their case/are condemned▶ when someone ◀takes them to court/sues them▶,
because there is no one to defend them.
- 5 Hungry people steal the crops that foolish people harvest, and eat those crops;
they even steal the crops that grow among thorns, and greedy people take away the wealth of foolish people.
- 6 But evil circumstances/sufferings are not produced by the soil;
troubles do not grow up from the ground.
- 7 People have troubles from the time that they are born just as surely as sparks shoot up from a fire.
- 8 "If I were suffering like you are, I would ask God for help and tell him ◀what I am complaining about/about my suffering▶.
- 9 He does great things, things that we cannot understand;

we cannot even count the marvelous things that he does.

- 10 He sends rain on the ground;
he sends water on our fields.
- 11 He exalts those who are humble, and causes those who mourn to be joyful (OR, safe, prosperous).
- 12 He causes crafty/cunning people to not be able to do what they plan to do, with the result that they achieve nothing.
- 13 He causes people who think that they [IRO] are wise to be trapped by the cunning things they try to do, with the result that they do not succeed.
- 14 It is as though even in the daytime they are covered by darkness, and grope around trying to find the road at noontime like people do at night.
- 15 But God saves helpless people from being harmed by what wicked people say [MTY], he saves needy people from being injured by [MTY] powerful people.
- 16 So, poor people confidently expect that good things will happen to them but God causes wicked people to stop talking.
- 17 “But those whom God corrects/rebukes are happy;
so do not despise/dislike it when God who is all-powerful disciplines you.
- 18 He wounds people, but then he puts bandages on those wounds;
he hurts people, but he [SYN] also heals them.
- 19 He will rescue you many times from your troubles, with the result that nothing evil will happen to you.
- 20 When there is a famine, he will not allow you to die, and when there is a war, you will not be killed [MTY].
- 21 God will protect you when people slander [MTY] you;
you will not be afraid when many things around you are destroyed.
- 22 You will be able to laugh/scoff when things are destroyed and when there is famine, and you will not be afraid of wild animals.
- 23 You will not worry about having big rocks in your fields that will make plowing difficult, and you will not worry about being attacked by wild animals there.
- 24 In your tent, you will know that things will go well for you, and when you look at your livestock, you will see that ◀they are all there/none of them is missing▶.
- 25 You will be sure that you will have many descendants, who will be as numerous as blades of grass.
- 26 You will become very old before you die, like sheaves of grain continue to grow until it is time to harvest them.
- 27 “My friends and I have thought carefully about these things, and we know that they are true,
so pay attention to what I have said!”

Job refuted Eliphaz' claim

- 1 Then Job spoke again, saying to Eliphaz,
- 2 “If all my troubles and misery could be put on a scale and weighed,
3 they would be heavier than all the sands on the shores of the oceans.

That is why I spoke ◀very rashly/without thinking clearly▶ about the day that I was born.

<sup>4</sup> It is as though Almighty God has shot me with arrows.

It is as though those arrows had poison on their tips, and that poison has gone into my spirit.

The things that God has done to me have terrified me.

<sup>5</sup> Just like a wild donkey does not complain by braying when it has plenty of grass to eat, and an ox does not complain by bellowing when it has food to eat [MET],

I would not complain if you were really helping/comforting me.

<sup>6</sup> People complain [RHQ] when they must eat food which has no salt or other tasteless food [MET],

and that is what your words are like, Eliphaz.

and I loathe/detests that kind of food [MET],

I do not appreciate what you have said to me.

<sup>8</sup> "I wish that God would do for me what I have requested from him [DOU].

I wish that he would reach out his hand and take away my life.

<sup>10</sup> If he would do that, I would be comforted by knowing that in spite of the great pain that I have suffered,

I have always obeyed what God, the Holy One, has commanded.

And since I have nothing to hope for in ◀the future/this life▶, it is difficult for me to be patient now [RHQ].

<sup>13</sup> So I am not able to help myself, and it seems that there is no one to rescue me."

Job's friends were not helping him

<sup>14</sup> "When a man has many troubles, his friends should be kind to him, even if he stops revering Almighty God.

<sup>15</sup> But you, my friends, are not dependable.

You are like streams: They spill over their banks in the spring

<sup>17</sup> but when the dry season comes, there is no water flowing in those streams, and the channels dry up.

<sup>18</sup> The caravans of merchants turn off the path to search for some water, but there is no water, so they die in the desert.

You have seen that terrible things have happened to me, and you are afraid that God might do similar things to you.

<sup>22</sup> After I lost all my wealth, did I ask any of you for money? [RHQ]

- Did I plead with any of you to spend some of your money to help me [RHQ]?
 23 Have I asked any of you to rescue me from my enemies [RHQ]?
 Have I asked you to save me from those who ◀oppressed me/treated me badly▶ [RHQ]? No!"
- Job insisted he had done no wrong*
- 24 "Answer me now, and then I will be quiet;
 tell me what wrong things I have done!
- 25 When people speak what is true, that will not hurt the person who hears it, but what you say, criticizing me, is not true, so your saying it proves nothing [RHQ]!
- 26 I am a man who has nothing to hope for,
 but you try to correct me, and you think what I say is nothing but wind [RHQ]!
- 27 You do not sympathize with me at all for all that I am suffering.
You are heartless! You would even gamble to see who gets an orphan as a prize!
- 28 Please look at me! I will not [RHQ] lie to you.
- 29 Stop saying that I have sinned, and stop criticizing me unjustly!
 You should realize that I have not done things that are wrong.
- 30 Do you think that I am lying?
 No, I am not lying, because I know what is right and what is wrong [RHQ]."

7

Job complains to God

- 1 "People need to work hard on this earth, like soldiers do;
 all during the time that we are alive, we work hard [RHQ], like laborers/servants do.
- 2 We are like [SIM] slaves who keep wanting to be in the cool shade, and we are like [SIM] workers who are waiting to be paid.
- 3 God has given me many months in which I think that it is useless to remain alive;
 he has allotted/given to me many nights during which I feel miserable.
- 4 When I lie down at night I say, 'How long will it be until morning?'
 But nights are long, and I ◀toss/turn over and over▶ on my bed until dawn.
- 5 My body is covered with maggots and scabs;
 pus oozes out of my open sores.
- 6 My days pass as quickly as a weaver's ◀shuttle/stick that takes the thread back and forth▶, and they end without my confidently expecting that things will be better the next day.
- 7 God, do not forget that my life is as short as a breath [MET];
 I think that I [SYN] will never again be happy.
- 8 God, you [SYN] see me now, but some day you will not see me any more.
 You will search for me, but I will be gone because I will be dead.
- 9 Like [SIM] clouds ◀disperse/break up▶ and then disappear, people die and descend to the place where dead people are, and they do not return;
- 10 they never return to their houses, and people among whom they lived do not remember them any more.
- 11 So, I will not be silent;

- while I am suffering I will speak;
I will complain to God about what has happened to me because I [SYN] am very angry.
- 12 God, why do you watch closely what I am doing?
Do you think that I am a dangerous sea monster?
- 13 When I lie down at night, I think, 'I will be comforted here on my bed;
my pain will be less while I am sleeping.'
- 14 But then you give me dreams that cause me to be afraid;
you give me visions that terrify me,
- 15 with the result that I would prefer to be strangled to death than to continue to be alive being only a bunch of bones.
- 16 I detest continuing to be alive; I do not want to live for many years [HYP].
Allow me to be alone, because I will be alive for only a very short remaining time [HYP].
- 17 "We human beings are not very important;
so, why do you pay a lot of attention to us [DOU]?"
- 18 You look at us every morning to see what we are doing, and examine us every moment to see if we are doing what is right.
- 19 ◀When will you stop looking at me and leave me alone for a little time, long enough to swallow my spit?/Please stop looking at me and leave me alone for a little time, long enough to swallow my spit.▶ [RHQ]
- 20 Why do you watch me constantly?
If I sin, that certainly does not harm you!
Why have you set me up like a target to shoot at?
Do you consider me to be a heavy load that you are forced to carry?
- 21 If I have sinned, are you not able to forgive me for my sins—
the things that I have done that are wrong?
Soon I will lie in my grave;
you will search for me, but you will not find me because I will be dead and gone."

Bildad's first speech to Job

- 1 Then Bildad, from the Shuah area, spoke to Job. He said,
- 2 "Job, how much longer will you talk like this?
What you say is only hot air.
- 3 Almighty God certainly never does [RHQ] what is unfair/unjust.
He always does [LIT] what is right/fair.
- 4 So, it is evident that your children have sinned against him, therefore he has caused them to be punished for evil things that they have done.
- 5 But, if you will now earnestly request [DOU] Almighty God to help you,
- 6 and if you are pure and honest/righteous, he will surely do something good for you and reward you by giving your family back to you and enabling you to prosper.
- 7 And even though you think that you were not very prosperous/wealthy before, during the last part of your life you will become very wealthy.
- 8 "I request you to think about what happened long ago and consider what our ancestors found out.
- 9 It seems as though we were born only yesterday

- and we know very little [HYP];
 our time here on the earth disappears quickly, like a shadow [MET].
- 10 So, why do you not allow your ancestors to teach you and tell you something?
 Allow them to tell you from what they learned!
- 11 Papyrus can certainly not [RHQ] grow in places where there is no marsh/swamp;
 reeds certainly cannot [RHQ] flourish/grow where there is no water.
- 12 If they do not have enough water, while they are still blossoming, they wither more quickly than other plants wither.
- 13 Those who do not pay attention to what God says are like those reeds;
 godless people stop confidently expecting that good things will happen to them.
- 14 The things they confidently expect to happen do not happen;
 things they trust will help them are as fragile as [MET] a spider's web.
- 15 If they lean against a house (OR, trust in their wealth; OR, lean on a spider web), it does not ◀endure/protect them▶ [LIT];
 they cling to things to be protected, but those things do not remain firm.
- 16 Godless people are like plants [MET] that are watered before the sun rises; their shoots spread all over the gardens.
- 17 The roots of those plants twist around piles of stones and cling tightly to rocks.
- 18 But if those plants are pulled out,
it is as though the place where they were planted says 'They were never here!'
And that is what happens to wicked people who do not heed what God says.
- 19 Truly, evil people [MET] are not joyful [IRO] for a long time;
 other people come and take their places.
- 20 :So, I tell you, Job, God will not reject you if you are truly godly/righteous, but he does not help [IDM] evil people.
- 21 He will enable you [MTY] to continually laugh and to always shout joyfully.
- 22 But those who hate you will be very ashamed, and the homes of wicked people will disappear."

9

Job replied to Bildad

- 1 Then Job replied,
- 2 "Yes, I certainly know that much of what you said is true.
 But ◀how can anyone say to God, 'I <am innocent/have not done what is wrong> and prove it?'/no one can say to God 'I <am innocent/have not done what is wrong> and prove it.'▶ [RHQ]
- 3 If someone wanted to argue with God about that,
 God could ask him 1,000 questions, and that person would not be able to answer any of them!
- 4 God is very wise [IDM] and very powerful;
 no one who has tried to challenge God has been able to win.
- 5 He even moves mountains, without them (OR, anyone) knowing about it.
 When he is angry, he turns them upside down.
- 6 He sends earthquakes that shake the ground;
 he causes the pillars that support the earth to tremble.
- 7 Some days he speaks to the sun, and it does not rise, and some nights he prevents the stars from shining.

- 8 He alone ◀stretched out/put in place▶ the sky;
he alone puts his feet on the waves (OR, on the huge sea monster).
- 9 He put in their places the clusters/groups of stars that are called The Dipper/Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the stars in the southern sky.
- 10 Only he does great things that we cannot understand;
he does more marvelous things than we are able to count.
- 11 He passes by where I am, but I do not see him;
he moves further on, but I do not see him go.
- 12 If he wants to snatch something away, no one [RHQ] can hinder him;
no one dares to ask him, 'Why are you doing that?' [RHQ]
- 13 God will not very easily stop being angry;
he defeated [MTY] those who tried to help Rahab, the great sea monster.
- 14 "So, if God took me to court, what could I say [MTY] to answer him?
- 15 Even though I ◀would be innocent/would not have done what is wrong▶, I would not be able to answer him.
All I could do would be to request God, my judge/accuser, to act mercifully toward me.
- 16 If I summoned him to come to the courtroom and he said that he would come,
I would not believe that he would pay attention to what I would say.
- 17 He sends storms to batter me, and he bruises me many times ◀without any reason to do that/even though I am innocent▶.
- 18 It is as though he will not let me get/catch my breath, because he causes me to suffer all the time.
- 19 If I would try to ◀wrestle with/fight against▶ him, there is no way that I could defeat him, because he is stronger than I am.
- If I would request him to appear in court, there is no one who could [RHQ] force him to go there.
- 20 Even though I was innocent, what I would say would cause him to say that I must be punished [MTY];
even though I had not done anything wrong, he would prove that I am guilty.
- 21 "I have not done what is wrong, but that is not important.
I despise continuing to remain alive.
- 22 But it doesn't matter, because God will get rid of all of us, both those who are innocent and those who are wicked.
- 23 When people experience disaster and it causes them to suddenly die, God laughs at it, even if they are innocent.
- 24 God has allowed wicked people to control what happens in the world.
It is as though he has caused judges to be blindfolded, with the result that they cannot judge fairly.
- If it is not God who has put wicked people in control, who has done it?
- 25 "My days go by very quickly, like a fast runner;
it is as though they run away, and nothing good happens to me on those days.
- 26 My life goes by very rapidly, like a boat made from reeds sailing swiftly, or like an eagle that swoops down to seize a small animal.

- 27 If I smile and say to God, 'I will forget what I am complaining about;
I will stop looking sad and try to be cheerful/happy,' 28 then I become afraid because of all that I am suffering, because I know that God does not consider that I am innocent.
29 He will ◀condemn me/declare that I should be punished▶, so why should I keep trying in vain to defend myself?
30 If I washed myself with snow or cleansed my hands with lye/soap to get rid of my guilt, 31 he would still throw me into a filthy pit;
as a result it would be as though even my clothes would detest me.
- 32 "God is not a human, as I am, so there is no way that I could answer him to prove that I am innocent if we went together to have a trial in a courtroom.
33 There is no one to ◀mediate/hear us and decide who is right▶, no one who has authority over both of us [IDM].
34 I wish/desire that he would stop punishing [MTY] me, and that he would not continue to terrify me.
35 If he did that, I would declare that I am innocent without being afraid of him, because I know that I really have not done what is wrong like God thinks that I have."

10

Job again complained to God

- 1 "I am tired of living.
And I will not be silent and stop saying what I am complaining about.
Instead, being very unhappy, I will speak [IDM].
2 I will say to God, 'Do not say that I must be punished;
instead, tell me what wrong you are saying that I have done.
3 Does it seem to be good for you to oppress me, to abandon me, whom you created, and instead, to help wicked people to do the things that they plan to do?
4 Do you understand things the way that we humans do?
5 ◀Do you live for only a few years, like we do?/You certainly do not live for only a few years, like we do.▶ [RHQ]
6 So, why do you [RHQ] continue to search for my faults?
Why do you hunt for my sins?
7 You know that I am not guilty, and that no one can rescue me from your power [MTY].
8 ""With your hands you created me and shaped/formed my body; but now you are deciding that you should not have done that, and you are destroying me.
9 Do not forget that you made me from a piece of clay;
are you going to cause me to become dirt again [RHQ]?
10 You certainly [RHQ] directed/controlled it when I was conceived, and you formed me inside my mother's womb [MET].
11 You fastened my bones together with sinews, and then you covered them with flesh inside my skin.

- 12 You have caused me to be alive, and you have faithfully loved me, and you have carefully ◀preserved me/kept me alive▶.
- 13 “But you ◀kept secret/did not reveal▶ what you were planning to do to me;
I am certain that you were planning to do these things to me.
- 14 You were watching to see if I would sin, in order that if I sinned, you would refuse to forgive me.
- 15 If I am a wicked man, I hope/wish that terrible things will happen to me.
But even if I am righteous, I still must bow my head and feel ashamed, because I am very disgraced and feel miserable.
- 16 And if I am proud, you hunt me like [SIM] a lion hunts for some animal to kill,
and you act powerfully to injure me.
- 17 You constantly find more witnesses to testify that I have done what is wrong, and you continually become more angry/perturbed with me.
It is as though you are always bringing new troops to attack me.
- 18 “God, why did you allow me to be born?
I wish/desire that I had died before anyone [SYN] saw me.
- 19 I consider that it would have been better if I had been carried directly from my mother’s womb to the grave than for me to live.
- 20 I think that [RHQ] there are only a few days for me to remain alive;
so ◀allow me to be alone/stop attacking me▶, in order that I may be a little cheerful
- 21 before I go to the place from which I will never return, where it is always gloomy and very dark [DOU],
- 22 a place of darkness and dark shadows, where everything is confused/disordered, where even a small amount of light there is like darkness (OR, there is no light, only darkness).’ ”

Zophar’s first speech to Job

- 1 Then Zophar, from the Naamah area, said this to Job:
- 2 “◀Should no one answer all that you have said?/Someone should certainly answer all that you have said.▶ [RHQ]
Just because you talk a lot, ◀should that cause us to declare that you <are innocent/have done nothing wrong>?/that should not cause us to declare that you <are innocent/have done nothing wrong>.▶ [RHQ]
- 3 Job, ◀should your babbling cause us to be silent?/your babbling should certainly not cause us to be silent.▶ [RHQ]
When you make fun of us, shall no one rebuke you and cause you to be ashamed?
- 4 You say, ‘What I say is true;
God knows that I am ◀innocent/without guilt▶.’
- 5 But I wish/desire that God would talk and say something [MTY] to answer you!
- 6 God knows everything about everything, so I wish/desire that he would tell you the secrets that he knows because he is wise.
But you need to know that God is punishing you less than you deserve!

- 7 “Tell me, will you ever be able to find out the things about God that are very difficult to understand?
Will you be able to find out everything that there is to know about Almighty God?
- 8 What there is to know about God is greater than the distance from earth to heaven; so there is no way [RHQ] that you can understand it all.
It is greater than the distance from here to the place of the dead; so it is impossible for you [RHQ] to know it all.
- 9 What there is to know about God is wider than the earth and wider than the ocean.
- 10 “If God comes to you and puts you in prison and then brings you to a court, ◀who can stop him?/no one can stop him.▶ [RHQ]
- 11 He knows which people are worthless; and when he sees people doing wicked things, ◀will he ignore it?/he will certainly not ignore it!▶ [RHQ]
- 12 Stupid people like you will start to become wise [SAR] when wild donkeys stop giving birth to wild donkeys and start giving birth to tame donkeys.
- 13 “Job, repent [IDM]; reach out your hands to seek God’s help.
- 14 If you have done evil things, stop doing them;
and do not allow any people in your house to do wicked things.
- 15 If you do what I have said, surely you will lift up your head because you will not be ashamed;
you will be strong, and not afraid of anything.
- 16 You will forget all your troubles;
they will be like the water of a flood that has all disappeared.
- 17 Your troubles will be ended, like the darkness ends at the dawn;
it will be as though [MET] the sun is shining brightly on you, like it shines at noon.
- 18 You will feel safe/secure, because you will confidently expect that good things will happen to you;
God will protect you and enable you to rest safely each night.
- 19 You will lie down, and no one will cause you to be afraid.
And many people will come and request you to do things for them.
- 20 But wicked people [SYN] will not be able to understand why bad things are happening to them;
they will not have any way to escape from their troubles.
The only thing that they will want to do is to die. [EUP]”

12

Job replied to his three friends

- 1 Then Job said to his three friends,
- 2 “You ◀talk as though/You think▶ [SAR] that you are the people whom everyone should listen to,
and that when you die, there will be no more wise people.
- 3 But I have as much good sense as you do;
I am ◀not less wise than/certainly as wise as [LIT]▶ you.
Certainly everyone knows [RHQ] all that you have said.
- 4 My friends all laugh at me now.

- Previously I habitually requested God to help me, and he answered/helped me.
I am righteous, a very godly man [DOU], but everyone laughs at me.
- <sup>5</sup> Those like you who have no troubles make fun of me;
they cause those like me who are already suffering to have more troubles.
- <sup>6</sup> Bandits live peacefully, and no one threatens those who cause God to become angry;
their own strength is the god that they worship.
- <sup>7</sup> “But ask the wild animals what they know about God, and if they could speak they would teach you.
If you could ask the birds,
they would tell you.
- <sup>8</sup> If you could ask the creatures that crawl on the ground, or the fish in the sea, they would tell you about God.
- <sup>9</sup> All of them certainly know [RHQ] that it is Yahweh who has made them with his hands.
- <sup>10</sup> He directs the lives of all living creatures;
he gives breath to all us humans to enable us to remain alive.
- <sup>11</sup> And when we [SYN] hear what other people like you say, we [RHQ] think carefully about what they say to determine what is good and what is bad,
like we [SYN] taste food to determine what is good and what is bad.
- <sup>12</sup> Old people are often very wise, and because of having lived many years, they understand much,
- <sup>13</sup> but God is wise and very powerful;
he has good sense and understands everything.
- <sup>14</sup> If he tears something down, no one can rebuild it;
if he puts someone in prison, no one can open the prison doors to allow that person to escape.
- <sup>15</sup> When he prevents rain from falling, everything dries up.
When he causes a lot of rain to fall, the result is that there are floods.
- <sup>16</sup> He is the one who is truly strong and wise;
he rules over those who deceive others and those whom they deceive.
- <sup>17</sup> He sometimes causes the king’s officials to no longer be wise, and he causes judges to become foolish.
- <sup>18</sup> He takes from kings the robes that they wear and puts loincloths around their waists, causing them to become slaves.
- <sup>19</sup> He takes from priests the sacred clothes that they wear, with the result that they no longer can do their work, and takes power from those who rule others.
- <sup>20</sup> He sometimes causes those whom others trust to be unable to speak, and he causes old men to no longer have good sense.
- <sup>21</sup> He causes those who have authority to be despised, and he causes those who are powerful to no longer have any power/strength.
- <sup>22</sup> He causes things that are hidden in the darkness to be revealed.
- <sup>23</sup> He causes some nations to become very great, and later he destroys them;
he causes the territory of some nations to become much larger, and later he causes them to be defeated and their people to be scattered.
- <sup>24</sup> He causes some rulers to become foolish/stupid, and then he causes them to wander around, lost, in an barren desert.

<sup>25</sup> They grope around in the darkness, without any light, and he causes them to stagger like [SIM] people who are drunk.”

13

Job continued his reply

- <sup>1</sup> “Hey, I [SYN] have seen everything that you have seen, and I have heard and understood all that you have said.
<sup>2</sup> What you know, I also know;
 I do ◀not know less than/know as much as▶ you.
<sup>3</sup> But I would like to speak to Almighty God, not to you;
 I would like to argue with him and prove that I ◀am innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶.
<sup>4</sup> As for you, you do not allow people to know the truth about me, like someone covers up a bad surface of a wall with whitewash [MET].
 You are all like doctors [MET] that give people useless medicines.
<sup>5</sup> I wish/desire that you would be silent;
 that would be the wisest thing that you could do.
<sup>6</sup> Listen to what I will say to you now;
 listen while I am saying what is true about myself.
<sup>7</sup> Are you telling lies about me to prove God is just in causing me to suffer?
 Are you saying what is deceitful in order to benefit him?
<sup>8</sup> Are you trying to defend him?
 Are you trying to prove as you would in a court that he is innocent?
<sup>9</sup> If he looks closely, will he find that everything that you have done is good?
 Or can you deceive him, like you deceive other people?
<sup>10</sup> If you secretly say/do things to cause God to act favorably toward you, he will surely rebuke you.
<sup>11</sup> He will certainly [RHQ] cause you to be terrified by his power/greatness;
 you will become extremely afraid.
<sup>12</sup> The things that you say that you think are wise are as useless as [MET] as ashes;
 what you say to defend your opinions is no better than [MET] clay that quickly crumbles.
<sup>13</sup> “So, be quiet and allow me to speak, and then it will not matter what happens to me.
<sup>14</sup> I am ready to endure anything;
 I am even willing to risk being executed [IDM, DOU] for what I will say.
<sup>15</sup> If God kills me, then I will not have anyone else whom I can confidently expect to help me, but I am going to defend my behavior in his presence anyway.
<sup>16</sup> No wicked/godless person would dare to stand in the presence of God, but because I say that I have not done things that are wrong, perhaps, if I can prove that to God, he will save me.”

Job asks God to tell him what his charges are

- <sup>17</sup> “God, listen very carefully to what I say [DOU].
<sup>18</sup> I am ready to prove that I am innocent, and I know that you also will declare that I am not guilty.
<sup>19</sup> I certainly do not think [RHQ] that you or anyone else will say that what I say is not true;

if anyone did that, I would ◀be silent/stop talking▶ and die.

- 20 "I am requesting you to do two things for me;
if you do them, I will ◀not hide from you/come and stand in front of you▶ [LIT].
- 21 The first thing that I request is that you stop punishing [IDM] me;
and the second thing that I request is that you stop causing me to be very terrified.
- 22 You speak first, and then I will reply; or allow me to speak first, and then you reply.
- 23 What have I done that is wrong? What sins have I committed?
Show me how I have disobeyed you.
- 24 Why ◀do you refuse to be friendly with/have you abandoned▶ me [IDM]?
Why do you ◀act toward me as though I am/consider me to be▶ your enemy?
- 25 I am as insignificant as [MET] a leaf that is blown by the wind;
why are you trying to cause me to be afraid [RHQ]?
Why are you pursuing me?
Am I useless, nothing more than a bit of dry chaff [RHQ]?
- 26 It seems that you are writing things to accuse me of doing things that are wrong, even recalling bad things that I did when I was young.
- 27 It is as though you have fastened my feet with chains to prevent me from walking, and you watch me wherever I walk;
It is as though you even look closely at my footprints to see where I have gone.
- 28 As a result, my body is decaying like [SIM] rotten wood, like a piece of cloth that is eaten by larvae of moths."

14

Job prayed to God

- 1 "We humans are very frail.
We live only a short time, and we experience a lot of trouble.
- 2 We disappear quickly, like flowers that grow from the ground quickly and then wither and die [SIM].
We are like shadows that disappear when the sun stops shining.
- 3 Yahweh, why do you keep watching me to see if I am doing something that is wrong
[RHQ]?
Are you wanting to take me to court to judge me?
- 4 People are sinners from the time when they are born;
who can cause them to be sinless? No one [RHQ]!
- 5 You have decided how long our lives will be.
You have decided how many months we will live, and we cannot live more months than the ◀limit/number of months▶ that you have decided.
- 6 So please stop examining us, and allow us to be alone, until/while we finish our time here on earth, like a man finishes his work at the end of the day.

Job said that we all die

- 7 If someone cuts a tree down, we hope that it will sprout again and grow new branches.
- 8 Its roots in the ground may be very old,
and its stump may decay,
- 9 but if some water falls on it,
it may bud/sprout and send up shoots like a young plant.

- 10 But when we people lose all our strength and die,
we stop breathing and then we are gone forever.
- 11 Just like water evaporates from the ocean, or like a riverbed dries up,
- 12 people lie down and die and do not get up again.
Until the heavens disappear, people who die [EUP] do not wake up, and no one can wake them up.
- 13 “Yahweh, I wish that you would put me safely in the place of the dead and forget about me
until you are no longer angry with me.
I wish that you would decide how much time I would spend there, and then remember that I am there.
- 14 When we humans die, we will certainly not live again [RHQ].
If I knew that we would live again, I would wait patiently, and I would wait for you to release me from my sufferings.
- 15 You would call me, and I would answer.
You would be eager to see me, one of the creatures that you had made.
- 16 You would take care of [MET] me, instead of watching me to see if I would sin.
- 17 It is as though the record of my sins would be sealed in a small bag, and you would cover them up.
- 18 “But, just like mountains crumble and rocks fall down from a cliff, 19 and just like water slowly wears away the stones, and just like floods wash away soil,
you eventually destroy us; you do not allow us to continue to ◀hope/confidently expect▶ that we will keep on living.
- 20 You always defeat us, and then we die [EUP].
You cause our faces to look ugly after we die,
and you send us away.
- 21 When we die we do not know if our sons will grow up and do things that will cause them to be honored.
And if they become disgraced, we do not see that, either.
- 22 We will feel our own pains; we will not feel anything else;
we will be sorry for ourselves, not for anyone else.”

15

Eliphaz rebuked Job again

- 1 Then Eliphaz replied to Job:
- 2 “If you were truly wise [RHQ], you would not have replied to us by claiming that you know a lot;
what you are saying is just a lot of hot air [MET].
- 3 You should not [RHQ] be saying things that do not benefit anyone, using words that do no one any good.
- 4 By what you say, you show that you do not revere God, and you are hindering people from meditating/thinking about God.
- 5 It is as though your sins are telling you what to say;
you talk like people who will not admit that they are wicked.

- 6 Everything that you say [MTY] shows that you should be punished;
so, it is not necessary for me to show that.
- 7 “Tell me do you know more than everyone else because you think that you are the first person who was ever born? [SAR, RHQ]
Were you born before the hills were created?
- 8 Were you listening when God made all his plans? [SAR, RHQ]
Or do you think that you are the only person who is wise?
- 9 ◀What do you know that we do not know?/You do not know anything that we do not know.▶ [RHQ]
You do not understand [RHQ] anything that is not also clear to us.
- 10 My friends and I are also wise;
we acquired wisdom from old gray-haired people, from people who were born before your father was born.
- 11 God wants to comfort you,
and to speak gently/kindly to you;
◀is that not enough for you/do you need more than that▶?
- 12 Why do you allow yourself to be ◀carried away/excited▶ by your emotions?
Why are you very angry, with the result that your eyes flash?
- 13 You are angry [IDM] with God, and so you [MTY] are criticizing/denouncing him.
- 14 “◀How can any person, including you, be sinless?/No person, including you, can be sinless.▶ [RHQ]
◀How can anyone on the earth be completely righteous?/No one on the earth can be completely righteous.▶ [RHQ]
- 15 Hey, God does not even trust his angels;
he does not consider even them to be completely pure.
- 16 So, he certainly does not trust abominable/disgusting and depraved/corrupt people who do evil things as easily as they drink water [MET].
- 17 Job, listen to what I will tell you.
I will declare to you what I know,
- 18 things that wise men have told me, truths that their ancestors did not keep hidden.
- 19 God gave this land to those ancestors, who were truly wise;
no one from another country caused them to think wrongly [IDM].
- 20 It is wicked people who suffer with great pain all the time that they are alive;
that is what happens to those who ◀oppress/act violently toward▶ others.
- 21 They constantly hear sounds that terrify them;
while they are prospering, bandits attack them.
- 22 Wicked people surely know that they will not escape from darkness/death, because they are sure that someone is waiting to kill them with a sword.
- 23 They wander around, searching for food, saying ‘Where can I find some?’
And they know that they will soon experience disasters.
- 24 Because they are afraid of those things happening to them, they are afraid and worry that these things will come to them like the army of a king comes to attack their enemies and cause them to suffer [SIM].

- 25 Those things happen to them because they ◀shook their fists/dared to fight▶ against Almighty God, and thought that they were strong enough to defeat him.
- 26 They stubbornly [IDM] rush to attack God
as though they were carrying a strong shield to protect themselves.
- 27 They are so fat that they are unable to fight.
- 28 They will live in cities that have been abandoned, cities which have become a heap of ruins.
- 29 But they will not remain rich very long;
Everything that they own will be taken from them;
their possessions will all disappear.
- 30 They will not escape from the darkness of death;
they will be like trees whose branches are burned by fire and whose blossoms are blown away by the wind.
- 31 Since they are very foolish, with the result that they trust in things that are really worthless, then things that are worthless will be all that they get.
- 32 Before they are old, they will wither;
they will be like [MET] branches that wither and never become green again.
- 33 They will be like [SIM] vines whose grapes fall off before they are ripe, like olive trees whose blossoms fall off before they produce any fruit.
- 34 Wicked/godless people will not have any descendants, and fires will completely burn up the homes of those who built those homes using money they received from bribes.
- 35 They plan to cause trouble and to do evil things, and they are always preparing to deceive people.”

16

Job replied to the three friends again

- 1 Job replied to Eliphaz and the others:
- 2 “I have heard things like that before;
all of you, instead of helping me, are only causing me to feel more miserable.
- 3 Will your speeches, which are only hot air, never end [RHQ]?
Eliphaz, what bothers/irritates you so much that you continue replying to me?
- 4 If it were you three and not I who were suffering,
I could say the things that you are saying;
I could make great speeches to criticize/condemn you, and I could shake my head at you to ridicule you.
- 5 But, unlike all of you, with what I said [MTY] I would encourage you and try to cause your pain to be less.
- 6 “But now, if I talk, my pain does not decrease, and if I am silent, my pain still certainly does not [RHQ] go away.
- 7 God has now taken away all my strength, and he has destroyed my family.
- 8 He has shriveled me up, and people think that shows that I am a sinner.
And people see that I am only skin and bones, and they think that proves that I am guilty.
- 9 Because God is very angry with me and hates me,

- it is as though he is a wild animal that [MET] has gnashed his teeth at me because he is my enemy.*
- 10 People gape/stare at me with their mouths open to sneer at me;
they have struck me on the face/cheek to ridicule me,
and they crowd around me to threaten me.
- 11 It is as though God has handed me over to ungodly people and turned me over to the wicked [DOU].
- 12 Previously, I was living peacefully,
but he crushed me;
it is as though he grabbed my neck and smashed me to pieces.
It is as though [MET] he set me up like a target;
- 13 people are surrounding me and shooting arrows at me.
His arrows pierce my kidneys and cause the bile from my liver to spill onto the ground, and God does not pity me at all.
- 14 It is as though [MET] I am a wall that he is breaking through;
he rushes at me like [SIM] a soldier attacking his enemies.
- 15 “Because I am mourning, I wear pieces of rough cloth that I have sewed together, and I sit here in the dirt, very depressed/discouraged.
- 16 My face is red because I have cried very much,
and there are dark circles around my eyes.
- 17 All this has happened to me even though I have not acted violently toward anyone, and I always pray sincerely/honestly to God.
- 18 When I die, I want the ground [APO] to act as though I had been murdered and cry out against those who killed me, and I do not want anyone to stop me while I am demanding that God act justly toward me.
- 19 But even now, I know that there is someone in heaven who will testify for me, and he will say that what I have done is right.
- 20 My three friends scorn/ridicule me, but my eyes are full of tears while I cry out to God.
- 21 I pray that the one who knows what I have done would come to plead with God for
me
like people plead for their friends.
- 22 I say this because within a few years I will die;
I will walk along the road to the grave from which I will never return.”

17

Job continued his reply

- 1 “My ◀life/time to live▶ is almost ended; I have no strength left;
my grave is waiting for me.
- 2 Those who are around me are making fun of me;
I [SYN] watch them while they ◀taunt/make fun of▶ me.”

Job pleads with God

- 3 “God, it is as though I am in prison;
please pay the money in order that I may be released, because there is certainly no one else who will help me.
- 4 You have prevented my friends from understanding what is true about me;

- do not allow them to triumph over me, saying that I have done things that are wrong.
- 5 Our ancestors often said, 'It often happens that when someone betrays his friends in order to get some of their property, it is that person's children who will be punished for it; so I desire/hope that will be true of these friends of mine who are lying about me.
- 6 "But now people use that saying of our ancestors when they talk about me; they spit in my face to insult me.
- 7 ◀My sight has become dim/I cannot see well▶ because I am extremely sad, and my arms and legs are very thin, with the result that they almost do not cast [MET] a shadow.
- 8 Those who say that they are good/righteous are shocked when they see what has happened to me, and people who say that they ◀are innocent/have not done anything that is wrong▶ say that I am wicked/godless and should be punished.
- 9 Those who claim that they are righteous will continue to do what they think is right, and those who say they have not sinned will continue to become stronger.
- 10 "But even if all of those people came and stood in front of me, I would not find anyone among them who is wise.
- 11 My ◀life/time to live▶ is almost ended; I have not been able to do the things that I confidently expected to do; I have not been able to accomplish anything that I [SYN] desired.
- 12 My friends do not know when it is night and when it is day; when it is night, they claim that it is daylight; when it is becoming dark, they claim it is becoming light.
- 13 If my home will be the place where dead people are, where will I sleep in the darkness?
- 14 I may say to the grave, 'You will be like a father to me,' and say to the maggots that will eat my body, 'You will be like a mother or younger sisters to me because you will be where I will always be.'
- 15 But if I say those things, ◀will there be anything good that I can confidently expect to happen to me?/there will be nothing good that I can confidently expect to happen to me.▶ [RHQ]
◀Is there anyone who knows anything good that I can expect when I am in the grave?/No one knows anything good that I can expect when I am in the grave.▶ [RHQ]
- 16 After I descend to the place where the dead are, ◀will I be able to confidently expect anything good there?/I certainly will not be able to confidently expect anything good there.▶ [RHQ]
It will be as though [RHQ] I and the things I hope for will descend with me into the dust where the dead are."

18

Bildad's second reply

- 1 Then Bildad replied again:
- 2 "When are you going to stop talking [RHQ]?
If you would stop talking and listen, we could tell you something.
- 3 Why do you think that we are as stupid as cattle? [DOU, RHQ]

- 4 By being very angry and hurting yourself, do you think that doing that will shake the earth, or cause the rocks in the mountains to move? [RHQ]?
- 5 “What will happen is that the lives of wicked people like you end as quickly as we can put out a light or extinguish the flame of a fire.
- 6 And when the lamps above them in their tents are extinguished, there will be no light in those tents.
- 7 For many years they walked confidently, but later in life it was as though they stumbled and fell, because they themselves did not heed the advice that they gave to others.
- 8 It was as though they walked into their own net or fell into a pit that they themselves have dug.
- 9 It was as though a trap grabbed their heels and held them fast [DOU], 10 as though the noose of a rope that was hidden on the ground, whose other end was fastened to the limb of a tree, seized them when they walked into it.
- 11 Everywhere they went, there were things that caused them to be terrified;
it was as though those things were pursuing them and biting at their heels.
- 12 They became hungry, with the result that they had no strength.
They experienced disasters [PRS] constantly.
- 13 Diseases spread all over their skin/bodies; diseases that ◀caused their bodies to decay/destroyed their arms and legs▶.
- 14 When they died, they were snatched away from their tents and brought to the one who rules over the dead.
- 15 Now their tents will burn down, when burning sulfur rains down on those tents!
- 16 Because those who died had no descendants, they were like trees whose roots have dried up and whose branches have all withered [MET].
- 17 No one on the earth will remember them any more;
no one on any street will even remember their names [MTY].
- 18 They will be expelled from the earth where there is light, and they will be sent into the place where it is dark.
- 19 They will have no children or grandchildren,
no descendants where they previously lived.
- 20 People from the east to the west who hear about what happened to them, will be shocked and horrified.
- 21 And that is what happens to ungodly/sinful people like you, to people who ◀have no interest in/have rejected▶ God.”

Job replied again

- 1 Then Job replied,:
- 2 “How long will you three torment me and crush my spirit by saying to me that I am wicked?
- 3 You have already insulted me many [HYP] times; ◀are you not ashamed for saying these things to me?/you should be ashamed for saying these things to me.▶ [RHQ]
- 4 Even if it were true that I have done things that are wrong,

I have not injured you!

<sup>5</sup> If you truly think that you are better than I am, and you think that my being miserable now proves that I ◀am guilty/have committed many sins▶,

<sup>6</sup> you need to realize that it is God who has caused me to suffer.
It is as though he has trapped me with his net.

I call out loudly, but there is no one, not even God, who acts fairly toward me.

<sup>8</sup> It is as though [MET] God has blocked my way, with the result that I cannot go where I want to;
it is as though he has forced me to try to find my way in the darkness.

<sup>9</sup> He has ◀taken away my good reputation/caused people not to honor me any more▶;
it is as though he removed [MET] a crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup> He batters me from every side, and I will soon die.

He has caused me to no longer confidently expect him to do good things for me.

<sup>11</sup> He attacks me because he is extremely angry with me [MET],
and he considers that I am his enemy.

<sup>12</sup> It is as though he sends his army to attack me;
they surround my tent, preparing to attack me.

<sup>13</sup> "God has caused my brothers to abandon me, and all those who know me act like strangers to me.

<sup>15</sup> The people who were guests in my house have forgotten me, and my female servants consider that I am a stranger or that I am a foreigner.

<sup>16</sup> When I summon my servants, they do not answer;
I plead with them to come to help me, but they do not come.

<sup>17</sup> My wife does not want to come close to me because my breath smells very bad, and even my brothers detest me.

when I stand up to talk to them, they laugh at me.

<sup>19</sup> My dearest friends detest me,
and those whom I love very much have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup> My body is only skin and bones;
I am barely alive [IDM].

<sup>21</sup> "I plead with you, my three friends, pity me, because God has ◀struck [EUP] me with his hand/caused me to suffer greatly▶.

<sup>22</sup> Why do you cause me to suffer like God does?
Why do you continue to slander [MET] me?

<sup>23</sup> "I wish/desire that someone would take these words of mine and write them permanently in a book in order that people can read them.

<sup>24</sup> Or else, I wish that he would carve them on a rock with ◀a chisel/an iron tool▶ in order that they would last forever.

<sup>25</sup> But I know that the one who vindicates/defends me in court is alive, and that some day he will stand here on the earth and make the final decision about whether I deserve to be punished.

- 26 And even after diseases have eaten away my skin, while I still have my body, I will see God.
- 27 I will see him myself;
I will see him with my own eyes!
I am overwhelmed as I think about that!
- 28 “If you three men say, ‘What more can we do to cause Job to suffer?’
and if you say, ‘He has caused his own troubles,’
- 29 you should be afraid that God will punish [MTY] you;
he punishes those like you with whom he is angry;
and when that happens, you will know that there is someone who judges people.”

20

Zophar replied again

- 1 Then Zophar replied,
- 2 “I am very perturbed about what you have said,
so I want to reply very quickly.
- 3 By saying these things you have insulted me, but I know how (OR, because I understand very much) I can reply to you.
- 4 “Do you not know that from long ago, ever since people were first put on the earth, 5 wicked people like you do not continue to rejoice for a long time, ungodly people are happy only for a ◀moment/very short time▶ [HYP]?
- 6 Even though their reputation/pride reaches up to the sky and their fame goes up as high as the clouds, 7 they will disappear forever, like their own dung, and those who knew them will ask, ‘◀Where did they go/What happened to them▶?’
- 8 They will be forgotten like [SIM] a dream is,
and they will exist no more.
They will vanish, like visions that people see during the night.
- 9 Those who saw those people previously will never see them again;
even their families [MTY] will not see them any more.
- 10 Their children will be forced to return the valuable things that those children stole from poor people [DOU].
- 11 Previously their bodies were young and strong, but they will die and their bodies will be buried in the ground.
- 12 “Doing wicked things was like having sweet food in their mouths, and they wanted to continue to taste it.
- 13 And they did not want to stop doing those things, 14 but some day the evil things that they enjoyed doing will become like food that they swallow and which becomes as bitter as snake venom.
- 15 Wicked people will not continue to keep the money they have accumulated, like people do not keep the food that they vomit.
God takes their wealth from them.
- 16 What wicked people do is like [MET] swallowing snake venom;
it will kill them like [MET] the bite of a poisonous snake kills people.

- 17 They will not remain alive to see abundant blessings [IDM] from God, milk and olive oil and honey, that are so abundant they are like [MET] a stream that flows by.
- 18 They will be forced to give back the things that they stole from the poor; they will not be able to continue to enjoy those things.
They will not remain happy because of what they got from their businesses,
- 19 because they oppressed poor people and refused to help them,
and they took other people's houses by cheating them.
- 20 "They were always greedy and never satisfied.
They just keep dreaming about owning more and more things.
- 21 When they finished eating their food, there was never anything left over because they had greedily eaten it all;
but now their prosperity will end.
- 22 When they are extremely prosperous/wealthy,
they will suddenly experience a lot of trouble.
◀Misery will strike them and crush them [PRS]/They will suffer very greatly▶.
- 23 When the wicked people are filling their stomachs,
God will show that he is very angry with them and punish them;
the punishment that he gives them will be like [MET] rain falling on them.
- 24 They will try to escape from being killed by iron weapons, but arrows with bronze points will pierce them.
- 25 The arrows will go completely through their bodies and stick out of their backs;
the shiny points of the arrows will have blood dripping from them, and those wicked people will be terrified.
- 26 Their valuable possessions will all be destroyed;
a fire that is not lit by humans, but by God, will burn them up and also destroy the things that are left in their tents.
- 27 The angels in heaven [MTY] will reveal the sins that those wicked people have committed, and people on earth will stand up and testify against them.
- 28 When God punishes [MTY] people, all the possessions in the wicked people's houses will be carried away by a flood.
- 29 That is what will happen to wicked people like you;
that is what God has decided will happen to them."

21

Job replied again

- 1 Then Job replied,
- 2 "Listen to what I say, all three of you;
that is the only thing that you can do that will comfort me.
- 3 Be patient with me, and allow me to speak.
Then, after I am finished speaking, you can continue to make fun of me.
- 4 "It is certainly not [RHQ] people against whom I am complaining, but God
And it is certainly [RHQ] right for me to be impatient!
- 5 Look at me! Does what you see not cause you to be appalled and to put your hands over your mouths and say no more?
- 6 When I think about what has happened to me,
I am frightened and my entire body shakes.

- 7 “But let me ask this: ‘Why do wicked people continue to live, and become prosperous, and not die until they are very old?’”
- 8 They have their children around them, and they watch them while they grow up and start to live in their own houses, and they enjoy their grandchildren.
- 9 Wicked people live in their own houses without being afraid, and God does not punish [MTY] them.
- 10 Their bulls always mate with the cows successfully, and the cows give birth to calves and never miscarry.
- 11 Wicked people send their young children outside to play, and the children play happily like [SIM] lambs in a pasture.
- 12 Some children dance and sing, while others shake tambourines and play lyres, and they are happy when they hear people playing flutes.
- 13 Wicked people enjoy having good things all the time that they are alive, and they die quietly/peacefully and go down to the place of the dead.
- 14 While they are alive, they say to God, ‘Do not bother us;
we do not want to know how you want us to conduct our lives!’
- 15 Why do you, Almighty God, think that we should serve you?
◀What advantage do we get if we pray to you?/It is useless for us to pray to you.▶
[RHQ]’
- 16 Think about it: Wicked people think that it is because of what they have done that they have become prosperous, but I do not understand why they think like that.
- 17 ◀“How often does it happen that wicked people die [MET] before they are old?/
Very seldom do wicked people die [MET] before they are old.▶ [RHQ]
◀Do they ever experience disasters?/They seldom experience disasters.▶ [RHQ] ◀Does God ever punish them because of being very angry with them?/God never punishes them because of being very angry with them.▶ [RHQ]
- 18 He does not blow them away like wind blows away straw;
they are never carried off by a whirlwind.
- 19 You say, ‘When people have committed sins, God waits and punishes their children because of those sins;’
but I say that God should punish those who sin, not their children, in order that the sinners will know that it is because of their own sins that they are being punished.
- 20 I hope/wish that wicked people will experience themselves being destroyed, that they will experience being punished by an angry Almighty God.
- 21 After wicked people are dead, they are not at all concerned [RHQ] about what happens to their families [MTY].
- 22 “Since God judges everyone, even those that are in heaven, ◀who can teach God anything?/certainly no one can teach God anything.▶ [RHQ]
- 23 Some people die while they are very healthy, while they are peaceful, when they are not afraid of anything.
- 24 Their bodies are fat;
their bones are strong.
- 25 Other people die being very miserable;
they have never experienced good things happening to them.
- 26 But both rich and poor people die and are buried, and maggots eat their bodies.

Everyone dies, so it is clear that dying is not always the punishment for being wicked.

27 “Listen, I know what you three are thinking.

I know the evil things that you plan to do to me.

28 You say, ‘What happened to the tents in which wicked people were living?’

The houses of evil rulers have been destroyed!’

29 But have you never inquired of people who travel much?

Do you not believe their reports about what they have seen,

30 that wicked people usually do not suffer at the time when there are great disasters; that wicked people are the ones who are rescued when God is angry and punishes people [MTY]?

31 There is no one [RHQ] who accuses wicked people, and there is no one who ◀pays them back/gives them the punishment that they deserve▶ for all the evil things that they have done.

32 The corpses of wicked people are carried to their graves, and people are put there to guard those graves.

33 A huge number [HYP] of people go to the grave site.

Some go in front of the procession and some come behind.

And the clods of dirt thrown on the graves of those wicked people who have died are like a nice blanket.

34 “So how can you console me by talking nonsense?

Every reply that you make is full of lies!”

22

Eliphaz replied again

1 Then Eliphaz replied,

2 “◀Can anyone be useful to God?/Certainly no one can be useful to God.▶ [RHQ] Even people who are wise cannot be helpful to God.

3 If you were righteous, ◀would that benefit Almighty God?/that certainly would not benefit Almighty God.▶ [RHQ]

If you had ◀lived a perfect life/never done anything that is wrong▶, would that help him?

4 “Is it because you have an awesome respect for God that he punishes you?

Is that the reason that he puts you on trial?

5 No, it certainly must be [RHQ] because you are extremely wicked.

It must be that the evil things that you have done are so many that no one can count them!

6 You must have lent money to others and wrongly forced them to give you things to guarantee that they would pay that money back to you; you must have taken all their clothes and left them with nothing to wear.

7 You must not have given water to those who were thirsty, and you must have refused to give food to those who were hungry.

8 Because you were very powerful, you must have taken over all the people’s land, and then, being very respected, you have begun to live on that land.

9 When widows came to you for help, you must have sent them away without giving them anything, and you must have oppressed orphans.

- 10 Because of all that, now there are pits around you for you to fall into, and suddenly there are things that terrify you and cause you to tremble.
- 11 It is as though it has become very dark, with the result that you cannot see anything, and it is as though [MET] a flood covers you.
- 12 “But consider this, Job: God lives [RHQ] high up in the heavens.
From there he [RHQ] looks down on the highest stars.
- 13 So why do you say, ‘What does God know about what we are doing?
He is hidden from us by dark clouds, so ◀how can he judge us?/he certainly cannot judge us.▶ [RHQ]’
- 14 Do you think that while he walks on the dome that covers the sky, there are thick clouds around him, with the result that he cannot see what we do?
- 15 Will you continue to conduct your life the old way that evil people have done for many years?
- 16 They suddenly died while they were still young;
they disappeared like everything disappears when there is a flood [MET].
- 17 They kept saying to God, ‘Do not bother us,’ and they also said defiantly, ‘Almighty God can do nothing [RHQ] to harm us!’
- 18 But it was God who filled their houses with good things, so I cannot at all understand why wicked people think like they do.
- 19 “But when God punishes wicked people, and righteous people see that, they are glad,
and they laugh, ridiculing the wicked people.
- 20 They say, ‘Now our enemies have been destroyed, and all their possessions that were left have been burned in a fire.’
- 21 “So, Job, be reconciled to God and make peace with him;
if you do that, good things will happen to you.
- 22 Allow him to teach you,
and keep thinking about what he has told you.
- 23 If you humble yourself and return to God, if you stop doing all the evil things that you have been doing in your house,
- 24 if you throw away your gold, even the fine gold from the dry stream beds in Ophir land,
- 25 and if you allow Almighty God to be as precious to you as your gold and your silver have been,
- 26 you will be happy because of your close relationship with God, and you will be able to approach him [IDM] confidently.
- 27 You will pray to him, and he will do what you request him to do;
you will do the things that you promised him that you would do.
- 28 Everything that you decide to do will be successful;
it will be as though a light is shining on the road in front of you.
- 29 God humbles those who are proud,
but he saves those who are downcast/discouraged.
- 30 God rescues those who ◀are innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶, so he will rescue you if you ◀start doing things that are right/are not guilty [IDM] of doing things that are wrong▶.”

23

Job replied again

- <sup>1</sup> Then Job replied again,
 I continue groaning, but he [SYN] continues to ◀punish me/cause me to suffer▶.
<sup>3</sup> I ◀wish that I knew/want to know▶ where I could meet/talk with him, so that I could go to the place where he lives.
<sup>4</sup> If I could do that, I would tell him why I know that I am innocent;
 I would tell [MTY] to him all my ◀arguments/evidence to show that I have not done what is evil▶.
<sup>5</sup> Then I would find out what he would reply to me [DOU].
<sup>6</sup> Would he use his great power to argue with me?
 No, he would listen to me carefully.
<sup>7</sup> I am ◀an honest/a righteous▶ man; so I would be able to discuss things with him fairly, and then he would declare that I am innocent, and that decision would endure forever.
- <sup>8</sup> “But, I have gone to the east, and he is not there;
 I have gone to the west, but I have not found him there.
<sup>9</sup> I have gone north and I have gone south, but I have not seen him anywhere.
<sup>10</sup> But he knows how I have conducted my life;
 and when he has finished testing me, he will see that I am as pure as [SIM] gold whose impurities have all been burned out.
<sup>11</sup> I [SYN] have faithfully walked on the path that he showed me;
 I have not stopped obeying him.
<sup>12</sup> I have always obeyed what he [SYN] commanded;
 I have treasured the words that he has spoken.
- <sup>13</sup> “He never changes. There is no one who can [RHQ] stop him from doing what he desires.
 Whatever he wants to do, he does.
<sup>14</sup> And he will finish doing for me the things that he has planned for me;
and I am sure that he has thought about doing many things for me.
<sup>15</sup> So I am terrified in his presence;
 when I think about what he can do, I am very afraid [DOU].
<sup>16</sup> Almighty God has caused me [SYN] to feel terrified [DOU].
<sup>17</sup> It is as though there is only thick darkness in front of me, but it is God that I am afraid of, not the darkness.”

24

Job continued his reply

- <sup>1</sup> “◀Why does Almighty God not set a time when he will judge evil people?/I do not understand why Almighty God does not set a time when he will judge evil
people▶ [RHQ]
 Those who know him never [RHQ] see him do that!
<sup>2</sup> Some evil people remove the markers of boundaries of other people's land, in order to steal their land;
 they seize/steal other people's sheep and put them in their own pastures.

- <sup>3</sup> Some ◀take away/steal▶ the donkeys that belong to orphans, and they take widow's oxen to guarantee that the widows will pay back the money that they loaned to those widows.
- <sup>4</sup> Some shove poor people off the road (OR, prevent poor people from ◀obtaining their rights/being treated justly▶), and they force poor people to find places to hide from them.
- <sup>5</sup> The result is that poor people have to search for food in the desert like wild donkeys do.
- <sup>6</sup> The poor people harvest left-over grain in other people's fields, and gather grapes from vineyards that belong to wicked men.
- <sup>7</sup> During the night they have nothing to cover their bodies, nothing to keep them warm.
- <sup>8</sup> When it rains on the mountains, the poor people become very wet, so they huddle under the rock ledges to be protected from the rain.
- <sup>9</sup> Some evil men snatch infants away from their widowed mothers [SYN], and they say 'I will return your babies to you when you repay the money that I lent to you.'
- <sup>10</sup> But the poor people walk around with no clothes on;
they are hungry while they are working to carry other people's bundles of grain to the places where their grain will be threshed.
- <sup>11</sup> Poor people press olives to make olive oil;
they tread on grapes to make juice for wine, but they are not allowed to drink any of it when they become thirsty.
- <sup>12</sup> In the cities, people who are wounded and dying cry out to God for help, but God does not heed their prayers.
- <sup>13</sup> Some wicked people avoid the light because they do evil things in the dark;
they do not walk on roads that are lighted.
- <sup>14</sup> Murderers steal things during the night, and then they arise before dawn in order that they may go out again and kill needy [DOU] people.
- <sup>15</sup> Those who want to commit adultery wait for twilight/evening;
they say 'I do not want anyone to see me,' so they keep their faces covered.
- <sup>16</sup> It is during the night that robbers break into houses to steal things, but during the day they hide because they want to avoid being seen in the light.
- <sup>17</sup> All of those people want to do their evil things at night, not in the morning when it is light, because they are not afraid of the things that happen during the night that terrify others."
- (Final speech by Zophar)*
- <sup>18</sup> "But it is wicked people who are swept/carried away by floods, and God curses the land that they own,
and no one goes to work in their vineyards.
- <sup>19</sup> Just like the snow melts away when it is hot and there is no rain, those who have sinned disappear into the place where dead people are.
- <sup>20</sup> Not even their mothers remember them now;
wicked people are destroyed like trees that are cut down, and maggots eat their corpses.
- <sup>21</sup> They mistreat women who have been unable to give birth to children and women who no longer have children to take care of them,

- and they never do good things for widows.
- 22 But God, by his power, gets rid of mighty/influential people.
God acts and causes the wicked people to die.
- 23 God allows them to think that they are secure and safe, but he is watching [MTY] them all the time.
- 24 They prosper for a little while,
and then suddenly they are gone;
they disappear like weeds wither and die;
they are like [SIM] stalks of grain that have been cut off.
- 25 If this is not true, is there [RHQ] anyone who will show that I am a liar and prove that what I have said is not true?"

25

Bildad's final reply

- 1 Then Bildad also replied,
- 2 "God is very powerful; everyone should have an awesome respect for him;
he causes everything to be peaceful high up in heaven.
- 3 ◀Can anyone count the angels who are in his army in heaven?/No one can count the angels who are in his army in heaven.▶ [RHQ] ◀Is there any place where his light does not shine?/There is no place where his light does not shine.▶ [RHQ]
- 4 So, ◀how can God consider anyone to be righteous?/God certainly cannot consider anyone to be righteous.▶ [RHQ]
◀How can any human being be truly pure?/No human being can be truly pure.▶
[RHQ]
- 5 Consider this: God does not even consider the full moon to be bright, and he does not consider the stars to be spotless.
- 6 So, ◀what about humans?/he does not consider humans to be important.▶ [RHQ]
They are as insignificant as [MET] maggots.
God does not think more highly of people than he thinks of worms."

26

Job replied to Bildad again

- 1 Job replied to Bildad, saying this sarcastically:
- 2 "I am a very weak and helpless man;
and ◀you certainly have not helped me [SAR] very much!/do you think that you have helped me [SAR] very much?▶ [RHQ]
- 3 ◀You certainly have counseled me well—I, who am not wise at all./Do you think that you have counseled me well—I, who am not wise at all?▶ [RHQ]
◀I'm sure you think that you have given a lot of very good advice to me. [RHQ]
- 4 Who helped you to say all those great/wise things?
Who inspired you to speak like you did?"

Bildad replied

- 5 "Because the spirits of dead people are afraid,
they tremble in the waters that are deep under the earth.
- 6 God knows all about those who are in the place of the dead;
there is nothing down there that prevents God from seeing what is there.
- 7 God stretched out the earth over the huge empty space and caused the earth to have nothing to support it.

- 8 He fills the thick/dense clouds with water and prevents that water from bursting the clouds.
- 9 He causes clouds to ◀obscure/prevent us from seeing▶ the moon.
- 10 He separated the light from the darkness and put the horizon to mark the place where the night ends and the daytime begins.
- 11 When he is angry, it is as though he rebukes the pillars that hold up the sky.
They are ◀shocked/very fearful▶, and they tremble.
- 12 With his power he calmed the sea;
with his skill/wisdom he destroyed Rahab, the huge sea monster.
- 13 With his breath he caused the sky to be bright/clear;
with his hand he killed the great dragon in the sea.
- 14 But those events show only a small amount of his power;
it is as though we are hearing only whispers of his powerful voice.
When we hear thunder, we say, '◀Who can really understand how great his power is/No one can really understand how great his power is!▶ [RHQ]' "

27

Job replied one more time

- 1 Job replied again to his three friends,
- 2 "Almighty God has refused to treat me justly/fairly.
He has caused me to feel bitter/resentful.
But just as surely as he lives,
- 3 as long as God's Spirit enables me to breathe,
- 4 I will not lie;
I [SYN] will not say anything to deceive anyone.
- 5 I will never admit that what you three have said is true;
until the day that I die, I will insist that I have not done things that are wrong.
- 6 I will say that I am innocent, and never ◀say anything different/change what I say▶;
my conscience will never reproach me as long as I live.
- 7 "I want my enemies to be punished like all wicked people are punished;
I want God to punish those who oppose me like he punishes all unrighteous people.
- 8 When it is time for God to get rid of godless/wicked people and to cause them to die, there is absolutely nothing good [RHQ] that they can confidently expect to happen to them.
- 9 When they experience troubles, ◀will God hear them call out to him for help?/God certainly will not hear them call out to him for help.▶ [RHQ]
- 10 ◀Will they be happy about what Almighty God does?/They certainly will not be happy about what Almighty God does.▶ [RHQ] ◀Will they begin to pray to him frequently?/They certainly will not begin to pray to him frequently.▶ [RHQ]
Certainly not!
- 11 "I will teach you three something about the power [MTY] of Almighty God [MTY];
I will reveal what he is thinking.
- 12 But you three have seen for yourselves what God has done; so ◀why are you saying such nonsense?/you should not be saying such nonsense.▶ [RHQ]

- 13 "I will tell you what Almighty God does to wicked people, the things that he does to people who oppress others.
- 14 Even if they have many children, many of those children will die in wars [MTY], and their other children will die because they do not have enough food to eat.
- 15 Their children who are still alive will die from diseases, and their widows will not even mourn for them.
- 16 Sometimes wicked people accumulate a huge amount [SIM] of silver and pile up clothes like [SIM] those clothes were a pile of clay,
- 17 but those wicked people will die, and then righteous people will wear those clothes, and honest/innocent people will get their silver and divide it among themselves.
- 18 The houses that they build are as frail/fragile as [SIM] spider webs, or they are like flimsy huts that watchmen live in while they guard people's fields.
- 19 Wicked people are rich when they lie down at night, but when they wake up in the morning, they find out that their money has disappeared.
- 20 "Things that terrify them [PRS] strike them like a flood [SIM]; during the night a whirlwind carries them away.
- 21 It is as though the wind from the east picks them up and carries them away from their homes, and they disappear.
- 22 That wind strikes them without pitying them while they are running away, trying to escape from its force/power [MTY].
- 23 That wind is like someone clapping his hands [MET] at them to ridicule them, howling at them wherever they run to."

Job states some general truths about God's wisdom

- 1 "It is true that there are places where men dig to find silver, and there are places where people refine/purify gold that they have dug.
- 2 People dig iron ore out of the ground, and they ◀smelt copper ore/heat copper ore to get the copper from it▶.
- 3 Men use lamps while they work far down under the ground to search for the ore inside the mines where it is very dark.
- 4 They dig ◀shafts/narrow holes very deep down into the ground▶ in places that are far from where people live, where travelers do not go.
- They work far away from other people, swinging back and forth on ropes as they descend into the mine shafts.*
- 5 Food grows on the surface of the ground, but down under the ground, where there is no food, the miners make fires to break apart the rocks.
- 6 The stones that are dug from under the ground contain ◀sapphires/very valuable blue stones▶, and the dirt contains bits of gold.
- 7 Some birds have very good eyes, but even hawks do not know where the mines are, and falcons/vultures have not seen those places.
- 8 Lions or other proud wild animals have not walked on the roads near those mines.

- 9 Miners tear apart [MTY] very hard rock;
it is as though they turn the mountains upside down to get the ore.
- 10 They cut tunnels through the rocks, and they find ◀precious/very valuable▶ things.
- 11 They dam up small streams in order that water does not flow, and they bring up into the light valuable things that are hidden in the ground and in the streams.
- 12 “But wisdom: Where can people find that?
 Where can we find out how to truly understand things?”
- 13 Humans do not know where to find it;
 no one can find it here on this earth where they are living.
- 14 It is as though water that is deep inside the earth and water that is in the seas say [PRS], ‘Wisdom is not here!’
- 15 People cannot buy wisdom
 by paying for it with silver or gold.
- 16 Wisdom is worth much more than fine gold from Ophir land or other very valuable stones.
- 17 It is worth much more than gold or beautiful glass, worth more than vases made from fine gold.
- 18 Wisdom is worth more than coral or crystal/pure quartz;
 the price of wisdom is higher/more than the price of pearls.
- 19 The prices of ◀topaz/very valuable yellow stones▶ from Ethiopia and of pure gold are lower/less than the price of wisdom.
- 20 “So, where does wisdom come from?
 Where can we find out how to truly understand things?”
- 21 No living humans can see it [MTY];
 and birds cannot see it while they are flying [MTY].
- 22 It is as though the places where people go after they die say [PRS], ‘We have only heard rumors about where to find wisdom.’
- 23 God is the only one who knows how to find wisdom;
 he knows where it is,
- 24 because he can see things even in the most remote/distant places on the earth;
 he can see everything that is below the sky.
- 25 When he decided how strongly the winds should blow, and how much rain would be in the clouds,
- 26 and when he decided where rain should fall, and what path lightning should take from the clouds down to the ground,
- 27 at that time he saw wisdom and decided that it is extremely valuable.
 He examined it and ◀approved it/said that it was very good▶.
- 28 And then he said to humans, ‘Listen! To have an awesome respect for me is what will enable you to become wise; and to truly understand everything, you must first turn away from doing what is evil.’ ”

29

Job's final speech

- <sup>1</sup> Job spoke again, <sup>2</sup> “I wish/desire that I could be like I was previously,

during the years when God took care of me.

<sup>3</sup> During those years, it was as though God's lamp [MET] shone on me and gave me light while I walked in the darkness.

<sup>4</sup> At that time I was young and strong, and because God was my friend, he protected [PRS] my tent.

<sup>5</sup> Almighty God was with me during those years when all my children were around me.

<sup>6</sup> My herds provided me with plenty of milk, and streams of oil flowed from the rock where my olives were pressed.

<sup>10</sup> and even the most important men became quiet and ceased talking [MTY] in order to hear me speak to them.

<sup>11</sup> When they [SYN] all heard what I told them, they said good things about me.

When they [SYN] saw me (OR, what I had done), they commended me, <sup>12</sup> because I had helped the poor people when they cried out for help and I aided/helped orphans who had no one else to help them.

<sup>13</sup> Those who were suffering and about to die praised [PRS] me, and I caused widows [SYN] to sing joyfully, because of my helping them.

<sup>14</sup> I always acted justly; my continually doing that was like [MET] a robe that I wore and a turban that was wrapped around my head.

<sup>15</sup> It was as though [MET] I was eyes for blind people and feet for people who were lame.

<sup>16</sup> I was like [MET] a father to poor people, and in courts I defended those who were strangers.

<sup>17</sup> My causing wicked people to be unable to continue oppressing others was like [MET] breaking the fangs of fierce wild animals and forcing them to drop from their teeth/mouths the animals that they had caught/seized.

<sup>18</sup> "At that time I thought, 'Surely I will live securely, until I am very old [SIM], and I will die at home with my family.'

<sup>19</sup> I was like a tree [MET] whose roots reach down into the water and whose branches become wet with dew each night.

<sup>21</sup> "When I spoke, people waited to hear what I would say and remained silent until I advised them what they should do.

<sup>22</sup> After I finished speaking, they did not say any more; it was as though [MET] my words fell on their ears like refreshing drops of rain.

<sup>23</sup> They waited for me to speak like they wait for rain; they appreciated what I said like [MET] farmers appreciate the final rain in the spring before the dry season.

- 24 When they were discouraged, I smiled at them to encourage them;
they became encouraged when they saw that I approved of them.
- 25 I was their leader, and I decided what things would be good for them to do;
I was among them like [SIM] a king who is among his troops;
I was like someone who comforts others who are mourning.”

Job ridicules the fathers of young men

- 1 “But now men who are younger than I am make fun of me—men whose fathers I greatly despised, with the result that I would not even have allowed them to help my dogs guard my sheep.
- 2 They were men who were old and ◀weak/worn out▶;
so ◀what could I gain from them working for me?/I would have gained nothing from them working for me.▶ [RHQ]
- 3 They were very poor and hungry, with the result that they chewed on roots at night in dry and desolate places.
- 4 They pulled up plants in the desert and ate them and warmed themselves by burning the roots of broom trees.
- 5 Everyone shouted at them as though they were thieves and expelled them from their areas.
- 6 They were forced to live in caves in the hills, in holes in the ground, and in the sides of cliffs.
- 7 In the bushes they howled like animals because they were hungry, and they huddled together under thornbushes.
- 8 They were people without good sense, whose names no one knows;
they have been expelled from the land where they were born.

Job stated how he was despised

- 9 “And now their children sing songs to make fun of me.
They tell jokes about me.
- 10 They are disgusted with me, and they usually stay away from me, but when they see me, they are happy to spit in my face.
- 11 Because it is as though [MET] God has cut my bowstring, he has caused me to be unable to defend myself, and he has humbled me, and my enemies have done to me whatever they wanted.
- 12 ◀Gangs/Groups of violent youths▶ attack me and force me to run away;
they prepare to destroy me.
- 13 They prevent me from escaping, and they do not need anyone to help them (OR, there is no one to help me).
- 14 It is as though I am a city wall and [SIM] they have broken through the wall, and they have come crashing down on me.
- 15 I am very terrified;
My dignity/honor has been taken away as though [SIM] it has been blown away by the wind,
and my prosperity has disappeared like [SIM] clouds disappear.

Job stated that God also mistreated him

- 16 “And now I [SYN] am about to die [IDM];

- I suffer every day.
- 17 My bones ache during the night, and the pain that torments me never stops.
- 18 It is as though God seizes my clothes and chokes me with the collar of my coat.
- 19 He has thrown me into the mud;
I am not worth anything more than dust and ashes.
- 20 “I cry out to God, but he does not answer/help me;
I stand up and pray, but he does not pay any attention.
- 21 He acts very cruelly toward me;
with all of his power [MTY] he causes me to suffer.
- 22 He allows the wind to lift me up and blow me away, and he tosses me up and down in a violent storm.
- 23 I know that he will cause me to die, which is what happens to everyone [MTY] who is alive.
- 24 “When people experience disasters, and they sit on a pile of ruins and cry out for help, others surely [RHQ] reach out their hand to help them.
- 25 That is what I did previously. I wept for people who were experiencing troubles, and I felt sorry for poor/needy people.
- 26 But when I expected good things to happen to me, evil things happened; when I waited for light/happiness, all I experienced was darkness/unhappiness [MET].
- 27 I am very distressed [IDM], all the time;
I suffer every day.
- 28 I go about very discouraged;
I stand up and plead for people to help me.
- 29 My wailing sounds as sad as [MET] the cries of jackals/foxes and ostriches.
- 30 My skin has become dark/black and is peeling off, and I have a fever which causes my body to feel like it is burning.
- 31 Previously, I played joyful music on my harp and with my flute, but now I play only the sad music of those who mourn.”

31

Job stated his innocence

- 1 “I solemnly promised myself that I would not look at a young woman with a desire to have sex with her.
- 2 If I did not do what I promised, what would God who is in heaven [MTY] do to me [RHQ]?
Almighty God would certainly not [RHQ] give me any reward!
- 3 Previously I thought that surely [RHQ] it was unrighteous people who would experience calamities, and that it was those who do what is wrong who would experience disasters.
- 4 God certainly sees [RHQ] everything that I do,
so why is he causing me to suffer?
It is as though he counts every step that I take.
- 5 “I solemnly declare that I have never acted wickedly and have never tried to deceive people.

- <sup>6</sup> I request only that God judge me fairly [MET], and if he does that, he will know that I ◀am innocent/have not done what is wrong▶.
- <sup>7</sup> If it were true that I have stopped living righteously, or that I [SYN] have desired the things that I look at [MTY], or that I am guilty of any other sin,
- <sup>8</sup> then I hope/wish that when I plant seeds, someone else will harvest the crops and eat them and that others will uproot the fruit trees that I planted.
- <sup>9</sup> “If it were true that I [SYN] have been attracted by some other man’s wife, or that I have hidden myself and waited outside the door to her house,
- <sup>10</sup> I hope/desire that my wife will become the servant/slave of another man and have sex [EUP] with him.
- <sup>11</sup> For me to do that would be a terrible sin, and the judges would decide that I should be punished.
- <sup>12</sup> My committing adultery would produce in me a fire like [MET] the fire that burns people in hell,
and it would burn up everything that I own.
- <sup>13</sup> “And, if it were true that I have ever refused to listen to one of my male or female servants
when they complained to me about something,
- <sup>14</sup> God would arise and declare that he would punish me;
and when he would do that, what would I do?
If he would ask me about what I have done, ◀what would I answer?/I would not be able to answer.▶ [RHQ]
- <sup>15</sup> God, who created me, certainly also created my servants [RHQ];
surely he is the one who formed them and me in our mothers’ wombs [RHQ];
so we all should behave toward each other equally.
- <sup>16-18</sup> “I have guided orphans from the time that they were born;
I have taken care of them since they were young.
So, if it were true that I ate all my food myself and did not share some of it with orphans, or that I refused to give poor people the things that they wanted, or that I caused widows to live ◀in despair/without hope that they would receive any help from anyone▶,
- <sup>19</sup> or that I had seen people die from cold because they had no clothes, or that I had seen poor people who did not have clothes to keep them warm,
- <sup>20</sup> and they were not able to become warm from clothes made from the wool of my sheep with the result that they thanked me for giving them clothes,
- <sup>21</sup> or if it were true that I threatened to strike any orphan because I knew that the elders at the city gates would ◀decide in my favor▶;
- <sup>22</sup> if those things were true about me, I hope/desire that my shoulder blade would be torn out
and my arm be torn from my shoulder.
- <sup>23</sup> I always feared that God would cause me to experience a great disaster if I did any of those evil things, and I would not have been able to endure the powerful things that he would do to punish me.

- 24 "If it were true that I trusted in my gold/money [DOU], 25 or that I rejoiced because I had acquired many things and had become very rich, 26 or that I looked at the sun when it was shining or looked at the beautiful moon 27 and I [SYN] had been tempted to worship them
     by kissing my hand to revere them, 28 those things also would be sins for which the judges would say that I must be punished,
     because I would have been rejecting God by doing those things.
- 29-30 "It is not true that I [SYN] sinned by requesting God to curse people who hated
     me
     with the result that God would cause them to die.
 It is also not true that I was glad when they were ruined or that I rejoiced when they experienced disasters [DOU].
- 31-32 It is also not true that I never welcomed travelers to stay in my tent or that I did not open my doors to them, but forced them to sleep in the streets.
     All the men who work for me certainly know that [RHQ]!
- 33 Some people try to hide their sins,
     but I have never done that;
 34 and I never remained silent and refused to go outside of my home because I was very ◀afraid of/worried about▶ what people would say about me, and that they would hate/scorn me.
- 35 "I wish/desire that there was someone who would hear what I am saying!
     I solemnly declare that all that I have said is true.
 I wish that those who oppose me would write down on a scroll the evil things that they say that I did.
- 36 If they did that, I would wear that scroll on my shoulder, or wear it on top of my head, in order that everyone could see it.
- 37 I would tell God everything that I have done, and I would approach him confidently, like a ruler would.
- 38 If it were true that I have stolen land, with the result that it was as though its furrows cried out to accuse me of stealing;
 39 or if it were true that I have eaten the crops that grew in someone else's fields without paying for those crops, with the result that those farmers who grew those crops died from hunger;
 40 then I wish/desire that thorns would grow in my fields instead of wheat.
     May bad weeds grow instead of barley!"

That is the end of what Job said to his three friends.

32

Elihu replied to Job and his three friends

<sup>1</sup> Then those three men stopped answering Job, because they could not convince Job that he was wrong in claiming that he had not done anything that was wrong. <sup>2</sup> Then

Elihu, the son of Barachel, a descendant of Buz, from the clan of Ram, became very angry at Job. He was angry because Job continued to claim that he was righteous/innocent, and that God was wrong to punish him. <sup>3</sup> He was also angry with Job's three friends, because they had declared that Job must have done many things that were wrong, but they were unable to convince Job that what they said was true. As a result, it seemed to Elihu that God did what was wrong by punishing Job. <sup>4</sup> Elihu was younger than the others, so he waited until they had finished speaking before he replied to Job. <sup>5</sup> But when Elihu realized that the three men had no more to say [MTY] to Job, he became angry.

"I am young, and you all are much older than I am.

So, I was timid, and I was afraid to tell you what I was thinking.

<sup>7</sup> I thought, 'Let those [PRS] who are much older speak, because older people should be able to say things that are wise.'

<sup>8</sup> But the Spirit of Almighty God is within people, and it is he who enables them to be wise.

<sup>9</sup> It is not people becoming old that enables them to be wise; not all old people understand what is right.

<sup>10</sup> "So, I say, 'Listen to me, and allow me to say what I think.'

<sup>11</sup> I waited for you all to speak;

I wanted to hear the wise things that you would say.

I waited while you thought carefully about what would be the right things to say.

but surprisingly, none of you were able to prove that what Job said was wrong.

<sup>13</sup> So, do not say to yourselves, 'We have discovered what is wise!'

It is God who must ◀refute Job/show that what Job said was wrong▶, because you three have not been able to do that.

<sup>14</sup> Job was replying to you, not to me, but I will not reply to him by saying what you three said.

<sup>15</sup> "You three are dismayed because you have not been able to convince him that he was wrong, so you are not saying any more to him [DOU].

<sup>16</sup> But because you do not speak, I certainly will not wait any longer [RHQ];
you merely stand there and do not reply any more.

<sup>17</sup> So now I also will reply to Job and say what I think.

<sup>18</sup> I have plenty to say, and my spirit compels me to say it.

<sup>19</sup> My inner being is like [SIM] a ◀wineskin/bag that has <new/fermenting> wine in it▶, and it will soon burst.

<sup>20</sup> I must speak [MTY], in order that I do not have to keep holding what I want to say;
I must say something [MTY] to reply to you all.

<sup>21</sup> I will speak fairly, not favoring any of you, and I will not try to flatter anyone.

and if I did that, God would soon get rid of me."

33

Elihu challenged Job

- 1 “But now, Job, listen carefully to all that I am going to say [DOU].
- 2 I am ready to tell you [MTY, DOU] what I think.
- 3 I know that I am speaking honestly and that I am speaking [MTY] sincerely.
- 4 Almighty God has created me as well as you,
and his breath has caused me to live.
- 5 So, answer what I say if you can;
think carefully about how you will reply to me.
- 6 “God considers that you, and I are both equal;
he formed both of us from clay.
- 7 So you do not need to be afraid of me;
I will not crush/oppress you by what I say [MTY].
- 8 I have heard you [DOU] speaking, and this is what you have said:
- 9 ‘I am innocent; I have not committed any sins;
I am pure; I have not done things that are wrong.
- 10 But God finds reasons to accuse me,
and he considers that I am his enemy.
- 11 It is as though he has put my feet ◀in stocks/between wooden blocks to prevent me from walking away▶, and he watches everything that I do.’ [MTY]
- 12 But what you have said is wrong, and I will tell you what you have said that is wrong.
God is much greater than any human.
- 13 So, ◀why are you arguing against God, saying ‘He never answers my questions’?/ you should not be arguing against God, saying ‘He never answers my questions.’▶ [RHQ]
- 14 God does speak to us in various ways, but we do not pay any attention to what he says.
- 15 Sometimes he speaks to us at night in dreams and visions, when we are on our beds, asleep [DOU].
- 16 He reveals things [MTY] to us and terrifies us by the things he warns us about.
- 17 He tell us those things in order that we stop doing evil things and to prevent us from becoming proud.
- 18 He does not want us to be destroyed [MTY];
he wants to prevent us from dying [MTY] while we are still young.
- 19 God also sometimes corrects us by forcing us to lie on our beds suffering much pain and with fever/aching in our bones.
- 20 The result is that we do not desire any food, not even very special food.
- 21 Our bodies become very thin, with the result that we look like skeletons [HYP], and our bones stick out.
- 22 We know that we will soon die and go to the place where dead people are.

- 23 “But sometimes an angel may come to one of us, one of the thousands of angels who come to intervene between us and God, to tell us what are the right things for us to do.
- 24 The angel is kind to us and says to God, ‘Release that person, so that he does not descend to the place where dead people are!
Do that because I have found the money to pay so that he can be released!’
- 25 Allow his body to be strong again; allow him to be strong like he was when he was a youth!’
- 26 When that happens, that person will pray to God, and God will accept/answer him;
he will ◀enter God’s presence/worship God▶ joyfully, and then he will tell others how God saved him from dying.
- 27 He will sing as he tells everyone, ‘I sinned, and I did things that were not right, but God did not punish me in the way that I deserved.
- 28 He has saved me from dying and going to the place where dead people are,
and I will continue to enjoy being alive.’
- 29 God does all these things for us many times;
30 he keeps us [SYN] from dying and going to the place where the dead are, in order that we can continue to enjoy being alive [IDM].
- 31 So Job, listen to me;
do not say anything more; just allow me to speak.
- 32 After I speak, if you have something more that you want to say to me, say it, because I would like to find a way to declare that you ◀are innocent/have not done what is wrong▶.
- 33 But if you have nothing more that you want to say, then just listen to me, and I will teach you how to become wise.”

34

Elihu continued his challenge

- 1 Then Elihu continued:
2 “You three men who think that you [SAR] are very wise, hear me;
listen to what I am saying, you men who say that you know so much.
- 3 When we [SYN] hear what other people like you say, we [RHQ] think carefully about what they say *to determine what is good and what
is bad*,
like we [SYN] taste food to determine what is good.
- 4 We need to decide who is saying what is right and to determine among ourselves what is good/best.
- 5 Job has said, ‘I am innocent, but God has refused to judge me fairly/justly.
- 6 Even though I have always done what is right,
he is lying about me.
Even though I have not done what is wrong, he has caused me to suffer, and I will certainly die.’
- 7 ◀Is there any person like Job, who insults others as easily as people accept a drink of water?/There is no person like Job, who insults others as easily as people accept a drink of water.▶ [RHQ]

- 8 He habitually associates with people who do what is evil and spends time with wicked people.
- 9 He has said, 'It is useless for people to try to please God.'
- 10 "So, you men who claim that you understand everything, listen to me!
Almighty God would never consider doing anything that is wicked or wrong [DOU]!
- 11 He ◀pays back/punishes▶ people for what they have done;
he gives them what they deserve for the way that they have conducted their lives.
- 12 Truly, Almighty God never does what is wicked;
he always [LIT] does what is fair/just.
- 13 The authority that he has to rule everything on the earth, no one [RHQ] gave it to him;
no one [RHQ] put him in control of the whole world.
He has always had that authority.
- 14 If he would take his spirit back to himself,
- 15 everyone would die immediately, and their corpses would soon become dirt again.
- 16 "So, Job, if you say that you understand everything, listen to what I am saying.
- 17 God could certainly not [RHQ] govern the world if he hated doing what is fair/just.
So, will you condemn God, who is righteous and powerful, saying that what he has done is wrong?
- 18 He tells some kings that they are worthless, and he says to some officials that they are wicked.
- 19 He does not favor rulers more than he favors others;
he does not favor rich people more than poor people, because he created all of them.
- 20 People often die suddenly;
he strikes them at midnight and they die;
he even gets rid of mighty people without the help of any humans [SYN].
- 21 "He sees [MTY] everything that people do;
when we walk, he watches every step that we take.
- 22 There is no gloom or darkness [DOU] that is so dark that sinners can hide from him in that darkness.
- 23 God does not need to set a time when we will stand in front of him in order that he may judge us.
He can judge us whenever he wants to.
- 24 He destroys mighty people without needing to investigate what they have done, and he appoints others to take their places.
- 25 Because he already knows what they have done,
he removes them at night and gets rid of them.
- 26 Where many people can see it, he strikes/punishes them because of the wicked things that they have done;
- 27 he strikes them because they turned away from doing what he wanted them to do and did not pay attention to any of his commands.
- 28 They mistreated the poor people, with the result that those poor people cried out to God for help, and he heard those afflicted people when they cried out to him.

- 29 But if God decides to do nothing to punish wicked people, no one can criticize/condemn him.
If a godless/wicked man rules a nation,
a man who tricks/deceives the people,
- 30 and if God hides his face with the result that he does not see that ruler or punish him, no one will be able to prevent that ruler from doing those things.
- 31 “Job, have you or anyone else ever said to God, ‘I have been punished for my sins, and I will not sin any more;
32 so teach/show me what sins I have committed;
if I have done anything that is evil,
I will not do it any more’?
33 Job, you object to what God has done to you, but do you think that he will do what you want him to do?
It is you who must choose what you say to God, not I;
so tell me what you are thinking about this.
- 34 “People who have good sense, those who are wise and who listen to what I say,
will say to me,
35 ‘Job is speaking ignorantly;
what he says is nonsense.’
36 I think that Job should be taken to a court and ◀put on trial/judged▶, because he answers us his friends like wicked men would answer.
37 To add to the other sins that he has committed, he is rebelling against God;
he shows us that he does not respect God [IDM], making long speeches saying that God has punished him unjustly.”

35

Elihu continued his challenge

- 1 Then Elihu also said this:
2 “Job, do you think that what you said is right/correct?
You say, ‘God knows that I am innocent,’
3 and you say to God, ‘What good have I received for not sinning?
What benefit have I received from that?’ [DOU, RHQ]
4 Well, I will answer you, and I will answer your three friends, too.
- 5 “Job, look up at the sky;
look at the clouds that are high above you and realize that God is far above everything.
6 If you have sinned, that does not [RHQ] harm God at all.
If many times you do things that are wrong, that certainly does not [RHQ] affect him [DOU].
7 And if you are righteous, does that help God?
No, he is not benefited by anything that you do [DOU].
8 It is other people who suffer because of the wicked things that you do, but by doing good things for people, you help them.

- 9 “People cry out because of the many things that people do to others to ◀oppress them/treat them cruelly▶;
they call for help because of the things that powerful people do [MTY] to them.
- 10 But ◀no one/none of them▶ calls out to God, saying ‘Why does God, my creator, not help me?
He should enable me to sing joyful songs, instead of very sad songs, during the night.
- 11 He should be able to teach us more than all the wild animals do; he should enable us to become wiser than all the birds are!’
- 12 People cry out for help,
but God does not answer them, because those who cry out are proud and evil people.
- 13 It is useless for them to cry out, because God, the Almighty One, does not pay any attention to what they say.
- 14 So, when you complain that you cannot see God, and you tell him that you are waiting for him to decide whether or not you should be punished for what you have done, God will not listen to you, either!
- 15 Furthermore, you say that because he does not pay attention when people commit sins, he does not become angry and punish them.
- 16 You say things that are useless;
you say a lot of things without knowing what you are talking about.”

36

Elihu's final speech

- 1 Elihu finished by saying this:
- 2 “Job, be patient with me a little longer, because I have something else to teach you.
I have something else to say that God wants you to know.
- 3 I will tell you what I have learned from many sources, in order to show that God, my creator, is just/fair.
- 4 I am not saying anything to you that is false;
I, who am standing in front of you, am someone who understands things ◀very well/perfectly▶ [HYP].
- 5 “Hey, God is very powerful, and he does not despise anyone, and he understands everything.
- 6 He does not allow wicked people to remain alive, and he always acts justly toward those who are poor.
- 7 He always watches over [MTY] those who are righteous;
he allows them to sit on thrones and rule with kings, and they are honored forever.
- 8 But if people who commit crimes are caught,
they are thrown into prison and are caused to suffer by being fastened with chains.
- 9 When that happens, God shows them what they have done;
he shows them the sins that they have committed,
and he shows them that they have been proud/arrogant.
- 10 He causes them to listen [MTY] to what he is warning them, and he commands them to turn away from doing what is evil.

- 11 If they ◀listen to/heed▶ him and serve him, after they get out of prison they will prosper for all the years that they are alive and be peaceful/happy.
- 12 But if they do not ◀listen/pay attention▶ to him, they will die violently, not knowing why God is causing them to die.
- 13 “Godless/Wicked people continue being angry, and they do not cry out for help, even when God is punishing them.
- 14 They die while they are still young, disgraced because of their very immoral behavior [EUP].
- 15 But God teaches people by causing them to suffer; by afflicting them, he causes them to listen to [MTY] what he is telling them.
- 16 “And Job, I think that God wants to bring you out of your troubles and allow you to live without distress; he wants your table to be full of very nice food.
- 17 But now, you are being punished [MTY] as wicked people are punished; God [PRS] has been punishing you ◀justly/as you deserve▶.
- 18 So be careful that you are not deceived by desiring to acquire money or that you are not ruined by accepting large bribes.
- 19 If you are deceived by those things, it certainly will not [RHQ] help you to cry out when you are distressed; all of your strength will not help you.
- 20 Do not wish that it would be nighttime in order that God will not see you and punish you, because night is the time when even people-groups are destroyed!
- 21 Be careful not to begin doing evil things, because God has caused you to suffer to prevent you from doing evil.
- 22 “Hey, God is extremely powerful; there is certainly [RHQ] no teacher who teaches like he does.
- 23 No one has [RHQ] told him what he should do, and no one has [RHQ] said to him, ‘You have done what is wrong!’
- 24 People have always sung to praise him, so you also should never forget to praise him for what he has done.
- 25 Everyone has seen what he has done, but sometimes we can see it only from far away.
- 26 “Hey, God is very great, and we are not able to know how great he is, and we do not know how old he is.
- 27 He draws water up from the earth and puts it in clouds and causes it to become rain.
- 28 The rain pours down from the sky/clouds; God causes abundant showers to fall on everyone.
- 29 No one can [RHQ] understand how the clouds move across the sky or how it thunders in the sky where God lives.
- 30 He causes lightning to flash all around him, but he causes the bottom of the oceans to remain dark.
- 31 By providing plenty of rain for us, he enables us to have abundant food.

- <sup>32</sup> It is as though he holds the lightning in his hands, and then he commands it to strike where he wants it to.
<sup>33</sup> When we hear his thunder, we know that there will be a storm, and the cattle know it, too."

Elihu continued his final speech

- <sup>1</sup> "My heart pounds [DOU] when I think about that.
<sup>2</sup> Listen, all of you, to the thunder, which is like God's voice [DOU].
<sup>3</sup> He causes thunder to be heard all across the sky, and he causes lighting to flash to the most distant places on the earth.
<sup>4</sup> After the lightning flashes, we hear the thunder which is like [MET] God's majestic voice;
he does not restrain the lightning when he speaks.
<sup>5</sup> When God speaks, it is awesome, like thunder;
he does amazing things which we cannot fully understand.
<sup>6</sup> He commands the snow to fall on the ground, and sometimes he causes it to rain very hard.
<sup>7</sup> And when God does that, it prevents people [SYN] from working, in order that all people may know that he is the one who has done that (OR, what he can do).
<sup>8</sup> When it rains, animals go into their hiding places, and they remain there until the rain stops.
<sup>9</sup> The storms/hurricanes come from the place in the south where they start, and the cold wind comes from the north.
<sup>10</sup> In the ◀winter/cold season▶, the cold north wind is like God's breath that causes [MET] water to freeze;
he causes the lakes/streams to become ice.
<sup>11</sup> God fills the clouds with moisture/hail, and lightning flashes from the clouds.
<sup>12</sup> He guides the clouds and causes them to move back and forth in order that they may accomplish all that he commands them to do, all over the world.
<sup>13</sup> Sometimes God sends rain to punish us, and sometimes he sends rain to show us that he acts kindly toward us.

<sup>14</sup> "Job, listen to this;
stop and think about the wonderful things that God does.
<sup>15</sup> ◀Do you know how God commands the lightning to flash down from the clouds?/
We do not know how God commands the lightning to flash down from the clouds.▶ [RHQ]
<sup>16</sup> Only God knows everything perfectly; so ◀do you know how he causes the clouds to <move/float> <amazingly/wonderfully> across the sky?/you certainly do not know how he causes the clouds to <move/float> <amazingly/wonderfully> across the sky!▶ [RHQ] <sup>17</sup> No, you just sweat there in your clothes;
it is very oppressive when the hot wind stops blowing from the south and all the leaves on the trees ◀become still/do not move▶.

- 18 ◀Can you stretch out the skies like God does and make them as hard as [SIM] a sheet of polished brass?/You certainly cannot stretch out the skies like God does and make them as hard as [SIM] a sheet of polished brass!▶ [RHQ]
- 19 “Job, tell us(exc) what we should say to God;
we do not know anything [IDM].
As a result, we do not know what to say to him to defend ourselves.
- 20 Should I tell God that I want to speak to him?
No, because if I did that, he might destroy me.
- 21 Now, people cannot look directly at the sun when it shines brightly in the sky after the wind has blown the clouds away;
so, we certainly cannot look at the brightness of God.
- 22 God comes out of the north with a light that shines like gold;
his glory causes us to be afraid.
- 23 Almighty God is very powerful, and we cannot come near to him.
He always acts righteously, and he will never oppress us.
- 24 That is the reason that we have an awesome respect for him; he does not pay attention to those who proudly, but wrongly, think that they are wise.”

38

Yahweh replied to Job

- 1 Then Yahweh spoke to Job from inside a great windstorm. He said to him,
- 2 “◀Who are you to question what I plan to do?/You have no right/authority to question what I plan to do.▶ [RHQ]
You are speaking ignorantly!
- 3 I want to ask you some questions,
so, just like men prepare themselves for a difficult task [MET], prepare to answer my questions.
- 4 “◀Where were you/Were you there with me▶ long ago when I ◀laid the foundations of/created▶ the earth?
Since you know so much, tell me where you were at that time.
- 5 Do you know how I decided how large the earth would be?
Do you know who stretched a measuring tape around the earth?
Surely since you think that you know so much, you should know that!
- 6-7 What supports the pillars on which the earth rests?
When the stars that shine early in the morning sang together, and someone put in place the stone that causes the earth to stay in its place, and all the angels shouted joyfully when they saw that happening, who laid that cornerstone? Did you?
- 8 “When the seas poured forth from inside the earth, who prevented the water from flooding over the land?
- 9 It was I, not you, who caused clouds to come over the seas and caused it to become very dark under those clouds.
- 10 I set limits for the seas, and I put barriers so that the water would not come over the land.

- 11 I pointed to the shore and said to the water,
'I permit you to come up to here, but I do not permit you to come any farther.
Your powerful waves must stop there!'
- 12 "Job, have you ever commanded the morning to begin?
Have you ever told the dawn to start a new day?
- 13 Have you ever told the dawn to spread out over the whole earth, with the result that wicked people run away from the light?
- 14 When it becomes light after the dawn, the hills and the valleys become clear like the folds in a cloth.
- 15 When it becomes daylight, the wicked do not have the darkness that they like;
in the daylight they no longer are able to raise up their arms, ready to hurt people.
- 16 "Job, have you traveled to the springs in the bottom of the ocean from which the water in the seas comes?
Have you investigated/explored the very bottom of the oceans?
- 17 Has someone shown you the gates to the place where dead people are,
the gates to the place where it is very dark?
- 18 Do you know how big the earth is?
Tell me, if you know all these things!
- 19 "Where is the road to the place where light comes from?
And can you tell me where darkness lives?
- 20 Can take me to its home?
Do you know where the road is that goes there?
- 21 I am sure that you know these things, because you talk as though you were born before the time when all things were created;
you must be very old!
- 22 "Have you entered the place where I store the snow and the place where I keep the hail?
- 23 I store the snow and the hail in order that I can use them to help my people when they have troubles, in times when they are fighting wars [DOU].
- 24 And where is the road to the place from which I cause the lightning to flash?
Where is the place from where the east wind begins to blow over all the earth?
- 25 Who created the channels in which the rain comes down from the sky?
Who makes the roads for the thunder/lightning?
- 26 Who causes rain to fall in the desert,
in places where no one lives?
- 27 Who sends the rain that gives moisture/water to areas where nothing has grown, with the result that grass begins to grow again?
- 28 Does the rain have a father?
Does the dew also have a father?
- 29 And from whose womb does ice come in the ◀winter/cold season▶?
Who gives birth to the frost that comes down from the sky?
- 30 In the winter, the water freezes and becomes hard, like a rock, and the surface of lakes becomes frozen.

- 31 “Job, can you fasten the chains that hold the stars together in clusters/groups in the sky?
- 32 Can you tell the stars when they should shine?
Can you guide the stars in the groups in the northern sky whose names are the Big Bear and the Little Bear?
- 33 Do you know the laws that the stars must obey?
Can you cause those same laws to rule everything here on the earth?
- 34 “Can you shout to the clouds and cause rain to pour down on you?
- 35 Can you cause flashes of lightning to come down and strike where you want it to strike?
Do those flashes say to you, ‘Where do you want us to strike next?’
- 36 Who enables the clouds to know when they should cause rain to fall?
- 37 And who is skilled/wise enough to be able to count the clouds?
Who can tilt the jugs of water in the sky to cause the rain to fall,
- 38 with the result that the dry ground becomes hard as the dry ◀clods/lumps of soil▶ become wet and stick together?
- 39-40 “When a lioness and her cubs crouch in their dens or hide in a thicket, waiting for some animal to pass by that they can kill, can you find animals for a lioness to kill so that she and her cubs can eat the meat and not be hungry any more?
- 41 Who provides dead animals for crows, when the baby crows are calling out to me for food, when they are so weak because of their lack of food that they ◀stagger around/can hardly stand up▶ in their nests?”

39

Yahweh continued his reply to Job

- 1 “Job, do you know at what time/season of the year the female mountain goats give birth?
Have you watched the wild deer while their fawns were being born?
- 2 Do you know how many months pass from the time they become pregnant until their fawns are born?
- 3 When they give birth, they crouch down so that the fawns do not get hurt by falling to the ground when they are born.
- 4 The young fawns grow up in the open fields, and then they leave their mothers and do not return to them again.
- 5 “Who allows the wild donkeys to go wherever they want [DOU]?
- 6 I am the one who put them in the desert,
in places where grass does not grow.
- 7 They do not like the noise in the cities;
in the desert they do not have to listen to the shouts of those who force donkeys to work.
- 8 They go to the hills to find food;
there they search for grass to eat.
- 9 :Will a wild ox agree to work for you?
Will it allow you to keep it penned up at night in the place where you put feed for your animals?

- 10 And can you fasten it with a rope so that it will plow furrows/trenches in your fields?
- 11 Since it is very strong, can you trust it to work for you?
Can you go away after you tell it what work it should do and assume that it will do that work?
- 12 Can you rely on it to come back from the field, bringing your grain to the place where you thresh it?
- 13 “Think also about the ostriches. They joyfully flap their wings, but they do not have wing feathers that enable them to fly like storks do.
- 14 Ostriches lay their eggs on top of the ground and then walk away, leaving the eggs to be warmed in the sand.
- 15 Ostriches do not worry that some wild animal may step on the eggs and crush them [DOU].
- 16 Ostriches act cruelly towards their chicks;
they act as though the chicks belonged to some other ostrich.
They are not concerned if their chicks die,
and so the laying of the eggs was in vain.
- 17 That is because I did not allow ostriches to be wise.
I did not enable them to be intelligent.
- 18 But, when they get up and begin to run, they scornfully laugh at horses with their riders
because the horses cannot run as fast as the ostriches!
- 19 And think about horses. Job, are you the one who caused horses to be strong?
Are you the one who put flowing ◀manes/long hair▶ on their necks?
- 20 Are you the one who enabled them to leap forward like locusts?
When they ◀snort/blow loudly through their noses▶, they cause people to be afraid.
- 21 They paw the ground, rejoicing about being very strong,
as they prepare to rush into a battle.
- 22 It is as if they laugh at the thought of being afraid. They are not afraid of anything!
They do not run away when the soldiers in the battle are fighting each other with swords.
- 23 The quivers containing the riders’ arrows rattle against the horses’ sides, and the spears and javelins flash in the light of the sun.
- 24 The horses paw the ground fiercely/excitedly, wanting the battle to begin, and they rush into the battle when the trumpet is blown.
- 25 They neigh joyfully when they hear someone blowing the trumpet.
They can smell a battle even when they are far away, and they understand what it means when the commanders shout their commands to their soldiers.
- 26 *“And think about big birds. Are you the one who enabled hawks to spread their wings
and fly to the south for the winter?*
- 27 Do eagles fly high up into the cliffs to make their nests because you commanded them to do that?
- 28 They live in holes in those cliffs.
They are safe in those high pointed rocks because no animals can reach them there.

- 29 As they watch carefully from there, they see far away the animals that they can kill (OR, dead bodies of animals).
30 After an eagle kills an animal, the baby eagles drink the blood of that animal.”

40

Yahweh continued his reply to Job

- 1 Then Yahweh said to Job,
2 “Do you still want to argue with me, the Almighty One?
Since you criticize me, ◀you should be able to answer my questions!/why are you not able to answer my questions?▶ [RHQ]”

Job replied to Yahweh

- 3 Then Job replied to Yahweh, 4 “Now I realize that I am completely worthless. So ◀how could I answer those questions?/I could not possibly answer those questions!▶ [RHQ]
I will put my hand over my mouth and not say anything.
5 I have already said more than I should have said, so now I will say nothing more.”

Yahweh challenged Job

- 6 Then Yahweh again spoke to Job from inside the great windstorm. He said, 7 “I want to ask you some more questions.
So as men prepare themselves for a difficult task [MET], prepare yourself again to answer some more questions.
8 “Are you going to accuse me and say that I am unjust?
Are you going to say that what I have done is wrong, in order that you can say that what you have done is right?
9 Are you as powerful [MTY] as I am?
Can your voice sound as loud as thunder, as mine can?
10 If you can do that, put on the robes that show that you are glorious and are greatly honored!
11 Show that you are very angry;
show that you have the right/authority to humble people who are very proud!
12 Humble those proud people just by looking at them angrily
Crush wicked people quickly!
13 Bury them in the ground!
Send them to the place where dead people are,
where they will not be able to get out!
14 After you do that, I will congratulate/praise you and say that truly you can save yourself by your own ability/power.
15 “Think also about the huge animals that live near the water.
I made you, and I made them also.
They eat grass, like oxen do.
16 Their legs/thighs are very strong, and the muscles of their bellies are very powerful.
17 Their tails are stiff (OR, bend down) like the branches of a cedar tree.
The sinews/muscles of their thighs are close together.
18 Their thigh bones are like tubes made of bronze,

- and the bones of their legs are like bars made of iron.
- 19 They are among the strongest of the animals that I made, and I, who created them, am the only one who can kill them.
- 20 On the hills grows food [PRS] for them to eat while many [HYP] other wild animals play nearby.
- 21 They lie down in the water under the lotus plants;
they hide in tall reeds in the swamps.
- 22 Those huge animals find shade under the lotus plants, and they are surrounded by poplar trees.
- 23 They are not disturbed by raging/swiftly-flowing rivers;
they are not even disturbed/frightened when rivers like the Jordan River rush over them.
- 24 No one can [RHQ] catch them by blinding their eyes or by piercing their noses with the teeth of a trap!"

41

Yahweh challenged Job to try to capture a crocodile

- 1 "Think also about ◀crocodiles/great sea dragons▶.
Can you catch them with a fishhook or fasten their jaws with a rope?
- 2 Can you put ropes through their noses to control them or thrust hooks through their jaws?
- 3 Will they plead with you to act mercifully toward them or ◀use sweet talk/speak to you nicely▶ in order that you will not harm them?
- 4 Will they make an agreement with you to work for you, to be your slaves as long as they live?
- 5 Can you cause them to become pets like you cause birds to become your pets?
Can you put a leash/rope around their necks so that your servant girls can play with them?
- 6 Will merchants try to buy them in the market?
Will they cut them up into pieces and sell the meat?
- 7 Can you pierce their skins by throwing fishing spears at them?
Can you pierce their heads with a harpoon?
- 8 If you grab one of them with your hands, it will fight you in a way that you will never forget,
and you will never try to do it again!
- 9 It is useless to try to subdue them.
Anyone who tries to subdue one of them will lose his courage.
- 10 No one dares/tries to ◀arouse them/cause them to be angry▶.
So, since I am much more powerful than they are, ◀who would dare to cause me to be angry?/no one would dare to cause me to be angry!▶ [RHQ]
- 11 Also, everything on the earth is mine.
Therefore, no one [RHQ] is able to give anything to me and require me to pay money for it!
- 12 I will tell you about how strong crocodiles' legs are and how strong their well-formed bodies are.
- 13 ◀Can anyone strip off their hides?/No one is able to strip off their hides.▶ [RHQ]
◀Can anyone try to put bridles on them?/No one can try to put bridles on them.▶
[RHQ] (OR, Can anyone pierce their very thick hides?)

- 14 ◀Can anyone pry open their jaws, which have terrible teeth in them?/No one can pry open their jaws, which have terrible teeth in them!▶ [RHQ]
- 15 They have rows of scales on their back which are as hard as a rock (OR, tightly fastened together).
- 16 The scales are very close together, with the result that not even air can get between them.
- 17 The scales are joined very closely to each other,
and they cannot be separated.
- 18 When crocodiles sneeze, the tiny drops of water that come out of their noses sparkle in the sunlight.
Their eyes are red like the rising sun.
- 19 It is as though sparks of fire pour out of their mouths [DOU].
- 20 Smoke pours out of their nostrils/noses like steam comes out of a pot that is put over a fire made from dry reeds.
- 21 Their breath can cause coals to blaze, and flames shoot out from their mouths.
- 22 Their necks are very strong;
wherever they go, they cause people to be very afraid.
- 23 The folds in their flesh are very close together and are very hard/firm.
- 24 They are fearless, because the inner parts of their bodies are as hard as a rock, as hard as the lower millstone on which grain is ground.
- 25 When they rise up, they cause even very strong people to be terrified.
As a result, people ◀fall back/run away▶ when crocodiles thrash around.
- 26 People [PRS] cannot injure them with swords, and spears or darts or javelins cannot injure them, either.
- 27 They certainly are not afraid of weapons made of straw or rotten wood, but they are not even afraid of weapons made of iron or bronze!
- 28 Shooting arrows at them does not cause them to run away.
Hurling stones at them from a sling is like hurling bits of chaff at them.
- 29 They are not afraid of clubs any more than they would be afraid of men throwing bits of straw at them, and they laugh when they hear the whirl/sound of javelins being thrown at them
- 30 Their bellies are covered with scales that are as sharp as broken pieces of pottery.
When they drag themselves through the mud, their bellies tear up the ground like a plow.
- 31 They stir up the water and cause it to foam
as they churn/swim through it.
- 32 As they go through the water, the ◀wakes/trails in the water behind them▶ glisten.
People who see it would think that the foam in those wakes had become white hair.
- 33 There are no creatures on earth that are as fearless as crocodiles.
- 34 They are the proudest of all the creatures;
it is as though they rule like kings over all the other wild animals."

Job replied to Yahweh

- <sup>1</sup> Then Job replied to Yahweh. He said, <sup>2</sup> "I know that you can do everything and that no one can stop you from doing what you want to do.

<sup>3</sup> You asked me, ‘◀Who are you, who by speaking ignorantly, question what I plan to do?/You have no right to question what I plan to do by speaking ignorantly.▶’
[RHQ]

It is true that I spoke about things that I did not understand, things that are very wonderful/marvelous, and therefore I am not able to know them.

<sup>4</sup> You said to me, ‘Listen while I talk to you.
I want to ask you some questions,
so prepare yourself to answer them.’

<sup>5</sup> I had heard about you previously, but now it is as though I have seen you with my own eyes.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore I ◀am ashamed of/withdraw▶ what I said, and I sit in dust and ashes to show that I am sorry for what I said.”

Yahweh said he disapproved of what Job’s three friends said

<sup>7</sup> After Yahweh said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz, “I am angry with you and your two friends, Bildad and Zophar, because what my servant Job said about me was right/true, but what you have spoken about me was not right/true. <sup>8</sup> So now you must take to Job seven young bulls and seven rams and kill them and burn them on the altar as a sacrifice for yourselves. Then Job will pray for you, and I will do what he requests me to do, and I will forgive you for speaking wrongly about me. I will not punish you, even though you deserve to be punished, because what you said about me was not right/true, but what Job said about me was right/true.”

<sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar did what Yahweh commanded them to do, and Yahweh did what Job requested him to do for the three of them.

Yahweh blessed Job again

<sup>10</sup> After Job prayed for his three friends, Yahweh healed him and caused him to become rich again. Yahweh gave him twice as many things as he had before. <sup>11</sup> Then all his brothers and sisters, and all the people who had known him before, came to his house, and they ate a meal together. They consoled/comforted [DOU] him because of all the troubles that Yahweh had allowed him to experience.

<sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh blessed Job in the second half of his life more than he had blessed him in the first half of his life. He now acquired/owned 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 2,000 oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> And he also had seven more sons and three more daughters. <sup>14</sup> He named the first daughter Jemimah, he named the second daughter Keziah, and he named the third daughter Keren-Happuch. <sup>15</sup> In all of Uz land there were no young women who were as beautiful as the daughters of Job, and Job declared that they would inherit some of his possessions, just like their brothers would inherit some.

<sup>16</sup> After that, Job lived 140 more years. Before he died, he ◀saw/enjoyed being with▶ his great-great-grandchildren. <sup>17</sup> He was very old [DOU] when he died.

This book contains songs that the Israeli people sang. We call this book
Psalms Book One

1

The people God is pleased with

- <sup>1</sup> God is pleased with those who do not do what [MET] wicked people advise them to do, and who do not imitate the behavior of [MET] sinful people, and who do not join in with people who ◀ridicule/sneer at▶ God.
- <sup>2</sup> Those whom God is pleased with delight in doing the things that he has instructed/taught us to do.
They read and think about Yahweh's requirements, day and night.
- <sup>3</sup> They constantly produce/do things that please God just like fruit trees that have been planted along the banks of a stream produce fruit at the right time every year.
Like trees that never wither, they succeed in everything that they do.
- <sup>4</sup> But wicked people are not like that!
Wicked people are as worthless as chaff that is blown away by the wind.
- <sup>5</sup> Therefore, wicked people ◀will not be acquitted/will be condemned▶ [LIT] when God judges people, and furthermore, sinful people will not even be present when God gathers righteous people together,
- <sup>6</sup> because he guides and protects righteous people, but the path that the wicked walk on leads them to where they will be destroyed/punished by God forever.

- <sup>1</sup> ◀Why do the leaders of nations rage against God?/It is foolish for the nations to be angry with God▶ [RHQ].
◀Why do people plan to rebel against God even though it is in vain?/It is useless for people to plan to rebel against God▶ [RHQ]!
- <sup>2</sup> The kings of the nations prepare to revolt;
the rulers plot together to fight against Yahweh and against his chosen king.
- <sup>3</sup> They shout, "We should free ourselves from their control [MET];
we should not let them rule over us any longer!"
- <sup>4</sup> But Yahweh, the one who sits on his throne in heaven, laughs at them;
he ridicules those rulers.
- <sup>5</sup> Then, because he is angry with them, he rebukes them.
He causes them to be terrified when they realize that he will furiously punish them.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh says, "I have installed my king on Zion, my sacred hill in Jerusalem."
- <sup>7</sup> And his king says, "I will proclaim what Yahweh has decreed.

He said to me, 'It is as though you are my son;
today I have declared to everyone that it is as though [MET] I am your father.

<sup>8</sup> Ask me to give you the nations, so that they belong to you to rule over them permanently, and I will give them to you.

Even the most remote nations will be yours.

<sup>9</sup> You will defeat them completely [MET];
you will destroy them like people smash a clay pot with an iron rod [SIM].' "

<sup>10</sup> So then, you kings and other rulers on the earth, act wisely!
Heed what Yahweh is warning you!

Rejoice about what he has done for you, but tremble before him!

<sup>12</sup> Bow down humbly before his son!
If you do not do that, Yahweh will be angry, and he will suddenly get rid of you.

Do not forget that he can very quickly show that he is very angry!
But he is very pleased with all those who request him to protect them [MET].

3

A psalm written by David when he fled from his son Absalom

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I have many enemies [DOU]!
There are many people who oppose/rebel against me.

<sup>2</sup> Many people are saying about me,
"God will certainly not help him!"

(Think about that!)

<sup>3</sup> But Yahweh, you are like a shield that protects me [MET].
You greatly honor me, and you encourage me (OR, enable me to triumph over my enemies) [IDM].

<sup>4</sup> I cry out to you, Yahweh, and you answer me from Zion, your sacred hill.

(Think about that!)

<sup>5</sup> At night I lie down and sleep, and I awake in the morning feeling good/refreshed because you, Yahweh, ◀take care of/protect▶ me all during the night.

<sup>6</sup> There may be thousands of enemy soldiers who surround me, but I am not afraid.

My God, come and rescue me again!
You insult my enemies by slapping them on their cheeks;
when you strike them, you break their teeth,
with the result that they cannot hurt anyone [MET].

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, you are the one who saves your people from their enemies.
Yahweh, bless your people!

(Think about that!)

4

A psalm written by David for the choir director; a psalm to be accompanied by people playing stringed instruments

<sup>1</sup> God, answer me when I pray to you.

You are the one who vindicates me;
Rescue me from things that distress me.

Act mercifully toward me, and listen to me while I pray.

<sup>2</sup> How long will you people cause me to be disgraced instead of honoring me [RHQ]?

You people love to falsely accuse me.

(Think about that!)

<sup>3</sup> All those who are loyal to Yahweh, he has chosen them to belong to him.
Yahweh listens to me when I pray to him.

<sup>4</sup> When you people get angry, do not allow your anger to control you and cause you to sin.

While you lie on your bed, silently examine what you are thinking.

(Think about that!)

<sup>5</sup> Also, offer to Yahweh the proper sacrifices, and continue trusting in him.

<sup>6</sup> Some people ask, "Who will allow good things to happen to us?"

But I say, "Yahweh, continue to act kindly toward us.

<sup>7</sup> You have made me very happy;

I am happier than people who have harvested a great amount of grain and grapes.

<sup>8</sup> I can lie down at night and sleep soundly because I know that you, Yahweh, will keep me safe."

5

A psalm written by David for the choir director; a psalm to be accompanied by playing flutes

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, listen to me while I pray!

Pay attention to me when I am groaning because I am suffering very much.

<sup>2</sup> You are my King and my God.

When I call to you to ask you to help me, listen to me, because you are the one to whom I pray.

<sup>3</sup> Listen to me when I pray to you each morning, and I wait for you to reply.

<sup>4</sup> You are not a god who is pleased with wicked people;
you do not ◀associate with/invite into your house▶ those who do what is evil.

<sup>5</sup> You do not allow those who are very proud to come to you to worship you.
You hate all those who do evil things.

<sup>6</sup> You get rid of liars, and you despise those who murder others and those who deceive others.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, because you love me so much and so faithfully,
I come into your temple.

- I revere you greatly,
and I bow down to worship you at your sacred temple.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, because you act righteously toward me, show me what is right for me to do.
Because I have many enemies, show me clearly what you want me to do.
- <sup>9</sup> My enemies never say what is true;
they just want to destroy others.
The things that they say [MTY] are as foul as an open grave where a corpse is decaying.
They use their tongues to tell lies.
- <sup>10</sup> O God, declare that they are guilty [MTY] and punish them.
Cause them to experience the same disasters/troubles that they plan to cause to happen to others.
Get rid of them because they have committed many sins, and they have rebelled against you.
- <sup>11</sup> But cause that all those who go to you to be protected will rejoice;
cause them to sing joyfully to you forever.
Protect those who love you [MTY];
they are truly happy because ◀of what you do for them/they belong to you▶.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, you always bless those who act righteously;
you protect them like a soldier is protected by his shield [SIM].

6

A psalm written by David for the choir leader, to be accompanied by people playing stringed instruments

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, do not punish me when you are angry with me;
Do not even rebuke/scold me when you are angry.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, be kind to me and heal me because I have become weak.
My body [SYN] shakes because I am experiencing much pain.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, I am greatly distressed.
How long ◀must I endure this/will it be before you help me▶ [RHQ]?
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, please come and rescue me.
Save me because you faithfully love me.
- <sup>5</sup> I will not be able to praise you after I die [RHQ];
No one in the place of the dead praises you.
- <sup>6</sup> I am exhausted/groan from my pain.
At night I cry very much, with the result that my bed and my pillow become wet from my tears.
- <sup>7</sup> My tears blur my eyes so much that I cannot see well.
My eyes have become weak because my enemies have caused me to cry constantly.
- <sup>8</sup> You people who do evil things, get away from me!
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh heard me when I was crying and called out to him to help me, and he will answer my prayer.
- <sup>10</sup> When that happens, all my enemies will be ashamed, and they will also be terrified.
They will get away from me and suddenly leave me because they will be disgraced.

7

A psalm that David sang to Yahweh because of David's enemy, Cush

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh my God, I come to you to protect me.

Rescue me, save me from all those who are pursuing me in order to harm me.

<sup>2</sup> If you do not do that, they will tear me into pieces like a lion does when it attacks the animals it wants to kill, and no one will save me from them.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh my God, if I have done anything that is wrong,

<sup>4</sup> if I have done evil to some friend who did good things to me, or if, for no good reason, I have spared (OR, acted violently toward) those who were my enemies,

<sup>5</sup> allow my enemies to pursue me and capture me.

Allow them to trample me into the ground and leave me [SYN] lying dead in the dirt.

(Think about that!)

<sup>6</sup> But Yahweh, because you are very angry with those who pursue me, arise and attack/defeat my enemies who are furiously/angrily attacking me

Do to them what is just!

<sup>7</sup> Gather around you the people of all nations, and rule them from where you are in heaven [MTY].

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, judge the people of all nations!

And, Yahweh, show that I have done nothing that is wrong.

<sup>9</sup> God, you know what every person is thinking, and because you are righteous, you always do what is just/right.

So now stop evil people from doing wicked deeds, and defend all of us who are righteous!

<sup>10</sup> God, you protect me like a shield protects soldiers [MET];

you protect all those who are righteous in their inner being.

<sup>11</sup> You judge everyone correctly, and every day you punish wicked people.

it is as though [MET] you sharpen your sword and put a string on your bow to get ready to kill them.

<sup>13</sup> You are preparing your weapons that kill those whom they strike;

the arrows that you will shoot have flaming tips.

<sup>14</sup> Wicked people tell lies, and they think that they surely will be able to do [MET] the evil things that they are planning to do

just as surely as a pregnant woman knows that she is going to give birth to a child
[MET].

<sup>15</sup> But when they dig a deep pit to trap others, they themselves will fall into it.

<sup>16</sup> They themselves will experience the trouble that they want to cause others to have;

they will hurt themselves by the violent things that they want to do to others.

- <sup>17</sup> I praise Yahweh because he always acts righteously/justly;
I sing to praise Yahweh, the one who is much greater than any other god.

8

A psalm written by David for the choir director, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, our Lord, people all over the world know that you [MTY] are very great!
Your glory reaches up higher than the heavens!
- <sup>2</sup> You have taught little children and infants to praise you; they cause your enemies and those who try to ◀get revenge on/get rid of▶ you to be silent.
- <sup>3</sup> When I look up at the sky at night, and see the things that you have made—the moon and the stars that you have set in place—
- <sup>4</sup> it is amazing to me that [RHQ] you think about people, that you are concerned about us humans!
- <sup>5</sup> You made the angels in heaven to be only a little more important than we are;
you caused us to be like kings [MET] and you gave us splendor and honor [DOU]!
- <sup>6</sup> You put us in charge of everything that you made;
you gave us authority over all things—
- <sup>7</sup> the sheep and the cattle, and even the wild animals,
- <sup>8</sup> the birds, the fish, and everything else that swims in the seas.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh, our Lord, people all over the world know that you [MTY] are very great!

9

A psalm written by David for the choir director, to be sung using the tune 'The death of my son'

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I will praise you with all of my inner being.
I will tell others about all the wonderful things that you have done.
- <sup>2</sup> I will sing to celebrate what you [MTY], who are much greater than all other gods,
have done.
- <sup>3</sup> When my enemies realize that you are very powerful, they stumble, and then they are killed.
- <sup>4</sup> You sat on your throne to judge people, and you have judged fairly/justly concerning me.
- <sup>5</sup> You rebuked the people of other nations and you have gotten rid of the wicked people;
you have erased their names forever.
- <sup>6</sup> Our enemies have disappeared;
you destroyed their cities,
and people do not even remember them any more.
- <sup>7</sup> But Yahweh rules forever.
He judges people while he sits on his throne to judge people,
- <sup>8</sup> and he will judge all the people in [SYN] the world justly;
he will judge the people of all nations fairly [DOU].

- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh will be a refuge for those who are oppressed;
yes, he will be like a shelter for them when they have trouble.
- <sup>10</sup> Those who know Yahweh [MTY] trust in him;
 he never abandons those who come to him ◀for help/to worship him▶.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh rules from Zion Hill;
 praise him while you sing to him.
 Tell the people of all the nations the marvelous things that he has done.
- <sup>12</sup> He does not forget to punish those who have murdered others; and he will not ignore people who are crying because they are suffering.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, be merciful to me!
 Look at the ways that my enemies have injured me.
 Do not allow me to die because of these injuries.
- <sup>14</sup> I want to live in order that I can praise you at the gates of Jerusalem [MTY] and to rejoice because you rescued me.
- <sup>15</sup> It is as though the wicked people of many nations have dug a pit for me to fall into [MET],
 but they have fallen into that same pit.
It is as if they spread out a net to catch me [MET], but their feet have been caught in that same net.
- <sup>16</sup> Because of what you have done, people know that you decide matters fairly/justly, but you allow wicked people to be trapped by the same evil things that they themselves do.
 (Think about that!)
- <sup>17</sup> Wicked people will all die and be buried in their graves, and their spirits will go to be with all those who have ◀forgotten about/rejected▶ you.
- <sup>18</sup> But you will not forget those who are needy/poor;
 what they confidently expect will certainly happen.
- <sup>19</sup> Yahweh, arise and judge the wicked people of the nations;
 do not allow them to think that because they are strong they will never be punished.
- <sup>20</sup> Yahweh, teach them to be terrified about you.
 Cause them to know that they are merely human beings.
 (Think about that!)

10

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, ◀why are you far away from us?/it seems that you are far away from us.▶
 [RHQ]
 Why do you not pay attention when we have troubles [RHQ]?
- <sup>2</sup> People who are proud gladly cause poor people to suffer.
 So cause what they do to others to happen to them! May they be caught in the same traps that they set to catch others [MET]!
- <sup>3</sup> They brag about the evil things that they want to do.
 They praise people who seize from others things that do not belong to them, and they curse you, Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup> Wicked people are very proud.

- As a result, they do not ◀seek help from/are not concerned about▶ God;
they do not even think that God exists.
- <sup>5</sup> But it seems that they succeed in everything that they do.
They do not think that they will be condemned/punished for their deeds, and they ◀sneer at/make fun of▶ their enemies.
- <sup>6</sup> They think, “Nothing bad will happen to us!
We will never have troubles!”
- <sup>7</sup> When they talk [MTY], they are always cursing, lying, and threatening to harm others.
They constantly say [MTY] evil things that show that they are ready to do cruel things to others.
- <sup>8</sup> They hide in villages, ready to ◀ambush/suddenly attack▶ and kill people who ◀are innocent/have done nothing wrong▶.
They constantly search for people who will not be able to ◀resist/defend themselves▶ when they are attacked.
- <sup>9</sup> They are like [MET] lions that crouch down and hide, waiting to pounce on their prey.
They are like hunters that catch their prey with a net and then drag it away.
- <sup>10</sup> Just like helpless animals are crushed, people who cannot defend themselves are killed because wicked people are very strong.
- <sup>11</sup> Wicked people say, “God will not pay any attention to what we do.
His eyes are covered, so he never sees anything.”
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh God, arise and help us
Punish [IDM] those wicked people!
And do not forget those who are suffering!
- <sup>13</sup> Wicked people revile you [RHQ] continually.
They think, “God will never punish us!”
- <sup>14</sup> But you see the trouble and the distress that they cause.
People who are suffering expect that you will help them;
and you help orphans, also.
- <sup>15</sup> ◀Break the arms/Destroy the power▶ of wicked [DOU] people!
Continue to pursue and punish them for the wicked things that they do, until they stop doing those things.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh, you are our king forever, but wicked nations will disappear from the earth.
- <sup>17</sup> You have listened to afflicted/suffering people when they cry out to you.
You hear them when they pray, and you encourage [IDM] them.
- <sup>18</sup> You show that orphans and oppressed people have not done things that are wrong, with the result that human beings will not cause people to be terrified any more.

11

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> I trust that Yahweh will protect [MTY] me.
So do not [RHQ] say to me, “You need to escape/flee to the mountains like birds do,
- <sup>2</sup> because wicked people have hidden in the darkness, they have pulled back their bowstrings and aimed their arrows to shoot them at godly/righteous [IDM] people like you.

<sup>3</sup> When people are not punished for disobeying the laws, ◀what can righteous people do?/there is not much that righteous people can do.▶” [RHQ]

<sup>4</sup> But Yahweh is sitting on his throne in his sacred temple in heaven, and he [SYN] watches everything that people do.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh examines what righteous people do and what wicked people do, and he hates those who like to perform violent actions to injure others.

<sup>6</sup> He will send down from the sky flaming coals and burning sulfur, and send scorching hot winds to punish wicked people.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh is righteous and he loves those who act righteously; righteous people are able to come into his presence.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, help us!

It seems that people who are loyal to you have all vanished.

they deceive others by ◀flattering them/saying good things about them that they know are not true▶.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, we wish that you would cut off their tongues so that they cannot continue to boast.

<sup>4</sup> They say, “By telling lies we will get what we want;
we control what we say [MTY], so no one can tell us what we should not do!”

<sup>5</sup> But Yahweh replies, “I have seen the violent things that they have done to helpless people;
and I have heard those people groaning, so I will arise and rescue the people who are wanting me to help them.”

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, you always do what you have promised to do; what you have promised is as precious and pure as silver that has been heated seven times in a furnace to get rid of all the impure material.

<sup>7-8</sup> Wicked people strut around proudly, and people praise them for doing vile/wicked deeds, but Yahweh, we know that you will protect/rescue us from those wicked people.

13

A psalm written by David for the choir director

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, how long will you continue to forget about me [RHQ]?
Will you hide yourself [SYN] from me forever?

<sup>2</sup> How long must I endure anguish/worry?
Must I be miserable/sad every day?
How long will my enemies continue to defeat me?

- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh my God, look at me and answer me.
 Enable me to become strong again [IDM], and do not allow me to die.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not allow my enemies to boast saying, "We have defeated him!"
 Do not allow them to defeat me, with the result that they will rejoice about it!
- <sup>5</sup> But I trust that you will faithfully love me;
 I will rejoice when you rescue me.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh, you have done many good things for me, so I will sing to you.

14

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> Only foolish people say to themselves, "There is no God!"
 People who say those things are corrupt/worthless; they do abominable/detestable deeds;
 there is not one of them who does what is good/right.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh looks down from heaven and sees humans;
 he looks to see if anyone is very wise, with the result that he desires to know God.
- <sup>3</sup> But they are all corrupt/evil;
 no one does what is good/right.
- <sup>4</sup> Will those evil people never learn what God will do to punish them [RHQ]?
 They act violently toward Yahweh's people while eating the food that he provides,
 and they never pray to Yahweh.
- <sup>5</sup> But some day they will become very terrified because God helps those who act righteously and will punish those who reject him.
- <sup>6</sup> Those who do evil may prevent helpless people from doing what they plan to do, but Yahweh protects those helpless people [MET].
- <sup>7</sup> I wish/desire that Yahweh would come from Jerusalem [MTY] and rescue us Israeli people!
 Yahweh, when you bless your people again, all of us Israeli people, who are the descendants of Jacob, will rejoice.

15

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, who are allowed to enter your Sacred Tent?
 Who are allowed to live on your sacred mountain?
- <sup>2</sup> Only those who always do what is right and do not sin may do that.
 They always say what is true <sup>3</sup> and they do not slander others.
- They do not do to others things that are wrong, and they do not say bad things about others.
- <sup>4</sup> Godly people hate those whom God has rejected, but they respect those who revere Yahweh.
 They do what they have promised to do

- even if it causes them trouble to do that.
<sup>5</sup> They lend money to others without charging interest, and they never accept bribes in order to lie about people who have not done what is wrong.

Those who do those things will never stop trusting God even if disastrous things happen to them.

16

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> God, protect me because I go to you to keep me safe!
- <sup>2</sup> I said to Yahweh, "You are my Lord;
 all the good things that I have come from you."
<sup>3</sup> Your people who live in this land are wonderful;
 I delight to be with them.
<sup>4</sup> Those who choose to worship other gods will have many things that cause them to be sad.
 I will not join them when they make sacrifices to their gods;
 I will not even join them when they speak [MTY] the names of their gods.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, you are the one whom I have chosen, and you give me great blessings.
 You protect me and control what happens to me.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh has given me a wonderful place in which to live;
 I am delighted with all the things that he has given me [MET].
- <sup>7</sup> I will praise Yahweh, the one who teaches/disciplines me;
 even at night he you put in my mind what is right for me to do.
- <sup>8</sup> I know that Yahweh is always with me.
 He is beside me;
 so nothing will ◀perturb me/cause me to be worried▶.
- <sup>9</sup> Therefore I am glad and I [MTY, DOU] rejoice;
 I can rest securely <sup>10</sup> because you, Yahweh, will not allow my soul/spirit to remain in the place where the dead people are;
 you will not allow me, your godly one, to stay there.
- <sup>11</sup> You will show me the road that leads to receiving eternal life, and you will make me joyful when I am with you.
 I will have pleasure forever when I am ◀at your right hand/seated next to you▶.

17

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, listen to me while I plead with you to act justly toward me.
 Hear me while I call out to you to help me.
 Pay attention to what I say while I pray because I am speaking [MTY] honestly/truthfully.

- <sup>2</sup> You are the one who is able to declare that I ◀am innocent/have not done anything that was wrong▶ because you see/know that I am telling the truth.
- <sup>3</sup> You know what I think, even at night;
you have examined what I say and do,
and you know that I have determined to never tell any lies.
- <sup>4</sup> I have not done like others do;
I have always done what is right [IDM], and I have not acted cruelly toward others.
- <sup>5</sup> I have always done what you told me to do [IDM],
I have ◀never failed to do/always done▶ [LIT] those things.
- <sup>6</sup> O God, I pray to you because you answer me;
please listen [MTY] to what I am saying.
- <sup>7</sup> Show me that you faithfully love me.
By your great power [MTY] rescue those who ◀run to/trust in▶ you to protect them from their enemies.
- <sup>8</sup> Protect me as people carefully protect their own eyes;
protect me like birds protect their babies under their wings [MET].
- <sup>9</sup> Do not allow wicked people to attack me;
my enemies surround me, wanting to kill me.
- <sup>10</sup> They never pity [IDM] anyone, and they are always boasting.
- <sup>11</sup> They have hunted/searched for me and found me.
They surround me, watching for an opportunity to throw me to the ground.
- <sup>12</sup> They are like lions [SIM] that are ready to tear apart the animals that they capture;
they are like young lions that are hiding, waiting to pounce on their prey.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, come and ◀oppose/fight against▶ my enemies and defeat them!
Use your sword to save me from those wicked people!
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh, by your power [MTY] rescue me from those people who are interested only in things here in this world.

But you provide plenty of food for those whom you love dearly;
their children also have many things that their grandchildren will inherit.

- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, because I act righteously, I will some day see you [SYN].
When I awake, I will see you face-to-face, and then I will be happy.

18

A psalm written by God's servant David. He sang it after Yahweh had rescued him from Saul and his other enemies.

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I love you, the one who enables me to be strong.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is like an overhanging rock [DOU, MET] under which I can hide from my enemies;
he is like a strong fortress, the one who protects me;
he protects me like a shield [MET] protects a soldier;
he is the one to whom I go ◀for refuge/to be protected/safe▶,

- and he defends me by his great power [IDM].
- <sup>3</sup> I called out to Yahweh, who deserves to be praised, and he rescued me from my enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> All around me were dangerous situations in which I might be killed [PRS];
it was as though there were huge waves [MET] that almost crashed on me and killed me.
- <sup>5</sup> It was as though the place where dead people are had ropes that were wrapped around me,
or it was as though there was a trap [MET] that would seize and kill me.
- <sup>6</sup> But when I was very distressed, I called out to Yahweh, and from his temple he heard me.
He listened to me when I cried out for help.
- <sup>7</sup> Then the earth quaked/shook strongly [DOU];
the mountains shook very strongly from their centers [DOU]
because Yahweh was angry.
- <sup>8</sup> It was as though smoke poured out from his nostrils, and as though burning coals came out of his mouth.
- <sup>9</sup> He opened the sky and came down with a black cloud under his feet.
- <sup>10</sup> He flew, riding on the back of a creature that had wings, traveling fast, blown along by the wind.
- <sup>11</sup> Darkness was all around him like a blanket [MET];
dark clouds, full of moisture, covered him [MET].
- <sup>12</sup> Hailstones and flashes of lightning were around him;
hail and burning coals fell from the sky.
- <sup>13</sup> Then Yahweh spoke in a loud voice from the sky, and his enemies heard his voice that sounded like thunder.
- <sup>14</sup> He shot his arrows at them and caused them to scatter;
His flashes of lightning caused them to become very confused (OR, to run away).
- <sup>15</sup> The bottom of the ocean became visible, and the foundations of the earth were uncovered, when Yahweh rebuked his enemies
when he snorted.
- <sup>16</sup> It was as though he reached down from heaven and grabbed me and pulled me up out of the deep ocean.
- <sup>17</sup> He rescued me from my strong enemies who hated me;
they were very strong,
with the result that I could not defeat them.
- <sup>18</sup> When I ◀was distressed/had troubles▶, they attacked me, but Yahweh defended/protected me.
- <sup>19</sup> He led me to a place where I was safe;
he rescued me because he was pleased with me.
- <sup>20</sup> Yahweh has rewarded me because I do what is right;
he has blessed me because I ◀am innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶.
- <sup>21</sup> I have obeyed Yahweh's laws;
I have not abandoned him.
- <sup>22</sup> My behavior was directed by his rules;
I have not stopped obeying them.

- 23 He knows that I have not done what is wrong;
I have kept myself from sinning.
- 24 So he rewards me because I do what is right;
he knows that I [SYN] have not committed sins.
- 25 Yahweh, you are faithful to those who faithfully do what you tell them to do;
you always do what is good/right to those who do what you want them to do.
- 26 You are kind to those who are kind to others, but you act wisely toward those who ◀act perversely/do bad things▶.
- 27 You save those who are humble, but you cause those who are proud to be humiliated/ashamed.
- 28 You give light to my soul/spirit;
you take away the darkness of my soul.
- 29 You enable me to be strong, with the result that I can run and attack a line of enemy soldiers;
with your help I can ◀scale/climb up▶ the walls that surround my enemies' cities.
- 30 Everything that Yahweh my God does is perfect.
We can depend on him to do what he promises.
He is like a shield [MET] to protect all those who go to him for refuge.
- 31 Yahweh is [RHQ] the only one who is God; only he is like an overhanging rock under which we can be safe.
- 32 God is the one who enables me to be strong and who keeps me safe on the roads that I walk on.
- 33 He enables me to walk swiftly without stumbling, like a deer walks/runs in the mountains.
- 34 He teaches me how to use a strong/metal bow in order that I can use it to fight in battles.
- 35 Yahweh, you protect and save me with your shield;
you have made me safe by your power [MTY].
I have become ◀strong/a great king▶ because you have helped me.
- 36 You have cleared the road for me, with the result that now I do not slip/stumble.
- 37 I have pursued my enemies and caught them;
I did not stop until I had defeated/killed them all.
- 38 When I strike them, they are not able to get up again;
they lie on the ground, defeated.
- 39 You have enabled me to be strong in order that I can fight battles and defeat my enemies.
- 40 You caused my enemies to run away (OR, you enabled me to put my foot on my enemies' necks after I captured them and forced them to lie on the ground);
I have gotten rid of all those who hated me.
- 41 They called out for someone to help them, but no one saved them.
- 42 I pulverize them, with the result that they become like [MET] the dust that the wind blows away;
I throw them out like [SIM] people throw dirt out into the streets.
- 43 You enabled me to defeat those who fought against me, and appointed me to be the ruler of many nations;

people whom I did not know about previously are now slaves in my kingdom.

<sup>44</sup> When foreigners hear about me, they ◀cringe/bow low before me▶ and they obey me.

<sup>45</sup> They are no longer courageous, and from their forts where they were hiding they come to me trembling.

<sup>46</sup> Yahweh is alive!

Praise the one who is like an overhanging rock [MET] under which I am safe

Exalt the God who saves me!

<sup>47</sup> He enables me to get revenge on my enemies;
he causes me to defeat nations and to rule over them,

<sup>48</sup> and he rescues me from my enemies.

He has lifted me up high so that violent men could not reach me and harm me.

<sup>49</sup> So I praise him and I tell the nations the great things that he has done.

<sup>50</sup> He has enabled me, his king, to powerfully defeat my enemies; he faithfully loves me, David, the one he has chosen to be king, and he will faithfully love my descendants forever.

19

A psalm written by David for the choir director

<sup>1</sup> When people look at everything that God has placed in the skies, they can see that he is very great;

they can see the great things that he has created.

<sup>2</sup> Day after day it is as though the sun proclaims the glory of God, and night after night it is as though the moon and stars say that they know that God made them.

<sup>3</sup> They do not really speak;
they do not say any words.

There is no voice from them for anyone to hear.

and even people who live in the most distant/remote places on earth can know it.

The sun is in the skies where God placed it [MET];

<sup>5</sup> it rises each morning like a bridegroom who is happy as he comes out of his bedroom after his wedding.

It is like a strong athlete who is very eager to start running in a race.

<sup>6</sup> The sun rises at one side of the sky and goes across the sky and sets on the other side,
and nothing can hide from its heat.

<sup>7</sup> The instructions that Yahweh has given us are perfect;
they ◀revive us/give us new strength▶.

We can be sure that the things that Yahweh has told us will never change, and by learning them people who have not been previously taught/instructed will become wise.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh's laws are fair/just;
when we obey them, we become joyful.

The commands of Yahweh are clear, and by reading them [PRS] we start to understand how God wants us to behave.

- <sup>9</sup> It is good for people to revere Yahweh;
that is something that they will do forever.
What Yahweh has decided is fair, and it is always right.
- <sup>10</sup> The things that God has decided are more valuable than gold, even the finest/purest gold.
They are sweeter than honey that drips from honeycombs.
- <sup>11</sup> Furthermore, by reading them I learn what things are good to do and what things are evil, and they promise a great reward to us who obey them.
- <sup>12</sup> But there is no one who can know all his errors [RHQ];
so Yahweh, forgive me for these things which I do that I do not realize are wrong.
- <sup>13</sup> Keep me from doing things that I know are wrong;
do not let my sinful desires control me.
If you do that, I will no longer be guilty for committing such sins, and I will not commit the great sin of rebelling terribly against you.
- <sup>14</sup> O Yahweh, you are like an overhanging rock [MET] under which I can be safe; you are the one who protects me.
I hope/desire that the things that I say and what I think will always please you.

20

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> I desire that Yahweh will answer you when you call out to him when you have troubles!
God is the one whom ◀our ancestor Jacob/the Israeli people▶ worshiped;
I desire that he will protect you [MTY] from being harmed by your enemies.
- <sup>2</sup> I desire/hope that he will reach out from his sacred temple and help you, and aid you from where he lives on Zion Hill.
- <sup>3</sup> I desire/hope that he will accept all the offerings that you give him to be burned on
the altar,
and all your other offerings.
- (Think about that!)
- <sup>4</sup> I want him to give to you what you desire, and that you will be able to accomplish all that you desire to do.
- <sup>5</sup> When we hear that you have defeated your enemies, we will shout joyfully.
We will lift up a banner proclaiming that it is God [MTY] who helps us (inc).
I want Yahweh to do for you all that you request him to do.
- <sup>6</sup> I know now that Yahweh rescues me, the one whom he has chosen to be king.
From his holy place in heaven he will answer me, and he will save me by his great power [MTY].
- <sup>7</sup> Some kings trust that because they have chariots they will be able to defeat their enemies, and some trust that their horses will enable them to defeat their enemies, but we will trust in the power [MTY] of Yahweh our God.
- <sup>8</sup> Some kings will stumble and fall down, but we will be strong and ◀not be moved/continue standing firm▶.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, enable me, your king, to defeat our enemies!
 Answer us when we call out to you to help us.

21

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, ◀I, your king am glad/the king is glad▶ because you have caused me/him to be strong.
 ◀I rejoice/he rejoices▶ greatly because you have rescued me/him from my/his enemies.
- <sup>2</sup> You have given me/him the things that I/he [SYN] desired and you have not refused to do what I requested you to do. (Think about that!)
- <sup>3</sup> In answer to my/his prayer, you enabled me/him to succeed and prosper.
 You placed a gold crown on my/his head.
- <sup>4</sup> I/He asked you to enable me/him to live for a long time, and that is what you gave me/him, a very long [HYP] life.
- <sup>5</sup> ◀I am/He is▶ greatly honored because you have helped me/him to defeat my/his enemies;
 you have made me/him famous.
- <sup>6</sup> You will bless me/him forever, and you have caused me/him to be joyful in your presence.
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, you are God Almighty, and ◀I trust/the king trusts▶ in you.
 Because you faithfully love me/him, disastrous things will never happen to me/him.
- <sup>8</sup> You will enable me/him to capture [MTY] all my/his enemies and all those who hate me/him.
- <sup>9</sup> When you appear, you will throw them into a fiery furnace.
 Because you are angry with them, you will get rid of them;
 the fire will burn them up.
- <sup>10</sup> You will remove their children from this earth;
 their descendants will all disappear.
- <sup>11</sup> They planned to harm you,
 but what they plan will never succeed.
- <sup>12</sup> You will cause them to run away [IDM]
 by shooting arrows at them.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, show us that you are very strong!
 When you do that, while we sing we will praise you because you are very powerful.

22

A psalm written by David for the choir director, to be sung to the tune 'Doe of the Dawn'

- <sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you abandoned/deserted me?
 Why do you stay so far from me,
 and why do you not hear/help me [RHQ]?
 Why do you not hear me when I am groaning?

- <sup>2</sup> My God, every day I call to you during the daytime and during the night, but you do not answer me, so I am not able to sleep.
- <sup>3</sup> But you are holy.
You sit on your throne as king, and we the people of Israel praise you [PRS].
- <sup>4</sup> Our ancestors trusted in you.
Because they trusted in you, you rescued them.
- <sup>5</sup> When they cried out to you, you saved them.
They trusted in you, and ◀they were not disappointed/you saved them as you said that you would▶.
- <sup>6</sup> But you have not rescued me
People despise me and consider that I am not a man;
they think that I am as worthless as a worm!
Everyone [HYP] scorns me and despises me.
- <sup>7</sup> Everyone who sees me [HYP] makes fun of me.
They sneer at me and insult me by shaking their heads at me as though I were an evil man.
- They say,
- <sup>8</sup> “He trusts in Yahweh,
so Yahweh should save him!
He says that Yahweh is very pleased with him;
if that is so, Yahweh should rescue him!”
- <sup>9</sup> Why do you not protect me now as you did when I was born?
I was safe even when I was ◀nursing/drinking milk from my mother’s breasts▶.
- <sup>10</sup> It was as though you adopted me right when I was born.
You have ◀been my God/taken care of me▶ ever since I was born.
- <sup>11</sup> So, ◀do not stay far from/stay close to▶ [LIT] me now because enemies who will cause me much trouble are near me, and there is no one else who can help me.
- <sup>12</sup> My enemies surround me like a herd/group of wild bulls.
Fierce people, like those strong bulls that graze on the hills in Bashan area, encircle
me.
- <sup>13</sup> They are like roaring lions that are attacking the animals that they want to kill [MET] and eat;
they rush toward me to kill me;
they are like lions that have their mouths open, ready to tear their victims to pieces
[MET].
- <sup>14</sup> I am completely exhausted [MET],
and all my bones are out of their joints/places.
I no longer expect that God will save me;
that expectation is gone completely, like wax that has melted away.
- <sup>15</sup> My strength is all dried up [MET] like a broken piece of a clay jar that has dried in the sun.
I am so thirsty that my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
O God, I think that you are about to let me die and become dirt!
- <sup>16</sup> My enemies [MET] surround me like a pack/group of wild dogs.
A group of evil men has encircled me, ready to attack me.
They have already smashed my hands and my feet.
- <sup>17</sup> I am so weak and thin that my bones can be seen and counted.

- My enemies stare at me and ◀gloat/are happy▶ about what has happened to me.
- 18 They looked at the clothes that I was wearing and gambled to determine which piece each of them would get.
- 19 O Yahweh, do not stay far away from me!
You who are my source of strength, come quickly and help me!
- 20 Rescue me from those who want to kill me with their swords.
Save me from those who are like wild/fierce dogs [MET].
- 21 Snatch me away from my enemies who are like lions whose jaws are already open, ready to chew me up Grab me away from those men who are like wild oxen that attack other animals with their horns [MET]!
- 22 But you have saved me, so I will declare to my fellow Israelis how great you [MTY] are.
I will praise you among the group of your people gathered together to worship you.
- 23 You people who have an awesome respect for Yahweh, praise him!
All you who are descended from Jacob, honor Yahweh!
All you Israeli people, revere him!
- 24 He does not despise or ignore those who are suffering;
he does not hide ◀his face/himself▶ from them.
He has listened to them when they cried out to him for help.
- 25 Yahweh, in the great gathering of your people, I will praise you for what you have done.
In the presence of those who revere you, I will offer the sacrifices that I promised.
- 26 The poor people whom I have invited to the meal will eat as much as they want.
All who come worship Yahweh will praise him.
I pray that God will enable you all to live a long and happy life!
- 27 I pray that people in all nations, even in the remote areas, will think about Yahweh and turn to him, and that people from all the clans in the world will bow down before him.
- 28 Because Yahweh is the king!
He rules all the nations.
- 29 I desire that all the rich people on the earth will bow before him.
Some day they will die, but I want them to prostrate themselves on the ground in his presence before they die.
- 30 People ◀in the future generations/who have not been born yet▶ will also serve Yahweh.
Our descendants will be told about what Yahweh has done.
- 31 People who are not yet born, who will live in future years, will be told how Yahweh rescued his people.
People will tell them, "Yahweh did it!"

23

- 1 Yahweh, you care for me like a shepherd cares for his sheep.
So I have everything that I need.
- 2 You encourage me and give me peace;

 you are like a shepherd who leads his sheep to places where there is plenty of green grass for them to eat, and lets them rest beside streams where the water is flowing slowly.

<sup>3</sup> You renew my strength.
 You guide me along the roads that are the right ones for me in order that I can honor you.

<sup>4</sup> Even when I am walking through very dangerous dark ravines where I might be killed,
 I will not be afraid of anything because you are with me.
 You protect me like a shepherd protects his sheep.
He uses his club and his walking stick to protect them from being attacked by wild animals.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a great feast for me, in a place where my enemies can see me.
 You joyfully receive me, as people joyfully receive the guests they have invited by pouring olive oil over their heads.
 You have given me very many blessings!

<sup>6</sup> I am certain that you will be good to me and act mercifully toward me as long as I live;
 and then, O Yahweh, I will live in your home in heaven forever.

A psalm written by David

<sup>1</sup> The earth and everything in it belongs to Yahweh;
 all the people in the world belong to him, too, <sup>2</sup> because he caused the ground to be above the water, above the water that was deep below the surface of the earth.

 in order to stand and worship in Yahweh's holy temple?

<sup>4</sup> Only those whose actions [MTY] and thoughts are pure, who have not worshiped idols, and who do not tell lies when they have solemnly promised to tell the truth.

<sup>5</sup> ◀They will be blessed by Yahweh/Yahweh will bless them▶.
 When God judges them, he, who has saved them, will say that they ▶have done nothing wrong/are without fault▶.

<sup>6</sup> They are the ones who approach God, they are the ones who may worship God, the one we Israelis worship.
 (Think about that!)

<sup>7</sup> Open up [APO] the temple gates in order that our glorious king may enter!

<sup>8</sup> Do you know who the glorious king is?
 He is Yahweh, the one who is very strong [DOU];
 He is Yahweh, who conquers all his enemies in battles!

- <sup>9</sup> Open up the temple gates
in order that our glorious king may enter!
<sup>10</sup> Do you know who the glorious king is?
He is Yahweh almighty;
he is our glorious king!

(Think about that!)

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, my God,, I give myself to you.
<sup>2</sup> I trust in you.
Do not allow my enemies to defeat me,
with the result that I would be ashamed/disgraced.
Do not allow my enemies to defeat/conquer me, with the result that they would rejoice.
<sup>3</sup> Do not allow any of those who trust in you to be disappointed/disgraced.
Cause those who ◀act treacherously toward/try to deceive▶ others to be disappointed/disgraced.
<sup>4</sup> Yahweh, show me the way that I should ◀conduct my life/live as you want me to▶, teach me how to act in the manner that you want me to act/behave.
<sup>5</sup> Teach me to conduct my life by obeying your truth because you are my God, the one who saves me.
All the time I trust in you.
<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, do not forget how you have acted mercifully to me and have faithfully loved me;
that is the way that you have acted toward me from long ago.
<sup>7</sup> Forgive me for all the sinful things I did and the ways that I rebelled against you when I was young;
I ask this because you faithfully love your people and do good things for them,
Yahweh, do not forget me!
<sup>8</sup> Yahweh is good and fair/just; therefore he shows sinners ◀how they should conduct their lives/how to live as you want them to▶.
<sup>9</sup> He shows humble people what is right for them to do and teaches them what he wants them to do.
<sup>10</sup> He always faithfully loves and does what he has promised to those who keep his agreement with them and who do what he requires.
<sup>11</sup> Yahweh, forgive me for all my sins, which are many,
in order that I may honor you [MTY].
<sup>12</sup> To all those who revere you [RHQ], you show them the ◀right way to conduct their lives/things that they should do▶.
<sup>13</sup> They will always be prosperous, and their descendants will continue to live in this land.
<sup>14</sup> Yahweh is a friend of those who have an awesome respect for him, and he teaches them the agreement that he made with them.
<sup>15</sup> I always ask [MTY] Yahweh to help me, and he rescues me from danger [MET].

- 16 Yahweh, pay attention to me and be merciful to me, because I am alone, and I am very distressed because I am suffering/oppresed.
- 17 Help me to not worry, and rescue me from my troubles.
- 18 Note that I am distressed and troubled [DOU],
and forgive me for all my sins.
- 19 Also note that I have many enemies, see that they hate me very much.
- 20 Protect me, and rescue me from them;
do not allow them to defeat me,
with the result that I would be ashamed/disgraced;
I have come to you to ◀get refuge/be safe▶.
- 21 Protect me because I do what is good and honest/just [PRS], and because I trust in you.
- 22 God, rescue us Israeli people from all of our troubles!

26

A psalm written by David

- 1 Yahweh, show that I ◀am innocent/have not done what is wrong▶.
I always do what is right;
I have trusted in you and never doubted that you would help me.
- 2 Yahweh, examine what I have done and test me;
thoroughly evaluate what I think [IDM].
- 3 I never forget that you faithfully love me,
I conduct my life according to your truth.
- 4 I do not spend my time with liars and I stay away from hypocrites.
- 5 I do not like to be with evil people, and I avoid wicked people.
- 6 Yahweh, I wash my hands to show that I ◀am innocent/have not done what was wrong▶.
As I join with others marching around your altar, 7 we sing songs to thank you, and we tell others the wonderful things that you have done.
- 8 Yahweh, I love to be in the temple where you live, in the place where your glory appears.
- 9 Do not get rid of me like you get rid of sinners;
do not cause me to die like you cause those who murder [MTY] people to die, 10 and people who [SYN] are ready to do wicked things and people who are always taking bribes.
- 11 But as for me, I always try to do what is right.
So be kind to me and rescue me.
- 12 I stand in places where I am safe, and when all your people gather together, I praise you.

27

A psalm written by David

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh is the one who gives light to my soul/spirit and the one who saves me, so I do not [RHQ] need to be afraid of anyone.

Yahweh is the one to whom I go for refuge,
so I will never be afraid.

<sup>2</sup> When those who do evil come near me to attack me, they stumble and fall down.

<sup>3</sup> Even if an army surrounds me,
I [SYN] will not be afraid.

Even if they attack me,
I will trust in God.

this is the one thing that I desire:

That I may worship in Yahweh's house/temple every day of my life, and see that Yahweh is wonderful and inquire what he wants me to do.

<sup>5</sup> He will protect me when I have troubles;
he will keep me safe in his Sacred Tent.

He will set me safely ◀on a high rock/in a secure place▶.

<sup>6</sup> Then I will triumph over [IDM] my enemies.

I will shout joyfully as I offer sacrifices in his Sacred Tent, and I will praise Yahweh as I sing.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, listen to me while I pray.

Be kind to me and answer my prayer.

<sup>8</sup> I sensed that I heard you say, "Come and worship me [IDM]," so, Yahweh, I will worship you.

<sup>9</sup> I am your servant;

Do not be angry with me and turn away from me.

You have always helped me.

You are the one who has saved me, so do not abandon me now.

<sup>10</sup> Even if my father and mother desert me, you will take care of [IDM] me.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh, teach me to do what you want me to do, and lead me on a safe path
because I have many enemies.

<sup>12</sup> Do not allow my enemies to do to me what they want;
they say many false things about me and threaten to do violent things to me.

<sup>13</sup> But I know that because I trust in you you will be good to me as long as I live.

<sup>14</sup> So trust in Yahweh, all of you!

Be strong and courageous,
and wait expectantly for him to help you!

28

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I call out to you;

you are like an overhanging rock under which I can hide.

Do not refuse to answer me, because if you are silent, I will soon be with those who are in their graves.

<sup>2</sup> Listen to me when I call out for you to help me, when I pray, lifting up my hands as I face your sacred temple.

<sup>3</sup> Do not drag me away with wicked people, with those who do wicked deeds, with those who pretend to act peacefully toward others while in their inner beings, they hate them.

<sup>4</sup> Punish those people in the way that they deserve for what they have done; punish them for their evil deeds [DOU].

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh, they do not pay attention to the wonderful things that you have done and that you have created;
so get rid of them permanently and do not let them appear again!

<sup>6</sup> Praise Yahweh
because he has heard me when I called out for him to help me!

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh makes me strong and protects me like a shield [MET];
I trusted in him, and he helped me.

I was glad,
and from my inner being I praised him as I sang to him.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh causes us to be strong and protects us;
and he saves me, the one he appointed [MTY] to be king.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, save/rescue your people;
bless those who belong to you.

Take care of them like a shepherd takes care of his sheep [MET];
take care of them forever.

29

A psalm written by David

<sup>1</sup> You angels in heaven, praise Yahweh!
Praise him because he is very glorious and powerful.

<sup>2</sup> Proclaim that ◀he/his name▶ is glorious;
bow down before Yahweh in his holy temple.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh's voice is heard above the oceans;
Yahweh, the glorious God, thunders.
His voice thunders over the huge oceans [DOU].

the cedars that grow in Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> He causes the mountains in Lebanon to jump like calves jump, and causes Hermon Mountain to jump like a young bull jumps.

he shakes Kadesh Desert in the southern part of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh's voice shakes the huge oak trees and strips the leaves from the trees

while the people in the temple shout, "Praise God!"

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh ruled over the flood that covered the earth;
he is our King who will rule forever.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh enables his people to be strong,
and he blesses them by causing things to go well for them.

30

A psalm written by David for the dedication of the temple

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I praise you because you rescued me.

You did not allow me to die,
with the result that my enemies could gloat/rejoice.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh, my God, I called out for you to help me when I was ill, and you healed me.

<sup>3</sup> You saved/restored me when I was dying [MTY].
I was nearly dead,
but you caused me to get well again.

<sup>4</sup> All you who belong to Yahweh, sing praise to him!
Think about what God, the holy one, has done, and thank him!

<sup>5</sup> When he becomes angry, he is angry for only a very short time [HYP], but he is good to us all of our life.

We may cry during the night,
but the next morning we will be joyful.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, when I had no troubles, I said to myself,
"No one will defeat me!"

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, because you were good to me, at first you caused me to be safe as though I was inside [MET] a mountain.
But then I became ill, and I thought that you had turned away from me, and I became afraid.

<sup>8</sup> Then I called out to you, and I pleaded for you to help me.

<sup>9</sup> I said, "Yahweh, ◀what will you gain if I die?/ you won't gain anything if I die▶ [MTY].

◀In what way will it benefit you?/it won't benefit you at all▶ if I go to the place where the dead people are [RHQ].

Dead people are certainly not able to praise you [RHQ], and they are not able to tell others that you are trustworthy [RHQ]!

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh, listen to me, and be merciful to me!
Yahweh, help me!"

<sup>11</sup> But now you have healed me, and you have caused me to change from being sad to dancing joyfully.

You have taken away the clothes that showed that I was very sad and you have given me clothes that showed that I was very joyful.

<sup>12</sup> So I will not be silent;
I will sing out loudly to praise you.

Yahweh, you are my God,
and I will thank you forever.

31

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I have come to you to be protected;
do not allow me to be defeated, with the result that I am disgraced.
Since you always do what is fair/right, rescue me!
- <sup>2</sup> Listen to me, and save me right now!
Be like a huge rock under which I can hide [MET] and like a strong fort in which I will be safe.
- <sup>3</sup> Yes, you are like my huge rock and my fort;
guide me and lead me [DOU] in order that I can honor you [MTY].
- <sup>4</sup> You are the one who protects me, so keep me from falling into the hidden traps that my enemies have set for me.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, you are a God who can be trusted, so I put myself into your care because you rescued me.
- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh, I hate those who worship useless idols, but I trust in you.
- <sup>7</sup> I will be very glad [DOU] because you faithfully love me.
You see me when I have been afflicted, and you have known when I have had troubles.
- <sup>8</sup> You have not allowed my enemies to capture me;
instead, you have rescued me from danger.
- <sup>9</sup> But now, Yahweh, be kind to me again
because I am distressed.
Because I cry so much, I cannot see well, and I am completely exhausted.
- <sup>10</sup> I have become very weak because I am so miserable, and it is causing my life to become shorter.
I have become weak because of all my troubles;
even my bones are becoming weaker.
- <sup>11</sup> All of my enemies make fun of me,
and even my neighbors despise me.
Even my friends are afraid of me because they think I am being punished by God, and when they see me on the streets, they run away.
- <sup>12</sup> People have forgotten me like they forget people who are dead.
They think I am as useless as a broken pot.
- <sup>13</sup> I have heard people slandering me,
and they have caused me to become terrified.
My enemies are making plans in order to kill me.
- <sup>14</sup> But Yahweh, I trust in you.
You are my God.
- <sup>15</sup> My whole life [MTY] is in your hands;
save me from my enemies,
from those who pursue me.
- <sup>16</sup> Be kind to me and rescue me because you always faithfully love me.

- 17 Yahweh, I call out to you,
so do not allow me to be disgraced.
I desire that wicked people will be disgraced;
I want them to soon die and go down to the place where the dead people are.
- 18 I desire that you will cause people [MTY] who tell lies to be unable to speak.
Do that to people who are proud and those who arrogantly accuse righteous people.
- 19 You have stored up many blessings for those who revere you.
You do those good things for those who go to you to be protected;
everyone sees you doing that.
- 20 You hide people in your presence where it is safe, and protect them from people who plot to kill them.
You hide them in safe places from their enemies [MTY] who accuse/insult them.
- 21 Praise Yahweh!
When my enemies surrounded the city in which I was living, he showed me in a wonderful way that he faithfully loves me.
- 22 I was afraid, and I cried out, "I have been separated from Yahweh!"
but you heard me and answered my cry for help.
- 23 You people who belong to Yahweh, love him!
Those who are loyal to him, he protects, but those who are very proud, he punishes them severely like they deserve to be punished.
- 24 You who confidently expect Yahweh to do great things for you, be strong, be courageous!

32

A psalm written by David, a psalm which will help people to be wise

- 1 Those whom God has forgiven for rebelling against him, whose stains [MET] of sin have been wiped away,
are truly blessed by God!
- 2 Those whose record of their sins Yahweh has erased, those who no longer do deceitful things,
are truly blessed by God!
- 3 When I did not confess my sins, ◀my body/I► was very weak and sick, and I groaned ◀all day long/continually►.
- 4 Day and night, Yahweh, you [SYN] punished me severely.
My strength drained away like water that ◀evaporates/dries up► on a hot summer day.
(Think about that!)
- 5 Then/Finally I admitted/confessed my sins to you;
I stopped trying to hide them.
(Think about that!)
- I said to myself,
"I will confess to Yahweh the wrong things that I have done."
And when I confessed them, you forgave me, so now I ◀am no longer guilty/will no longer be punished▶ for my sins.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, the people who are godly should pray to you when they ◀realize that they have sinned/have difficulties▶.
 If they pray to you, difficulties [MET] will not overwhelm them like a great flood.

<sup>7</sup> You are like a place where I can hide from my enemies [MET], you protect me from troubles, and you ◀enable me/put people around me who will enable me▶ to shout, praising you for saving me from my enemies.

(Think about that!)

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh says, "I will teach you about how you should conduct your life.
 I will instruct you and watch over you.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be stupid like horses and mules that do not have understanding; they need ◀bits/pieces of metal put in their mouths▶ and ◀bridles/ropes fastened to their head▶
 so they will go in the direction you want them to go."

<sup>10</sup> Wicked people will have many troubles that will make them sad, but those who trust in Yahweh will experience him faithfully loving them all the time.

<sup>11</sup> So, all you righteous people, rejoice about what Yahweh has done for you;
 you whose ◀inner beings/lives▶ are pure, be glad and shout joyfully!

33

<sup>1</sup> You righteous people should sing joyfully to Yahweh because that is what he deserves.

 Praise him as you play other instruments that have many strings.

<sup>3</sup> Sing a new song to him;
 Play those instruments well, and shout joyfully as you play them!

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh always does what he says that he will do;
 we can trust that everything that he does is right.

<sup>5</sup> He loves everything that we do that is just and right.
 People all over the earth can know that Yahweh faithfully loves us.

 By what he said [MTY] he created all the stars.

<sup>7</sup> He gathered all the water into one huge mass like someone scoops liquid into a container.

<sup>8</sup> Everyone on the earth should revere Yahweh [DOU].

 Everything started to exist as a result of him commanding it.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh frustrates the things that the pagan nations decide to do.
 He prevents them from doing the evil things that they plan to do.

<sup>11</sup> But what Yahweh decides to do will last forever.
 What he plans to do will never be changed.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh blesses those nations who choose him to be their God;
 He is pleased with those whom he has chosen to receive what he has promised.

- 13 Yahweh looks down from heaven and sees all us people;
 14 from where he rules [MTY], he looks down on all the people who live on the earth.
- 15 He formed our inner beings, and he sees everything that we do.
- 16 It is not because a king has a great army that he is able to win battles, and it is not because a soldier is very strong that he is able to defeat his enemy.
- 17 It is foolish to trust that because horses are very strong that they will be able to win a battle and save their riders.
- 18 Do not forget that Yahweh watches over those who revere him, those who confidently expect him to faithfully love them.
- 19 He saves them [SYN] from dying before they should die and preserves them when there is a famine.
- 20 We trust that Yahweh will help us;
 he protects us like a shield protects a soldier [MET].
- 21 We rejoice because of what he has done for us;
 we trust in him because he [MTY] is holy.
- 22 Yahweh, we pray that you will always faithfully love us while we confidently expect you to do great things for us.

34

A psalm written by David when he pretended to be insane in front of King Abimelech, so that the king would send him away

- 1 I will always thank Yahweh;
 I will constantly praise him [MTY].
- 2 I will boast about what Yahweh has done.
 All those who are oppressed/discouraged should hear me and rejoice.
- 3 Join with me in telling others that Yahweh is great!
 You and I should together proclaim how glorious he is!
- 4 I prayed to Yahweh, and he ◀answered my prayer/did what I asked him to do▶;
 he rescued me from all those who caused me to be afraid.
- 5 Those who trust [IDM] that he will help them will be joyful;
 ◀they will never be disappointed/he will always do for them the things that he promises▶ [LIT].
- 6 I was miserable/helpless, but I called out to Yahweh, and he heard me.
 He rescued me from all my troubles.
- 7 An angel from Yahweh guards those who revere him, and the angel rescues them.
- 8 Find out for yourself, and you will experience that Yahweh is good to you!
 He is very pleased with those who ask him to protect them.
- 9 All you who belong to him, revere him!
 Those who do that will always have the things that they need [LIT].
- 10 Lions are usually very strong, but sometimes even young lions are hungry and become weak, but those who trust in Yahweh will ◀have everything/not lack any good thing▶ [LIT] that they need.
- 11 You ◀who are my students/whom I teach▶, come and listen to me,

- and I will teach you how to revere Yahweh.
- 12 If [RHQ] any of you wants to enjoy life and have a good long life,
- 13 do not say anything that is evil!
Do not tell lies!
- 14 Turn away from doing evil, and do what is good!
Always try hard to enable people to live peacefully with each other.
- 15 Yahweh [MTY] carefully watches over those who act righteously;
he always responds [MTY] to them when they call to him for help.
- 16 But Yahweh [SYN] ◀is opposed to/turns away from▶ those who do what is evil.
And after they die, people will forget them completely.
- 17 Yahweh hears righteous people when they call out to him;
he rescues them from all their troubles.
- 18 Yahweh is always ready to help those who are discouraged;
he rescues those who have nothing good to hope for.
- 19 Righteous people may have many troubles,
but Yahweh rescues them from all those troubles.
- 20 Yahweh protects them from being harmed;
when their enemies attack them, they will not break any bones of those righteous people.
- 21 Wicked people will be killed by their own evil deeds (OR, by people doing to them the same evil things that the wicked do to others) [PRS], and Yahweh will punish those who oppose righteous people.
- 22 Yahweh will save those who serve him.
He will ◀not condemn/forgive▶ [LIT] those who trust in him.

A psalm written by David

- 1 Yahweh, fight against those who fight against me!
Fight against my enemies when they fight me!
- 2 Be like a shield [DOU] to protect me and come to help me!
- 3 Lift up your spear [DOU] and throw it at those who pursue me!
Promise me that you will enable me to defeat my enemies.
- 4 Cause those who are trying to kill me to be defeated and disgraced!
Cause those who are planning to do evil things to me to be pushed back and become confused!
- 5 Send your angel to pursue them, and as a result cause them to disappear like chaff/straw blown away by the wind!
- 6 Cause the path on which they run to be dark and slippery as your angel pursues them!
- 7 Although I did not do anything wrong to them, they concealed a deep pit for me to fall into;
they hid a net in which they would catch me.
- 8 Cause them to suddenly experience disaster!
Cause them to be trapped in their own nets!

Cause them to fall into the pits that they have dug for me and disappear!

<sup>9</sup> Then I will be joyful about what you, Yahweh, have done for me,
I will be glad that you have rescued me.

<sup>10</sup> With my whole inner being [SYN] I will say, “There is no one like Yahweh [RHQ]!

No one else can rescue helpless people from powerful people [RHQ].

No one else can rescue weak and needy people from those who want to rob them.”

<sup>11</sup> People who tell lies stand in court and falsely accuse me of doing things that I do not know anything about.

<sup>12</sup> In return for my doing good things for them, they do evil things to me, with the result that I feel that I am alone.

<sup>13</sup> When they were ill, I showed that I was sad.

I did not eat any food, and I bowed my head as I prayed for them.

<sup>14</sup> I mourned and bowed my head as I prayed as though it was a friend or my mother for whom I was grieving.

<sup>15</sup> But when I had troubles, they were all happy about it.

They gathered around to make fun of me.

Strangers struck me,
and they would not stop.

<sup>16</sup> Worthless people ridicule me and snarl at me.

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh, how long will you only watch them doing this?

Rescue me from their attacking me;

Save me from being killed by these men who are attacking me like [MET] lions that are attacking other animals

<sup>18</sup> Then, when many of your people gather,

I will praise you and I will thank you in front of all of them.

<sup>19</sup> Do not allow my enemies, who tell lies about me, defeat me and then rejoice!

Do not allow those who hate me when there is no reason to hate me to ◀smirk/smile happily▶!

<sup>20</sup> They do not talk peacefully to people;
instead, they seek ways to tell lies about people who are peaceful.

<sup>21</sup> They shout at me, to accuse me, saying, “We saw the wrong things that you did!”

<sup>22</sup> Yahweh, you have seen these things, so do not be silent!
Do not stay far from me!

<sup>23</sup> Arise, my God, and plead my case in court, and successfully defend me!

<sup>24</sup> Yahweh, my God, because you are righteous, prove that I am innocent

in order that my enemies will not be able to gloat that I was judged to be guilty.

<sup>25</sup> Do not allow them to be able to say to themselves, “Yes, we have gotten rid of him [IDM] just like we desired!”

<sup>26</sup> Cause those who rejoice about my misfortunes to be completely defeated and disgraced; cause those who boast that they are much greater than me to be disgraced and dishonored!

<sup>27</sup> But cause those who desire that I be acquitted to be happy and shout joyfully, and cause them to continually say, "Yahweh is great!
 He is delighted to cause things to go well for those who serve him."
<sup>28</sup> Then I will proclaim that you act righteously, and I will praise you all day long.

36

A psalm written for the choir director by David, a man who served God faithfully

<sup>1</sup> Wicked people continually desire to sin.
 They consider [IDM] that they do not need to revere God.
<sup>2</sup> Because they are very proud, they do not think that God will discover their sins and condemn them (OR, they do not think about their sins and hate themselves for it).
<sup>3</sup> Everything that they say is deceitful and full of lies; they no longer do what is good and are no longer wise.
<sup>4</sup> While they are lying on their beds, they plan to do things to harm others;
 they are determined to do things that are not good,
 and they never refuse to do what is evil.
<sup>5</sup> Yahweh, your faithful love for us reaches as high as the heavens, you faithfully do what you have promised;
it is as though your doing that extends up to the clouds.
<sup>6</sup> Your righteous behavior is as permanent as the highest mountains [MET], your acting justly will continue as long as the deepest oceans exist.
 You take care of people and you take care of animals.
<sup>7</sup> God, your faithful love for us is very precious.
 You protect us like birds protect their baby birds under their wings [MET].
<sup>8</sup> You provide for us plenty of food from the abundant supply [IDM] that you have;
 your great blessings for us flow like a river.
<sup>9</sup> You are the one who causes everything to live;
 your light is what enables us to see.
<sup>10</sup> Continue to faithfully love those who have experienced a relationship with you, and bless those who act righteously/justly.
<sup>11</sup> Do not allow proud people [SYN] to attack me, or allow wicked people to chase me away.
<sup>12</sup> Look where evil people have fallen on the ground, defeated; they were thrown down, and they will never rise again.

37

<sup>1</sup> Do not be bothered/upset by what wicked people do.
 Do not desire to have the things that people who do wrong/evil have, <sup>2</sup> because they will soon disappear, like grass withers in the hot sun and dries up.
 Just like some green plants come up but die during the hot summer, evil people will soon die also.

- <sup>3</sup> Trust in Yahweh, and do what is good;
if you do that, you will live safely in the land that he has given you, and you will live peacefully [MET].
- <sup>4</sup> Be delighted with all that Yahweh does for you; if you do that, he will give you the things that you desire most.
- <sup>5</sup> Commit to Yahweh all the things that you plan to do;
trust in him,
and he will do whatever is needed to help you.
- <sup>6</sup> He will show as clearly as the sunlight that you ◀are innocent/have done nothing that is wrong▶;
he will show as clearly as the sun at noontime [SIM] that all the things that you have decided are just.
- <sup>7</sup> Be quiet in Yahweh's presence, and wait patiently for him to do what you want him to do.
Do not be bothered/upset when what evil men do is successful, when they are able to do the wicked things that they plan.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not be angry about what wicked people do.
Do not want to punish them yourself.
Do not be envious of such people because you will only harm yourself if you try to envy them.
- <sup>9</sup> Some day Yahweh will get rid of wicked people, but those who trust in Yahweh will live safely in the land that he has given to them.
- <sup>10</sup> Soon the wicked will disappear.
If you look for them, they will be gone.
- <sup>11</sup> But those who are humble will live safely in their land.
They will happily enjoy living peacefully and having the other good things that Yahweh gives them.
- <sup>12</sup> Wicked people plan to harm righteous/godly people;
they snarl at them [MET] like wild animals.
- <sup>13</sup> But Yahweh laughs at them because he knows that some day [MTY] he will judge and punish the wicked people.
- <sup>14</sup> Wicked people pull out their swords/daggers and they put strings on their bows, ready to kill people who are poor [DOU]
and to slaughter those who live righteously.
- <sup>15</sup> But they will be killed by their own swords/daggers, and their bows will be broken.
- <sup>16</sup> It is good to be righteous/godly even if you do not have many possessions, but it is bad to be wicked, even if you are very wealthy,
- <sup>17</sup> because Yahweh will completely take away the strength of wicked people, but he will ◀sustain/take care of▶ people who live righteously.

- 18 Every day Yahweh cares about those who have not done any evil things;
the things that Yahweh gives them will last forever.
- 19 They will survive when calamities occur;
when there are famines, they will still have plenty to eat.
- 20 But wicked people will die;
just like the beautiful wild flowers in the fields die under the hot sun and disappear like smoke [MET],
Yahweh will cause his enemies to suddenly disappear.
- 21 The wicked people borrow money, but they are not able to repay it; righteous/godly people, in contrast, have enough money that they can give generously to others.
- 22 Those whom Yahweh has blessed will live safely in the land that he has given to
them,
but he will get rid of those people whom he has cursed.
- 23 Yahweh protects those who do what is pleasing to him, and he will enable them to walk confidently, wherever they go;
- 24 even if they stumble, they will not fall down, because Yahweh holds them by his hand.
- 25 I was young previously, and now I am an old man, but in all those years, I have never seen righteous/godly people being abandoned by Yahweh,
nor have I seen that their children needed to beg for food.
- 26 Righteous/Godly people are generous, and happily lend money to others, and their children are a blessing to them.
- 27 Turn away from doing evil, and do what is good.
If you do that, you and your descendants will live in your land forever.
- 28 That will happen because Yahweh likes to see people doing what is just,
and he will never forsake righteous/godly people.
- He will protect them forever;
but he will get rid of the children of wicked people.
- 29 Righteous/Godly people will own the land that Yahweh promised to give to them, and they will live there forever.
- 30 Righteous people give wise advice to others, and they [MTY] say what is just/fair.
- 31 They continually think about God's laws;
they do not stray from God's path.
- 32 Those who are evil wait in ambush for righteous people in order to kill them as they walk by.
- 33 But Yahweh will not abandon righteous people, and allow ◀them to fall into their enemies' hands/their enemies harm them▶.
And he will not allow righteous people to be condemned when someone takes them to a judge to be put on trial.

- 34 Be patient and trust that Yahweh will help you, and ◀walk on his paths/do what he wants you to do▶.
If you do that, he will honor you by giving you the land that he promised, and when he gets rid of the wicked, you will see it happen.
- 35 I have seen that wicked people who ◀act like tyrants/terrify people▶ sometimes prosper; like trees that grow well in fertile soil, 36 when I looked later, they were gone!
I searched for them, but Yahweh had caused them to disappear.
- 37 Notice the people who have not done evil things, those who act righteously:
their descendants will have peace in their inner beings.
- 38 But Yahweh will get rid of the wicked; he will also get rid of their descendants (OR, as a result, they will not have any descendants).
- 39 Yahweh rescues righteous people;
in times of trouble he protects them [MET].
- 40 Yahweh helps them and saves them;
he rescues them from being attacked/harmed by wicked people because they go to him to be protected [MET].

38

A psalm written by David, asking God not to forget him

- 1 Yahweh, when you are angry with me, do not rebuke/scold me and punish me!
- 2 Now it is as though you have shot your arrows at me and wounded me;
you have struck me and knocked me down.
- 3 Because you have been angry with me,
I am suffering great pain.
Because of my sin,
my whole body is diseased.
- 4 All my sins are like a flood that covers my head;
they are like a load that is very heavy, with the result that I cannot carry it.
- 5 Because I have done foolish things,
I have sores that have become worse, and they stink.
- 6 Sometimes I am bent over, and sometimes I lie prostrate;
I am sad/cry all day.
- 7 My body is burning with fever, and I am very ill.
- 8 I am completely exhausted, and I have no strength.
I am very distressed, and I groan with pain.
- 9 Yahweh, you know that I desire to be healed;
you hear me while I am groaning.
- 10 My heat is pounding heavily, and all my strength is gone.
I am no longer able to see well.
- 11 My friends and neighbors stay away from me because of my sores;
even my own family stays away from me.
- 12 And those who want to kill me set traps to catch me;

those who want to harm me discuss ways to get rid of me;
they plot against me all day.

- <sup>13</sup> Now I act like I'm deaf, and do not listen to what they say.
I act like I cannot talk, so I say nothing to reply to them.
- <sup>14</sup> I act like a man who does not answer when people talk to him, because he cannot hear anything.
- <sup>15</sup> But Yahweh, I trust in you.
My Lord God, you will answer me.
- <sup>16</sup> I said to you, "Do not cause me to die, with the result that my enemies will rejoice!
Do not cause me to stumble, with the result that they will be very happy!"
- <sup>17</sup> I say that because I am about to fall down, and I constantly have pain.
- <sup>18</sup> I confess the wrong things that I have done;
I am very sorry for the sins that I have committed.
- <sup>19</sup> My enemies are healthy and strong;
there are many people who hate me for no reason.
- <sup>20</sup> Those who do evil things to me in return for my doing good things to them oppose me because I try to do what is right.
- <sup>21</sup> Yahweh, do not abandon me!
My God, do not stay far from me!
- <sup>22</sup> Lord, you are the one who saves/rescues me;
Quickly come and help me!

39

A psalm written by David for Jeduthun, the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> I said to myself, "I will be careful not to sin by the things that I say [MTY].
I will not say anything to complain while wicked people are near to me and can hear me."
- <sup>2</sup> So I was completely silent [DOU], and I did not even talk about things that were good,
but it was useless, because I began to suffer even more.
- <sup>3</sup> I became very anxious/worried [IDM].
As I thought about my troubles, I became more worried.
Then finally I said [MTY],
- <sup>4</sup> "Yahweh, show/tell me how long I will live.
Tell me when I will die.
Tell me how many years I will live!
- <sup>5</sup> It seems that you have caused me to live only a short time;
◀my lifetime/all the time that I have lived▶ seems like nothing to you.
The time that all we humans live is as short as [MET] a puff of wind.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>6</sup> Then we disappear like a shadow does.
It seems that all that we do is for nothing/useless.
We sometimes get a lot of money, but we do not know who will get it after we die.
- <sup>7</sup> So now, Yahweh, if I expect [RHQ] to receive blessings from other people, I will be disappointed.

- You are the only one from whom I confidently expect to receive blessings.
- <sup>8</sup> Save me from being punished for all the sins that I have committed.
And do not allow foolish people to make fun of me.
- <sup>9</sup> I did not say anything when you punished me, because I knew that you were the one who caused me to suffer.
- <sup>10</sup> But now, please stop punishing me!
If you do not do that, I am about to die because of the ways that you [SYN] have struck/afflicted me.
- <sup>11</sup> When you rebuke someone and punish him for the sin that he has committed, you destroy the things that ◀he loves/are precious to him▶, like moths' larva destroy clothing.
Our lives disappear like a puff of wind.
- (Think about that!)

- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, listen to me while I pray;
pay attention to me while I cry out to you.
Help me while I am crying.
I am here on the earth for only a short time,
like all my ancestors.
- <sup>13</sup> Now please leave me alone, and do not punish me any more in order that I may smile and be happy for a while before I die. [EUP, DOU]"

40

- <sup>1</sup> I waited patiently for Yahweh to help me, and he listened to me [DOU] when I called out to him.
- <sup>2</sup> When I had many troubles, it was as though I was in a deep pit.
But he lifted me up out of the mud and slime of that pit;
he set my feet on a solid rock, and enabled me to walk ◀safely/without falling▶.
- <sup>3</sup> He has given me a new song to sing,
a song to praise him who is our God.
Many people will find out what he has done for me,
and they will revere and trust him.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is pleased with those who trust him, those who do not trust in idols or join with those who worship those false gods.
- <sup>5</sup> O Yahweh, my God, you have done many wonderful things!
No one can list all the wonderful things that you have planned for us.
If I tried to tell others about all those wonderful things,
I would not be able to,
because there would be too many for me to mention.
- <sup>6</sup> Various kinds of sacrifices and other offerings are not the only things that delight
you.
You have enabled me to understand that very well [IDM].
Animals burned on the altar and other offerings are not all that you require for sins to be forgiven.
- <sup>7</sup> So I said to you, "Yahweh, here I am,
to do the things that have been written in the scroll that contains your laws, things that you want me to do.”

<sup>8</sup> O my God, I delight to do what you desire;
I keep your laws within my inner being.

<sup>9</sup> Whenever all your people are gathered,
I have told them about how you save us.

Yahweh, you know that I have not been afraid to tell that to them.

<sup>10</sup> And I have not kept to myself the news that you always act justly/fairly;
when many of your people have gathered together to worship you in the temple,
I have told them that you are faithful to us and save us.

I have ◀not concealed/openly told people▶ that you faithfully love us and act loyally toward us.

Because you faithfully love me [PRS] and are loyal to me, always protect me.

<sup>12</sup> I have many troubles; so many that I cannot count them.

My sins are like a flood that has covered me [PRS, MET];
they are so many that I cannot find my way.

The sins that I have committed are more than the hairs on my head.

I am very discouraged.

<sup>13</sup> O Yahweh, please save me!

Come quickly to help me!

<sup>14</sup> Humble those who are happy about my troubles, and cause them to be disgraced and ashamed.

Chase away those who are trying to get rid of me.

<sup>15</sup> I hope/desire that those who make fun of me will be dismayed when you defeat them.

<sup>16</sup> But I hope that all those who go to worship you will be very joyful [DOU].

I want those who love you because you saved them to shout repeatedly, “Yahweh is great!”

<sup>17</sup> As for me, I am poor and needy [DOU];

but I know that Yahweh has not forgotten me.

O my God, you are the one who saves and helps me, so please come quickly and help me!

41

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh is pleased with those people who help to provide for the poor;
he will rescue those people when they have troubles.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh protects them and allows them to live for a long time.

He enables them to be happy in the land of Israel, and rescues them from their enemies.

<sup>3</sup> When they are sick, Yahweh strengthens them, and he heals them.

<sup>4</sup> When I was sick, I said, “Yahweh, be merciful to me and heal me;
I know that I am sick because I have sinned against you.”

they say, "How soon will he die, and then everyone will forget about him [MTY]? (OR, he will not have any descendants to continue his name)."

- <sup>6</sup> When my enemies come to me, they falsely say that they are concerned about me. They listen to bad news about ◀me/my health▶. Then they go away and tell everywhere what is happening to me.
- <sup>7</sup> All those who hate me whisper to others about me, and they hope/desire that very bad things will happen to me.
- <sup>8</sup> They say, "He will soon die because of his being sick; he will never get up from his bed before he dies."
- <sup>9</sup> Even my best friend, whom I trusted very much, who often ate with me, has ◀betrayed me/put me into my enemies' hands▶ [IDM].
- <sup>10</sup> But Yahweh, be merciful to me, and enable me to become healthy again. When you do that, I will be able to ◀pay back my enemies/get revenge on my enemies/cause my enemies to suffer like they caused me to suffer▶.
- <sup>11</sup> If you enable me to do that, with the result that my enemies do not defeat me, I will know that you are pleased with me.
- <sup>12</sup> I will know that it is because I have done what is right that you have helped me, and I will know that you will let me be with you forever.
- <sup>13</sup> Praise Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship;
Praise him forever!
Amen! I desire that it will be so!

Book Two

42

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> Deer pant, desiring to drink water from a stream when there is a drought (OR, when they are being pursued by hunters.)
In the same way [SIM], God, I need you very much.
- <sup>2</sup> I desire to have fellowship with [MET] you, the all-powerful God.
I wonder, "When will I be able to go back to the temple in Israel and worship in your presence again?"
- <sup>3</sup> Every day and every night I cry;
it is as though the only thing I have to drink is my tears;
and while I do that, my enemies are continually asking me,
"Why does your god not help you?"
- <sup>4</sup> I am very distressed [IDM] as I remember when I went with the crowd of people to the temple in Jerusalem, leading them as we walked along;
we were all shouting joyfully and singing to thank God for what he had done;
we were a large group who were celebrating.
- <sup>5</sup> So I say to myself, "◀Why am I sad and discouraged?/I should not be sad and discouraged!▶ [RHQ]
I confidently expect God to help me, and again I will praise him,
my God, the one who saves me."

- <sup>6</sup> But now, Yahweh, I am very discouraged [IDM], so I think about you, even from where the Jordan River gushes out from the bottom of Hermon Mountain and from Mizar Mountain.
- <sup>7</sup> But here, the great sorrow that I feel is like water that you send down [MET];
it is like a waterfall that tumbles down and floods over me.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh shows me each day that he faithfully loves me, and each night I sing to him and pray to him, the God who causes me to live.
- <sup>9</sup> I say to God, who is like an overhanging rock under which I can hide [MET],
 "It seems that you have forgotten me.
 I <mourn/cry> constantly because my enemies act cruelly toward me" [RHQ].
- <sup>10</sup> They make fun of me constantly;
 they continually ask, "Why does your god not help you?" [RHQ]
 And when they insult me like that, it is like wounds that I feel even in my bones.
- <sup>11</sup> But I think,
 "◀Why am I sad and discouraged?/I should not be sad and discouraged!▶ [RHQ]
 I will confidently expect God to help me, and I will praise him again,
 my God, the one who saves me."

43

(A continuation of psalm 42)

- <sup>1</sup> God, declare that I ◀am innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶.
 Defend me when ◀ungodly people/people who do not worship you▶ say things against me,
 rescue me from people who deceive and say things about me that are not true.
- <sup>2</sup> You are God, the one who protects me;
 ◀why have you abandoned me?/it seems that you have abandoned me!▶ [RHQ]
 It does not seem right that [RHQ] I am forced to mourn/cry constantly because my enemies are cruel to me.
- <sup>3</sup> Shine your light on me and speak your truth to me;
 and let them guide me,
 and take me back to Zion, your sacred hill at Jerusalem, and to your temple, where you live.
- <sup>4</sup> When you do that, I will go to your altar, to worship you, my God, who causes me to be extremely joyful.
 There I will praise you, the God whom I worship, while I play my harp.
- <sup>5</sup> So ◀why am I sad and discouraged?/I should not be sad and discouraged!▶ [RHQ]
 I confidently expect God to bless me,
 and I will praise him again,
 my God, the one who saves me.

44

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah for the choir director

- 1 God, we ourselves have heard what our parents and grandparents told us.
They told us about the miracles that you performed long ago.
- 2 They told us how you expelled the ungodly people and enabled us to live in their land.
They told us that you punished those ungodly people and enabled your own people to prosper [IDM].
- 3 It was not by using their own swords that they conquered the people that lived in that land,
and it was not by their own power that they were victorious;
it was only by your power [MTY, DOU] that they did those things;
and they were sure that you were with them,
and that showed that you were pleased with them.
- 4 You are my King and my God;
it is you who enable us, your people [MTY], to defeat our enemies.
- 5 It is by your power that we knock our enemies down and tramp on them.
- 6 I do not trust that I will be saved by using my bow and arrows and my sword.
- 7 No, it is you who have rescued us from our enemies, it is you who have caused those who hate us to become ashamed because they were defeated.
- 8 We have continually boasted about what God has done for us, and we will thank him [MTY] forever.
(Think about that!)
- 9 But now you have rejected us and caused us to be disgraced;
when our armies march out to fight a battle, you no longer go with them.
- 10 You have caused us to run away from our enemies, with the result that they captured the things that belonged to us.
- 11 You have allowed us to become like [MET] sheep that were ready to be slaughtered;
you scattered us far away among other nations.
- 12 It is as though [MET] you sold us, your people, to our enemies for a very small price, and you did not gain much profit from selling us!
- 13 People who live in nations near us make fun of us;
they laugh at us and deride/belittle us.
- 14 They make jokes using the name of our country, they shake their heads to indicate that they despise us.
- 15 All day I feel disgraced;
from seeing my face, people know that I am ashamed.
- 16 I hear what those who sneer at me and revile me say;
I am ashamed in front of my enemies and those who want to harm me.
- 17 All these things have happened to us
even though we have not forgotten you, and we are not the ones who disobeyed the agreement you made with our ancestors.
- 18 We have not stopped being loyal to you, and we have not stopped doing what you want us to do [IDM].

- 19 But it is as though you have allowed us to be helpless among wild animals, and abandoned us in a deep dark ravine.
- 20 If we had forgotten to worship [MTY] our God, or if we had spread out our hands to worship a foreign god, 21 you certainly would have known that, because you know even what we secretly think.
- 22 But it is because we belong to you,
that our enemies are constantly killing us.
They act toward us as though we were only sheep to be slaughtered.
- 23 So, Yahweh, arise! Why are you asleep [RHQ]?
Get up! Do not reject us forever!
- 24 Why are you not looking at us?
Why are you forgetting that we are suffering and being oppressed by our enemies?
- 25 We are pushed down to the ground and we cannot get up.
- 26 Arise, and come and help us!
Rescue us because you faithfully love us!

A love song written by one of the descendants of Korah, for the choir director, to be sung to the tune 'Lilies'

- 1 In my inner being I am stirred by a beautiful message which will be sung to the king.
The words of this message will be written with a pen by me, a skilled writer.
- 2 O King, you are the most handsome man in the world, and you always speak [MTY] eloquently, because God has always blessed you.
- 3 You who are a mighty warrior, put on your sword!
You are glorious and majestic.
- 4 Ride on like a great chief to defend the truth that you speak and the fair decisions that you make!
Because you are strong [MTY], you will do awesome deeds.
- 5 Your arrows are sharp, and they pierce the hearts of your enemies.
Soldiers of many nations will fall dead at your feet.
- 6 The kingdom [MTY] that God will give to you will remain forever.
You rule [MTY] people justly.
- 7 You love right actions, and you hate evil actions.
Therefore God, your God, has chosen [MTY] you to be king and caused you to be happier [MET] than any other king.
- 8 The perfume of various spices is on your robes.
People ◀entertain you/make you happy▶ in ivory palaces by playing stringed instruments.

- <sup>9</sup> Among the women who stay near you [EUP] stay are daughters of other kings.
And at your right hand stands your bride, the queen, wearing beautiful ornaments of gold that comes from Ophir.
- <sup>10</sup> Now I will say something to your bride:
Listen to me carefully [DOU]!
Forget the people who live in your home country, forget your relatives!
- <sup>11</sup> Because you are very beautiful,
the king will desire to sleep with [EUP] you.
He is your master, so you must obey him.
- <sup>12</sup> The people from Tyre city will bring gifts to you;
their rich people will try to persuade you to do favors for them.
- <sup>13</sup> O king, your bride will be entering the palace wearing beautiful robes made from gold thread.
- <sup>14</sup> While she is wearing a gown that has many colors, her companions will lead her to you.
She will have many other young women who accompany her.
- <sup>15</sup> They will be very joyful [DOU] as they are led along to enter your palace.
- <sup>16</sup> Some day, your sons and your grandsons will become kings, just like your ancestors were.
You will enable them to become rulers in many countries [HYP].
- <sup>17</sup> And as for me, I will enable people in every generation to remember the great things that you [MTY] have done, and people will praise you forever.

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> God is the one who protects us and causes us to be strong;
he is always ready to help us when we have troubles.
- <sup>2</sup> So, even if the earth shakes,
we will not be afraid.
Even if the mountains fall into the middle of the sea, <sup>3</sup> and if the water in the sea roars and foams, and the hills shake violently,
we will not be afraid!
- (Think about that!)
- <sup>4</sup> Blessings that come from God are like a river that makes everyone in the city where we worship God joyful.
It is the city where the temple of God, who is greater than any other god, exists.
- <sup>5</sup> God is in this city, and it will never be destroyed;
he will come to help the people in that city at dawn every day.
- <sup>6</sup> Sometimes the people of many nations are terrified;
kingdoms ◀are overthrown/cease to exist▶;
God speaks loudly like thunder, and the earth melts (OR, people everywhere become terrified) [MET].

- <sup>7</sup> But Yahweh, the commander of the armies of heaven, is with us;
the God whom Jacob worshiped (OR, we Israeli people worship) is our refuge.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>8</sup> Come and ◀see/think about▶ the amazing things that Yahweh has done [DOU]!
- <sup>9</sup> He stops wars all over the world;
he breaks bows and arrows;
he destroys spears;
he burns up shields.
- <sup>10</sup> God says, "Be quiet, and remember that I am God!
I will be honored by the people of all nations.
I will be honored all over the earth."
- <sup>11</sup> So never forget that Yahweh, the commander of the armies of heaven, is with us;
the God whom Jacob worshiped (OR, we Israeli people worship) is our refuge.
(Think about that!)

47

A psalm written for the choir director by one of the descendants of Korah

- <sup>1</sup> You people all over the world, clap your hands for joy!
Shout joyfully to praise God!
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, who is much greater than any other god, is awesome;
he is the king who rules over all the world!
- <sup>3</sup> He enabled us to defeat the armies of the people-groups that lived in Canaan.
- <sup>4</sup> He chose for us this land where we now live;
we Israeli people [MTY], whom he loves, are proud that we own this land.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>5</sup> God has gone up into his temple.
The people shouted joyfully and blew trumpets as Yahweh went up.
- <sup>6</sup> Sing songs to praise our God!
Sing to praise him [DOU]!
Sing to God, our king!
- <sup>7</sup> God is the one who rules over everything in the world;
sing a psalm to him!
- <sup>8</sup> God sits on his sacred throne as he rules over the people of all ethnic groups.
- <sup>9</sup> The rulers of those people-groups gather as God's people, the people descended from Abraham, do.
- But God has more power than the weapons/shields of all the kings on the earth;
◀he is greatly honored/people honor him▶ everywhere.

48

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh is great, and he deserves to be greatly praised in the city where he lives, which is built on Zion, his sacred hill.
- <sup>2</sup> That city, on a high hill, is beautiful;
it is the city where the true God, the great king, lives, and it causes people all over the world to rejoice when they see it.
- <sup>3</sup> God is in the strong towers there, and he shows that he protects the people in that city.

<sup>5</sup> but when they saw it, they were amazed;
they became terrified, and ran away.

<sup>6</sup> Because they were very afraid, they trembled like a woman who is about to give birth to a child;

<sup>7</sup> they shook like ships sailing from Tarshish are shaken by a strong wind.

<sup>8</sup> We had heard that this city is glorious, and now we have seen that it is.

It is the city in which Yahweh, the almighty one, lives.

It is the city which God will preserve/protect forever.

(Think about that!)

<sup>9</sup> God, here in your temple we think about how you faithfully love us.

<sup>10</sup> You [MTY] are famous and ◀are praised/people praise you▶ all over the earth, because you rule powerfully [MTY] and justly.

The people in all the cities [MTY] in Judah should rejoice because you judge people fairly.

<sup>12</sup> You Israeli people should walk around Zion Hill and count the towers there;

<sup>13</sup> notice the walls there and examine the forts in order that you can tell about them to your children.

<sup>14</sup> Say to them, "This is the city that belongs to our God, the one who lives forever;
he will guide us all of our lives."

49

<sup>1</sup> You people of all ethnic groups, listen!

You people all over the world,

<sup>2</sup> important people and unimportant people, rich people and poor people,

everyone, listen to what I am saying,

<sup>3</sup> because what I am thinking is very sensible, and what I say will enable you to become wise!

<sup>4</sup> I think about [MTY] ◀proverbs/wise sayings▶, and while I play my harp, I explain what they mean.

<sup>5</sup> I am not [RHQ] afraid when I am in trouble/danger, when I am surrounded by my enemies,

<sup>6</sup> by evil men who trust that things will always go well for them because they are wealthy,

and who boast about being very rich.

<sup>7</sup> They may be rich, but no one can pay money with the result that he would live forever!

No one can pay God enough so that God will allow him to continue to live, <sup>8</sup> because that cost is too great,

and he will never be able to pay enough

<sup>9</sup> with the result that he will live forever and never die and be buried!

<sup>10</sup> We see that foolish and stupid people die, but we see that wise people also die;
they all leave their wealth, and others inherit it.

<sup>11</sup> Those wise people once had houses on land that they owned,
but now their graves are their homes forever,
the place where they will stay for all time!

<sup>12</sup> Even if people are great, that cannot prevent them from dying;
all people die, the same as animals do.

<sup>13</sup> That is what happens to those who foolishly trust in what they have accomplished, to those who are delighted in all that they possess.

(Think about that!)

<sup>14</sup> They are certain to die just like sheep, when a shepherd leads them away to be slaughtered. [PRS, MET] In the morning righteous people will rule over them, and then those wealthy people will die and their bodies will quickly decay in their graves;
they will be where dead people are, far from their homes.

<sup>15</sup> But it is certain that God will rescue me so that I am not kept in the place of the dead.

(Think about that!)

<sup>16</sup> So, do not be dismayed when someone becomes rich and the houses where they live become more and more luxurious,

<sup>17</sup> because when he dies, he will take nothing with him; his wealth will not go with him.

<sup>18</sup> While a rich person is alive, he congratulates himself, and people praise him for being successful,

<sup>19</sup> but he will die, joining his ancestors, who will never see daylight again.

<sup>20</sup> Even if someone is great, that cannot prevent him from dying;
he will die, the same as animals do.

A psalm written by Asaph

<sup>1</sup> God, the all-powerful one, speaks;
he summons all people,
from the east to the west.

<sup>2</sup> His glory shines from Zion Hill in Jerusalem, an extremely beautiful city.

<sup>3</sup> Our God comes to us, and he is not silent.

A great fire is in front of him,
and a storm is around him.

<sup>4</sup> He comes to judge his people.
He shouts to the angels in heaven and to the people on the earth.

- <sup>5</sup> He says, “Summon those who faithfully worship me, those who made an agreement with me by offering sacrifices to me.”
<sup>6</sup> The angels in heaven declare, “God is righteous,
and he is the supreme judge.”

(Think about that!)

- <sup>7</sup> God says, “My people, listen!
You Israeli people, listen,
as I, your God, say what you have done that is wrong.
<sup>8</sup> I am not rebuking you for making sacrifices to me, for the offerings that you completely burn on the altar.
<sup>9</sup> But I do not really need you to sacrifice
the bulls from your barns and the goats from your pens, <sup>10</sup> because all the animals in the forest belong to me, and all the cattle on 1,000 hills also belong to me.
<sup>11</sup> I own and know all the birds and all the creatures that move around in the fields.
<sup>12</sup> So, if I were hungry, I would not tell you to bring me some food, because everything in the world belongs to me!
<sup>13</sup> I do not eat the flesh of the bulls that you sacrifice, and I do not drink the blood of the goats that you offer to me.
<sup>14</sup> The sacrifice that I really want is that you thank me and do all that you have promised to do.
<sup>15</sup> And pray to me when you have troubles.
If you do that, I will rescue you, and then you will praise me.
<sup>16</sup> But I say this to the wicked people:
◀Why do you/It does not benefit you at all to▶ [RHQ] recite my commandments or talk about the agreement that I made with you, <sup>17</sup> because you have refused to allow me to discipline you, and you have rejected what I told you to do.
<sup>18</sup> Every time that you see a thief, you become his friend, and you spend much time with those who commit adultery.
<sup>19</sup> You are always talking [MTY] about doing wicked things, and you are always trying to deceive people.
<sup>20</sup> You are always accusing members of your own family of doing wrong, and slandering them.
<sup>21</sup> You did all those things, and I did not say anything to you,
so you thought that I was a sinner just like you.
But now I rebuke you and accuse you, right in front of you.
<sup>22</sup> So, all you who have ignored me, pay attention to this, because if you do not, I will tear you to pieces, and there will be no one to rescue you.
<sup>23</sup> The sacrifice that truly honors me is to thank me for what I have done; and I will save those who always do the things that I want them to.”

51

A psalm written by David for the choir director, concerning the time when the prophet Nathan rebuked David after he had committed adultery with Bathsheba

- <sup>1</sup> O God, be merciful to me, because you love me faithfully;
because you are very merciful, erase the record of the ways that I disobeyed you!
- <sup>2</sup> Make me pure from the wrong things that I have done;
make me clean from the guilt of my sin.
- <sup>3</sup> I say that because I know the ways that I have disobeyed you;
I cannot forget them.
- <sup>4</sup> You, you only, are the one that I have really sinned against,
and you have seen the evil things that I have done.
When you say that I am guilty, you are right/correct, and when you judge me, you justly say that I deserve to be punished.
- <sup>5</sup> I have been a sinner since the day that I was born;
truly, I have been like that since my mother conceived me.
- <sup>6</sup> What you desire is that I desire what is true in order that you can teach me how to act wisely.
- <sup>7</sup> Purify me from the guilt of my sins, and after that happens, I will be clean in my inner being;
cleans me, and then in my inner being I will be ◀whiter than snow/very clean▶.
- <sup>8</sup> Allow/Cause me to be joyful [DOU] again;
you have ◀crushed my spirit/completely discouraged me▶ [MTY];
but now let me rejoice again.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not continue to look at the sins [IDM] that I have committed;
erase the record of the evil things that I have done.
- <sup>10</sup> O God, cause my inner being to be pure.
Put new thoughts within me and make me faithful again.
- <sup>11</sup> Do not send me away from you because of my sin, and do not take your Holy Spirit from me.
- <sup>12</sup> Cause/Allow me to be happy again because of knowing that you have freed me from the guilt of my sin, and make me willing to obey you.
- <sup>13</sup> If you do that, I will be able to teach other sinners what you want them to do, and they will repent and begin to obey you.
- <sup>14</sup> O God, you are the one who saves me;
forgive me for being guilty of causing someone who was not my enemy to die.
When you do that, I will sing joyfully about your being very good and righteous.
- <sup>15</sup> O Yahweh, help me to speak in order that I may praise you.
- <sup>16</sup> You are not pleased only with the sacrifices that people bring to you.
If that were enough to please you, I would bring you sacrifices.
You are not pleased with burnt offerings alone.
- <sup>17</sup> The sacrifice that you really want is for people to be truly humble and sorry for having sinned;
O God, you will not refuse that kind of sacrifice.
- <sup>18</sup> O God, be good to the people who live in Jerusalem [MTY], and help them to rebuild the city walls.

- <sup>19</sup> When that happens, they will bring you the proper sacrifices, animals that they will completely burn, young bulls that they will burn on your altar, and you will be pleased.

52

A psalm written by David for the choir director, when Doeg went to Saul and said, "David has gone to talk with Ahimelech, the Supreme Priest"

- <sup>1</sup> You people think that you are strong and brag about the sins that you have committed, while you plan to harm godly people.
- <sup>2</sup> All during the day you plan to get rid of others; what you say [MTY] injures others like a sharp razor [SIM], and you are always deceiving others.
- <sup>3</sup> You like doing what is evil more than you like doing what is good, and you like telling lies more than you like telling the truth. (Think about that!)
- <sup>4</sup> You who say things [MTY] to deceive people, you like to say ◀things that hurt people/cruel things▶!
- <sup>5</sup> But God will get rid of you forever; he will grab you and drag you from your home and take you away from this world where people are alive. (Think about that!)
- <sup>6</sup> When righteous people see that, they will be awestruck, and they will laugh at what happened to you, and say,
- <sup>7</sup> "Look what happened to the man who would not ask God to protect him; he trusted that his great wealth would save him; he trusted in the money that he got by wickedly taking it from others!"
- <sup>8</sup> But I am secure/safe because I worship in God's temple; I am like a strong green olive tree. I trust in God, who faithfully loves us forever.
- <sup>9</sup> God, I will always thank you for the things that you have done. As I stand before godly people, I will proclaim that you are good (OR, the many good [MTY] things you have done for us).

53

A psalm written by David for the choir director, to be sung using a tune called 'Mahalath'

- <sup>1</sup> Only foolish people say to themselves, "There is no God!" People who say that are corrupt; they commit terrible sins; there is not one of them who does what is good/right.
- <sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven and sees humans; he looks to see if anyone is very wise, with the result that he seeks to know God.
- <sup>3</sup> But they are all morally corrupt;

no one does what is good/right.

<sup>4</sup> Will all these evil people never learn what God will do to them?
They act violently toward Yahweh's people while eating the food that he provides,
and they never pray to Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> But some day those people will become terrified, like they have never been terrified before, because God will cause those who are separated from him to die, and he will disrespect them by scattering their bones.
They have rejected God, so he will cause them to be defeated and completely disgraced.

<sup>6</sup> I wish/desire that someone from Jerusalem [MTY] would come and rescue the Israeli
people!
God, when you bless your people again,
all the Israeli people, all the descendants of Jacob, will rejoice.

54

A psalm written by David for the choir director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments; it was written when the people of Ziph went to Saul and told him that David was hiding in their area

and show people that I have not done anything that is wrong!

<sup>2</sup> God, listen to my prayer;
listen to what I say to you,

<sup>3</sup> because strangers are trying to attack me;
proud men are wanting to kill me;
men who do not have any ◀respect for/interest in▶ you.

(Think about that!)

<sup>4</sup> But God is the one who helps me;
Yahweh defends/protects me from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> He will cause the evil things that they want to do to me to happen to them instead;
because he faithfully does what he promises, he will get rid of them.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, I will gladly give an offering to you because I want to,
and I will thank you [MTY], for you are good to me;

<sup>7</sup> you have rescued me from all my troubles, and I have seen that you have defeated my enemies.

55

A psalm written by David for the choir director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments

<sup>1</sup> God, listen to my prayer,
and do not turn away from me while I am pleading with you.

<sup>2</sup> Listen to me, and answer me, because I am overwhelmed by all my troubles.

<sup>3</sup> My enemies cause me to be terrified;
wicked people oppress me.
They cause me to have great troubles;

they are angry with me, and they hate me.

<sup>4</sup> I am terrified, and I am very much afraid that I will die.

<sup>5</sup> I am very fearful and I tremble/shake, and I am completely terrified.

<sup>6</sup> I said, "I wish that I had wings like a dove!
If I had wings, I would fly away and find a place to rest.

<sup>7</sup> I would fly far away and live in the desert.

(Think about that!)

<sup>8</sup> I would quickly find a shelter from my enemies who are like [MET] a strong wind and rainstorm."

<sup>9</sup> Lord, confuse my enemies, and cause their plans to fail, because I see them acting violently and causing strife in the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> During each day and night they march around on top of its walls, committing crimes and causing trouble.

<sup>11</sup> They destroy things everywhere.
They oppress and defraud people in the ◀marketplaces/public squares▶.

<sup>12</sup> If it were an enemy who was making fun of me,
I could endure it.
If it were someone who hates me, who despises me,
I could hide from him.

<sup>13</sup> But it is someone who is just like me, my companion, someone who was my friend who is doing this to me.

<sup>14</sup> We previously had many good talks together;
we walked around together in God's temple.

<sup>15</sup> I desire/hope that my enemies will die suddenly; while they are still young, cause them to go down to the place where the dead people are.
They they think evil things.

<sup>16</sup> But I will ask Yahweh, my God, to help me, and he will save me.

<sup>17</sup> Each morning and each noontime and each evening I tell him what I am concerned about, and I moan,
and he hears my voice.

<sup>18</sup> I have very many enemies, but he will rescue me and bring me back safely from the battles that I fight.

<sup>19</sup> God is the one who has ruled everything forever, and he will listen to me.

He will cause my enemies to be defeated and disgraced, because they do not change their evil behavior and they do not revere God.

(Think about that!)

<sup>20</sup> My companion, whom I mentioned previously, betrayed his friends and broke the agreement that he made with them.

<sup>21</sup> What he said was easy to listen to, like butter is easy to swallow [MET], but in his inner being he hated people;
his words were soothing like olive oil,
but they hurt people like sharp swords do [MET].

<sup>22</sup> Put your troubles in Yahweh's hands, and he will take care of you;
he will never allow righteous people to experience disasters.

<sup>23</sup> God, you will cause murderers [MTY] and liars to die before they have lived half as long as they expect to live;
but as for me, I will trust in you.

56

A psalm written by David for the choir director, concerning the time the Philistines seized David in Gath; to be sung using the tune 'Dove on distant oaks'

<sup>1</sup> God, be merciful to me because men have harassed me;
all day my enemies pursue me.

<sup>2</sup> My enemies harass me all day long;
there are many of them who proudly attack me.

<sup>3</sup> But whenever I am afraid,
I trust in you.

<sup>4</sup> God, I praise/thank you because you do what you have promised;
I trust in you, and then I am not afraid.
Ordinary humans certainly cannot [RHQ] harm me!

<sup>5</sup> All day long my enemies claim that I said things that I did not say (OR, try to destroy what I am doing);
they are always thinking of ways to harm me.

<sup>6</sup> In order to cause trouble for me, they hide and watch everything that I do, waiting for an opportunity to kill me [MTY].

<sup>7</sup> So, God, punish them for the wicked things that they are doing;
show that you are angry by defeating those people!

<sup>8</sup> You have counted all the times that I have been wandering alone/distressed;
it is as though you have put all my tears in a bottle
in order that you can see how much I have cried.
You have counted my tears and written the number in your book.

<sup>9</sup> When I call out to you, my God, my enemies will be defeated;
I know that will happen, because you are fighting for me.

<sup>10</sup> I praise/thank you that you do what you have promised;
Yahweh, I will always praise you for that [DOU].

<sup>11</sup> I trust in you, and as a result, I will not be afraid.
I know that humans cannot really [RHQ] harm me!

<sup>12</sup> I will bring to you the offering that I promised;
I will bring an offering to you to thank you,

<sup>13</sup> because you have rescued me from being killed;

you have kept me from stumbling.
 As a result, I will continue to live in your presence in the light that shines on those who are still alive (OR, in the light that enables people to live).

57

A psalm written by David for the choir director, when David went into a cave to escape from Saul; to be sung using the tune 'Do not destroy'

<sup>1</sup> God, be merciful to me!

Act mercifully toward me because I come to you to protect me.

I ask you to protect me like little birds are protected under their mother's wings [MET] until the storm/danger is ended.

<sup>2</sup> God, you who are greater than all other gods,

I cry out to you, the one who enables me to do all that you desire.

<sup>3</sup> You will answer me from heaven and rescue me, but you will cause those who oppress me to be defeated and disgraced!

(Think about that!)

God will always faithfully love me and ◀will be faithful/will do what he promises▶.

<sup>4</sup> Sometimes I am surrounded by my enemies who are like lions that kill humans; they are like lions that chew with their teeth animals that they kill;

but my enemies have spears and arrows, not teeth;

and the false things that they say [MTY] hurt people as much as sharp swords hurt people [MET].

<sup>5</sup> God, show in the heavens that you are very great!

And show your glory to people all over the earth!

<sup>6</sup> It is as if [MET, HYP] my enemies spread a net to seize me, and I became very distressed [IDM].

It is as if [MET, HYP] they dug a deep pit along the path where I walk, but they themselves fell into it!

(Think about that!)

<sup>7</sup> God, I have complete confidence [DOU] in you.

I will sing to you, and I will praise you while I sing.

<sup>8</sup> I will awaken myself;

I will arise before the sun rises and praise you while I play my harp or my ◀lyre/small harp▶.

<sup>9</sup> Lord, I will thank you among all the people; and I will sing to praise you among many ethnic groups,

<sup>10</sup> because your faithful love for us is as great as the distance from the earth to the sky, and because your ◀faithfulness/faithfully doing what you promise▶ is as great as the distance up to the clouds [MET].

<sup>11</sup> God, show in the heavens that you are very great!

And show your glory to people all over the earth!

A psalm written by David for the choir director; to be sung using the tune 'Do not destroy'

- <sup>1</sup> When you mighty men speak, you never say what is right;
you never decide things about people justly [RHQ]!
- <sup>2</sup> No, in your inner beings you think only about doing what is wrong, and you commit violent crimes in this land of Israel.
- <sup>3</sup> Wicked people do wrong things and tell lies from the time that they are born [DOU].
- <sup>4</sup> God, show in the heavens how great you are!
And show your glory to people all over the earth!
What wicked people say injures people like the venom of a snake [MET];
They refuse to listen to good advice, as though they were cobras that were deaf [MET]!
- <sup>5</sup> As a result, like a snake that does not respond when a charmer plays a flute or when someone sings magic songs,
they do not pay attention when others rebuke them.
- <sup>6</sup> God, as for these enemies who want to attack me like young lions, break their teeth!
- <sup>7</sup> Cause them to disappear like water disappears in dry ground!
Cause the arrows that they shoot to have no ◀heads/sharp points▶!
- <sup>8</sup> Cause them to become like snails that disappear in the slime;
cause them to be like babies that are born dead!
- <sup>9</sup> Get rid of them
as fast as thornbushes are blown away after they are cut (OR, as fast as a fire heats a pot over burning thorns).
- <sup>10</sup> Righteous people will rejoice when they see wicked people being punished as they deserve;
they will wash their feet in the blood of wicked people.
- <sup>11</sup> Then people will say, "It is true that there is a reward for righteous people; and there is indeed a God who judges people justly here on the earth!"

59

A psalm written by David for the choir director; when Saul, wanting to kill David, sent men to watch David's house

- <sup>1</sup> God, save me from my enemies!
Protect me from those who want to attack me!
- <sup>2</sup> Rescue me from men who want to do what is wicked, men who are murderers!
- <sup>3</sup> Look! They are waiting to kill me!
Fierce men have gathered to assault me.
Yahweh, they are doing that even though I have not done what is wrong!
- <sup>4</sup> It is not because I have committed any sin against them that they run and get ready to attack me.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh my God, commander of the armies of heaven, the one we Israelis worship, arise and punish the ungodly/heathen people of all the nations; do not be merciful to those wicked people who have ◀acted treacherously toward/secretly planned to harm▶ us.

(Think about that!)

- <sup>6</sup> They return each evening, snarling like vicious dogs [SIM] as they prowl around this city.
- <sup>7</sup> They loudly say terrible things;
they say [MTY] many things that injure people like [MET] swords do, but they think, "No one will [RHQ] hear us!"
- <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh, you laugh at them.
You ◀scoff at/ridicule▶ the people of the pagan nations.
- <sup>9</sup> God, I have confidence in you because you are very strong;
you are my refuge.
- <sup>10</sup> Because you love me, you will come to save me;
you will allow me to watch while you defeat my enemies.
- <sup>11</sup> But do not kill them immediately in order that my people will not forget how you punished them!
Instead, Lord, you who are like a shield that protects us [MET], scatter them by your power, and then defeat them.
- <sup>12</sup> Because what they say [MTY] is sinful, allow them to be trapped for being proud.
Because they are always cursing and telling lies,
- <sup>13</sup> because you are angry, get rid of them;
destroy them completely in order that people will know that you rule over us, your Israeli people, and that you rule over all the earth.
- (Think about that!)

- <sup>14</sup> My enemies return each evening, snarling like vicious dogs as they prowl around this city.
- <sup>15</sup> They roam around, searching for food;
and if they do not find enough, they growl.
- <sup>16</sup> But as for me, I will sing about your power;
every morning I will sing joyfully about your faithfully loving us.
I will sing about how you protected me when I was very distressed.
- <sup>17</sup> God, you are the one who enables me to be strong;
you are my refuge;
you faithfully love me.

A psalm written by David for the choir director; a psalm for teaching, to be sung using the tune 'Lily of the Promise'. David wrote it during the wars in northern Syria, and Joab's army, after returning from the battle, killed 12,000 of the Edom people-group in Salt Valley

- <sup>1</sup> I prayed, "God, you have rejected us Israelis!
Because you have been angry with us,
you have enabled our enemies to break through our ranks.
Please enable us to be strong again!
- <sup>2</sup> When we were defeated, it was as though [MET] there was a big earthquake in our land that caused the ground to split open.
So now, just as only you can cause the cracks in the land to disappear,

- help our army to be strong again,* because it is as though our country is ◀falling apart/being destroyed▶.
- <sup>3</sup> You have caused us, your people, to suffer very much;
it is as though you forced us to drink strong wine that caused us to stagger around after we became drunk.
- <sup>4</sup> But you have raised a battle flag for those who revere you in order that they can gather around it and not be killed by the enemies' arrows.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>5</sup> Answer our prayers and enable us by your power [MTY] to defeat our enemies in order that we, the people whom you love, will be saved."
- <sup>6</sup> Then God answered my prayer and spoke from his temple, saying,
"Because I have conquered your enemies, I will divide up everything in Shechem city, and I will distribute it among my people the land in Succoth Valley.
- <sup>7</sup> The Gilead region is mine;
the people of the tribe of Manasseh are mine;
the tribe of Ephraim is like my helmet [MET];
and the tribe of Judah is like the ◀scepter/stick that I hold which shows that I am the ruler▶ [MET];
- <sup>8</sup> but the Moab region is like my washbasin [MET];
I throw my sandal in the Edom area to show that it belongs to me;
I shout triumphantly because I have defeated the people of the Philistia area."
- <sup>9</sup> Because I want to defeat the people of Edom, ◀who will lead my army triumphantly to their capital city that has strong walls around it?/I want someone to lead my army triumphantly to their capital city that has strong walls around it.▶" [RHQ]
- <sup>10</sup> So, God, we desire/hope that [RHQ] you have not truly abandoned us, and that you will go with us when our armies march out to fight our enemies.
- <sup>11</sup> We need you to help us when we fight against our enemies, because the help that humans can give us is worthless.
- <sup>12</sup> But with you helping us, we shall win;
you will enable us to defeat our enemies.

61

A psalm written by David for the choir director; to be accompanied by musical instruments

- <sup>1</sup> God, listen to me, and answer my prayer [DOU]!
- <sup>2</sup> While I am discouraged and far from my home,
I am calling out to you.
- Lead me to the place that is like a high rock [MET] on top of which I will be safe.
- <sup>3</sup> You have been my refuge;
you have been like a strong tower [MET] in which I am safe from being attacked by my enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> Allow me to live close to your temple all during my life [HYP]!

Allow me to be safe [MET], like a little bird is safe under its mother's wings.
(Think about that!)

<sup>5</sup> God, you heard me when I solemnly promised to give offerings to you;
you have given to me the blessings that belong to those who have an awesome respect for you [MTY].

<sup>6</sup> I am the king of Israel;
please allow me to live and rule for many years, and allow my descendants to rule also.

<sup>7</sup> Allow us to rule forever while you observe us;
watch over us while you faithfully love us and do for us what you promised.

<sup>8</sup> If you do that, I will always sing to praise you [MTY] while I offer to you each day the sacrifices that I promised to give to you.

62

A psalm written by David for Jeduthun, the choir leader

<sup>1</sup> God is the only one who can give me peace in my inner being, and he is the one who saves me from my enemies.

he will be like a shelter, with the result that I will never be defeated [MET].

<sup>3</sup> When will you, my enemies, stop attacking me [RHQ]?
I feel that I am as useless against you as a wall that is about to fall over or a broken-down fence [MET].

<sup>4</sup> My enemies plan to remove me from my important position so that people no longer honor me.

They delight in telling lies.
They bless people by what they say [MTY], but in their inner beings they curse those people.

(Think about that!)

<sup>5</sup> God is the only one who gives me peace in my inner being;
he is the one whom I confidently expect to help me.

he is like a shelter, and as a result I will never be defeated.

<sup>7</sup> God is the one who saves me and honors me.
He is like an overhanging strong rock under which I can find shelter [MET].

<sup>8</sup> You my people, always trust in him.
Tell him all your troubles, because he is ◀our refuge/the one who protects us▶ [MET].

(Think about that!)

<sup>9</sup> People who are considered to be unimportant are as worthless/unreliable as a breath of air;

people who are considered to be important also really ▶amount to nothing/cannot be trusted to help us▶.

If you put them all on a scale, it would be as if they weighed less than a puff of air.

<sup>10</sup> Do not trust in money gained by extorting it from others; do not try to gain anything by robbing others.

If you become very wealthy, do not trust in [IDM] your money.

- 11 I have heard God say more than once that he is the one who really has power, 12 and that he is the one who faithfully loves us.
 He rewards every one of us according to the deeds that we do.

A psalm written by David when he was in the desert in Judea

- 1 God, you are the God whom I worship.
 I greatly desire to be with you like [SIL] a person in a dry hot desert greatly desires some cool water.
- 2 So, I want to see you in your temple; I want to see that you are great and glorious.
- 3 Your constantly loving me is ◀worth more/more precious▶ than my life, so I [MTY] will always praise you.
- 4 I will praise you all the time that I live;
 I will lift up my hands to you while I pray.
- 5 Knowing you satisfies me more than [IDM, MET] my eating a very big feast, so I will praise you while I sing [MTY] joyful songs.
- 6 While I lie on my bed, I think about you.
 I think/meditate about you all during the night,
 7 because you have always helped me, and I sing joyfully knowing that I am protected by you as a little bird is protected under its mother's wings [MET].
- 8 I cling to you;
 and with your hand/power you protect me.
- 9 But those who are trying to kill me will die and descend into the place of the dead; 10 they will be killed in battles [MTY] and their corpses will be eaten by jackals/wild dogs.
- 11 But I, the king of Israel, will rejoice in what God has done;
 and all those who revere and trust God will praise him, but he will not allow liars to say anything.

64

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- 1 God, listen to me as I tell you the things that I am worried about.
 I am afraid of my enemies; so save/rescue me from them.
- 2 Protect me from what wicked men are planning to do to me;
 protect me from that gang of men who do what is evil.
- 3 The hostile things they say [MTY] are like [SIM] sharp swords; their cruel words are like [SIM] arrows.
- 4 Without being afraid, they lie about people and slander people who have not done
 what is wrong,
 like someone who suddenly jumps up from where he is hiding and shoots arrows
 at his enemy [MET].

- <sup>5</sup> They encourage each other about doing the evil things that they are planning to do; they talk with each other about where they can set traps to catch people, and they think, "No one [RHQ] will see what we are doing, <sup>6</sup> because we have planned very well the crime that we are going to commit!"
 No one can fully understand what people can think and plan!
- <sup>7</sup> But it will be as though God will shoot his arrows at them, and suddenly they will be wounded.
- <sup>8</sup> Because of what they say [MTY], he will get rid of them, and then everyone who sees what has happened to them will shake their heads to ridicule them.
- <sup>9</sup> And then everyone will be afraid to sin because of what might happen to them, also; they will tell others what God has done, and they themselves will think much about it.
- <sup>10</sup> Righteous people should rejoice because of what Yahweh has done; they should go to him to ◀find protection/be safe▶; and all those who are godly will praise him.

65

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> God, it is right/appropriate for us to praise you in Jerusalem, and to do what we have promised you that we would do, <sup>2</sup> because you answer our prayers.
 People everywhere will come to you <sup>3</sup> because of the sins that they have committed.
 Our many sins are like a very heavy burden to us, but you forgive us.
- <sup>4</sup> You are pleased with those whom you have chosen to live close to your temple.
 We are happy with all the blessings that we receive from worshipping in your sacred temple.
- <sup>5</sup> God, when we pray to you, you answer us and save us by doing awesome deeds; you are the one who rescues us; people who live in very remote places on the earth, on the other side of the oceans, trust in you.
- <sup>6</sup> By your strength you put the mountains in their places, showing that you are very powerful.
- <sup>7</sup> You calm the seas when they roar, and you stop the waves from crashing on the shore; you also calm people when they ◀make a great uproar/shout angrily together▶.
- <sup>8</sup> People who live in very remote/distant places on the earth ◀are awed by/revere▶ you because of the miracles that you perform; because of what you do, people who live far to the west and far to the east shout joyfully.
- <sup>9</sup> You take care of the soil and send rain, causing many good things to grow; you fill the streams with water, and cause grain/crops to grow.

 That is what you have determined/said would happen.
 10 You send plenty of rain on the fields that have been plowed, and you fill the furrows with water.
 With showers you soften the hard clods/lumps of soil, and you bless the soil by causing young plants to grow.
 11 Because you bless the soil, there are very good crops at harvest season;
 wherever you have gone [MTY], good crops are very abundant [IDM].
 12 The pastures are full of flocks of sheep and goats;
it is as though the hills are very joyful.
 13 The meadows are full of sheep and goats, and the valleys are full of grain;
it is as though they also sing and shout joyfully.

66

A psalm which is a song for the choir director

1 Tell everyone on the earth that they should sing joyfully to praise God!
 2 They should sing songs that say that God [MTY] is very great, and they should tell everyone that he is very glorious!
 3 They should say to God, "The things that you do are awesome!
 You are very powerful, with the result that your enemies ◀cringe/bow down▶ in front of you."
 4 Everyone on the earth should worship God and sing to praise him
 and honor him [MTY].

(Think about that!)

5 Come and think about what God has done!
 Think about the awesome things that he has done.
 6 He caused the Red Sea to become dry land, with the result that our ancestors were able to walk right through it.
 There we rejoiced because of what he had done.

7 By his great power he rules forever, and he keeps watching all the nations to see what things they do, so those nations that want to rebel against him should not be proud.

(Think about that!)

8 You people of all nations, praise our God!
 Praise him loudly in order that people will hear you as you praise him.

9 He has kept us alive, and he has not allowed us to ◀stumble/be defeated▶.

10 God, you have tested us;
 you have allowed us to experience great difficulties to make our lives become pure as people put precious metals in a hot fire to burn out what is impure [MET].

11 It is as if you allowed us to fall into traps [MET], and you forced us to endure difficult things which were like putting heavy loads on our backs [MET].

12 You allowed our enemies to trample on us;

we experienced difficulties/troubles that were like [MET] walking through fires and floods, but now you have brought us into a place where we have plenty.

13 Yahweh, I will bring to your temple offerings that are to be completely burned on the altar;

I will offer to you what I promised.

14 When I was experiencing much trouble, I said that I would bring offerings to you if you rescued me;

and you did rescue me, so I will bring to you what I promised.

15 I will bring sheep to be burned on the altar, and I will also sacrifice bulls and goats, and when they are burning, you will be pleased when the smoke rises up ◀to you/to the sky▶.

(Think about that!)

16 All you people who revere God, come and listen, and I will tell you what he has done for me.

17 I called out to him to help me, and I praised him while I was speaking to him [MTY].

18 If I had ignored the sins that I had committed, the Lord would not have paid any attention to me.

19 But because I confessed my sins, God has listened to me and he paid attention to my prayers.

20 I praise God

because he has not ignored my prayers or stopped faithfully loving me.

67

A psalm for the choir director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments

1 God, be merciful to us and bless us;

be kind to us [IDM],

(Think about that!)

2 in order that everyone in the world may know what you want them to do, and the people of all nations may know that you have the power to save them.

3 God, I desire that all people-groups will praise you;

I want them all to praise you!

4 I desire that the people of all nations will be glad and sing joyfully, because you judge the people-groups equally/justly, and you guide all nations in the world.

(Think about that!)

5 God, I desire that the people-groups will praise you;

I want them all to praise you!

6 Good crops have grown on our land;

God, our God, has blessed us.

7 And because God has blessed us,

I desire that all people everywhere [MTY] on the earth will revere him.

68

- <sup>1</sup> God, arise and scatter your enemies, and cause those who hate you to run away from you.
- <sup>2</sup> Like wind blows smoke away, chase your enemies away.
Like wax melts when it is near a fire, cause wicked people to ◀disappear/be destroyed▶.
- <sup>3</sup> But righteous people should be joyful;
they should rejoice when they are in God's presence;
they should be happy, and be very joyful.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing to God; sing to praise him;
sing a song (OR, make a road) for him who rides on the clouds;
his name is Yahweh; be glad when you are in his presence.
- <sup>5</sup> God, who lives in his sacred temple, is like [MET] a father to those who are orphans, and he is the one who protects widows.
- <sup>6</sup> For those who have no one to live with, he provides families to live with.
He frees prisoners and enables them to be successful, but those who rebel against him will be forced to live in a very hot and dry land.
- <sup>7</sup> God, you led your people out of Egypt, and then you marched with them through the desert. (Think about that!)
- <sup>8</sup> After you did that, because when you, the God worshiped by us Israeli people, appeared to us at Sinai Mountain,, the earth shook,
and rain poured down from the sky.
- <sup>9</sup> You caused plenty of rain to fall on your land,
and so you enabled good crops to grow again on the land that you gave to us Israelis.
- <sup>10</sup> Your people built homes there;
and because you were good to them, you provided food for those who were poor.
- <sup>11</sup> The Lord gave a message, and many women took that message to other places.
- <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed, "Many kings and their armies are running away from our army!"
When our army brought back to their homes the things that they captured, the women who were at home divided up those things among themselves and among their families.
- <sup>13</sup> Even those women who were in the pens taking care of the sheep received some of those things;
they got statues of doves whose wings were covered with silver and whose feathers were covered with pure yellow gold.
- <sup>14</sup> When Almighty God scattered the enemy kings and their armies, the number of weapons that they abandoned there seemed like there had been a snowstorm on Zalmon (OR, a black) Mountain.
- <sup>15</sup> There is a very high mountain in the Bashan region, a mountain which has many peaks.

- 16 But the people who live near that mountain should not [RHQ] envy those who live near Zion, the mountain on which God chose to live!
Yahweh will live there forever!
- 17 After we defeated all our enemies,
it was as though the Lord, surrounded by many thousands of strong chariots, descended from Sinai Mountain and came into the sacred temple in Jerusalem.
- 18 He ascended the sacred mountain where his temple is,
and took with him many people who had been captured in battles;
and received gifts from the enemies whom he had defeated.
He received gifts even from those who had rebelled against him, and Yahweh our God will live there in his sacred temple forever.
- 19 Praise the Lord, who helps us carry our heavy loads every day;
he is the one who saves/rescues us. (Think about that!)
- 20 Our God is the God who saves us;
He is Yahweh, our Lord, the one who ◀allows us to escape/prevents us▶ from being killed in battles.
- 21 But God will smash the heads of his enemies, the skulls of those who continue to behave sinfully.
- 22 The Lord said, "I will bring back the corpses of those who were killed in Bashan, and I will bring back those who sank deep in the ocean and drowned."
23 I will do that in order that you may wash your feet in their blood, and your dogs can also lap up some of your enemies' blood."
- 24 God, many people see you march triumphantly into your sacred temple, celebrating that you have defeated your enemies.
You march like a king does, and a large crowd walks with you.
- 25 The singers are in front, and the people who play stringed instruments are at the rear, and young women who are beating their tambourines are between them.
- 26 They are all singing, "You Israeli people, praise God when you gather together; praise Yahweh, all you who are descendants of Jacob!"
- 27 First come the people of the tribe of Benjamin, the smallest tribe, and following them come the leaders of the tribe of Judah and their group, and following them come the leaders of the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali.
- 28 God, show people that you are very powerful;
show people the power with which you have helped us previously.
- 29 Show that power from your temple in Jerusalem, where kings bring gifts to you.
- 30 Rebuke your enemies, such as those in Egypt who are like wild hippopotamuses/animals that live in the reeds;
and powerful nations that are like bulls that are among their calves [MET];
rebuke/trample them until they bow down and give you gifts of silver.
Scatter the people who enjoy making wars.
- 31 Then people will bring gifts of bronze (OR, of cloth) to you from Egypt;
the people in Ethiopia will lift up their hands to praise you.

<sup>32</sup> You people who are citizens of kingdoms/countries all over the world, sing to God!
Sing praises to the Lord!

(Think about that!)

<sup>33</sup> Sing to the God, the one who rides across the sky, the sky that he created long ago.

Listen as he shouts with a very powerful voice.

<sup>34</sup> Proclaim that God is very powerful;
he is the king that rules over Israel, and in the skies he also shows that he is powerful.

<sup>35</sup> God is awesome as he comes out of his sacred temple;
he is the God whom we Israeli people worship.

He makes [DOU] his people very powerful.

Praise God!

<sup>1</sup> O God, save me, because I am in great danger.
It is as though flood water is up to my neck, and I am about to drown [MET].

<sup>2</sup> I continue to sink in the deep mud, and there is no solid ground for me to stand on.

I am in deep water,
and flood waters are swirling around me.

<sup>3</sup> I am exhausted from calling out for help;
my throat is very dry.
Because I have cried so much as I have waited for God to help me, my eyes are swollen.

<sup>4</sup> Those who hate me when there is no reason to hate me are more than the number of hairs on my head [HYP]!
Those who want to get rid of me are strong,
and they tell lies about me.

They demand that I return to them things that I did not steal!

<sup>5</sup> O God, ◀you see the sins that I have committed/my sins are not hidden from you▶.
You know that I have foolishly disobeyed your laws.

<sup>6</sup> O Yahweh God, you who are the commander of the armies of heaven, do not allow the wrong things that I have done to cause those who trust in you to be disappointed/disillusioned.

O God, you whom we Israeli people worship, do not allow me to cause your people to be humiliated.

<sup>7</sup> People have insulted/ridiculed me because I am devoted to you.
They have thoroughly humiliated [IDM] me.

<sup>8</sup> Even my own older brothers act as if they do not know me;
they treat me like a foreigner.

<sup>9</sup> Some people have despised your temple;
but my zeal for keeping your temple holy is like a fire burning inside me.

So it is as though those who are insulting you are also insulting me.

<sup>10</sup> When I have humbled myself and ◀fasted/abstained from eating food▶ to show my sadness about the disgraceful things that they have done to your temple,

- they just insult me.
- 11 When I put on rough sackcloth to show that I am sad, they laugh at [IDM] me.
- 12 Even the elders of the city say bad things about me.
The drunkards of the city sing disgusting songs about me.
- 13 But Yahweh, I will continue praying to you.
At the time that you choose, answer me and rescue me because you faithfully love me.
- 14 Do not allow me to sink any more in the mud.
Rescue me from those who hate me!
Lift me up out of these deep waters!
- 15 Do not allow flood waters to swirl around me,
do not allow the deep mud to swallow me;
keep me from sinking into the pit of death [MET].
- 16 O Yahweh, answer my prayer and help me because you are good and love me faithfully.
- 17 Do not ◀hide yourself from/refuse to hear▶ me;
answer me quickly
because I am in great trouble.
- 18 Come near to me and save me;
rescue me from my enemies.
- 19 You know that I am insulted and that people cause me to feel ashamed and dishonored;
you know who all my enemies are.
- 20 Their insults have deeply offended me, and I ◀feel helpless/am in despair▶.
I searched for someone who would pity me,
but there was no one.
I wanted someone to encourage/comfort me,
but there were none.
- 21 Instead, they gave me food that tasted like poison, and when I was thirsty, they gave me sour wine to drink.
- 22 I hope/desire that the feasts [MTY] that they enjoy will ◀become a snare for/bring trouble to▶ them, and that those whom they invite to the sacrificial feasts will also be trapped.
- 23 I hope/desire that their eyesight will become dim so that they cannot see anything, and that their backs/bodies will become weaker and weaker.
- 24 Show them that you are very angry with them!
Because of your great/furious anger, chase after them and catch them.
- 25 Cause their towns to become abandoned/deserted and that there will be no one left to live in their tents/houses.
- 26 Do this because they persecute those whom you have punished, ◀they talk about the sins of/they want to hurt even more▶ those whom you have wounded.
- 27 Keep making a record of all their sins, do not acquit/pardon them for the evil things that they have done.
- 28 Erase their names [SYN] from the book containing the names of those who have eternal life;
do not include them in the list of righteous people.

<sup>29</sup> As for me, I have pain and am suffering.
O God, protect me and rescue me.

<sup>30</sup> When God does that, I will sing as I praise God, and I will honor him by thanking him.

<sup>31</sup> My doing that will please Yahweh more than sacrificing oxen, more than offering him full-grown bulls.

<sup>32</sup> Oppressed/Afflicted people will see that God has rescued me, and they will be glad.

I want all of you who ask God to help you to be encouraged.

<sup>33</sup> Yahweh listens to those who are needy;
He does not ignore/forget those who are oppressed/imprisoned.

<sup>34</sup> I desire that everything will praise God—everything that is in heaven and on earth, and all the creatures that are in the seas.

<sup>35</sup> God will rescue the people of Jerusalem from their enemies, and he will rebuild the towns that are in Judah.

His people will live there and again possess the land.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of his people will inherit it,
and those who love him will live there safely.

A psalm written by David for the choir director; asking God to help David <sup>1</sup> God, please save me!

Yahweh, come quickly to help me!

<sup>2</sup> Humble those who are happy about my troubles/difficulties, and cause them to be disgraced/ashamed.

Chase away those who are trying to kill me.

<sup>3</sup> I hope/desire that you will cause them to become dismayed and ashamed because you have defeated them.

<sup>4</sup> But I hope/desire that all those who go to worship you will be very joyful [DOU].

I want those who love you because you saved them to shout repeatedly [HYP], “God is great!”

<sup>5</sup> As for me, I am poor and needy [DOU];

so God, come quickly to help me!

Yahweh, you are the one who saves and helps me,

so please come quickly!

71

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I have come to you to ◀get refuge/be protected▶; never allow me to become ashamed because of being defeated.

<sup>2</sup> Because you always do what is right, help me and rescue me;
listen to me, and save me!

<sup>3</sup> Be like an overhanging rock [MET] under which I can be safe/protected;
be like a strong fortress in which I am safe [DOU].

You continually command (OR, Continually command) your angels to rescue me.

<sup>4</sup> God, rescue me from wicked people, from the power of unjust and evil men.

- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, my Lord, you are the one whom I confidently expect to help me;
I have trusted in you since I was young.
- <sup>6</sup> I have depended on you all my life;
you have taken care of me [IDM] since the day that I was born, so I will always praise you.
- <sup>7</sup> The manner in which I have conducted my life has been an example to many people, because they realize that you have been my strong defender.
- <sup>8</sup> I praise you all day long,
and I proclaim that you are glorious/wonderful.
- <sup>9</sup> Now, when I have become an old man, do not reject/abandon me;
do not abandon me now, when I am not strong any more.
- <sup>10</sup> My enemies say that they want to kill me;
they plan together how they can do that.
- <sup>11</sup> They say about me, "God has abandoned him;
so now we can pursue him and seize him, because there is no one who will rescue him."
- <sup>12</sup> God, do not stay far away from me;
hurry to help me!
- <sup>13</sup> Cause those who ◀accuse me/say that I have done things that are wrong▶ to be defeated and destroyed;
cause those who want to harm me to be shamed and disgraced.
- <sup>14</sup> But as for me, I will continually and confidently expect you to do great things for me, and I will praise you more and more.
- <sup>15</sup> I will tell people that you do what is right;
all day long I will tell people how you have saved me, although what you have done is more than I can fully understand.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh, my Lord, I will praise you for your mighty deeds;
I will proclaim that only you always act justly.
- <sup>17</sup> God, you have taught me many/those things ever since I was young, and I still tell people about your wonderful deeds.
- <sup>18</sup> And now, God, when I am old and my hair is gray, do not abandon me.
Stay with me while I continue to proclaim to my children and grandchildren [HYP] that you are very powerful!
- <sup>19</sup> God, you do many righteous deeds;
it is as though they extend up to the sky.
You have done great things;
there is no one like you [RHQ].
- <sup>20</sup> You have caused me to have many troubles and to suffer much,
but you will cause me to become strong again;
when I am almost dead [HYP], you will keep me alive.
- <sup>21</sup> You will cause me to be greatly honored and you will encourage/comfort me again.
- <sup>22</sup> I will also praise you while I play my harp;
I will praise you, my God, for faithfully doing what you have promised to do.
I will play hymns to praise you, the holy God whom we Israelis worship.

- <sup>23</sup> I [SYN] will shout joyfully while I play the harp for you;
with my entire inner being I will sing because you have rescued me.
- <sup>24</sup> All day long I will tell people that you act righteously, because those who wanted to harm me will have been defeated and disgraced.

72

A psalm written by Solomon.

A prayer for God to bless the king

- <sup>1</sup> O God, enable me, the king whom you appointed in Israel, to rule justly.
Show/Teach me how to judge matters fairly
- <sup>2</sup> in order that I will judge your people fairly, that I will govern your oppressed people justly.
- <sup>3</sup> I desire that all over the country—even on the hills and mountains [DOU]— people will live peacefully and righteously.
- <sup>4</sup> Help me, your king, to defend the poor people and to rescue needy people and to defeat those who oppress them.
- <sup>5</sup> I desire that your people will revere you as long as the moon shines, forever.
- <sup>6</sup> I desire that my rule will be enjoyed by the people [SIM] like they enjoy rain on growing crops, like they enjoy showers that fall on the land.
- <sup>7</sup> I hope/desire that people will live righteously during the years that I rule, and that my people will live peacefully and prosperously as long as the moon shines.
- <sup>8</sup> I hope/desire that the kings of Israel will rule the people in all the area from one sea in the east to another in the west, and from the Euphrates River to the most remote/distant places on earth.
- <sup>9</sup> I hope/desire that those who live in the desert will bow down before them, and that their enemies will throw themselves on the ground in submission to them.
- <sup>10</sup> I hope/desire that the kings of Spain and of the islands in the Mediterranean Sea will bring ◀tribute money/taxes▶ to the kings of Israel, and that the kings of Sheba to the south and of Seba to the southwest will bring them gifts.
- <sup>11</sup> I hope/desire that all the other kings in the world will bow before the kings of Israel, and that people of all nations will serve them.
- <sup>12</sup> They will rescue poor people when they ◀cry out/plead▶ for help, and help those who are needy and those who have no one to help them.
- <sup>13</sup> They will pity those who are weak and needy;
he saves the people's lives.
- <sup>14</sup> Our kings will rescue the people from being oppressed and from being treated cruelly,
because ◀their lives/they▶ [MTY] are precious to our kings.
- <sup>15</sup> I hope/desire that our kings will live a long time!
I hope/desire that they will be given gold from Sheba.
I desire that people will always pray for our kings and praise them all the time, every day.

<sup>16</sup> I hope/desire that the fields will produce plenty of grain everywhere, even on the tops of the hills in the land where they rule, like the grain that grows on the hills in Lebanon.

I hope/desire that the cities in Israel will be full of people like the fields are full of grass.

<sup>17</sup> I desire that the names of our kings will never be forgotten.

I hope/desire that people will remember them as long as the sun shines.

I hope/desire that people of all nations will ask ◀God to bless them/that they will be blessed by God▶ just like he has blessed the kings of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Praise Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship; he is the only one who does wonderful things.

I desire that ◀his glory will fill the whole world/people all over the world may see that he is very great▶ [MTY]!

Amen! May it be so!

<sup>20</sup> That is the end of this group of prayers/songs written by David, the son of Jesse.

Book Three

73

A psalm written by Asaph

<sup>1</sup> God truly is good to us Israeli people, to those who totally want to do all that God desires.

<sup>2</sup> As for me, I almost stopped trusting in God; it was as though my feet slipped and I stumbled [MET], <sup>3</sup> because I envied those who proudly said that they did not need God, and I saw that they prospered even though they were wicked.

<sup>4</sup> Those people do not have any pains; they are always strong and healthy.

<sup>5</sup> They do not have the troubles/difficulties that other people have; they do not have problems like others do.

<sup>7</sup> From their inner beings they ◀pour out/do▶ evil deeds, and they are always thinking about more evil things to do.

<sup>8</sup> They scoff at other people, and they talk about doing evil things to them; they are proud while they plan to oppress others.

<sup>9</sup> They say evil things about God who is in heaven [MTY], and they talk boastfully/proudly about things that they have done here on the earth.

<sup>10</sup> The result is that people listen to what they say and praise them and do not think that they have done anything that is wrong.

<sup>11</sup> Wicked people say to themselves, "God will certainly not [RHQ] know what we have done;
people say that he is greater than any other god, but he does not know everything."

- 12 That is what wicked people are like;
they never worry about anything, and they are always becoming richer.
- 13 So, God, I think it is useless that I have [RHQ] always done what you want me to,
and that I have not sinned.
- 14 All day long I have problems, and every morning you punish me.
- 15 If I had said the things that the wicked people say,
I would have been sinning against your people.
- 16 And when I tried to think about all this,
it was very difficult for me to understand it.
- 17 But when I went to your temple, you spoke to me, and I understood what will happen to the wicked people after they die.
- 18 Now I know that you will surely put them in slippery places, and they will fall down and die.
- 19 They will be destroyed instantly;
they will die in terrible ways.
- 20 They will disappear as quickly as a dream disappears when a person awakes in the morning;
Lord, when you arise, you will ◀cause them to disappear/forget all about them▶.
- 21 When I felt sad/bitter, and brokenhearted,
22 I was stupid and ignorant, and I behaved like an animal toward you.
- 23 But I am always close to you, and you hold my hand.
- 24 You guide me by teaching me, and ◀at the end of my life/when I die▶, you will receive me and honor me.
- 25 You are in heaven and I belong to you [RHQ], and there is nothing on this earth that I desire more than that.
- 26 My body and my mind may become very weak, but God, you continue to enable me to be strong;
I belong to you forever.
- 27 Those who remain far from you will be destroyed;
you will get rid of those who abandon you.
- 28 But as for me, it is wonderful to be near to God and to be protected by Yahweh, and to proclaim to others all that he has done for me.

74

A psalm written by Asaph

- 1 God, why have you abandoned/rejected us?
Will you keep rejecting us forever [RHQ]?
Why are you angry with us, since we are like sheep in your pasture and you are like our shepherd? [MET, RHQ]

the people whom you freed from being slaves in Egypt and caused to become your tribe.

Do not forget Jerusalem, which was ◀your home/where you dwelt▶ on this earth.

<sup>3</sup> Walk along and see where everything has been totally ruined;
our enemies have destroyed everything in the sacred temple.

<sup>4</sup> Your enemies shouted triumphantly in this sacred place;
they erected their banners to show they had defeated us.

<sup>7</sup> Then they burned your temple to the ground;
they caused that place where you were worshiped to be unfit for people to worship in.

<sup>8</sup> They said to themselves, “We will destroy the Israelis completely,” and they also burned down all the other places where we gathered to worship God.

<sup>9</sup> All our sacred symbols (OR, miracles) are gone;
there are no prophets now/any more,
and no one knows how long this situation will continue.

<sup>10</sup> God, how long will our enemies make fun of you [RHQ]?
Will they insult you [MTY] forever [RHQ]?

Why do you keep your hand inside your cloak instead of using it to destroy our enemies [RHQ]?

<sup>12</sup> God, you have been our king all the time since we came out of Egypt [HYP], and you have enabled us to defeat our enemies in the land of Israel.

it was as though you smashed the heads of the rulers of Egypt who were like huge sea dragons [MET].

<sup>14</sup> It was as though you crushed the head of the king of Egypt [MET] and gave his body to the animals in the desert to eat.

<sup>15</sup> You caused springs and streams to flow, and you also dried up rivers that had never dried up previously.

<sup>16</sup> You created the days and the nights, and you put the sun and the moon in their places.

<sup>17</sup> You determined where the oceans end and the land begins, and you created the summer/hot season and the winter/cold season.

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh, do not forget that your enemies laugh at you, and that it is foolish people who despise you [MTY].

<sup>19</sup> Do not let your helpless people [MET] fall into the hands of their cruel enemies;
do not forget your suffering/persecuted people.

<sup>20</sup> Do not forget the agreement that you made with us; remember that there are violent people in every dark place on the earth.

help those poor and needy people in order that they will again praise you [MTY].

<sup>22</sup> God, arise and defend yourself by defending your people!

Do not forget that foolish people laugh at you ◀all day long/continually▶!

<sup>23</sup> Do not forget that your enemies shout angrily at you;

the uproar that they make while they oppose you never stops.

75

A psalm written by Asaph for the choir director; to be sung using the tune 'Do not destroy'

<sup>1</sup> We give thanks to you;
our God, we thank you.

You are close to us, and we proclaim to others the wonderful things that you have done for us.

<sup>2</sup> You have said, "I have appointed a time when I will judge people, and I will judge everyone fairly.

<sup>3</sup> When the earth shakes and all the creatures on the earth tremble,

I am the one who will ◀keep its foundations steady/prevent it from being destroyed▶.
(Think about that!)

<sup>4</sup> I say to people who ◀boast/talk proudly about themselves▶, 'Stop bragging!'
and I say to wicked people, 'Do not proudly do things to show how great you are [IDM]!

<sup>5</sup> Do not be arrogant, and do not speak so boastfully! "

<sup>6</sup> The one who judges people does not come from the east or from the west, and he does not come from the desert.

<sup>7</sup> God is the one who judges people; he says that some have sinned and must be punished, and that others have not done what is wrong.

<sup>8</sup> It is as though Yahweh holds a cup in his hand; it is filled with wine that has spices mixed in it to cause those who drink it to become more drunk;

and when Yahweh pours it out, he will force all the wicked people to drink it;
they will drink every drop of it, which means that he will give them all the punishment that they deserve.

<sup>9</sup> But as for me, I will never stop saying what the God whom Jacob worshiped has done;

I will never quit singing to praise him.

<sup>10</sup> He will destroy the power [IDM] of wicked people, but he will cause righteous people to become more powerful.

76

A psalm written by Asaph for the choir director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments

the Israeli people honor him [MTY].

<sup>2</sup> His home is in Jerusalem;

he lives on Zion Hill.

<sup>3</sup> There he broke the flaming arrows that his enemies shot, and he also broke their shields and swords and other weapons that they used in battles.

(Think about that!)

You are like a king as you return from the mountains where you defeated your enemies.

<sup>5</sup> Their brave soldiers were killed, and then those who killed them took away everything that those soldiers had.

Those enemies died [EUP],
so they were unable to use their weapons any more!

<sup>6</sup> When you, the God whom Jacob worshiped, rebuked your enemies,
the result was that their horses and their riders fell down dead.

<sup>7</sup> But you cause everyone to be afraid.

When you are angry and you punish people, no one can [RHQ] endure it.

<sup>8</sup> From heaven you proclaimed that you would judge people, and then everyone on the earth was afraid and did not say anything more,

<sup>9</sup> when you arose to declare that you would punish wicked people and rescue all those whom they had oppressed.

(Think about that!)

<sup>10</sup> When you punish those with whom you are angry, your people will praise you, and your enemies who ◀survive/are not killed▶ will worship you on your festival days.

<sup>11</sup> So give to Yahweh the offerings that you promised to give to him; all the people of nearby people-groups should also bring gifts to him, the one who is awesome.

<sup>12</sup> He humbles [IDM] princes, and even causes great kings to be terrified.

77

A psalm written by Asaph for Jeduthun, the choir director

<sup>1</sup> I cry out to God;

I cry aloud to him, and he hears me.

<sup>2</sup> Whenever have trouble, I pray to the Lord;
all during the night I lift up my hands while I pray,
but nothing causes me to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup> When I think about God, I ◀despair/think that he will never help me▶; when I meditate about him, I am discouraged.

(Think about that!)

<sup>4</sup> All during the night he prevents me from sleeping;
I am very worried, with the result that I do not know what to say.

<sup>5</sup> I think about days that have passed;
I remember what happened in previous years.

<sup>6</sup> I spend the whole night thinking about things;
I meditate, and this is what I ask myself:

<sup>7</sup> “Will the Lord always reject us?
Will he never again be pleased with us?”

- <sup>8</sup> Has he stopped faithfully loving us?
Will he not do for us what he promised to do?
- <sup>9</sup> God promised to be merciful to us; has he forgotten that?
Because he is angry with us, has he decided to not be kind to us?"
(Think about that!)
- <sup>10</sup> Then I said, "What causes me to be very sad is that it seems that God, who is greater than any other god, is no longer powerful."
- <sup>11</sup> But then, Yahweh, I recall/remember your great deeds;
I remember the wonderful things that you did in the past.
<sup>12</sup> I meditate on all that you have done, and I think about your mighty acts.
- <sup>13</sup> God, everything that you do is holy;
there is certainly no god [RHQ] who is great like you are!
- <sup>14</sup> You are God, the one who performs miracles;
you showed to people of many people-groups that you are powerful.
- <sup>15</sup> By your power [MTY] you rescued your people from Egypt;
you saved those who were descendants of Jacob and his son Joseph.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>16</sup> It was as though the waters of the Red Sea saw you and became very afraid, and even the deepest part of the water shook.
- <sup>17</sup> Rain poured down from the clouds [PRS];
it thundered very loudly [PRS], and lightning flashed in all directions.
- <sup>18</sup> Thunder crashed in the whirlwind, and lightning ◀lit up/flushed across▶ the entire sky [HYP];
the earth shook violently [DOU].
- <sup>19</sup> Then you walked through the sea on a path that you made through the deep water, but your footprints could not be seen.
- <sup>20</sup> You led your people like a shepherd leads his flock of sheep, while Moses and Aaron were the leaders of your people.

78

A psalm written by Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> My friends, listen to what I am going to teach you; pay careful attention [IDM] to what I say.
- <sup>2</sup> I am going to give you some sayings that wise people have said.
They will be sayings about things that happened long ago, things that were difficult to understand [MET],
- <sup>3</sup> things that we have heard and known previously, things that our parents and grandparents told us.
- <sup>4</sup> We will tell these things to our children [LIT], and we will also tell to our grandchildren about Yahweh's power and the glorious/great things that he has done.
- <sup>5</sup> He gave laws and commandments to the Israeli people, those who are the descendants of Jacob [DOU], and he told our ancestors to teach them to their children

<sup>6</sup> in order that their children would also know them and then they would teach them to their children.

<sup>7</sup> In that way, they also would trust in God, and not forget the things that he has done;
instead, they would obey his commandments.

<sup>8</sup> They would not be like their ancestors, who were very stubborn and kept rebelling against God;
they did not continue firmly trusting in God,
and they did not worship only him.

but they ran away from their enemies on the day that they fought a battle with their enemies.

<sup>10</sup> They did not do what they had agreed with God that they would do;
they refused to obey his laws.

<sup>11</sup> They forgot what he had done;
they forgot about the miracles that they had seen him perform.

<sup>12</sup> While our ancestors were watching,
God performed miracles in the area around Zoan city in Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> Then he caused the Red Sea to divide, causing the water on each side to pile up like a wall, with the result that our ancestors walked through it on dry ground.

<sup>14</sup> He led them by a bright cloud during the day and by a fiery light during the night.

<sup>15</sup> He split rocks open in the desert, giving to our ancestors plenty of water from deep inside the earth.

<sup>16</sup> He caused a stream of water to flow from the rock;
the water flowed like a river [DOU].

<sup>17</sup> But our ancestors continued to sin against God;
in the desert they rebelled against the one who is greater than any other god.

<sup>18</sup> By demanding that God give them the food that they desired, they tried to find out if he would always do what they requested him to do.

<sup>19</sup> They insulted God by saying, "We don't think he can supply food for us here in this desert!"

<sup>20</sup> It is true that he struck the rock, with the result that water gushed/flowed out, but ◀can he also provide bread and meat for us, his people?/we doubt that he can also provide bread and meat for us, his people.▶" [RHQ]

<sup>21</sup> So, when Yahweh heard that, he became very angry, and he sent a fire to burn up some of his Israeli people. [MTY, DOU]

<sup>22</sup> He did that because they did not trust in him, and they did not believe that he would rescue them.

<sup>23</sup> But God spoke to the sky above them;
he commanded it to open like a door,

<sup>24</sup> and then food fell down like rain,
food which they named 'manna';
God gave them grain from ◀heaven/the sky▶.

<sup>25</sup> So the people ate the food that angels eat, and God gave to them all the manna that they wanted.

- 26 Later, he caused the wind to blow from the east, and by his power he also sent wind from the south, 27 and the wind brought birds which were as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore.
28 God caused those birds to fall dead in the middle of ◀their camp▶/the area where the people had put up their tents.
There were dead birds all around their tents.
29 So the people cooked the birds and ate the meat and their stomachs were full, because God had given them what they wanted.
30 But before they had eaten all that they wanted, and while they were still eating it, 31 God was still very angry with them, and he caused their strongest men to die;
he got rid of many of the finest young Israeli men.
- 32 In spite of all that, the people continued to sin;
in spite of all the miracles that God had performed, they still did not trust that he would take care of them.
33 So, he caused their lives to end as quickly as a puff of wind ends;
they died when disasters suddenly struck them.
34 When God caused some of them to die,
the others turned to God;
they repented and earnestly asked God to save them.
35 They remembered that God is like a huge rock ledge under which they would be safe
[MET], and that he, who was greater than any other god, is the one who protected/rescued
them.
36 But they tried to deceive God by what they said [MTY]; their words [MTY] were all lies.
37 They were not loyal to him;
they disregarded/ignored the agreement that he had made with them.
38 But God was merciful to his people.
He forgave them for having sinned and did not get rid of them.
Many times he refrained from becoming angry with them and restrained from furiously/severely punishing them [MTY].
39 He remembered/considered that they were only humans who die;
they disappear quickly [SIM], like a wind that blows by and then is gone.
- 40 Many times our ancestors rebelled against God in the desert and caused him to become very sad.
41 Many times they did evil things, to find out if they could do those things without God punishing them.
They frequently caused the holy God of Israel to become disgusted/sad.
42 They forgot about his great power, and they ◀forgot/did not think▶ about the time when he rescued them from their enemies.
43 They forgot about when he performed many miracles in the area near Zoan city in Egypt.
44 He caused the Nile River (OR, their sources of water) to become red like blood, with the result that the people of Egypt had no water to drink.

45 He sent among the people of Egypt swarms of flies that bit them, and he sent frogs that ate up everything.

46 He sent locusts to eat their crops and the other things that grew in their fields.

47 He sent hail that destroyed the grapevines, and sent frost that ruined the figs.

48 He sent hail that killed their cattle and sent lightning that killed their sheep and cows.

49 Because God was fiercely angry with the people of Egypt, he caused them to be very distressed.

The disasters that struck them were like a group of angels that destroyed everything.

50 He did not lessen his being angry with them, and he did not ◀spare their lives/prevent them from dying▶;
he sent a ◀plague/serious illness▶ that killed many of them.

51 He also caused all the firstborn sons of the people of Egypt to die.

52 Then he led his people out of Egypt like a shepherd leads his sheep [SIM], and he guided them while they walked through the desert.

53 He led them safely, and they were not afraid, but their enemies were drowned in the sea.

54 Later he brought them to Canaan, his sacred land, to Zion Hill (OR, the hilly area) and by his power [MTY] he enabled them to conquer the people who were living
there.

55 He expelled the people-groups while his people were advancing;
he allotted part of the land for each tribe to possess, and he gave to the Israeli people the houses of those people who had been expelled.

56 However, the Israeli people rebelled against God, who is greater than any other god,
and they did many evil things to see if they could do those things without God punishing them,
and they did not obey his commandments.

57 Instead, like their ancestors did, they rebelled against God and ◀were not loyal to/did not faithfully obey▶ him;
they were as unreliable as a crooked arrow that does not go straight [SIM].

58 Because they worshipped carved images of their gods on the tops of hills, they caused God to become angry [DOU].

59 He saw what they were doing and became very angry, so he rejected the Israeli people.

60 He no longer appeared to them at Shiloh in the tent where he had lived among them.

61 He allowed their enemies to capture the sacred chest, which was the symbol of his power and his glory.

62 Because he was angry with his people, he allowed them to be killed [MTY] by their enemies.

63 Young men were killed in battles, with the result that the young women had no one to marry.

64 Many priests were killed by their enemies' swords, and ◀the people did not allow the priests' widows/the priests' widows were not allowed▶ to mourn.

- <sup>65</sup> Later, it was as though the Lord awoke from sleeping;
he was like a strong man who ◀became stimulated/felt that he was strong▶ by (OR, became sober after) drinking a lot of wine [SIM].
- <sup>66</sup> He pushed their enemies back and caused them to be very ashamed for a long time [HYP] because they had been defeated.
- <sup>67</sup> But he did not set up his tent where the people of the tribe of Ephraim lived;
he did not choose their area to do that.
- <sup>68</sup> Instead he chose the area where the tribe of Judah lived;
he chose Zion Hill, which he loves.
- <sup>69</sup> He decided to have his temple built there, high up, like his home in heaven;
he caused it to be firm,
and intended that his temple would last forever, like the earth.
- <sup>70</sup> He chose David, who served him faithfully, and took him from the pastures <sup>71</sup> where he was taking care of his father's sheep, and appointed him to be the leader [MET] of the Israeli people, the people who belong to God.
- <sup>72</sup> David took care of the Israeli people sincerely and wholeheartedly, and guided them skillfully/wisely.

A psalm written by Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> God, other people-groups have invaded your land.
They have ◀desecrated your temple/caused your temple to be unfit for worship▶, and they have destroyed all the buildings in Jerusalem.
- <sup>2</sup> Instead of burying the corpses of your people whom they killed, they allowed vultures and wild animals to eat the flesh of those corpses,
- <sup>3</sup> When they killed your people, your people's blood flowed like water through the streets of Jerusalem, and there was almost no one [HYP] left to bury their corpses.
- <sup>4</sup> The people-groups that live in countries that surround our land insult us;
they laugh at us and deride/belittle us.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, how long will this continue?
Will you be angry with us forever?
Will your being angry destroy us like a burning fire destroys things?
- <sup>6</sup> Instead of being angry with us, be angry with the people-groups that do not know/worship you!
Be angry with kingdoms whose people do not pray to you, <sup>7</sup> because they have killed Israeli people and they have ruined your country.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not punish us because of the sins that our ancestors committed!
Be merciful to us now/quickly, because we are very discouraged.
- <sup>9</sup> God, you have saved/rescued us many times,

- so help us now;
 rescue us and forgive us for having sinned in order that other people will honor you [MTY].
- 10 It is not right that [RHQ] other people-groups say about us, “If their God is very powerful, ◀surely he should help them/why does he not help them▶?”
- Allow us to see you punishing the people of other nations in return for their shedding our blood;
 they have killed many of us, your people.
- 11 Listen to your people groaning while they are in prison, and by your great power free those whom our enemies say that they will certainly execute.
- 12 In return for their having often insulted you, punish them seven times as much!
- 13 After you do that, we, whom you take care of like a shepherd takes care of his sheep, will continue praising you;
 we will continue to praise you forever [HYP].

A psalm written by Asaph for the choir director, to be sung using the tune ‘Lilies of the covenant’

- 1 Yahweh, you who lead us like a shepherd leads his flock of sheep, listen to us Israeli people.
 You sit on your throne in the Very Holy Place in the temple, above the carvings of winged creatures.
- 2 Show yourself to the people of the tribes of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh!
 Show us that you are powerful and come and rescue us!
- 3 God, cause our nation to be strong like it was before;
 be kind to us [IDM] in order that we may be saved from our enemies.
- 4 Yahweh, you who are the commander of the armies of heaven, how long will you be angry with us, your people, when we pray to you?
- 5 It is as though the only food and drink that you have given us is a cup full of our tears!
- 6 You have allowed the people-groups that surround us to fight with each other to decide which part of our land each of them will take;
 our enemies laugh at us.
- 7 God, commander of the armies of heaven, cause our nation to be strong like it was before!
 Be kind to us in order that we may be saved!
- 8 Our ancestors were like a grapevine [MET] that you brought out of Egypt;
 you expelled the other people-groups from this land, and you put your people in their land.
- 9 Like people clear ground to plant a grapevine [MET],
you cleared out the people who were living in this land for us to live in it.
Like the roots of a grapevine go deep down into the ground and spread [MET],

- you enabled our ancestors to prosper and start living in towns all over this land.*
- <sup>10</sup> Like huge grapevines cover the hills with their shade and their branches are taller than big cedar trees [MET, HYP],
- <sup>11</sup> your people ruled all of Canaan, from the Mediterranean Sea in the west to the Euphrates River in the east.
- <sup>12</sup> *So why have you abandoned us and allowed our enemies to tear down our walls [RHQ]?
You are like someone who tears down the fences around his vineyard, with the result that all the people who pass by can steal the grapes, <sup>13</sup> and wild pigs can trample the vines, and wild animals can also eat the grapes.*
- <sup>14</sup> *You who are the commander of the armies of heaven, ◀turn to/stop abandoning▶ us!
Look down from heaven and see what is happening to us!
Come and rescue us who are like [MET] your grapevine, <sup>15</sup> who are like the young vine that you [SYN] planted and caused to grow!*
- <sup>16</sup> Our enemies have torn down and burned everything in our land; look at them angrily and get rid of them!
- <sup>17</sup> But strengthen us people whom you have chosen [IDM], us Israeli people whom you previously caused to be very strong.
- <sup>18</sup> When you do that, we will never turn away from you again; ◀revive us/cause us to be again like we were previously▶, and then we will praise/worship you.
- <sup>19</sup> *Yahweh, commander of the armies of heaven, restore us;
be kind to us in order that we may be rescued from our enemies!*

81

A psalm written by Asaph for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> *Sing songs to praise God, who enables us to be strong when we fight our enemies;
shout joyfully to God, whom we ◀descendants of Jacob/Israeli people▶ worship!*
- <sup>2</sup> Start playing the music, and beat the tambourines, and play nice music on the harps and ◀lyres/other stringed instruments▶.
- <sup>3</sup> Blow the trumpets during the festival to celebrate each new moon and each time the moon is full and during our other festivals.
- <sup>4</sup> *Do that because that is a law for us Israeli people;
God commanded it for us descendants of Jacob.*
- <sup>5</sup> He commanded us Israeli people to obey it when he punished the people of Egypt.
- I heard someone [MTY] whose voice I did not recognize, saying,*
- <sup>6</sup> *“After the rulers of Egypt forced you Israelis to work as slaves,
I took those heavy burdens off your backs, and I enabled you to lay down those heavy baskets of bricks that you were carrying.*
- <sup>7</sup> *When you were greatly distressed, you called out to me, and I rescued you;
I answered you out of a thundercloud.*

Later I tested whether you would trust me to give you water when you were in the desert at Meribah.

(Think about that!)

<sup>8</sup> You who are my people, listen while I warn you!
I wish that you Israeli people would pay attention to what I say to you!

<sup>9</sup> You must not have any idols of other gods among you;
you must never bow to worship any of them!

<sup>10</sup> I am Yahweh, your God;
It was not any of those other gods who brought you out of Egypt,
I am the one who did it!
So ask me what you want me to do for you [MTY], and I will do it.

<sup>11</sup> But my people would not listen to me [SYN];
they would not obey me.

<sup>12</sup> So even though they were very stubborn,
I allowed them to do whatever they wanted to do.

<sup>13</sup> I wish that my people would listen to me, that the Israeli people would behave as I want them to do.

<sup>14</sup> If they did that, I would quickly defeat their enemies;
I would strike/punish all of them [DOU].

<sup>15</sup> Then all those who hate me would ◀cringe before/bow down to▶ me, and then I would punish them [MTY] forever.

<sup>16</sup> But I would give you Israelis very good wheat/grain, and I would fill your stomachs with wild honey.”

82

A psalm written by Asaph

<sup>1</sup> God gathers all the rulers and judges who think they are gods for a meeting in heaven; and he tells them that he has decided this:

<sup>2</sup> “You must [RHQ] stop judging people unfairly;
you must no longer make decisions that favor wicked people!

(Think about that!)

you must act fairly toward those who are needy and those who have no one to help them.

They are very corrupt/evil,
and as a result of their corrupt/evil behavior,
it is as though the foundation of the world is being shaken!

<sup>6</sup> I the all-powerful God, previously said to them, “You think you are gods!
It is as though you are all my sons,

<sup>7</sup> but you will die like people do; your lives will end, like the lives of all rulers end.”

<sup>8</sup> God, arise and judge everyone on [MTY] the earth, because all the people-groups belong to you!

83

A psalm which is a song written by Asaph

- <sup>1</sup> God, do not continue to be silent!
Do not be quiet and say nothing, <sup>2</sup> because your enemies are rioting against you;
those who hate you are rebelling against you!
<sup>3</sup> They are secretly planning to do things to harm us, your people; they are ◀conspiring together against/planning how to defeat▶ the people whom you protect.
<sup>4</sup> They say, "Come, we must destroy their nation, with the result that no one will remember that Israel ever existed!" <sup>5</sup> They have agreed on what they want to do to destroy Israel, and they have formed an alliance against you.
<sup>6</sup> The people who have done that are the people of Edom region,
the descendants of Ishmael who live on the east side of the Jordan River, the Moab people-group, the descendants of Hagar who also live on the east side of the Jordan River, <sup>7</sup> Gebal people-group, the Ammon people-group, the Amalek people-group,
the Philistia people-group, and the people of Tyre city.
<sup>8</sup> The people of Assyria have joined them; they are strong allies of the Moab and Ammon people-groups, who are descendants of Abraham's nephew Lot.

(Think about that!)

- <sup>9</sup> God, do to those people things like you did to the Midian people-group, like you did to Sisera and Jabin at Kishon River.
<sup>10</sup> You destroyed them at Endor town, and their corpses lay on the ground and decayed.
<sup>11</sup> Do to them things like you did to Kings Oreb and Zeeb;
defeat their leaders like you defeated Zebah and Zalmunna, <sup>12</sup> who said, "We will take for ourselves the land that the Israelis say belongs to God!"
<sup>13</sup> My God, cause them to disappear quickly like whirling dust, like chaff that the wind blows away!
<sup>14</sup> Like a fire completely burns a forest and like flames burn in the mountains, <sup>15</sup> expel them by sending storms;
cause them to be terrified by your big storms/hurricanes!
<sup>16</sup> Cause them [SYN] to be very ashamed in order that they will admit that you are very powerful.
<sup>17</sup> Cause them to be forever disgraced because of being defeated, and cause them to die while they are still disgraced.
<sup>18</sup> Cause them to know that you, whose name is Yahweh, are the supreme ruler over everything on the earth.

84

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, you who are the Commander of the armies of angels, your temple is very beautiful!

- <sup>2</sup> I [SYN] would like to be there;
Yahweh, I desire that very much [DOU].
With all of my inner being I sing joyfully to you, the all-powerful God.
- <sup>3</sup> Even sparrows and swallows have built nests near your temple, where you protect them [DOU];
they take care of their young babies near the altars where people offer sacrifices to you, who are the commander of the armies of heaven, and my king and my God.
- <sup>4</sup> ◀Happy are/You are pleased with▶ those who ▶live/continually worship▶ in your temple, constantly singing to praise you.
(Think about that!)
- <sup>5</sup> Happy are those who know that you are the one who causes them to be strong, those who strongly desire to ▶make the trip/go▶ to Zion Hill.
- <sup>6</sup> While they travel through the dry Baca Valley, you cause it to become a place where there are springs of water, where the rains ▶in the autumn/before the cold season▶ fill the valley with pools of water.
- <sup>7</sup> As a result, those who travel through there become stronger/refreshed knowing that they will appear in your presence ▶on Zion Hill/in Jerusalem▶.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, commander of the armies of heaven, listen to my prayer;
God, who is worshiped by us ▶descendants of Jacob/Israeli people▶, hear [IDM] what I am saying!
(Think about that!)
- <sup>9</sup> God, be kind to [IDM] our king, the one who protects us [MTY], the one whom you have chosen [MTY] to rule us.
- <sup>10</sup> For me, spending one day in your temple is better than spending 1,000 days somewhere else;
standing at the entrance to your temple, ready to go inside, is better than living in the tents/homes where wicked people live.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh our God is like the sun that shines on us and like a shield that protects us [MET];
he is kind to us and honors us.
Yahweh does not refuse to give any good thing/blessing to those who do what is right.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, commander of the armies of heaven, ▶happy are/you are pleased with▶ those who trust in you!

85

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you have been kind to us people who live in this land;
you have enabled us Israeli people to become prosperous again.
- <sup>2</sup> You forgave us, your people, for the sins that we had committed;
you pardoned us for all our sins [DOU].
(Think about that!)
- <sup>3</sup> You stopped being angry with us and turned away from severely punishing us.

- <sup>4</sup> Now, God, the one who saves/rescues us, ◀restore us/make us prosperous again▶ and stop being angry with us!
- <sup>5</sup> ◀Will you continue to be angry with us forever?/Please do not continue to be angry with us forever.▶ [DOU, RHQ]
- <sup>6</sup> Please enable us [RHQ] to prosper again in order that we, your people, will rejoice about what you have done for us.
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, by rescuing us from our troubles/difficulties, show us that you faithfully love us.
- <sup>8</sup> I want to listen to what Yahweh our God says, because he promises/says that he will enable us, his people, to live peacefully, if we do not return to doing foolish things.
- <sup>9</sup> He is surely ready to save/rescue those who revere him, in order that his glory/splendor will be seen in our land.
- <sup>10</sup> When that happens, he will both faithfully love us and faithfully do for us what he promised to do [PRS];
and we will act/behave righteously, and he will give us peace, which will be like a kiss that he gives us.
- <sup>11</sup> Here on earth, we will ◀be loyal to/continually believe in▶ God, and from heaven, God will act justly/fairly toward us.
- <sup>12</sup> Yes, Yahweh will do good things for us, and there will be great harvests in our land.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh always acts righteously [PRS, MET];
he acts righteously wherever he goes.

A prayer written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, listen [IDM] to what I say and answer me, because I am weak and needy.
- <sup>2</sup> Prevent me from dying now, because I ◀am loyal to/continue to believe in▶ you;
save/rescue me, because I serve you and I trust in you, my God.
- <sup>3</sup> Lord, be kind to me, because I cry out to you all during the day.
- <sup>4</sup> Lord, cause me to be glad, because I ◀pray to/worship▶ [IDM] you.
- <sup>5</sup> Lord, you are good to us, and you forgive us;
you faithfully love very much all those who ◀pray/call out▶ to you.
- <sup>6</sup> Lord, listen to my prayer;
hear me when I cry out to you to help me.
- <sup>7</sup> When I have troubles, I call out to you, because you answer me.
- <sup>8</sup> Lord, among all the gods whom the heathen nations worship, there is no one like you;
not one of them has done the great things that you have done.
- <sup>9</sup> Lord, some day, people from all the nations that you have established will come and bow down in front of you and they will praise you [MTY].

- 10 You are great, and you do wonderful/marvelous things;
only you are God.
- 11 Yahweh, teach me what you want me to do in order that I may conduct my life according to what you say, which is true.
Cause/Teach me to revere you.
- 12 Lord, my God, I will thank you with all my inner being,
and I will praise you forever.
- 13 You faithfully love me very much;
you have prevented me from dying and going to the place where dead people are.
- 14 But God, proud men are trying to attack me;
a gang/group of cruel men are wanting to kill me;
they are men who do not have any ◀respect for/interest in▶ you.
- 15 But Lord, you always are mercifully and kind;
you do not become angry quickly, you faithfully love us very much and always do for us what you have promised to do.
- 16 Look down toward me and be merciful to me;
cause me to be strong and save/rescue me who serves you faithfully like my mother did.
- 17 Yahweh, do something to show me that you are being good to me in order that those who hate me will see that you have encouraged me and helped
me,
and as a result they will be ashamed.

A psalm written by one of the descendants of Korah

- 1 The city that Yahweh established is on his sacred hill.
- 2 He loves that city, Jerusalem, more than he loves any other city in Israel.
- 3 You people in [APO] the city that God ◀owns/lives in▶, people say wonderful things about your city.
(Think about that!)
- 4 Some of those who know about God are the people of Egypt and Babylonia, and also the people of Philistia and Tyre and Ethiopia;
some day they all will say,
“Although I was not born in Jerusalem, because I belong to Yahweh, it is as though I was born there.”
- 5 And concerning Jerusalem, people will say “It is as though everyone was born there, and Almighty God will cause that city to remain strong/safe/secure.”
- 6 Yahweh will write a list of the names of the people of various groups who belong to
him,
and he will say that he considers them all to be citizens of Jerusalem.
(Think about that!)
- 7 They will all dance and sing, saying, “Jerusalem is the source of all our blessings.”

A psalm that expresses sadness, written for the choir director by Zerah's son Heman, one of the descendants of Korah

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh God, you who rescues me, all during each day I call out to you to help me, and I cry out to you during each night also.

<sup>2</sup> Listen [IDM] to my prayer [DOU],
while I cry out to you for help!

<sup>3</sup> I have experienced many troubles/difficulties, and I am about to die [MTY] and go where dead people are.

<sup>4</sup> Because I have no more strength,
other people also consider that I will soon die.

<sup>5</sup> I am like a corpse that has been abandoned;
I am like dead people who lie in their graves, people who have been completely forgotten, because you do not take care of them any more.

<sup>6</sup> It is as though you have thrown me into a deep, dark pit, into a place where they throw corpses.

<sup>7</sup> It seems like you are very angry with me, and it is as though you have crushed me like ocean waves crash down on people [MET].
(Think about that!)

<sup>8</sup> You have caused my friends to ◀avoid/stay away from▶ me;
I have become repulsive to them.

It is as though I am in a prison and cannot escape.

<sup>9</sup> My eyes cannot see well because I cry very much.
Yahweh, every day I call out to you to help me;
I lift up my hands to you while I pray.

<sup>10</sup> You certainly do not [RHQ] perform miracles for dead people!
Their spirits do not [RHQ] arise to praise you!

(Think about that!)

<sup>11</sup> Corpses in the grave certainly do not tell about your faithfully loving us [RHQ], and in the place where people are finally destroyed, no one tells about what you faithfully do for us [RHQ].

<sup>12</sup> No one in the deep dark pit ever sees the miracles that you perform [RHQ], and no one in the place where people have been completely forgotten tells about your being good to us.

<sup>13</sup> But as for me, Yahweh, I cry out to you to help me;
each morning I pray to you.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh, why do you reject me [RHQ]?
Why do you turn away from me [RHQ]?

<sup>15</sup> All the time since I was young, I have suffered and have often almost died;
I am ◀in despair/very discouraged▶ because of enduring the terrible things that you have done to me.

<sup>16</sup> I feel that you have crushed me because of your being angry with me;
the terrible things that you are doing to me are almost destroying me.

<sup>17</sup> I feel as though they surround me like a flood [SIM];

they are ◀closing in on/crushing▶ me from all sides.

<sup>18</sup> You have caused even my friends and others whom I love to avoid me, and it is as though the only friend that I have is darkness.

A song written by Ethan, from the clan of Ezra

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I will sing forever about the ways you faithfully love me; people not yet born will hear that you faithfully do all that you have promised.
- <sup>2</sup> I will tell people that you will faithfully love us forever, and that your being faithful to do what you have promised is as permanent as the sky.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said, "I have made an agreement with David, whom I chose to serve me.
I have made this solemn ◀agreement with/promise to▶ him:
- <sup>4</sup> 'I will enable various ones of your descendants to always be kings;
the line of kings descended from you [MTY] will never end.' "
- (Think about that!) 10
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, I desire that all those beings who are in [MTY] heaven will praise you for the wonderful things that you do, and that all your holy angels will sing about how you faithfully do what you promise.
- <sup>6</sup> There is no one [RHQ] in heaven who can be compared with you, Yahweh.
There are no angels [RHQ] in heaven who are equal to you.
- <sup>7</sup> When your holy angels gather together, they declare that you must be revered;
they say that you are more awesome than all the angels that surround your throne!
- <sup>8</sup> O Yahweh, God Almighty, there is no one [RHQ] who is powerful like you are; your faithfully doing all that you promise is like a cloak that [MET] always surrounds you.
- <sup>9</sup> You rule over the powerful seas;
when their waves rise up, you calm them.
- <sup>10</sup> You are the one who crushed and killed the great sea monster named Rahab.
You defeated and scattered your enemies with your great power [MTY].
- <sup>11</sup> The heavens are yours, and the earth is yours;
and everything on the earth is yours, because you created it all.
- <sup>12</sup> You created everything from the north to the south.
Tabor Mountain and Hermon Mountain joyfully praise you [MTY].
- <sup>13</sup> ◀You/Your arms▶ are very powerful;
◀you/your hands▶ are extremely strong.
- <sup>14</sup> ◀Your rule [MTY] over us is based on/As you rule over us, you are always▶ treating people fairly and justly, and on/are always faithfully loving us and doing what you promised.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, happy are the people who worship you with joyful shouts, who live knowing that you are always watching over them.
- <sup>16</sup> Every day, throughout the day, they rejoice in what you [MTY] have done, and they praise you for being very good to them.
- <sup>17</sup> You give us your glorious strength;
because you act in our favor, we defeat [MET] our enemies.

- 18 Yahweh, you gave us the one who protects us [MET];
you, the holy God whom we Israelis worship, chose a king for us.
- 19 Long ago you spoke in a vision to one of your servants/prophets, saying,
“I have helped a famous soldier;
I chose him from among all the people to be a king.
20 That man is David, the one who will serve me faithfully, and I anointed him with sacred olive oil to make him king.
21 I [MTY] will always strengthen him;
with my power [MTY] I will make him strong.
22 His enemies will never find ways to defeat him,
and wicked people will never defeat him.
23 I will crush his enemies in front of him and get rid of those who hate him.
24 I will always be loyal to him and faithfully love him and enable him to defeat [MET] his enemies.
25 I will cause ◀his kingdom/the area that he rules▶ to include all the land from the Mediterranean Sea to the Euphrates River.
26 He will say to me, ‘You are my Father, my God, the one who protects [MET] and saves me.’
27 I will give him the rights/privileges that a man’s firstborn son has [MET];
he will be the greatest king on the earth.
28 I will always be loyal to him, and my agreement to bless him will last forever.
29 I will establish a line of his descendants that will never end, various ones of his descendants will always be kings.
- 30 But, if some of his descendants disobey my laws, and do not not behave like my commands say that they should, 31 if they disregard my requirements and do not do the right things that I have told them to do, 32 I will punish them severely [MTY] and cause them to suffer for doing wrong.
33 But I will not stop faithfully loving David, and I will always do what I promised him.
34 I will not break the agreement that I made with him;
I will not change even one word that I spoke to him.
35 Once I made a solemn promise to David, and that will never change, and because I am God, I will never lie to David.
36 I promised that the line of kings descended from him will go on forever;
it will last as long as the sun shines.
37 That line will ◀be as permanent/last as long▶ as the moon that is always watching everything from the sky.
- Think about that!)
- 38 But Yahweh, now you have rejected [DOU] David!
You are very angry with the king whom you appointed.
39 It seems that you have broken the agreement that you made with your servant,
David;
it seems as though you have signaled that he is no longer the king by throwing his crown into the dust/dirt.

- 40 You have torn down the walls that protect his city, and allowed all his forts to become ruins.
- 41 All those who pass by plunder/steal his possessions;
his neighbors ◀laugh at/ridicule▶ him.
- 42 You have enabled his enemies to defeat him;
you have made them all happy.
- 43 You have caused his sword to become useless, and you have not helped him in his battles.
- 44 You have caused his splendor to end (OR, You have taken away his power by knocking his throne to the ground.
- 45 You have caused him to look old when he is still young and caused him to be very shamed/disgraced.

(Think about that!)

- 46 O Yahweh, how long will this continue?
Will you hide yourself forever?
How long will your anger burn like a fire?
- 47 Do not forget that life is very short;
have you created all us people in vain?
- 48 No one can [RHQ] keep on living and never die;
◀No one can [RHQ] avoid going/Everyone will go▶ to the place of the dead.
(Think about that!)

- 49 Yahweh, you promised long ago that you would faithfully love us;
why are you not doing that?
You solemnly promised that to David!
- 50 Yahweh, do not forget that people insult me!
◀Heathen people/People who do not know you▶ curse me!
- 51 Yahweh, your enemies insult your chosen king!
They insult/ridicule him wherever he goes.

- 52 I hope/desire that Yahweh will be praised forever!
Amen! May it be so!

Book Four

90

A prayer by the prophet Moses

- 1 Lord, you have always ◀been like a home for us/protected us▶ [MET].
- 2 Before you created the mountains, before you formed the earth and everything that is in it,
you were eternally God,
and you will be God forever.
- 3 When people die, you cause their corpses to become soil again;
you change their corpses to become dirt like the first man was created from.
- 4 When you ◀consider/think about▶ time,
1,000 years are as short as [SIM] one day which passes;
you consider that [HYP] they are as short as a few hours in the night.

- <sup>5</sup> You cause people suddenly to die [MET];
they live only a short time, like a dream lasts only a short time.
They are like grass/weeds [SIM] that grow up.
- <sup>6</sup> In the morning [DOU] the grass sprouts and grows well, but in the evening it dries up and ◀completely withers/dies▶.
- <sup>7</sup> Similarly, because of the sins that we have committed, you become angry with us;
you terrify us and then you destroy us.
- <sup>8</sup> It is as though you place our sins in front of you, you spread out even our secret sins where you can see them.
- <sup>9</sup> Because you are angry with us, you cause our lives to end;
the years that we live pass as quickly as a sigh does.
- <sup>10</sup> People live for only 70 years;
but if they are strong, some of them live for 80 years.
But even during good years we have much pain and troubles;
our lives soon end, and we die [EUP].
- <sup>11</sup> No one [RHQ] has fully experienced the powerful things you can do to them when you are angry with them, and people are not afraid that you will greatly punish them because of your being angry with them.
- <sup>12</sup> So teach/help us to realize that we live for only a short time in order that we may use our time wisely.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, how long will you be angry with us?
Pity us who serve you.
- <sup>14</sup> Each morning show us that your faithfully loving us is enough for us in order that we may shout joyfully and be happy for the rest of our lives.
- <sup>15</sup> Cause us to now be as happy for as many years as you ◀afflicted us/caused us to be sad▶ and we experienced troubles.
- <sup>16</sup> Enable us to see the great things that you do and enable our descendants to also see your glorious power.
- <sup>17</sup> Lord, our God, give us your blessings and enable us to be successful;
yes, cause us to be successful in everything that we do [DOU]!

91

- <sup>1</sup> Those who live under the protection of God Almighty, will be able to rest safely under his care.
- <sup>2</sup> I will declare to Yahweh,
"You protect me;
you are like a fort [MET] in which I am safe.
You are my God, the one in whom I trust."
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh will rescue you from all hidden traps and save you from deadly diseases.
- <sup>4</sup> He will shield/protect you like a bird shields/protects its chicks [MET] with/under her wings.
You will be safe ◀in his care/because he takes care of you▶.

- His faithfully doing what he has promised is like a shield [MET] that will protect you.
- <sup>5</sup> You will not be afraid of things that happen during the night that could ◀terrorize you/cause you to be very afraid▶, or of arrows that your enemies will shoot at you during the day.
- <sup>6</sup> You will not be afraid of ◀plagues/widespread sicknesses▶ that demons cause when they attack people at night, or of other evil forces that kill people at midday.
- <sup>7</sup> Even if 1,000 people fall dead alongside you, even if 10,000 people are dying around you,
you will not be harmed.
- <sup>8</sup> Look and see that ◀wicked people are being punished/God is punishing wicked people▶!
- <sup>9</sup> If you allow Yahweh to protect you, if you trust God Almighty to ◀shelter/take care of▶ you,
- <sup>10</sup> nothing evil will happen to you;
no plague will come near your house,
- <sup>11</sup> because Yahweh will command his angels to protect you wherever you go.
- <sup>12</sup> They will hold you up with their hands, with the result that you will not hurt your foot on a big stone.
- <sup>13</sup> You will be kept safe from being harmed by your enemies [MET];
it will be as though you are stepping on lions and poisonous snakes without them harming you!
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh says, "I will rescue those who love me,
I will protect them because they ◀acknowledge that I am Yahweh/know me▶.
- <sup>15</sup> When they call out to me, I will answer them.
I will help them when they are experiencing trouble;
I will rescue them and honor them.
- <sup>16</sup> I will reward them by enabling them to live a long time, and I will save them."

92

A psalm that is to be sung on Sabbath days

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, it is good for people to thank you and to sing to praise you [MTY] who are greater than any other god.
- <sup>2</sup> It is good to proclaim every morning that you faithfully love us, and each night to sing songs that declare that you always do what you have promised to do, <sup>3</sup> accompanied by musicians playing harps that have ten strings, and by the sounds made by a lyre.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, you have caused me to be glad;
I sing joyfully because of what you [SYN] have done.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, the things that you do are great!
But it is difficult for us to understand all that you think.
- <sup>6</sup> There are things that you do that foolish people cannot know about, things that stupid people cannot understand.

<sup>7</sup> They do not understand that although the number of wicked people increases like blades of grass do [SIM], and they prosper,
they will be completely destroyed.

<sup>8</sup> But Yahweh, you will ◀be exalted/be honored/rule▶ forever.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, your enemies will certainly die, and those who do wicked things will be defeated/scattered.

<sup>10</sup> But you have caused me to be as strong [MTY] as [SIM] a wild ox;
you have caused me to be very joyful [MTY].

<sup>11</sup> I [SYN] have seen you defeat my enemies;
d I have heard those evil men wail/scream while they were being slaughtered.

<sup>12</sup> But righteous people will prosper like [SIM] palm trees that grow well, or like [SIM] cedar trees that grow in Lebanon.

<sup>13</sup> They are like the trees that grow near the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem, those trees that are close to the courtyard of the temple of our God.

<sup>14</sup> Even when righteous people become old, they do many things [IDM] that please God.

They remain strong and full of energy, like trees that [MET] remain full of sap.

he is like a huge rock under which I am safe/protected, and he never does anything that is wicked/wrong.

93

You are majestic, and the power that you have is like [MET] a robe that a king wears.

You put the world firmly in place, and it will never be moved/shaken.

<sup>2</sup> You ruled as king a very long time ago;
you have always existed.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, when you created the world, you separated the water from the chaotic mass and formed oceans, and the waves of the waters of those oceans still roar, <sup>4</sup> but you are greater than the roar of those oceans, more powerful than the ocean waves!

You are Yahweh, the one who is greater than any other god!

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh, your laws never change, and your temple has always been holy/sacred.
And that will be true forever.

94

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you are able to get revenge on your enemies.
So show them that you are going to punish them!

<sup>2</sup> You are the one who judges all people on the earth;
so arise, and give/punish the proud leaders of our people like they deserve.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, how long will those wicked people be glad/happy?

It is not right that [RHQ] they continue being glad!

- <sup>4</sup> They do evil things, and they boast about doing them;
how long will they be allowed to continue doing that?
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, it is as though those wicked people crush us, your people;
they ◀oppress/treat cruelly▶ those who belong to you [DOU].
- <sup>6</sup> They murder widows and orphans and people from other countries who think it is safe to live in our land.
<sup>7</sup> Those wicked people say, "Yahweh does not see anything; so the God whom those Israelis worship does not see the evil things that we do."
- <sup>8</sup> You evil people who rule Israel, you are foolish and stupid;
when will you become wise [RHQ]?
- <sup>9</sup> God made our ears;
so do you think that he cannot hear what you say [RHQ]?
He created our eyes;
so do you think that he cannot see the evil things that you do [RHQ]?
- <sup>10</sup> He also scolds the leaders of other nations;
so do you think that he will not punish you [RHQ]?
He is the one who knows everything;
so why do you think that he does not know what you do [RHQ]?
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh knows everything that people are thinking;
he knows that what they think ◀is useless/vanishes as quickly as▶ smoke [MET].
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, you are pleased with people who want you to discipline/correct them, those who want you to teach them your laws.
- <sup>13</sup> When those people have had troubles, you cause those troubles to cease, and some day it will be as though you will dig pits for wicked people, and they will fall into those pits and die.
- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will not abandon his people;
he will not desert like that those who belong to him [DOU].
- <sup>15</sup> Some day judges will decide matters fairly for people, and all honest/righteous people will be pleased about that.
- <sup>16</sup> But when wicked people ◀oppressed me/treated me cruelly▶, ◀who defended me?/no one defended me.▶ [RHQ]
No one stood up to testify for me against those evil people [RHQ].
- <sup>17</sup> If Yahweh had not helped me at that time,
I would have been executed,
and my soul/spirit would have gone to the place where dead people say nothing.
- <sup>18</sup> I said/thought to myself, "I am about to die," but Yahweh, you held me up by faithfully loving me.
- <sup>19</sup> Whenever I am very worried, you comfort/encourage me and cause me to be happy.
- <sup>20</sup> You have nothing to do with wicked judges, who establish laws that allow people to do what is not legal.
- <sup>21</sup> They plan to get rid of righteous people, and they declare that ◀innocent people/people who have not done what is wrong▶ must be executed.
- <sup>22</sup> But Yahweh ◀has become like my fortress/protects me▶ [MET];

my God is like a huge rock under which I am protected/safe [MET].

- <sup>23</sup> He will punish those wicked leaders in return for the wicked things that they have done, and will get rid of them for the sins that they have committed;
yes, Yahweh our God will ◀wipe them out/destroy them completely▶.

95

- <sup>1</sup> Come, sing to Yahweh;
sing joyfully to the one who protects us [MET] and saves us!
<sup>2</sup> We should thank him as we come before him, and sing ◀joyful songs/joyfully▶ as we praise him.
- <sup>3</sup> Because Yahweh is the great God,
he is a great king who rules over all other gods.
<sup>4</sup> He rules over the whole earth, from the deepest places/caves to the highest mountains.
<sup>5</sup> The seas are his, because he made them.
He is also the one who [SYN] formed/made the dry land.
- <sup>6</sup> We should come, worship, and bow down before him.
We should kneel before Yahweh, the one who made us.
<sup>7</sup> He is our God, and we are the people whom he takes care of [MET];
like sheep that a shepherd takes care of.

Today, listen to what Yahweh is saying to you.

- <sup>8</sup> He says, “Do not become stubborn [IDM] like your ancestors did at Meribah, and like they did at Massah in the desert.
<sup>9</sup> There your ancestors ◀wanted to see/tried to determine▶ if they could do many very evil things without my punishing them.
Even though they had seen me perform many miracles, they tested whether I would continue to be patient with them.
<sup>10</sup> For 40 years I was angry with those people, and I said, ‘Those people say that they want to please me, but they do things that I detest.
They refuse to obey my commands.’
<sup>11</sup> So because I was very angry, I solemnly said/declared about them:
‘They will never enter the land of Canaan where I would have allowed them to rest!’ ”

96

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to Yahweh a new song!
You people throughout the earth, sing to Yahweh!
<sup>2</sup> Sing to Yahweh and praise him [MTY]!
Every day proclaim to others that he has saved/rescued us.
<sup>3</sup> Tell about his glory/greatness to all people-groups;
tell all people-groups the marvelous things that he has done.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is great, and he deserves to be praised very much;
he should be revered more than for all the gods, <sup>5</sup> because all the gods that other people-groups worship are only idols,

- but Yahweh is truly great; he created the skies!
- <sup>6</sup> Those who are in his presence honor him and can see that he is a great king.
They can see in his temple that he is very powerful and is very beautiful.
- <sup>7</sup> You people in nations all over the earth, praise Yahweh!
Praise Yahweh for his glorious power [HEN]!
- <sup>8</sup> Praise Yahweh like he deserves to be praised,
Bring an offering and come to his temple.
- <sup>9</sup> Bow down before Yahweh when he appears in his holy/sacred temple;
everyone on the earth should tremble in front of him, because he is majestic and holy.
- <sup>10</sup> Say to all the people-groups, "Yahweh is the king!
He put the world in its place, and nothing will ever be able to move/shake it.
He will judge all the people-groups fairly."
- <sup>11</sup> All the beings that are in [MTY] the heavens should be glad, and all the people on the earth should rejoice.
The oceans and all the creatures that are in the oceans should roar to praise Yahweh.
- <sup>12</sup> The fields and everything that grows in them should rejoice.
When they do that, it will be as though all the trees in the forests will sing joyfully <sup>13</sup> in front of Yahweh.
- That will happen when he comes to judge everyone on [MTY] the earth.
He will judge all the people fairly/justly, according to what he knows is true.

97

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh is the king!
I want everyone on the earth to be glad/happy, and the people who live on the islands in the oceans to also rejoice about that!
- <sup>2</sup> There are very dark clouds around him to hide him;
he rules [MTY] righteously/justly and fairly.
- <sup>3</sup> He sends fire in front of him, and he completely burns all his enemies in that fire.
- <sup>4</sup> All around the world he causes lightning to flash;
people on the earth see it, and it causes them to be afraid and tremble.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains/hills melt like wax in front of Yahweh, the one who is the Lord, who rules over all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> The angels in [MTY] heaven proclaim that he acts righteously, and all the people-groups see his glory.
- <sup>7</sup> Everyone who worships idols should be ashamed;
all those who are proud of their false gods should realize that their gods are useless,
It is as though all those gods bow down to worship Yahweh.
- <sup>8</sup> The people [MTY] of Jerusalem hear about Yahweh and are glad/happy, and people in the other [MTY] cities in Judah also rejoice, because Yahweh judges and punishes wicked people.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh is the supreme king over all the earth;
he has very great power, and all the other gods have no power at all.

- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh loves those who hate what people do that is evil;
 he protects the lives of his people, and he rescues them when the wicked people try to harm them.
- <sup>11</sup> His light shines on righteous people;
 he causes those who are righteous to rejoice.
- <sup>12</sup> You righteous people, rejoice about what Yahweh has done, and thank him, our holy God!

98

A psalm

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to Yahweh a new song,
 because he has done wonderful things!
 By his power [MTY] and his great strength [DOU] he has defeated his enemies.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh has declared to people that he has defeated his enemies;
 he has revealed that he has punished them, and people in all the world have seen that he has done it.
- <sup>3</sup> Like he promised to us Israeli people [MTY], he has faithfully loved us and ◀been loyal to/not abandoned▶ us.
People who live in very remote places in all the earth have seen that our God has defeated his enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> All you people [MTY] everywhere should sing joyfully to Yahweh;
 praise him while you sing and shout joyfully!
- <sup>5</sup> Praise Yahweh while you play the lyres/harps, playing delightful music.
- <sup>6</sup> Some of you should blow trumpets and other horns, while others shout joyfully to Yahweh, our king.
- <sup>7</sup> The oceans and all the creatures that are in the oceans should roar to praise Yahweh.
 Everyone on the earth should sing!
- <sup>8</sup> It should seem as though the rivers are clapping their hands to praise Yahweh and that the hills are singing together joyfully in front of Yahweh,
- <sup>9</sup> because he will come to judge everyone on [MTY] the earth!
 He will judge all the people-groups in the world justly and fairly [DOU].

99

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh is the supreme king, so all the people-groups should tremble ◀in his presence/in front of him▶!
 He sits on his throne in the temple above the statues of winged creatures, so the earth should quake/shake!
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is a mighty king in Jerusalem;
 but he is also the supreme ruler of all people-groups.
- <sup>3</sup> So they should praise him because he is very great/powerful;
 and he is holy!
- <sup>4</sup> He is a mighty king who ◀loves/is pleased with▶ what is just/right;
 he has acted justly and fairly [DOU] in Israel.
- <sup>5</sup> Praise Yahweh our God!
 Worship him in front of the Sacred Chest in his temple [MTY], where he rules people.

He is holy!

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were two of his priests;
Samuel also was someone who prayed to him.
Those three cried out to Yahweh to help them, and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup> He spoke to Moses and Aaron from the cloud that was like a huge pillar;
they obeyed all the laws and commandments [DOU] that he gave to them.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, our God, you answered your people
when they cried out to you to help them;
you are a God who forgave them for those sins that they had committed, even though you punished them for the things that they did that are wrong.

<sup>9</sup> Praise Yahweh, our God,
and worship him at the temple on his sacred hill;
it is right to do that because Yahweh, our God, is holy!

100

A psalm of thanksgiving

We should come before him singing joyful songs.

<sup>3</sup> We should acknowledge/recognize that Yahweh is God;
it is he who made us, so we belong to him.
We are the people that he takes care of [MET];
we are like sheep that are cared for by their shepherd.

<sup>4</sup> Enter the gates of his temple thanking him;
enter the courtyard of the temple singing songs to praise him!
Thank him and praise him,

<sup>5</sup> because Yahweh always does good things for us.
He faithfully loves us, and ◀is faithful/is loyal to us forever/will never forsake us▶.

101

I will sing about your faithfully loving us (OR, my being loyal to you and acting justly/fairly toward people).

<sup>2</sup> I promise that while I rule people [MTY],
I will behave in such a way that no one will be able to criticize me.
Yahweh, ◀when will you come to help me?/I need you to come to help me.▶ [RHQ]
I will do things that are right.

<sup>3</sup> I will not allow stay away from those who do what is evil [SYN].
I hate the deeds of those who ◀turn away from/sin against▶ you;
I will ◀completely avoid those people/not allow those people to come near me▶.

<sup>4</sup> I will not be dishonest, and I will not have anything to do with evil (OR, evil people).

<sup>5</sup> I will get rid of anyone who secretly slanders someone else, and I will not ◀tolerate/allow to be near me▶ anyone who is proud and arrogant [DOU].

<sup>6</sup> I will approve of [IDM] people in this land who ◀are loyal to/faithfully obey▶ God, and I will allow them to ◀live with/work for▶ me.
I will allow those who behave in such a way that no one can criticize them to ◀serve me/be my officials▶.

<sup>7</sup> I will not allow anyone who deceives others to work in my palace;
no one who tells lies will be allowed to continually come to work for me.

<sup>8</sup> Every day I will try to get rid of all the wicked people in this land;
I will do that by expelling them from this city, which is Yahweh's city.

102

A prayer written by someone who was afflicted, when he was discouraged and pleaded for Yahweh to help him

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, listen to what I am praying; hear me while I cry out to you!

<sup>2</sup> Do not ◀turn away/hide yourself▶ from me when I ◀have troubles/am distressed▶!
Listen to me,
and answer me quickly now, when I am calling out to you!

I have a high fever which burns my body like a fire burns [SIM].

<sup>4</sup> I feel like I am drying up like grass [SIM] that has been beaten/trampled down, and I no longer have a desire to eat food.

<sup>5</sup> I groan loudly, and my bones can be seen under my skin because I have become very thin.

<sup>6</sup> I am like a lonely and despised vulture in the desert, like an owl by itself in the abandoned ruins of a building/city.

<sup>7</sup> I lie awake at night;
because there is no one to comfort me,
I am like a lonely bird sitting on a housetop [SIM].

<sup>8</sup> All during the day my enemies insult me;
those who make fun of me mention my name and say, "May you be like him" when they curse people.

<sup>9-10</sup> Because you are very angry [DOU] with me, now I sit in ashes while I am suffering greatly;
and those ashes fall on the bread/food that I eat, and what I drink has my tears mixed with it.

It is as though you have picked me up and thrown me away!

<sup>11</sup> My time to remain alive is like an evening shadow that will soon be gone [SIM].
I am withering like grass withers in the hot sun.

<sup>12</sup> But Yahweh, you are our king who rules [MTY] forever; people who are not yet born will remember you.

<sup>13</sup> You will arise and be merciful to the people of [MTY] Jerusalem; it is now time for you to do that;

this is the time for you to be kind to them.

<sup>14</sup> Even though ◀the city has been destroyed/our enemies have destroyed our city▶, we who serve you still love the stones that were formerly in the city walls;
because now there is rubble everywhere,
we, your people, are very sad when we see it.

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh, some day the people of other nations will revere you [MTY];
all the kings on earth will see that you are very glorious/great.

<sup>16</sup> You will rebuild Jerusalem, and you will appear there with your glory/brightness.

<sup>17</sup> You will listen to the prayers of your people who are homeless, and you will ◀not ignore them/do what they request▶ [LIT]
when they plead with you to help them.

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh, I want to write these words in order that people in future years will know what you have done, in order that people who are not born yet will praise you.

<sup>19</sup> They will know that you looked down from your holy/sacred place in heaven [DOU] and saw what was happening on the earth.

<sup>20</sup> They will know that you hear prisoners groaning and that you will set free those who have been told, "You will be executed."

<sup>21</sup> As a result, people in Jerusalem will praise you [DOU] for what you have done

<sup>22</sup> when many people from other people-groups and those who are citizens of other kingdoms gather to worship you.

<sup>23</sup> But now you have caused me to become weak while I am still young;
I think that I will ◀not live much longer/ very long/soon die▶.

<sup>24</sup> I say to you, "My God, do not cause me to die now, before I become old!

You live forever!

<sup>25</sup> You created the world long ago,
and you made ◀the heavens/everything in the sky▶ with your own hands.

<sup>26</sup> The earth and the heavens/sky will disappear, but you will remain.
They will wear out like clothes wear out.

You will get rid of them like people get rid of old clothes, and they will no longer exist,

<sup>27</sup> but you are not like the things that you created, because you are always the same;
you never die.

<sup>28</sup> Some day our children will live safely in Jerusalem, and their descendants will be protected in your presence."

103

A psalm written by David

I will praise him [MTY] with all of my inner being, because he [MTY] is holy.

<sup>2</sup> I tell myself that I should praise Yahweh
and never forget all the kind things he has done for me:

<sup>3</sup> He forgives all my sins, and he heals me from all my diseases/sicknesses;

<sup>4</sup> he keeps me from dying [MTY], and blesses me by faithfully loving me and acting mercifully to me.

<sup>5</sup> He gives me good things during my entire life.

He makes me feel young and strong like eagles.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh judges justly and ◀vindicates/does what is right for▶ all those who have been treated unfairly.

he showed to the ancestors of us Israeli people the mighty things that he was able to do.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh acts mercifully and kindly;

he does not quickly ◀get angry/punish us▶ when we sin;

he is always showing us that he faithfully loves us.

<sup>9</sup> He will not keep rebuking us, and he will not remain angry forever.

<sup>10</sup> He punishes us for our sins, but he does not punish us severely as we deserve [DOU]!

<sup>11</sup> The skies are very high above the earth, and Yahweh's faithful love for all those who revere him is just as great.

<sup>12</sup> He has taken away the guilt for [MTY] our sins, taking it as far from us as the east is from the west.

<sup>13</sup> Just like parents act mercifully toward their children,

Yahweh is kind to those who revere him.

<sup>14</sup> He knows what our bodies are like;

he remembers that he created us from dirt, and so we quickly fail to do what pleases him [MET].

<sup>15</sup> We humans do not live forever [SIM];

we are like grass [SIM] that withers and dies.

We are like wild flowers: They bloom for a short while,

<sup>16</sup> but then the hot wind blows over them, and they disappear;

no one sees them again.

<sup>17</sup> But Yahweh will faithfully keep loving forever all those who revere him.

He will act fairly to our children and to their children;

<sup>18</sup> he will act that way to all those who obey the agreement he made with them to bless them if they did what he told them to do, to all those who obey what he has commanded.

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh made/caused the heavens to be the place where he rules [MTY];

from there he rules over everything.

<sup>20</sup> You angels who belong to Yahweh, praise him!

You are powerful creatures/beings who do what he tells you to do;

you obey what he commands.

<sup>21</sup> Praise Yahweh, you armies/thousands of angels who serve him and do what he desires!

<sup>22</sup> All you things that Yahweh has created, praise him;

praise him in every place where he rules, everywhere!

And I also will praise Yahweh!

104

Yahweh, my God, you are very great!

Like a king has on his royal robes [MET],
you have honor and majesty/greatness all around you!

You spread out the sky like a man sets up a tent.

<sup>3</sup> You made/put your home in heaven, above the rain clouds in the sky, like a man puts the rafters of his house in place [MET].

You made/caused the clouds to be like chariots to carry you.

<sup>4</sup> You caused the winds to be like your messengers [MET], and flames of fire to be like your servants.

<sup>5</sup> You placed the world firmly on its foundation so that it can never be moved/shaken.

<sup>6</sup> Later, you covered the earth with a flood, like a blanket, with the water that covered the mountains.

<sup>7</sup> But when you rebuked the water, the oceans receded;
your voice spoke like thunder, and then the waters rushed away.

<sup>8</sup> Mountains rose up from the water, and the valleys sank down to the levels that you had determined for them.

<sup>9</sup> Then you set a boundary for the oceans, a boundary that they cannot cross; their water will never again cover the whole earth.

<sup>10</sup> You make/cause springs to pour water into ravines; their water flows down between the mountains.

<sup>11</sup> Those streams provide water for all the animals to drink;
the wild donkeys drink the water and are no longer thirsty.

<sup>12</sup> Birds make their nests alongside the streams, and they sing among the branches of the trees.

<sup>13</sup> From ◀your home in heaven/the sky▶ you send rain down on the mountains, and you fill the earth with many good things that you create.

<sup>14</sup> You make/cause grass to grow for the cattle to eat, and you make/cause plants to grow for people.

In that way animals and people get their food from what grows in the soil.

<sup>15</sup> We get grapes to make [MTY] wine to drink and make us cheerful, and we get olives to make [MTY] olive oil to put on our skin and cause it to shine, and we get grain to make [MTY] bread to give us strength.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh, you send plenty of rain to water your trees, the cedar trees that you planted in Lebanon.

<sup>17</sup> Birds make their nests in those trees;
even storks make their nests in pine/fir trees.

<sup>18</sup> High up in the mountains the wild goats live, and hyraxes/badgers live in the crags/crevices in the rocks.

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh, you made the moon to indicate the times for our festivals, and you made the sun that knows when to go down.

<sup>20</sup> You bring darkness, and it becomes night, when all the animals in the forest prowl around, looking for food.

<sup>21</sup> At night the young lions roar as they seek their prey, but they depend on you to give them food.

22 At dawn, they go back to their dens and lie down.

23 And during the daytime, people go to their work;
they work until it is evening.

24 Yahweh, you have made so many different kinds of things!

You were very wise as you made them all.

The earth is full of the creatures that you made.

25 We see the ocean which is very large [DOU]!

It is full of many kinds of living creatures,
big ones and little ones.

26 We see the ships which sail along!

We see the huge sea monster, which you made to ◀splash around/play▶ in the sea.

27 All of those creatures depend on you to give them the food that they need.

28 When you give them the food that they need,
they gather it.

You give them what you have in your hand,
and they eat it and are satisfied.

29 But if you refuse to give food to them,
they become terrified.

And when you cause them to stop breathing, they die;
their bodies decay and become soil again.

30 When you cause newborn creatures to begin to breathe, they start to live;

you give new life to all the living creatures on the earth.

31 I want the glory of Yahweh to last forever.

I want him to rejoice about all the things that he has created.

32 He causes the earth to shake just by looking at it!

By merely touching the mountains he makes/causes them to pour out fire and smoke!

33 I will sing to Yahweh ◀as long as I live/throughout my entire life▶.

I will praise my God until the day that I die.

34 I want Yahweh to be pleased by all those things that I have thought about him, because I rejoice about knowing him.

35 But I desire that sinners will disappear from the earth, so that there will be no more wicked people!

But as for me, I will praise Yahweh!

◀Praise him/Hallelujah▶!

105

1 Give thanks to Yahweh, and tell others that he is very great!

Tell everyone in the world what he has done!

2 Sing to him; praise him as you sing to him;

tell others about his wonderful miracles.

3 Be happy because you know that he [MTY] is holy!

- You people who worship Yahweh, rejoice!
- <sup>4</sup> Ask Yahweh to help you and give you his strength, and continue to ask him!
- <sup>5-6</sup> You people who are descendants of God's servant Abraham, you descendants of Jacob, the man God chose, think about all the wonderful things that he has done:
He performed miracles, and he punished all our enemies.
- <sup>7</sup> He is Yahweh, our God.
He rules and judges people throughout the earth.
- <sup>8</sup> He never forgets the agreement that he made;
he made a promise that will last for 1,000 generations;
- <sup>9</sup> that is the agreement that he made with Abraham, and he repeated that agreement with Isaac.
- <sup>10</sup> Later he confirmed it again to Jacob as an agreement for the Israeli people that would last forever.
- <sup>11</sup> What he said was, "I will give you the Canaan region;
it will belong to you and your descendants forever."
- <sup>12</sup> He said that to them when there were only a few of them, a tiny group of people who were living in that land like strangers.
- <sup>13</sup> They continued to wander from one place to another,
from one kingdom to another.
- <sup>14</sup> But he did not allow others to oppress them.
He warned those kings by saying to them,
- <sup>15</sup> "Do not do harm the people whom I have chosen!
Do not harm my prophets!"
- <sup>16</sup> He sent a famine to Canaan, and as a result all the people had no food to eat.
- <sup>17</sup> So his people went to Egypt, but first he sent someone there.
He sent Joseph, who had been sold to be a slave.
- <sup>18</sup> Later, while Joseph was in prison in Egypt,
they put his legs in shackles that bruised his feet, and they put an iron collar around his neck.
- <sup>19</sup> There, Yahweh ◀refined Joseph's character/tested Joseph to see if Joseph would continue to trust him▶, until what Joseph predicted would happen ◀came true/happened▶.
- <sup>20</sup> The king of Egypt summoned him, and he set Joseph free;
this ruler of many people-groups released Joseph from prison.
- <sup>21</sup> Then he appointed him to take care of everything in the king's household, to take care of everything that the king possessed.
- <sup>22</sup> ◀Joseph was permitted/He permitted Joseph▶ to command the king's servants to do anything that Joseph wanted them to do, and even to tell the king's advisors the things that they should do for the people of Egypt.
- <sup>23</sup> Later, Joseph's father Jacob arrived in Egypt.
He lived like a foreigner in the land that belonged to the descendants of Ham.
- <sup>24</sup> And years later Yahweh caused the descendants of Jacob to become very numerous.

As a result, their enemies, the Egyptians, considered that the Israelis were too strong.

25 So Yahweh caused the rulers of Egypt to ◀turn against/hate▶ the Israeli people, and they planned ways to get rid of his people.

26 But then Yahweh sent his servant Moses along with Moses' older brother Aaron, whom Yahweh had also chosen to be his servant.

27 Those two performed amazing miracles among the people of Egypt, in that land where the descendants of Ham lived.

28 Yahweh sent darkness, so that the people of Egypt could not see anything [DOU], but the rulers of Egypt refused [RHQ] to obey when Moses and Aaron commanded them to let the Israeli people leave Egypt.

29 Yahweh caused all the water in Egypt to become ◀blood/red like blood▶, and his doing that caused all the fish to die.

30 Then he caused the land to become full of frogs; the king and his officials even had frogs in their bedrooms.

31 Then Yahweh commanded that flies come, and swarms of them descended on the people of Egypt, and gnats also swarmed across the whole country.

32 Instead of sending rain, Yahweh sent terrible hail, and lightning flashed throughout the land.

33 The hail ruined their grapevines and fig trees and shattered all the other trees.

34 He commanded locusts to come, and swarms of them came; so many that they could not be counted.

35 The locusts ate every green plant in the land, ruining all the crops.

36 Then Yahweh killed the oldest son in every house of the people of Egypt [DOU].

37 Then he brought the Israeli people out from Egypt; they were carrying loads of jewelry made of silver and gold that the women of Egypt had given to them.

No one was left behind because of being sick.

38 The people of Egypt were glad when the Israeli people left, because they had become very afraid of the Israelis.

39 Then Yahweh spread a cloud to cover the Israelis; and at night it became a big fire in the sky to give them light.

40 Later the Israelis asked for meat to eat, and Yahweh sent flocks of quail to them, and he gave them plenty of manna food from the sky each morning.

41 One day he caused a rock to open up and water poured out for them to drink; it was like a river flowing in that desert.

42 He did that because he kept thinking about the sacred promise that he had given to his servant, Abraham.

43 So his people were joyful as he brought them out from Egypt; those people whom he had chosen were shouting joyfully as they went.

44 He gave to them the land that belonged to the people-groups that lived there in Canaan, and the Israelis harvested crops that other people had planted.

45 Yahweh did all these things in order that his people would do all the things that he had commanded them to do [DOU].

Praise Yahweh!

106

Praise Yahweh, because he does good things for us;
he faithfully loves us forever/continually!

<sup>2</sup> Because Yahweh has done many great things,
no one can [RHQ] tell all the great things that Yahweh has done, and no one can praise him enough/sufficiently.

<sup>3</sup> ◀Happy are/He is pleased with▶ those who act fairly/justly, with those who always do what is right.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh, be kind to me when you help your people;
help me when you rescue/save them.

<sup>5</sup> Allow me to see it when your people become prosperous again and when all the people of your nation, Israel, are happy; allow me to be happy with them!

I want to praise you along with all those others who belong to you.

<sup>6</sup> We and our ancestors have sinned;
we have done things that were very wicked [DOU].

<sup>7</sup> When our ancestors were in Egypt, they did not pay attention to the wonderful things that Yahweh did;
they forgot about the many times that he showed that he faithfully loved them.

Instead, when they were at the Red Sea, they rebelled against God, who is greater than any other god.

<sup>8</sup> But he rescued them for the sake of his own reputation in order that he could show that he is very powerful.

<sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea and it became dry, and then while he led our ancestors across it, they walked through it as though it were as dry as a desert [SIM].

<sup>10</sup> In that way he rescued them from the power [MTY] of their enemies who hated them [DOU].

not one of them was left.

what he had promised to do, and they sang to praise him.

<sup>13</sup> But they soon forgot what he had done for them;
they did things without waiting to find out what Yahweh wanted them to do.

They did evil things to find out if they could do those things without God punishing them.

<sup>15</sup> So he gave them what they requested, but he also caused a terrible disease to afflict them.

and his older brother Aaron, who was dedicated to serve Yahweh by being a priest,

<sup>17</sup> the ground opened up and swallowed Dathan and also buried Abiram and his family.

18 And God sent a fire down from heaven which burned up all the wicked people who ◀supported them/agreed with▶ them.

19 Then the Israeli leaders made a gold statue at Sinai Mountain and worshiped it.

20 Instead of worshiping our glorious God, they started to worship a statue of a bull that eats grass!

21 They forgot about God, who had rescued them by the great miracles that he performed in Egypt.

22 They forgot about the wonderful things that he did for them in Egypt and the amazing/awesome things that he did for them at the Red Sea.

23 Because of that, God said that he would get rid of the Israelis, but Moses, whom God had chosen to serve him, pleaded with God not to get rid of them.

And as a result God did not destroy them.

24 Later, our ancestors ◀refused/were afraid▶ to enter beautiful Canaan land because they did not believe that God would enable them to take the land from the people who were living there, as he had promised.

25 They stayed in their tents and grumbled and would not pay attention to what Yahweh said that they should do.

26 So he solemnly [MTY] told them that he would cause them to die there in the desert, 27 and that he would scatter their descendants among the people of other nations/people-groups who did not believe in him, and that he would allow them to die in those lands.

28 Later the Israeli people started to worship the idol of Baal who they thought lived at Peor Mountain, and they ate meat that had been sacrificed to Baal and those other lifeless gods.

29 Yahweh became very angry because of what they had done, so again he sent a terrible disease to attack/strike them.

30 But Phinehas stood up and punished/killed the ones who had sinned greatly, and as a result the ◀plague/serious disease▶ ended.

31 People have remembered that righteous thing that Phinehas did, and in future years people will remember it.

32 Then at Meribah Springs our ancestors caused Yahweh to become angry, and as a result Moses had trouble.

33 They caused Moses to become very angry [IDM], and he said things that were foolish.

34 Our ancestors did not destroy the people who did not believe in Yahweh like he told them to do.

35 Instead, they mingled with people from those people-groups, and they started to do the evil things that those people did.

36 Our ancestors worshiped the idols of those people, which resulted in their being destroyed/exiled/taken to another country [MET].

37 Some of the Israelis sacrificed their sons and daughters to the demons that those idols represented.

- 38 They killed [MTY] their own children, who ◀were innocent/had not done things that were wrong▶, and offered them as sacrifices to the idols in Canaan.
As a result, Canaan land was polluted by those murders [MTY].
- 39 So by their deeds they caused themselves to become unacceptable to God;
because they did not faithfully worship only God,
they became like women who sleep with other men instead of sleeping only with their husbands [MET].
- 40 So Yahweh became very angry with his people;
he was completely disgusted with them.
- 41 As a result he allowed people-groups who did not believe in him to conquer them, so those who hated our ancestors started to rule over them.
- 42 Their enemies ◀oppressed them/treated them cruelly▶ and completely controlled them [MET].
- 43 Many times Yahweh rescued them, but they continued to rebel against him, and they were finally destroyed because of the sins that they committed.
- 44 However, Yahweh always heard them when they cried out to him;
he listened to them when they were distressed.
- 45 For their sake, he thought about the agreement/promise that he had made to bless
them,
and because he never stopped loving them very much,
he changed his mind about punishing them more.
- 46 He caused all those who had taken the Israelis to Babylonia to ◀feel sorry for/pity▶
them.
- 47 Yahweh our God, rescue/save us and bring us back to Israel from among those people-groups in order that we may thank you [MTY] and joyfully praise you.
- 48 Praise Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, praise him now and forever!

And I want everyone to say, "Amen/May it be so!"
Praise Yahweh!

Book Five

107

- 1 Give thanks to Yahweh, because he always does good things for us
His faithful love for us lasts forever!
- 2 Those whom Yahweh has saved should tell others that he has rescued them from their enemies.
- 3 He has gathered those of you who were ◀exiled/taken forcefully▶ to many lands;
he has gathered you together from the east and the west, from the north and from the south.
- 4 Some of those who returned from those countries wandered in the desert;
they were lost and had no homes to live in.
- 5 They were hungry and thirsty, and they were very discouraged.

<sup>6</sup> When they were in trouble, they called out to Yahweh, and he rescued them from ◀being distressed/their difficulties▶.

<sup>7</sup> He led them along a straight road where they walked safely to cities in Canaan where they could live.

<sup>8</sup> They should praise/thank Yahweh for loving them faithfully and for the wonderful things that he does for people.

<sup>9</sup> He gives thirsty people plenty of water to drink, and he gives hungry people plenty of good things to eat.

<sup>10</sup> Some of them were in very dark [HEN] ◀places in Babylonia/other countries▶;
they were prisoners, suffering because of chains fastened to their hands and feet.

<sup>11</sup> They were in prison because they had ◀rebelled against/not obeyed▶ the message of God;

they were there because they had despised the advice given by God, who is greater than all other gods.

<sup>12</sup> That is why their bodies were worn out from hard labor;
when they fell down, there was no one who would help them.

<sup>13</sup> In their troubles, they called out to Yahweh,
and he rescued them from their being distressed.

<sup>14</sup> He broke the chains that were on their hands and feet;
and brought them out of those very dark prisons.

<sup>15-16</sup> He broke down the prison gates that were made of bronze, and cut through the prison bars that were made of iron.

So they also should praise/thank Yahweh for faithfully loving them, and for all the wonderful things that he does for people.

<sup>17</sup> Some of them foolishly rebelled against God, so they suffered for their sins.

<sup>18</sup> They did not want to eat any food, and they almost died.

<sup>19</sup> In their troubles, they also called out to Yahweh,
and he rescued them from their being distressed.

<sup>20</sup> When he commanded that they be healed, they were healed;
he saved them from dying.

<sup>21</sup> They also should praise/thank Yahweh for faithfully loving them, and for all the wonderful things that he does for people.

<sup>22</sup> They should give offerings to him to show that they are thankful, and they should sing joyfully about the miracles that he has performed.

<sup>23</sup> Some of them sailed in ships;
they were selling things in ports throughout the world.

<sup>24</sup> As they were sailing, they also saw the miracles that Yahweh performed, the wonderful things that he did when they were on very deep seas.

<sup>25</sup> He commanded the winds, and they became strong and ◀stirred up high waves/caused waves to rise high▶.

<sup>26</sup> The ships in which they were sailing were tossed high in the air, and then they sank into the ◀troughs/low places▶ between the high waves;

then the sailors were terrified.

<sup>27</sup> They stumbled about and staggered like drunken men,

- and they did not know what to do.
- 28 In their troubles, they also called out to Yahweh, and he rescued them from their distresses.
- 29 He ◀calmed the storm/caused the wind to stop blowing▶, and he caused the waves to completely subside.
- 30 They were very glad when it became calm;
and Yahweh brought them safely into a harbor.
- 31 They also should praise/thank Yahweh for faithfully loving them,
and for all the wonderful things that he does for people.
- 32 They should praise him among the Israeli people when they have gathered together, and they should praise him in front of the leaders of the country.
- 33 Sometimes Yahweh causes rivers to become dry, with the result that the land becomes a desert, and springs of water become dry land.
- 34 Sometimes he causes land that has produced lots of crops to become salty wastelands,
with the result that they do not produce crops.
He does that because the people who live there are very wicked.
- 35 But sometimes he causes pools of water to appear in deserts, and he causes springs to flow in very dry ground.
- 36 He brings hungry people into that land, to live there and build cities there.
- 37 They plant seeds in their fields, and they plant grapevines that produce big crops of grapes.
- 38 He blesses the people, and the women give birth to many children, and they have large herds of cattle.
- 39 When the number of people becomes smaller and they have been humiliated by their enemies
by being oppressed and caused to suffer [DOU],
- 40 Yahweh shows contempt for the leaders who oppress them, and causes them to wander in deserts where there are no roads.
- 41 But he rescues poor people from ◀being in misery/suffering▶, and causes their families to increase in number like flocks of sheep.
- 42 Godly/Righteous people will ◀see/hear about▶ these things, and they will rejoice, and wicked people will hear about these things, too,
but they will have nothing to say in reply.
- 43 Those who are wise should think carefully about those things; they should consider all the things that Yahweh has done to show that he faithfully loves them.

108

A psalm written by David

- 1 God, I am ◀very confident/trusting completely▶ [IDM] in you.
I will sing to praise you.
with all my inner being.
- 2 I will arise before the sun rises,
and I will praise you while I play my big harp and my ◀lyre/small harp▶.
- 3 I prayed, "Yahweh, I will thank you among all the people-groups;
I will sing to praise you among the nations,

- <sup>4</sup> because your faithful love for us reaches up to the heavens, and your faithfully doing what you promise is as great as the distance up to the clouds.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh, show in the heavens that you are very great!
And show your glory to people all over the earth!
- <sup>6</sup> Answer our prayers and by your power help us [MTY] to defeat our enemies in order that we, the people whom you love, may be saved/rescued.”
- <sup>7</sup> And Yahweh answered our prayers and spoke from his temple, saying, “Because I have conquered your enemies, I will joyfully divide everything in Shechem city and I will distribute among my people the valuable things in Succoth Valley.
- <sup>8</sup> The Gilead region is mine;
the people of the tribe of Manasseh are mine;
the tribe of Ephraim is like my war helmet, and the tribe of Judah is like the ◀scepter/stick that I hold which shows that I am the ruler▶ [MET];
- <sup>9</sup> the Moab region is like my washbasin [MET];
I throw my sandal in the Edom area to show that it belongs to me;
I shout triumphantly because I have defeated the people of the Philistia area.”
- <sup>10</sup> Because we want to attack the people of Edom, ◀who will lead my army triumphantly to their capital city that has strong walls around it?/I want someone to lead my army triumphantly to their capital city that has strong walls around it.▶ [RHQ]
- <sup>11</sup> God, we hope that [RHQ] you have not abandoned us, and that you will go with us when our army marches out to fight our enemies.
- <sup>12</sup> We need you to help us when we fight against our enemies,
because the help that humans can give us is worthless.
- <sup>13</sup> But with you helping us, we shall win;
you will enable us to defeat our enemies.

109

A psalm written by David for the choir director

- <sup>1</sup> God, you are the one whom I praise,
So please answer my prayer,
- <sup>2</sup> because wicked people slander me and tell [MTY] lies about me.
- <sup>3</sup> They are constantly saying that they hate me,
and they say evil things about me for no reason.
- <sup>4</sup> I show them that I want to be their friends and I pray for them, but instead of being kind to me, they say that I have done evil things.
- <sup>5</sup> In return for my doing good things for them and loving them, they do evil things to me and hate me.
- <sup>6</sup> They said, “Appoint a wicked judge who will judge him, and bring in one of his enemies who will stand up and accuse him.
- <sup>7</sup> And cause that when the trial ends,
the judge will declare that he is guilty, and that even his prayer will be considered to be a sin.

- 8 Then, cause that he will soon die and that someone else will have his job/work (OR, possessions).
- 9 Cause that his children will not have a father any more and that his wife will become a widow.
- 10 Cause that his children will be forced to leave the ruined homes that they have been living in and wander around begging for food.
- 11 Cause that all the people to whom he owed money will seize all his property;
Cause that strangers will take away everything that he worked to acquire.
- 12 Cause that while he is still living no one will be kind to him, and after he dies, cause that no one will pity his children.
- 13 Cause that all his descendants will die and that his grandchildren will not remember who he [MTY] was.
- 14 Yahweh, remember and do not forgive his ancestors for the evil things that they did,
and do not even forgive the sins that his mother committed;
- 15 think about his sins continually, and cause that his name will be completely forgotten.
- 16 He never was kind to anyone;
he ◀persecuted/cause problems for▶ poor and needy people and even killed helpless people.
- 17 He liked to curse people.
So cause those terrible things that he requested to happen to others to happen to him!
He did not want to bless others,
so cause that no one will bless him!
- 18 He cursed other people as often/easily as he put on his clothes [SIM]; cause that the terrible things that he wanted to happen to others will happen to him and enter his body like water that he drinks [SIM], like olive oil soaks into a person's bones when it is rubbed on his skin [SIM].
- 19 Cause that those terrible things will cling to him like his clothes and be around him like the belt that he wears every day."
- 20 Yahweh, I want you to punish all my enemies that way, those who say evil things about me.
- 21 But Yahweh, my God, do good things for me in order that I may honor you;
rescue me from my enemies
because your faithfully loving me is good.
- 22 I ask you to do this because I am poor and needy and my inner being is ◀full of pain/very troubled/discouraged▶.
- 23 I think that my time to remain alive is short, like an evening shadow that will soon disappear [SIM].
I will be blown away like a locust/grasshopper is blown by the wind.
- 24 My knees are weak because I have ◀fasted/abstained from eating food▶ very often, and my body has become very thin.
- 25 The people who accuse me make fun of me;
when they see me, they insult me by shaking their heads at me as though I were an evil man.
- 26 Yahweh, my God, help me!

Because you faithfully love me, rescue me!

<sup>27</sup> When you save me, cause my enemies to know that you are the one who has done it!

<sup>28</sup> They may curse me, but I ask that you bless me.

Cause those who ◀persecute/cause problems for▶ me to be defeated and as a result to be disgraced/ashamed, and cause me to be glad/happy!

<sup>29</sup> Cause those who accuse me to be completely disgraced;

cause other people to see that they are disgraced, as easily as they see the clothes that they wear [SIM]!

<sup>30</sup> But I will thank Yahweh very greatly;

I will praise him when I am among the crowd of people who are worshiping him.

<sup>31</sup> I will do that because he defends [MTY] needy people like me, and saves us from those who have decided/declared that we must be executed.

110

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to my lord the king,

“Sit here, close to me, in the place of highest honor [MTY] until I completely defeat your enemies [MET] and make them like a stool for your feet!”

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh also said to him, “I will extend your power as king from Jerusalem to other lands;

you will rule over all your enemies.

<sup>3</sup> On the day that you lead your armies into battle, many of your people will volunteer to join your army.

Like the dew refreshes the earth early in the morning, young men will encourage you by coming to help you.”

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh has made a solemn promise, and he will never change his mind;

he has said to the king, “You will be a priest forever servicing Yahweh like Melchizedek did.”

when he becomes angry, he will defeat many kings.

<sup>6</sup> He will judge and punish the people of many nations;

he will fill the land with their corpses.

He will crush the heads of other kings all over the earth.

<sup>7</sup> But my lord the king will drink from streams near the road;

he will be refreshed after defeating his enemies.

111

I will thank Yahweh with my entire inner being, every time I am with a large group of godly/righteous people.

- <sup>2</sup> The things that Yahweh has done are wonderful!
All those who are delighted/pleased with those things desire to ◀study/think about▶ them.
- <sup>3</sup> Because of everything that he does, people greatly honor him and respect him because he is a great king;
the righteous/just things that he does will endure forever.
- <sup>4</sup> He has appointed/established festivals in which we remember the wonderful things that he has done;
Yahweh always is kind and merciful.
- <sup>5</sup> He provides food for those who revere him;
he never forgets the agreement that he made with our ancestors.
- <sup>6</sup> By enabling his people to capture the lands that belonged to other people-groups, he has shown to us, his people, that he is very powerful.
- <sup>7</sup> He [MTY] faithfully does what he has promised and always does what is just/fair, and we can depend on him to help us when he commands us to do things.
- <sup>8</sup> What he commands must be obeyed forever;
and he acted in a true and righteous manner when he gave us those commands.
- <sup>9</sup> He rescued us, his people, from being slaves in Egypt, and he made an agreement with us that will last forever.
He [MTY] is holy and awesome!
- <sup>10</sup> Revering Yahweh is the way to become wise.
All those who obey his commands will know what is good for them to decide to do.
We should praise him forever!

112

◀Happy are/He is pleased with▶ those who revere him, those who happily obey his commands.

- <sup>2</sup> Their children will prosper in their land;
and their descendants will be blessed by God.
- <sup>3</sup> Their families [MTY] will be very wealthy [DOU], and the results of their righteous deeds will endure forever.
- <sup>4</sup> Godly/Righteous people are like lights [SIM] that shine in the darkness on those who are kind, merciful and righteous.
- <sup>5</sup> Things will go well for those who generously lend money to others and who conduct their businesses honestly.
- <sup>6</sup> Righteous people will not be overwhelmed/worried/distressed because of their troubles, and they will never be forgotten by other people.
- <sup>7</sup> They are not afraid of receiving bad news;
they confidently/completely trust in Yahweh.
- <sup>8</sup> They are confident and not afraid, because they know that they will see God defeat their enemies.
- <sup>9</sup> They give things generously to poor/needy people;
the results of their kind deeds will endure forever, and they will be exalted and honored.

<sup>10</sup> Wicked people see those things and are angry;
 they gnash their teeth angrily,
 but they will disappear and die.
 The wicked things that they want to do will never happen.

113

You people who serve Yahweh, praise him!

Praise ◀him/his name▶!

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh should be praised now and forever!

<sup>3</sup> People who live in the east and people who live in the west, everyone, should praise Yahweh [MTY]!

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh rules [MTY] over all the nations, and high in the heavens he shows that his glory is very great.

<sup>5</sup> There is no one [RHQ] who is like Yahweh, our God, who lives/sits/rules in the highest heaven,

<sup>6</sup> and looks far down through the heavens and sees the people on the earth.

<sup>7</sup> Sometimes he lifts poor people up so that they no longer sit in the dirt;
 he helps needy people so that they no longer sit on heaps of ashes <sup>8</sup> and causes them to be honored by sitting next to princes, the sons of the kings who rule their people.

<sup>9</sup> He also enables women who have no children to have a family;
 he causes them to be happy mothers.

Praise Yahweh!

114

 when they who were descendants of Jacob left people who spoke a foreign/different language,

<sup>2</sup> the land of Judah became the place where people worshiped God;
 and Israel became the land (OR, the Israeli people became the people) that he ruled over.

it was as though the water saw them and ran away!

When they came to the Jordan River, that water in the river stopped flowing so that the Israelis could cross it.

<sup>4</sup> When they came to Sinai Mountain and there was a big earthquake, it was as though the mountains skipped/jumped like goats do and the hills jumped around like lambs do.

 What happened that caused the water in the Jordan River to stop flowing?”

<sup>6</sup> What happened that caused the mountains to skip like goats and caused the hills to jump around like lambs?”

<sup>7</sup> I would reply that it was the presence of the Lord that caused those things to happen!

Everyone/Everything on the earth should tremble in the presence of God, whom ◀Jacob worshiped/the Israeli people worship▶!
 8 He is the one who caused pools of water for the Israeli people to drink to flow from a rock;
 he caused a spring to flow from a solid rock cliff!

115

- 1 Yahweh, people should praise only you [MTY];
 they must praise you, not us, because you faithfully love us and always do what you have promised to do.
- 2 It is not right that [RHQ] other people-groups should say about us, “They claim that their God is very powerful,
but if that is true, why does he not help them?”
- 3 Our God is in heaven, and he does whatever he wants to!
- 4 But their idols are only statues made of silver and gold, things that humans have made.
- 5 Their idols have mouths, but they cannot say anything;
 they have eyes, but they cannot see anything.
- 6 They have ears, but they cannot hear anything;
 they have noses, but they cannot smell anything.
- 7 They have hands, but they cannot feel anything;
 they have feet, but they cannot walk,
 and they have throats but cannot even make any sounds!
- 8 The people who make those idols are as powerless as those idols, and those who trust in those idols can accomplish nothing, just like their idols!
- 9 You, my fellow Israeli people, trust in Yahweh!
 He is the one who helps you and protects you like [MET] a shield.
- 10 You priests [MTY], trust in Yahweh!
 He is the one who helps you and protects you like [MET] a shield.
- 11 All you who revere Yahweh, trust in him!
 He is the one who helps you and protects you like [MET] a shield.
- 12 Yahweh has not forgotten us;
 he will bless us Israeli people [MTY]!
 He will bless the priests,
- 13 and he will bless all those who revere him;
 he will bless important people and people who are considered to be unimportant, everyone!
- 14 I desire that Yahweh will give many children to you my fellow-Israeli people, and to your descendants.
- 15 I desire that Yahweh, the one who made heaven and the earth, will bless all of you!
- 16 The highest heavens belong to Yahweh, but he gave everything that is on the earth to us people.
- 17 Dead people are not able to praise Yahweh;
 when they descend into the place where dead people are,
 they are unable to speak and cannot praise him.

<sup>18</sup> But we who are alive will thank/praise him, now and forever.

Praise Yahweh!

116

because he hears me when I cry for him to help me.

<sup>2</sup> He listens to me, so I will call out to him all during my life.

<sup>3</sup> Everything around me [MET] caused me to think that I would die;
I was very afraid that I would die and go to the place where dead people are.
I was very distressed/worried and afraid.

<sup>4</sup> But then I called out to Yahweh, saying,
"Yahweh, I plead with you to save/rescue me!"

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh is kind and does what is right;
he is our God, and he acts mercifully to us.

<sup>6</sup> He protects those who ◀are helpless/cannot defend themselves▶;
and when I thought that I would die, he saved me.

<sup>7</sup> I must encourage/tell myself to ◀have inner peace/not worry any more▶, because Yahweh has done very good things for me.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh has saved me [SYN] from dying, and has kept/protected me from troubles that would cause me to cry.
He has kept/protected me from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup> So here on the earth, where people are still alive,
I live knowing that Yahweh is directing me.

<sup>10</sup> I continued to believe/trust in Yahweh, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted/troubled."

<sup>11</sup> Even when I was distressed/worried and said, "I cannot trust anyone,"
I continued to trust in Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup> So now I will tell you [RHQ] what I will offer to Yahweh, because of all the good things that he has done for me.

<sup>13</sup> I will offer to him a cup of wine to thank him for saving/rescuing me.

<sup>14</sup> When I am together with many [HYP] people who belong to Yahweh,
I will give to him the offerings that I solemnly promised to give to him.

I serve him like my mother did.
He has freed/saved me from dying (OR, from being fastened by chains).

<sup>17</sup> So I will offer to him a sacrifice to thank him, and I will pray to him.

<sup>18-19</sup> When I am together with many of [HYP] the people who belong to Yahweh, in the courtyard outside his temple in Jerusalem,

I will give to him the offerings that I solemnly promised to give to him.

Praise Yahweh!

117

<sup>1</sup> You people of all nations, praise Yahweh!

All you people-groups, extol/praise him,

<sup>2</sup> because he faithfully loves us very much.

and he will forever faithfully do for us what he promised that he would do.

Praise Yahweh!

118

<sup>1</sup> Tell Yahweh that you thank him very much for the good things that he has done for you

He faithfully loves us, his people, forever.

<sup>2</sup> You Israeli people should repeatedly shout,
"He faithfully loves us, his people, forever!"

<sup>3</sup> You priests who are descendants of Aaron should repeatedly shout,
"He faithfully loves us, his people, forever!"

<sup>4</sup> All you who revere him should repeatedly shout,
"He faithfully loves us, his people, forever!"

<sup>5</sup> When I was distressed, I called out to Yahweh, and he answered me and set me free from my worries/troubles.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh is ◀on my side/helping me▶, so I will not be afraid of anything.
No one [RHQ] can do anything that will prevent God from blessing me forever.

<sup>7</sup> Yes, Yahweh is ◀on my side/helping me▶, so I will look triumphantly at my enemies while he defeats them.

<sup>8</sup> It is better to trust in Yahweh than to ◀depend on/trust in▶ people.

<sup>9</sup> It is better to trust Yahweh to protect us than to trust that influential/important people will protect us.

<sup>10</sup> Armies of [MTY] many nations surrounded me,
but Yahweh enabled me to defeat them by his power [MTY].

<sup>11</sup> They completely surrounded me,
but I defeated them all by the power of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup> They swarmed around me like angry bees;
they were like a fire that blazes strongly, but only briefly, in a thornbush, but I defeated them by the power [MTY] that Yahweh gave me.

<sup>13</sup> My enemies attacked me fiercely and almost defeated me, but Yahweh helped me.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh is the one who makes me strong, and he is the one about whom I always sing;
he has saved me from my enemies.

- 15 Listen to the joyful songs of victory being sung in the tents of godly/righteous people!
They sing, "Yahweh has defeated our enemies by his mighty power [MTY];
- 16 he has raised his strong right arm to show he has defeated his enemies.
Yahweh has completely defeated them!"
- 17 I will not be killed in battle;
I will live to proclaim the great things that Yahweh has done.
- 18 Yahweh has punished me severely, but he has not allowed ◀me to die/my enemies to kill me▶.
- 19 You gatekeepers, open for me the gates of the temple in order that I may enter and thank Yahweh.
- 20 Those are the gates through which we enter the temple to worship Yahweh;
godly/righteous people enter those gates.
- 21 Yahweh, I thank you that you answered my prayer, and you saved me from my enemies.
- 22 Yahweh's promised/chosen king is like [MET] the stone which the builders rejected
when they were building a house, but that stone became the ◀cornerstone/most important stone in the building▶.
- 23 ◀This was done by Yahweh/Yahweh has done this▶,
and it is a wonderful thing for us to see.
- 24 This is the day in which we remember that Yahweh acted powerfully to defeat our enemies;
we will rejoice and be glad/happy today.
- 25 Yahweh, we plead with you to keep rescuing us from our enemies.

“Yahweh, rescue/save me from people [SYN, MTY] who lie to me and try to deceive me!”

- <sup>3</sup> You people who lie to me, I will tell you [RHQ] what God will do to you and what he will do to punish you.
- <sup>4</sup> He will shoot sharp arrows at you like soldiers do, and he will burn you with red-hot coals from the wood of a broom tree.
- <sup>5</sup> It is terrible for me, living among cruel/savage [DOU] people like those who live in Meshech region and Kedar region.
- <sup>6</sup> I have lived for a long time among people who hate to live with others peacefully.
- <sup>7</sup> Every time I talk about living together peacefully, they talk about starting a war.

121

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> When we travel toward Jerusalem,
I look up toward the hills and I ask myself, "Who will help me?"
- <sup>2</sup> And my answer is that Yahweh is the one who helps me; he is the one who made heaven and the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> He will not allow us to fall/stumble; God, who protects us, will not fall asleep.
- <sup>4</sup> The one who protects us Israeli people never gets sleepy, nor does he sleep [LIT].
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh watches over us; he is like the shade [MET] that protects us from the sun.
- <sup>6</sup> He will not allow the sun to harm us during the day, and he will not allow the moon to harm us during the night.
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh will protect us from being harmed in any manner; he will keep us safe.
- <sup>8</sup> He will protect us from the time that we leave our houses in the morning until we return in the evening; he will protect us now, and he will protect us forever.

122

A psalm written by David for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> I was glad/happy when people said to me, "We should go to the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem!"
- <sup>2</sup> And now we are here, standing inside the gates/city of [APO] Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> Jerusalem is a city that has been rebuilt, with the result that people can gather together in it.
- <sup>4</sup> We people of the tribes of Israel who belong to Yahweh can now go up there as Yahweh commanded that we should do, and we can thank him.
- <sup>5</sup> There the kings of Israel who were descendants of King David sit on their thrones and decide cases fairly when the people have disputes.
- <sup>6</sup> Pray that there will be peace in Jerusalem; I desire that those who love Jerusalem will ◀prosper/live peacefully▶.

- <sup>7</sup> I desire that there will be peace inside the walls of the city and that people who are inside the palaces will be safe.
- <sup>8</sup> For the sake of my relatives and friends, I say, “My desire is that that inside Jerusalem people will live peacefully.”
- <sup>9</sup> And because I love the temple of Yahweh our God,
I pray that things will go well for the people who live in Jerusalem.

123

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I look up toward you, up to heaven, from where you rule.
- <sup>2</sup> Like servants ask [IDM] their masters for what they need and like maids ask t their mistresses for what they need, we ask you, Yahweh our God, for what we need,
and we ask you to be merciful to us.
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, be very merciful [DOU] to us because our enemies have acted very contemptuously toward us.
- <sup>4</sup> Rich people have made fun of us for a long time, and proud people who have ◀oppressed/acted cruelly toward▶ us have acted toward us as though we were worthless.

124

A psalm written by David for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> You Israeli people, answer this question:
What would have happened to us if Yahweh had not been ◀helping/fighting for▶ us?
- <sup>2</sup> When our enemies attacked us,
if Yahweh had not been fighting for us,
- <sup>3</sup> we would have all been killed [IDM] because they were very angry with us!
- <sup>4</sup> They would have been like [MET] a flood that swept/carried us away;
it would have been as though the water would have covered us, <sup>5</sup> and we would all have drowned in the flood that was ◀raging/flowing very fast▶.
- <sup>6</sup> But praise Yahweh, because he has not allowed our enemies to destroy us like wild animals [MET] tear apart the creatures that they capture.
- <sup>7</sup> We have escaped from our enemies like a bird escapes from the trap that hunters have set;
it is as though the trap that our enemies set for us was broken and we have escaped from it!
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is the one who helps us [MTY];
he is the one who made heaven and the earth.

125

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> Those/We who trust in Yahweh are as secure/steadfast [SIM] as Zion Hill, which cannot be shaken and can never be moved.
- <sup>2</sup> Like the hills that surround Jerusalem protect the city,

Yahweh protects us, his people, and he will protect us forever.

- <sup>3</sup> Wicked people [MTY] should not be allowed to rule over the land where righteous people live.
If they did that, those righteous people might ◀be encouraged to imitate them and▶ do things that are wrong.
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, do good things to those who do good things to others and to those who sincerely obey your commands [IDM].
- <sup>5</sup> But when you punish the wicked people who are not Israelis, also punish those Israelis who turn away from walking on the good roads [MET] that you have shown them!

I wish that things will go well for people in Israel!

126

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> When Yahweh brought us Israeli people back to Jerusalem (OR, enabled us Israelis to prosper again),
it was wonderful;
it seemed as though [SIM] we were dreaming.
- <sup>2</sup> We were extremely happy, and we [SYN] continued shouting joyfully.
Then the other people-groups said about us, “Yahweh has done great things for them!”
- <sup>3</sup> And we say, “Yes, Yahweh truly has done great things for us, and we are very happy.”
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, when it rains, water flows in the streams again after they were dry [SIM].
Similarly, enable our nation to become great again like it was before.
- <sup>5</sup> We cried when we planted seeds because it was hard work preparing the soil that had not been plowed for many years;
now we want to shout joyfully because we are gathering a big harvest.
- <sup>6</sup> Those who cried as they carried the bags of seeds to the fields will shout joyfully when they bring the crops to their houses at harvest time.

127

A psalm written by Solomon for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> If people are building a house without knowing whether it is Yahweh’s will to build it,
they are building it in vain.
Similarly, if Yahweh does not protect a city, it is useless for guards/sentries to stay awake to tell people if their enemies come to attack it.
- <sup>2</sup> It is also useless to arise very early and go to sleep late at night in order that you can work hard all day to earn money to buy food, because Yahweh gives food to those whom he loves.
- <sup>3</sup> Children are a gift that comes to parents from Yahweh;

they are a reward/blessing from him.

<sup>4</sup> If a man has sons while he is still young, when they grow up, they will be able to help him defend his family like [SIM] a soldier can defend himself if he has a bow and arrows in his hand.

<sup>5</sup> A man who has many sons is very happy, like [MET] a soldier who has many arrows in his quiver is very happy.
 If a man with his many grown sons is taken by his enemies to the place where they decide matters, his enemies will never be able to defeat that man, because his sons will help to defend him.

128

A psalm written for those going up to the temple to worship

<sup>1</sup> ◀Happy are/Yahweh is pleased with▶ those of you who revere him and do what he wants you to do [IDM].

<sup>2</sup> You will be able to earn the money that you [MTY] need to buy food;
 you will be happy and you will be prosperous.

<sup>3</sup> Your wife will be like a grapevine that bears many grapes [SIM];
 she will give birth to many children.

Your children who sit around your table will be like a strong olive tree that has many shoots growing up around it [SIM].

<sup>4</sup> Every man who reveres Yahweh will be blessed like that.

<sup>5</sup> I wish/hope that Yahweh will bless all of you from where he dwells ◀on Zion Hill/in Jerusalem▶

and that you will see the people of Jerusalem prospering every day that you live!

<sup>6</sup> I desire that you will live many years, long enough to see your grandchildren.

I desire/hope that things will go well for the people in Israel!

129

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

<sup>1</sup> I say that my enemies have ◀afflicted/caused trouble for▶ me ever since I was young.

Now I ask you, my fellow Israelis, to repeat those same words:

<sup>2</sup> "Our enemies have afflicted us since our nation began,
 but they have not defeated us!

<sup>3</sup> Our enemies struck us with whips that cut into our backs [MET] like a farmer uses a plow to cut deep furrows into the ground."

<sup>4</sup> But Yahweh is righteous, and he has freed me from being a slave [MTY] of wicked people.

<sup>5</sup> I wish/hope that all those who hate Jerusalem/Israel will be ashamed because of being defeated.

<sup>6</sup> I hope/wish that they will be of no value, like grass that grows on the roofs of houses that dries up and does not grow tall;

<sup>7</sup> as a result no one cuts it and puts it in bundles and carries it away.

<sup>8</sup> People who pass by and see men harvesting grain usually greet them by saying to
them,

“We wish/hope that Yahweh will bless you!”
 But this will not happen to those who hate Israel.
 We, acting as Yahweh’s representatives, bless you Israelis.

130

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I have a lot of troubles/many difficulties, so I call out to you.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, hear me, while I call out to you [SYN] to be merciful to me!
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, if you kept a record of the sins that we have committed, not one of us [RHQ] would escape from being condemned and punished
- <sup>4</sup> But you forgive us, with the result that we greatly revere you.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh has said that he would help/rescue me;
 I trust what he said, and I wait eagerly for him to do that.
- <sup>6</sup> I wait for Yahweh to help me more than watchmen wait for the light to dawn;
 yes, I wait more eagerly than they do!
- <sup>7</sup> You my fellow Israelis, confidently expect that Yahweh will bless us.
He will bless us because he faithfully loves us, and he is very willing to save/rescue us.
- <sup>8</sup> And he will save us Israeli people from being punished for all the sins that we have committed.

131

A psalm written by David for people going up to the temple to worship

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I am not proud and I have not thought highly about ◀myself/the things that I have done▶.
 And I do not concern myself about things that you have done that are very big or very wonderful.
- <sup>2</sup> Instead, I am calm and peaceful, like a small child who lies quietly in its mother’s arms [SIM].
 In the same way, I am peaceful.
- <sup>3</sup> You my fellow Israelis, confidently expect that Yahweh will do good things for you,
 now and forever!

132

A song to sing along the road up to Jerusalem

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, do not forget King David and all the hardships/troubles he endured!
- <sup>2</sup> He made a solemn promise to you,
 the mighty God whom our ancestor Jacob worshipped.
- <sup>3</sup> He said, “I will not go home,
 I will not rest on my bed,
<sup>4</sup> I will not sleep at all

<sup>5</sup> until I build a place for Yahweh, a home for the mighty God whom Jacob worshipped."

<sup>6</sup> In Bethlehem we heard news about the sacred chest.
We went and found it in the fields of Jearim city, and we took it to Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> Later we said, "Let's go to the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem; let's worship there in front of the throne where he sits."

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, come to the place where you live eternally, to the place where your sacred chest is,
to that place that shows that you are very powerful.

<sup>9</sup> I want/desire that the righteous behavior of your priests will always be evident, just like the beautiful robes that they wear [MET], and that your people will always shout joyfully.

<sup>10</sup> You chose David to serve you as king of Israel;
do not reject/abandon him!

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh, you made a solemn promise to David, a promise that you will not break.

You said, "I will cause your descendants to rule [MTY] as kings like you.

<sup>12</sup> If they keep my agreement with them and obey all the commands that I will give them, the line of kings descended from you will never end."

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh has chosen Jerusalem;
he has wanted to make that city his home;

<sup>14</sup> he said, "This is the city where I will live forever [DOU];
this is the place where I wanted to stay.

<sup>15</sup> I will give to the people of Jerusalem all that they need;
I will give enough food even to satisfy the poor people there.

<sup>16</sup> I will cause the priests to behave in a manner worthy of being ones whom I have saved;
that will be as evident as the beautiful robes that they wear [MET];
and all my people who live there will shout joyfully.

<sup>17</sup> There in Jerusalem I will cause one of David's descendants [MET] to become a great king;

he also will be my chosen king, and he will be like a bright lamp [MET] that shines continually.

<sup>18</sup> I will defeat his enemies and cause them to be very ashamed/disgraced; but the crown that my king wears will always shine."

133

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

<sup>1</sup> It is very good and very pleasant for God's people to gather together harmoniously.

<sup>2</sup> It is as delightful as the precious/expensive ◀olive oil/perfume▶ that runs down from the Supreme Priest Aaron's head onto his beard when he is anointed
and runs down onto the collar of his robes.

<sup>3</sup> Gathering together harmoniously is as delightful as the dew that falls on Hermon
Mountain
 and the dew that falls on the hills near Zion Hill.
 Yahweh has promised to bless his people there in Jerusalem
 by giving them everlasting (OR, a long-lasting) life.

134

A psalm written for people going up to the temple to worship

<sup>1</sup> All you people who serve Yahweh, who stand up and ◀serve/pray to▶ him at night in his temple, come and praise him!
<sup>2</sup> Lift up your hands/arms to pray to him in the temple and praise him!

<sup>3</sup> And I want Yahweh, who created heaven and the earth, to bless you from where he lives in the temple on Zion Hill.

135

 You who ◀do work for/serve▶ Yahweh, praise him!

<sup>2</sup> You who stand in the temple of Yahweh our God and in the surrounding courtyard, praise him [MTY]!

<sup>3</sup> Praise Yahweh, because he does good things for us;
 sing to him [MTY], because he is kind to us.

<sup>4</sup> He has chosen us, the descendants of Jacob;
 he has chosen us Israelis to belong to him [DOU].

<sup>5</sup> I know that Yahweh is great;
 he is greater than all the gods.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh does whatever he desires to do, in heaven and on the earth and in the seas/oceans, down to the bottom of the seas.

<sup>7</sup> He is the one who causes clouds to appear from very distant places on the earth;
 he sends lightning with the rain, and he brings the winds from the places where he stores them.

<sup>8</sup> He is the one who killed all the firstborn males in Egypt, the firstborn of people and of animals.

<sup>9</sup> There he performed many kinds of miracles [DOU] to punish the king and all his officials.

<sup>10</sup> He destroyed many nations and the powerful kings who ruled them:

<sup>11</sup> Sihon, the king of the Amor people-group, and Og, the king of Bashan region,
 and all the other kings in Canaan land.

<sup>12</sup> Then he gave their land to us Israeli people to belong to us forever.

and people who are not yet born will remember the great things that you have done.

14 Yahweh, you declare that we your people ◀are innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶, and you are merciful to us.

15 But the idols that the other people-groups worship are only statues made of silver and gold, things that humans have made.

16 Their idols have mouths, but they cannot say anything;
they have eyes, but they cannot see anything.

17 They have ears, but they cannot hear anything, and they are not even able to breathe.

18 The people who make those idols are as powerless as those idols, and those who trust in those idols can accomplish no more than their idols can!

19 My fellow Israelis, praise Yahweh!

You priests who are descended from Aaron, praise Yahweh!

20 You men who are descended from Levi, you who assist the priests, praise Yahweh!
All you who revere Yahweh, praise him!

21 Praise Yahweh in the temple on Zion Hill in Jerusalem, where he lives!

Praise Yahweh!

136

1 Thank Yahweh, because he does good things for us;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

2 Thank God, the one who is greater than all other gods;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

3 Thank the Lord who is greater than all other lords/rulers;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

4 He is the only one who performs great miracles;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

5 He is the one who by being very wise created the heavens;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

6 He is the one who caused the ground to rise up above the deep waters;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

7 He is the one who created great lights in the sky;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

8 He created the sun to shine in the daytime;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

9 He created the moon and stars to shine during the nighttime;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

10 He is the one who killed the firstborn males in Egypt;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

11 He led the Israeli people out of Egypt;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

12 With his ◀strong hand/great power▶ he led them out;

his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>13</sup> He is the one who caused the Red Sea to divide;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>14</sup> He enabled the Israeli people to walk through it on dry land;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>15</sup> But he caused the king of Egypt and his army to drown in it;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>16</sup> He is the one who led his people safely through the desert;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>17</sup> He killed powerful kings;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>18</sup> He killed kings who were famous;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>19</sup> He killed Sihon, the king of the Amor people-group;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>20</sup> He killed Og, the king of Bashan region;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>21</sup> He gave their lands to us, his people;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>22</sup> He gave those lands to us people of Israel, who serve him;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>23</sup> He is the one who did not forget about us when we were defeated by our enemies;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>24</sup> He rescued us from our enemies;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>25</sup> He is the one who gives food to all living creatures;
his faithful love for us endures forever.

<sup>26</sup> So thank God, who lives in heaven, for all those things, because his faithful love for us endures forever!

137

we sat down by the rivers there, and we cried when we thought about the temple on Zion Hill in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> On the willow trees alongside the rivers we hung our harps because we did not want to play them any more because we were very sad.

<sup>3</sup> The soldiers who had captured us and taken us to Babylonia told us to sing for them;
they told us to ◀entertain them/make them happy▶, saying, “Sing for us one of the songs that you previously sang in Jerusalem!”

<sup>4</sup> But we thought, “We are sad because we have been punished by Yahweh and brought to this foreign land,
so we cannot [RHQ] sing songs about Yahweh while we are here!”

<sup>5</sup> If I forget about Jerusalem [APO], let my right hand wither with the result that I will be unable to play my harp

<sup>6</sup> Do not allow me to sing again [MTY], if I forget about Jerusalem, if I do not consider that Jerusalem causes me to be more joyful than anything else does.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, punish the people of the Edom people-group for what they did on the day that the army of Babylon captured Jerusalem.
Do not forget that they said, “Tear down all the buildings! Destroy them completely! Leave only the foundations!”

<sup>8</sup> And you people of Babylon, you will certainly be destroyed!
Those who punish you in return for what you did to us will be happy;
<sup>9</sup> they will take your babies and completely smash them on the rocks.

138

A psalm written by David

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I thank you with all my inner being.
I sing to praise you in front of the idols of false gods to ridicule/belittle them.
<sup>2</sup> I bow down while I look towards your sacred temple, and I thank you [MTY] because you faithfully love us and faithfully do all that you have promised.
You have shown that both you [MTY] and what you have promised to do are greater than anything else.
<sup>3</sup> On the day when I called out to you, you answered me;
you enabled me to be strong and brave.
<sup>4</sup> Yahweh, some day all the kings of this earth will praise you, because they will have heard what you have said.
<sup>5</sup> They will sing about what you have done;
they will sing and say that you are very great.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, you are supreme, but you take care of people who are considered to be unimportant.
And you know what proud people are doing, even though they are far away from you and think that you do not see them.
<sup>7</sup> When I am in the midst of many troubles/difficulties, you save/rescue me.
With your hand/power [MTY] you rescue me from my enemies who are angry at me.
<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, you will do for me everything that you promised;
you faithfully love us forever.
Finish what you started to do for us, your Israeli people.

139

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you have examined me, and you know everything about me.
<sup>2</sup> You know when I sit down and when I stand up.
Even though you are far away from me,

- you know what I am thinking.
<sup>3</sup> When I travel and when I lie down, you know everything that I do.
<sup>4</sup> Yahweh, even before I say [MTY] anything, you know everything that I am going to say!
- <sup>5</sup> You protect me on all sides;
 you put your hand on me to protect me with your power [MTY].
<sup>6</sup> I am not able to understand that you know everything about me.
 That is too great for me to really understand.
- <sup>7</sup> ◀Where could I go to escape from your Spirit?/I could not go anywhere to escape from your Spirit.▶ [RHQ] ◀Where could I go to get away from you?/I could not go anywhere to get away from you.▶ [RHQ]
- <sup>8</sup> If I went up to heaven, you would be there.
 If I lay down in the place where the dead people are, you would be there.
<sup>9</sup> If I had wings and flew very far east [MTY], or if I flew west and made a place to live on an island in the ocean, <sup>10</sup> you would be there also, to lead me by your hand, and you would help me.
- <sup>11</sup> I could request the darkness to hide me, or I could request the light around me to become darkness, <sup>12</sup> but even if that happened, the darkness would not be darkness for you!
 For you, the night is as bright as the daytime is, because for you, daylight and darkness are ◀not different/the same▶.
- <sup>13</sup> You created all the parts of my body;
 you put the parts of my body together when I was still in my mother's womb.
<sup>14</sup> I praise you because you made my body in a very awesome and wonderful way.
 Everything that you do is amazing!
 I know that very well.
<sup>15</sup> When my body was being formed, while it was being put together where no one else could see it,
 you saw it!
<sup>16</sup> You saw me before I was born.
 You wrote in your book the number of days that you had decided that I would live.
 You did that before any of those days had even started!
- <sup>17</sup> God, what you think about me is very precious (OR, is very hard to understand).
 There is a great number of things that you think about.
<sup>18</sup> If I could count them, I would see that they are more than the grains of sand at the seashore.
 And when I wake up, I am still with you and I know that there are still more of your thoughts about me to count.
- <sup>19</sup> God, I desire that you would kill all the wicked people!
 And I wish that violent [MTY] men would ◀leave/go away from▶ me.
<sup>20</sup> They say wicked/malicious things about you;
 they slander your name.

- 21 Yahweh, I certainly [RHQ] hate those who hate you!
And I despise [RHQ] those who rebel against you.
- 22 I hate them completely, and I consider that they are my enemies.
- 23 God, search my inner being;
find out what I am thinking!
- 24 Find out whether there is anything evil in my inner being, and lead me along the road that leads to my being with you forever.

140

A psalm written by David

- 1 Yahweh, rescue/save me from being attacked by evil men;
and even more, ◀keep me safe/protect me▶ from being attacked by violent people.
- 2 They are always planning to do evil things and they are always inciting/urging people to start quarrels.
- 3 By what they say [MTY] they injure people like poisonous snakes do;
the words that they speak [MTY] can kill people as easily as cobras/vipers do.
(Think about that!)
- 4 Yahweh, protect me from the power [MTY] of wicked people.
Keep me safe from violent men who plan to destroy me [SYN].
- 5 It is as though proud people have set a trap for me;
it is as though they have spread their nets to catch me;
it is as though they have put those things along the road to catch/seize me.
(Think about that!)
- 6 I say to you, "Yahweh, you are my God;"
so listen to me while I cry out to you to help me.
- 7 Yahweh, my Lord, you are the one who defends me strongly;
you have protected me during battles [MET] as though you had put a helmet on my head.
- 8 Yahweh, do allow wicked people to do the things that they desire, and do not allow them to do the evil things that they plan to do.
(Think about that!)
- 9 Do not allow my enemies to ◀become proud/defeat me▶;
cause the evil things that they say [MTY] they will do to me to happen to them, instead.
- 10 Cause burning coals to fall on their heads!
Cause them to be thrown into deep pits, from which they cannot climb out!
- 11 Do not allow those who slander others to succeed;
cause evil things to happen to violent men and destroy them!
- 12 Yahweh, I know that you defend those who are oppressed, and that you do what is just/fair for those who are needy/poor.
- 13 Righteous people will surely thank you [MTY], and they will live ◀in your presence/with you▶.

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I call out to you;
please help me quickly!
 Listen to me when I am calling to you.
- <sup>2</sup> Accept my prayer as though it were incense being burned as an offering [SIM] to you.
 And accept me while I lift up my hands to pray to you like you accept sacrifices that I offer to you each evening [SIM].
- <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, do not allow me to say [MTY] things that are wrong;
 guard my lips.
- <sup>4</sup> Prevent me from wanting to do anything that is wrong, and from joining with wicked men when they want to do evil deeds [DOU].
 Do not even allow me to share in eating delightful food with them!
- <sup>5</sup> It is all right if righteous people strike/hit me or rebuke me because they are trying to act kindly toward me to teach me to do what is right, but I do not want wicked people to honor me by anointing my head with olive oil;
 I am always praying that you will punish them because of the wicked deeds that they do.
- <sup>6</sup> When their rulers are thrown down from the top of rocky cliffs, people will know that what you, Yahweh, said about them is true.
- <sup>7</sup> Like a log that is split and cut into small pieces [SIM], their shattered bones will be scattered on the ground near other graves.
- <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh God, I continue to ask you to help me.
 I ask you to protect me;
 do not allow me to ◀die/be killed▶ now!
- <sup>9</sup> It is as though people have set traps for me;
 protect me from falling into those traps,
It is as though they have spread nets to catch me;
 keep me from being caught in those nets.
- <sup>10</sup> I desire that wicked people will fall into the traps they have set to catch me while I escape from them.

142

A psalm that David prayed when he was hiding in a cave

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I cry out to you;
 I plead with you to help me.
- <sup>2</sup> I am bringing to you all my problems;
 I am telling you all my troubles/difficulties.
- <sup>3</sup> When I am very discouraged, you know what I should do.
- Wherever I walk, it is as though my enemies have hidden traps for me to fall into.
- <sup>4</sup> I look around, but there is no one who pays attention to me,
 no one who will protect me,
 no one who cares about what happens to me.

- <sup>5</sup> So Yahweh, I cry out to you to help me;
 you are the one who protects me;
 and you are all that I need while I am alive.
- <sup>6</sup> Listen to me while I cry out to you for help, because I am very distressed.
 Rescue/Save me from those who are pursuing me, because they are very strong,
 with the result that I cannot escape from them.
- <sup>7</sup> Free/Rescue me from my troubles/difficulties [MET] in order that I may thank you.

If you do that, when I am with godly/righteous people,
I will praise you for having been very good to me.

143

A psalm written by David

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh, hear me while I pray to you!
 Because you are righteous and because you faithfully do what you have promised, listen to what I am pleading that you do for me.
- <sup>2</sup> I am one who serves you;
 do not judge me,
 because you know that everyone has done things that are wrong▶.
- <sup>3</sup> My enemies have pursued me;
 they have completely defeated me.
It is as though they have put me in a dark prison, where I have nothing good to ◀hope for/expect▶, like those who died long ago [SIM].
- <sup>4</sup> So I am very discouraged;
 I am very dismayed/worried.
- <sup>5</sup> I remember what has happened previously:
 I ◀meditate on/think about▶ all the things that you have done;
 I consider all the great deeds that you [SYN] have performed.
- <sup>6</sup> I lift up my hands/arms to you while I pray;
 I [SYN] need you, like very dry ground needs rain [SIM].
(Think about that!)
- <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, I am very discouraged, so please answer me right now!
 Do not hide from me, because if you do that, I will soon be [SIM] among those who descend to where the dead people are.
- <sup>8</sup> Every morning cause me to remember that you faithfully love me, because I trust in you.
 I ◀pray/send my prayers up [IDM]▶ to you;
 show me what I should do.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh, I have gone/run to you to be protected, so rescue me from my enemies.
- <sup>10</sup> You are my God;

teach me to do what you want me to do.
I want your good Spirit to lead me on a path that is not difficult to walk on.

- 11 Yahweh, restore me when I am close to dying, as you promised to do.
Because you are righteous/good, rescue me from my troubles/difficulties!
12 I am one who serves you;
so because you faithfully love me, kill my enemies
and get rid of all those who ◀oppress/cause trouble for▶ me.

144

Written by David

- 1 I praise Yahweh, who is like an overhanging rock under which I ◀get refuge/am protected▶!
He trains my hands so that I can use them to fight battles;
he trains my fingers so that I can shoot arrows in a war.
2 He is the one who protects me;
he is like a fortress [DOU] in which I am safe, he protects me like shields protect soldiers [MET],
and he gives me refuge.
He defeats other nations and then puts them under my power.
3 Yahweh, we people are very insignificant/unimportant, so why ◀are you concerned/do you care about us▶ [RHQ]?
It is amazing to me that you pay attention to humans.
4 The time that we live is as short as [SIM] a puff of wind;
our time to live disappears like a shadow does.
5 Yahweh, ◀tear open/open up▶ the sky and come down!
Touch the mountains in order that smoke will pour out from them!
6 Cause lightning to flash with the result that your enemies will run away!
Shoot your arrows at them and cause them to ◀run away/scatter▶.
7 It is as though my enemies surround me like a flood;
reach your hand down from heaven and rescue me from them [SYN].
They are men from other countries
8 who [SYN] always tell lies.
Even in a courtroom where they swear to tell the truth
they tell lies.
9 God, I will sing a new song to you, and I will play my ten-stringed harp while I sing to you.
10 You enable kings to defeat their enemies; and you rescued me, your servant David, from being killed by my enemies'
swords.
11 So I ask you to save me from being killed by the swords that those evil people carry.
Rescue me from the power [MTY] of those foreigners who [SYN] always tell lies,

and who raise their right hands in courtrooms when they solemnly declare that they will tell the truth.

<sup>12</sup> I wish/hope that our young sons will grow up to be like strong plants [SIM], and I wish/hope that our daughters will grow up to be straight and tall like the pillars [SIM] that stand in the corners of palaces.

<sup>13</sup> I wish/hope that our barns will be full of many different crops. I wish/hope that the sheep in our fields will give birth to tens of thousands of baby lambs.

<sup>14</sup> I wish/hope that our cows will give birth to many calves without having any miscarriages or deaths when they are born (OR, that no enemies will break through our city walls and take us ◀into exile/to their own countries▶). I wish/hope that there will not be a time when the people in our streets cry out in distress because foreign armies are invading.

<sup>15</sup> If good things like that happen to a nation, the people will be very happy. The people whose God is Yahweh are the ones who will be happy!

145

A psalm written by David to praise God

<sup>1</sup> My God and King, I will proclaim that you are very great/glorious; I will praise you [MTY] now and forever.

<sup>2</sup> Every day I will praise you; Yes, I will praise you [MTY] forever.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh you are great, and ◀you ought to be praised/people should praise you▶ very much; we cannot fully realize how great you are.

<sup>4</sup> Parents should tell their children the things that you have done; they should tell their children about your mighty deeds.

<sup>5</sup> They should tell them that you are very glorious and majestic [DOU], and I will ◀meditate on/think about▶ all your wonderful deeds.

<sup>6</sup> People will speak about your powerful and awesome deeds, and I will proclaim that you are very great.

<sup>7</sup> People will remember and proclaim that you are very good to us, and they will sing joyfully that you always act justly/fairly.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, you are kind and merciful to us; you do not quickly become angry; you faithfully love us very much.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, you are good to everyone, and you are merciful to everything that you have made.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh, all the creatures that you made will thank you, and all your people will praise you.

<sup>11</sup> They will tell others that you rule gloriously as our king and that you are very powerful.

<sup>12</sup> They will do that in order that everyone will know about your powerful deeds and that you rule over us gloriously.

<sup>13</sup> You will never stop being king;
you will rule ◀throughout all generations/forever▶.
Yahweh, you faithfully do all that you have promised to do, and all that you do, you do mercifully.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh, you help all those who are discouraged and you lift up all those who ◀stumble and fall down/are distressed▶.
<sup>15</sup> All of the creatures that you made expect that you will provide food for them, and you give them food when they need it.
<sup>16</sup> You give food to all living creatures generously [IDM], and you cause them to ◀be satisfied/have all the food that they need▶.
<sup>17</sup> Everything that Yahweh does, he does justly/fairly, and all that he does, he does mercifully.
<sup>18</sup> Yahweh ◀comes near to/is ready to help▶ all those who call out to him, to those who call to him sincerely.
<sup>19</sup> To all those who revere him, he gives them what they need.
He hears them when they cry out to him, and saves/rescues them.
<sup>20</sup> Yahweh protects all those who love him, but he will get rid of all the wicked people.
<sup>21</sup> I [SYN] will always praise Yahweh;
He is holy; and I wish/hope that everyone will praise him [MTY] forever.

146

With my whole inner being I will praise Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup> I will praise Yahweh as long as I am alive;
I will sing to praise my God for the rest of my life.

<sup>3</sup> You people, do not trust in your leaders; do not trust humans because they cannot save/rescue you from your difficulties/ problems.

<sup>4</sup> And when they die, their corpses decay and become soil again.
After they die, they can no longer do the things that they planned to do.

<sup>5</sup> But those whose helper is the God whom Jacob worshiped are happy.
The one whom they confidently expect to help them is Yahweh, their God.

<sup>6</sup> He is the one who created heaven and the earth and the oceans and all the creatures that are in them.
He always does what he has promised to do.

<sup>7</sup> He decides matters fairly for those who are ◀treated unfairly/oppressed▶, and he provides food for those who are hungry.
He frees those who are in prison.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh enables those who are blind to see again.
He lifts up those who have fallen down.

He loves righteous people.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh takes care of those from other countries who live in our land, and he helps widows and orphans.

But he gets rid of wicked people.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh will continue to be our king forever;
you people of Israel, your God will rule forever!

Praise Yahweh!

147

<sup>1</sup> Praise Yahweh!

It is good to sing to praise our God.
It is a delightful thing to do and the right thing to do.

<sup>2</sup> Jerusalem was destroyed, but Yahweh is enabling us to build Jerusalem again.
He is bringing back the people who were taken to Babylonia.

<sup>3</sup> He enables those who were very discouraged to be encouraged again;
it is as though they have wounds and he bandages them.

<sup>4</sup> He has determined how many stars there will be,
and he gives names to all of them.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh is great and very powerful,
and no one can measure how much he understands.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh lifts up those who have been oppressed, and he throws the wicked down to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Thank Yahweh while you are singing to him to praise him;
on the harps, play music to our God.

<sup>8</sup> He covers the sky with clouds, and then he sends rain to the earth and causes grass to grow on the hills.

<sup>9</sup> He gives to animals the food that they need, and gives food to young crows/birds when they cry out because they are hungry.

<sup>10</sup> He is not pleased with strong horses or with men who can run [MTY] fast.

<sup>11</sup> Instead, what pleases him are those who revere him, those who confidently expect him to continue to faithfully love them.

<sup>12</sup> You people of [APO] Jerusalem, praise Yahweh!
Praise your God!

He blesses the people who live there.

<sup>14</sup> He protects the borders of your country, so that enemies from other countries cannot attack you.

He gives you plenty of very good wheat/grain to eat.

<sup>15</sup> He commands what he wants to be done on the earth, and his words quickly come to the place to which he sends them.

and he scatters frost on the ground like wind scatters ashes [SIM].

when that happens, ◀it is very difficult to endure because the air becomes very cold./who can endure because the air becomes very cold?▶ [RHQ]

Then the hail melts and the water flows into the streams.

he tells to his Israeli people the laws and regulations that he had decreed.

<sup>20</sup> He has not done that for any other nation;

the other nations do not know his laws.

Praise Yahweh!

148

<sup>1</sup> Praise Yahweh!

Praise him, from up in heaven;

praise him from way up in the sky!

<sup>2</sup> All you angels who belong to him, praise him!

All you who are in the armies of heaven, praise him!

<sup>3</sup> Sun and moon, you also praise him!

You shining stars, you praise him!

<sup>4</sup> You highest heavens, praise him!

And you waters that are high above the sky, praise him!

<sup>5</sup> I want all of these to praise Yahweh [MTY]

because by commanding them to exist, he created them.

<sup>6</sup> He determined the places where they should be in the sky, and he commanded that they should be there forever.

They cannot disobey that command!

<sup>7</sup> And everything on the earth, praise Yahweh!

You huge sea monsters and everything else that is deep in the ocean, <sup>8</sup> and fire and hail, and snow and frost, and strong winds that obey what he commands,

I tell all of you to praise Yahweh!

<sup>9</sup> Hills and mountains, fruit trees and cedar trees,

<sup>10</sup> all the wild animals and all you cattle, and the ◀reptiles/creatures that scurry across the ground▶, and all the birds, I tell all of them to praise Yahweh!

<sup>11</sup> You kings on this earth and all the people that you rule, you princes and all other rulers,

<sup>12</sup> you young men and young women,

you old people and children, everyone, praise Yahweh!

<sup>13</sup> I want them all to praise Yahweh [MTY]

because he is greater than anyone else.

His glory is greater than anything on the earth or in heaven.

<sup>14</sup> He caused us, his people, to be strong in order that we, his people, we Israeli people ◀who are very precious to him/whom he loves very much▶, would praise him.

So praise Yahweh!

149

<sup>1</sup> Praise Yahweh!

Sing a new song to Yahweh, praise him whenever his faithful people gather together!

<sup>2</sup> You Israeli people, be glad because of what God, who created you, has done for you!

You people of Jerusalem, rejoice because of what God your king has done for you!

<sup>3</sup> Praise Yahweh by dancing, by beating/playing tambourines, and by playing harps to praise him!

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh is pleased with his people;
he honors humble people by helping them to defeat their enemies.

<sup>5</sup> God's people should rejoice because they have won battles and they should sing joyfully all during the night!

<sup>6</sup> They [MTY] should shout loudly to praise God;
but they should also hold sharp swords in their hands,

<sup>7</sup> ready to use them to defeat the soldiers of nations that do not worship God, and to punish the people of those nations,

<sup>8</sup> and to fasten the arms and legs of their kings and other leaders with iron chains, <sup>9</sup> to judge and punish the people of those nations, like God wrote/declared should be done.

It is ◀a privilege/an honor▶ for God's faithful people to do that!

Praise Yahweh!

150

<sup>1</sup> Praise Yahweh!

Praise God in his sacred temple!
And praise him in his fortress in heaven!

<sup>2</sup> Praise him for the mighty deeds that he has performed;
praise him for his being extremely great!

praise him by playing harps and ◀small lyres/other instruments that have many strings▶!

<sup>4</sup> Praise him by beating drums and by dancing.
Praise him by playing stringed instruments and by playing flutes!

<sup>5</sup> Praise him by clashing cymbals together;
praise him by clashing together very loud cymbals!

<sup>6</sup> I want all living creatures to praise Yahweh!

Praise Yahweh!

This book contains many wise things that King Solomon said. We call this book Proverbs

The purpose of Proverbs

- <sup>1</sup> These are the ◀proverbs/wise sayings▶ that come from Solomon, the King of Israel, who was the son of King David.
- <sup>2</sup> ◀These proverbs [PRS] can teach people/By studying these proverbs, people can learn▶ how to be wise and how to obey what these proverbs teach them. They will also help people to understand which teachings are wise.
- <sup>3</sup> These proverbs [PRS] will teach you how to discipline/control yourselves, how to conduct your lives, and how to do what is right and just [DOU].
- <sup>4</sup> They will show people who do not yet know much how to do things that are smart. They will show young people how to become wise and how to make good plans/decisions.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who are wise should also pay attention to these proverbs, in order to become more wise, and those who understand these teachings will receive good advice/guidance.
- <sup>6</sup> Then they will be able to understand the meaning of proverbs and parables/metaphors, these wise sayings and ◀riddles/sayings that are difficult to understand▶.
- <sup>7</sup> If you want to be wise, you must begin by revering Yahweh. Only foolish people despise wisdom and good advice/discipline.

Warnings about sinful people

- <sup>8</sup> My son, pay attention to what I, your father, am teaching you. And do not reject what your mother teaches you.
- <sup>9</sup> What we teach you will make you respected like having a lovely turban around your head and like a beautiful necklace to put around your neck.
- <sup>10</sup> My son, if sinners tempt/entice you to do what is wrong, say “No” to them.
- <sup>11</sup> They may say, “Come with us! Join us!
We will hide and then kill [MTY] someone who passes by.
We will ambush some helpless/innocent people.
- <sup>12</sup> We will kill them [HYP] and get rid of them completely, just like people who are buried in graves are gone forever. While they are in good health, we will send them to the place where dead people are.
- <sup>13</sup> And we will seize all the things that they own.
We will fill our houses with these things!
- <sup>14</sup> So, come with us!
Join our group!
We will share with you the things that we steal.”
- <sup>15</sup> My son, do not accompany them!

- Do not walk on the roads with them!
 16 They rush to do evil deeds!
 They hurry to murder [MTY] people.
- 17 It is useless to put out a ◀trap/net to catch a bird▶ because when a bird sees it,
it stays away from it.
- 18 But those wicked people are not like the birds, because they do not realize that when they prepare to ambush someone to kill him, they will be killed themselves!
- 19 That is what happens to people who eagerly try to get things by violently attacking others.
 They will only destroy themselves!
- Wisdom shouts in the streets*
- 20 Wisdom [PRS] shouts to people in the streets, and calls out to people in the ◀plazas/town squares▶.
- 21 Wisdom calls out in noisy places, and at the entrances to cities.
- 22 Wisdom says, “How long will you stupid people continue to enjoy doing foolish things [RHQ]?
 How long will you people who ridicule God enjoy doing that [RHQ]?
 How long will you foolish people refuse to know what things are right [RHQ]?”
- 23 If you pay attention to me when I rebuke you,
 I will tell you what I am thinking in my inner being;
 I will give you some good advice.
- 24 But when I called to you, you refused to listen.
 I beckoned to you to come to me, but you ignored me.
- 25 I tried to advise you,
 but you refused to listen to me.
 I tried to correct you,
 but you rejected what I told you.
- 26 So now, when you are experiencing troubles/disasters,
 I will laugh at you.
 When things happen that cause you to be afraid,
 I will make fun of you.
- 27 When calamities strike you like a big storm, when disasters hit you like a violent wind, when all kinds of things distress you and give you trouble,
I will ridicule you!
- 28 Wisdom also says, “When foolish people call to me to help them,
 I will not answer them.
 They will search for me diligently/everywhere,
 but they will not find me.
- 29 They refused to know what things are right, and they decided not to revere Yahweh.
- 30 They would not accept my advice, and they did not pay attention when I tried to correct them.
- 31 So they will endure what will result [MET, DOU] from the evil way they have lived/behaved

and the evil things they have planned to do.

<sup>32</sup> Those who turn away from me are stupid/foolish;
they will die because of doing that.

<sup>33</sup> But those who pay attention to me will live peacefully and safely, and they will not be afraid that something will harm them.”

2

The results of wisdom

<sup>1</sup> My son, listen to what I say, and consider my instructions to be as valuable as [MET] a treasure.

<sup>2</sup> Pay attention to wisdom and try hard to understand it.

<sup>3</sup> Call out to God to get insight; plead with him to help you to understand more of what he wants you to know.

<sup>4</sup> Search eagerly for wisdom, like you would search for silver, like you would search for a treasure that someone has hidden.

<sup>5</sup> If you do that, you will understand how to revere Yahweh, and you will succeed in knowing God.

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh is the one who gives us wisdom.
He is the one who tells us things that we need to know and understand.

<sup>7</sup> He gives good advice to those who conduct their lives as they should.
He protects [MET] those who do what is right.

<sup>8</sup> He guards those who act justly/fairly toward others, and he watches over those who are faithful/loyal to him.

<sup>9</sup> If you ask God for wisdom, you will understand what is right and just [DOU] to do, and you will know the right way to conduct your life, <sup>10</sup> because you will be wise in your inner being;

and knowing what God wants you to know will cause you to be joyful.

<sup>11</sup> If you know [PRS] how to choose what is right to do and if you understand what God wants you to do,
God will protect you and guard you and keep you safe.

<sup>12</sup> If you are wise [PRS], you will not do what evil people do, and you will not believe what deceitful people say.

<sup>13</sup> Deceitful people have stopped acting fairly/justly toward others and ◀walk on dark and evil paths/do what evil people do▶ [MET].

<sup>14</sup> They enjoy doing what is wrong;
they like to do what is evil and to deceive people.

<sup>15</sup> They ◀walk on crooked paths/always deceive others▶ and are always dishonest.

<sup>16</sup> If you are wise [PRS], you will also be saved from ◀immoral women/prostitutes▶; you will not pay attention when adulterous women try to ◀seduce/entice you by what they say▶

<sup>17</sup> Those women have left the husbands whom they married when they were young;
they have disregarded the solemn promise they made to God not to commit adultery.

<sup>18</sup> If you go into houses of women who are like that, you will die when you are still young;
the road to their houses leads to hell.

- 19 No man who ◀visits/sleeps with▶ a woman like that will again live harmoniously with his family.
He will never have a happy life again.
- 20 If you are wise, you should behave like good men behave.
You should ◀stay on the paths that righteous people walk on/do what godly people do▶ [MET],
- 21 because only godly people will live in this land and receive God's blessings;
only those who have not done wrong will stay here for a long time.
- 22 Wicked people will be expelled from this land, and people who are not trustworthy will be thrown {God will throw them} out of it.

More advice to Solomon's son

- 1 My son, do not forget what I have taught you.
Keep my commands in your inner being,
2 because if you obey them you will live a long time and things will go well for you
- 3 Always faithfully love others and ◀be faithful/do what you say that you will do▶;
doing those things will cause others to be pleased with you;
it will be as though you are wearing a beautiful necklace.
Keep those things in your mind/inner being.
- 4 If you do, God and people will approve of you and think highly of you [MTY].
- 5 Trust in Yahweh completely, and do not rely on what you yourself understand.
- 6 Always allow him to lead you.
If you do that, he will ◀show you the right path/direct your life▶.
- 7 Do not be proud of being wise.
Instead, revere Yahweh and turn away from doing evil.
- 8 If you do that, your body will be healthy/strong;
it will be like medicine for you.
- 9 Honor Yahweh by what you do with your money;
and by giving him the first part of your harvest.
- 10 If you do that, you will have a good harvest.
Yahweh will fill your barns with grain, and your vats/containers will be overflowing with grape juice for making wine.
- 11 My son, when Yahweh disciplines/corrects you, do not despise it, and if he rebukes you, do not resent it.
- 12 I say that because it is the people whom Yahweh loves that he corrects/reproves, just like parents correct/reprove their sons whom they love.
- 13 Yahweh is pleased with those who become wise and have good understanding.
- 14 Being wise and having good understanding is worth more than silver, better than gold.

- 15 Being wise is more precious than ◀jewels/precious stones▶;
there is nothing that you could desire that would be as valuable as wisdom.
- 16 On the one hand, wisdom [PRS] enables you to live a long life, and on the other hand, wisdom enables you to become rich and to be honored.
- 17 If you are wise, your life will be pleasant, and things will go well for you.
- 18 Wisdom is like a tree that gives long life to those who eagerly take hold of it, and Yahweh is pleased with those who hold onto it tightly.
- 19 By his wisdom Yahweh created the earth, and by his understanding he put everything in the skies.
- 20 By his knowledge he caused the water that was beneath the earth to burst forth, and he caused rain to fall from the clouds.
- 21 My son, always keep doing things that are right and things that are smart.
If you do that,
- 22 you will live many years and be honored and respected {people will honor and respect you}.
- 23 If you do what is right and wise, you will be able to walk safely, and you will not ◀stumble/do things that are wrong▶ [MET].
- 24 You will be able to lie down at night and not be afraid of anything, and you will sleep peacefully.
- 25 You will not be afraid that something disastrous will happen to you or that storms that strike the wicked will strike you,
- 26 because you will be confident that Yahweh will take care of you.
He will not let your foot be caught in a trap/snare.
- 27 If you are able to help people who deserve it, do not refuse to help them.
- 28 If you are able to help someone you interact with,
do not say, "Come back later;
perhaps I can help you tomorrow."
- 29 Do not make plans to harm those you interact with regularly, because they live near you, and they trust you.
- 30 If someone has not harmed you, do not accuse him by saying that he has harmed you.
- 31 Do not envy people who obtain things by violent actions, and do not imitate/do what they do.
- 32 I say that because Yahweh considers such people to be abominable/detestable;
but he is a friend to all those who do what is right.
- 33 Yahweh curses the families [MTY] of those who are wicked, but he blesses the families of those who are good/righteous.
- 34 Yahweh makes fun of those who make fun of others, but he kindly helps those who are humble.
- 35 Wise people will be honored {people will honor wise people}, but foolish people will be dishonored/disgraced.

Advice to young people

- <sup>1</sup> My children, listen to what I am teaching you.
If you pay attention, you will understand what is wise.
- <sup>2</sup> What I am teaching you is good,
so do not turn away from it.
- <sup>3</sup> When I was a young boy, loved by my mother, <sup>4</sup> my father told me, "Remember my words;
if you obey my commandments,
you will live a long time."
- <sup>5</sup> Obtain wisdom and understanding, and ◀do not abandon/hold fast to▶ [LIT] what I have taught you.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not turn away from wisdom, because if you are wise, you will be protected from all evil/danger.
If you love wisdom, wisdom [PRS] will guard you.
- <sup>7</sup> The most important thing that you can do is to get wisdom.
Even if you obtain many other things, the best thing is to know what things are wise.
- <sup>8</sup> If you consider being wise to be very valuable,
people will think very highly of you.
If you cling to wisdom like you would cling to a woman you love,
many people will honor you.
- <sup>9</sup> If you become wise, that will for you be like a beautiful wreath that is put {someone puts} on your head;
it will be like a king's glorious crown."
That is what my father told me.
- <sup>10</sup> So now I say, "My son, heed what I say.
If you do that, you will live a good long life.
- <sup>11</sup> I am teaching you the way to live wisely;
I am showing you how to act justly toward others.
- <sup>12</sup> If you live wisely, when you decide to do something, you will succeed [LIT].
- <sup>13</sup> Hold fast to the things I have taught you to do, and do not let them go.
Guard them,
because they will be the source of a good life.
- <sup>14</sup> Do not do the things that wicked people do;
do not behave like they do;
do not even walk on the roads that evil people walk on [MET].
- <sup>15</sup> Stay away from those roads;
turn aside and walk on other roads;
- <sup>16</sup> because evil people cannot sleep if they have not done some evil deed on that day.
They cannot rest if they have not harmed someone.
- <sup>17</sup> What they eat and what they drink are things that they have obtained by acting wickedly and violently."
- <sup>18</sup> The behavior of good/righteous people is like the light that begins to shine at dawn and then continues to shine brighter until the brightest time of day.
- <sup>19</sup> But the behavior of wicked people is like deep/thick darkness.

Because it is very dark, they cannot see the things that cause them to stumble.

Listen to my words carefully.

<sup>21</sup> Keep them close to you;

let them penetrate your inner being,

<sup>22</sup> because you will have [PRS] a good life and good health if you search for them and find them.

<sup>23</sup> It is very important that you be careful about what you think, because what you think controls [MET] the things that you do.

<sup>24</sup> Do not say anything that deceives others and never say what is not true.

<sup>25</sup> Keep looking straight ahead toward the events that are before you, and do not turn aside.

<sup>26</sup> Plan carefully where you will go and what you will do, and then stay on that road.

Then what you do will be right.

<sup>27</sup> Do not leave the straight road by turning to the left or to the right.

Do only what is right and keep yourself from doing what is evil.

5

A warning about adultery

<sup>1</sup> My son, listen carefully to some more wise things that I will tell you.
Listen well to what I am going to teach you.

<sup>2</sup> If you do that, you will be able to choose wisely what to do, and you will know the right things to say [MTY].

<sup>3</sup> What an immoral woman says to you may be as sweet as honey, and sound smoother than olive oil feels on your skin,

<sup>4</sup> but the result of being with her will be bitter like gall and injure you as badly, like being cut with a sharp two-edged sword.

<sup>5</sup> If you go where she goes [MTY], you will go down to where the dead people are.
Her steps will lead you straight to the grave.

<sup>6</sup> She is not concerned about the roads that lead to a long life.
She walks down a crooked path, and she does not realize that she is on the wrong road.

<sup>7</sup> So now, my sons, listen to me.

◀Never turn aside from/always remember▶ [LIT] what I am about to tell you.

<sup>8</sup> Run away from immoral women!

Do not go near the doors of their houses!

<sup>9</sup> If you enter the home of one of them, you will lose your ◀self-respect/good reputation▶ and that woman's husband will not act mercifully toward you;

he will kill you and take everything that you have acquired during your life!

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will take your money, and all the good things that you have worked for will ◀end up in their hands/become their possessions▶.

<sup>11</sup> And when you are about to die,

- you will groan with severe pain because diseases that you have gotten from being immoral will be destroying your body.
- 12 Then you will say, "I hated it when people tried to correct me.
I despised people when they reproved/rebuked me.
- 13 I did not heed what my teachers said!
I paid no attention to those who tried to teach me something about my behavior.
- 14 Now I am almost ruined, and I will be disgraced in public gatherings."
- 15 Like a man is refreshed by drinking water from his own well [MET], enjoy having sex [EUP] only with your own wife.
- 16 Like you would not waste good water by pouring it into the street,
you should not have sex with other women. [MET, EUP]
- 17 Enjoy having sex only with your wife;
do not have sex with other women.
- 18 Let your wife be a source of great pleasure to you.
◀Be happy/Enjoy sex▶ with the woman whom you married when you were both young.
- 19 She is as pretty and graceful as a young female deer.
Allow her breasts to always satisfy you.
Allow her lovemaking to excite you.
- 20 My son, do not be [RHQ] captivated/charmed by an immoral woman!
Do not fondle the breasts of another man's wife!
- 21 I say that because Yahweh sees clearly everything that we do;
he knows where we are going on the roads that we walk on.
- 22 Evil men's sinful desires hold them fast;
their sins are like ropes that bind them.
- 23 Evil men will die because they are unable to say "No" to their desires;
they will ▶go astray/be lost▶ because of the foolish things that they do.

6

Warnings against foolish behavior

- 1 My son, if someone has borrowed money from a friend or a stranger, and if you have promised that you will pay the money back if that person is unable to pay back the money he borrowed,
- 2 you may be trapped by what you have agreed to do,
because if the one who borrowed the money is not able to pay it back, you will have to pay it.
What you have said that you will do will be like a snare to you.
- 3 So, my son, I will tell you what you should do to escape from your difficulty, so that the moneylender does not get control over your wealth:
Humbly go to your friend and plead with him to cancel the agreement!
- 4 Do not wait until tomorrow; go immediately!
Do not rest until you go and talk with him.
- 5 Save yourself,
like a deer that escapes from a deer hunter or like a bird that flees from a bird hunter.
- 6 You lazy individual, learn something from watching the ants.

Become wise from observing what they do.

<sup>7</sup> They do not have a king or a governor or any other person who rules them and forces them to work,

<sup>8</sup> but they work hard all during the summer, gathering and storing food to eat during the winter.

<sup>9</sup> But, you lazy loafer, how long will you continue to sleep [RHQ]?
Are you never going to get up from sleeping and go to work?

<sup>10</sup> You sleep a for a little time; you say, “I will take just a short nap.”
You lie down and fold/lay your hands across your chest and rest;

<sup>11</sup> and suddenly you will become poor.
It will be as though a bandit suddenly comes and takes all that you have.

<sup>12</sup> I will describe for you what worthless and evil people are like.

They constantly lie;

<sup>13</sup> by winking their eyes and moving their feet and making signs with their fingers, they signal to their friends what they are intending/planning to do.

<sup>14</sup> They plan to do evil things.
They constantly cause strife/trouble.

<sup>15</sup> But disasters will hit them suddenly;
they will be crushed/ruined and nothing will be able to heal them.

<sup>16</sup> There are six, maybe seven, kinds of people that Yahweh hates. They are:

<sup>17</sup> People who show by their eyes that they are very proud;
people who lie [MTY];

people [SYN] who kill others [SYN] who have done nothing wrong;

<sup>18</sup> people who plan to do evil deeds;

people [SYN] who run quickly to do wrong things;

<sup>19</sup> people who easily tell lies in court; and people who cause strife between family members.

More warnings about adultery

<sup>20</sup> My son, obey my commands, and do not ignore what your mother has taught you.

<sup>21</sup> Remember the things that we have said.
Those things should be like a beautiful necklace around your neck.

<sup>22</sup> If you follow our advice, it will be as though what we have taught you [PRS] will lead you, wherever you go.

When you sleep, they will protect you.

And when you wake up in the morning, they will teach/instruct you.

<sup>23</sup> These commands and what we teach you will be like a lamp to light your path
[MET].

When we rebuke you and correct/punish you, we will be showing you the road to having a good life.

<sup>24</sup> Heeding [PRS] these commands and things that we have taught you will enable you to keep away from immoral women and from listening to the enticing words of an adulterous woman.

<sup>25</sup> Even if such a woman is beautiful and has lovely eyes, do not desire to go with her.
Do not let her persuade you to go with her ◀with her eyes/by the way she looks at you▶.

<sup>26</sup> Do not forget that you can hire a prostitute for only a loaf of bread, but if you sleep with another man's wife, ◀it may cost you/you may lose▶ your life.

27 Can you carry hot coals in your pocket and not be burned [RHQ]?

28 Can you walk on burning coals and not scorch/burn your feet?

29 No! And in the same way, anyone who ◀sleeps with/has sex with▶ another man's wife will suffer for doing that.

He will certainly [LIT] be punished severely.

30 We do not despise a thief if he steals some food because he is very hungry.

31 But if he steals something and then is caught by the police, he will have to pay back ◀seven times as much as/much more than▶ he stole.

He may need to sell everything that is in his house to get enough money to pay it back.

32 But a man who commits adultery with some woman is very foolish, because he is destroying his own self/soul by what he is doing.

33 That woman's husband will wound him badly, and other people will despise him.

His shame will never end.

34 Because that woman's husband will ◀be jealous/not want anyone else to sleep with her▶, he will become furious, and when he gets revenge, he will not act mercifully toward the man who slept with his wife.

35 And he will not accept any bribe/money, even if it is a big bribe, to ◀appease him/cause him to stop being angry▶.

7

More warnings about adultery

1 My son, heed my advice, and guard my instructions as you would [MET] guard a treasure.

2 Obey my commands, and as a result you will live a good life.

Consider the things that I teach you to be very precious; guard them, just like you protect your eyes.

3 Tie my commands around your fingers in order that they will remind you to obey them.

Always keep them in mind [MET].

4 Love wisdom like you love your sister.

Understand what is wise, and let that be as dear to you as members of your family.

5 If you are wise and if you understand what is wise [PRS], you will not sleep with an immoral woman;

you will not listen to a woman who tries to entice you to sleep with her by what she says.

6 One day, I was standing at the window inside my house, and I looked outside.

7 I saw some young men who did not have good sense. Among them was a man who was very foolish.

8 He crossed the street near the house of an immoral woman. He was walking along the path toward her house

9 at twilight, when it was getting dark [DOU].

- 10 Suddenly the woman came out to see/meet him.
She was dressed ◀seductively/like a prostitute▶, wanting to persuade him to sleep with her.
- 11 She was a loud talker, one who was rebellious;
she [SYN] never stayed at home.
- 12 She often went into the city streets and plazas/markets, waiting to trap some man.
- 13 When she saw that young man, she put her arms around him and kissed him.
Then without being a bit ashamed, she said,
- 14 “I have some meat that is left over from a sacrifice that I made today to maintain fellowship with Yahweh;
I have fulfilled/done what I promised him that I would do.
- 15 And now I have come out to meet/see you.
I was searching for you, and now I have found you!
- 16 I have put on my bed sheets/bedspreads that were made from very fine linen that were imported {people brought} from Egypt.
- 17 I have sprinkled sweet-smelling perfumes on my bed—myrrh and aloes and cinnamon.
- 18 Come with me; let us enjoy having sex until tomorrow morning.
Let’s enjoy making love.
- 19 My husband is not at home;
he has gone away on a long journey.
- 20 He is carrying a wallet filled with money, and he will not return until the middle of this month.”
- 21 So she persuaded him by her enticing/tempting words.
She allured him by her smooth/sweet talk.
- 22 And he went with her immediately, like an ox that was going to where it would be slaughtered, or like a deer (OR, a fool) that is stepping into a noose/trap, <sup>23</sup> where it will remain/stay until someone shoots an arrow into its liver and kills it.
- He was* like a bird that flew into a trap.
He did not know that ◀it would cost him his life/he would die as a result▶.
- 24 My son, listen to what I say;
pay careful attention to my words.
- 25 Do not allow anything to arouse/persuade you to go with an immoral woman like that.
Do not go where she goes.
- 26 She has caused many men to be ruined; truly, no one can count the men she has killed.
- 27 The road to her house is the road to the grave.
Those who enter her bedroom [PRS] will die as a result.

Wisdom calls to us

- 1 It is as if wisdom, with great understanding of many things, is calling [PRS] out to people.
- 2 Wisdom stands on hilltops and at crossroads.
- 3 Wisdom also stands at the city gates and shouts loudly,

- 4 "I am calling to everyone!
I am shouting loudly to all people!
- 5 You people who do not know how to do things that are smart to do, get sound judgment;
you foolish people, get good understanding!
- 6 Listen to me, because I have some excellent/important things to say.
What I say is what is fair/right.
- 7 I speak what is true;
I detest speaking [MTY] what is false/deceptive.
- 8 Everything that I say is honest;
there is nothing that I say that deceives people.
- 9 My words are clear to those who have good sense;
those who are wise know that what I say is right.
- 10 If someone offers you the kind of teaching I give or offers you silver, choose my teaching.
If he offers to show you how to be wise or offers you gold, choose to know how to be wise,
11 because wisdom is more valuable than jewels.
Nothing that you desire is as valuable as being wise.
- 12 I, wisdom, and understanding of what is smart to do, cannot be separated.
We are like two people who live in the same house.
I know how to be wise and how to make smart decisions.
- 13 All the people who revere Yahweh hate evil.
I, wisdom, hate people who are proud and people who think they are more important than others.
I hate people who behave in an evil way and those who say things to deceive others.
- 14 I give people good advice and I enable them to do things that are wise.
I understand how things really are, and I am strong.
- 15 When kings are wise, they rule well;
and when rulers are wise, they make laws that are just/fair.
- 16 Rulers govern their people with the help of me, wisdom, and those who have authority decide things fairly/just with my help.
- 17 I, wisdom, love all those who love me, and all those who truly seek me will find me.
- 18 I enable people to become rich and to be honored;
I enable them to have wealth that will last and to be successful.
- 19 What I can give people is more valuable than fine/pure gold and the best silver.
- 20 I always do what is righteous and just/fair.
- 21 I give wealth to those who love me;
I fill their houses with valuable things.
- 22 Yahweh created me, wisdom, when he began to create the world;
he created me to do my work before he created anything else.
- 23 He appointed me long ago, before he created the earth.
- 24 I was born before the oceans were created,
when there were no springs from which water flowed.
- 25 I was born before the hills and mountains were formed;
- 26 I, wisdom, was born before Yahweh made the earth, before he made the fields and the soil on the earth.

- 27 I was there when Yahweh put the sky in place, when he marked the place in the distance where the sky and the oceans seem to come together.
- 28 I was there when Yahweh put the clouds above the earth and when he caused the water that is inside the earth to be secure.
- 29 I was there when he fixed a boundary for the seas, so that the water in the seas would not go past those boundaries, and when he put down the foundations which support the earth.
- 30 I was at the side of Yahweh, the master worker (OR, as though I was his child).
I caused him to be happy every day, and I was always rejoicing when I was with him.
- 31 I was delighted with the world that he created;
I was happy with the people whom he created, too.
- 32 So, you people who are like my sons, listen to me.
I am pleased with all those who obey my teachings.
- 33 Listen carefully to what I teach you and become wise.
Do not reject my teaching!
- 34 I am pleased with those who listen to me, those who are outside my house every day, waiting for me to come out.
- 35 Those who find me will have a long life, and Yahweh will be pleased with them.
- 36 But those who stray away from me just harm themselves.
All those who hate me, it is as though [IRO] they are loving death.”

9

Being wise and being foolish

- 1 It is as though wisdom is a woman who has built a big house for herself, and has set up seven columns to support the roof,
- 2 and has slaughtered an animal and cooked the meat, and has mixed nice spices in the wine, and has put the food on the table.
- 3 It is as though then she sent out her servant women to call out from the highest place in the town,
- 4 “You people who need to understand more, come in!”
And to those who are ignorant, it is as though she calls out,
- 5 “Come and eat the food that I have prepared, and drink the good wine that I have mixed!
- 6 ◀Leave/Go away from▶ other foolish people, and if you do that, you will continue to live.
Walk on the road that will enable you to ◀have knowledge/know what is true and what is not true▶.”
- 7 If you rebuke someone who will not allow others to correct him, he will insult you.
If you reprove/scold an evil man, he will hurt you.
- 8 Do not rebuke someone who will not allow others to ◀correct him/tell him what he has done is wrong▶, because he will hate you for doing that.
But if you rebuke a wise person, he will respect you.
- 9 If you give instruction to wise people, they will become wiser.
And if you teach righteous people, they will learn more.

- 10 If you want to be wise, you must start by revering Yahweh, and if you know God, the Holy One, you will understand which teachings are wise/true.
- 11 If you become wise, you will live many years [DOU].
- 12 If you are wise, you are the one who will benefit from it;
if you ridicule becoming wise, you are the one who will suffer.
- 13 Foolish women talk loudly;
they are ignorant and are never ashamed of the wrong things that they do.
- 14 They sit at the doors of their houses or they sit on the top of the hills in the town,
- 15 and they call out to the men who are passing by,
who are trying to be concerned with their own affairs,
- 16 "You people who need to understand more, come into my house!"
And to those who are ignorant, they call out,
- 17 "Just as water which you have stolen tastes very good and food that you eat by yourself tastes the best, if you have sex secretly with someone to whom you are not married, you will enjoy it very much."
- 18 But men who go to those women's houses do not know that those who have gone there are now dead;
they have descended down into the deepest parts of the place where dead people are.

10

Wise sayings from Solomon

- 1 These are more proverbs/wise sayings from Solomon:
If children are wise, they cause their parents to be happy;
but if children are foolish, they cause their parents to be very sad.
- 2 Money that you get by doing dishonest/wicked things will really not benefit you;
but by living righteously you will live for ◀a long time/many years▶.
- 3 Yahweh does not allow righteous people to starve, but he will prevent wicked people from getting what they want.
- 4 Lazy people soon become poor;
it is those who work hard who become rich.

- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh wants us to use scales that are correct;
the weights in his bag are correct, because he made them.
- <sup>12</sup> Kings detest those who do evil, because it is people doing what is fair/right that causes their governments to be [MTY] strong.
- <sup>13</sup> Kings are delighted to hear people say [MTY] what is true;
they love those who say what is right/honest.
- <sup>14</sup> If a king becomes angry, he may command that someone be executed, so wise people will try to cause him to be calm.
- <sup>15</sup> If a king has a smile [MTY] on his face, he will enable people to have a long life (OR, he will not order people to be executed); his being pleased with people is as delightful as rain in the springtime when seeds are planted.
- <sup>16</sup> Becoming wise is better than acquiring gold; getting good understanding/insight is better than acquiring silver.

- 17 Those whose behavior [MET] is good/right turn away from doing evil; those who guard their conduct [MTY] protect their lives.
- 18 Being proud will ◀lead to your having/cause you to have▶ disasters; despising others will result in your being ruined.
- 19 It is better to be humble and poor than to associate with proud people and to become rich by dividing with them ◀plunder/goods captured in a battle▶.
- 20 Those who heed good teaching/instruction will prosper; happy are those who trust in Yahweh.
- 21 People say that those who are wise learn what is right/good behavior, and those who talk pleasantly are able to influence others to do what is right.
- 22 Being wise is like having a fountain that gives life [MET], but foolish people are punished as a result of their acting foolishly.
- 23 Those who are wise think carefully before they talk, and as a result they are able to influence/persuade others to do what is right.
- 24 Kind words are like honey [SIM]:
We enjoy them both, and both cause our bodies to be healthy/strong.
- 25 There are some kinds of behavior [MET] that people think are right, but ◀walking on those roads [MET]/continually doing those things▶ causes those people to die.
- 26 If a worker ◀has an appetite/is hungry▶, that urges him to work hard because he [SYN] wants to earn money to buy things to eat.
- 27 Worthless people plan ways to cause trouble for others, and even what they say injures people like a hot fire does [SIM].

- 30 People sometimes show with one of their eyes to signal to their friends that they are planning to do something to harm others; they smirk when they are about to do something evil.
- 31 Gray hair is like a glorious crown [MET] that is given to people who have always behaved righteously.
- 32 Those who do not become angry quickly are better than those who are powerful;

it is better to ◀control your temper/keep yourself from becoming very angry▶ than to conquer a city.

<sup>33</sup> People ◀cast lots/throw marked stones▶ to decide what should be done, but God is the one who truly decides what will happen.

17

<sup>1</sup> It is better to eat a dry piece of bread and not have strife/quarrels than to have a big feast in a house where everyone is quarreling.

<sup>2</sup> A slave who acts wisely will some day be the boss of his master's disgraceful son and when his master dies, the slave will receive part of his master's possessions.

<sup>3</sup> Workers put silver and gold in a very hot furnace to burn out what is impure, and Yahweh similarly examines people's inner beings to see if they are pure.

<sup>4</sup> Those who do what is evil pay attention to people who say [MTY] what is evil, and liars pay attention to other people's lies.

<sup>5</sup> Those who make fun of poor people insult God, the one who made the poor people, and those who are happy when someone else has troubles will certainly be punished [LIT] by God.

<sup>6</sup> Old people are usually proud of [MET] their grandchildren, just like children are usually proud of their parents.

<sup>7</sup> Fine/Eloquent speech is not suitable for foolish people to say, just like lies are not suitable for rulers to say.

<sup>8</sup> People think that a bribe is like a magic stone to persuade someone to do what they want him to do;
they think that because of the bribe, that person will do whatever they want him to do.

<sup>9</sup> If you want people to like/love you, forgive them for the wrong things that they do to you.
If you continue to remind them about those wrong things, they will no longer be your friends.

<sup>10</sup> Rebuking people who have good sense will accomplish more for them than hitting them 100 times with a stick.

<sup>11</sup> Because wicked people are always trying to cause trouble, someone will be sent to severely punish them.

<sup>12</sup> A mother bear whose cubs have been taken away from her is dangerous, but it is more dangerous to confront a foolish person who is doing something foolish.

<sup>13</sup> If someone does something evil in return for something good being done to him, evil/trouble will never leave that person's family.

- 14 Starting a quarrel is like allowing water to start to leak out of a dam; they both need to be stopped before they get worse.
- 15 There are two things that Yahweh hates:
 ◀Condemning innocent people/Saying that people who have done nothing wrong must be punished▶, and declaring that people who have done wicked things should not be punished.
- 16 It is useless to allow foolish people [RHQ] to try to become wise by paying for it, because they do not have enough good sense to become wise.
- 17 Friends love others all the time, and relatives are able to help us when we have troubles.
- 18 If someone borrows money from another person, it is foolish for you to promise [IDM] that you will pay the money back if that other person is unable to pay back the money that he borrowed.
- 19 Those who like to sin also like to cause strife/trouble;
and those who build fancy doors in their houses to show that they are very wealthy (OR, speak proudly) are inviting disaster.
- 20 Those who ▶have perverse minds/are always thinking about doing evil things▶ will not prosper, and disasters will happen to those who always tell lies.
- 21 Children who are foolish soon cause their parents to be very sad; their parents will not be joyful at all.
- 22 Being cheerful is like swallowing good medicine;
 being discouraged/gloomy all the time will ▶drain away your energy/cause you to become weak▶ [MTY].
- 23 Wicked people/judges accept bribes that are given to them secretly, and as a result they do not decide matters justly/fairly.
- 24 Those who have good sense determine to do what is wise, but foolish people are always thinking about many different things and never decide what they should do.
- 25 Children who are foolish cause their father to be sad and also cause their mother to be very sorrowful.
- 26 It is not right to force someone who has done nothing wrong to pay a fine;
 it is wrong to punish good/respected people.
- 27 Those who have good sense do not talk a lot, and those who ▶control their tempers/keep themselves from becoming very angry▶ are truly wise.
- 28 People may think that foolish people who do not say anything are wise;

if foolish people ◀do not say anything/keep their mouths shut▶, others will think that they are very intelligent.

18

- 1 Those who separate themselves from other people think only about those things that they are interested in;
if they would continually associate with those who have good judgment/sense, they would constantly disagree/quarrel with them.
- 2 Foolish people do not want to understand anything;
they only want to ◀express their own opinions/say what they think▶ [IDM].
- 3 Whenever people do wicked things, others will despise them;
when people do things that cause themselves to no longer be honored, they will be disgraced also.
- 4 What wise people say is like a deep ocean that you can never get to the bottom of [MET], and it refreshes us like water from a rapidly flowing stream.
- 5 It is not good for a judge to decide matters in favor of those who ◀are guilty/have done wicked things▶ and to not do what is just for those who ◀are innocent/have not done what is wrong▶.
- 6 When foolish people [SYN] start arguments, it is as though they [SYN] are requesting/inviting someone to flog/whip them.
- 7 What foolish people [MTY] say causes them to be ruined; their own words are like a trap [MET] that catches/seizes them.
- 8 People enjoy listening to what gossips say like [SIM] they enjoy tasty food;
they accept what gossips tell them like [MET] they swallow tasty food.
- 9 People who are lazy while they work are just as bad as [IDM] those who destroy things.
- 10 Yahweh [MTY] is like a strong tower [MET]; righteous people can go to him and be safe like they can run to a tower to be safe.
- 11 Rich people are protected because they have a lot of money [PRS] like a city is protected because it has a high wall surrounding it [SIM].
- 12 Proud people are on the road to being ruined, but being humble leads to being honored.
- 13 Those who reply to someone before that person has finished speaking are foolish; doing that is disgraceful.
- 14 A desire to continue to live can sustain someone when he is sick;

if he loses that desire, he ◀cannot endure it/will become very discouraged▶ when he is sick [RHQ].

- 15 Intelligent people are always wanting to learn more; wise people [SYN] are not content with what they already know.
- 16 If you take a gift to an important person, that will open the way to allow you to talk to him.
- 17 The first person to present his case in court seems right, but when ◀someone else/his opponent▶ begins to ask him questions, it may become clear that what he said was not true.
- 18 If two influential/important people are arguing, someone can settle the matter by ◀casting lots/throwing marked stones to decide who is right▶.
- 19 If you help relatives, they will protect you like [SIM] a strong wall protects a city, but if you quarrel with them, that will separate you from them like bars on a city gate separate the city from those who want to enter it [MET].
- 20 People are happy when they hear others say [MTY] something that is good, like they are happy when they eat food that is good [MET].
- 21 What you say can cause others to be killed or it can cause them to continue to live; so those who like to talk a lot must ◀accept the consequences/realize that what they say can cause much harm▶.
- 22 If you marry a good woman, that is like finding a wonderful thing; it shows that Yahweh is pleased with you.
- 23 It is necessary for poor people to speak politely when they request rich people to do something for them, but rich people reply very impolitely when poor people speak to them.
- 24 There are some people who only pretend to be friends with us, but there are some friends who are more loyal than members of our families.

19

- 2 Being enthusiastic but not thinking carefully about what we are about to do is not good; doing things hastily can cause us a lot of trouble [IDM].
- 3 Some people are ruined as a result of their own foolish actions, and when that happens, they [SYN] angrily say that it is Yahweh's fault.

- <sup>5</sup> Those who tell lies in court will surely be punished [LIT]; they will not escape it.
- <sup>6</sup> Many people try to persuade important people to do favors for them; everyone wants to be a friend of those who give gifts.
- <sup>7</sup> Even the relatives of someone who becomes poor hate him, and his friends certainly stay away from him, too; even if he tries to talk with them, they will not be his friends again.
- <sup>8</sup> Those who become wise [IDM] are doing a favor for themselves; those who get good sense will prosper.
- <sup>9</sup> Those who tell lies in court will certainly be punished [LIT]; they will be ruined.
- <sup>10</sup> It is not appropriate for foolish people to live ◀luxuriously/like rich people▶, and it is even less appropriate for slaves to rule important officials.
- <sup>11</sup> Those who have good sense do not quickly become angry; people respect those who ignore offensive things that people say to them.

- <sup>13</sup> Foolish children can cause disasters to happen to their parents. A wife who constantly ◀nags/quarrels with▶ her husband is as annoying as water that continually drips [MET].
- <sup>14</sup> We can inherit a house or money from our parents when they die, but only Yahweh can give someone a sensible wife.
- <sup>15</sup> Those who are lazy sleep soundly, but if they are lazy, they will be hungry because of not earning money to buy food.

- <sup>21</sup> People plan to do many kinds of things, but what will happen is what Yahweh has decided will happen.
- <sup>22</sup> People want others to be loyal to them; it is better to be poor than to tell a lie to a judge in court in order to get money.
- <sup>23</sup> Those who have an awesome respect for Yahweh will live a long life; they rest peacefully and are not harmed during the night.
- <sup>24</sup> Some people are extremely lazy; they put their hand in a dish to take some food but do not even lift the food up to their mouths.
- <sup>25</sup> If you punish someone who makes fun of those who are wise, those who ◀are naive/need to be instructed▶ will learn to do what is smart; if you rebuke those who are wise, they will listen to what you say and become wiser.
- <sup>26</sup> Anyone who mistreats/abuses his father or forces his mother to leave the home is a child who is acting shamefully and disgracefully.
- <sup>27</sup> My son, if you stop learning things, you will soon forget what you already know.
- <sup>28</sup> Worthless witnesses in court make fun of judges who try to make fair decisions, and wicked people enjoy doing evil like they enjoy eating good food [MET].
- <sup>29</sup> God is ready to punish those who make fun of him/religion; those who do foolish things deserve to be flogged/whipped.

20

- <sup>1</sup> Drinking a lot of wine or other strong drinks causes people to start fighting; it is foolish to become drunk/intoxicated.

- <sup>3</sup> People respect those who stay away from disputes/arguments; foolish people love to quarrel.
- <sup>4</sup> If a lazy man does not plow his fields at the right/proper time, he will look for crops at harvest time, but there will be nothing there.
- <sup>5</sup> Just as it is difficult to bring up water from a deep well, it is difficult to know what people are thinking, but someone who has good sense/insight will be able to find out what people are thinking.

- <sup>6</sup> Many people proclaim that they can be trusted to do what they say that they will do, but it is very difficult to find [RHQ] someone who can really be trusted.
- <sup>7</sup> If parents conduct their lives as they should,
God blesses their children (OR, their children are very happy/fortunate).

I have ◀gotten rid of all my sinful behavior/quit doing what is sinful▶."
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh detests people who use weights that are not right and measures that are not correct.

they show whether ◀what they do/their behavior▶ is honest and right or not.
- <sup>12</sup> Two of the things that Yahweh has created for us are ears to hear things and eyes to see things.
- <sup>13</sup> If you want to sleep all the time, you will become poor;
if you stay awake and work, you will have plenty of food.
- <sup>14</sup> People look at things that they are about to buy, and in order to get it for a lower price sometimes they say, "◀It is no good/It is poor quality▶,"

so be sure to get good advice from wise people before you start fighting a war.
- <sup>19</sup> Those who go around telling gossip are always telling secrets to others;
so stay away from people who foolishly talk too much.

and they punish them very severely [IDM].
- 27 Our consciences are like lamps that Yahweh has given to us to enable us to know what we are thinking [MET];
they reveal what is hidden deep in our ◀minds/inner beings▶.
- 28 Kings will continue to rule as long as they faithfully love their people and are loyal to them and as long as they rule righteously/fairly.
- 29 We honor/admire young people because they are strong, but we respect [MTY] old people more because they are wise.
- 30 When we are beaten or whipped, it can cause us to quit doing what is evil in our lives;
when someone wounds us by punishing us, it can cause our behavior to become good.

and those who give a bribe to rich people in order that the rich people will do a favor for them, will just lose their money.

Thirty wise sayings

17 Now listen [MTY] to what wise people have said;
think carefully about what I am teaching you.
18 It will be good to ◀keep these things in your minds/always remember them▶, because if you do that, you will be able to quote/recite them to others.
19 I want you to trust in Yahweh, and that is the reason that I am telling them to you, now.
20 I have written [RHQ] 30 ◀sayings/things that wise people have said▶ from which you will receive good advice and you will be able you to know many good/useful things.
21 From them, you will learn what is right and what is true, in order that you will be able to bring back a good report to those who sent you to school (OR, give a good answer to those who ask you questions).

-1-

22 It is easy to rob poor people who are helpless and cannot defend themselves, but never do that;
and do not oppress in court those who are needy/afflicted, 23 because Yahweh will speak to defend them, and he will punish those who steal things from others—by causing them to die.

-2-

24 Do not become friends with those who often become angry, and do not associate with those who cannot control their temper/anger, 25 because you might start to act like they do and not be able to stop doing that.

-3-

26 If someone borrows money, do not be one of those who promises to pay what that person owes he cannot pay it back, 27 because if you cannot pay it back, people will surely [RHQ] come and take away everything you own, even your bed.

-4-

28 Do not steal some of your neighbors' land by removing the boundary lines/markers that your ancestors placed/set.

-5-

29 Know/Learn [RHQ] this about those who do their work very skillfully:
They will quit working for ordinary people and will start working for kings because the kings will want people like that to work for them.

think carefully about what (OR, who) is in front of you.

<sup>2</sup> Even if you ◀have a big appetite/want to eat a lot of food▶, restrain yourself.

<sup>3</sup> Do not want to eat a lot of his fine food, because he may be trying to trick you.

-7-

<sup>4</sup> Do not cause yourself to become very tired by working very hard to become rich; be wise and stop doing that,

<sup>5</sup> because as soon as you look [MTY] at all the money that you have acquired, it will be gone;

it will disappear as if it suddenly grew wings [SIM] and flew up into the sky like an eagle.

-8-

<sup>6</sup> If someone who is stingy invites you to a meal, do not eat a lot of his fine food,

<sup>7</sup> because he will be thinking about how much the food cost that you are eating.
He will say to you, "Eat and drink all that you want!", but that is not what he will really be thinking.

<sup>8</sup> When you realize what he is really thinking, it will cause you to want to vomit what you have eaten;
and your kind words telling him that you are enjoying the meal will be wasted.

-9-

<sup>9</sup> ◀Do not waste time by/It is useless▶ talking to foolish people; they will only despise the wise things that you say.

-10-

<sup>10</sup> Do not steal someone's property by removing a boundary marker that has been there for a long time, and do not take for yourself the land that belongs to orphans, <sup>11</sup> because Yahweh is strong, and he is like a relative that has the responsibility to defend them,

he will stand up in court and argue for them and against you.

-11-

<sup>12</sup> Pay attention to what your teachers teach you, and try to learn from the wise things that they say.

if you punish/spank them, it will not cause them to die, <sup>14</sup> and it may save them from going to the place where dead people are.

<sup>15</sup> My son/child, if you [SYN] become wise,
I [SYN] will be very happy.

<sup>16</sup> I [SYN] will rejoice when I hear you [SYN] say what is right/wise.

instead, revere Yahweh all of your life.

<sup>18</sup> If you do that, you will be happy in the future, and God will certainly do for you what you are confidently expecting him to do.

-15-

- 19 My son/child, listen carefully to me and become wise, and think about ◀all that you do/your behavior▶.
- 20 Do not associate with those who drink a lot of ◀wine/strong drink▶ or with those who ◀are gluttons/eat more than they should▶,
- 21 because drunkards and gluttons will become poor; and if all that you do is eat and sleep, you will soon ◀be wearing rags/not have any money to buy clothes▶.

-16-

- 22 Pay attention to what your father tells you, and ◀do not neglect/take care of▶ [LIT] your mother when she is old.
- 23 Try to know/learn what is wise, and get good instruction and understanding;
and do not throw those things away.
- 24 Righteous children will cause their parents to be very happy;
those whose children are wise are proud of them.
- 25 Do what will cause your father to be glad and enable your mother also to be happy.

17

- 26 My son, heed what I say to you, and allow what I do to be an example for you.
- 27 Prostitutes and immoral women [DOU] are like [MET] a deep pit or a well that you may fall into.
- 28 They wait for you like robbers [SIM], and they cause many men to ◀be unfaithful to/have sex with women who are not▶ their wives.

-18-

- 29 I will tell you [RHQ] what kind of people are always miserable and sad.
I will tell you [RHQ] which people are always causing arguments/quarrels and who are always complaining.
I will tell you [RHQ] who are injured in fights and whose eyes are always red/bloodshot.
- 30 It is those who drink a lot of wine, who try drinking other kinds of strong drinks.
- 31 Do not look with pleasure at red wine that looks nice, and which sparkles when it is poured out into cups, and which tastes good as you drink it, 32 because the next morning you will feel like you have been bitten by a poisonous snake [DOU].
- 33 You [SYN] will think that you are seeing strange/weird things, and you [SYN] will not be able to think clearly or speak clearly.
- 34 You will think you are in a ship that is tossing on the sea;
you be like [SIM] someone who is trying to sleep when the ship is rolling from one side to the other.
- 35 You will say, "I think that someone struck me, but he did not hurt me;
he hit me, but I did not feel it.
When will I ◀wake up/feel normal again▶ in order that I can drink some more wine?"

<sup>1</sup> Do not envy evil people; do not desire to associate with them, <sup>2</sup> because they are constantly thinking about acting violently, and whenever they speak [MTY], they talk about ◀causing trouble/hurting someone▶.

-20-

<sup>3</sup> People make good houses (OR, families) by doing what is wise, and they make their houses (OR, families) strong by heeding good advice.
<sup>4</sup> By using good sense, they are able to buy valuable and beautiful things and put them in the rooms of their houses.

-21-

those who know many things can accomplish more than those who are very strong.
<sup>6</sup> Leaders can fight battles if they have wise advisors, and they win those battles if they have many good advisors.

-22-

at public meetings they are not able to say anything that is useful.

-23-

<sup>8</sup> Those who are always planning to do evil things will be called troublemakers.
<sup>9</sup> It is sinful to plan to do foolish things, and people hate those who make fun of everything that is good.

-24-

<sup>10</sup> If you act as though you are helpless when you have troubles, you are truly very weak.

-25-

<sup>11</sup> If it is unjustly decided that someone must be executed, try hard to rescue them
[DOU].
<sup>12</sup> If you say, "I did not know anything about it, so ◀it is not my concern/I did not try to help him▶," remember that God knows what we have done, and he knows what we were thinking [IDM, RHQ], and he will certainly [RHQ] repay us as we deserve for what we have done or for not doing what we should have done.

-26-

<sup>13</sup> My child/son, eat honey, because it is good for you;
the honey that drips from honeycombs tastes very sweet.
<sup>14</sup> Similarly, being wise is good for your soul;
if you become wise,
you will be happy in the future, and God will certainly do for you what you are confidently expecting him to do [LIT].

-27-

<sup>15</sup> Do not be like wicked people who hide and wait to break into the houses of righteous/good people and rob/steal things.
<sup>16</sup> Even if good people fall down seven/many times, they always stand/get up again, but when a disaster happens to wicked people, it ruins/destroys them.

-28-

17 Do not be happy when something bad happens to one of your enemies;
do not rejoice when he stumbles and falls,

18 because Yahweh will know what you are thinking, and he will not like it, and as a result he will not punish that enemy of yours.

-29-

19 Do not become angry/upset about those who do what is evil, and do not [SYN] envy them,

20 because nothing good will happen to wicked people; they are like a lamp that will soon be extinguished [MET].

-30-

21 My child/son, revere Yahweh and also honor the king, and do not associate with people who want to rebel against either of them,

22 because those people will suddenly experience disasters; and no one knows [RHQ] what great disasters that God or the king can cause to happen to them.

More sayings from wise people

23 Here are more things that wise people have said:

It is wrong for judges to decide matters unfairly [IDM].

24 If they say to people who are guilty, "You ◀are innocent/have not done something that is wrong▶,"

even people in other nations will curse and despise them,

25 but if judges say that guilty people must be punished, things will go well for those judges, and ◀they will receive blessings/God will bless them▶.

26 Those who answer others honestly show that they are truly their friends [IDM].

27 First, do the work that needs to be done outside your house, and prepare your fields, and then plant things,
and after you finish doing that, build your house.

28 In the courtroom do not testify against someone when you have no reason to do that,
and do not try to deceive people by what you say [MTY].

29 Do not say, "I will do to him what he did to me;
I will pay him back for the bad things that he did to me."

30 One day I walked by the vineyards of a lazy man, a man who did not have good sense.

31 I was surprised to see that the fields were full of all kinds of thorny bushes, and the stone wall around the garden had ◀collapsed/fallen down▶.

32 When I saw that, I thought about it, and I learned this:

33 If you spend a lot of time sleeping and napping and folding your hands while you rest,

34 soon you will become poor;
it will be as though [PRS, SIM] a bandit who had a weapon in his hand attacked you and stole all that you had.

More wise sayings from Solomon

- <sup>1</sup> Here are more wise sayings/words that Solomon wrote. Some men who worked for Hezekiah, the king of Judah, copied them from a scroll that Solomon had written.
- <sup>2</sup> We consider God to be great because he ◀acts in mysterious ways/does things that we cannot understand▶;
we consider kings to be great because they explain things.
- <sup>3</sup> It is not possible for anyone to measure how high the sky is or how deep the earth/ocean is;
likewise [SIM], it is not possible for us to know all that kings are thinking.
- <sup>4</sup> If workers burn out the impure bits that are in silver, a man who makes things from silver can make something beautiful from the silver.
- <sup>5</sup> Similarly, if wicked advisors are taken away from a king, his government will remain secure, because the king will be able to act justly.
- <sup>6</sup> When you stand in front of a king, do not try to ◀impress him/honor yourself▶ and do not ◀act like you are important/ask to sit where important people sit;▶
- <sup>7</sup> it is better if someone tells you to sit closer to the king than for someone to tell you, while the king is listening, to sit further away in order that someone who is more important may sit closer to the king.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not quickly go to a court to tell the judge about something that you have seen, because another witness may later say something that proves that you are wrong,
and as a result you will be disgraced/ashamed.
If that happens, ◀what will you do?/you will not know what to do.▶ [RHQ]
- <sup>9</sup> If you and someone else think differently about some matter, settle it between yourselves, and do not tell others any secret that he has told you.
- <sup>10</sup> If others find out that you have told secrets, you will be ashamed, and from that time on, ◀you will have a bad reputation/people will think badly about you▶.
- <sup>11</sup> Something that is said that is very appropriate is as delightful as seeing [SIM] gold apples/ornaments in a silver bowl.
- <sup>12</sup> When a wise person rebukes/warns someone [SYN] who is willing to listen, that is as valuable as [SIM] a gold ring or a gold chain.
- <sup>13</sup> A messenger who ◀is reliable/tells someone else exactly what he was told to say▶ refreshes the spirits of his bosses who sent him like [SIM] ◀snow/cold water▶ refreshes the ground at the time that people harvest crops.
- <sup>14</sup> When someone promises to give a gift to us but never gives it, that disappoints us as much as [SIM] clouds and wind that come but do not bring any rain.

- 15 If someone keeps requesting a ruler long enough to do something, he will often agree to do it;
similarly, by speaking [MTY] gently we can often convince others that what we say is right [IDM].
- 16 If you find some honey, do not eat a lot of it, because doing that may cause you to vomit.
- 17 Do not go to your neighbor's house very often to talk with him;
if you go very often, he will get tired of listening to you and start to hate you.
- 18 To falsely accuse others in court is like [SIM] attacking them with a war-club or a sword or a sharp arrow.
- 19 Depending on unreliable people when you have troubles is as bad as trying to eat when you have a bad/hurting tooth or trying to walk when your foot is crippled.
- 20 Singing to someone who is depressed just causes him to feel worse;
it is like [SIM] taking off clothes on a very cold day or like putting vinegar on a wound.
- 21 If your enemies are hungry, give them something to eat;
if they are thirsty, give them something to drink;
- 22 doing that will cause them to feel ashamed [IDM], and Yahweh will reward you for doing that.
- 23 When wind blows from the right direction, it will rain;
similarly [SIM], if we gossip about others, that causes them to look at us very angrily.
- 24 It is better to live ◀alone/by yourself▶ in the corner of an attic/housetop than to live inside the house with a wife who is always nagging.
- 25 Receiving good news from a country far away refreshes our spirits like [SIM] cold water refreshes us when we are very thirsty.
- 26 When a righteous/good person ◀gives in/yields▶ to wicked people, that is as bad as [SIM] a spring that becomes muddied or a fountain that becomes polluted.
- 27 It is not good to eat too much honey, and trying to get people to praise you is also not good.
- 28 People who ◀cannot control their tempers/quickly become very angry▶ are unable to defend their behavior; that is like having a city without a wall around it, with the result that no one can defend it.

26

- 1 Just like [SIM] it is not appropriate for snow to fall in summer time, or rain to fall at harvest time, it is not appropriate to praise/honor foolish people.

- <sup>2</sup> Like [SIM] birds that fly by and do not alight/land on anything, if someone curses you, it cannot hurt you if you ◀do not deserve them/have not done to him what is wrong▶.
- <sup>3</sup> It is necessary to whip a horse and to put a bridle on a donkey to force them to go where we want them to go, and similarly [SIM] it is often necessary to strike foolish people with a stick to cause them to do what is right.
- <sup>4</sup> If a foolish person asks a foolish question, do not answer him, because if you answer his question, you are just as foolish as he is.
- <sup>5</sup> If you give a foolish answer to someone who asks a foolish question, he will realize that he is ◀not very wise/foolish▶.
- <sup>6</sup> Anyone who asks a foolish person to take a message to someone is himself doing something as foolish as cutting off his own feet or drinking poison.
- <sup>7</sup> A lame man cannot use his legs, and similarly [SIM] it is useless for a foolish person to speak [MTY] ◀proverbs/wise sayings▶.
- <sup>8</sup> Tying a stone in a sling so that it cannot be thrown at a target is as foolish as [SIM] honoring a foolish person.
- <sup>9</sup> If a drunk person waves some thorns/brambles with his hand, he is not able to accomplish anything useful by doing that (OR, he does not feel it when a thorn sticks in his hand); similarly, if foolish people speak [MTY] proverbs, they do not help anyone who hears them.
- <sup>10</sup> A man who shoots arrows to try to wound everybody who is near is foolish; similarly, anyone who hires a foolish person who passes by is very foolish.
- <sup>11</sup> A foolish person will foolishly do something stupid a second time; it is like [SIM] a dog returning to eat what it has vomited.
- <sup>12</sup> God can help/bless foolish people more easily than he can help/bless people who are not wise [RHQ], but think that they are wise.
- <sup>13</sup> Lazy people just stay inside their houses and do nothing; they keep saying "I think there is a lion in the street!"
- <sup>14</sup> A door continually swings back and forth on its hinges and does not go anywhere; similarly [SIM], lazy people just continually turn over in their beds and never do anything.

- 15 Some people are extremely lazy;
they put their hand in a dish to get some food but do not even lift the food up to their mouths.
- 16 Lazy people think that they are wiser than seven/several people who can answer others' questions with good sense.
- 17 Anyone who ◀meddles/involves himself▶ in a quarrel that does not concern him is as foolish as [SIM] someone who tries to grab a passing dog by its ears.
- 18 Crazy people who shoot burning arrows to kill people 19 are as foolish as those who deceive someone else and then say, "I was only joking."
- 20 If there is no more firewood to put on the fire, the fire will go out; similarly [SIM], if there are no people who ◀gossip/tell people things that are not true▶, quarreling will end.
- 21 Putting charcoal on burning coals or putting wood on a fire causes the fire to keep burning;
similarly, people who like to quarrel cause people to keep arguing.
- 22 People enjoy listening to what gossips say about others just like [SIM] they enjoy tasty food;
they enjoy listening to what gossips tell them like they enjoy swallowing tasty food.
- 23 People who say nice things when they are thinking about doing evil things are like a nice glaze/covering on a cheap clay pot.
- 24 Those who hate someone and are saying [MTY] something very different from what they are thinking are hypocrites;
they are only planning to harm that person.
- 25 When they say nice things, do not believe them, because in their inner beings are many things that Yahweh hates.
- 26 They try to deceive people to cause them to think that they do not hate that person, but in a public meeting, the people will find out the evil things that they have done.
- 27 Those who dig a deep pit for other people to fall into will fall into it themselves; rocks will roll down on those who start to cause rocks to roll down to crush someone.
- 28 Those [MTY] who tell lies to others really hate them, and those who deceive others ruin them.

27

- 1 Do not boast about what you will do tomorrow, because you do not know what will happen [PRS] on any day.
- 2 Do not praise yourself [MTY, PRS]; allow others to praise you.
If someone else praises you, that is okay.

- <sup>3</sup> It causes pain to our bodies to carry heavy stones or a pail full of sand, but doing something stupid/foolish can cause great pain to other people's spirits.
- <sup>4</sup> It is cruel to be angry with others, and our being angry sometimes destroys others, but being jealous of someone is [RHQ] often more cruel than that.
- <sup>5</sup> It is better to correct someone openly than to show that you don't love that person by not correcting him.
- <sup>6</sup> If a friend criticizes you, he is a good friend and you can trust him; but if one of your enemies kisses you, he is probably wanting to deceive you.
- <sup>7</sup> When someone's stomach is full, he does not want to eat honey; but when someone is very hungry, he thinks that even bitter things taste sweet.
- <sup>8</sup> Anyone who wanders far from his home/family is like [SIM] a bird that is far from its nest.
- <sup>9</sup> Putting olive oil and perfume on a person's skin causes him to feel good, but having a friend who gives good advice is even better.
- <sup>10</sup> Do not neglect your friends or your parents' friends; and at a time when you are experiencing a disaster, do not go to a relative who lives far away to request his help; someone who lives near you can help you more than relatives who live far away.
- <sup>11</sup> My child/son, cause me to be happy by becoming wise, in order that I will know how to reply to those who would criticize me about your behavior.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who have good sense will realize that there is something dangerous ahead, and they will hide; those who do not have good sense just keep going, and later they will suffer because of doing that.
- <sup>13</sup> You deserve to have your property taken from you if you foolishly promise to a stranger (OR, a strange woman) that you will pay what she owes if she is unable to pay it [DOU].
- <sup>14</sup> If you rise early in the morning and call out a greeting to your neighbor while he is still sleeping, he will consider it to be a curse, not a blessing.
- <sup>15</sup> Having a wife that is constantly nagging is as bad as listening to rain continually dripping on a rainy day.
- <sup>16</sup> Trying to restrain/stop her from doing that is as difficult [SIM] as trying to stop the wind or trying to hold oil in your hand.
- <sup>17</sup> We can use one iron tool to sharpen another iron tool;

similarly [SIM], when one person shares what he is thinking, it can help other people to think more clearly.

- 18 Those who take care of fig trees will have figs to eat;
similarly, servants who protect their master will be honored by him.
- 19 When a person looks in the water, he sees his own face;
similarly [SIM], when we look at a person's behavior, we know what he is thinking.
- 20 It is as though the place where the dead people are is always wanting more people to die and come there;
and humans [SYN] are always wanting to acquire more things, too.
- 21 Workers put silver and gold in a very hot furnace to burn out what is impure, and [SIM] people learn what we are really like when they see how we react when people praise us.
- 22 Even if you beat/crush a fool severely like [MET] you pulverize grain with a pestle, you probably will not be able to cause him to stop ◀being foolish/doing foolish things▶.
- 23 Take good care of your flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, 24 because the money that you acquired from selling animals previously will not ◀last/stay with you▶ forever;
similarly [SIM], governments [MTY] certainly do not [RHQ] last forever.
- 25 After you cut the hay [DOU] and store it to feed the animals in the winter while a new crop of hay is growing, 26 you will be able to shear the sheep and make clothes from the wool, and you will get money from selling some of the goats to buy more land, 27 and you will get enough milk from the other goats for you and your family and your female servants.

28

- 1 Wicked people run away even when no one is pursuing them, but righteous/good people are not afraid; they are as brave as lions.
- 2 When the people of a nation sin, they will have one ruler after another; but when their leaders are wise and have good sense, their government will last for a long time.
- 3 A poor person who oppresses other poor people is like [MET] a very heavy/hard rain that destroys the crops, with the result that there is no food for people to eat.
- 4 Those who reject/disobey God's laws always speak well of wicked people;
but those who obey God's laws always oppose what wicked people do.
- 5 Evil people do not understand what it means to act justly, but those who try to obey/worship Yahweh understand that very well.

- <sup>6</sup> It is better to be honest even though you are poor than to be dishonest even though you are rich.
- <sup>7</sup> Young people who obey the laws are wise [IDM]; parents whose children associate with those who ◀carouse/go to wild parties▶ are humiliated/disgraced because of what their children do.
- <sup>8</sup> When people become very rich by charging very high interest [DOU], their money will eventually go to someone who does kind things for the poor.
- <sup>9</sup> If people do not obey [MTY] God's laws, God ◀detests their prayers/considers that their prayers stink▶.
- <sup>10</sup> Those who cause honest/good people to do what is evil will fall into their own pits/traps, but good things will happen to those who ◀are innocent/have not done what is wrong▶.
- <sup>11</sup> Many rich people think that they are wise, but poor people who have good sense will find out whether rich people really are wise or not.
- <sup>12</sup> When righteous/good people ◀succeed/win elections▶, everyone ◀celebrates/is happy▶; but when wicked people win, everyone hides because they are afraid of what the wicked people will do.
- <sup>13</sup> Those who refuse to confess/admit their sins will not prosper, but God acts mercifully/kindly toward those who confess their sins and turn away from their sinful behavior.
- <sup>14</sup> God is pleased with those who always revere him, but those who are stubborn [IDM] will experience disasters.
- <sup>15</sup> Wicked people who mistreat poor people whom they rule are as dangerous to them as [SIM] a lion roaring at them or a bear springing up to attack them.
- <sup>16</sup> Rulers who do not have good sense cruelly oppress the people they rule, but rulers who do not want to become rich by cheating/deceiving people will live (OR, rule) for a long time.
- <sup>17</sup> Those who are guilty of murdering [MTY] another person will ◀be fugitives/keep running away▶ until they die; do not help them to escape.
- <sup>18</sup> Those who continually do what is right will be safe/protected, but those who are dishonest will suddenly be ruined.
- <sup>19</sup> Farmers who work hard in their fields will produce good crops and always have plenty of food to eat,

- but those who spend all their time ◀on useless projects/doing things that do not benefit anyone▶ will become very poor.
- 20 God will greatly bless those who ◀are trustworthy/always do what they say that they will do▶, but he will certainly punish [LIT] those who try to become rich quickly.
- 21 It is not good for judges to decide matters unfairly/unjustly, but some people will do what is wrong even if they receive only a very small bribe [HYP] for doing it.
- 22 Selfish people [IDM] are very eager to become rich quickly;
they do not realize that they will soon become poor.
- 23 Those who rebuke someone will be appreciated/thanked more than those who say nice things to others merely to ◀flatter them/cause them to feel good▶.
- 24 Anyone who steals things from his father or his mother and says “That is not sinful” is as bad as a bandit.
- 25 Greedy people cause trouble/strife;
those who trust in Yahweh will prosper [IDM].
- 26 Those who believe that what they think is always right are foolish;
those who act wisely will ◀escape danger/be safe▶.
- 27 Those who give things to poor people will not become poor, but many people will curse those who refuse to help [IDM] poor people.
- 28 When wicked people become rulers, people hide because they are afraid of what those wicked people will do;
but when wicked people are no longer rulers, good/righteous people will become the rulers.

29

- 1 Some people remain stubborn [IDM] even though they are often reprovved/warned about doing what is wrong, but some day they will be crushed/ruined, and nothing will be able to heal them.
- 2 When righteous people are rulers, people are happy, but when wicked people rule, people ◀groan/are miserable▶.
- 3 Those who are eager to become wise cause their parents to be glad;
those who spend their time with prostitutes will end up giving all their money to them.
- 4 When a king rules justly/fairly, he causes his nation to be strong, but a king who is concerned only with getting more money from the people ruins his nation.

- <sup>5</sup> Those who ◀flatter others/say nice things to others merely to cause them to feel good▶ are really setting a trap for them (OR, for themselves) [SYN].
- <sup>6</sup> Evil people will be trapped by the sins that they commit, but righteous/honest people will sing and be joyful/happy.
- <sup>7</sup> Righteous/Good people know that poor people should be treated fairly/justly, but wicked people ◀are not concerned about/do not pay attention to▶ those matters at all.
- <sup>8</sup> Those who make fun of everything that is good say things that cause everyone in the city to ◀be agitated/in turmoil▶;
those who are wise enable people to remain calm.
- <sup>9</sup> If a wise person sues a foolish person, the foolish person merely laughs at him and yells at him and will not be quiet (OR, the dispute will not be resolved).
- <sup>10</sup> Those who murder others hate people who ◀are honest/always do what is right▶, but righteous people try to protect them.
- <sup>11</sup> People who are wise are patient and restrain/control themselves when they are angry, but foolish people ◀quickly show others that they are very angry/do not restrain themselves at all▶.
- <sup>12</sup> If a ruler ◀pays attention to/believes▶ people who tell lies, all his officials will also become wicked.
- <sup>13</sup> There is one thing that is true about both poor people and those who oppress them:
Yahweh enables all of them to see.
- <sup>14</sup> If kings judge poor people fairly,
they will continue to rule for a long time.
- <sup>15</sup> If children are punished/spanked and reprovved/warned, they become wise;
but if they are allowed to do whatever they want to do, they do things that cause their mothers to be ashamed of them.
- <sup>16</sup> When wicked people rule, there are more crimes committed {people commit more crimes}, but some day those wicked people will ◀be defeated/no longer rule▶, and righteous people will see that happen.
- <sup>17</sup> If you discipline your children, they will no longer do things that will cause you to be worried;
instead, they will do things that will delight you [SYN].
- <sup>18</sup> When the people of a nation do not receive messages that come directly from God, they do not control their behavior.
God is pleased with those who obey his laws.

- 19 It is not possible to correct/discipline servants only by talking to them; they understand what you are saying, but they do not pay attention to it.
- 20 God can help/bless foolish people more easily [RHQ] than he can help/bless people who speak without thinking first.
- 21 If someone gives his servants everything that they want, starting from when they are young, some day those servants will take from him everything that he owns.
- 22 Those who quickly become angry cause many arguments, and they also commit many sins.
- 23 Proud people will be disgraced; those who are humble will be respected.
- 24 Those who help thieves to steal only hurt themselves; when they are in court, they solemnly ask God to curse them if they do not tell the truth, but they do not tell the truth about the crime that was committed, and as a result, God will curse them.
- 25 It is like a dangerous trap [MET] for people to be ◀afraid of/worried about▶ what others will think about them, but those who trust in Yahweh are safe/protected.
- 26 Many people request rulers to do things to help them, but Yahweh is the only one who surely does for people what is fair/just.
- 27 Righteous people hate/detest those who do what is evil, and wicked people hate those whose behavior is always good.

Wise sayings from Agur

<sup>1</sup> These are sayings/messages that God gave to Agur, the son of Jakeh. Agur wrote them for Ithiel and Ucal.

- <sup>2</sup> It seems that I am very stupid;
I do not deserve to be considered to be a human;
I do not have the good sense that humans should have.
- <sup>3</sup> I have not learned how to become wise and I do not know much about God.
- <sup>4</sup> But let me say this:
No one [RHQ] has ascended to heaven to find out what God is like and returned to tell us.
No one [RHQ] has gathered/held the wind in his hand.
No one [RHQ] has wrapped the water in the ocean in a piece of cloth, and no one [RHQ] has established the boundaries of the earth.
If you know who has done those things, tell me [RHQ] his name, and the names of his children [SAR]!

But you do not know who has done those things, so you cannot speak with authority about what God is like.

<sup>5</sup> Everything that God has said is true;
he is like a shield [MET] for all those who request him to protect them.

<sup>6</sup> Do not add to (OR, change) what God has said; if you do that, he will rebuke you and show that you are lying.

<sup>7</sup> God, I ask you to do two things for me;
please do them before I die:

<sup>8</sup> Help me never to lie or deceive people and do not cause me to become poor or to become rich.
Just give me the food that I need;

<sup>9</sup> because if I become rich,
I might say that I do not [RHQ] know you and that I do not need you;
and if I become poor,
I might dishonor you by stealing things.

More wise sayings

<sup>10</sup> Do not ◀slander/say bad things about▶ a worker to his boss;
if you do that, the worker will curse you, and cause you to have trouble.

<sup>11</sup> I will list four kinds of evil things that people do:
Some people curse their fathers and do not ask God to bless their mothers.

<sup>12</sup> Some people think that they are perfect, but really they have never been cleansed from their guilt for committing disgusting sins.

<sup>13</sup> Some people are very proud;
they think that they are very good and they despise others.

<sup>14</sup> Some people act very cruelly toward others;
it is as though [MET] they have teeth that are like sharp knives;
they severely oppress poor people and try to cause them to disappear from the land.

similarly, greedy people are always saying "Give me some!" or "Give me more!"
[MET]

There are four things that are never ◀satisfied/content with what they have▶;
they always want more [LIT]:

<sup>16</sup> The place where the dead people are;
women who do not have any children;
ground that needs water/rain;
and a fire that always needs more wood.

<sup>17</sup> Those who [SYN] make fun of their fathers or refuse to obey their mothers (OR, despise their aged mothers) should die and have their eyes pecked out by crows, and the rest of their corpses should be fed to the vultures.

- 18 There are four things that are wonderful to me,
but I do not understand any of them:
- 19 How eagles fly in the sky, how snakes are able to move/crawl across a big rock,
 how ships sail on the seas,
 and how a man falls in love with a woman.
- 20 This is what a woman who ◀is not faithful to/does not have sex only with▶ her husband does:
 She commits adultery [EUP], and then bathes and says, "I have not done anything that is wrong!"
- 21 There are four things that no one in the world can tolerate:
- 22 What a slave does who becomes a king,
 a foolish person eating too much food,
- 23 what a woman who is hated does when she gets married, and what a female servant does when she becomes the boss instead of her mistress.
- 24 There are four animals on the earth that are small, but they are very wise:
- 25 Ants are not strong,
 but they store up food during the summer in order to have it during the winter.
- 26 Rock badgers also are not strong, but they make their homes among the rocks where they will be safe.
- 27 Locusts do not have a king,
 but they march like the soldiers in an army.
- 28 Lizards/Geckos are very small and you can hold them in your hand, but they are cleverly able to get inside kings' palaces.
- 29 There are four animals that strut around and look very impressive while they walk
 [DOU]:
- 30 Lions, which are stronger than all other animals and are not afraid of any of them;
- 31 male goats, strutting roosters, and kings who ◀parade/walk proudly back and forth▶ in front of the people whom they rule.
- 32 If you have acted foolishly, exalting yourself, or if you been planning to do something evil, stop it immediately [IDM]!
- 33 If you churn milk, it produces butter/curds, and if you hit someone hard on his nose, his nose bleeds; similarly, if you do something to cause people to become angry, strife usually results.

Wise sayings from King Lemuel

- <sup>1</sup> These are sayings/messages that God gave to King Lemuel's mother, and which his mother taught him:
- <sup>2</sup> You are my son; I gave birth to you [RHQ];
 you are the son that God gave me in answer to my prayers.

- <sup>3</sup> Do not exhaust your energy having sex [EUP] with women to whom you are not married, with women who ruin kings by having sex with them.
- <sup>4</sup> Lemuel, kings should not be constantly drinking wine or greatly desire to drink other strong/alcoholic drinks.
- <sup>5</sup> If they do that, they forget the laws that they have made, and they do not do what is right for poor/afflicted people.
- <sup>6</sup> Give strong/alcoholic drinks to those who are dying and to those who are ◀greatly distressed/suffering very much▶.
- <sup>7</sup> If they drink, they will forget that they are poor, and they will not think about their distress/troubles any more.
- <sup>8</sup> Speak [MTY] to defend people who are unable to defend themselves; speak to encourage others to do what is right for those who are helpless.
- <sup>9</sup> Speak [MTY] ◀on their behalf/to help them▶ and try to cause judges to decide matters fairly/justly;
try to cause others to do for poor and needy people what should be done for them.

Praise for a good wife

- <sup>10</sup> It is very difficult for a man to [RHQ] find a wife who is good and who is capable of doing many things.
Any woman who is like that is worth more than jewels.
- <sup>11</sup> Her husband completely trusts her, and because of her, he has everything that he needs [LIT].
- <sup>12</sup> She never does anything that would harm him;
she does good things for him all the days of her life.
- <sup>13</sup> She finds wool and flax in the market, and she enjoys spinning it to make yarn.
- <sup>14</sup> She is like [SIM] a ship that brings from far away goods/merchandise to sell, because she buys food that comes from far away.
- <sup>15</sup> She gets up before dawn to prepare food for her family.
Then she plans the work that her servant girls will do on that day.
- <sup>16</sup> She goes out and looks at a field that someone wants to sell;
and if it is a good field, she buys it.
She buys grapevines [MTY] with the money that she has earned,
and then she plants them.
- <sup>17</sup> She works very hard [IDM];
she makes her arms strong by the work she does.
- <sup>18</sup> She knows when she is getting a good profit from her business.
When it is necessary, she works [MTY] until it is late at night.
- <sup>19</sup> She holds the ◀spindle/rod which twists the thread that she is making▶, and then she spins the thread [MTY] that she will use.
- <sup>20</sup> She generously helps [MTY] those who are poor and needy [DOU].
- <sup>21</sup> She is not worried that the people in her house will be cold in the winter, because she has made warm clothes for all of them.
- <sup>22</sup> She makes bedspreads/quilts for the beds.
She wears fine linen clothes that are dyed purple, like queens wear.
- <sup>23</sup> Her husband is well known by the important people of the town;

- he sits with the other town leaders in the meetings of the town council.
- <sup>24</sup> She makes clothes from linen cloth and sells them.
She sells sashes to shop owners.
- <sup>25</sup> She is strong in her character and respected/dignified, and she ◀laughs at/is not afraid of▶ what will happen in the future.
- <sup>26</sup> When she speaks, she says what is wise.
When she gives instructions,
she speaks [MTY] kindly (OR, faithfully).
- <sup>27</sup> She watches over everything that is done in her household, and she [IDM] is never lazy.
- <sup>28</sup> Her children all together speak highly of her,
and her husband also praises her.
- <sup>29</sup> He says to her, "There are many women who do admirable things, but you surpass them all!"
- <sup>30</sup> Some women who are attractive are not really good women, but they can deceive us regarding what they are really like.
Furthermore, women's beauty does not last;
but women who revere Yahweh should be honored.
- <sup>31</sup> Reward women who are like that,
and praise them in public [MTY] for what they have done.

This book contains the account of King Solomon observing what people do and of realizing that only reverencing God and obeying him is worthwhile. We call this book Ecclesiastes

Everything is mysterious

<sup>1</sup> I am Solomon, the son of King David. I rule in Jerusalem and people call me ‘The ◀Preacher/Religious Teacher▶’.

<sup>2</sup> *I say that everything is mysterious;
everything is hard for me to understand;
it is difficult to understand why everything happens.*

<sup>3</sup> ◀What do people gain from all the work that they do here on the earth?/It seems that people gain no lasting benefit from all the work that they do here on the earth.▶ [RHQ]

<sup>4</sup> Each year old people die and babies are born, but the earth never changes.

<sup>5</sup> Each morning the sun rises, and each evening it sets, and then it hurries around to where it started from.

<sup>6</sup> The wind blows south, and then it turns around to start blowing towards the north.

It goes around and around in circles.

<sup>7</sup> *All the streams flow into the sea,
but the sea is never full.*

The water returns to the sky, and when it rains, the water returns to the rivers, and it flows again to the sea.

<sup>8</sup> Everything is boring, with the result that we do not even want to talk about it.

We [SYN] see things, but we always want to see more.

We [SYN] hear things, but we always want to hear more.

<sup>9</sup> *Everything continues to be the same as it has always been;
things that happen have happened previously, and they will happen again.
What has been done before will be done again.*

There is nothing really new in this world [MTY].

But it has existed previously;*

it existed before we were born.

<sup>11</sup> People do not remember the things that happened long ago, and in the future, people will not remember what we are doing now.

What the religious teacher found out about wisdom

<sup>12</sup> I, the Religious Teacher, have been the king of Israel for many years, ruling in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> By being wise, I concentrated on understanding everything that was being done on the earth [MTY]. But I found out that God causes all of us to experience things that cause us to be unhappy/miserable. <sup>14</sup> It seems that nothing that happens on the earth really enables us to do anything useful. It is like [MET] chasing the wind.

<sup>15</sup> Many things that are crooked cannot be caused to become straight;
we cannot count things that do not exist.

<sup>16</sup> I said to myself, “Hey, I am wiser than any of the kings that ruled in Jerusalem before I became the king. I am wiser and I know more than any of them!” <sup>17</sup> So I determined to learn more about being wise and to learn about knowing about many things, and also to learn about doing things that are very foolish [DOU]. But I found out that trying to understand those things was also useless, like chasing the wind.

The more things I knew about, the sadder I became.

2

Pleasure does not bring happiness

<sup>1</sup> Then I said to myself, “Okay, I will try to do everything that I enjoy. I will find out whether doing what I enjoy can truly enable me to be happy.” But I found out that doing that was also useless/senseless. <sup>2</sup> So I said to myself, “It is foolish to laugh all the time, and continually doing what I enjoy does not seem to bring any lasting benefit.” <sup>3</sup> So, after thinking a lot about it, I decided to ◀cheer myself/cause myself to be happy▶ by drinking a lot of wine. So while I was still trying to be wise, I decided to do things that many people do to be happy during the short time that they are alive on the earth. <sup>4</sup> I did great things: I caused houses to be built for myself and vineyards to be planted. <sup>5</sup> I told my workers to make gardens and parks. Then I told them to fill the gardens with many kinds of fruit trees. <sup>6</sup> I told them to build reservoirs to store water to irrigate the fruit trees. <sup>7</sup> I bought male and female slaves, and babies who later became my slaves were born in my palace. I also owned more livestock than any of the previous kings in Jerusalem had owned. <sup>8</sup> I also accumulated large amounts of silver and gold that were paid to me from the treasures of kings and rulers of provinces. I hired men and women to sing for me, and I had many ◀concubines/slave wives▶ who gave me much pleasure [EUP]. <sup>9</sup> So, I became greater than anyone else who had ever lived in Jerusalem, and I was very wise.

I did everything [LIT] that I thought would enable me to be happy.
All those things that I [SYN] enjoyed were like a reward for all my hard work.

<sup>11</sup> But then I thought about all the hard work that I [SYN] had done to get all those things, and none of it seems to bring any lasting benefit [DOU].

It was all like chasing the wind.

Being wise also seemed useless

<sup>12</sup> Then I started to think about being wise, and also about being foolish [DOU].

I said to myself, “I certainly do not think that [RHQ] the next king will be able to do anything better than I can.”

<sup>13</sup> And I thought, “Surely it is better to be wise than to be foolish, like light is better than darkness,

<sup>14</sup> because wise people walk in the daylight and [IDM] can see where they are going, but foolish people walk in the darkness and cannot see where they are going.”

But I also realized that both wise people and foolish people eventually die.

<sup>15</sup> So I said to myself,

"I am very wise, but I will die at the end of my life, like foolish people do.

So ◀how has it benefited me to be very wise?/it certainly has not benefited me to be very wise [RHQ]▶.

I do not understand why people consider that it is valuable to be wise.

And after we die, we will all eventually be forgotten [DOU]."

<sup>17</sup> So I hated being alive, because everything that we do here on the earth [MTY] distresses me. It all seems to be useless like chasing the wind.

Working hard seemed useless

<sup>18</sup> I also began to hate all the hard work that I had done, because when I die, everything that I have acquired will belong to the next king. <sup>19</sup> And ◀who/no one▶ knows [RHQ] whether he will be wise or whether he will be foolish. But even if he is foolish, he will acquire all the things that I worked very hard and wisely to get. <sup>20</sup> I thought about all the hard work that I had done. It seemed useless, and I became depressed/discouraged. <sup>21</sup> Some people work wisely and skillfully, using the things that they have learned. But when they die, they leave everything, and someone who has not worked hard acquires those things. And that also seemed to be senseless and caused me to be discouraged. <sup>22</sup> So, it seems that people do not [RHQ] get much for all the hard work that they do and for worrying. <sup>23</sup> Every day the work that they do causes them to experience pain and to be worried. And during the night, their minds are not able to rest. That also is very frustrating.

<sup>24</sup> So I decided that the best thing that we can do is to enjoy what we eat and drink, and also enjoy our work. And I realized that those things are what God intends for us. <sup>25</sup> There is absolutely no one [RHQ] who is able to enjoy those things if God does not give those things to him. <sup>26</sup> God enables those who please him to be wise, to know many things, and to enjoy many things. But if sinful people work hard and become rich, God can take their money away from them and give it to those who please him. But that also is something that is difficult for me to understand. Their working hard seems useless, like chasing the wind.

There is a right time for everything

<sup>1</sup> There is a right/correct time for everything, a time for everything that we do in this world.

<sup>2</sup> There is a time to be born, and there is a time to die.

There is a time to plant seeds, and there is a time to harvest crops.

<sup>3</sup> There is a time to kill people, and there is a time to heal people.

There is a time to tear things down, and there is a time to build things.

<sup>4</sup> There is a time to cry, and there is a time to laugh.

There is a time to mourn, and there is a time to dance joyfully.

<sup>5</sup> There is a time to throw away stones from a field, and there is a time to gather stones to build walls/houses.

There is a time to embrace people, and there is a time to not embrace people.

<sup>6</sup> There is a time to search for things, and there is a time to stop searching for things.

There is a time to keep/save things, and there is a time to throw things away.

<sup>7</sup> There is a time to tear our old clothes, and there is a time to mend clothes.

There is a time to say nothing, and there is a time when we should speak.

<sup>8</sup> There is a time when we should love things that people do, and there is a time when we should hate things that people do.
There is a time for war, and there is a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup> ◀What do people gain from all the work that they do?/It seems that people gain very little from all the work that they do [RHQ]▶. <sup>10</sup> I have seen the work that God has given people to do. <sup>11</sup> God has appointed a time that is right/correct for everything to happen. He has also caused people to realize that there are things that will endure forever. But in spite of that, no one can completely understand everything that God has done, from the time that he starts doing things until he finishes them. <sup>12</sup> I know that the best [LIT] thing for us people to do is to rejoice and to do good things all during the time that we are alive. <sup>13</sup> And I also know that everyone should eat and drink, and enjoy the work that they do. Those are things that God gives to us. <sup>14</sup> I also know that what God does endures forever. No one can add to what God does, and no one can take away from the things that God does. God does those things in order that people would revere him.

and things that will happen in the future have already happened previously;
God causes the same things to happen many times.

Injustices in the world

<sup>16</sup> Furthermore, I saw that on this earth [MTY], even in the courts where we expect judges to make right decisions about what people had done, they did many wicked [DOU] things.

<sup>17</sup> So I said to myself [SYN], “God will judge both righteous people and wicked people; there is a time for him to do that, because there is a time for him to do everything.”

<sup>18</sup> And regarding humans, I also said to myself, “God is testing us, to show us that in one way people are no different than animals, <sup>19</sup> because what happens to people happens to animals. Animals die, and people die. We all must breathe to remain alive. With regard to that, people have no advantage over animals, so I have a difficult time understanding that. <sup>20</sup> People and animals all die and are buried. We are all made of soil, and when we die, our corpses become soil again. <sup>21</sup> No one knows [RHQ] for sure that when we die, our souls/spirits go up to heaven and the souls/spirits of animals go down to the place where the dead are.”

<sup>22</sup> So I concluded that the best thing for us people to do is to be happy about the work that we do, because that is what God has given to us. I say that because no one of us [RHQ] knows what happens to us after we die.

4

Other things that he found hard to understand/accept

<sup>1</sup> I thought some more about all the suffering that people are caused to experience on the earth [MTY].

I saw the tears of people who were ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶ and who had no one to comfort/encourage them.

Those who oppressed them had power, and there was absolutely no one who was able to comfort those who were being oppressed.

<sup>2</sup> So I thought that those who are already dead are more fortunate than those who are still alive.

<sup>3</sup> And those who have not been born yet are more fortunate than those who are still alive and those who have died, because those who have not been born have not seen all the evil things that are done on the earth.

<sup>4</sup> I also thought about all the hard work that people do and the skills that they have.
And I thought about how they compete with each other because they are envious of others, and I concluded that this also is something that is not accomplishing anything useful, like chasing the wind.

<sup>5</sup> Foolish people refuse to work;
they sit idly, with their hands folded, and do not work.
So they ruin themselves.

<sup>6</sup> So I say, "It is better to be content with not having much money, than to work very hard and try to get a lot of money, which is as useless as chasing the wind."

<sup>7</sup> I thought about something else that happens on the earth [MTY] that seems senseless.

<sup>8</sup> There are men who live alone;
they do not have a wife or children or any brothers living with them;
every day they work very hard, without stopping, to get a lot of money, but they are never satisfied with the things that they have.

They never ask themselves,
"Why am I working very hard to earn more money?
Why am I not doing things that would cause me to be happy?"
What they do also seems senseless.

<sup>9</sup> Having someone work with you is better than being by yourself all the time.
If you have a friend, he can help you to do your work.

<sup>10</sup> If you fall down, he can help you get up again.
But if you fall down when you are alone, it will be difficult for you, because there will be no one to help you stand up.

<sup>11</sup> Similarly, if two people sleep together, they can keep each other warm.
But someone who sleeps alone will certainly not [RHQ] be warm.

<sup>12</sup> Someone who is alone can easily be attacked and defeated by another person, but two people can help each other and ◀resist/defend themselves against▶ someone who attacks them.

Three people can defend themselves even more easily, like a rope that is made from three cords is harder to break than a rope made from two cords.

When a poor young man becomes king

<sup>13</sup> A young man who is poor but wise is a better person than a foolish old king who refuses to pay attention when people try to give him good advice. <sup>14</sup> It is possible for a young man like that to succeed and some day become king, even if his parents were poor or even if he was in prison some of the time. <sup>15</sup> But then some other young man becomes king, and everyone ◀starts to support/is pleased with▶ him. <sup>16</sup> Large crowds of people crowd around him. But after a few years, they will reject him, too.
So it is all senseless, like chasing after the wind.

5

Be careful about making promises

<sup>1</sup> When you enter God's temple, you should be sure to listen carefully. Doing that is better than offering sacrifices to God and then not obeying him, which is foolish.

<sup>2</sup> Think carefully before you speak [MTY] or before you promise God that you will do something [IDM].
Do not forget that God is in heaven and he is all-powerful and you are here on the earth, so think carefully before you make any promises to God.

<sup>3</sup> If you are continually thinking and worrying about things, you will have bad dreams about them and not rest well.
And the more you talk,
the more likely it will be that you will say things that are foolish.

<sup>4</sup> When you solemnly promise God that you will do something, do not be foolish by delaying in doing it, because God is not pleased with foolish people. Do all the things that you promise God that you will do. <sup>5</sup> It is better to not promise anything than to promise to do something, and then not doing it. <sup>6</sup> Do not sin by promising to do something and then not doing it. And when you promise God to do something and do not do it, do not say to God's priest that it was a mistake for you to promise to do that. If you do that, God will certainly [RHQ] become very angry with you, and he will take from you everything that you [SYN] have worked to acquire. <sup>7</sup> Promising to do something and not doing it is like [SIM] a dream that has no value; instead, revere God by doing what you promised him that you would do.

Officials cheat each other

<sup>8</sup> Do not be surprised if you see poor people being ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶ by powerful/influential people, or if you see judges making unjust decisions throughout the land. That happens because the people who do that are supervised and cheated by more important officials [DOU], <sup>9</sup> and even the king forces the people to give him some of the crops that they harvest.

The futility of wealth

<sup>10</sup> Everyone who tries to get as much money as they can will never think that they have enough.
They will never be satisfied with the money that they have.
That also is senseless.

<sup>11</sup> The more money that we have, the more people want us to spend our money to buy things for them.
So people who have a lot of money do not [RHQ] benefit from it;
they see [MTY] it when they get it, but it soon ◀disappears/is completely spent▶.

<sup>12</sup> Those who work hard sleep peacefully at night, even if they do not have much food to eat.
But rich people do not sleep well, because they worry about their money.

<sup>13</sup> I have seen another terrible thing that happens here on the earth [MTY]:
People save up all their money and become rich,
but they are not helped by saving a lot of money,

<sup>14</sup> because something happens that causes their money to be gone, and when they die,
there is no money for their children to get/inherit.

<sup>15</sup> When we are born, we do not bring anything with us,
and when we die,
we take nothing with us
from all that we have earned by our working hard.

<sup>16</sup> That also seems senseless.
People bring nothing into the world when they are born, and they leave this world taking nothing with them.

They have worked hard,
but they receive no lasting benefit [MET].

<sup>17</sup> Furthermore, rich people are always miserable [MET] and sad, and depressed/discouraged and often sick and ◀resentful/thinking that what has happened to them is unfair▶.

<sup>18</sup> So, the best thing for people to do here on the earth during the few years that God allows them to be alive is to eat and drink and to enjoy their work, because those are the things that God has given to them. <sup>19</sup> If people are rich and have a lot of possessions, and are able to ◀enjoy/be happy with▶ the things that they have and to enjoy their work, those things are also gifts from God. <sup>20</sup> Those people do not worry much about everything that has happened during the time that they have been alive, because God enables them to be happy doing everything that they do.

<sup>1</sup> I have seen something else here on this earth that troubles people. <sup>2</sup> God enables some people to get a lot of money and possessions and to be honored; they have everything [LIT] that they want. But God sometimes does not allow them to continue to enjoy those things. Someone else gets them and enjoys them. That seems senseless and unfair.

<sup>3</sup> Someone might have 100 children and live for many years. But if he is not able to enjoy the things that he has acquired, and if he is not buried properly after he dies,
I say that a child that is dead when it is born is more fortunate. <sup>4</sup> That dead baby's birth is meaningless; it does not even have a name. It goes directly to the place where there is only darkness. <sup>5</sup> It does not live to see the sun or know anything. But it finds more rest than rich people do who are alive. <sup>6</sup> Even if people could live for 2,000 years, if they do not enjoy the things that God gives to them, it would have been better for them never to have been born.

All people who live a long time certainly [RHQ] all go to the same place— to the grave.

<sup>7</sup> People work hard to earn enough money to buy food to eat [MTY], but often they never get enough to eat.

<sup>8</sup> So it seems that [RHQ] wise people do not receive more lasting benefits than foolish people do.

And it seems that [RHQ] poor people do not benefit from knowing how to conduct their lives.

<sup>9</sup> It is better to enjoy the things that we already have [MTY] than to constantly want more things; continually wanting more things is senseless,
like chasing the wind.

<sup>10</sup> All the things that exist on the earth have been given names.

And everyone knows what people are like, so it is useless to argue with someone (OR, with God) who is stronger than we are.

<sup>11</sup> The more that we talk,
the more often we say things that are senseless, so it certainly does not [RHQ] benefit us to talk a lot.

<sup>12</sup> We live for only a short time; we disappear like [SIM] a shadow disappears in the sunlight. No one [RHQ] knows what is best for us while we are alive, and no one [RHQ] knows what will happen to us after we die [EUP].

7

The best things in life

<sup>1</sup> Having a good reputation [MTY] is better than fine perfume, and the day that we die is better than the day that we are born.

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to a house where people are mourning about someone who has died than to go to a house where people are feasting, because everyone will die some day, and people who are alive should think seriously [IDM] about that.

<sup>3</sup> It is better to be sad than to be always laughing, because being sad can cause us to think more about how we should conduct our lives [IDM].

<sup>4</sup> Wise people who go to where others are mourning think about the fact that some day they also will die, but foolish people [PRS] do not think about that; they are always [MTY] laughing.

<sup>5</sup> It is better to pay attention to someone who is wise rebuking you than to listen to the songs of a foolish person.

we will not learn any more than by listening to the crackling of thorns being burned under a pot.
Listening to fools is senseless.

<sup>7</sup> When wise people say to others, "You must pay me a lot of money for me to protect you,"
that causes those wise people to become foolish, and accepting bribes causes people to become unable to do what is fair/just.

<sup>8</sup> Finishing something is better than starting something, and being patient is better than being proud.

<sup>9</sup> Do not quickly ◀lose your temper/react to things angrily▶, because it is foolish people [SYN] who become very angry.

because it is people who are not wise who say that.

<sup>11</sup> Being wise is better than inheriting valuable things; being wise provides lasting benefits for every person on the earth [MTY].

<sup>12</sup> We are sometimes protected by being wise like we are sometimes protected by having a lot of money, but being wise is better than having a lot of money, because being wise prevents us from doing foolish things that would cause us to die.

<sup>13</sup> Think carefully about what God has done.
 Certainly no one can [RHQ] cause to become straight the things that God has caused to be crooked.

<sup>14</sup> When things are going well for you, be happy, and when things are not going well for you, remember that God is the one who causes good things to happen and who also causes disasters.

<sup>15</sup> During all the time that I have been alive I have seen a lot of [HYP] things that seem senseless.

I have seen righteous people die while they are still young, and I have seen wicked people remain alive for a very long time in spite of their continuing to be wicked.

<sup>16</sup> So do not think that you are very righteous and do not think that you are very wise, because if you think those things, you will destroy yourself.

<sup>17</sup> If you do what is evil or do what is foolish, you might die while you are still young.

<sup>18</sup> Continue to avoid doing what is evil and doing what is foolish;
 avoid doing both of those things by continually revering God.

<sup>19</sup> If you are wise, you will be more powerful/influential than the ten most powerful/influential men in your city.

<sup>20</sup> There is no one in this world who always does what is right and who never sins.

<sup>21</sup> Do not pay attention [IDM] to everything that people say, because if you do that, you might hear your servant cursing you.

<sup>22</sup> You know that you have also cursed other people.

<sup>23</sup> I said to myself that I would use my wisdom to study all the things that I have written about,
 but I was not able to do it successfully.

<sup>24</sup> Wisdom seems to be far from me;
 there is no one [RHQ] who can truly understand everything.

<sup>25</sup> But I decided to investigate things and by my wisdom try to understand the reason for everything.

I also wanted to understand why people act wickedly and why they act very foolishly.

<sup>26</sup> One thing I learned was that ◀allowing a woman to seduce you/having sex with a woman to whom you are not married▶ is worse than dying.

A woman who tries to seduce men is as dangerous as a trap [MET].
If you allow her to put her arms around you, it will be as though she will be fastening you with chains.

Women like that will capture sinful men,
 but men who please God will escape from such women.

<sup>27</sup> This is what I have learned:
 I tried to learn more and more about things to try to find out the reason for everything, <sup>28</sup> and I continued to try to learn more, but I could not find all that I was searching for.

But one thing that I found out was that among 1,000 people I found one righteous man, but I did not find even one righteous woman.

<sup>29</sup> But I did learn one thing:

When God created people, they were righteous, but they have found many ways to do many evil things.

8

<sup>1</sup> I will tell you about those who are truly wise [RHQ] with the result that they can explain why everything happens.
 Being wise enables people to be happy [MTY] and enables them to smile.

Obey the king

<sup>2</sup> You solemnly promised God that you would obey what the king commands, so do that. <sup>3</sup> Do not quickly disobey the king. And do not join those who want to rebel against him, because the king will do what he wants to do. <sup>4</sup> We need to obey what the king says more than we need to obey what anyone else says; no one can say to the king, “◀Why are you doing that?/You should not be doing that.▶ [RHQ]”

<sup>5</sup> If you obey what the king commands, he will not harm you.

So be wise, and know the correct/right time to do things and the right way to do them.

 there is a right/correct time to do things, and there is a right/correct way to do them.

<sup>7</sup> No one knows what will happen in the future, so there is no one [RHQ] who can tell us what is going to happen.

<sup>8</sup> We cannot control the wind, and we cannot control when we will die.
 Soldiers are not permitted to go home during a battle, and evil people will not be saved by doing what is evil.

<sup>9</sup> I thought about all those things, and I thought about all [HYP] the other things that happen on this earth. I saw that sometimes people cause those whom they control to suffer. <sup>10</sup> I also saw that sometimes after evil people die, they are highly honored at their funerals by the people in the cities where they had done evil deeds. It seemed to be difficult to understand why that happens.

<sup>11</sup> If evil people are not immediately punished, it causes other people [SYN] to also want to do evil things. <sup>12</sup> But even if sinful people commit 100 crimes, and even if they live for a long time, I know that things will go better for those who greatly respect and revere God. <sup>13</sup> I also know that things will not go well for those who are evil, because they do not revere God. Shadows do not last a long time. Similarly [SIM], evil people will not live a long time.

<sup>14</sup> Another thing that sometimes happens on this earth is that bad things happen to righteous people, and good things happen to evil people. It is difficult to understand why that happens. <sup>15</sup> So I decided that I would recommend that people be happy while they are alive, because the best thing that people can do here on this earth is to eat and drink and be happy. Enjoying doing those things will help people while they do their work, all the time that God has given to them to remain alive here on the earth.

<sup>16</sup> I thought about being wise and about people who work very hard, working day and night and not taking time to sleep. <sup>17</sup> Then I thought about everything [HYP] that God has done, and I realized that no one can understand everything that happens here on this earth. Truly, people are not able to fully understand everything that God understands, even if they try hard to do that. Even if wise people claim that they understand it all, they cannot.

Everyone dies

<sup>1</sup> I thought about all those things, and I concluded that God controls what happens to everyone, even those who are wise and those who are righteous. No one knows whether others will love them or whether they will hate them.

<sup>2</sup> But we know that some time in the future we will all die; it does not matter whether we act righteously or wickedly, whether we are good or whether we are bad, whether we are acceptable for worshiping God or whether we have done things to cause us to be unacceptable;

it does not matter if we offer sacrifices to God or if we do not;

it does not matter if we do what we have promised God that we will do or if we do not;
we all die.

The same thing will happen to good people and to sinful people, to those who solemnly promise to do things for God and to those who are afraid to make such promises.

<sup>3</sup> It seems wrong that the same thing happens to everyone on this earth: Everyone dies [EUP]. Furthermore, people's inner beings are full of evil. People do foolish things while they are alive, and then they die and join those who are already dead.

<sup>4</sup> While we are alive, we confidently expect that good things will happen to us. We despise dogs, but it is better to be a dog that is alive than to be a majestic lion that is dead.

<sup>5</sup> We who are alive know that some day we will die, but dead people do not know anything.

Dead people do not receive any more rewards, and people soon forget them.

<sup>6</sup> While they were alive, they loved some people, they hated some people, they envied some people, but that all ends when they die.

They will never again be a part of anything that happens here on the earth.

<sup>7</sup> So I say, be joyful [DOU] while you eat your food and drink your wine, because that is what God wants you to do. <sup>8</sup> Wear nice [MTY] clothes and make your face look nice. <sup>9</sup> Enjoy living with your wife whom you love, all during the time that God has given to you to be alive here on this earth. And even though it is difficult to understand why many things happen, enjoy doing the work that you do here on this earth. <sup>10</sup> Whatever you are able to do, do it with all your energy, because some time you will die, and in the place of the dead where you are going, no one works or plans to do anything or knows anything or is wise.

The person who runs fastest does not always win the race,
the strongest soldiers do not always win the battle,

the wisest people do not always have food,
 the smartest people do not always become rich, and people who have studied a lot are not always ◀honored/treated very specially▶ by others;

we cannot always control what things will happen to us and where they will happen.

<sup>12</sup> No one knows when he will die [EUP];
 fish are cruelly caught in a net,
 and birds are caught in snares/traps;
 similarly [SIM], people experience disasters at times when they do not expect them to happen.

Being wise is better than being foolish

<sup>13</sup> Once I saw something that a wise man did that impressed me. <sup>14</sup> There was a small town, where only a few people lived. The army of a great king came to that town and surrounded it. They built dirt ramps up against the walls in order to climb up and attack the town. <sup>15</sup> In that town there was a man who was poor but very wise. Because of doing what that man suggested, the town was saved; but people soon forgot about him. <sup>16</sup> So I realized that although being wise is better than being strong, if you are poor, no one will appreciate what you do, and people will soon forget what you said.

<sup>17</sup> Speaking quietly what is very wise is much more sensible than a king shouting to foolish people.

<sup>18</sup> Being wise is more useful than a lot of weapons;
 but if you do one foolish thing, it is possible that because of doing that, you will ruin all the good things that you have done.

 Similarly [SIM], a small amount of acting foolishly can have a greater effect than acting wisely.

<sup>2</sup> If people think sensibly, it will lead them to do what is right;
 if they think foolishly, it causes them to do what is wrong.

<sup>3</sup> Even while foolish people walk along the road, they show that they do not have good sense;
 they show everyone that they are not wise.

<sup>4</sup> Do not quit working for a ruler when he is angry with you;
 if you remain calm, he will probably stop being angry.

<sup>5</sup> There is something else that I have seen here on this earth, something that rulers sometimes do that is wrong/inappropriate:

<sup>6</sup> They appoint foolish people to have important positions, while they appoint rich people to have unimportant positions.

<sup>7</sup> They allow slaves to ride on horses like rich people usually do, but they force officials to walk like slaves usually do.

<sup>8</sup> It is possible that those who dig pits will fall into one of those pits.

It is possible that someone who tears down a wall will be bitten by a snake that is in that wall.

<sup>9</sup> If you work in a quarry,
it is possible that a stone will fall on you and injure you.
It is possible that men who split logs will be injured by one of those logs.

<sup>10</sup> If your axe is not sharp [DOU], you will need to work harder to cut down a tree, but by being wise, you will succeed.

<sup>11</sup> If a snake bites a man before he charms/tames it, his ability to charm snakes will not benefit him.

<sup>12</sup> Wise people say [MTY] what is sensible, and because of that, people honor them;
 but foolish people are destroyed by what they say [MTY].

<sup>13</sup> When foolish people start to talk, they say things that are foolish, and they end by saying things that are both wicked and foolish.

<sup>14</sup> They talk ◀too much/without ceasing▶.

None of us knows what will happen in the future, or what will happen after we die.

<sup>15</sup> Foolish people become so exhausted by the work that they do that they are unable to find the road to their town/homes.

<sup>16</sup> Terrible things will happen to the people of a nation whose ruler is a foolish young man,
 and whose other leaders continually eat, all day long, every day.

<sup>17</sup> But a nation will prosper if its ruler is from a ◀noble/well-educated▶ family, and if its other leaders feast only at the proper times, and if they eat and drink only to be strong, not to become drunk.

<sup>18</sup> Some men are very lazy and do not repair the rafters, with the result that the rafters sag and collapse;
 and if they do not repair the roof,
 water will leak into the house when it rains.

<sup>19</sup> Eating food and drinking wine causes us to laugh and be happy, but we are able to enjoy those things only if we have money to buy them.

<sup>20</sup> Do not even think about cursing the king, or cursing rich people, even when you are alone in your bedroom, because it is possible that a little bird will hear what you are saying,
 and tell those people what you said about them.

11

Advice from nature

<sup>1</sup> Give generously to others some of the money [MET] that you have;
 if you do that, later you will get back an equal amount.

<sup>2</sup> Share some of what you have with ◀seven or eight/several▶ others, because you do not know when you will experience a disaster, and if you give some of what you have to others, when you experience that disaster, they will kindly help you.

<sup>3</sup> It is always true that when clouds are full of water, they pour rain on the earth.

Similarly, wherever a tree falls on the ground, that is where it will remain.

<sup>4</sup> If farmers see in what direction the wind is blowing, they will know whether it is wise at that time to plant things or not.

It is also true that if farmers look at the clouds and see that they are blowing from the west, which means that it will probably rain, they will not try to harvest their crops on that day.

<sup>5</sup> *We do not know where the wind comes from or where it goes, and we do not know how bodies are formed in women's wombs.
Similarly [SIM], God is the one who made everything, and we cannot fully understand what God does.*

<sup>6</sup> Start planting your seeds in the morning, and do not stop planting them until the evening, because you do not know which ones will grow better, the ones you plant in the morning or the ones you plant later in the day, or whether both will grow well.

Youth and old age

<sup>7</sup> It is very delightful to be alive and see [MTY] the sun rise every morning.

<sup>8</sup> Even if people live for many years, they should enjoy all of them.

But they should not forget that some day they will die and then they will never be able to see any light again, and we do not know what will happen to us after we die.

<sup>9</sup> You young people, be happy while you are still young.

*Enjoy [IDM] doing the things that you want to do.
But do not forget that some day God will judge you concerning all the things that you do.*

<sup>10</sup> So when you are young [MTY], do not worry about anything, and do not pay attention to the pains that you have in your body, because we will not remain young and strong forever.

12

<sup>1</sup> *While you are still young, keep thinking about God, who created you.
Do that before you are old and you experience many troubles, during the years when you say
"I no longer enjoy being alive."*

<sup>2</sup> *When you become old, the light from the sun and moon and stars will seem dim to
you,
and it will seem that the rain clouds always return quickly after it rains.*

<sup>3</sup> Then your arms that you use to protect [MET] your bodies will shake/tremble, and your legs that support [MET] your bodies will become weak.

Many of your teeth that you use to grind/chew your food will fall out, and your eyes that you use to look out of windows will not see clearly.

<sup>4</sup> Your ears [MET] will not hear the noise in the streets, and you will not be able to hear clearly the sound of people grinding grain with millstones.

You will be awakened in the morning by hearing the birds singing/chirping, but you will not be able to hear well the songs that ◀the birds/people▶ sing.

<sup>5</sup> You will be afraid to be in high places and afraid of dangers on the roads that you walk on.

Your hair will become white like [MET] the flowers of almond trees.
When you try to walk, you will drag yourself along like [MET] grasshoppers, and you will no longer desire to have sex.

Then you will die and go to your eternal home, and people who will mourn for you will be in the streets.

<sup>6</sup> Think much about God now, because soon our lives will end, like [MET] silver chains or golden bowls that break easily, or like pitchers/jugs that are broken at the water fountain, or like broken pulleys at a well.

<sup>7</sup> Then our corpses will decay and become dirt again, and our spirits will return to God, the one who gave us our spirits.

<sup>8</sup> So I say again that it is difficult to understand why everything happens;
everything is mysterious.

The conclusion

<sup>9</sup> I was considered to be a very wise man, and I taught the people many things. I assembled/collected and wrote down many proverbs, and I carefully thought about and studied them. <sup>10</sup> I searched for the right words, and what I have written is reliable and true.

<sup>11</sup> The things that I and other wise people say teach people what they should do; they are like [SIM] ◀goads/sharp sticks that people use to strike animals to direct where they should go▶. They are like [SIM] nails that stick out of pieces of wood. They are given to us by God, who is like [MET] our shepherd. <sup>12</sup> So, my son, pay careful attention to what I have written, and choose carefully what you read that others have written, because writing proverbs/books is endless, and trying to study them all will cause you to become exhausted.

<sup>13</sup> Now you have heard all that I have told you, and here is the conclusion:

Revere God, and obey his commandments, because those commandments summarize everything that people should do.

<sup>14</sup> And do not forget that God will judge everything that we do, good things and bad things,
even things that we do secretly.

This book contains songs that King Solomon sang with his beloved. We call this book Song of Songs

The young woman speaks to her lover

<sup>2</sup> Kiss me on my lips, because your love for me is more delightful than wine.
<sup>3</sup> The fragrance of the cologne on your skin is very sweet/pleasing [CHI].
And your reputation is very good and spreads, like [SIM] the fragrance of the special oil spread on your skin.
That is why the other young women are attracted to you.
<sup>4</sup> Take me quickly;
take me to your home.
It is as though you are my king;
take me into your room.

Their friends speak to the man

We are very happy [DOU] about you;
we say that your love for each other is better than wine.
It is not surprising that the other young women adore you.

The woman speaks

<sup>5</sup> You women of Jerusalem,
I am dark but beautiful;
my dark skin is like [SIM] the tents in Kedar,
or like the beautiful curtains in Solomon's palace.
<sup>6</sup> But do not stare at me because of the sun having caused my skin to become dark;
my brothers were angry with me,
so they forced me to work out in the sunshine in the vineyards, so I was not able to take good care of my body/skin [CHI, MET].
<sup>7</sup> You whom I [SYN] love, where will you take your flock of sheep today?
Where will you allow them to rest at noontime?
I want to know because it is not right [RHQ] for me to wander around like a prostitute looking for you among the flocks that belong to your friends.

The man speaks

<sup>8</sup> You who are the most beautiful of all the women, if you search for me and do not know where I will take my sheep, follow the tracks/footprints of the sheep.
Then allow your young goats to ◀graze/eat grass▶ near the shepherds' tents.
<sup>9</sup> You are beautiful, my darling, like the young female horse that pulls the chariot of the king of Egypt.
<sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are decorated with jewelry, and there are strings of beads/pearls around your neck.
<sup>11</sup> We will make for you some gold earrings that are decorated/inlaid with silver.

<sup>12</sup> While the king was on his couch, the smell of my perfume spread around the room.

<sup>13</sup> The man who loves me is as delightful as [MET] a ◀sachet/small cloth bag▶ of myrrh between my breasts.

<sup>15</sup> You whom I love, you are beautiful;
you are very beautiful!

Your eyes are as delightful/charming as doves.

The woman replies

<sup>16</sup> You who love me, you are very delightful/handsome, you are wonderful!

This green grass will be like a couch where we lie down.

<sup>17</sup> Branches of cedar trees will shade us;

it is as though branches of juniper/pine trees will be like [MET] a roof over our heads.

2

<sup>1</sup> I am like [MET] a flower/rose from the Sharon Plain, and like [MET] a lily that grows in a valley.

<sup>2</sup> Among the other young women, the one whom I love is like [MET] a lily growing among thorns!

The woman speaks

<sup>3</sup> And among the other men, you, the man who loves me, are like [MET] an apple/fruit tree that grows in the forest.

You are like a tree whose shadow protects me from the sun, and your being close to me [EUP] is like [MET] eating sweet fruit.

<sup>4</sup> You led me to the ◀banquet room/room where we could make love▶, and it is evident that you love me very much.

<sup>5</sup> Refresh me and strengthen me with your lovemaking like I am refreshed by eating [MET, EUP] raisins and other fruit, because I very much desire that you love me even more.

<sup>6</sup> Put your left arm under my head and with your right arm hold me close.

solemnly promise me, while the does and gazelles are listening, that you will not disturb us while we are making love
until we are ready to quit.

<sup>8</sup> I hear the voice of the man who loves me.
It is as though [MET] he is leaping over the mountains and skipping over the hills

Now he is standing outside the wall of our house,
 looking in the window, and peering through the ◀lattice/wooden strips inside the window frame▶.

10 He spoke to me and said,

“You whom I love, get up;
 my beautiful one, come with me [CHI]!

11 Look, the ◀winter/cold season▶ is ended;
 the rain has stopped;

12 flowers are blooming throughout the country/land.

It is now time to sing;
 we hear the doves cooing.

13 There are young/new figs on the fig trees, and there are blossoms on the grapevines and their fragrance fills the air.

You whom I love, get up;
 my beautiful one, come with me!

14 You are like [MET] a dove that is hiding far from me in an opening/crack in the rocky cliff.

Show me your face,
 and allow me to hear your voice, because your voice is sweet-sounding and your face is lovely [CHI].”

The woman continues to speak

15 There are other men who are like [MET] little jackals/foxes that ruin vineyards; do not allow those men to attack me.

16 You who love me, I belong to you and you belong to me, and you experience pleasure when you kiss my lips
like [MET] a shepherd enjoys taking care of his sheep.

17 You who love me, come and be like [SIM] a gazelle or like a young deer on the hills of Bether, and then flee like a deer at dawn tomorrow morning, when the darkness fades.

3

1 All through the night while I lay on my bed,
 I longed for the one whom I love.

I desired for him to come,
 but he did not come.

2 So I said to myself,

“I will get up now and walk around the city, through the streets and plazas, to search for the one whom I love.”

So I got up and searched for him, but I could not find him.

3 The city watchmen saw me while they were patrolling/walking around the city.

I asked them,

“Have you seen the one whom I love?”

4 As soon as I walked past them,

I found the one whom I love.
 I clung to him and would not let him go until I had brought him to my mother's house, to the room where my mother had conceived me (OR, where I was born).

 solemnly promise me, while the does and gazelles are listening, that you will not disturb us while we are making love
 until we are ready to quit.

One of their friends speaks

<sup>6</sup> Who is it that is coming from the desert, who is stirring up dust like a column of smoke from burning myrrh and incense made from spices imported by merchants?

<sup>7</sup> It is Solomon, sitting in his portable chair surrounded by 60 bodyguards chosen from the strongest/greatest warriors in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They all have swords and they all ◀are trained to/know well how to▶ use them.

Each one has his sword strapped to his side and is prepared to defend Solomon from dangers that might occur even during the night.

<sup>9</sup> King Solomon commanded his servants to make that portable chair for him;
it was made with wood from Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup> The canopy that covered it was ◀held up/supported▶ by posts made of silver, and the back of the chair was embroidered with gold.

The seat/cushion was covered with purple cloth lovingly made/woven by the women of Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup> You women of Jerusalem,
 come and look at King Solomon wearing the headdress that his mother put on his head on the day when he was married, the day when he [SYN] was very happy.

4

<sup>1</sup> My darling, you are beautiful,
 you are very beautiful!

Underneath your veil, your eyes are as gentle as [MET] doves.
 Your long black hair moves from side to side like [SIM] a flock of black goats moving down the slopes of Gilead Mountain.

<sup>2</sup> Your teeth are very white like [SIM] a flock of sheep whose wool has just been ◀shorn/cut off▶ and that have come up from being washed in a stream.
 You have all of your teeth;
 none of them is missing.

<sup>3</sup> Your lips are like [SIM] a scarlet ribbon, and your mouth is lovely.

Beneath your veil, your round, rosy/red cheeks are like [SIM] the halves of a pomegranate.

- 4 Your long neck is beautiful like [SIM] the tower of King David that was built using layers/rows of stone.
The ornaments on your necklaces are like 1,000 [HYP] shields that are hanging on the walls of a tower;
 each one belongs to a warrior.
- 5 Your breasts are as beautiful [SIM] as two ◀fawns/young gazelles▶ that eat grass among lilies.
- 6 Until dawn tomorrow morning and the nighttime shadows/darkness disappear,
 I will lie close to your breasts that are like [MET] hills that are covered with incense [DOU].
- 7 My darling, you are completely beautiful;
 your body is perfectly formed!
- 8 My bride, it is as though you are in [MET] Lebanon far away, where I cannot reach you;
 come back to me.
It is as though you are inaccessible [MET] on the top of Hermon Mountain or the nearby peaks.
 Come from where the lions have their dens and where the leopards live on the mountains.
- 9 My bride [DOU], you who are dearer to me than my sister, you have captured my affection [IDM] by only once quickly looking at me, and by one strand of jewels in your necklace.
- 10 My bride, your love for me is delightful!
 It more delightful than wine!
 And the fragrance of your perfume is more pleasing than any spice!
- 11 Being kissed by you is as enjoyable as eating [MTY] honey; your kisses are as sweet as milk mixed with honey.
 The aroma of your clothes is like [SIM] the aroma of cedar trees in Lebanon.
- 12 My bride, you who are dearer to me than [MET] my sister, you are like [MET] a garden that is locked in order that other men cannot enter it;
you are like [MET] a spring or a fountain that is covered in order that others may not drink from it.
- 13 You are like [MET] an orchard of pomegranate trees full of delicious fruit, and plenty of plants that produce henna and nard spices, 14 and saffron and calamus and cinnamon and many other kinds of incense, and myrrh and aloes and many other fine spices.
- 15 You are like [MET] a fountain in a garden, like [MET] a spring of clear water that flows down from the mountains of Lebanon.
- The woman speaks*
- 16 I want the north wind and the south wind to come, and blow on my garden, in order that the fragrance of the spices will spread through the air.

Similarly, I want the one who loves me to come and enjoy cuddling up to me like [MET, EUP] someone comes into a garden and enjoys eating the fruit that grows there.

5

The man speaks

<sup>1</sup> My bride, you who are dearer to me than my sister,
 I have come to cuddle up to you [MET, EUP];
it will be as though I will be gathering myrrh with my other spices,
 and eating my honey and my honeycomb, and drinking my wine and my milk.

Their friends speak

You two who love each other, enjoy your lovemaking;
 enjoy all that you want to.

The woman speaks

<sup>2</sup> I was partially asleep, but my mind was still awake.
 Then I heard the one who loves me knocking at the door.
He said, "My darling, you who are dearer to me than my sister, my dear friend, my perfect one, my dove [MET], open the door for me!
 My hair is wet from the dew,
 from the mist that has fallen during the night."

<sup>3</sup> But I had already taken off my robe;
 I did not [RHQ] want to put it on again to open the door.
 I had already washed my feet;
 I did not [RHQ] want them to become dirty again.

<sup>4</sup> The one who loves me put his hand through the opening in the wall, and I was thrilled that he was there.

<sup>5</sup> I got up to open the door for the one who loves me, but first I put a lot of myrrh on my hands.
 The myrrh was dripping from my fingers while I unlatched the bolt.

<sup>6</sup> I opened the door for the man who loves me, but he had left.
 He had turned away and was gone!
 I was very disappointed [IDM];
 I searched for him, but I could not find him.
 I called him, but he did not answer.

<sup>7</sup> The city watchmen saw me while they were walking around the city.
 They beat me and wounded me
because they thought I must be a prostitute;
 those men who were guarding the city walls took my robe.

<sup>8</sup> You young women of Jerusalem,
 I plead with you,
 if you see the man who loves me, tell him [DOU] that I am very disappointed that we did not make love.

Their friends speak

<sup>9</sup> You who are the ◀fairest/most beautiful▶ among women, why do you think that the one who loves you is better than other men?
 In what way is the man who loves you better than other men with the result that you ask us to tell him that?

The woman speaks

<sup>10</sup> The man who loves me is handsome and healthy, ◀outstanding among/better than▶ ◀10,000/an uncountable number of▶ other men.

<sup>11</sup> His head is beautiful, like [MET] purest gold;
 his hair is wavy
 and as black as [SIM] a raven/crow.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes are as gentle as [SIM] doves along the streams;
the white parts of his eyes are as white as [MET] milk,
with what resembles jewels inlaid in them.

<sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like [SIM] a garden full of spice trees that produce sweet-smelling perfume.
 His lips are like [SIM] lilies that have myrrh/perfume dripping from them.

<sup>14</sup> His arms are like [MET] gold bars/rods that are decorated with precious stones/jewels.
 His body is like [SIM] a column/pillar of ivory that is decorated with ◀sapphires/valuable blue stones▶.

<sup>15</sup> His legs are like [MET] pillars of marble that are set in bases made of pure gold.
 He is majestic, like the mountains of [SIM] Lebanon, as delightful/beautiful as [SIM] cedar trees.

<sup>16</sup> His kisses [MTY] are extremely sweet;
 he is very handsome.
 You young women of Jerusalem, all that tells you why the one who loves me and who is my friend is better than other men.

6

Their friends speak to the woman

 where has the one who loves you gone?
 If you tell us which [RHQ] direction he went,
 we will go with you to search for him.

The woman speaks

<sup>2</sup> The one who loves me has now come to me, who am like [MET, EUP] his garden,
 He has come to enjoy my ◀charms/physical attractions▶ which are like [MET, EUP] spices,
 to enjoy cuddling up to me [EUP, MET],
 and kissing my lips, which are like [MET] lilies.

<sup>3</sup> I belong to the one who loves me, and the one who loves me belongs to me;
 he enjoys kissing my lips
 like [MET] a shepherd enjoys taking care of his sheep.

The man speaks

- <sup>4</sup> My darling, you are beautiful, like [SIM] Tirzah the capital city of Israel and Jerusalem the capital city of Judah are beautiful;
you are as exciting [MET] as a group/battalion of troops holding up their banners.
- <sup>5</sup> Quit looking at me like that, because your eyes excite me very much.
Your long black hair moves from side to side like [SIM] a flock of black goats
moving down the slopes of Gilead Mountain.
- <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are very white like [SIM] a flock of sheep whose wool has just been shorn and that have come up from being washed in a stream.
You have all of your teeth;
none of them is missing.
- <sup>7</sup> Beneath your veil, your cheeks are like [SIM] the halves of a pomegranate.
- <sup>8</sup> Even if a king had 60 queens and 80 ◀concubines/slave wives▶ and more young women than anyone can count,
- <sup>9</sup> none of them would be like my dove, who is perfect, you who are your mother's only daughter, whom your mother considers to be very precious.
Other young women who see you say that you are fortunate, and the queens and concubines recognize that you are very beautiful.

Their friends speaks

- <sup>10</sup> Who is [RHQ] this woman who is as delightful as [SIM] the dawn, as fair/delightful to look at as the light of the moon, as exciting as a group/battalion of troops holding up their banners?

The man speaks

- <sup>11</sup> I went down to some walnut trees to look at the new plants that were growing in the valley.
I wanted to see if the grapevines had budded or if the pomegranate trees were blooming.
- <sup>12</sup> But before I realized it, my desire to make love caused me to be as excited as a prince riding in a chariot.

Their friends speak

- <sup>13</sup> You who are the perfect one, come back to us, in order that we may see you!

The man speaks

- Why do you want to look at this woman who is perfect, like [SIM] you like to watch two rows/lines of people dancing?

- <sup>1</sup> You who are the daughter of a prince/king, you have lovely feet in your sandals.
Your curved hips/thighs are like [SIM] jewels that have been made by a ◀skilled craftsman/man who shapes jewels very well▶.
- <sup>2</sup> Your navel is like [MET] a round bowl that is always full of wine mixed with spices.
Your waist is like [SIM] a mound/bundle of wheat with lilies growing around it.

Your eyes sparkle/shine like [MET] the pools in Heshbon city, near the Bath-Rabbim gate.

Your nose is is as lovely as [SIM] the tower of Lebanon which faces toward Damascus.

<sup>5</sup> Your head is majestic like [SIM] Carmel Mountain.

Your long hair is shiny [SIM] and black;
it is as though I, your king, am captured by your tresses.

<sup>6</sup> You whom I love, who have many charming features that attract me, are very beautiful and pleasant/pleasing.

<sup>7</sup> You are stately like [SIM] a palm tree, and your breasts are like [SIM] clusters/bunches of dates/fruit.

<sup>8</sup> I said to myself, "I will climb that palm tree and take hold of those clusters of dates."

To me, your breasts are like clusters of grapes that I can feel and your breath is like the sweet fragrance of apples

<sup>9</sup> and your kisses are like very good wine.

The woman speaks

My kisses [MTY] go to the one who loves me and flow like wine over his lips and his teeth.

<sup>10</sup> I belong to the man who loves me, and he desires me.

<sup>11</sup> You who love me, let's go to the countryside, and sleep among the henna bushes (OR, in one of the villages).

<sup>12</sup> And let's go early to the vineyards to see if the grapevines have budded and if there are blossoms on them that have opened, and to see if the pomegranate trees are blooming,
and there I will make love to you.

<sup>13</sup> The mandrakes/love-apples are producing a fragrant odor, and we are surrounded by delightful pleasures [MET, EUP], new ones and old ones, pleasures that I have been saving to give to you, who love me.

8

The woman speaks

<sup>1</sup> I wish that you were my brother who ◀nursed at/drank milk from▶ my mother's breasts when you were a baby, because, if you were my brother, if I saw you when you were outside the house,
I could kiss you,
and no one would say that my doing that was wrong.

<sup>2</sup> No one would object if I led you to my mother's house, to where my mother, who taught me many things, lives.

I would like to take you to my mother's house because I would like to make love to you [EUP],

and that would be as delightful as [MET] juice squeezed from pomegranates.

<sup>3</sup> You would put your left arm under my head
and with your right arm hold me close.

<sup>4</sup> I would say to you women of Jerusalem, “Solemnly promise me that you will not disturb us while we are making love
 until we are ready to quit.”

Their friends speak

<sup>5</sup> Who is that woman who is coming up from the desert, ◀leaning on/clinging close to▶ the man who loves her?

The woman speaks

I woke you up when you were under the apple tree at the place where your mother conceived you, which is the same place where she gave birth to you.

<sup>6</sup> Keep me close to you, like [SIM] a seal on your heart, or like [SIM] a bracelet on your arm.
 Our love for each other is as powerful as death,
 it is as enduring as the grave.

It is as though our love for each other bursts into flames and burns like a hot fire.

<sup>7</sup> Nothing can extinguish our love for each other,
 not even a flood.

If a man tried to cause a woman to love him by saying he would give her everything that is in his house,
 she would refuse.

Their friends speak

<sup>8</sup> We have a younger sister, and her breasts are still small.
 So this is [RHQ] what we should do for her on the day that we promise some young man that he can marry her:

 we will decorate it by putting silver jewels that are like [MET] towers on it.
 Or, if she is flat like [MET] a door,
 we will decorate her with bits/pieces of cedar wood.

The woman speaks

<sup>10</sup> My chest was previously flat like [MET] a wall, but now my breasts are big like [SIM] towers.
 So the one who loves me is delighted with me.

 and he rented it to people for them to take care of it.
 He required each one to pay him 1,000 pieces of silver each year for the grapes that they harvested.

<sup>12</sup> But my body is like [MET] my own vineyard, and Solomon, I am giving it to you.
 You do not need to pay me 1,000 pieces of silver to enjoy my body, but I will give 200 pieces of silver to those who take care of me [MET].

The man speaks to the woman

<sup>13</sup> You are staying in the gardens and my friends are listening to your voice;

so allow me to hear it, too.

The woman speaks

<sup>14</sup> You who love me, come to me quickly; run to me [MET, EUP] as fast as [SIM] a gazelle or young deer runs across [MET] hills of spices.

This book is the account of Isaiah foretelling about God punishing Israel and then sending his chosen one and saving them
Isaiah

<sup>1</sup> I am Isaiah, the son of Amoz. Yahweh showed me visions about Jerusalem and all the other places in Judah. He showed me these visions during the years that Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.

A message about the rebellious nation of Judah

“All you angels in [APO] heaven and all you people on [APO] earth, listen to me!
The people that I caused to exist and took care of [DOU] have rebelled against me.

<sup>3</sup> Oxen know their owners, and donkeys know who provides food for them,
but my Israeli people do not know me;
they do not realize that I am the one who takes care of them.”

<sup>4</sup> Terrible things will happen to that sinful nation, to those people who are guilty of sinning greatly.
They are a group of very evil people, who act very unjustly.
They have abandoned Yahweh,
the holy one of Israel;
they have ◀abandoned/turned away from▶ him.

<sup>5</sup> Why do you [RHQ] continue to do things for which you should be punished?
Why do you continue to rebel against Yahweh?
You are like [MET] someone whose head is badly injured and whose mind is sick/corrupt.

<sup>6</sup> It is as though [MET] from the soles/bottoms of your feet to the tops of your heads nothing is healthy;
there are only open wounds and cuts and sores that have not been cleaned or bandaged, and no olive oil has been put on them to heal them.

<sup>7</sup> It is as though your country is ruined/desolate;
your towns have been burned.
Foreigners plunder/steal the crops in your fields while you watch;
they destroy everything that they see.

<sup>8</sup> The city of Jerusalem has already been abandoned, it is like [SIM] a shelter in a vineyard that has been abandoned by the watchmen;
it is like [SIM] a watchman’s hut in a field of melons that has been deserted.
It is a city surrounded by its enemies who are waiting to attack it.

<sup>9</sup> If the Commander of the armies of angels had not allowed a few of us his people to ◀survive/remain alive▶,
we would have all been destroyed,

like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> You leaders of Judah are as wicked as the rulers of Sodom were,
and you other people in Jerusalem areas are as wicked as the people in Gomorrah were.

Listen to this message from Yahweh, all of you!

<sup>11</sup> He says, "You continue to bring many sacrifices to me, but I do not [RHQ] want them because you do not worship me sincerely!
You bring me many offerings to be completely burned on the altar, but I ◀am tired/do not want any more▶ of your burning all those offerings,
the burning rams and the fat from fat cattle.

I am not pleased with the blood of bulls and lambs and goats that the priest pours against the altar.

<sup>12</sup> When you come to my temple to worship me, no one [RHQ] told you to trample on my courtyard while you perform all those rituals.

<sup>13</sup> Stop bringing to me those offerings, because they are useless to me;
I am disgusted with the incense that the priests burn.

And your feasts to celebrate the new moon each month and your ◀Sabbath days/days of rest▶ and your other festivals—

I detest them because of the wicked things that you do.

<sup>14</sup> I [SYN] hate all your celebrations of each new moon and the other festivals that you celebrate each year.

They are like [MET] a heavy burden that I am tired of carrying.

<sup>15</sup> So, when you lift up your hands when you pray to me,
I will not even look at you.

Even if you pray to me very frequently,

I will not listen to you, because it is as though your hands are covered with the blood of people whom you have killed.

<sup>16</sup> Cleanse your inner beings, and become spiritually clean!

Stop your evil behavior!

Stop doing things that are wrong!

<sup>17</sup> Learn to do things that are good!

Try to cause people to do what is just.

Help people who are ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶.

Defend orphans and widows when people take them to court."

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh says, "You need to think about the results of what you do.

Even though the guilt of your sins be as evident and as difficult to get rid of as [SIM] red stains on a white garment [DOU],

I will get rid of them completely like someone who can make that stained garment become as white as snow or wool [DOU].

<sup>19</sup> If you are willing to obey me,

I will enable you to have plenty to eat.

<sup>20</sup> But, if you turn away from me and rebel against me, you will be killed by your enemies' swords.

That will surely happen, because I, Yahweh, have said it."

Yahweh condemned Jerusalem

- 21 “You people of Jerusalem previously faithfully worshiped only me, but now you have become like [MET] prostitutes who are not faithful to any husband.
Previously, people there always acted justly/fairly and righteously, but now your city is full of murderers.
- 22 Previously, you were like [MET] pure silver, but now you have become like [MET] the scum that is left when silver is purified.
Previously you were like pure wine, but you have become like [MET] wine that has a lot of water mixed with it.
- 23 Your leaders are rebels;
they spend time with thieves.
They all want to get bribes and force others to give them gifts in order that they do good things for them.
They do not defend orphans in court, and they do not do all they can to enable widows to get what they should receive.
- 24 Therefore I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the mighty God of Israel, say to my enemies, ‘ will get revenge on you;
you will not cause me any more trouble.
And I will pay you back for the evil things that you did.
- 25 I will raise my fist to strike you.
I will punish you severely [MET], as though [MET] you were silver and I needed to heat you very greatly to melt you and get rid of the impurities.
- 26 After that happens, I will give you good judges like you had previously;
you will have wise counselors like you had long ago.
Then people will call your city “a city where people act righteously, a city where people are loyal to me.””
- 27 Because the people of Jerusalem will do what is fair/just, their city will be restored;
those who repent will be saved
because of their acting righteously.
- 28 But rebels and sinners will be crushed by Yahweh, and those who forsake him will disappear.
- 29 You will be ashamed because you worshiped idols under the oak trees that you considered to be sacred;
you will be disgraced because you worshiped idols in the gardens where you chose to worship them.
- 30 You will be like [SIM] a very large tree which has withered leaves, like [SIM] a garden that is dried up because it has no water.
- 31 Those among you who are very strong will become like [MET] dry wood, and the work they do will be like [MET] a spark;
both they and the evil things that they do will burn up completely, and no one will be able to put out the fire.

A message about future peace in Judah

<sup>1</sup> This is the message that Yahweh showed me in a vision, concerning Jerusalem and the rest of Judea:

<sup>2</sup> I saw that in the future, the hill on which Yahweh's temple is built will be the most important place on the earth; it will be as though it is the highest mountain, as though it has been raised up above all other hills; and people from all over the world will come there.

<sup>3</sup> People from many people-groups will say to each other, "Come, let's go up to the hill, to the temple of Yahweh, to worship the God whom Jacob worshipped. There Yahweh will teach us what he desires us to know, in order that our behavior will please him. His teaching will be given to us in Jerusalem, and we will take his message from Jerusalem to other places/nations."

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh will listen to the disputes between nations and he will settle their arguments. Then, instead of fighting against each other, they will hammer their swords into plow blades, and they will hammer their spears into pruning knives. The armies of nations will no longer fight against each other, and they will not even train men to fight in battles/wars."

A warning about the coming judgment

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, you have abandoned us your people who are descendants of Jacob, because everywhere your people practice the customs of people who live east of Israel. Your people also perform rituals to find out what will happen in the future, like the people in Philistia do. They make agreements/treaties with ◀pagans/people who do not know you▶.

<sup>7</sup> Israel is full of silver and gold; there are very many ◀treasures/valuable things▶ here. The land is full of war horses and war chariots.

<sup>8</sup> But the land is also full of idols; the people worship things that they have made with their own hands.

<sup>9</sup> So now they will be humbled and they will be caused to become disgraced—Yahweh, do not forgive them!

<sup>10</sup> All you people should crawl into the caves in the rock cliffs! You should hide in pits/holes in the ground because of being afraid of Yahweh and of his glorious and awesome power.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh will cause you people to no longer be arrogant, and he will stop you from being proud. Only Yahweh will be praised/honored on that day.

- 12 The Commander of the armies of angels has chosen a day when he will judge those who are proud, every one of them [DOU], and he will humble them.
- 13 He will get rid of all those who think they should be admired like [MET] the tall cedar trees in Lebanon, and like all the great oak trees in the Bashan region.
- 14 He will get rid of all those who think they are as great as [MET] all the high hills and even the high mountains.
- 15 He will get rid of all those who think that they are high towers and high strong walls inside of or behind which they will be safe.
- 16 He will destroy all those who are rich because they own big ships that carry goods to other countries and they own other beautiful ships.
- 17 He will cause people to no longer be arrogant and he will cause them to stop being proud.
Only Yahweh will be praised/honored on that day.
- 18 All idols will ◀disappear/be destroyed▶.
- 19 When Yahweh comes to shake/terrify the people on the earth, they will run to hide in caves in rock cliffs and in holes/pits in the ground, because of being afraid of Yahweh and of his glorious and awesome power.
- 20 On that day, people will get rid of all their gold and silver idols that they made to worship, and they will throw them to the bats and rats.
- 21 Then they will crawl into caves and hide in the crags in the cliffs.
They will do that to escape from the dreadful punishments that Yahweh will cause them to endure,
from what he will do because he is glorious and awesome, when he comes to shake/terrify the people on the earth.
- 22 So, do not trust that people will save you, because people are as powerless as [MET] their own breath.
People certainly cannot help you [RHQ]!

A warning that God will punish Judah

- 1 The Commander of the armies of angels is about to take away from Jerusalem and other places in Judea everything that you depend on—all your food and water.
- 2 He will take away your heroes and your other soldiers, your judges and your prophets, people who do rituals to find out what will happen in the future and the elders,
- 3 army officers and other officials, advisors and skilled craftsmen and those who perform rituals to predict the future.
- 4 He will appoint boys to be your leaders;
your children will rule you.

- <sup>5</sup> People will treat each other cruelly:
 people will fight against their neighbors.
 Young people will insult older people, and vulgar/dishonorable people will sneer at people who should be honored.
- <sup>6</sup> At that time, someone will grab one of his brothers in his father's house and say to him,
 "You have a coat, which shows that you are respected.
 So you be our leader!
 You rule this city, which is now a pile of ruins!"
- <sup>7</sup> But his brother will reply,
 "No, I cannot help you,
because I do not have any extra food or clothes in this house.
 So do not appoint me to be your leader!"
- <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah will be destroyed, because everything that the people do and say there opposes Yahweh, who is powerful and glorious,
 and they refuse to obey him.
 They rebel against him.
- <sup>9</sup> They even show on their faces that they oppose Yahweh.
 They are proud of their sins,
 like the people of Sodom were long ago;
 they do not try to hide their sins.
Because of their sins, terrible things will happen to them, but they will bring those disasters on themselves.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh told me to tell the righteous people that good things will happen to them;
 they will enjoy the blessings that they will receive for their good deeds.
- <sup>11</sup> But terrible things will happen to wicked people;
 they will be ◀paid back/punished▶ for the evil things that [MTY] they have done.
- <sup>12</sup> Now, youths who have become leaders treat my people cruelly, and women rule over my people.
 My people, your leaders are misleading you;
 they are causing you to go down the wrong road [MET].
- <sup>13</sup> It is as though Yahweh has sat in his place in a courtroom and is ready to judge his people.
- <sup>14</sup> He will stand up to declare why the elders and rulers of his people should be punished:
he says, "The people of Israel are like [MET] a vineyard that I planted, but you have ruined it!
 Your houses are full of things that you have stolen from poor people.
- <sup>15</sup> You should stop [RHQ] crushing my people!
It is as though you are pushing the faces of poor people into the dirt!"
That is what the Commander of the armies of angels says.

A warning to the women of Jerusalem

- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh says this:
 "The women of Jerusalem are haughty/proud;

they walk around sticking their chins out,
and flirting with men with their eyes.

They walk with tiny steps with bracelets on their ankles that jingle.

<sup>17</sup> So I, Yahweh, will cause sores to be on their heads, and I will cause those beautiful women in Jerusalem to become bald.”

instead of nice sashes, they will have ropes around their waists because they will be captives.

Instead of having fancy hairdos, they will be bald.

Instead of fancy/beautiful robes, they will wear rough sackcloth, and instead of being beautiful, they will be branded.

<sup>25</sup> Their husbands will be killed by their enemies’ swords, and their soldiers will also die in battles.

The city will be like [MET] a woman who sits on the ground because everything that she owned is gone.

4

<sup>1</sup> When that happens, there will be very few unmarried men still alive.

As a result, seven unmarried women will grab one man, and say, “Allow us all to marry you [IDM]!

We will provide our own food and clothing.

All that we want is to no longer be disgraced because of not being married.”

A promise that some day Jerusalem will be restored

<sup>2</sup> But some day, Israel [MTY] will be very beautiful and great/glorious.

The people of Israel who will still be there will be very proud of the wonderful fruit that grows in their land.

<sup>3</sup> All the people who will remain in Jerusalem, who were not killed when Jerusalem was destroyed, whose names are listed among those who live there, will be called holy.

<sup>4</sup> That will happen when Yahweh washes away the guilt of the women of Jerusalem, and when he stops the violence [MET] on the streets of Jerusalem by punishing the people of Jerusalem.

When he does that, it will be like a fire to burn up all the impure things.

<sup>5</sup> Then Yahweh will send a cloud of smoke every day and a flaming fire every night to cover Jerusalem and all those who gather there;

it will be like a glorious canopy over the city

<sup>6</sup> that will shelter the people from the sun during the daytime and protect them when there are windstorms and rain.

5

A song about the people who were like Yahweh’s vineyard

- <sup>1</sup> Now I will sing a song about my dear friend, and about his vineyard.
The vineyard was on a very fertile hillside.
- <sup>2</sup> My friend plowed the ground and cleared away the stones.
Then he planted very good grapevines on that ground.
In the middle of the vineyard, he built a watchtower, and he dug a ◀winepress/pit for squeezing the grapes▶.
Then he waited each year to harvest some good grapes, but the vines produced only sour grapes.
- <sup>3</sup> Now this is what Yahweh says:
“You people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah,
I am like the friend, and you are like my vineyard;
so you judge which of us has done what is right.”
- <sup>4</sup> What more could I have done for you than what I have already done?
I expected you to be doing good deeds [MET], so it is disgusting that [RHQ] you were doing only evil things like the vineyard that produced only sour grapes!
- <sup>5</sup> So, I will now tell you what I will do to Judah, the place that is like my vineyard.
I will cut down the hedges, and they will be destroyed.
I will tear down the walls of the cities and allow wild animals to trample the land.
- <sup>6</sup> I will cause it to become a wasteland where the vines are not pruned and the ground is not hoed.
It will be a place where briars and thorns [DOU] grow.
And I will command that no rain will fall on it.”
- <sup>7</sup> The nation of Israel is like [MET] the vineyard of the Commander of the armies of angels.
The people of Judah are like the garden that was pleasing to him.
He expected you to be doing what is just/fair,
but instead, what he saw was people murdering [MTY] others.
He expected that you would be doing righteous deeds, but instead, he heard cries from people who were being attacked violently.
- Yahweh promises to punish Judah*
- <sup>8</sup> Terrible things will happen to you who continually illegally acquire houses and fields.
You force one family after another to leave their homes until you are the only ones [HYP] still living in the land.
- <sup>9</sup> But I heard the Commander of the armies of angels solemnly declare this:
“Some day, many of those huge houses will be empty/deserted;
no one will be living in those beautiful mansions.
- <sup>10</sup> The vines on ten acres of land will not produce enough grapes to make ◀six gallons/22 liters▶ of juice/wine, and ten baskets of seed will produce only one basket of grain.”
- <sup>11</sup> Terrible things will happen to those who get up early each morning to begin drinking alcoholic drinks, and who stay awake until late at night drinking a lot of wine until they are completely drunk.

12 They have big parties and provide lots of wine.

At their parties, there are people playing harps and lyres and tambourines and flutes, but they never think about what Yahweh does or appreciate what he has created.

13 So, my people will be ◀exiled/taken to other countries▶ far away because they do not know about me.

Those who are now very important and honored will starve, and the other people will die from thirst.

14 It is as though [PRS] the place where the dead people are is eagerly looking for more Israeli people, opening its mouth to swallow them,
and a huge number of people will be thrown into that place, including their leaders as well as a noisy crowd of people who enjoy living in Jerusalem.

15 Yahweh will get rid of a huge number of people; and he will humble many more people who now are proud/arrogant.

16 But the Commander of the armies of angels will be exalted/praised because of his acting justly.

God will show that he is holy by doing righteous/just deeds.

17 Then lambs and fat sheep will be able to find good grass to eat, even among the ruins of the houses of rich people.

18 Some people constantly tell lies, and it is as though they are dragging behind them the wrong things that they have done.

Terrible things will happen to them!

19 They make fun of God and say to him, “Go ahead, do something to punish us!
We want to see what you will do.

You, the Holy One of Israel, should do what you are planning to do, because we want to know what it is.”

20 Terrible things will happen to those who say that evil is good, and that good is evil, that darkness is light and that light is darkness, that what is bitter is sweet and what is sweet is bitter.

21 Terrible things will happen to those who think that they are wise and that they ◀are very clever/know everything▶.

22 Terrible things will happen to those who think that [IRO] they are great/heroes because they are able to drink lots of wine, and boast about being able to mix good alcoholic drinks.

23 If people offer them bribes in order that they will enable wicked people not to be punished,
they accept those bribes,
and they cause people who are innocent to be punished.

- 24 Therefore, just like [SIM] fires burn up stubble and dry grass shrivels up and quickly burns in flames, it will be as though those people have roots that will rot and have flowers that will wither.
That will happen because they rejected the laws of the Commander of the armies of angels;
they have despised the messages of the Holy One of Israel.
- 25 That is why Yahweh is extremely angry with his people;
it is as though his hand is raised and he is ready to smash them.
When he does that, the mountains will shake, and the corpses of people will be scattered in the streets like [SIM] manure.
But even when that happens, Yahweh will still be very angry;
he will be ready to punish his people [MET] again.
- 26 Yahweh will send a signal to summon armies of nations far away;
it is as though he will whistle to summon those soldiers who are in very remote places on the earth.
They will come very swiftly [DOU] to Jerusalem.
- 27 They will not get tired or stumble.
They will not stop to rest or to sleep.
None of their belts will be loose, and none of them will have sandals with broken straps,
so they will all be ready to fight in battles.
- 28 Their arrows will be sharp, and their bows will be ready to shoot those arrows in a battle.
Because their horses pull the chariots fast, sparks will shoot out from their hooves, and the wheels of the chariots will spin like a whirlwind.
- 29 They will roar like very strong lions [DOU] that growl and then pounce on the animals they want to kill and carry them off, and no one is able to rescue them.
- 30 Similarly, your enemies will roar when they see the people they are about to kill,
like [SIM] the sea roars.
On that day, if someone looks across the land, he will see only people who are in darkness and distressed;
it will be as though even the sunlight is hidden by dark clouds.

God appointed Isaiah to be a prophet

- <sup>1</sup> During the year that King Uzziah died, Yahweh showed me a vision. In the vision, I saw Yahweh sitting on a throne, high above everyone. He was wearing a very long robe that covered the floor of the temple. <sup>2</sup> Above him were standing several winged creatures. Each of them had six wings. They covered their faces with two of their wings, they covered their feet with two of their wings, and they flew using two of their wings. <sup>3</sup> They were calling to each other, saying, “The Commander of the armies of angels is holy;
he is completely holy!
The entire earth is filled with his glory.”
- <sup>4</sup> When they spoke, it caused the doorposts of the temple to shake, and the temple was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "Terrible things will happen to me, because everything that I say [MTY] is sinful, and I live among people who constantly say [MTY] sinful things. I will be destroyed because I have seen the Commander of the armies of angels!"

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the winged creatures took a hot coal from the altar, using a pair of tongs. He flew to me <sup>7</sup> and touched my lips with the coal. Then he said, "Look at what I have done. I have touched your lips with this coal. Now your guilt is ended, and your sins are forgiven [DOU]."

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard Yahweh asking, "Whom shall I send to be a messenger to my people? Who will go and speak for us?" I replied, "I will. Send me!"

<sup>9</sup> Then he said,

"Okay, go, and say to the Israeli people,

'You will listen carefully to what I say, but you will not understand it.

You will look very carefully at the things that I am doing, but you will not understand them.'

<sup>10</sup> What you(sg) say will cause these people to become stubborn [IDM];

it will cause them to not be able to hear what I say and see what I do.

As a result, they will not see what I want them to see or hear what I want them to hear, and they will not understand it, and they will not turn to me and be saved from being punished."

<sup>11</sup> Then I said, "How long do you want me to continue to do that?"

He replied, "Do it until their cities are ruined by their enemies, until no one is living in their houses,

do it until all the crops are stolen from their fields and the fields are ruined.

<sup>12</sup> Do it until I have ◀exiled everyone/forced everyone to go to their enemies' lands▶ far away,

and the whole land of Israel is deserted.

<sup>13</sup> If even one tenth of the people survive and stay there, their enemies will invade the land again and burn everything.

But, just like [MET] when an oak tree is cut down, a stump is left from which new shoots will grow, the people who remain in this land will be a group that will become large again and be ◀set apart for/dedicated to▶ me."

A message of encouragement for King Ahaz

<sup>1</sup> Ahaz was the son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah. During the time that Ahaz was the king of Judah, King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah of Israel marched with their armies to attack Jerusalem. But they could not conquer it.

<sup>2</sup> But before they attacked, everyone in the palace heard a report that the armies of Syria and Israel were now ◀allies/joined to attack Jerusalem▶. So Ahaz and the people over whom he ruled were extremely afraid; they were shaking from fear like trees shake in a windstorm.

<sup>3</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, "Take your son Shear-Jashub, and go to talk with King Ahaz. He is at the end of the ◀aqueduct/water channel▶ that brings water into the upper reservoir, near the road to the place where women wash clothes. <sup>4</sup> Tell Ahaz to stop worrying [DOU]. Tell him that he does not need to be afraid of those two kings, Rezin and Pekah. They are very angry with Judah, but they are unable to harm his country any more than completely burned-out coals can harm him. <sup>5</sup> Yes, they are planning to attack this land and saying, <sup>6</sup> 'We will attack Judah and conquer it. Then we will appoint Tabeel's son to be the king of Judah.' <sup>7</sup> But this is what Yahweh, the Lord, says:

'It will not happen;
they will not conquer Jerusalem!

<sup>8</sup> The capital of Syria is Damascus, but Damascus is ruled only by its unimportant/insignificant king king Rezin.
And as for Israel, within 65 years it will be conquered and completely destroyed.

So you do not need to be afraid of those two countries!
But you must trust me, because if you do not trust me fully,
you will be defeated.' "

A promise of a son named Immanuel

<sup>10</sup> Later, Yahweh gave me another message to tell to King Ahaz. <sup>11</sup> He said to tell him, "Request me, Yahweh your God, to do something that will enable you to be sure that I will help/protect you. What you request can be from a place that is as high as the sky or as low as the place where the dead people are."

<sup>12</sup> But when I told that to the king, he refused. He said, "No, I will not request Yahweh to do something to prove that he will help/protect us!"

<sup>13</sup> Then I said to him, "You people who are descendants of King David, listen! You are causing me to be tired of being patient. Are you also going to cause my God to stop being patient with you [RHQ]? <sup>14</sup> Yahweh himself will do something for you to prove that he will help/protect you. Listen to this: A young woman will become pregnant and give birth to a son. She will name him Immanuel, which means 'God is with us'. <sup>15</sup> And by the time that child is old enough to eat curds/yogurt and honey, he will be able to reject what is evil and choose what is good. <sup>16</sup> And before that child is old enough to do that, the lands of the two kings that you(sg) are very ◀afraid of/worried about▶ will be deserted. <sup>17</sup> But then Yahweh will cause you and your family and your entire nation to experience terrible disasters. Those disasters will be worse than any disasters that have occurred since the country of Israel separated from Judah. Yahweh will cause the army of the king of Assyria to attack you!"

<sup>18</sup> At that time, it will be as though Yahweh will whistle to summon the army from the south of Egypt as well as the army of Assyria. They will come and surround your country like [MET] flies and bees. <sup>19</sup> They will all come and settle/live everywhere—in the narrow valleys and caves in the rock cliffs, on land where there are thornbushes as well as on the fertile land. <sup>20</sup> At that time Yahweh will hire the king of Assyria to come with his army from east of the Euphrates River. They will get rid of everything in your land—the crops and the people. They will destroy everything thoroughly; it will be like [MET] a barber shaving not only a man's hair but his beard and the hair on his legs. <sup>21</sup> When that happens, a farmer will be able to have only one cow and two goats/sheep. <sup>22</sup> However, those animals will give plenty of milk, with the result that the farmer will have curds/yogurt to eat. And because there will not be many people left in the land, all the people who remain there will have plenty of milk and honey. <sup>23</sup> Now there are many areas where there are vineyards that are worth 1,000 pieces of silver, but at that time there will be only briars and thorns [DOU] in those fields. <sup>24</sup> There will be only briars and thorns in the entire land, and wild animals, with the result that men will take their bows and arrows and go there to hunt and kill animals. <sup>25</sup> No one will go to where there previously were gardens on fertile hillsides, because briers and thorns will cover those hillsides. They will be areas where only a few cattle and sheep and goats wander around searching for something to eat.

A warning about the Assyrian attack

<sup>1</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “Make a large signboard. And write clearly on it, ‘Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz’ which means ‘quickly ◀plunder/take by force▶ and steal everything’.”

<sup>2</sup> So I requested Uriah the Supreme Priest and Jeberekiah’s son Zechariah, men who were both honest/trustworthy witnesses, to watch me as I was doing that.

<sup>3</sup> Then I had sex with [EUP] my wife, who was a prophetess, and she became pregnant and then gave birth to a son. Then Yahweh said to me, “Give him the name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz (which means ‘suddenly attacked, quickly conquered’), <sup>4</sup> because before he is old enough to say ‘papa’ or ‘mama’, the King of Assyria will come with his army and quickly take away all the valuable things in Damascus and in Samaria.”

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh spoke to me again and said, “Tell the people of Judah, <sup>6</sup> ‘I have taken good care of you people, but you have rejected that, thinking that my help was very little, like [MET] the little canal through which water flows from the Gihon Spring into Jerusalem.

Instead, you have been happy to request help from King Rezin and King Pekah.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, I will cause the people of Judah to be attacked by the powerful army of the King of Assyria, which will be like a great flood from the Euphrates River.

Their soldiers will be everywhere in your country, like a river that overflows all its banks.

<sup>8</sup> Those soldiers will go all over Judah—

like a river whose water [MET] rises as high as a person’s neck.

Their army will spread over the land quickly, like an eagle, and they will cover your entire land!

But I will be with you!’ ”

<sup>9</sup> Listen, all you people in distant countries!

You can prepare to attack Judah.

You can prepare for battle, and shout your war-cries, but your armies will be crushed/shattered!

<sup>10</sup> You can prepare for what you will do to attack Judah,

but what you plan to do will not happen!

You will not succeed,

because God is with us!

Isaiah is urged to revere Yahweh

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh strongly warned me [MTY] not to act like the other people in Judah did. He said to me, like other people say, and do not ◀be afraid of/worry about▶ the things that other people are afraid of.

<sup>12</sup> “Do not say that everything that people do is conspiring/rebelling against the government,

<sup>13</sup> I, the Commander of the armies of angels, am the one you should consider to be holy.

And I am the one you should fear,

the one you should revere.

<sup>14</sup> I will protect you(sg).

*But as for the other people [MTY] in Israel and Judah,
I will be like [MET] a stone that causes people to stumble, a rock that causes them to fall down.*

*And as for the people of Jerusalem,
I will be like [MET] a trap or a snare [DOU].*

<sup>15</sup> Many people will stumble and fall down and never get up again.

They will experience great troubles;
they will be captured by their enemies."

<sup>16</sup> So, I say to you who are my disciples, seal up this scroll on which I have written the messages that God has given to me, and give his instructions to others who have accompanied me.

<sup>17</sup> I will wait to see what Yahweh will do.
He has rejected the descendants [MTY] of Jacob, but I will confidently expect him to help me.

<sup>18</sup> I and the children that Yahweh has given to me are like signs to warn the people of Israel;
we are warnings from the Commander of the armies of angels the one who lives in his temple on Zion Hill in Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> Some people may urge you(pl) to ◀consult/go and talk with▶ those who talk with the spirits of dead people or with those who say that they receive messages from those spirits. They whisper and mutter about what we should do in the future. But God is [RHQ] the one whom we should ask to guide us! It is ridiculous [RHQ] for people who are alive to request spirits of dead people to tell us what we should do! <sup>20</sup> Pay attention to God's instructions and teaching! If people do not say things that agree with what God teaches us, what they say is worthless. It is as though those people are in darkness. <sup>21</sup> They will wander through the land, worried/discouraged and hungry.
And when they become very hungry, they will become very angry. They will look up toward heaven and curse God and will also curse their king. <sup>22</sup> They will look around the land and see only trouble/distress and darkness and things that cause them to despair. And then they will be thrown into the very black darkness of hell.

9

The promise of the future king

<sup>1</sup> However, those in Judah who have been distressed/worried will not continue to suffer. Previously, Yahweh humbled the people in the land where the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali live. But in the future he will honor the people who live in that Galilee region, along the road between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea, where many foreigners live.

<sup>2</sup> Some day, it will be as though [MET] the people who walked in darkness will see a great light.

A great light will shine on those who live in a land where they have great troubles/distress.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, you will cause us people in Israel to rejoice;
we will become very happy.

We will rejoice about what you have done like [SIM] people rejoice when they harvest their crops, or like soldiers rejoice

when they divide up among themselves the things that they have captured in a battle.

<sup>4</sup> You will cause us to no longer be slaves [MET] of those who captured us;
you will lift the heavy burdens from our shoulders.

It will be as though you will break the rods of those who oppressed us, like you did when you destroyed the army of the Midian people-group.

<sup>5</sup> The boots that the enemy soldiers have worn and their clothing which has stains of blood on them will all be burned up;
they will only be fuel for a big fire.

<sup>6</sup> Another reason that we will rejoice is that a special child will be born for us;
a woman will give birth to a son, who will be our ruler.

And his names will be 'Wonderful Counselor', 'Mighty/Powerful God', 'Our Everlasting Father', and 'Prince/Ruler who enables us to have Peace'.

<sup>7</sup> His rule, and the peace that he brings/causes, will never end.

He will rule [MTY] fairly and justly [DOU], like his ancestor King David did.

This will happen because the Commander of the armies of angels greatly desires that it happen.

God will punish Israel

<sup>8</sup> The Lord has warned the people of Israel, the descendants of Jacob;
he has said that he will punish them.

<sup>9-10</sup> And all the people in Samaria and other places in Israel know that, but they are very proud and arrogant [DOU].

They say, "Our city has been destroyed, but we will take away the broken bricks from the ruins and replace them with carefully cut stones.

Our sycamore-fig trees have been cut down by our enemies, but we will plant cedar trees in their place."

<sup>11</sup> But Yahweh brought the armies of Assyria, the enemies of King Rezin of Syria, to fight against Israel and incited other nations to attack Israel.

<sup>12</sup> The army of Syria came from the east, and the army of Philistia came from the west, and they destroyed Israel like a wild animal tears another animal apart and [MET] devours it.

But even after that happened, Yahweh was still very angry with them.
He was ready to strike them with his fist again.

<sup>13</sup> But even though Yahweh punished his people like that, they still did not return to him and worship him.

They still did not request the Commander of the armies of angels to assist them.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, in one day Yahweh will get rid of those who are like Israel's head and those who are like its tail;
the ones who are like the top of the palm tree and the ones who are like the bottom.

<sup>15</sup> The leaders [DOU] of Israel are the head, and the prophets who tell lies are the tail.

<sup>16</sup> The leaders of the people have misled them;
they have caused the people that they are ruling to be confused.

<sup>17</sup> For that reason, Yahweh is not pleased with the young men of Israel, and he does not even act mercifully toward the widows and orphans, because they are all ungodly and wicked,

 and they all say things that are foolish.
But Yahweh still is angry with them;
 he is ready to strike them with his fist again.

- <sup>18</sup> When people do wicked things,
 it is like [SIM] a brushfire that spreads rapidly.
 It burns up not only briars and thorns;
 it starts a big fire in the forests from which clouds of smoke will rise.
- <sup>19</sup> It is as though the whole land is burned black because the Commander of the armies of angels is extremely angry with the Israeli people.
 They will become like [SIM] fuel for that great fire, and no one will try to rescue even his own brother from that fire.
- <sup>20</sup> Israeli people will attack their neighbors on the right to get food from them, but they will still be hungry.
 They will kill those who live in houses on the left and eat their flesh, but their stomachs will still not be full.
- <sup>21</sup> People of the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim will attack each other, and then they will both attack the people of Judah.

But even after that happens, Yahweh will still be very angry with them.
 He will be ready to strike them with his fist again.

10

A warning to unjust judges

- <sup>1</sup> Terrible things will happen to you judges who are unjust and who make unfair laws.
- <sup>2</sup> You refuse to help poor people, and you do not allow them to get the things that they should get.
 You allow people to steal things from widows and do unfair things to orphans.
- <sup>3</sup> When I punish you by sending people from distant lands to cause you to experience disasters, ◀to whom will you run to get help?/there will be no one who can help you.▶ [RHQ]
 Your valuable possessions will certainly not be safe [RHQ] anywhere.
- <sup>4</sup> You will be able only to stumble along as you are taken away with other prisoners, or else your corpses will lie on the ground with others who have been killed.
 But even after that happens,
 Yahweh will still be very angry with you.
 He will still be ready to strike you again with his fist.

A warning to Assyria

- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh says, "Terrible things will happen to Assyria.
It is true that their army is like a rod/club [DOU] with which I punish other nations because I am very angry with those nations [DOU].
- <sup>6</sup> Sometimes I send the armies of Assyria to attack a godless nation, to fight against other people who have caused me to be angry.
 I send them to capture people and to seize and take away their possessions, and to trample them like [SIM] people walk on mud in the streets.

<sup>7</sup> But the king of Assyria does not understand, he does not realize that he is only like a weapon in my hand.
He wants only to destroy people, to get rid of many nations.

<sup>8</sup> He says, 'All of my army commanders will soon be kings of these nations that I conquer!

<sup>9</sup> We destroyed Calno city like we destroyed Carchemish city,
We destroyed Hamath city like we destroyed Arpad city;
we destroyed Samaria just like we destroyed Damascus.

<sup>10</sup> We were able to destroy all those kingdoms that were full of idols, kingdoms whose idols were greater than the idols in Jerusalem and Samaria.

<sup>11</sup> So we will defeat Jerusalem and destroy the idols that are there, just like we destroyed Samaria and the idols that were there!'

<sup>12</sup> But, I, Yahweh, say that after I have used Assyria to finish what I want to do to punish the people in Jerusalem [DOU], I will punish the king of Assyria because he has been very proud and arrogant/boastful [DOU].

<sup>13</sup> He says, 'By my own great power [MTY] I have done these things.
I have been able to do them because I am very wise and very intelligent.
My army removed the barriers at the borders of nations and carried away all their valuable things.

My army has knocked down their kings like [SIM] a ferocious bull would.

<sup>14</sup> Like [MET] a farmer reaches into a bird's nest to take away the eggs, we have taken away the treasures of other countries [DOU].

The people were not like birds that would flap their wings or chirp loudly to protest about their eggs being stolen;
the people did not object at all to their treasures being stolen.'

<sup>15</sup> But I, Yahweh, say that an axe certainly cannot [RHQ] boast about being stronger than the person who uses it, and a saw is not greater than the person who uses it.

A rod cannot control the one who holds it [RHQ], and a wooden club cannot lift up a person [RHQ].

So the king of Assyria should not boast that he has done these things with his own wisdom and strength.

<sup>16</sup> And I, the Commander of the armies of angels, will send a plague among the proud soldiers of Assyria;
it will be like [MET] a fire that will kill them and get rid of their glory/wealth.

<sup>17</sup> I, Yahweh, who am like [MET] a light for the people of Israel, will be the fire;
I, the Holy One, will be like a flame.

The soldiers of Assyria are like [MET] thorns and briers, and I will burn them up in one night.

<sup>18</sup> There are glorious forests and fertile farmlands in Assyria, but I will completely destroy them;
they will be like [SIM] a very sick person who shrivels up and then dies.

<sup>19</sup> There will be very few trees left in those forests;
even a child will be able to count them."

A promise of future blessings for Israel

<sup>20</sup> In the future there will be only a few people left in Israel;
not many descendants of Jacob will still be alive.

But they will no longer rely on the king of Assyria, the king of the nation that tried to destroy them.

Instead, they will faithfully/sincerely trust in Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> Now, the people of Israel are as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, but only a few of them will return from the countries to which they were exiled.

Yahweh has decided to destroy most of the Israelis and that is what he must do because he is completely just/righteous.

<sup>23</sup> Yes, the Commander of the armies of angels has already decided to destroy the entire land of Israel.

“My people in Jerusalem, do not be afraid of the army of Assyria when they beat you with rods and clubs, like the men of Egypt did to your ancestors long ago.”

<sup>25</sup> Soon I will no longer be angry with you, and then I will be angry with the people of Assyria and destroy them!”

<sup>26</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels will whip them.

He will do to them like he did when he helped Gideon and his 300 soldiers to defeat the army of the Midian people-group, and like he did when he showed his mighty power [MTY] by causing the army of Egypt to drown in the Red Sea.

<sup>27</sup> Some day, Yahweh will cause the army of Assyria to stop oppressing you, his people;
 he will end your suffering and your being slaves of the people of Assyria [MET];
 he will take away the load that you people of Judah have been carrying, and cause things to go well for you.

The Assyrians will invade Judah

<sup>28</sup> The army of Assyria will enter northern Judah near Aiath town, they will go through Migron town and store their supplies at Micmash town north of Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> They will cross through a mountain pass and set up their tents at Geba town.

People in Ramah town will tremble because of being afraid.

The people of Gibeah town, where King Saul was born, will all run away.

You will shout to the people of Laish city near Jerusalem to warn them!
The people of Anathoth town will suffer a lot.

<sup>31</sup> The people of Madmenah town north of Jerusalem will all be running away, and the people of Gebim town close to Jerusalem will be trying to hide.

They will shake their fists
as they threaten the people on Zion Hill in Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> But listen to this! The Commander of the armies of angels with his great power will destroy [MET] the mighty army of Assyria.
It is as though they are a huge tree [MET] that he will cut down.

<sup>34</sup> He will destroy the soldiers of Assyria
 like men use big axes to cut down the tall trees in the forests of Lebanon.

11

David's descendant will bring peace

- <sup>1</sup> Like [MET] a new shoot often grows from the stump of a tree, there will be a descendant of King David who will be a new king.
- <sup>2</sup> The Spirit of Yahweh will always be with him.
The Spirit will enable him to be wise and to understand much about many things.
The Spirit will enable him to decide what is good to do, and will enable him to be very powerful.
The Spirit will enable him to know Yahweh and to revere him.
- <sup>3</sup> He will be glad to obey Yahweh.
He will not decide whether someone is righteous or not only by seeing what that person looks like, or by listening to what others say about that person.
- <sup>4</sup> He will judge the cases of needy people fairly;
and he will act justly toward poor people.
He will punish evil people as a result of what he decides [MTY];
he will get rid of wicked people because of [MTY] their behavior.
- <sup>5</sup> He will always act righteously;
his doing that will accompany him like [MET] a belt around his waist.
He will always speak what is true;
his doing that will accompany him like [MET] a sash around his waist.
- <sup>6</sup> When he becomes king, wolves and lambs will live together peacefully;
leopards, instead of killing baby goats, will lie down with them.
Similarly, calves and lions will eat food together;
and a young child will take care of them.
- <sup>7</sup> Cows and bears will eat together;
bear cubs and calves will lie down together.
Lions will not eat other animals;
instead, they will eat hay like cows do.
- <sup>8</sup> Babies will play safely near the holes where cobra snakes live;
small children will even put their hands into nests of poisonous snakes,
and the snakes will not harm them.
- <sup>9</sup> No creatures will harm or kill other creatures on Zion Hill, my holy hill; and the earth will be filled with people who know Yahweh like [SIM] the seas are full of water.
- <sup>10</sup> At that time, a descendant of King David will hold up a flag to signal to the people of all people-groups that they should gather around him;
they will come to him to get his advice, and the place where he lives will be glorious.
- <sup>11</sup> At that time, Yahweh will ◀reach out his hand/use his power▶ as he did long ago;
he will enable those who had been ◀exiled from/forced to leave▶ Israel to return home, from Assyria, from northern Egypt, from southern Egypt, from Ethiopia, from Elam, from Babylonia, from Hamath, and from all the distant countries near the sea.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh will raise his flag among all the people-groups, and he will gather together the people of Israel who had been exiled long ago.
He will gather from very distant places [IDM] on the earth the people of Judah who ◀had been scattered to/are living in▶ those places.

- <sup>13</sup> Then, the people of Israel and the people of Judah will not be jealous of each other any longer, and they will no longer be enemies of each other.
- <sup>14</sup> Their armies will join together to attack the people of Philistia to the west.
And together they will attack nations to the east;
they will defeat those nations and take away all their valuable possessions.
They will capture the areas of Edom and Moab, and the people of the Ammon people-group will be controlled/ruled by the people of Israel and Judah.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh will make a dry road through the sea near Egypt.
And it will be as though he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and send a strong wind to cause it to divide into seven streams, with the result that people will be able to walk across those streams.
- <sup>16</sup> And because he will make a highway for his people who are living in Assyria, they will be able to return to their own land, just like long ago he made a path for the people of Israel
so that they could go through the water when they left Egypt.

12

Songs that people will sing to praise Yahweh

- <sup>1</sup> At that time, you people of Jerusalem will sing this song: “Yahweh, we praise you!
Previously, you were angry with us, but you are not angry now and you have comforted us.
- <sup>2</sup> Amazingly, you have come to save us,
so we will trust in you and not be afraid.
Yahweh our God, you enable us to be strong;
you are the one about whom we sing;
you have rescued us from our enemies.”
- <sup>3</sup> You(pl), his people, will greatly enjoy being saved like [MET] you enjoy drinking water from a fountain.
- <sup>4</sup> At that time you all will say,
“We should thank Yahweh! We should praise him [MTY]!
We should tell the people of all the people-groups what he has done;
we should enable them to know that he [MTY] is very great!
- <sup>5</sup> We should sing to Yahweh, because he has done wonderful things.
We should enable everyone in the world to know it!
- <sup>6</sup> You people of Jerusalem, shout joyfully to praise Yahweh, because he is the great Holy One whom we Israeli people worship, and he lives among us!”

13

Yahweh will punish Babylon

- <sup>1</sup> I, Isaiah, the son of Amoz, received from Yahweh this message about Babylon city:
- <sup>2</sup> Lift up a flag on the bare top of a hill, to signal that an army should come to attack Babylon.

Shout to them and wave your hand to signal to them that they should march through the city gates into the palaces of the proud rulers of Babylon!

<sup>3</sup> *Yahweh says, "I have commanded those soldiers to do that;
I have summoned the warriors whom I have chosen to punish the people of Babylon because of my being very angry with them, and those soldiers will be very proud when they do that."*

<sup>4</sup> Listen to the noise on the mountains, which is the noise of a huge army marching!
It is the noise made by people of many people-groups shouting.
The Commander of the armies of angels has summoned this army to gather together.

<sup>5</sup> They come from countries that are far away, from the most remote places [IDM] on the earth.
They are like [SIM] weapons that Yahweh will use to punish the people with whom he is very angry, and to destroy the entire country of Babylonia.

<sup>6</sup> You people of Babylon will scream because you will be terrified, because it will be the time that Yahweh has determined/chosen, the time for the all-powerful God to destroy your city.

<sup>7</sup> All of your people will be very afraid [DOU], with the result that they will be unable even to lift their arms.

<sup>8</sup> All of you will be terrified.
You will have [PRS] severe pains like [SIM] a woman has when she is giving birth to a baby.
You will look at each other helplessly, and it will show on your faces that you feel horror.

<sup>9</sup> Listen to this: The day that Yahweh has appointed/chosen is near, the day that he will furiously and fiercely punish you because he is very angry with you.

He will cause your land of Babylonia to be desolate/barren, and he will destroy all the sinners in it.

<sup>10</sup> When that happens, none of the stars will shine.
When the sun rises, it will be dark, and there will be no light from the moon at night.

<sup>11</sup> *Yahweh says, "I will punish everyone in the world for the evil things that they do;
I will punish the wicked people for the sins that they have committed.
I will stop arrogant/proud people from being proud, and I will stop ruthless people from acting cruelly.*

<sup>12</sup> And because I will cause most people to die, people will be harder to find than gold, harder to find than fine gold from Ophir in Arabia.

<sup>13</sup> I will shake the sky, and the earth will also move out of its place.
That will happen when I, the Commander of the armies of angels, punish wicked people, when I show them that I am extremely angry with them.

- 14 And all the foreigners in Babylon will run around like [SIM] deer that are being hunted, like sheep that do not have a shepherd.
They will try to find other people from their countries, and then they will escape from Babylon and return to their own countries.
- 15 Anyone who is captured in Babylon will be killed by their enemies' swords [DOU].
- 16 Their little children will be dashed to pieces on the rocks while their parents watch;
their enemies will steal everything valuable from their houses and will rape their wives.
- 17 Look! I am going to incite the people of Media to attack Babylon.
The army of Media will attack Babylon, even if they are offered [DOU] silver or gold if they promise to not attack it.
- 18 With their arrows, the soldiers of Media will shoot the young men of Babylon; they will not even act mercifully [DOU] toward infants or children!"
- 19 Babylon has been a very beautiful [MTY] city;
all the people of Babylonia have been very proud of Babylon, their capital city;
but God will destroy Babylon, like [SIM] he destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.
- 20 No one will ever live in Babylon again.
It will be deserted forever.
◀Nomads/People who travel from place to place to live▶ will refuse to set up their tents there;
shepherds will not bring their flocks of sheep to rest there.
- 21 Instead, animals that live in the desert will be there;
jackals/wolves will live in the ruins of the houses.
Owls (OR, Ostriches) will live in the ruins, and wild goats will romp/jump around there.
- 22 Hyenas will howl in the ruined towers, and jackals/wolves will make their dens in the ruins of the palaces that were previously very beautiful.
The time when Babylon will be destroyed is very near;
Babylon will not exist much longer.

14

God's people will return to Judah

- 1 But Yahweh will act mercifully toward the Israeli people;
he will choose the people of Israel to be his people again, and he will allow them to return here and live in their own land again.
Then people from many other countries will come here and unite with the Israeli people.
- 2 People of other nations will help them to return to their own land, and those who come from other countries will ◀work for/become the servants of▶ the Israeli people.
Those who captured people of Israel will be captured by Israeli soldiers, and the people of Israel will rule over the people who previously oppressed them.

The king of Babylon will be killed

<sup>3</sup> Some day Yahweh will free you Israeli people from suffering and trouble and from being afraid, and from being cruelly treated as slaves [MTY]. <sup>4</sup> When that happens, you will make fun of the King of Babylon by saying this:

“You treated us cruelly, but that has ended!

Your insolently causing others to suffer is finished!

<sup>5</sup> You evil ruler, Yahweh will get rid of your power, and you will oppress people no longer!

<sup>6</sup> You attacked people many times because you were very angry with them, and you subdued/conquered other nations
by causing them to suffer endlessly.

<sup>7</sup> But soon everything will be quiet and peaceful on the earth.
Everyone [PRS] will sing again!

<sup>8</sup> It will be as though even the trees in the forests will joyfully sing this song, the cyprus/pine trees and the cedar trees in Lebanon will sing it:

‘You ◀have been overthrown/are no longer a ruler▶, and now no one comes to get rid of us [MET].’

<sup>9</sup> The dead people are [PRS] are eagerly waiting for you to come to the place where they are.

The spirits of the world leaders will be delighted to welcome you;
those who were kings of many nations before they died will stand up to welcome you.

<sup>10</sup> They will all shout to you together,
‘Now you are as weak as we are!’

<sup>11</sup> You were very proud and powerful,
but all that ended when you died, along with the sounds of harps being played in your palace.

Now in your grave maggots will be under you like a sheet [MET], and worms will cover you like a blanket [MET].

<sup>12</sup> You have disappeared from the earth like [MET] a star which has fallen from the sky;

you were very well-known like [MET] the morning star which is seen by everyone;

you destroyed many nations,
but now you have been destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> You proudly said to yourself, ‘I will ascend to heaven, to my throne above God’s stars.

I will rule on the mountain where the gods gather together, far in the north.

<sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the clouds and become like the highest/greatest god!’

<sup>15</sup> But you were not able to do that;

instead, you were carried down to your grave, and you went to the place where the dead people are.

<sup>16</sup> The other dead people there stare at you;
they wonder what happened to you.

They say, ‘Is this the man who caused the earth to shake and caused the people in many kingdoms to tremble?’

<sup>17</sup> Is this the man who tried to cause the world to become a desert, who conquered its cities and did not allow the people whom he captured to return to their homes?’

18 All the kings of the earth who have died were greatly honored when they were buried,

19 but your corpse will not be buried;

it will be thrown away like [SIM] a worthless branch of a tree.

Your corpse will be under a heap of other corpses of soldiers that were killed by their enemies’ swords, and their corpses were not buried;

you will be with those who have gone down to the stony ground in a big pit.

20 Your corpse will not be buried because you have destroyed your nation and have caused your people to be killed.

The descendants of wicked people like you will never be honored again.

21 People will say, ‘Slaughter this man’s children because of the sins that their ancestors committed!

Do not allow them to become rulers and conquer all the nations in the world, and fill the world with the cities that they rule!’ ”

22 This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says:

“I myself will cause Babylon to be conquered.

I will get rid of Babylon and its people and their descendants.

23 I will cause Babylon to be a place where owls live, a place full of swamps;

I will get rid of it completely as though [MET] I were sweeping it with a broom.

That is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say.”

Yahweh will punish Assyria

24 The Commander of the armies of angels has also solemnly promised this:

“The things that I have planned will surely happen [DOU].

25 When the army of Assyria is in my land of Israel,

I will crush them.

It will be as though I will trample them on my mountains.

My people will no longer be the slaves [MET] of the people of Assyria;

it will be as though [MET] I will take away the burdens that are on their shoulders.

26 I have a plan for everyone on the earth, a plan to show my power [MTY] to punish all the nations.

27 I, the Commander of the armies of angels, have spoken, and no one can [RHQ] change my mind.

When I raise my fist to strike Assyria, no one [RHQ] will be able to stop me from doing that.”

Yahweh will punish Philistia

28 I received this message from Yahweh during the year that King Ahaz died:

29 You people of Philistia, do not rejoice that the enemy army [MET] that attacked you has been defeated and that their king is dead.

 He was as dangerous as [MET] a snake, but there will be another king, who will be more dangerous than a cobra;
 he will be like [MET] a quick-moving poisonous snake.
<sup>30</sup> Those of my people who are very poor will take care of their flocks of sheep, and the needy people will lie down safely, but I will cause you people of Philistia who are still alive [DOU] to die from famine.

<sup>31</sup> So, you people of Philistia, wail at the gates of your cities!
 You should be extremely afraid, because a very powerful army will come from the north to attack you;
their chariots will stir up the dust like [MET] a cloud of smoke.
 Each of their soldiers is ready to fight.
<sup>32</sup> If messengers from Philistia come to us Israeli people, this is what we must [RHQ] tell them:
 "Yahweh has established Jerusalem, not Philistia, and his people who are oppressed will be safe inside the walls of Jerusalem."

15

Yahweh will destroy Moab

<sup>1</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about the Moab people-group:
 In one night two of your important cities, Ar and Kir, will be destroyed.
<sup>2</sup> The people of Dibon, your capital city, will go to their temple to mourn/weep;
 they will go to their shrines on the hilltops to weep.
 They will wail because of what happened to Nebo and Medeba towns in the south;
 they will all shave the hair of their heads, and the men will cut off their beards to show that they are grieving.
<sup>3</sup> In the streets people will wear rough sackcloth, and on their flat rooftops and in the city plazas everyone will wail, with tears streaming down their faces.
<sup>4</sup> The people of Heshbon city and Elealeh towns in the north of Moab will cry out;
 people as far away as Jahaz town in the south will hear them wailing.
 Therefore the soldiers of Moab will tremble and cry out and they will be very afraid [IDM].
<sup>5</sup> I feel very sorry for the people of Moab;
 they will flee to Zoar and Eglath-Shelishiyah towns in the far south.
 They will cry as they walk up to Luhith town.
 All along the road to Horonaim town people will mourn because their country has been destroyed.
<sup>6</sup> The water in Nimrim Valley will have dried up.
 The grass there will be withered;
 the green plants will all be gone,
 and there will be nothing left that is green.
<sup>7</sup> The people will pick up their possessions and carry them across Willows Brook.
<sup>8</sup> Throughout the country of Moab, people will be crying; people as far away as Eglaim in the south and Beer-Elim in the north will hear them wailing.

<sup>9</sup> The stream near Dimon will become red from the blood of people who have been killed, but I will cause the people of Moab to experience even more trouble:

Lions will attack those who are trying to escape from Moab and will also attack the people who remain in that country.

16

“We must send some lambs from Sela city as a gift to the ruler of Judah to persuade him to not allow his army to attack us any more.

We should send them through the desert to the king.

they will be like [SIM] birds that have been pushed out of their nests.

Tell us what we should do!

Protect us completely [MET],

we who are running away from our enemies, and do not ◀betray us/tell our enemies where we are▶.

<sup>4</sup> Allow those of us who are fleeing from Moab to stay with you; hide/protect us from our enemies who want to destroy us!’

Some day there will be no one to oppress us, and our enemies will stop destroying our land.

<sup>5</sup> Then Yahweh will appoint someone to be king who will be a descendant of King David.

As he rules [MTY], he will be merciful and truthful.

He will always do what is fair/just and quickly do what is righteous.”

<sup>6</sup> We people of Judah have heard about the people of Moab;
we have heard that they are very proud and conceited [DOU];
they are insolent,

but what they proudly say about themselves is not true.

<sup>7</sup> Some day all the people in Moab will weep.

They will all mourn, because there will be no more raisin cakes in Kir-Hareseth city.

<sup>8</sup> The crops in the fields at Heshbon city will wither, and the vineyards at Sibmah town will wither also.

The armies of other nations will destroy Moab, which is like [MET] a beautiful grapevine whose branches spread north to Jazer town and east to the desert.

Its branches spread very far west, to the west side of the Dead Sea.

<sup>9</sup> So I will weep for Jazer and for the grapevines of Sibmah.

I will shed tears for all of you.

I will cry because people will no longer shout joyfully, like they usually do when they gather the fruit that ripens in the ◀summer/hot season▶ and the other crops that they harvest.

<sup>10</sup> People will no longer be glad at harvest time.

No one will sing in the vineyards, no one will shout joyfully.

No one will tread on grapes to get grape juice for wine;
there will be nothing to shout about joyfully.

my groaning is like [SIM] a sad song played on a harp.

I am sad about Kir-Hareseth.

<sup>12</sup> The people of Moab will go and pray at their sacred shrines, but that will not help them.

They will cry out to their gods in their temples,

but none of them will be able to rescue the people.

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh has already spoken those things about Moab. <sup>14</sup> But now he says that exactly three years from now, he will destroy all the things that the people of Moab have been proud of. Even though they have a huge number of people in Moab now, only a few people will remain alive, and they will be weak/helpless.

17

Yahweh will punish Syria

<sup>1</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about Damascus the capital of Syria:

“Listen carefully! Damascus will no longer be a city;

it will be only a heap of ruins!

<sup>2</sup> The towns near Aroer city will be abandoned.

Flocks of sheep will eat grass in the streets and lie down there, and there will be no one to chase them away.

<sup>3</sup> The cities in Israel will not have walls around them to protect them.

The power of the kingdom of Damascus will be ended, and the few people who will remain in Damascus will be disgraced like the people in Israel were disgraced.”

That is what the Commander of the armies of angels says.

The destruction of Israel

<sup>4</sup> “At that time, Israel will become insignificant.

It will be like [MET] a fat person who has become very thin.

<sup>5</sup> The entire land will be like [SIM] a field where the harvesters have cut all the grain;
there will be nothing left, like [SIM] the fields in the Rephaim Valley after all the crops have been harvested.

<sup>6</sup> Only a few of the Israeli people will remain [MET], like [SIM] the few olives that remain on the top of a tree after the workers have caused all the other olives to fall to the ground.

There will be only two or three olives in the top branches,

or four or five olives on the other branches.”

That is what the Commander of the armies of angels says.

<sup>7</sup> Then, at that time, you people of Israel will ◀turn for help to/look up to▶ God, your creator,

the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> You will no longer seek to get help from your idols or worship the idols that you have made with your own hands [DOU].

You will never again bow down in front of the poles where you worship the goddess Asherah.

You will never again worship at the shrines that you have built for burning incense.

<sup>9</sup> The largest cities in Israel will be abandoned, like the land that the Hiv and Amor people-groups abandoned (OR, like the forests that the Canaan people-group abandoned) when the Israelis attacked them long ago.

No one will live there.

<sup>10</sup> That will happen because you have stopped worshiping God who is like [MET] a huge rock under which you can be safe.

You have forgotten that he is the one who can hide/protect you.

So, now you plant very nice grapevines and even plant very expensive ones that come from other countries.

<sup>11</sup> But even if they sprout leaves on the day that you plant them, and even if they produce blossoms on that same morning, at harvest time, there will not be any grapes for you to pick.

All that you will get is a lot of agony/misery.

<sup>12</sup> Listen! The armies of many nations will roar like the sea roars.

It will sound like the noise of crashing waves.

<sup>13</sup> But even though their loud roaring will be like the sound of crashing waves, when Yahweh rebukes them, they will run far away.

They will flee like [SIM] chaff on the hills scatters when the wind blows, like tumbleweeds scatter when a windstorm blows.

<sup>14</sup> And, even though you people of Israel will be terrified, in the morning your enemies will all be gone/dead.

That is what will happen to those who invade our land and then steal our possessions.

18

The destruction of Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup> Terrible things will happen to you people of Ethiopia!

In your land there are many sailboats at the upper part of the Nile River.

<sup>2</sup> Your rulers send ambassadors that sail quickly down the river in papyrus boats.

You messengers to Ethiopia, go quickly!

Go up the river to people who are tall and who have smooth skin.

People everywhere are afraid of those people, because they conquer and destroy other nations;

they live in a land that is divided by branches of one large river.

<sup>3</sup> You messengers must tell people everywhere, to people everywhere,

“Look when I lift up my battle flag on top of the mountain, and listen when I blow the ram’s horn to signal that the battle is about to begin.”

<sup>4</sup> Listen because Yahweh has told me this:

“I will watch quietly from where I live.

I will watch as quietly as [SIM] the heat waves shimmer as they rise on a hot summer day, as quietly as the dew forms on the ground during harvest time.”

<sup>5</sup> But even before the army of Ethiopia starts to attack, while their plans are slowly forming like [SIM] grapes that are ripening, Yahweh will get rid of them like a farmer who [MET] cuts off the new shoots of the grapevines with his shears, and prunes the branches that have become very long.

<sup>6</sup> All the soldiers in the army of Ethiopia will be killed, and their corpses will lie in the fields for vultures to eat their flesh in the ◀summer/hot season▶.
Then wild animals will chew on their bones all during the ◀winter/cold season▶.

<sup>7</sup> At that time, the people of that land that is divided by the branches of that one big river will take gifts to Yahweh in Jerusalem.
Those tall people who have smooth/dark skin, whom people everywhere are afraid of,
because they conquer and destroy many countries, will take gifts to Jerusalem, the city where the Commander of the armies of angels lives.

19

A prophecy about the destruction of Egypt

<sup>1</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about Egypt:

“Listen to this! I, Yahweh, am coming to Egypt, riding on a fast-moving cloud.

The idols in Egypt will tremble when I appear, and the people of Egypt will be extremely afraid [IDM].

<sup>2</sup> I will cause the people of Egypt to fight against each other:
men will fight against their brothers, neighbors will fight against each other, people of one city will fight against the people of another city, people of one province will fight against the people of another province.

<sup>3</sup> The people of Egypt will become very discouraged, and I will cause their plans not to be successful.

They will plead with idols and sorcerers and those who talk with spirits of dead people to tell them what they should do.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will enable someone who will treat them very cruelly to become their king
[DOU].”

That is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say.

<sup>5</sup> Some day the water in the Nile River will dry up, and the riverbed will become very dry [DOU].

<sup>6</sup> The branches of the river will all dry up [DOU]

The canals along the river will stink because of the rotting reeds and ◀bulrushes/tall grass▶.

<sup>7</sup> All the plants along the river and all the crops will dry up;
then they will blow away and disappear.

<sup>8</sup> The fishermen will throw into the river lines with hooks on them and nets, and then they will groan and be very discouraged;
they will be sad because there will be no fish in the river.

<sup>9</sup> Those who weave cloth from flax will not know what to do, because there will be no thread for them to weave.

<sup>10</sup> They will all despair and be very discouraged.

The advice that they gave to the king was worthless.

Why do they continue to tell the king that they are wise, that they are descendants of wise kings who lived long ago [RHQ]?

[RHQ]

If you had any wise counselors, they could tell you what the Commander of the armies of angels has planned to do to Egypt [SAR]!

<sup>13</sup> Yes, the officials of Zoan have become foolish, and the leaders in Memphis city in northern Egypt have deceived themselves.

All the leaders of the people have ◀caused their people to do wrong things/led their people astray▶.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh has caused them to be very foolish, with the result that in everything that they do, it is as though the people of Egypt

stagger

like [SIM] a drunken person staggers and slips in his own vomit.

<sup>15</sup> There is no one in Egypt, rich or poor, important or unimportant, who will be able to help them.

<sup>16</sup> At that time, the people of Egypt will be as helpless as [SIM] women. They will tremble, being terrified because they know that the Commander of the armies of angels has raised his fist, ready to strike/punish them. <sup>17</sup> The people of Egypt will be afraid of the people of Judah, and anyone who mentions Judah to them will cause them to be terrified, because that will remind them of what Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels, is planning to do to them.

<sup>18</sup> At that time, people in five cities in Egypt will solemnly declare that they will serve Yahweh. They will learn to speak the Hebrew language. One of those cities will be called 'City of the Sun'.

<sup>19</sup> At that time, there will be an altar for worshiping Yahweh in the center of Egypt, and there will be a ◀pillar/large rock▶ to honor Yahweh at the border between Egypt and Israel. <sup>20</sup> That will be a sign to indicate that the Commander of the armies of angels is worshiped in the land of Egypt. And when the people cry out to Yahweh to help them because others are ◀oppressing them/causing them to suffer▶, he will send to them someone who will defend and rescue them. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh will enable the people of Egypt to know who he is, and at that time they will have a close relationship with Yahweh and worship him and bring to him offerings of grain and other sacrifices.
They will solemnly promise to do things for Yahweh, and they will do what they promise. <sup>22</sup> After Yahweh has punished Egypt, he will cause their troubles to end.
The people of Egypt will turn to Yahweh, and he will listen when they plead to him for help, and he will cause their troubles to cease.

<sup>23</sup> At that time, there will be a highway between Egypt and Assyria. As a result, the people of Egypt will be able to travel easily to Assyria, and the people of Assyria will be able to travel easily to Egypt. And the people of both countries will worship Yahweh. <sup>24</sup> And Israel will be their ally. All three nations will be friendly to each other, and the people of Israel will be a blessing to the people of the entire world. <sup>25</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels will bless them, saying, "You people of Egypt are now my people. You people of Assyria, I have established your country. You people of Israel are the people whom I have chosen to belong to me."

20

A message about Egypt and Ethiopia

<sup>1</sup> One year King Sargon of Assyria sent the chief commander of his army to take his soldiers to capture Ashdod city in Philistia. <sup>2</sup> At that time, Yahweh told me, "Take off the rough sackcloth that you have been wearing and take off your sandals." So I did what he told me to do, and then I walked around naked and barefoot for three years.

<sup>3</sup> Then Yahweh said this to the people of Judah: "My servant Isaiah has been walking around naked and barefoot for the past three years. That is to show the terrible disasters that I will cause the people of Egypt and Ethiopia to experience. <sup>4</sup> What will happen is that the army of the King of Assyria will invade those countries and capture many of the people and take them away as their prisoners. They will force all them, including both the young ones and the old ones, to walk naked and barefoot. They will also force them to have no clothes around their buttocks, which will cause the people of Egypt to be ashamed. <sup>5</sup> Then the people of other countries who trusted that the armies of Egypt and Ethiopia would be able to help them will be very dismayed/confused and afraid/disappointed. <sup>6</sup> They will say, 'We trusted that the armies of Egypt and Ethiopia would help us and defend us, but they have been destroyed, so there is no way [RHQ] that we can escape from being destroyed by the army of the King of Assyria!' "

A message about the destruction of Babylon

<sup>1</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about Babylonia, a land that is near the Persian Gulf but which will soon be a desert.

An army will soon come from the desert to invade that land;
it is an army that causes its enemies to be terrified, an army that will come like a whirlwind from the south.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh showed me a terrifying vision.

In the vision I saw an army that will betray/deceive people and steal their possessions after they conquer them.

Yahweh said, "You armies from Elam and Media, surround Babylon and prepare to attack it!

I will cause the groaning and suffering that Babylon caused to cease!"

<sup>3</sup> Because of that, my body is full of pain;

my pain is like the pain that women who are giving birth experience.
When I hear about and see what God is planning to do,
I am shocked.

<sup>4</sup> I cannot think straight/correctly, and I tremble.

I was eager for it to be nighttime,
but now it is night, and I am horrified.

<sup>5</sup> In the vision I saw that the leaders of Babylonia were preparing a great feast.

They had spread rugs for people to sit on;
everyone was eating and drinking.

But they should get up and prepare their shields,
because they are about to be attacked!

<sup>6</sup> Then Yahweh said to me,
"Put a watchman on the wall of Jerusalem, and tell him to shout/proclaim what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> Tell him to watch for chariots pulled by pairs of horses, and men riding camels and donkeys, coming from Babylon.
Tell the watchman to watch and listen carefully!"

<sup>8</sup> So I did that, and one day the watchman called out,
"Day after day I have stood on this watchtower, and I have continued to watch during the day and during the night.

<sup>9</sup> Now, I saw a man riding in a chariot pulled by two horses.
I called out to him, and he answered/shouted,
'Babylon has been destroyed!
All the idols in Babylon lie in pieces on the ground!' "

<sup>10</sup> My people in Judah, the army of Babylon has caused you to suffer greatly as though [MET] you were grain that was threshed and ◀winnowed/thrown up into the air for the wind to blow away the chaff▶.
But now I have told you what the Commander of the armies of angels the God whom we Israelis worship, told me about Babylon.

A message about Edom

<sup>11</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about Edom:
Someone from Edom has been calling/shouting to me saying,
"Watchman, how long will it be before the night is ended? [DOU]"

<sup>12</sup> I, the watchman, replied,
"It will soon be morning, but after that, it will soon be night again.
If you want to inquire again about what will happen in our country, come back and inquire again."

A message about Arabia

<sup>13</sup> I received this message about Arabia:
Give this message to people traveling in caravans from Dedan town in northwest Arabia, who camp in the scrub there.
Tell them to bring water for those who are thirsty.
<sup>14</sup> And you people who live in Tema city in northwest Arabia, must bring food for the ◀refugees/people who are fleeing from their enemies▶.
<sup>15</sup> They are fleeing in order not to be killed by their enemies' swords and not to be shot in battles by arrows.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to me,
"Exactly one year from now,
all the greatness of the Kedar area in Arabia will end.
<sup>17</sup> Only a few of their soldiers who know well how to shoot arrows will remain alive.

22

A message about Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> I received this message from Yahweh about Jerusalem, about the valley where Yahweh showed me this vision.
Why is everyone foolishly running up to their flat rooftops?
<sup>2</sup> Everyone in the city seems to be shouting.
There are a lot of corpses in the city, but they were not killed by their enemies' swords.

They did not die in battles;
instead, they died from diseases and hunger.

But then they were captured because they did not have bows and arrows to defend themselves.

Your soldiers tried to flee while the enemy army was still far away, but they also were captured.

<sup>4</sup> That is why I said, "Allow me to cry alone; do not try to comfort me about my people being slaughtered."

<sup>5</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels has chosen a time when there will be a great uproar, soldiers marching, and people being terrified in the valley where I received this vision.

It will be a time when our city walls will be battered down and the people's cries for help will be heard in the mountains.

<sup>6</sup> The armies from Elam and Kir in Media will attack, driving chariots and carrying shields.

<sup>7</sup> Our beautiful valleys will be filled with our enemies' chariots and the men who drive the chariots will stand outside our city gates.

<sup>8</sup> The walls that protect the cities in Judah will fall down.

You people of Jerusalem will run to get the weapons that are stored in the building called "the Hall of the Forest".

<sup>9</sup> You will see that there are many breaks/holes in the walls of Jerusalem.
 You will store water in the lower pool in the city.

<sup>10</sup> You will inspect the houses in Jerusalem, and some of them you will tear down to use the stones to repair the city wall.

<sup>11</sup> Between the walls of the city you will build a reservoir to store water from the old pool.

But you will never request help from the one who made the city;
 you have never depended on Yahweh, who planned this city long ago.

 he told you to shave your heads and to wear rough sackcloth to show that you were sorry for the sins that you had committed.

<sup>13</sup> But instead of doing that, you were happy and celebrating;
 you slaughtered cattle and sheep,

in order to cook their meat and eat it and drink wine.

You said, "Let's eat and drink all that we want to,
 because it is possible that we will die tomorrow!"

<sup>14</sup> So the Commander of the armies of angels revealed this to me: "I will never forgive my people for sinning like this!"

A message for Shebna

<sup>15</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels said this to me: "Go to Shebna, the official who supervises the workers in the palace, and give this message to him:

<sup>16</sup> 'Who do you think you are?

Who gave you the authority to build a beautiful tomb where you will be buried, chiseling it out of the rocky cliff high above this valley?

<sup>17</sup> You think that you are [IRO] a great man, but Yahweh is about to hurl you away.
It will be as though he will seize you,

- 18 and roll/crumple you into a ball and throw you away into a large distant land.
You will die and be buried there, and your beautiful chariots will stay there in the hands of your enemies.
And because of what happens to you, your master, the king, will be very ashamed/disgraced.
- 19 Yahweh will force you to quit working in the palace;
you will be demoted from your important position.
- 20 Then I will summon Hilkiah's son Eliakim, who has served serve me well, to replace you. 21 I will allow him to wear your robe, and to fasten your sash around him, and I will give to him the authority that you had. He will be like [MET] a father to the people of Jerusalem and all the other towns in Judah. 22 I will give to him authority [MTY] over what happens in the palace where King David lived; when he decides something [MET], no one will be able to oppose it; when he refuses to do something, no one will be able to force him to do it. 23 I will cause his family to be greatly respected, because I will put him firmly in his position as supervisor of the workers in the palace, like [SIM] a nail that is firmly hammered into a wall. 24 Others will enable him to have much responsibility, with the result that all the members of his family, even the most insignificant ones, will be honored.' "
- 25 But the Commander of the armies of angels also says, "Shebna is like [MET] a peg that is firmly fastened to the wall. But there will be a time when I will remove him from his position; he will lose his power/influence, and everything that he promoted [MET] will fail. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

A message about Tyre's punishment

- 1 I received this message from Yahweh about Tyre city:
You sailors on [APO] ships from Tarshish, weep, because the harbor of Tyre and all the houses in the city have been destroyed.
The reports that you heard in Cyprus island about Tyre are true.
- 2 You people who live along the coast near Tyre, and merchants of Sidon city, mourn silently.
Your sailors went across the seas to many places like Tyre.
- 3 They sailed across deep seas to buy grain in Egypt and other crops that are grown along the Nile River.
Tyre became the city where people from all nations bought and sold goods.
- 4 But now you people in Sidon should be ashamed, because you trusted in Tyre, which has been a strong fortress on an island in the sea.
Tyre is like a woman who is saying,
"Now it is as though I have not given birth to any children, or raised any sons or daughters."
- 5 When the people of Egypt hear what has happened to Tyre, they will grieve very much.
- 6 Sail to Tarshish and tell them what happened;

weep, you people who live along the coast.

<sup>7</sup> The people in the very old city of Tyre were [RHQ] previously joyful.
Traders [PRS] from Tyre established colonies in many distant nations.

<sup>8</sup> People from Tyre appointed kings over other places;
their traders were wealthy;

they were as powerful and wealthy as [MET] kings.

So, who [RHQ] caused the people of Tyre to experience this disaster?

<sup>9</sup> It was the Commander of the armies of angels who did it;
he did it in order to cause you people in Tyre not to be proud any more,
to humiliate you men who are honored all over the world.

<sup>10</sup> You people of Tarshish, you must grow crops in your land instead of trading; spread out over your land like [SIM] the Nile River spreads over the land of Egypt
when it floods, because there is no harbor in Tyre for your ships now.

<sup>11</sup> It is as though Yahweh stretched out his hand over the sea and shook the kingdoms of the earth.

He commanded that in Phoenicia/Canaan all its fortresses must be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> He said to the people of Sidon,
“You will never rejoice again, because you will be crushed;
even if you flee to Cyprus island,
you will not escape destruction.”

the people who were in that land have disappeared.

The armies of Assyria have caused that land to become a place where wild animals from the desert live.

The Assyrians built dirt ramps to the top of the walls of the city of Babylon;
then they entered the city and tore down the palaces and caused the city to become a heap of rubble.

<sup>14</sup> So wail, you sailors on the ships of Tarshish, because the harbor in Tyre where your ships stop is destroyed!

<sup>15</sup> For seventy years, which is as long as kings usually live, people will forget about Tyre. But then it will be rebuilt. What will happen there will be like what happened to a prostitute in this song:

<sup>16</sup> “You harlot, whom people had forgotten, play your harp well,
and sing many songs,
in order that people will remember you again.”

<sup>17</sup> It is true that after seventy years Yahweh will restore Tyre. Their merchants will again earn a lot of money by buying things from and selling things to many other nations [HYP].

<sup>18</sup> But their profits will be given to Yahweh.
The merchants will not hoard their money;
instead, they will give it to Yahweh’s priests in order that they can buy food and nice clothes.

24

The destruction of everything on the earth

- <sup>1</sup> Some day, Yahweh is going to destroy everything on the earth.
He will devastate it and cause it to become a desert and scatter its people.
- <sup>2</sup> He will scatter everyone—priests and common people, servants and their masters,
maids and their mistresses, buyers and sellers,
lenders and borrowers,
people who owe money and people who are owed money.
- <sup>3</sup> Nothing that is worth anything will be left on earth;
everything valuable will be destroyed.
That will surely happen because Yahweh has said it.
- <sup>4</sup> Everything on the earth will dry up and die [DOU];
its important people will become weak and unimportant.
- <sup>5</sup> The earth has become unacceptable to Yahweh because the people who live on it have disobeyed his laws;
they have rejected the agreement that he intended to last forever.
- <sup>6</sup> Therefore, Yahweh will curse the earth;
the people who live on it must be punished because of the sins that they have committed.
They will be destroyed by fire,
and only a few people will remain alive.
- <sup>7</sup> The grapevines will wither, and there will be no grapes to make wine.
All the people who were previously happy will then groan and mourn.
- <sup>8</sup> People will no longer play cheerful songs with tambourines, people will no longer play joyfully on their harps, and people will no longer shout noisily during their celebrations.
- <sup>9</sup> People will no longer sing while they drink wine, and all their alcoholic drinks will taste bitter.
- <sup>10</sup> Towns and cities will be desolate;
every house will be locked to prevent thieves from entering.
- <sup>11</sup> Mobs will gather in the streets, wanting wine;
no one on the earth will be happy [DOU] any more.
- <sup>12</sup> Cities will be ruined and all their gates will be battered/broken into pieces.
- <sup>13</sup> It will be like that all over the earth:
there will only be a few people still alive,
like what happens when workers beat all the olives off a tree and there are only a few left, or when they harvest the grapes and there are only a few left on the vines.
- <sup>14</sup> But those who are left alive will sing joyfully; people in nations to the west of Israel will declare that Yahweh is very great;
- <sup>15</sup> people in nations to the east of Israel will also praise Yahweh [MTY];
in countries across the sea, people will praise Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship.

<sup>16</sup> We will hear people in the most distant places on the earth singing praise to Yahweh, the truly righteous one.

But now, I am [SYN] very sad.

Weep for me, because I have become thin and weak.

Terrible things are happening!

Treacherous people still betray/deceive others everywhere [DOU].

<sup>17</sup> You people all over the earth,
you will be terrified,
and you will fall into deep pits and traps/snares.

<sup>18</sup> Those who try to flee because they are terrified will fall into deep pits, and those who climb out of the pits will be caught by traps/snares.

The sky will split open and torrents [SIM] of rain will fall;
the foundations of the earth will shake.

<sup>19</sup> The earth will split apart and be shattered;
it will shake violently.

<sup>20</sup> It will be as though the earth will stagger like [SIM] a drunk;
it will shake like [SIM] a hut shakes in a windstorm.

It will collapse and not be able to rise again, because the guilt of the people who rebel against Yahweh is very great.

<sup>21</sup> At that time, Yahweh will punish the wicked powerful beings in the skies and the wicked kings on the earth.

<sup>22</sup> They will all be gathered together and thrown into a dungeon/pit.
They will be shut/locked in that dungeon/pit, and later they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup> At that time the light of the moon and the sun will be lessened;
it will be as though they are ashamed in the presence of Yahweh, because he, the Commander of the armies of angels, will rule gloriously ◀on Zion Hill/in Jerusalem▶, in the presence of the leaders of his people.

25

Isaiah praises God for having good judgment and providing salvation

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, you are my God;
I will honor you and praise you [MTY].

You do wonderful things;
you said long ago that you would do those things, and now you have done them like you said that you would.

<sup>2</sup> Sometimes you have caused cities to become heaps of rubble, cities that had strong walls around them.

You have caused palaces in foreign countries to disappear;
they will never be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, people in powerful nations will declare that you are very great, and people in nations whose leaders are ruthless/cruel will revere you.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh, you are like [SIM] a strong tower where poor people can ◀find refuge/be safe▶,

a place where needy people can go when they are distressed.
You are like [MET] a place where people can find refuge in a storm and where they can be shaded from the hot sun.
 Ruthless/Cruel people oppress us;
 they are like [SIM] a storm beating against a wall, <sup>5</sup> and like [SIM] the intense heat in the desert.
 But you cause the roaring of people in foreign nations to cease.
 Like the air cools when a cloud comes overhead, you stop ruthless/cruel people from singing songs boasting about their being very great.

<sup>6</sup> Here in Jerusalem, the Commander of the armies of angels will prepare a wonderful feast for all the people of the world.

It will be a banquet with plenty of good meat and fine well-aged [DOU] wine.

<sup>7</sup> People here are sad; their being sad is like a dark cloud that hangs over them, like they experience when someone dies.

But Yahweh will enable them to quit being sad.

<sup>8</sup> He will get rid of death forever!

Yahweh our God will cause people to no longer mourn because someone has died.

And he will stop other people insulting and making fun of his land and us his people.

That will surely happen because Yahweh has said it!

<sup>9</sup> At that time, people will proclaim,
 "Yahweh is our God!
 We trusted in him, and he rescued us!
 Yahweh, in whom we trusted, has done it;
 we should rejoice because of his saving/rescuing us!"

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh [MTY] will protect and bless Jerusalem.
 But he will crush the people in the land of Moab;
 they will be like [SIM] straw that is trampled in the manure and left to rot.

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh will push down the people of Moab like [SIM] a swimmer pushes the water with his hands.

He will cause them to cease being proud, and he will show that all the things that they have done are worthless.

<sup>12</sup> The high walls around the cities in Moab will be torn down; they will be demolished and fall into the dust/dirt.

26

A song to praise Yahweh

<sup>1</sup> Some day, people in Judah will sing this song:
 Our city of Jerusalem is strong!
 Yahweh protects our city;
 He is like [MET] a wall that surrounds it.
<sup>2</sup> Open the gates of the city for people who are righteous;
 allow people who faithfully obey Yahweh to enter the city.
<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, those who trust in you, those who firmly resolve to never doubt you,
 you will enable them to feel perfectly peaceful.

- <sup>4</sup> So always trust in Yahweh, because Yahweh, our God, is forever like [MET] a huge rock under which we are sheltered/protected/safe.
- <sup>5</sup> He humbles proud people and destroys cities whose people are arrogant.
He causes those cities to collapse into the dust/dirt.
- <sup>6</sup> When that happens, poor and oppressed people will trample on the ruins.
- <sup>7</sup> But as for righteous people, Yahweh, you do what is right;
it is as though you cause the paths where they walk to be level and smooth.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, by obeying your laws
we show that we trust you to help us;
and what we desire is that you will be honored/praised/exalted.
- <sup>9</sup> All through the night I [SYN] desire to know you better, and each morning I still want to be with you.
Only when you come to judge and punish people who live on the earth will they learn to do what is right.
- <sup>10</sup> But your acting kindly toward wicked people does not cause them to do what is good.
Even in places where people do what is right, the wicked people continue to do what is evil, and they do not realize that you, Yahweh, are great.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh, it is as though your fist is raised up ready to strike them, but they do not realize that.
Show them that you are very eager to help your people.
If your enemies would realize that, they would be ashamed;
allow your fire to burn them up because they are your enemies.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, we desire that you will allow things to go well for us; everything that we have done is what you have enabled us to do.
- <sup>13</sup> Yahweh, our God, others have ruled over us, but you [MTY] are the only one whom we honor.
- <sup>14</sup> Those who ruled us are now gone; they are dead;
their spirits have left this earth, and they will not become alive again.
You punished those rulers and got rid of them,
and people do not even remember them any more.
- <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, you have enabled our nation to become great;
we are more in number now, and we have more land,
so we thank/praise you.
- <sup>16</sup> Yahweh, when we were distressed, we asked you to help us; when you disciplined/punished us, we were able only to whisper when we prayed to you.
- <sup>17</sup> Like pregnant women writhe and cry out when they are giving birth, we suffered very much, too.
- <sup>18</sup> We had severe pain,
but nothing good resulted [MET] from it.
We have not rescued our people from being conquered by our enemies, and we have not given birth to children who will rule the world correctly (OR, not defeated the armies that have attacked other nations).

God's punishment for Israel

<sup>19</sup> But Yahweh's people who have died will become alive again, their corpses will become alive!
Those whose bodies lie in graves will rise and shout joyfully!
His light will be like dew that falls on his people who have died, who are now in the place where the dead people are,
and will cause them to become alive again.

<sup>20</sup> But now, my people/fellow-citizens, go home and lock your doors!
Hide for a short time,
until Yahweh is no longer angry.

<sup>21</sup> Listen to this: Yahweh will come from heaven to punish all the people on the earth for the sins that they have committed.
People will be able to see [PRS] the ◀blood of those/the people▶ who have been murdered;
their murderers will no longer be able to hide.

27

God's future blessings on Israel

<sup>1</sup> At that time, Yahweh will punish Leviathan, the swift-moving monster/dragon,
that coiling serpent that lives in the sea.
Yahweh will kill it with his sharp, huge, and powerful sword.

“You Israeli people, who are like [MET] a fruitful vineyard, must sing!

<sup>3</sup> I will protect you like a farmer [MET] waters his crops carefully in order that they will grow well.
I will guard you day and night, in order that no one harms you.

<sup>4</sup> I am no longer angry with my people;
if any of your enemies try to injure you like briars and thorns injure people [MET],
I will attack them in battles;
I will get rid of them completely,

<sup>5</sup> unless they request me to protect them;
I strongly invite them to make peace with me [DOU]!”

<sup>6</sup> There will be a time when the ◀descendants of Jacob/Israeli people▶ will prosper like a plant that has good roots;
they will be like [MET] trees that bud and blossom and bear a lot of fruit;
what they do will bless all the people in the world.

<sup>7</sup> But now I ask, has Yahweh punished us Israelis like he punished our enemies?
Has he punished us as much as he punished them?

<sup>8</sup> No, he has not done that,
but he punished us Israeli people and ◀exiled us/forced us to leave our country▶;
we were taken away from our land as though [SIM] we were struck by a windstorm from the east.

- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh did that in order to punish us for our sins, and remove our guilt.
As a result of our being exiled, all the altars to other gods in Israel will be demolished, and we will be forgiven for the sins that we have committed.
There will be no more poles for worshiping the goddess Asherah, or altars for burning incense to other gods;
they will all be torn down.
- <sup>10</sup> The cities that have strong walls around them will be empty;
like the desert, they will have no one living in them.
The houses will be abandoned, and the streets will be full of weeds.
Calves will eat grass there and lie down there;
they will chew up all the leaves on the trees.
- <sup>11</sup> The Israeli people are like [MET] dry branches on a tree;
women break them off and use them to make fires under their cooking pots.
Our Israeli people do not have any sense;
so Yahweh, who created them, will not act mercifully toward them or be kind to them.
- <sup>12</sup> However, there will be a time when Yahweh will gather them together again;
he will separate them from the people who have conquered them, like people separate wheat from chaff. He will bring them back to Israel, one by one, from the land between the Euphrates River in the northeast and the brook at the border of Egypt in the southwest. <sup>13</sup> At that time, a trumpet will be blown very loudly. And those who were exiled to Assyria and Egypt and who almost died there will return to Jerusalem, to worship Yahweh on Zion, his holy hill.

28

Warnings to Israel

- <sup>1</sup> Terrible things will happen to Samaria city, the capital of Israel!
It is on a hill above a fertile valley;
the people who live there, who get drunk by drinking too much wine, are very proud;
it is a beautiful and glorious city, but some day that beauty will disappear like [MET] a flower that wilts and dries up.
- <sup>2</sup> Listen to this: Yahweh will cause a great army to attack Samaria.
Their soldiers will be like [SIM] a huge hailstorm or a very strong wind;
they will be everywhere, like the water of a huge flood, and they will smash to the ground the buildings in Samaria.
- <sup>3</sup> The people of Samaria are proud, but everything that the drunks who live there think is wonderful/glorious will be trampled on by their enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> Yes, Samaria is beautiful, set on a hill above a fertile valley, but that beauty will disappear
like [MET] a flower that wilts and dries up.
Whenever someone sees a good fig at the beginning of the season when figs become ripe, he quickly picks and eats it;
similarly, when the enemies of Israel see all the beautiful things in Samaria, they will quickly conquer the city and take away all those things.
- <sup>5</sup> At that time, the Commander of the armies of angels will be like a glorious wreath of flowers for us Israeli people who are still alive after being exiled.

<sup>6</sup> He will cause our judges to want to do what is fair/just when they decide people's cases.

He will enable the soldiers who stand at the city gates to strongly defend the city when our enemies attack it.

<sup>7</sup> But now, our leaders stagger/stumble because they have drunk a lot of wine and other alcoholic drinks.

The priests and prophets also stagger because of drinking a lot of wine and other alcoholic drinks.

They are not able to think right; they see visions but they cannot understand what they mean; they are unable to decide things correctly.

<sup>9</sup> They ridicule Yahweh saying, "Who does he think that he is teaching? Why is he talking to us like this?"

Does he think that we are little children who have recently been weaned?

<sup>10</sup> He continually tells us, 'Do this, do that;' first he tells us one rule, then another rule, he tells us only one line at a time."

<sup>11</sup> So now, Yahweh will need to force them to listen to Assyrians speaking to them in a language that they do not understand.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh told his people long ago, "This is a place where you can rest; you are exhausted from all your travels through the desert, but you will be able to rest in this land."

But they refused to pay attention to what he said.

<sup>13</sup> So Yahweh continues to tell the people of Samaria, one line at a time, "Do this, do that," first one rule and then another rule.

But because of their ignoring what God said, they will be attacked and defeated; they will be wounded and snared and captured.

Warnings to Judah

<sup>14</sup> Because of what will happen in Samaria, you rulers in Jerusalem who make fun of me, listen to this message from Yahweh:

<sup>15</sup> You boast saying, "We have made an alliance with the leaders of Egypt, so we will not be killed in battles; we will never go to the place where the dead people are. When the army of Assyria attacks us, they will never defeat us, because we have made an agreement with Egypt to protect us!" But that agreement consists of a lot of lies [DOU].

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, Yahweh our Lord says this: "Listen to this! I am going to place in Jerusalem someone who is like [MET] a foundation stone, he is like a stone that has been tested to determine if it is solid.

He will be like a valuable cornerstone around which it will be safe to build a house; and whoever trusts in him will never be disappointed.

<sup>17</sup> I will test you people of Jerusalem to find out if you will act justly and righteously like [MET] someone uses a plumb line to determine if a wall is straight and vertical.

But because your agreement with Egypt to protect you was made by leaders lying to each other and deceiving each other,

you will be defeated and taken away from your country by an army that will come against you like [MET] a flood.

<sup>18</sup> I will annul/destroy the agreement that you made with the leaders of Egypt.

You thought that because of that agreement you would not be killed, and you would not go to the place where the dead are.

But when the vast army of Assyria overwhelms you like a flood, they will trample you into the ground.

<sup>19</sup> Their soldiers will come during the morning, at noontime, and at night, and they will carry you all away."

And when you understand this message, you will be terrified.

<sup>20</sup> You have heard people say, "Your bed is very short, you will not be able to sleep in it;

your blankets are very narrow; they will not cover you!"

That means for you that your agreement with Egypt is not going to save you.

<sup>21</sup> Yahweh will come and cause you to be defeated;

he will do to you like he did to the army of Philistia at Perizim Mountain and like he did to the Amor people-group at Gibeon Valley.

What he will do will be very strange and unusual [DOU].

<sup>22</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels has told me that he is going to destroy the entire land.

So do not ridicule what I say any more, because if you do that he will punish you even more severely.

Does he continue to plow it and never plant anything [RHQ]?

<sup>25</sup> No, he makes the ground very level, and then he plants seeds—dill and cumin and wheat and barley.

He plants each kind of seed in the correct manner.

<sup>26</sup> He does that because God has taught him the correct way to do it.

<sup>27</sup> Farmers never thresh caraway/dill with a heavy sledge/club; instead, they beat it only with a stick.

Farmers never thresh cumin by driving a cart over it; instead, they hit it only with a rod.

<sup>28</sup> And grain for baking bread is crushed easily, so the farmers do not continue to pound it for a long time.

They sometimes cause their horses to pull a cart over it to thresh it, but doing that does not grind the grain.

gives us wonderful advice about how to do things; he causes us to be very wise.
So what the farmers do is very smart/wise, but what your leaders are doing is very stupid.

29

Warnings for Jerusalem

- <sup>1</sup> This is a message from Yahweh:
Terrible things will happen to Jerusalem, the city where King David lived.
You people continue to celebrate your festivals each year.
- <sup>2</sup> But I will cause you to experience a great disaster,
and when that happens,
people will weep and lament very much.
Your city will become like [MET] an altar to me
where people are burned as sacrifices.
- <sup>3</sup> I will cause your enemies to come to your city;
they will surround it by building towers and putting in place other things with which to attack you.
- <sup>4</sup> Then you will talk as though you were buried deep in the ground [DOU];
it will sound like someone whispering from under the ground, like [SIM] a ghost speaking from a grave.
- <sup>5</sup> But, suddenly your enemies will be blown away like dust;
their armies will disappear
like [SIM] chaff that is blown away by the wind.
It will happen very suddenly.
- <sup>6</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels will come to help you with thunder and an earthquake and a very loud noise, with a strong wind and a big storm and a fire that will burn up everything.
- <sup>7</sup> Then the armies of all the nations that will be attacking Jerusalem will quickly disappear like a dream in the night [DOU].
Those who will be attacking Jerusalem will suddenly vanish/disappear.
- <sup>8</sup> People who are asleep dream about eating food,
but when they wake up, they are still hungry.
People who are thirsty dream about drinking something,
but when they wake up they are still thirsty.
It will be like that when your enemies come to attack Zion Hill;
they will dream about conquering you, but when they wake up,
they will realize that they have not succeeded.
- <sup>9</sup> You people of Jerusalem, be amazed and surprised about this [IRO]!
Do not believe what I have said [SAR]!
And continue to be blind [IRO] about what Yahweh is doing.
You are stupid, but it is not because you have drunk a lot of wine.
You stagger, but not from drinking alcoholic drinks.
- <sup>10</sup> Because Yahweh has prevented the prophets [DOU] from understanding and telling you his messages,
it is as though he has caused you to be fast/deeply asleep.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh gave me this vision; but for you, it is only words on a scroll that is sealed shut. If you give it to those who can read and request that they read it, they will say,

“We cannot read it because the scroll is sealed.” <sup>12</sup> When you give it to others who cannot read, they will say, “We cannot read it because we do not know how to read.”

<sup>13</sup> So the Lord says, “These people say that they belong to me.

They honor me by what they say [MTY], but they do not think [IDM] about what I desire.

When they worship me,

all they do is recite rules that people have made and that they have memorized.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, again I will do something to amaze these people;

I will perform many miracles.

And I will show that the people who tell others that they are wise are not really wise, and I will show that the people who tell others that they are intelligent are not really intelligent.

<sup>15</sup> Terrible things will happen to those who try to conceal from me, Yahweh, the evil things that they plan to do;

they do those things in the darkness and they think, ‘Yahweh certainly cannot [RHQ] see us;

he cannot [RHQ] know what we are doing!’

<sup>16</sup> They are extremely foolish!

They act as though they were the potters and I was the clay!

Something that was created should certainly never [RHQ] say to the one who made it,

‘You did not make me!’

A jar should never say,

‘The potter who made me did not know what he was doing!’ ”

<sup>17</sup> Soon the forests in Lebanon will become fertile fields, and abundant crops will grow in those fields, and that will happen very soon.

<sup>18</sup> At that time, deaf people will be able to hear;

they will be able to hear when someone reads from a book;

and blind people will be able to see;

they will be able to see things when it is gloomy and even when it is dark.

<sup>19</sup> Yahweh will enable humble people to be very joyful again.

Poor people will rejoice about what the Holy One of Israel has done.

<sup>20</sup> There will be no more people who ridicule others and no more arrogant people.

And those who plan to do evil things will be executed.

<sup>21</sup> Those who testify falsely in order to persuade judges to punish innocent people will vanish/disappear.

Similar things will happen to those who by lying in court persuade judges to make unjust decisions.

<sup>22</sup> That is why Yahweh, who rescued Abraham, says about the people of Israel,

“My people will no longer be ashamed;

no longer will they show on their faces that they are ashamed.

<sup>23</sup> When they see that I have blessed them by giving them many children and doing many other things for them, they will realize that I am the Holy One of Israel, and they will revere me, the God to whom they, the descendants of Jacob, belong.

<sup>24</sup> When that happens, those who have not been able to think well will think clearly, and those who complain about what I am doing will accept what I am teaching them.”

Judah's worthless treaty with Egypt

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh says, “Terrible things will happen to you, my people who rebel against me. You make plans, but what you plan is not what I want. You have made an alliance with the rulers of Egypt, but you did not ask my Spirit if that was what you should do. By doing that, you have increased the number of your sins.
- <sup>2</sup> You went to Egypt to ask their rulers for help, without asking for my advice. You have trusted in the army of the king of Egypt to protect you; you have trusted in them like people sit in the shade to protect themselves from the sun [MET].
- <sup>3</sup> But the result of your trusting in the king of Egypt is that you will be disappointed and disgraced; because of trusting in him, you will be humiliated.
- <sup>4</sup> Officials/ambassadors from Judah have gone to Zoan and Hanes cities in Egypt to make treaties,
- <sup>5</sup> but all those who trust in the King of Egypt will be humiliated, because that nation will not be able to help you; the treaty that you have made requesting help from them will be useless; instead, the result will be that you will be humiliated and disgraced [DOU].”
- <sup>6</sup> I received from Yahweh this message about the animals in the southern part of Judah: That area is one where people experience a lot of troubles and difficulties, an area where there are male and female lions and various kinds of poisonous snakes. Caravans go through that area taking donkeys and camels loaded with valuable goods. They are taking them to Egypt to seek for protection by the army of Egypt, but it will be useless.
- <sup>7</sup> The promises made by the king of Egypt are worthless; therefore I call Egypt ‘the sea monster/dragon that does nothing’.

A warning for Judah

- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh told me to write on a scroll a message, in order that it would be a witness to the people of Judah that would endure forever.
- <sup>9</sup> It would remind them that they are deceitful and always rebelling against Yahweh; they refuse to pay attention to what he tells/teaches them.
- <sup>10</sup> They tell the people who see/receive visions from Yahweh, “Stop seeing visions!” They tell the prophets, “Do not reveal to us what is right! Tell us pleasant things; do not tell us visions about things that are true!”
- <sup>11</sup> Stop doing what you have been doing [DOU]; stop telling us what the Holy One of Israel says to us!”
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore, this is what the Holy One of Israel says:

“You have rejected my message, and you are relying on those who oppress and deceive others.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, the result of your sin of rejecting me will be that you will suddenly experience disasters; what will happen to you will be like [SIM] a cracked wall that suddenly collapses [DOU].

<sup>14</sup> You will be smashed like a clay jar is smashed when it is dropped, and it shatters completely, with the result that there is not one piece big enough to carry some coals from a stove or to carry a little bit of water from a well.”

“You will be rescued from your enemies only if you repent and trust in what I will do for you;

you will be strong only if you quit worrying and trust in me.

But you do not want to do that.

<sup>16</sup> You said, ‘No, we will escape on horses that the army of Egypt will give us!’
So, you will try to flee.

You said, ‘We will escape from the army of Assyria by riding on swift horses!’
But those who pursue you will also ride swiftly.

<sup>17</sup> As a result, 1,000 of you will flee when only one of them pursues you!

When only five of their soldiers threaten to kill you,
all of you will flee.

Only a few of you will be left, like [SIM] a single flagpole on top of a mountain with one signal flag on the pole.”

<sup>18</sup> But Yahweh wants to be kind to you;
he desires to show you that he is merciful.

Do not forget that Yahweh is a God who acts justly;
he is pleased with those who patiently trust in him.

Yahweh will help his people

<sup>19</sup> You people who live in Jerusalem [DOU], some day you will not cry any more. Yahweh will be kind to you when you call out to him for help. He will answer/help you as soon as he hears you call. <sup>20</sup> Although now Yahweh has caused you to daily experience [MET] great troubles and suffer much, he, your teacher, will not hide himself from you. He [SYN] will teach you many things clearly. <sup>21</sup> And you will hear him speak to you to guide you. Right behind you he will say, “This is the road on which you should walk; walk on this road!” <sup>22</sup> When that happens, you will destroy all your idols that are covered with silver or gold. You will throw them away like you throw away a filthy rag, and you will say to them, “We do not need you any more!”

<sup>23</sup> If you do that, Yahweh will bless you by giving you good rain at the time that you plant your crops. You will have good harvests, and plenty of pasture with grass for your cattle to eat. <sup>24</sup> After the wind blows away the chaff, the oxen and donkeys that pull the plow to plow your ground will have good grain to eat. <sup>25</sup> At that time, when your enemies have been slaughtered and their towers have ◀collapsed/been destroyed▶, there will be streams flowing down every hill and mountain in Judah.

<sup>26</sup> The moon will seem to shine as brightly as the sun, and the sun will seem to shine seven times as brightly as previously. That is what it will be like when Yahweh causes the suffering of his people to cease; it will be as though [MET] he will be putting bandages on their wounds and healing them.

- <sup>27</sup> It is as though we see Yahweh coming from far away;
 he is extremely angry,
 and there are thick clouds of smoke around him.
 By what he says [MTY] he shows that he is angry;
 what he says is like [SIM] a devastating/destructive fire.
- <sup>28</sup> His breath is like [SIM] a flood that covers his enemies up to their necks.
 He will separate [MET] the nations in order to destroy some of them;
it is as though he will put hooks in their mouths and take them away.
- <sup>29</sup> But his people will sing joyfully like they sing during the nights when they celebrate a holy festival.
 They will be very joyful, like [SIM] a large group of his people are joyful when they go up to Zion Hill in Jerusalem,
 along with men playing flutes
when they are all going there to worship Yahweh.
 He is like [MET] a huge rock under which we Israeli people are safe.
- <sup>30</sup> And Yahweh will enable us to hear him speaking powerfully/majestically.
 He will show us that he [SYN] is very powerful.
We will see him [SYN] smash his enemies.
 Being very angry, he will descend with a big rainstorm and thunder and hail to punish them.
- <sup>31</sup> The soldiers of Assyria will be terrified when they hear the voice of Yahweh and when he strikes them with his rod.
- <sup>32</sup> And while Yahweh strikes them to punish them,
his people will celebrate by playing tambourines and harps.
It will be as though Yahweh will lift up his powerful hand/arm and defeat the Assyrian army in battle.
- <sup>33</sup> The valley of Topheth outside Jerusalem has been prepared for a long time;
 it is ready for the king of Assyria; the ◀funeral pyre/pile of wood▶ for burning his body is wide and high,
 and it will be as though Yahweh will light the fire with his breath, which will come out like a stream of burning sulfur.

31

A warning about relying on Egypt

- <sup>1</sup> Terrible things will happen to those who reply on Egypt to help them, trusting in their soldiers' horses and their many chariots and their strong chariotdrivers, instead of trusting that Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, will help them.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is very wise,
but he also causes people to experience disaster!
 And when he decides to do that,
 he does not change his mind!
 He will strike/punish the wicked people and all those who help them.
- <sup>3</sup> The soldiers of Egypt that you people of Judah are relying on are humans, not God!
 And their horses are only horses; they are not powerful spirits!
 So when Yahweh raises his fist to strike/punish the soldiers of Egypt whom you thought would help you, he will also strike you who thought that you would be helped,
 and you and they will stumble and fall down;

all of you will die together.

<sup>4</sup> But this is what Yahweh said to me:
 “When a huge lion stands over the body of a sheep that he has killed and growls, even if a large group of shepherds comes to chase/shoo away the lion, even if they shout loudly,
 the lion will not be afraid and will not leave.
 Similarly, I, the Commander of the armies of angels, will come down to fight my enemies on Zion Hill,
and nothing will hinder me.
<sup>5</sup> I, the Commander of the armies of angels, will protect Jerusalem like [SIM] a mother bird protects the baby birds in her nest:
 I will defend the city and rescue it from its enemies.”

<sup>6</sup> My people, even though you have greatly rebelled against Yahweh, return to him.
<sup>7</sup> When you do that, each of you will throw away the idols that you [SYN] have sinned by making, idols that are covered with silver and gold.

<sup>8</sup> Many of the Assyrian soldiers will be killed, but not by swords that men use.
 They will be destroyed by the sword of God;
 and those who are not killed will ◀panic/be very afraid▶ and flee.
 And some of them will be captured and forced to become slaves.
<sup>9</sup> Even their very strong soldiers [MTY] will be terrified;
 they will abandon their battle flags and run away!
 Yahweh will cause his enemies who attack Jerusalem to be destroyed.
 Yahweh’s presence on Zion Hill is like a fire,
like a furnace that blazes in Jerusalem;
 and that is what Yahweh says about what will happen to the Assyrian army!

32

What will happen when the great king comes

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this! Some day there will be a righteous king, and his officials will help him to rule justly/fairly.
<sup>2</sup> Each of them will be like [MET] a shelter from the wind and a ◀refuge/place to be protected▶ from the storm.
 They will be like [SIM] streams of water in the desert, like the shade under a huge rock in a very hot and dry land.
<sup>3</sup> When that happens, those leaders will enable people who have not understood [MET]
God’s truth to understand it, and they will enable those who have not paid attention to [MET] God’s truth to pay attention to it.
<sup>4</sup> Even those who act very hastily will have good sense, and those who cannot speak well will speak fluently and clearly.
<sup>5</sup> At that time, people who are foolish/unwise will no longer be ◀admired/looked up to▶,
 and scoundrels will no longer be respected.
<sup>6</sup> Foolish people say things that are foolish, and they plan to do evil things.

Their behavior is disgraceful, and they say things about Yahweh that are false.
 They do not give food to those who are hungry, and they do not give water to those who are thirsty.
 7 Scoundrels do things that are evil and that deceive people;
 they plan to do evil things;
 by telling lies in court they cause poor people to ◀have trouble/be convicted▶, even when what the poor people are requesting is fair/just.
 8 But honorable people plan to do honorable/good things, and they do the honorable/good things that they plan to do.

A message for the women of Jerusalem

9 You women of Jerusalem who think that you are very secure/safe and think that everything is going well, listen to [IDM] what I say!
 10 One year from now, you who now ◀are not worried about anything/think that everything is going well▶ will tremble, because there will be no grapes for you to harvest and no other crops to harvest.
 11 So tremble now, you women who are not worried about anything!
 Take off your fancy clothes and put rough sackcloth around your waists.
 12 Beat/Hit your breasts to show that you are grieving about what will happen in your fertile fields and to your fruitful grapevines, 13 because only thorns and thistles will grow in your soil.
 Your houses where you had joyful parties and your city where you have been happy will be gone.
 14 The king's palace will be empty;
 there will be no people in the city that now is very noisy.
 Wild donkeys will walk around and flocks of sheep will eat grass in the empty forts and watchtowers.
 15 It will be like that until God pours his Spirit out on us from heaven.
When that happens, the deserts will become fertile fields, and abundant crops will grow in those fertile fields.
 16 People [PRS] will act/rule justly/fairly in those desert areas, and people will act/rule righteously in those fertile fields.
 17 And the result of their acting righteously will be that there will be peace, the land will be tranquil/quiet, and people will be secure/safe forever.
 18 My people will live in their homes peacefully, and safely, and calmly, in places of rest.
 19 Even if a severe hailstorm knocks down the trees in the forest, and all the buildings in the city are blown down, 20 Yahweh will greatly bless you;
 you will plant seeds in fields alongside the streams and there will be abundant crops.
 Your donkeys and cattle will easily find grass to eat.

33

Warnings to Assyria and promises to God's people

1 Terrible things will happen to you people of Assyria!
 You have destroyed others,

- but* you have not been destroyed yet.
 You have betrayed/deceived others,
but you have not been betrayed/deceived yet.
 When you stop destroying others*,
others will destroy you.
 When you stop betraying/deceiving others,
others will betray you.
- <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, be kind to us, because we have patiently waited for you to help us.
 Enable us to be strong every day,
 and rescue us when we have troubles.
- <sup>3</sup> Our enemies run away when they hear your voice.
 When you stand up and show that you are powerful [IDM], the people of all nations flee.
- <sup>4</sup> And after our enemies have been defeated, we, your people, will take away all our enemies' possessions like [SIM] caterpillars and locusts strip off all the leaves of plants.
- <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is greater than anyone else, and he lives in heaven, and he will rule justly and righteously in Jerusalem.
- <sup>6</sup> When that happens, he will enable you to live securely/safely;
 he will fully protect your possessions, he will enable you to be wise and to know all that you need to know;
 and revering Yahweh will be like [MET] a valuable treasure for you.
- <sup>7</sup> But now, look, our brave men are crying out in the streets;
 our ambassadors have gone to other countries to make peace treaties, but they will cry bitterly because they will not succeed.
- <sup>8</sup> No one travels on our roads [DOU].
The leaders of Assyria have broken/disregarded their peace treaty with us;
 they despise the people who made those treaties, and they do not respect anyone.
- <sup>9</sup> The land of Judah is dry and barren.
 The cedar trees in Lebanon are drying up and decaying.
 The Sharon Plain along the coast is now a desert.
 There are no more leaves on the trees in the Bashan and Carmel areas.
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh says, "Now I will begin to show that I am very powerful [DOU]."
- <sup>11</sup> You people of Assyria make plans that are as useless as [MET] chaff and straw.
 Your breath will become a fire that will burn you up.
- <sup>12</sup> Your people will be burned until only ashes remain [MET] like [SIM] thornbushes are cut down and burned up in a fire.
- <sup>13</sup> You people who live far away and you people who live nearby, pay attention to what I have done and realize that I am very powerful."
- <sup>14</sup> The sinners in Jerusalem will tremble because of being very afraid; godless people will be terrified.
They say, "None of us can [RHQ] remain alive because this fire is burning everything;
 it is like the fire on Yahweh's altar that will burn forever!"
- <sup>15</sup> Those who act honestly and say what is right,

* 33:1

those who do not try to become rich by ◀extortion/forcing people to give them money▶, those who do not try to get bribes, those who refuse to listen to people who are planning to murder someone, those who do not join others who urge them to do what is wrong, 16 they are the people who will live safely [MTY];
 they will find places to be safe in the caves in the mountains.
 They will have plenty of food and water.

17 You [SYN] people of Judah will see the king wearing all his beautiful robes, and you will see that he rules a land that extends far away.

18 When you see that, you will think about when you were previously terrified, and you will say, “The officers of Assyria who counted the tax money that we were forced to pay to them have disappeared [RHQ]!

Those men who counted our towers are gone [RHQ]!

19 Those arrogant people who spoke a language that we could not understand are no longer here!”

20 At that time, you will see Zion Hill, the place where we celebrate our festivals;
 you will see that Jerusalem has become a place that is calm and safe.

It will be secure, like [SIM] a tent that cannot be moved because its ropes are tight and its stakes are firmly in the ground.

21 Yahweh will be our mighty God;
 he will be like [SIM] a mighty river that will protect us because our enemies will not be able to cross it;
 no one will be able to row across it and no ships will be able to sail across it.

22 Yahweh is our judge;
 he is the one who gives us laws,
 and he is our king.
 He will rescue us.

23 The ropes on our enemies’ boats will hang loose, their masts will not be fastened firmly,
 and their sails will not be spread out.

The treasures that they have seized will be divided among us, God’s people, and even lame people among us will get some.

24 And the people in Jerusalem will no longer say, “We are sick,” because Yahweh will forgive the sins that have been committed by the people who live there.

34

God will punish all his enemies

1 You people of all nations, come near and listen and pay careful attention.

I want the world and everything that is in it to hear what I say.

2 Yahweh is angry with the people of all nations;
 he is ◀furious/very angry▶ with all their armies.
 He has decided that they must be destroyed, and he will slaughter them.

<sup>3</sup> Their corpses will not be buried, and as a result their corpses will stink, and their blood will fill the streams that flow down the mountains.

<sup>4</sup> The sky will disappear like [SIM] a scroll that is rolled up and thrown away.

Stars will fall from the sky

like [SIM] withered leaves fall from grapevines, or like [SIM] shriveled figs fall from fig trees.

<sup>5</sup> When Yahweh has finished his work of destroying objects in the sky,

he will punish the people of Edom, that people-group that he has said must be destroyed/exterminated.

<sup>6</sup> It is as though Yahweh has a sword that is covered with blood and fat—

the blood of lambs and goats and the fat of the kidneys of rams to be sacrificed.

It is as though Yahweh will offer a sacrifice in the city of Bozrah and kill many people in other cities in Edom.

<sup>7</sup> Even wild oxen will be killed,

as well as young calves and big bulls.

The ground will be soaked with blood, and the dirt will be covered with the fat of those animals.

<sup>8</sup> That will be the time when Yahweh gets revenge for what those people did to the people of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> The streams in Edom will be full of burning pitch/tar, and the ground will be covered with burning sulfur.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh will never finish punishing Edom with fire;

the smoke will rise forever.

No one will ever live in that land, and no one will even travel through it.

<sup>11</sup> Ravens and various kinds of owls and small animals will live there.

Yahweh will measure that land carefully:

He will measure it to to decide where to cause chaos and destruction.

<sup>12</sup> There will be no princes;

the people who have authority will have no kingdom to rule.

<sup>13</sup> The deserted palaces and fortified buildings will be full of thorns and thistles.

The ruins will be a place for jackals/wolves and owls to live.

<sup>14</sup> Animals that live in the desert and hyenas/wolves will be there, and wild goats will bleat/call to each other.

There will also be creatures/animals that roam around at night.

<sup>15</sup> Owls will make their nests there and lay their eggs in the nests; and when the eggs hatch, the mother birds will cover them with their wings.

There will also be falcons/hawks there, each with its mate.

<sup>16</sup> If you read what is written in the book that contains messages from Yahweh, you will find out what he will do in Edom.

All of those animals and birds will be there, and each one will have a mate,

because that is what Yahweh has promised,

and his Spirit will cause them all to gather there.

<sup>17</sup> He has decided what parts of the land of Edom each will live in, and those are the places where each bird or animal will live.

Their descendants will possess those areas forever, throughout all generations.

35

The promise of restoration

<sup>1</sup> Some day, it will be as though the desert and other very dry areas are glad [DOU];
the desert will rejoice and flowers will blossom.

Like crocuses/daffodils,

<sup>2</sup> the desert will produce flowers abundantly;
it will be as though everything is rejoicing and singing!

The deserts will become as beautiful as [SIM] the trees in Lebanon, as fertile [SIM] as the plains of the Sharon and Carmel areas.

There people will see the glory of Yahweh;
they will see that he is magnificent.

<sup>3</sup> So, encourage those who are tired and weak.

<sup>4</sup> Say to those who are afraid,

“Be strong and do not be afraid, because our God is going to come to get revenge on his enemies;
he will ◀pay them back/punish them▶ for what they have done, and he will rescue you.”

<sup>5</sup> When he does that, he will enable blind people to see and enable deaf people to hear.

<sup>6</sup> Lame people will leap like deer, and those who have been unable to speak will sing joyfully.

Water will gush out from springs in the desert;
streams will flow in the desert.

<sup>7</sup> The very dry ground will become a pool of water, and springs will provide water for the dry land.

Grass and reeds and papyrus will grow in places where the jackals/wolves lived previously.

<sup>8</sup> And there will be a highway through that land;
it will be called ‘the Holy Highway’.

People who are not acceptable to God will not walk on that road;
it will be only for those who conduct their lives as God wants them to;
foolish people will become lost while walking on that road.

<sup>9</sup> There will not be any lions there or any other dangerous animals along that road.

Only those who have been freed from being slaves in Babylonia will walk on it.

<sup>10</sup> Those whom Yahweh has freed will return to Jerusalem;
they will sing as they enter the city;
they will be extremely joyful [MET, PRS] forever.

No longer will they be sad or mourn;
they will be completely joyful [DOU].

The army of Assyria invaded Judah

of Assyria came with his army to attack the cities in Judah that had walls around them.

They did not conquer Jerusalem, but they conquered all the other cities. <sup>2</sup> Then the king of Assyria sent a large army with some of his important officials from Lachish city to persuade King Hezekiah to surrender. When they arrived at Jerusalem, they stood in their positions alongside the aqueduct/channel in which water flows into the upper pool into Jerusalem, near the road to the field where the women wash clothes. <sup>3</sup> The Israeli officials who went out of the city to talk with them were Hilkiah's son Eliakim, the ◀palace administrator/man who supervised the workers in the palace▶, Shebna the king's secretary, and Asaph's son Joah, who wrote down the government decisions.

This is what the King of Assyria, the great king, says: "What are you trusting in to rescue you? <sup>5</sup> You say that you have weapons to fight us and some country's promises to help you, and that will enable you to defeat us, but that is only talk [RHQ]. Who do you think will help you to rebel against my soldiers from Assyria?

<sup>6</sup> Listen to me! You are relying on the army of Egypt. But that will be like [MET] using a broken reed for a walking stick on which you could lean. But it would pierce the hand of anyone who would lean on it! That is what the King of Egypt would be like for anyone who relied on him for help. <sup>7</sup> But perhaps you will say to me, 'No, we are relying on Yahweh our God to help us.' I would reply, 'Is he not the one whom you insulted by tearing down his shrines and altars and forcing everyone in Jerusalem and other places in Judah to worship only in front of the altar in Jerusalem?'

<sup>8</sup> So I suggest that you make a deal with my master/boss, the king of Assyria. I will give you 2,000 horses, but I do not think that you can find 2,000 of your men who can ride on them! <sup>9</sup> You are expecting the king of Egypt to send chariots and men riding horses to assist you. But they certainly would not [RHQ] be able to resist/defeat even the most insignificant/unimportant official in the army of Assyria!

<sup>10</sup> Furthermore, do not think that [RHQ] we have come here to attack and destroy this land without Yahweh's orders! It is Yahweh himself who told us to come here and destroy this land!"

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the official from Assyria, "Please speak to us in your Aramaic language, because we understand it. Do not speak to us in our Hebrew language, because the people who are standing on the wall will understand it and become frightened."

<sup>12</sup> But the official replied, "Do you think that my master sent me to say these things only to you, and not to the people standing on the wall [RHQ]? If you reject this message, the people in this city will soon need to eat their own dung and drink their own urine, just like you will, because there will be nothing more for you to eat or drink."

<sup>13</sup> Then the official stood up and shouted in the Hebrew language to the people sitting on the wall. He said, "Listen to this message from the great king, the King of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> He says, 'Do not allow Hezekiah to deceive you! He will not be able to rescue you! <sup>15</sup> Do not allow him to persuade you to trust in Yahweh, saying that Yahweh will rescue you, and that the army of the King of Assyria will never capture this city!'

<sup>16</sup> Do not pay attention to what Hezekiah says! This is what the king of Assyria says: 'Come out of the city and surrender to me. If you do that, I will arrange for each of you to drink the juice from your own grapevines and to eat figs from your own trees, and to drink water from your own well. <sup>17</sup> You will be able to do that until we come and take you to a land that is like your land—a land where there is grain to make bread and vineyards to produce grapes for making new wine and, and where we make lots of bread.'

<sup>18</sup> Do not allow Hezekiah to mislead you by saying, "Yahweh will rescue us." The gods that people of other nations worship have never [RHQ] rescued any of them from the power [MTY] of the King of Assyria! <sup>19</sup> Why were the gods of Hamath and Arpad cities, and the gods of Sepharvaim unable to rescue Samaria from my power [MTY]? <sup>20</sup> No, no god [RHQ] of any nation has been able to rescue their people from me. So why do you think that Yahweh will rescue you people of Jerusalem from my power [MTY]?' "

<sup>21</sup> But the people who were listening were silent. No one said anything, because King Hezekiah had commanded, "When the official from Assyria talks to you, do not answer him."

<sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah returned to Hezekiah with their clothes torn because they were extremely distressed. They told him what the official from Assyria had said.

37

Hezekiah asked Isaiah for advice

<sup>1</sup> When King Hezekiah heard what they reported, he tore his clothes and put on clothes made of rough sackcloth because he was very distressed. Then he went into the temple of Yahweh and prayed. <sup>2</sup> Then he sent Eliakim, Shebna, and the ◀older/most important▶ priests, who were also wearing clothes made of rough sackcloth, to talk to me. <sup>3</sup> He said to them, "Tell this to Isaiah: 'King Hezekiah says that this is a day when we are greatly distressed. Other nations are causing us to be insulted and disgraced. We are like [SIM] a woman who is about to give birth to a baby, but she does not have the strength that she needs to do it. <sup>4</sup> But perhaps Yahweh our God has heard what the official from Assyria said. Perhaps he knows that his boss, the King of Assyria, sent him to insult the all-powerful God, and that Yahweh will punish the King of Assyria for what he said. And the king requests that you pray for the few of us who are still alive here in Jerusalem.' "

<sup>5</sup> After those men gave me that message, <sup>6</sup> I replied, "Tell the King, "This is what Yahweh says: "Those messengers from the King of Assyria have said evil things about me. But do not be disturbed by what they said. <sup>7</sup> Listen to this: I will cause Sennacherib to hear a rumor that the armies of Babylon are about to attack his country, and that will worry him. So he will return to his own country, and there I will cause him to be assassinated by men using swords." ' "

<sup>8</sup> The official from Assyria found out that the King of Assyria and his army had captured Lachish city and that they were attacking Libnah, which is a nearby city. So the official left Jerusalem and went to Libnah to report to the king what had happened in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Soon after that, King Sennacherib received a report that King Tirhakah of Ethiopia was leading his army to attack them. So before King Sennacherib left Libnah with his army to fight against the army from Ethiopia, he sent other messengers to Hezekiah in Jerusalem with a letter. In the letter he wrote this to Hezekiah:

<sup>10</sup> "Do not allow your god, on whom you are relying, to deceive you by promising you that Jerusalem will not be captured by my army. <sup>11</sup> You have certainly heard what the armies of the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries; our armies have destroyed them completely. So, ◀do you think that you will escape?/ do not think that your god will save you!▶ [RHQ] <sup>12</sup> Did the gods of the nations that were about to be destroyed by the armies of the previous kings of Assyria rescue them? Did those gods rescue Gozan region, and Haran and Rezeph cities in northern Syria, and the people of Eden region who were forced to go to Tel-Assar city? <sup>13</sup> What happened to the King of Hamath and the King of Arpad? What happened to the kings of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah cities? Did their gods rescue them [RHQ]?"

Hezekiah's prayer

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter that the messengers gave him, and he read it. Then he went up to the temple and spread out the letter in front of Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> And then Hezekiah prayed this: <sup>16</sup> "O Yahweh, Commander of the armies of angels, the God to whom we Israelis belong, you are seated on your throne above the statues of the creatures with wings, above the Sacred Chest. Only you are truly God. You rule all the kingdoms on this earth. You are the one who created everything on the earth and in the sky. <sup>17</sup> So, Yahweh, please listen to what I am saying, and look at what is happening! And listen to what Sennacherib has said to insult you, the all-powerful God!

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh, it is true that the armies of the kings of Assyria have completely destroyed many nations and ruined their land. <sup>19</sup> And they have thrown all the idols of those nations into fires and burned them. But they were not really gods. They were only idols made of wood and stone, and that is why they were destroyed easily. <sup>20</sup> So now, Yahweh our God, please rescue us from the power [MTY] of the King of Assyria, in order that the people in all the kingdoms of the world will know that you, Yahweh, are the only one who is truly God."

Isaiah predicted that the Assyrians would not conquer Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> Then I sent this message to Hezekiah: "This is what Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelis belong, says: Because you prayed about what King Sennacherib of Assyria said, <sup>22</sup> this is what I say to him:

"The people of Jerusalem despise you and make fun of you.

They will wag/shake their heads to mock you while you flee from here.

<sup>23</sup> Whom do you think you have been despising and ridiculing?

Whom do you think you were shouting at?

Whom do you think you were looking at very proudly/arrogantly?

It was I, the Holy One whom the Israelis worship!

You said, "With my many chariots I have gone to the highest mountains, even to the highest mountains in Lebanon.

We have cut down its tallest cedar trees and its nicest pine/cypress trees.

We have been to the most distant/remote peaks and to its densest forests.

<sup>25</sup> We have dug wells in many countries and drunk water from them.

And by marching through [MTY] the streams of Egypt, we dried them all up [HYP]!"

<sup>26</sup> But I, Yahweh, reply, "Have you never heard that long ago I determined those things; I planned them long ago, and now I have been causing those things to occur.

I planned that your army would destroy cities and cause them to become piles of rubble.

<sup>27</sup> The people in those cities have no power, and as a result they are dismayed and discouraged.

They are as frail as [MET] grass and plants in the fields, as frail as grass that grows on the roofs of houses and is scorched by the hot east wind.

<sup>28</sup> But I know everything about you;

I know when you are in your house and when you go outside;

I also know that you are ◀raging/speaking very angrily▶ against me.

<sup>29</sup> So, because you have raged against me and because I have heard you speak very proudly/arrogantly,

it will be as though I will put a hook in your nose and I will put an iron ◀bit/metal bar▶ in your mouth in order that I can lead you where I want you to go, and I will force you to return to your own country, on the same road on which you came here, without conquering Jerusalem.” ’

<sup>30</sup> Then I said to Hezekiah, ‘This will prove to you that what I said will happen:

“This year, you(pl) will eat only the crops that grow by themselves, and next year the same thing will happen.

But in the third year you will plant crops and harvest them;

you will take care of your vineyards and eat the grapes.

will be strong and prosper again [MET].

<sup>32</sup> A small number of my people will survive, and they will spread out from Jerusalem [DOU].”

That will happen because I, the Commander of the armies of angels, am desiring very much to accomplish it.’

<sup>33</sup> And this is what I, Yahweh, say about the King of Assyria:

‘His armies will not enter Jerusalem;

they will not even shoot arrows into it.

His soldiers will not march outside the city gates holding their shields, and they will not build high mounds of dirt against the walls of the city to enable them to attack the city.

<sup>34</sup> And their king will return to his own country on the same road on which he came here.

He will not enter this city!’

That will happen because I, Yahweh, have said it!

<sup>35</sup> For the sake of my own reputation and because of what I promised King David,

who served me well,

I will defend this city and prevent it from being destroyed.”

<sup>36</sup> That night, an angel from Yahweh went out to where the army of Assyria had set up their tents and killed 185,000 of their soldiers. When the rest of the soldiers woke up the next morning, they saw that there were corpses everywhere. <sup>37</sup> Then King Sennacherib left and returned home to Nineveh in Assyria, and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup> One day, when he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his two sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with their swords. Then they escaped and went to the Ararat region northwest of Nineveh. And another of Sennacherib’s sons, Esarhaddon, became the King of Assyria.

38

Hezekiah's sickness and his recovery

<sup>1</sup> About that time, Hezekiah became very ill and was close to dying. So I went to see him. And I gave him this message: "This is what Yahweh says: 'You should tell the people in your palace what you want them to do after you die, because you will not recover from this illness. You are going to die' "

<sup>4</sup> I left his room, but Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>5</sup> "Go back to Hezekiah and tell him that this is what I, the God to whom your ancestor King David belonged, say: 'I have heard what you prayed, and I have seen you crying. So listen: I will enable you to live 15 years more. <sup>6</sup> And, I will rescue you and this city from the power [MTY] of the King of Assyria. I will defend this city.

<sup>7</sup> And this is what I will do to prove that I will do what I have just now promised. I will cause the shadow of the sun to move ten steps backward on the sundial that was built by King Ahaz.' " <sup>8</sup> So the shadow of the sun on the sundial moved backward ten steps.

<sup>10</sup> I thought to myself, "Is it necessary for me to die and go to the place where the dead people are during this time of my life when I am still strong?

Is Yahweh going to rob me of the remaining years that I should live?"

<sup>11</sup> I said, "I will not see Yahweh again in this world where people are alive.

I will not see my friends again, or be with others who now are alive in this world.

<sup>12</sup> It is as if my life has been taken away like [SIM] a tent whose pegs have been pulled up by a shepherd and taken away.

My time to live has been cut short, like a piece of cloth that a weaver cuts and rolls up after he has finished weaving a cloth."

Suddenly, it seemed that my life was ending.

<sup>13</sup> I waited patiently all during the night, but my pain was as though [MET] I was being torn apart by lions.

It seemed that my life was finished.

<sup>14</sup> I was delirious, and I chirped like a swift or a swallow, and moaned like a dove.

My eyes became tired looking up toward heaven for help.

I cried out, Lord, help me, because I am distressed!"

<sup>15</sup> But there was really nothing [RHQ] that I could say and ask him to reply to me, because it was Yahweh who sent this illness.

So now I will live humbly during my remaining years because I am very anguished.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh, the sufferings (OR, the promises) that you give are good, because what you do and what you say bring new life and health to us.

And you restore/heal me and allow me to continue to live!

<sup>17</sup> Truly, my suffering was good for me;

you loved me,

and as a result you have rescued me from dying and have also forgiven all my sins.

<sup>18</sup> Dead people [MTY] cannot praise you;
they cannot sing to praise you.

Those who have descended to their graves cannot confidently expect you to faithfully do things for them.

<sup>19</sup> Only people who are still alive, like I am, can praise you.
Fathers tell their children how you are faithful, and if I remain alive, I will do the same thing.

<sup>20</sup> I know that Yahweh will fully heal me, so I will sing to praise him

while others praise him playing musical instruments;
I will do that every day of my life, in the temple of Yahweh.”

<sup>21</sup> I had previously said to Hezekiah’s servants, “Prepare an ointment from mashed figs, and spread it on his boil, and then he will recover.” So they did that, and Hezekiah recovered.

<sup>22</sup> And Hezekiah had previously asked, “What will Yahweh do to prove that I will recover and be able to go to his temple?”

39

The messengers from Babylon

<sup>1</sup> Soon after that, Baladan’s son Merodach-Baladan, the King of Babylon, heard a report that Hezekiah had been very sick but that he had recovered. So he wrote some notes and gave them to some messengers to take to Hezekiah, along with a gift.

<sup>2</sup> When the messengers arrived, Hezekiah welcomed them gladly. Then he showed them everything that was in his ◀treasure houses/places where very valuable things were kept▶—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the nice-smelling olive oil. He also took them to see the place where they kept their soldiers’ weapons, and he showed them the other valuable things that were in the storehouses. Hezekiah showed them everything [LIT] that was in the palace or in other places [HYP].

<sup>3</sup> Then I went to King Hezekiah and asked him, “Where did those men come from, and what did they want?”

He replied, “They came from the far away land of Babylon.”

Hezekiah replied, “They saw everything. I showed them absolutely everything that I own—all my valuable things.”

<sup>5</sup> Then I said to Hezekiah, “Listen to this message from the Commander of the armies of angels: <sup>6</sup> ‘There will be a time when everything in your palace, all the valuable things that your ancestors stored there up until the present time, will be carried away to Babylon. Yahweh says that there will be nothing left. <sup>7</sup> Furthermore, some of your sons will be forced to go to Babylon. They will be castrated in order that they can become servants in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Then Hezekiah replied to me, “That message from Yahweh that you have given to me is good.” He said that because he was thinking, “Even if that happens, there will be peace, and people in this country will be safe during the time that I am alive.”

40

Encouragement for God’s people

<sup>1</sup> Our God says, “Encourage my people!

Encourage them!

<sup>2</sup> Speak kindly to the people of Jerusalem;
tell them that their suffering is ended, and that I have forgiven them for the sins that they have committed;
I [SYN] have fully punished them for their sins.”

<sup>3</sup> I hear someone who is shouting, “Prepare in the desert a way for Yahweh to come to you; make a smooth road for our God (OR, Prepare yourselves to receive Yahweh when he comes, like people make a straight road for an important official [MET]).

<sup>4</sup> Fill in the valleys;
flatten every hill and every mountain.
Make the uneven ground smooth, and make the rough places smooth.

<sup>5</sup> If you do that, it will become known that Yahweh is glorious/great, and all people will realize it at the same time.
Those things will surely happen because it is Yahweh who has said [MTY] it.”

<sup>6</sup> Someone said to me, “Shout!”
I replied, “What should I shout?”
He replied, “Shout that people are like [SIM] grass; their influence fades as quickly as flowers in the field.

<sup>7</sup> Grass withers and flowers dry up when Yahweh causes a hot wind from the desert to blow on them.
And people are [MET] like that.

<sup>8</sup> The grass withers and the flowers dry up, but what our God promises will last forever.”

<sup>9</sup> You people of Jerusalem, you have good news to tell to people, so, shout it from the top of a high mountain!
Shout it loudly, and do not be afraid!
Tell the people in the towns of Judah,
“Your God is coming here!”

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh your God will be coming with power;
he will rule powerfully [MTY].
And when he comes, he will bring with him the people whom he has freed [MET] from being slaves in Babylonia.

<sup>11</sup> He will take care of his people like [SIM] a shepherd takes care of his sheep,
and carries the young lambs in his arms.
He carries them close to his chest and he gently leads the female sheep that are nursing their young lambs.

<sup>12</sup> There is no one like Yahweh!
◀Who else has measured the water in the oceans in the palm of his hand?/No one else has measured the water in the oceans in the palm of his hand!▶ [RHQ] ◀Who else has measured the sky with his fingers?/No one else has measured the sky with his fingers!▶ [RHQ] ◀Who else knows how much the earth weighs?/No one else knows how much the earth weighs!▶ [RHQ]

- ◀Who else has weighed the mountains and hills on scales?/No one else has weighed the mountains and hills on scales!▶ [RHQ]
- 13 And ◀who else can advise Yahweh's Spirit?/No one else can advise Yahweh's Spirit!▶ [RHQ]
- ◀Who can teach him or advise/tell him what he should do?/No one can teach him or advise/tell him what he should do!▶ [RHQ]
- 14 ◀Has Yahweh consulted anyone else to get advice?/Yahweh has certainly not consulted anyone else to get advice!▶ [RHQ]
- ◀Does he need someone to tell him what is right to do and how to act justly?/He certainly does not need someone to tell him what is right to do and how to act justly!▶ [RHQ]
- 15 Yahweh considers that the nations are as insignificant as [MET] one drop from a bucket full of water.
They are as insignificant as dust on scales.
He is able to weigh islands
as though they weighed no more than grains of sand.
- 16 There would be not enough wood from all the trees in Lebanon to make a suitable fire for sacrificing animals to him, and there are not enough animals in Lebanon to offer as sacrifices to him.
- 17 The nations of the world are completely insignificant/unimportant to him; he considers that they are worthless and less than nothing [HYP, DOU].
- 18 So, to whom can you compare God?
What image resembles him?
- 19 Can you compare him to an idol that is made in a mold, and then is covered with a thin sheet of gold and decorated with silver chains?
- 20 A man who is poor cannot buy silver or gold for his idol; so he selects a piece of wood that will not rot, and he gives it to a craftsman to carve an idol that will not fall down!
- 21 Have you(pl) not heard this?
Do you not understand it?
Are you unable to hear what God said long ago—
messages that he gave before he created the earth?
- 22 God sits on his throne above the earth, and the people on the earth below seem to be as small as [SIM] grasshoppers. He spreads out the sky like a curtain; it is like [SIM] a tent for him to live in.
- 23 He causes kings to have no more power, and he causes the rulers to be worth nothing.
- 24 They start to rule, like small plants start to grow and form roots; but then he gets rid of them as though [MET] they withered when he blew on them, like [SIM] chaff that is blown away by the wind.
- 25 The Holy One asks,
"To whom will you compare me?
Is anyone equal to me?"

- 26 Look up toward the sky:
 Consider who [RHQ] created all the stars.
Yahweh created them, and at night he causes them to appear;
 he calls each one by its name.
 Because he is extremely powerful [DOU],
 all of the stars are there [LIT] when he calls out their names.
- 27 You people of Israel [DOU], why do you complain that Yahweh does not see the troubles that you are experiencing?
 Why do you say that he does not act fairly toward you?
- 28 Have you never heard and have you never understood that Yahweh is the everlasting God;
 he is the one who created the earth, even the most distant places on the earth.
 He never becomes weak or weary, and no one can find out how much he understands.
- 29 He strengthens [DOU] those who feel weak and tired.
- 30 Even youths become faint and weary, and young men will fall when they are exhausted.
- 31 But those who trust in Yahweh will become strong again;
it will be as though they will soar/fly high like [SIM] eagles do.
 They will run for a long time and not become weary;
 they will walk long distances and not faint.

41

Yahweh will help Israel

- 1 Yahweh says, "You people who live on [APO] islands in the ocean, be silent in front of me while I ask you some questions!
 Then you can be courageous and talk to me.
 We will meet together and decide which one of us is right."
- 2 Who has urged this king to come from the east?
 Who has enabled his army to righteously defeat many nations and to trample their kings under their feet?
 With their swords they cut their enemies into tiny pieces [HYP]; with their arrows they cause their enemies to scatter like [SIM] the wind scatters chaff.
- 3 Even though they march through areas where they have not gone previously, they pursue their enemies and continue to march, and nothing stops them.
- 4 Who has enabled rulers to do [DOU] mighty things like that?
 Who has done that throughout all generations?
 It is I, Yahweh;
 I was the first one to do things like that, and I will be the last one to do them."
- Idols are useless*
- 5 People who live on [PRS] islands in the ocean are afraid while they watch.
 People in remote areas tremble and gather together.
- 6 They encourage each other and say to each other,
 "Be strong!"
- 7 The craftsmen encourage those who make things from gold, and the men who flatten metal encourage those who hammer metal ◀on an anvil/into shape▶.

They all say, "The idol has been well made!"

And then they carefully nail down the idol in order that it will not topple over!

Yahweh chose Israel

<sup>8</sup> *Yahweh says, "You people of Israel are like my servants; you are descendants of Jacob, whom I chose;
you are descendants of Abraham, who I said is my friend.*

<sup>9</sup> I summoned you from very distant places [DOU] on the earth, and I said 'I want you to serve me;

I have chosen you,
and I will not reject you.'

<sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid, because I will ◀be with/help▶ you.

Do not be discouraged, because I am your God.

I will enable you to be strong, and I will help you;

I will hold you up with my powerful arm by which you will be rescued.

<sup>11</sup> It is certain that all those who are angry with you Israeli people will be disgraced
[DOU].

Those who oppose you will be wiped out;
they will all die.

<sup>12</sup> If you search for those who tried to conquer you, you will not find them,
because they will all have disappeared.

Those who attacked you will not exist any more.

<sup>13</sup> It will be as though I will hold you up by your right hand.

I am Yahweh, your God,
and I say to you, 'Do not be afraid,
because I will help you.'

<sup>14</sup> Although you people of Israel [DOU] think that you are as insignificant as worms, do not be afraid of your enemies,

because I will help you.

I am Yahweh, the one who rescues you;

I am the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I will cause you to be like [MET] a ◀threshing sledge/big piece of metal that has sharp teeth for separating grain from chaff▶.

You will tear your enemies to bits, causing them to be like bits of chaff on the mountains.

<sup>16</sup> You will toss them up into the air, and a strong wind will blow them away [DOU].

When that happens, you will rejoice about what I have done for you;
you will praise me, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> When poor and needy people need water and they have no water, and their tongues are very dry because they are very thirsty,

I, Yahweh, will come and help them.

I, the God to whom you Israeli people belong, will never abandon them.

<sup>18</sup> I will cause rivers to flow for them on the barren hills.

I will give them fountains in the valleys.
 I will fill [HYP] the desert with pools of water.
 Water from springs will flow into rivers, and the rivers will flow across the dry ground.

19 I will plant trees in the desert—cedar trees, acacia trees, myrtle trees, olive trees, cypress trees, fir trees, and pine trees.

20 I will do that in order that people who see it will think about it, and they will know and understand [DOU]
 that it is I, Yahweh, who have done it; it is what I, the Holy One of Israel, have done.

Yahweh mocks the idols

21 I, Yahweh, the true king of Israel say to you nations, “Tell what your idols can do for you!

22 Bring them here to tell us what is going to happen!
 Ask them to tell us what things happened long ago,
 in order that we may think about those things, and learn if those things that they predicted really happened.

Or, ask them to tell us about the future,
 in order that we can know what will happen.

23 Yes, those idols should tell us what will happen in the future.
 If they do that, we will know that they are really gods.

Tell them to do something—either something good or something bad!
 Tell them to do something that will cause us to be amazed and afraid!

24 But that is impossible, because idols are absolutely worthless [HYP];
 they can do nothing,
 and I detest those who decide to worship idols.”

A prediction about Cyrus

25 “But I have incited/urged a ruler who will come with his army from the north.
 I have summoned him to come from his country, which is east of Israel, and I have given him my authority [MTY].

I will enable his army to conquer other rulers;
 they will trample those leaders like [SIM] a man who makes clay pots first tramples the clay.

26 ◀Who told you people long ago that this would happen?/No one told you people long ago that this would happen!▶ [RHQ]

◀Who predicted it, with the result that we can say, ‘What he predicted was correct!’?/No one predicted it, with the result that we can say, ‘What he predicted was correct!’▶ [RHQ]

No one else said that it would happen.

27 I was the first one to tell the people of Jerusalem, ‘Listen to this! I have appointed a messenger to tell good news to you!’

28 None of your idols told you that [DOU].

And when I asked them questions, none of them was able to give me any answers.

29 Think about it: Those idols are all useless, worthless [DOU] things.
 They are as meaningless as [MET] the wind.”

Yahweh’s special servant

1 Yahweh says, “I want you people to know about my servant, whom I encourage.

I have chosen him, and I am pleased with him.
 I have given him my Spirit, and he will make certain that all the people-groups do what is right/just.
<sup>2</sup> He will not show his power by shouting [DOU] or by talking very loudly.
<sup>3</sup> He will not get rid of anyone who is weak like [MET] a smashed reed, and he will not end the life of anyone who is helpless like [MET] someone would extinguish a dimly burning wick of an oil lamp.
 He will faithfully/continually make sure that judges decide cases justly.
<sup>4</sup> He will not become exhausted or discouraged all during the time that he is causing things to be done justly throughout the earth.
 Even people living on the islands in [MTY] the oceans will confidently wait for him to teach them his laws."

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh our God created the sky and spread it out.
 He also created the earth and everything on it.
 He gives breath to all the people on the earth; he causes them to live [DOU].
And he is the one who says to his special servant,
<sup>6</sup> "I, Yahweh, have chosen you to show people that I always act righteously/fairly.
 I will grasp your hand and protect you, and I will present you to my Israeli people to be the one who will put into effect my agreement with them.
You will be like a light to the other nations.
<sup>7</sup> You will enable blind [IDM] people to see, you will free those who are in prison (OR, who are bound by the guilt of their sins) [MET]
 and release those who are in dark dungeons.

<sup>8</sup> I am Yahweh; that is my name.
 I will not allow anyone else to receive the honor that only I deserve.
 And I will not allow idols to be praised like only I should be praised.
<sup>9</sup> Everything that I have prophesied has happened, and now I will tell about other things that will happen.
 I will tell you things that will happen before they happen."

A song of praise to Yahweh

<sup>10</sup> Sing a new song to Yahweh!
 Sing to praise him throughout the world!
 All you people who sail across the oceans, and all you creatures that live in the oceans, and all you people who live on islands far away, sing!
<sup>11</sup> You people who live in towns in the desert, sing loudly!
 You people who live in the Kedar area in the north of Arabia, you rejoice also!
 You people in Sela city in Edom, you also should sing joyfully;
 shout to praise him from the tops of your mountains!
<sup>12</sup> Even people who live on distant islands should honor Yahweh and sing to praise him.
<sup>13</sup> It will be as though Yahweh will march out like [SIM] a mighty soldier;
 he will show that he is very angry.
 He will shout a battle-cry,

and then he will defeat all his enemies.

14 He will say, “I have remained silent [DOU] for a long time;
I have restrained myself from doing what I need to do.

But now, like [SIM] a woman who is giving birth to a baby, I will cry out and gasp and pant.

15 I will level off the hills and mountains, and I will cause all the plants and trees to dry up.

I will cause the rivers to become small streams, and little islands will appear in them, and I will cause all the pools to become dry.

16 My people who have been taken to Babylonia are like [MET] blind people, but I will lead them along a road on which they have not walked before, on a road that they have not seen before.

They have felt very helpless, as though they were walking in the darkness, but I will take away that darkness and I will make smooth the road that is in front of them.

Those are the things that I will do for them;

I will not abandon them.

17 But those who trust in carved idols, and say to images, ‘You are our gods,’ will be completely humiliated/disgraced.”

The people of Israel refused to heed Yahweh

18 You Israeli people who have acted toward God like deaf people, listen to what Yahweh says!

“You who have been like [MET] blind people, look!

19 No people are [RHQ] as blind as my people, who should have been serving me.

No people are [RHQ] as much like [MET] deaf people as the Israelis, who should have been my messengers.

No people are [RHQ] as much like [MET] blind people as those whom I chose to serve
me.

20 You see and know what are the right things to do, but you do not do them.

You hear what I say to you, but you do not pay attention.”

21 Because Yahweh is righteous, he has honored his glorious laws.

22 But the armies of Babylon have destroyed Jerusalem and have completely ◀plundered/taken away▶ [DOU] all the valuable things, and they have captured Yahweh’s people and taken them away and put them in prison.

They have been captured easily,

because there was no one to protect them;

there was no one to say that they should be allowed to return home.

23 Who among you will listen carefully to these things?

Who will pay attention from now on?

24 Who allowed the valuable possessions of the people of Israel to be stolen [RHQ, DOU]?

It was Yahweh, because he is he one against whom we had sinned;
we did not conduct our lives like he wanted us to,
and we did not obey his laws.

25 Therefore, he was extremely angry with us, and he caused our soldiers to be destroyed in battles.

It was as though [MET] he lit a fire around us, but we did not understand what he was trying to tell us.
His being angry with us was like a fire that would burn us up, but we did not pay attention [IDM].

43

Israel's only Savior

- <sup>1</sup> But now, you people of Israel, listen to Yahweh, the one who established your nation.
 The one who caused you to become a nation [DOU] says this:
 "Do not be afraid,
 because I previously rescued you.
 I enabled you to have a personal relationship with me [MTY], and you belong to me.
- <sup>2</sup> When you experience dangerous situations, and you feel like [MET] you are crossing deep rivers,
 I will be with you.
 When you have very big troubles/difficulties, you will [LIT] be able to endure them.
 When people try to kill you like they tried to kill Daniel's three friends by throwing them in a fire,
 you will not die, just like Daniel's three friends were not burned up,
- <sup>3</sup> because I am Yahweh, your God,
 the Holy One of Israel, the one who rescues you.
 I will enable the army of the emperor of Persia to conquer Egypt instead of conquering
 you;
 similarly I will enable them to conquer Ethiopia, and Seba in Arabia, in order that you can be saved.
- <sup>4</sup> I will cause other countries to be conquered, instead of your country;
 I will trade them for you,
 in order that you will not be killed, because you are very precious [DOU] to me and because I love you.
- <sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid, because I am with you.
Some day I will gather your descendants from the east and from the west.
- <sup>6</sup> I will command the rulers of the nations to the north and to the south,
 'Allow all the people of Israel to return to their country, from the most distant places on the earth.
- <sup>7</sup> Allow all those who belong to me [MTY] to return, because I have caused them to become a nation in order that they would honor
 me;
 I am the one who has done that [DOU].'
- <sup>8</sup> Summon the people who have eyes but it is as though they are blind; summon those who have ears but because they do not listen to me, it is as though they are deaf.
- <sup>9</sup> Gather people of all nations together, ones from all people-groups,
*and ask them this: 'Has any of their idols foretold the things that are happening now?
 And can any of them predict what will happen in the future?'*
 Then bring people who will testify and say 'I heard them predict things, and what they predicted was what happened,'
but they will be lying."

10 But Yahweh says, “You people of Israel ◀are my witnesses/know what I have done▶, and you are the ones who serve me.

I chose you in order that you would know me, believe in me, and understand that I am the only one who is truly God.

There is no other true God.

There was no other true God previously,
and there will never be another true God.

11 I, only I, am Yahweh, and there is no other one who can save you.

12 I said that I would rescue your ancestors, and then I rescued them, and I proclaimed that I had done it.

No foreign god among you did that!

And you are witnesses that only I, Yahweh, am God.

13 I am God, the one who has existed forever and who will exist forever;
no one can snatch people from my hand, and no one can alter/change what I have done.”

God promises to rescue his people from Babylon

14 Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, is the one who rescues you; and this is what he says:

“For your sake, I will send an army to attack Babylon.

They will force the people of that city to flee in ships which they have been proud of.

15 I am Yahweh, your Holy One, the one who caused Israel to become a nation, and the one who is really your king.

16 I am Yahweh, the one who opened a path through the water, making a road through the Red Sea.

17 Then I summoned the great army of Egypt to come with all their chariots and horses.

But when they tried to pursue my people,

I caused the waves to flow over them and they drowned;

their lives ended like the light of a candle ends when someone [MET] snuffs out the wick.

18 But do not think only about what happened in the past, long ago [DOU].

19 Instead, consider the new thing that I am going to do.

I have already started to do it;

can you see it?

I am going to make a road through the desert.

And I will cause there to be streams in the wasteland/desert.

20 The jackals/wolves and owls and other wild creatures will thank me for giving them water in the desert.

I will cause streams to appear in the dry desert in order that my people, the ones whom I have chosen, will have water;

21 I will do that for the people whom I have created and chosen to belong to me, and some day they will cause many others to praise me.

God's grievances concerning Israel

22 But now, you descendants of Jacob, you refuse to request my help.

It seems that you people of Israel have become tired of worshipping me.

23 You have not brought to me sheep or goats for offerings that will be completely burned on the altar;

you have not honored me by bringing to me any sacrifices, even though the offerings of grain and incense that I asked you to bring to me were not a burden to you.

<sup>24</sup> You have bought for me fragrant reeds, and you have brought me the fat from your sacrifices.
But these have not pleased me, because you have burdened me by all the sins that you have committed, and made me weary because of all ◀your iniquities/the wrong things that you have done▶.

<sup>25</sup> I am the one who is able to forgive you for all your sins;
I am the only one who can do that, with the result that I will never think about them again.

<sup>26</sup> Tell me what I have done that you do not like.
Do you think that when you state your case, you will prove that you ◀are innocent/have done nothing wrong▶ [IRO]?

<sup>27</sup> No, what has happened is that the first ancestor of you Israelis sinned against me, and since then, all your leaders have rebelled against me.

<sup>28</sup> That is why I have caused your priests to be disgraced; and I have allowed others to destroy you people of Israel and caused you to be despised.”

44

Yahweh promised to bless Israel

<sup>1</sup> But now, you people of Israel whom Yahweh has chosen to serve him, listen to me.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh, the one who created you and helps you, says this:
“You dear people of Israel whom I have chosen,
you who serve me,
do not be afraid.

<sup>3</sup> I will pour water on your dry land and cause streams to flow.
And I will pour out my Spirit on your descendants and greatly bless them.

<sup>4</sup> They will grow up like [SIM] grass grows along the water, like [SIM] willow/poplar trees grow well along a riverbank.

<sup>5</sup> Some of them will say, ‘I belong to Yahweh,’ and others will say, ‘We are descendants of Jacob,’ and others will write on their hands, ‘We belong to Yahweh,’ and others will say, ‘We are Israelis.’ ”

Foolish worship of idols

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, the King of Israel, the one who saves us, the Commander of the armies of angels, says this:

“I am the one who begins everything and who ends everything;
there is no other God.

<sup>7</sup> If there is anyone like me [RHQ], he should proclaim it!

He should speak and tell me now!

He should tell what has happened since I caused my people of Israel to become a nation long ago,
and he should also tell what things will happen;

he should predict what will happen in the future.

<sup>8</sup> My people, do not be afraid.

Long ago I told you things that would happen [RHQ];
I predicted them, and you can testify that I did that.
There certainly is not [RHQ] any other God.

There is no other God who is able to protect you [MET];
I know that there is no other God!"

<sup>9</sup> All those who make idols are foolish, and the idols that they ◀think highly of/greatly respect▶ are worthless.
And the people who worship those idols— it is as though they are blind, and they will be ashamed for having worshiped those idols.

<sup>10</sup> Only foolish people [RHQ] would make idols in a mold, idols that would never help them at all.

<sup>11</sup> Those who make idols and those who worship them will be ashamed.
Those who make idols are only human beings,
but they claim that they are making gods!
They should stand in front of God in a court, and when they hear what he says, they will be terrified, and they will all be disgraced.

<sup>12</sup> Metalworkers stand in front of hot coals in order to make idols.
They pound them strongly with hammers, and shape them.
Because they work very hard, they become hungry and weak;
they become very thirsty and feel exhausted.

<sup>13</sup> Then a woodcarver takes a big block/piece of wood and he measures it;
then he marks it to show where he will cut it.
He uses a chisel and other tools to carve it to resemble a human.
He causes it to become a very beautiful idol, and then he puts it in a shrine.

<sup>14</sup> Before he carves an idol from that block of wood, he has cut down a cedar tree, or he has selected a cypress tree or an oak tree and allowed it to grow tall in the forest.
Or, he has planted a pine/evergreen tree and the rain has watered it and caused it to grow tall.

<sup>15</sup> And after he uses part of the tree to make an idol, he uses the other part of the tree to make a fire, either to warm himself or to bake bread.
But he uses part of the same tree to make for himself an idol to worship!
He makes an idol and then he bows down to worship it.

<sup>16</sup> He burns part of the wood of the tree to cook his meat and eats the meat and his stomach becomes full, and he burns part of the wood to warm his body, and he says, "I feel warm while I am watching the flames in the fire."

<sup>17</sup> Then he takes the rest of the wood and makes an idol which is his god.
He bows down to it and worships it,
and prays to it and says,
"You are my god, so save me!"

<sup>18</sup> Those people are very stupid and ignorant [SAR].

It is as though they are blind and cannot see,
and their minds are closed and they cannot think well.

19 They do not think about what they are doing, that they are taking a block of wood and burning half of it to warm themselves and using some of the rest to bake bread and roast some meat!

They do not say to themselves,
“It is stupid [RHQ] to take the rest of the wood to make a detestable idol!
It does not make sense to bow down to a block of wood!”

20 They are very stupid to worship something that if you burn it, it becomes ashes!
They trust in something that cannot save them;
they do not admit, “In my hand I hold something that is not really a god! [RHQ]”

A plea to the Israelis

21 Yahweh says, “You descendants of [MTY] Jacob, you people of Israel who should be serving me,
I created you,
and I will not forget you.

22 I have gotten rid of your sins like [SIM] the wind blows away a cloud.
It is as though your transgressions were a morning mist [SIM] that I have blown away.
Return to me
because I have rescued you.”

23 The sun and moon and stars in the sky should sing, and all the things that are beneath the ground should shout joyfully!
All the mountains and forests, and all you trees, should sing loudly,
because Yahweh has rescued the descendants of [MTY] Jacob;
the people of Israel will praise/honor him.

Jerusalem will be rebuilt and inhabited again

24 Yahweh, who saved you and created you, says this:
“I am Yahweh, the one who created everything.
I am the only one who stretched out the sky.
There was [RHQ] no one who ◀was with/helped▶ me when I created the earth.

25 I show that the false prophets are liars, and I show that those who perform rituals to predict the future are fools.
Some people who falsely think that they are [IRO] wise say that they know a lot, but I show that they are foolish.

26 But I always cause to happen what my prophets predict [DOU].
I tell them to say to the people of [MTY] Jerusalem, ‘Some day people will live here again.’

And I tell them to say to the people in other towns in Judah that Yahweh says,
‘Your towns will be rebuilt;
I will cause the places that are only ruins to be rebuilt.’

27 When I say to the rivers, ‘Dry up!’, they will become dry.

28 When I say about King Cyrus, ‘He will take care of my people like [MET] a shepherd takes care of his sheep,

he will do what I want him to do,
 he will say about Jerusalem,
 'We must rebuild it!', and he will also say, 'We must rebuild the temple!' "

45

Yahweh chose Cyrus to free the Israelis

- <sup>1</sup> Cyrus is the one whom Yahweh has appointed to be the emperor of Persia and to whom he will give great power [IDM]; Yahweh will enable him to defeat other nations and to take away the power of their kings.
 He will cause gates of cities to be opened,
 and no one will ever be able to shut them.
- <sup>2</sup> This is what Yahweh says to him:
 "Cyrus, I will go ahead of you and level the mountains.
 I will smash down bronze gates and cut through iron bars.
- <sup>3</sup> I will give you treasures that people have hidden in dark secret places [DOU].
 I will do that in order that you will know that I am Yahweh, the God to whom the Israelis belong,
 the God who calls you by your name.
- <sup>4</sup> I have summoned you, calling out your name, for the sake of the people of Israel [DOU] whom I have chosen, who serve me.
 Even though you do not know me,
 I will give you a title which has great honor.
- <sup>5</sup> I am Yahweh, and there is no other God [DOU].
 Even though you do not know me,
 I will give you power
- <sup>6</sup> in order that everyone in the world, from the east to the west, will know that there is no other God.
 I am Yahweh, and there is no other God.
- <sup>7</sup> I created the light and the darkness.
 I cause there to be peace and I cause there to be disasters.
 I, Yahweh, do all those things."
- <sup>8</sup> And Yahweh also says, "I want my rescue of my people [MET] to fall from the sky like rain.
 Just like the earth opens wide to accept rain,
 I will rescue/save my people and cause them to be treated justly.
 I, Yahweh, am the one who will cause both of those things to happen.
- <sup>9</sup> Terrible things will happen to those who argue with me, the one who created them.
They are like [MET] a clay pot and I am like the one who made it;
 so they certainly cannot [RHQ] criticize me.
 A lump of clay certainly cannot [RHQ] argue with the one who shapes it to form a pot, saying,
 'Why are you making me like this?'
 The pot cannot say 'You have no skill, because what you made has no handles!'
- <sup>10</sup> And it would be terrible if an unborn baby would say to its father,
 'Why are you [RHQ] causing me to be born?'

or if it said to its mother,
 "The result of your labor pains will be useless?" "

11 Yahweh, the Holy One of the Israeli people, the one who created Israel, says this to them:

"◀Why do you ask questions about what I do for you, my children?/You should not ask questions about what I do for you, my children.▶ [RHQ]

◀Why do you tell me about the work that I should do?/You should not tell me about the work that I should do.▶ [RHQ]

12 I am the one who created the earth and created people to live on it.

I stretched out the sky with my hands, and I put the stars in their places.

13 And I will appoint Cyrus to do things that are right/just, and I will enable him to do all those things easily [MET].

His workers will rebuild my city, and he will free my people who have been ◀exiled/forced to leave their country▶.
 And he will do it without my rewarding/paying him!
Those things will surely happen because I, the Commander of the armies of angels, have said it.

14 And this is also what I, Yahweh, say to you, my people:
 'You will rule the people of Egypt and Ethiopia, and the tall people of Seba in Arabia will become your slaves.
 They will come to you bringing all the things that they sell, and it will all be yours.
 As prisoners, they will have chains on their arms as they follow you.
 They will prostrate themselves in front of you and say,
 "God is with/helping you and he is the only God;
 there is no other God." ' "

15 God, although we cannot see you, you are the one to whom we Israeli people belong, the one who saves us.

16 All those who make idols will be humiliated.
 They will all be disgraced together.

17 But you, Yahweh, will rescue us, your Israeli people, and we will be free forever.
 Never again will we again be humiliated and disgraced.

18 Yahweh is God;
 he is the one who created the sky and created and formed the earth.
 He did not want it to remain with nothing living on it;
 he wanted people to live on it.

He says, "I am Yahweh;
 there is no other God."

19 What I proclaimed, I did not speak secretly or hide what I was saying by speaking in a dark place.
 When I spoke to the descendants of Jacob,
 I did not tell them
 'It will be useless for you to ◀seek for/pray to▶ me!'

I, Yahweh, speak only what is true and what is right.

<sup>20</sup> You people who are still alive after experiencing great disasters, should come and gather together and listen to this:

The people who carry around their wooden idols and pray to them are foolish, because those idols cannot rescue them!

<sup>21</sup> Talk among yourselves, and decide what you will say to prove that your praying to idols is good.

And when you do that, I will ask you,

'Who predicted long ago what has now happened?

Did any idol tell you that those things would happen [RHQ]?'

No, it was [RHQ] only I, Yahweh, who told you, because I am the only God; there is no other God.

I am a God who acts righteously and saves people;
there is no other one who does these things.

<sup>22</sup> Everyone in the world should ask me to save them, because I am the only God who can do that;
there is no other one.

<sup>23</sup> I have solemnly declared, using my own name;
I [SYN] have spoken what is true,
and I will never change what I have said:

Some day, everyone [SYN] will bow in front of me, and they will all solemnly promise to be loyal to me.

<sup>24</sup> They will declare,

'Yahweh is the one who enables us to live righteously and to be strong.' "

And all those who have been angry at him will come to him, and they will be ashamed for having been angry with him.

<sup>25</sup> Yahweh is the only one who will enable us Israeli people in the future to defeat our enemies,
and then we will boast about what he has done for us.

46

The gods of Babylonia are useless

are bowing down as those statues are put on animals and carried away!
The statues are heavy burdens and will cause the animals to become tired [SAR]!

<sup>2</sup> It seems like both gods are bowing down;
not only can they not save themselves,
but they themselves are being ◀exiled/taken to another country▶!

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh says, "You descendants of Jacob who were exiled,
I am not like the gods of Babylonia that must be carried;
instead, it is as though I have carried you since you first became a nation [MET].

I carried you even before you became a nation.

<sup>4</sup> I will be your God, and I will carry you for many years, until it is as though [MET] your nation is an old man with gray hair.

I caused you to become a nation, and I will sustain you and rescue you.

- 5 There is certainly [RHQ] no one to whom I can be compared.
There is [RHQ] no one who is equal to me [DOU].
- 6 So it is stupid/ridiculous that some people pour out gold and silver from their bags and weigh it on a scale.
Then they hire a man who makes things from gold to make an idol from it.
After he makes an idol, they bow down and worship it!
- 7 They lift it up and carry it on their shoulders.
They put it in a special place,
and it stays there.
It cannot move!
And when someone prays to it, it does not answer.
So obviously it cannot rescue anyone from his troubles!
- 8 You people of Judah, do not forget this;
keep thinking about it, you sinful people!
- 9 Think about the things that I did long ago.
Only I am God; I am God, and there is no one like me.
- 10 Only I can tell what will happen in the future before it occurs;
I tell it long before it happens.
I will accomplish everything that I plan to accomplish, and I will do everything that I want to do.
- 11 So I will summon someone to come from the east like a swift and powerful eagle;
he will come from a distant country.
He will accomplish what I want him to.
He is the one who will do what I have said that I want him to do, what I have planned.
- 12 You stubborn people of Israel,
you think that it will be a long time before you are allowed to return to your own country.
- 13 But I will rescue you, and it will not be a long time before that happens.
I will do it soon.
I will rescue Jerusalem and show to you Israeli people that I am glorious.”

47

Prediction of the destruction of Babylon

- 1 Yahweh also says, “You people of Babylon, you should go and sit in the dust/dirt to show that you are mourning, because your time to rule [MTY] other countries is almost ended.
People will never again say that Babylonia is beautiful like a very attractive/beautiful young woman.
- 2 You will be slaves, so take heavy stones and grind grain like slave women do.
Take off your beautiful veils and take off your robes as you prepare to cross streams to go where you will be forced to go.
- 3 You will be naked and very ashamed.
I will get vengeance on you and not pity you.”

<sup>4</sup> The one who frees us people of Judah, whom we call 'the Commander of the armies of angels', is the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh says, "You people of Babylon, sit silently in the darkness, because people will never again say that your city is like [MET] a queen that rules many kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup> I was angry with the people whom I chose to belong to me, and I punished them.
I allowed you people of Babylon to conquer them.
But when you conquered them, you did not have mercy on them.
You ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶ [MET] even the old people.

<sup>7</sup> You said, 'We will rule other nations forever;
it is as though our city will be the queen of the world forever!'
But you did not think about the things that you were doing, or think about what would result.

<sup>8</sup> You people of Babylon who enjoy pleasure and sex, listen to this:

You enjoy a luxurious life and you feel secure.

You say, 'We are like gods,
and there are no others like us.

Our women will never become widows, and our children will never be killed in wars.'

<sup>9</sup> But both of those things will happen to you suddenly:
Many of your women will become widows and many of your children will die, even though you perform much sorcery and many kinds of magic to prevent bad things from happening to you.

<sup>10</sup> You felt protected even though you were doing many wicked things, and you said, 'No one will see what we are doing!'

You thought that you were very wise and knew many things, and you said, 'We are gods, and there are no others like us,' but you deceived yourselves.

<sup>11</sup> So you will experience terrible things, and you will not be able to prevent them by working magic.

You will experience disasters, and you will not be able to pay anyone to prevent those things from happening.

◀A catastrophe/Something terrible▶ will happen to you suddenly, something that you will not realize is about to happen.

<sup>12</sup> So you can continue to perform all your magic spells [IRO]!

You can perform the many kinds of sorcery that you have practiced for many years!

Perhaps doing those things will enable you to be successful;
perhaps you will be able to cause your enemies to be afraid of you!

<sup>13</sup> But all that has resulted from your doing all the things that the magicians have told you to do is that you have become tired!

The men who look at the stars every month and predict what will happen should come forward and rescue you from the disasters that you are about to experience.

<sup>14</sup> But they cannot do that, because they are like [SIM] straw that is burning in a fire; they cannot save themselves from being burned up in the flames.

Those men are unable to help you [MET];

they are as useless as stubble that burns quickly and produces no heat for you.

<sup>15</sup> The people whom you have associated with and worked with since you were young will not help you, because they will just continue doing their own foolish things, and they will not pay any attention to you when you cry out for help."

48

The people of Israel are stubborn

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh says, "You descendants [MTY] of Jacob, who are also descendants of Judah and are now called the people of Israel,

Listen to me!

You make solemn promises using my name, Yahweh, and you request that I, the God to whom you Israeli people belong, will hear you,

but you do not do it sincerely.

<sup>2</sup> You say that you live in the holy city of Jerusalem,

and you insincerely say that you are relying on me, the God to whom you people of Israel belong, the one who is the Commander of the armies of angels.

<sup>3</sup> Long ago I [MTY] predicted what would happen [DOU].

And then suddenly, I caused those things to happen.

<sup>4</sup> I knew that you people are very stubborn;

I knew that your heads are [MET] as hard as iron or brass [DOU].

<sup>5</sup> That is why I told you those things long ago.

Long before they occurred, I announced that they would occur, in order that when they happened you could not say

'Our idols did it;

our statue made of wood and our idol made of metal caused them to happen.'

<sup>6</sup> You have heard those things that I predicted and now you have seen that they have all occurred, so why do you not admit it [RHQ]?

Now I will tell you new things, things that you have not known previously.

<sup>7</sup> I am causing them to happen now;

they are not things I did long ago.

So you cannot say, 'We already knew about those things.'

<sup>8</sup> I will tell you about things that you have never heard about or understood before.

Even long ago you did not pay attention to me [IDM].

I know that you act very deceitfully/treacherously;

you have rebelled against me since you first became a nation [MTY].

<sup>9</sup> But, for my own sake, in order that I will be honored,

I will not punish [MTY] you immediately and I will not completely get rid of you.

Instead, I have caused you to suffer very much to get rid of your impure behavior, like [MET] people put metal in a very hot furnace to get rid of the impurities.

11 But for my [MTY] own sake I will delay punishing you more;

I will do it for my own sake

in order that my reputation will not be damaged [RHQ].

I will not allow any person or any idol to be honored as I deserve to be honored."

The people of Israel should leave Babylon because that city will be destroyed

12 "You descendants [MTY] of Jacob, you people of Israel whom I have chosen, listen to me!

Only I am God;

I am the one who begins everything and who causes everything to end.

13 I [SYN] am the one who laid the foundation of the earth.

I stretched out the sky with my hand.

And when I tell the stars to appear,

they all do what I tell them.

14 All of you, gather together and listen to me.

None of your idols has [RHQ] told this to you:

I, Yahweh, have chosen Cyrus to assist me, and he will do to Babylon what I want him to do, and his army will get rid of the army of Babylonia.

15 I have said it;

I have summoned Cyrus.

I have appointed him,

and he will accomplish everything that he attempts to do.

16 Come close to me and listen to what I say.

Long ago [MTY] I told you plainly/clearly [LIT] what would happen, and when those things occurred, I was causing them to happen."

And now Yahweh the Lord and his Spirit have sent me to give you a message.

17 This is what Yahweh, the one who saves you, the Holy God of us Israelis, says:

"I am Yahweh, your God;

I teach you what is important for you to know;

I direct you and lead you to the roads that you should walk on [MET].

18 I wish that you had paid attention to my commands!

If you had done that, things would have gone well for you like [SIM] a river that flows gently;

you would have been successful again and again, like [SIM] waves that come without ceasing.

19 Your descendants would have been as many as [MET] the grains of sand on the seashore which no one can count.

I would not have needed to get rid of you;

the country of [MTY] Israel would not have been destroyed."

20 However, now I tell you, leave Babylon!

Flee from being slaves of the people of Babylonia!

Proclaim this message joyfully;

send it to the most remote/distant places on the earth:

Yahweh freed the people of Israel from being slaves in Egypt.

<sup>21</sup> They were not thirsty when he led them through the desert, because he split open the rock and caused water to gush/flow out for them to drink.

<sup>22</sup> "But things will not go well like that for wicked people," says Yahweh.

49

Yahweh appointed his special servant

<sup>1</sup> All you people who live on islands in the ocean and in other distant areas, pay attention [DOU] to what I will say!

Yahweh called/chose me before I was born;
he chose/appointed me when I was still in my mother's womb.

<sup>2</sup> When I grew up, he caused my messages to be like [SIM] a sharp sword.
He has protected me with his hand [SYN].

He protects me [MET] like someone protects sharp arrows in a quiver.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, "You will serve my Israeli people, and you will cause people to honor me."

<sup>4</sup> I replied, "My work has been useless;
I have used my strength, but I have accomplished nothing worthwhile;
everything that I have done has been ◀in vain/useless▶.

However, Yahweh can honor me as he pleases;
my God is the one who will reward me as I deserve."

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh formed me when I was in my mother's womb in order that I would serve him;

he appointed me to bring the people of Israel back to himself [DOU].

Yahweh has honored me,
and he is the one who has caused me to be strong.

<sup>6</sup> He says to me,

"It is not enough for you to serve me by bringing the descendants of Jacob back to worship me again [DOU];
I also want you to be like [MET] a light for the non-Jews;
I want you to take my my message about how to be saved to people all over the world."

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh, the one who saves us, the Holy God of us Israeli people, says to the one who was despised and rejected by the people of many nations, the one who is the slave of rulers,

"Some day kings will stand up to respect you when they see you, and princes will bow down before you because you serve me, Yahweh, the one who faithfully does what I promise.

I am the Holy God to whom you Israelis belong, the one who has chosen you."

The promise to restore Israel

<sup>8</sup> This is also what Yahweh says:

"At a time when it pleases me, I will answer your prayers.

On the day when you will be rescued from your oppressors, I will help you.
I will protect you and enable you to establish an agreement with other nations.
And by what you do, I will re-establish your nation of Israel and allow you to live/settle again in your land that was abandoned.

- 9 I will say to those who were captured and ◀exiled/taken to Babylonia▶,
 'Leave Babylonia and return to your own country!
 And I will say to those who are in dark prisons,
 'Come out into the light!
 When that happens, they will again be like [MET] sheep that eat grass in green pastures, on hills where previously there was no grass.
- 10 They will not be hungry or thirsty any more;
 the hot sun will not beat upon them again [DOU].
 I, Yahweh, will act mercifully toward them and lead them;
 I will lead them to where there are springs of cool water.
- 11 And I will cause the mountains to become as though they were level roads, and I will prepare good highways for my people to travel on, to return to Jerusalem.
- 12 My people will return from far away;
 some will come from the north, some from the west,
 some from southern Egypt."
- 13 Because of what Yahweh has promised to do, everything should shout joyfully—
 the sky and the earth and the mountains should sing, because Yahweh comforts his people, and he will pity those who are suffering.
- 14 The people of Jerusalem say,
 "Yahweh has abandoned us;
 he has forgotten about us."
- 15 But Yahweh replies,
 "That is not true! ◀Can a woman forget the infant that she is nursing?/A woman certainly cannot forget the infant that she is nursing!▶ [RHQ] ◀Can she stop being kind to the child to whom she has given birth?/She certainly cannot stop being kind to the child to whom she has given birth!▶ [RHQ]
 But even if a woman would do that,
 I will not forget you!
- 16 Note that I have written your names on the palms of my hands;
 in my mind I can always see the walls of your city.
- 17 Soon your children will be returning there (OR, Those who rebuild your city will work more quickly than those who destroyed it), and all those who destroyed your city will leave.
- 18 You will look around and see all of your children coming back to you.
 As surely as I live,
 they will be around you for you to show to people like [SIM] a bride shows her wedding ornaments!
- 19 Your land has been ruined and caused to become desolate/abandoned [DOU], but some day it will be filled with people, and those who conquered you will be far away.
- 20 The children who were born while you were ◀exiled/in Babylonia▶ [MET] will return to Jerusalem and say,
 "This city is too small for us;

We need more space to live in!

<sup>21</sup> Then you will think to yourselves [MTY],
 'It is amazing that we have [RHQ] all these children!
 Most of our children were dead,
 and the rest were exiled.
 We were left here alone;
 so we do not know [RHQ] where all these children have come from!
 Who raised them?' "

 "Watch! It is as though I will lift up my hand to signal to those who are not Israelis.
 And they will carry your little sons and daughters on their shoulders and bring them back to you.
<sup>23</sup> Kings will serve you and will tutor/teach your children, and their queens will take care of your young children.
 They will prostrate themselves in front of you and humble themselves by licking the dust off your feet.
 When that happens, you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do;
 and those who trust in me will never be disappointed."

<sup>24</sup> There is no one [RHQ] who can snatch valuable things from a soldier who has captured those things in a war;
 there is no one [RHQ] who can force a ◀tyrant/cruel man▶ to free the people whom he has captured.

<sup>25</sup> But Yahweh says this:
 "Some day, those who have been captured will be freed, and the valuable things that ◀tyrants/cruel men▶ have snatched from others will be returned,
 because I will fight against those who fight against you, and I will rescue your children.

<sup>26</sup> And I will cause your enemies to destroy themselves [MET] instead of murdering others.
 When that happens, everyone in the world will know that I, Yahweh, am the one who saves you,
 the one who rescues you from your enemies;
 everyone will know that I am the mighty God to whom you descendants of [MTY] Jacob belong."

50

Yahweh's power

 "You Israeli children, do not think [RHQ] that I forced your parents to be exiled/taken to Babylonia [MET] like some men send away their wives after giving them a paper on which they state that they were divorcing them!
 I certainly did not [RHQ] get rid of you like a man who sells his children to get money to pay what he owes.
 No, the reason that I forced you to be exiled was to punish you because of the sins that you have committed [DOU].

- 2 When I came to you to rescue you, why did no one answer when I called out to you [RHQ]?
 Was there no one there [RHQ]?
 Or, did you think that I do not have the power [MTY] to rescue you [DOU]?
 Think about this:
 I can speak to a sea and cause it to become dry!
 I can cause rivers to become deserts, with the result that the fish in the rivers die from thirst and they rot.
- 3 I cause the sky to become dark, as though [MET] it was wearing black clothes because it was mourning because someone had died."
- 4 Yahweh our God has given me his wise message [MTY] in order that I may encourage those who are weary.
 Each morning he awakens me, in order that I [SYN] may listen to what he teaches [SIM] me.
- 5 Yahweh our God has spoken to me [IDM], and I have not rejected what he told me;
 I have accepted [LIT] it.
- 6 I allowed people to beat me on my back and to pull out the whiskers in my beard because they hated me.
 I did not turn away [MTY] from them when they made fun of me and spat on me.
- 7 But, because the Lord our God helps me,
 I will never be humiliated.
 Therefore, I am strongly determined [IDM] to face/endure difficulties, and I know that nothing will cause me to be ashamed.
- 8 God, the one who vindicates me, is near to me;
 so if anyone [RHQ] stands in front of me and accuses me in a court, he will not be able to show that I have done anything that is wrong.
- 9 The Lord our God defends me in court, so no one [RHQ] will be able to ◀condemn me/declare that I am guilty▶.
 All those who accuse me will disappear like [SIM] old clothes that have been eaten by ◀larvae of moths/cockroaches▶.
- 10 If you revere Yahweh and do what his servant tells you to do, even if you are ◀walking in darkness/enduring suffering▶, and it seems that [MET] there is no light, trust in Yahweh your God [DOU] to help you.
- 11 But you people who oppose me,
who would like to throw me into a blazing fire, walk in your own fires and burn yourselves with your own torches!
 This is what Yahweh will cause to happen to you:
 You will be enduring great torment when you die [EUP]!

51

Yahweh will bless the descendants of Abraham

- 1 Yahweh says, "You people who desire to act righteously/justly, who want to do what I want you to do,

listen to me!

Think about Abraham!

It is as though [MET] he was a huge rock cliff;
and when you people of Israel became a nation,
it was as though [MET] you were cut from that rock [DOU].

<sup>2</sup> Think about your ancestor Abraham and his wife Sarah, of whom all of you are descendants.

When I first spoke to Abraham,
he had no children.

But after I blessed him, he had a huge number of descendants.

<sup>3</sup> Some day I, Yahweh, will encourage his descendants again, and I will comfort all the people who live in the ruins of Jerusalem.

The desert in that area will become like Eden, like the garden that I, Yahweh, made/planted.

All the people there will be joyful and happy;
they will thank me and sing.

<sup>4</sup> My people of Judah, listen carefully [DOU] to me, because I want you to proclaim my laws;
the just/right things that I do will be like [MET] a light for the people of the nations.

<sup>5</sup> I will soon/quickly rescue you [DOU];
by my power [MTY] I will bring you back from being exiled in Babylonia [DOU].
The people who live on islands in the ocean will wait for me to help them, confidently expecting for me to use my power [MTY].

<sup>6</sup> Look up at the sky, and look at the earth,
and see what they are like now, because some day the sky will disappear like [SIM] smoke, and the earth will wear out like [SIM] old clothes wear out,
and people on the earth will die like gnats/flies.

But I will rescue/save you, and you will remain free forever, and I will rule you righteously/fairly forever.

<sup>7</sup> You people who know what things are right to do, and who know in your inner beings what is written in my laws,

listen to me!

Do not be afraid of people who taunt/insult you;
do not be disturbed/upset when people revile you,

<sup>8</sup> because some day they will be destroyed like [MET] clothing that is eaten by ◀larvae of moths/cockroaches▶, like wool garments that have been eaten by worms.

I will save you people, and you will be saved forever.”

A prayer for God's help

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, wake up and do something for us!

Show your power!

Do mighty things like you did long ago,

when you stabbed [RHQ] that sea monster/dragon Rahab and cut it into pieces.

<sup>10</sup> Surely you are [RHQ] the one who caused the Red Sea to become dry and made a path through that deep water in order that your people could cross it!

11 And those whom Yahweh will rescue from being exiled in Babylonia will similarly return to Jerusalem, singing.

Their being joyful forever will be like [MET] a crown on their heads.

They will not be sad or mourn any more;
they will be completely joyful and happy.

12 Yahweh says,

“I am the one who encourages you.

So ◀why are you/you should not be▶ [RHQ] afraid of humans who will wither and disappear like [MET] grass.

13 ◀Why have you/You should not have▶ [RHQ] forgotten me, Yahweh, the one who created your nation,
the one who stretched out the sky and laid the foundations of the earth.

◀Why are you/You should not be▶ [RHQ] continually afraid of those who are angry with you and ◀oppress you/treat you cruelly▶ and want to get rid of you.

You should not be afraid of them now, because those angry people have now disappeared!

14 Soon you people who have been caused to be slaves in Babylonia will be freed!

You will not remain in prison, and you will not die of hunger,

15 because I am Yahweh, your God, the one who stirs up the sea and causes the waves to roar;
I am the Commander of the armies of angels!

16 I have given you my message [MTY] to proclaim, and I have protected you with my hand [MTY].

I stretched out the sky and laid the foundation of the earth.

And I am the one who says to you Israeli people,
“You are my people!” ”

A warning to the people of Jerusalem

17 You people of [APO] Jerusalem, wake up [DOU]!

You have experienced Yahweh severely punishing [MTY] you.

Yahweh has caused you to suffer much,
all that he wanted you to suffer,

like [MET] someone who causes another person to suffer by forcing him to drink every drop of [MTY] a cupful of bitter liquid.

18 Now you do not have any children who are alive [DOU]
and able to take your hand and guide you.

19 You have experienced several disasters:
Your country has become desolate/deserted;

your cities have been destroyed;
many people have died from hunger;
many people have been killed by your enemies’ swords.

Now, there is no one [RHQ] left to console/comfort you and sympathize with you.

20 Your children have fainted and lie in the streets;
they are as helpless as [SIM] an antelope that has been caught in a net.

What has happened to them is because Yahweh has been very angry with them;
he has rebuked them severely.

- <sup>21</sup> So now, you people who have suffered much,
you act as though you are drunk, but it is not because you have drunk a lot of wine.
- <sup>22</sup> Yahweh, your Lord and your God, the one who argues/pleads your case, says this:
 “Note this: It is as though [MET] I have taken that cup of bitter liquid from your hands;
 I will not be angry with you and cause you to suffer any more.
- <sup>23</sup> Instead, I will cause those who have tormented you to suffer;
I will severely punish those who said to you, ‘Prostrate yourselves in order that we may walk on you;
lie down on your stomachs in order that your backs will be like [SIM] streets that we can walk on.’ ”

52

Jerusalem's suffering will end

- <sup>1</sup> You people who live in the holy city of Jerusalem [APO], wake up!
 Be strong again!
 Show that [MTY] your city is beautiful and glorious; foreigners who do not believe in God will not enter your city again to attack you.
- <sup>2</sup> People of Jerusalem, get up from humbly sitting in the dust and sit in places where people are honored!
 You people who have returned from being exiled, take off from your neck the chains which were fastened around you as slaves in Babylonia,
- <sup>3</sup> because this is what Yahweh says:
 “When you were taken to Babylonia, no one paid me for doing that.
 So now I will bring you back without being required to pay for you!”
- <sup>4</sup> Yahweh our Lord also says this:
 “Long ago, my people went to Egypt to live there.
Later they were being ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶ by the soldiers of Assyria.
- <sup>5</sup> But now think about what is happening:
 My people are being forced to be slaves again, this time by the people of Babylonia.
 And those who have conquered them this time have also paid me nothing, and they despise me [MTY] continually [DOU].
- <sup>6</sup> But my people will then have a close relationship with [MTY] me, and when that happens, they will know that I am the one who predicted/promised that it would happen.
 It is I, Yahweh, who will do it.”

A message of encouragement for Jerusalem

- <sup>7</sup> It is a wonderful thing when messengers [MTY] arrive on the mountains/hills, bringing good news,
 the news about God giving us peace and saving us, the news that the God to whom we Israeli people belong is now ruling/king!
- <sup>8</sup> The watchmen who are guarding the city will shout and sing joyfully, because while they are watching they will see Yahweh returning to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Jerusalem has been ruined, but the people who are there now should start to sing joyfully, because Yahweh will encourage his people;
 he will set his people free and bring them back to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh will show all the nations that he is holy and powerful.
 People in the most remote/distant places on earth will know that he has rescued his people.

<sup>11</sup> So, leave the places where you were taken to when you were captured, where everything is unacceptable to God.

You men who carry the items used for the worship of Yahweh, leave there and return to Jerusalem, and purify yourselves in order to be acceptable to worship God.

<sup>12</sup> But it will not be necessary for you to leave suddenly, to flee in panic,
 because Yahweh will ◀go in front of/lead▶ you;
 and he will also protect you from being attacked at the rear while you travel.

God's suffering servant

 My servant will act wisely (OR, do the right things to accomplish what he wants to),
 and I will highly exalt him."

<sup>14</sup> But many people will be appalled when they see what has happened to him.
Because of his being beaten very badly, his appearance will be changed; people will hardly recognize that he is a human.

<sup>15</sup> But he will cause people of many nations to be surprised;
even kings will be silent when they stand in front of him, because they will see someone that no one had told them about previously, and they will understand things that they had not heard about before.

53

<sup>1</sup> ◀Who will believe what we will tell them about God's servant?/Hardly anyone will believe what we will tell them about God's servant.▶ [RHQ]

◀Who will see what Yahweh does by his great power?/Very few people will see what Yahweh does by his great power.▶ [MTY, RHQ]

<sup>2</sup> While God watches, his servant will grow up appearing/seeming to be very insignificant/unimportant, like a weak young plant that shoots up from a root of a tree that is growing in dry ground.

There will be nothing beautiful or majestic about him, nothing that would cause us to want to be with him.

<sup>3</sup> People will despise and reject him. {He will be despised and rejected.}
 He will endure much pain, and he will suffer much.

Because his face will be very disfigured, people will not want to look at him; people will despise him and think that he is not worth paying any attention to.

<sup>4</sup> But he will be punished for the sicknesses of our souls;
 he will endure great pain for us.
 But we will think that he is being punished by God, afflicted/punished for his own sins.

<sup>5</sup> But his body will be bruised because of the evil things that we did, wounded because of our sins.

He will be beaten in order that things will go well for our souls; and because he will be whipped, our souls can be healed.

<sup>6</sup> All of us have gone away from God like [SIM] sheep who have strayed away from their shepherd.

We have turned away from doing the things that God wants in order to do the things that we wanted [MET].

We deserve to be punished, but Yahweh will punish him instead of punishing us for all of our sins.

<sup>7</sup> He will be abused and caused to suffer, but he will not say anything to complain.

They will lead him to where they will execute him, like they lead a lamb to where it will be slaughtered.

And like a sheep does not ◀bleat/make any noise▶ when the shearer cuts off its wool, he will not say anything [MTY] to defend himself when he is killed.

<sup>8</sup> After he is arrested and put on trial, he will be taken away and executed.

And no one [RHQ] will be able to talk about his descendants, because he will die [EUP] without being married and having children.

He will be ◀afflicted/caused to suffer▶ for the wrong things that we have done.

<sup>9</sup> Although he will never have done any wrong or deceived [MTY] anyone, people will plan to bury his corpse where wicked people are buried, but instead, a rich man will bury him after he dies.

<sup>10</sup> But it will be Yahweh's will that he be afflicted and caused to suffer.

And when he dies, Yahweh will cause him to be an offering to remove the guilt of sinners.

But later he will have many spiritual children, and he will live ◀a long time/forever▶ after he dies and becomes alive again, and he [MTY] will accomplish everything that Yahweh has planned.

<sup>11</sup> When he sees all that he will accomplish because of his suffering, he will be satisfied.

And because of what will have happened to him,

Yahweh's righteous servant will cause the guilt of many people to be ended, because he will remove the guilt for their sins.

<sup>12</sup> So Yahweh will consider him to be one of the truly great people;

he will be like a king who divides up among his soldiers the ◀spoils/things they took from their enemies after defeating them▶ [MET], because he will sacrifice himself and die.

Even though people will consider him to be a sinner,

he will remove the guilt of many people, and he will intercede/pray that those who have done things that are wrong will be forgiven.

54

Yahweh promised that his people would return to Jerusalem

You who are like [MET] women who have never given birth to children, sing loudly and shout joyfully, because you, who are like [MET] childless women who have been abandoned by their husbands, will soon have more children than women who have never had any children.

<sup>2</sup> Make your tents larger;
make them wider,
and fasten them firmly with tent pegs.

<sup>3</sup> You will need to make your city much larger because soon you and your descendants will spread all over the land.
They will force the people of other nations who now live in your cities to leave, and you will live again in those cities that were previously abandoned.

<sup>4</sup> Do not be afraid; you will no longer be ashamed.
Previously you were ashamed because your enemies conquered you and caused many of your women to become widows, but soon you will not even remember that.

<sup>5</sup> I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the Holy one of Israel, who rules over the whole earth, the one who created you, will be like [MET] a husband to you.

<sup>6</sup> You were like a woman whose husband left her,
and caused you to be very sad;
you were like a young woman who got married when she was very young,
and then her husband abandoned her.

<sup>7</sup> I abandoned you people of Jerusalem for a while, but now I am saying, 'I will take you back.'

<sup>8</sup> I was very angry with you for a while, and I turned away from you.
But I will act mercifully toward you and I will faithfully love you forever.
That is what I, Yahweh, your protector, say to you.

I solemnly promised that I would never again allow a flood to cover the earth.
So now I solemnly promise that I will not be angry with you again and ◀rebuke you/threaten to punish you▶.

<sup>10</sup> Even if the mountains and hills shake and collapse,
I will not stop faithfully loving you, and I will not cancel my agreement to cause things to go well for you.
That is what I, Yahweh, who act mercifully, say.

<sup>11</sup> You people of Jerusalem [APO],, your enemies acted very violently toward you;
it was as though your city was battered by a severe storm, and no one helped you.

But now I will cause your city to be rebuilt with stones made of ◀turquoise/valuable stones▶, and I will cause the foundations of the city to be made of ◀sapphires/valuable blue stones▶.

<sup>12</sup> I will cause the towers on the city wall to be made of ◀rubies/valuable red stones▶, and all the gates of the city will be made of other very valuable stones.

<sup>13</sup> I will be the one who will teach you people and cause things to go well with you.

<sup>14</sup> Your government will be strong because of acting justly/fairly;
no one will ◀oppress you/cause you to suffer▶;
you will not be afraid, because there will be nothing [PRS] that will ◀terrorize you/cause you to become extremely afraid▶.

<sup>15</sup> If any army attacks you, it will not be because I have incited them to do that,
and you will defeat any group that attacks you.

<sup>16</sup> Think about this:
◀Blacksmiths/Men who make things from metal▶ fan the coals to make a very hot flame
in order to produce weapons that can be used in battles, but I am the one who has produced blacksmiths!
And I am also the one who created people who destroy other people and cities.
<sup>17</sup> But I am promising you that I will not allow you to be defeated/injured by soldiers using weapons that have been made to attack you, and when others try to accuse you, you will ◀refute them/show that they are wrong▶.
That is the reward that I will give to the people who serve me;
I will defend them;
that is what I, Yahweh, promise.”

55

The future glory of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> “All you people who are in exile,
listen to me!
It is as though [MET] you are thirsty, so come and get water from me!
It is as though you have no money, but you can come and get things from me that are like wine and milk!
You can get what you need from me,
and you will not need to give me any money for them!
<sup>2</sup> What you really need is to have a close relationship with me, so ◀why do you spend money to buy things that do not supply what you really need?/you should not spend money to buy things that do not supply what you really need.▶ [RHQ]
◀Why do you work hard to get money to buy things that do not <satisfy your inner beings/cause you to be happy>?▶ [RHQ] Pay attention to what I say and acquire what is really good [MET]!
If you do that, then you will truly be happy [MET].
<sup>3</sup> Listen to me and come to me;
pay attention to me, and if you do that, you will have new life in your souls.
I will make an agreement with you that will last forever to faithfully love you like I loved King David.
<sup>4</sup> By what he did, I showed my power to many people-groups;
I caused him to be a leader and commander [DOU] over the people of many nations.
<sup>5</sup> And similarly, you will summon people of other nations to come to you, nations that previously you have not heard about,

 and they had not heard about you;
 and they will come to you quickly because they will have heard that I, Yahweh, your God, the Holy One of Israel, have honored you.

<sup>6</sup> Seek to know me while it is still possible for you to do that;
 call to me while I am near!

<sup>7</sup> Wicked people should abandon their wicked behavior, and evil people should stop thinking what is evil.

They should turn to me,
 and if they do that, I will act mercifully toward them;
 they should turn to me, their God, because I will fully pardon them for all the wicked things that they have done.

<sup>8</sup> I, Yahweh, declare that what I think is not the same as what you think, and what I do is very different from what you do.

<sup>9</sup> Just as the sky is far above the earth,
 what I do is far greater than what you do, and what I think is much greater than what you think.

<sup>10</sup> Rain and snow come down from the sky, and they cause the ground to be moist before the moisture returns to the sky and produces more clouds.

When the ground becomes moist, it causes plants to sprout and grow, with the result that the soil produces seed for the farmer to plant and grain to produce flour to make bread for people to eat.

<sup>11</sup> And similarly the things that I promise to do, I will always cause to happen;
 my promises will always be fulfilled [LIT].

They will accomplish the things that I gave them to accomplish [DOU].

<sup>12</sup> You will leave Babylon joyfully, you will have peace as I lead you out.

It will be as though the hills and mountains will sing joyfully, and the trees in the fields will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup> Instead of thornbushes and briars, pine/cypress trees and myrtle trees will grow in your land.

As a result of that, people will honor me much more;
 and what I do will remind everyone that I do what I have promised."

56

God will bless all the nations

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh says to all the people of Judah,
 "Do the things that are fair and just,

because I will soon come to rescue [DOU] you.

<sup>2</sup> I will bless those who faithfully obey my laws about the Sabbath/rest days.

I will bless those who ◀keep sacred/honor▶ my Sabbath/rest days, and who do not do any work on those days,
 and who refrain from [MTY] doing anything that is evil.

<sup>3</sup> And foreigners who have believed in me should not say,
 'Yahweh will surely not allow me to belong to his people.'
 And eunuchs should not say,

*'Because I am unable to have children, I cannot belong to Yahweh;
I am like [MET] a tree that has completely withered.'*

<sup>4</sup> They should not say that, because *I, Yahweh, say this to the eunuchs who obey my laws about the Sabbath, and who choose to do the things that please me, and who obey all *the other laws of the agreement that I made with the Israeli
people:

<sup>5</sup> I will cause to be put inside the walls of my temple a monument [DOU] to them; because of that monument, they will be honored more than they would have if they had children;
they will be honored forever.

<sup>6</sup> I will also bless those who are not Israelis, who ◀join themselves to/believe in▶ me,
and who serve me and worship and love me,
and who obey my laws about the Sabbath, and who faithfully obey all the other laws of the agreement that I made with the Israeli people.

<sup>7</sup> I will bring them to my sacred hill in Jerusalem,
I will cause them to be very joyful in my temple where people pray to me, and I will accept the sacrifices that they completely burn on my altar and other sacrifices that they offer.

I will do those things for them because I want my temple to be a building where people of all nations pray to me.

<sup>8</sup> *I, Yahweh, the Lord, the one who will bring back the people of Israel who have been ◀forced to go/exiled▶ to other countries, say this:
'I will bring from other countries many more people to join those Israelis whom I have brought back.'* "

God promised to punish the Israeli leaders

<sup>9</sup> *"You surrounding nations have armies that are like [MET] animals in the forest;
come and attack/destroy Israel!*

<sup>10</sup> The Israeli leaders should be like watchdogs to protect the people, but it is as though they are blind.
They are stupid.

They are all like [MET] dogs that cannot bark.
Good watchdogs bark when strangers approach, but the Israeli leaders do not warn the people that their enemies are coming.
Instead, they just want to lie down and sleep and dream.

<sup>11</sup> And they are like greedy dogs;
they never get all that they want.
They are supposed to lead the people, like good shepherds lead their flocks,
but they are ignorant,
and they each do whatever they want to do.

<sup>12</sup> They say to each other, 'Come, let's go and get some wine and other alcoholic/strong drinks,
and let's become drunk!
And tomorrow we will enjoy drinking even more!' "

57

Israel's idolatry condemned

<sup>1</sup> Righteous people sometimes die when they are still young,

and no one is concerned about it.
 Godly people sometimes die because of disasters, and no one understands why.
 They are taken away in order that they will not endure more calamities, <sup>2</sup> and now they have peace.
 They continually lived righteously, and now they rest peacefully in their graves.

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh says, "But you who practice sorcery, come here!
 You who worship idols [MET],
listen to me!

<sup>4</sup> Do you realize [RHQ] whom you are ridiculing, and whom you are insulting?
 Do you realize [RHQ] to whom you are sticking out your tongues?
You are insulting me, Yahweh!
 You are [RHQ] always rebelling against me and always lying.

<sup>5</sup> You are eager to have sex under every big green tree where you worship your gods.
 You kill your children as sacrifices to your idols in the dry riverbeds, and also offer them as sacrifices to your idols in the rocky caves.

<sup>6</sup> You take big smooth stones from the riverbeds and worship them as your gods.

You pour out wine to be an offering to them, and you bring grain to burn for an offering to them.
 Do you think that I should not punish you for doing all those things?

<sup>7</sup> You have sex [EUP] with cult prostitutes on every hill and mountain, and you go there to offer sacrifices to your gods.

<sup>8</sup> You have put ◀fetishes/pagan symbols▶ behind your doors and doorposts, and you have deserted me.

You have taken off your clothes [EUP] and climbed into your bed and invited more of your lovers to come to bed with you.

You have paid them to have sex with you, and you have fondled their sexual organs.

<sup>9</sup> You have given fragrant oil and lots of perfume to your god Molech, and you sent messengers to distant countries to find other gods to worship;
 you even tried to send messengers to the place of the dead to search for new gods.

<sup>10</sup> You became weary because of doing all those things, but you never said, 'It is useless for us to do that.'

You found new strength for worshiping idols, so you continued to do that [LIT].

<sup>11</sup> Was it because you were afraid of those idols more than you were afraid of me that you lied about what you were doing, and you do not even think about [DOU, RHQ] me?

 Was it because I did not punish you for a long time that you are not afraid of me
 [RHQ]?

<sup>12</sup> You think that [IRO] the things that you have done are right, but I will tell the truth.

It will not help you to do any of those things.

<sup>13</sup> When you cry out for help to your collection of idols, they will not rescue you.

The wind will blow them away [DOU].

But those who trust in me will live in the land of Israel, and they will worship me on Zion, my sacred hill.”

Yahweh will rescue his people.

- <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will say, “Prepare yourselves to receive me, like [MET] people build and prepare a road for a king to come on.
Get rid of the things that are causing you to sin like [MET] people remove from a road ◀obstacles/things that cause people to stumble▶.
- <sup>15</sup> Because this is what I, Yahweh, who am holy and greatly honored and who live forever, say:
I live in the highest heaven, where everything is holy,
but I also am with those who are humble and who are sorry for the sinful things that they have done.
I will greatly encourage [DOU] those who have repented.
- <sup>16</sup> I will not accuse people forever;
I will not always be angry with them, because if I did that, people would become weak/discouraged;
all the people whom I created and caused to live would die.
- <sup>17</sup> I was angry with my people because they sinned by wanting the things that others had.
So because I was angry, I punished them and turned away from them, but they continued sinning.
- <sup>18</sup> I have seen the evil things that they continually do, but I will restore them and lead them.
I will encourage/comfort them.
And to those who are mourning,
- <sup>19</sup> I will enable them to sing songs to praise me.
I will restore all my people, those who live near Jerusalem and those who live far away, and I will cause things to go well for them.
- <sup>20</sup> Wicked people do not have peace in their inner beings;
they are like [SIM] a sea whose waves are always churning up mud,
- <sup>21</sup> and I, Yahweh, say that things will never ◀go well/be peaceful▶ for those who are evil.”

58

True worship

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to me, “Shout loudly!
Shout like [SIM] a loud trumpet!
Shout to warn my Israeli people about their sins [DOU]!”
- <sup>2</sup> They worship me every day;
they come to my temple because they say that they are eager to know what I want them to do.
They act as though they are a nation that does things that are righteous, who would never abandon their God.
They request me to decide matters justly, and they delight to come to worship me.
- <sup>3</sup> They say, ‘We have ◀fasted/abstained from eating food▶ to please you, but you did not [RHQ] notice our doing that.

We humbled ourselves,
but you did not [RHQ] pay any attention!'

I will tell you why I did not pay attention.
It is because when you fast,
you do it only to please yourselves, and you act cruelly toward all your workers.

<sup>4</sup> You fast, but you also quarrel and fight with each other with your fists.
Doing things like that while you fast will certainly not cause me to hear your prayers where I am, high in heaven.

<sup>5</sup> You act as though [IRO] you humble yourselves [RHQ] by bowing your heads like [SIM] the tops of reeds bend when the wind blows, and you wear [RHQ] rough clothes and cover your heads with ashes like people do when they are grieving.

That is what you do when you are fasting, but do you really think [RHQ] that will please me?

<sup>6</sup> No, that is not the kind of fasting that I desire.
What I really want [RHQ] is for you to free those who have been unjustly put in prison
[DOU],

and to encourage those who are ◀treated cruelly/oppresed▶;
I want you to free those who have been oppressed in any way.

<sup>7</sup> I want you to [RHQ] share your food with those who are hungry and to allow those who have no houses to stay in your houses.
Give clothes to those who do not have clothes, and do not hide from your relatives who need help from you.

<sup>8</sup> If you do those things,
what you do for others will be like [SIM] a light that shines when it dawns.
The troubles that have been caused by your sins will end quickly.

Others will know about your righteous behavior, and with my glorious presence I will protect you from behind like I protected the Israeli people when they left Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> Then you will call out to me, and I will quickly answer and say that I will help you.'

Stop ◀oppressing people/treating people cruelly▶;
stop falsely accusing people;
and stop saying evil things about people.

<sup>10</sup> Give food to those who are hungry, and give to people who are afflicted/suffering the things that they need.
Your doing that will be like [MET] a light that shines in the darkness;
instead of doing evil to people [MET], the good things that you do for them will be like [SIM] sunshine at noontime.

<sup>11</sup> I, Yahweh, will guide you continually, and I will give you good things to satisfy you.
I will enable you to remain strong and healthy.
You will be like [SIM] a garden that is well watered, like [SIM] a spring that never dries up.

<sup>12</sup> Your people will rebuild the cities that were destroyed long ago;
they will build houses on top of the old foundations.
People will say that you are the ones who are repairing the holes in the city walls, and who are repairing the streets where people live.

and on Sabbath days do not do only the things that you delight to do.
Enjoy the Sabbath days, and consider them to be delightful.

The Sabbath days are my holy days.

Honor me, Yahweh, in everything that you do on the Sabbath days.

Do not talk about and do things only to please yourselves.

If you do all the things that I have just now told you to do, <sup>14</sup> I will enable you to be joyful.

I will greatly honor you;

I will honor you everywhere!

I will give to you the blessings that I gave to your ancestor Jacob.

Those things will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

59

Yahweh will rescue the people of Judah in spite of the evil things they have done

He has not become deaf [MTY], with the result that he cannot hear you when you call to him for help.

<sup>2</sup> But, you have separated yourselves from your God by the sins that you have committed.

Because of your sins, he has turned away from you, with the result that he does not pay attention to what you request him to do.

<sup>3</sup> You do violent things [MTY] to others, with the result that your hands are stained with their blood.

You constantly tell [MTY] lies, and you say [MTY] evil things about others.

<sup>4</sup> When you accuse someone in court, what you say is not fair and it is not true.
You accuse people falsely.

You are constantly planning to cause trouble for others, and then you do those evil things that you planned.

<sup>5</sup> What you plan to do to harm people [MET] is as dangerous as the eggs of a ◀cobra/poisonous snake▶,

because cobras will hatch from those eggs.

You trap people like [MET] spiders trap/catch insects in their webs.

<sup>6</sup> We people cannot hide/cover our skin with clothes made of spider webs [MET], and similarly you cannot hide the evil things that you have done.

You are constantly acting [MTY] violently.

<sup>7</sup> You [SYN] are very quick to go and do evil things, and you hurry to murder people [MTY] who are innocent.

You are continually thinking about sinning.

Wherever you go, you destroy things and cause people to suffer.

<sup>8</sup> You do not know how to act peacefully or to treat others fairly.

You always are ◀dishonest/deceiving others▶ [MET], and those who imitate your behavior never have any inner peace.

<sup>9</sup> Because of that, God does not rescue us from our enemies;
it seems that he is not acting fairly/righteously toward us.

We expect God to give us light, but all he gives us is darkness [DOU].

<sup>10</sup> We are like [SIM] blind people who have to feel along a wall to be able to walk anywhere.

We stumble and trip at noontime like [SIM] we would when it is dark.

We are like [SIM] dead people who are among healthy people.

<sup>11</sup> We growl like [SIM] hungry bears;
we continually moan like [SIM] doves.

We seek people who do what is just/fair, but we cannot find any anywhere.

We want God to rescue us,
but it seems that he is far away.

<sup>12</sup> But these things are happening because it is as though our sins are piled high in the presence of God, and that they testify [PRS] against us.

We cannot deny it;
we know that we have done many wrong things.

<sup>13</sup> We know that we have rebelled against Yahweh;
we have turned away from him.

We ◀oppress people/treat people cruelly▶ by what we testify against them;
we do not allow them to get what they have a right to get.

We [SYN] think about the lies that we can tell,
and then we tell them.

<sup>14</sup> In our courts, the judges do not decide cases/matters fairly;
no one is acting righteously.

In plazas where people gather together, no one tells the truth [PRS];
it seems that people are not allowed to say what is true.

<sup>15</sup> No one tells the truth, and people try to ruin the reputations of those who quit doing evil.

Yahweh looked around, and he saw that no one was doing what is just/fair, and he was very displeased.

<sup>16</sup> He was disgusted when he saw that no one tried to help those who were being treated cruelly.

So he used his own power [MTY] to rescue them;
it is because he is always righteous that he did that [PRS].

<sup>17</sup> It is as though he is a soldier who [MET] puts on his armor and a helmet;
his continually doing what is right is like [MET] his armor, and his ability to rescue people is like his helmet.

His being extremely angry and his being ready to get revenge on those who do evil are like [MET] his robes.

<sup>18</sup> He will repay his enemies for the evil things that they have done.
He will severely punish [MTY] even those who live far from Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> When that happens, people everywhere, from the east to the west, will respect and honor Yahweh [MTY], because he will come like [SIM] a rushing river that is pushed along by the strong wind that Yahweh sent.

<sup>20</sup> And Yahweh says that he will come to Jerusalem to free his people;

he will come to rescue those in Judah who have quit ◀doing sinful things/their sinful behavior▶.

<sup>21</sup> This is what Yahweh says to his people: “This is the agreement that I will make with you:

My Spirit will not leave you,
and you will always have my message.

You will be able to declare it [MTY], and your children and grandchildren will be able to declare it forever.”

Israel's future glory

<sup>1</sup> You people of Jerusalem [PRS], stand up!
Yahweh has done glorious things for you,
and he has acted powerfully for you;
so show others that he is very great!

<sup>2</sup> But spiritual darkness has covered all the other people-groups on the earth, complete darkness,
but Yahweh will show you how great he is,
and other people will also see it.

<sup>3</sup> By seeing what he has done for you, people of all people-groups will see that he is very great,
and kings will come to see the wonderful things that have happened to you.

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh says, “Look around and you will see the people who will be returning from ◀exile/countries to which they have been forced to go▶!
Your sons will come from distant countries;
others will carry your little daughters home.

<sup>5</sup> When you look at this happening, you will be very joyful [DOU], because people will bring valuable goods to you from all around the world.
They will bring in ships valuable things from many nations.

<sup>6</sup> People will also bring valuable goods to you on herds/caravans of camels:
Camels from the Midian and Ephah areas of northern Arabia.
And from Sheba in southern Arabia they will come, bringing gold and frankincense;
they will all come to praise me, Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup> They will bring flocks of sheep and goats from Kedar in northern Arabia and give them to you.
They will bring [PRS] rams from Nebaioth for you to sacrifice on my altars, and I will accept them happily.
At that time I will cause my temple to be very beautifully decorated.

<sup>8</sup> And what are those things that are moving swiftly like [SIM] clouds?
They resemble [SIM] doves returning to their nests.

<sup>9</sup> But they are really ships from Tarshish that are bringing your people back here.
When your people come, they will bring with them all the valuable possessions that they have acquired, and they will do that to honor me, Yahweh, your God, the Holy One of Israel, because I will have greatly honored you.

- 10 Foreigners will come and rebuild the walls of your cities, and their kings will serve/help you.
Although I punished you because I was angry with you, these things will happen now because I will act mercifully toward you because I am kind.
- 11 The gates of your cities will be open during the day and also during the night, in order that people will be able to bring into your cities valuable things from many countries, with their kings being led to you in the processions.
- 12 And the kingdoms and nations whose people refuse to allow you to rule them will be completely destroyed [DOU].
- 13 The glorious/beautiful things in Lebanon will be brought to you—lumber from cypress trees and fir trees and pine trees — to be used to make my temple beautiful.
When that is done, my temple [MTY] will truly be glorious!
- 14 The descendants of those who ◀oppressed you/treated you cruelly▶ will come and bow down to you;
those who despised you will prostrate themselves in front of your feet.
They will say that your city on Zion Hill is the City of Yahweh, where the Holy One of Israel lives.
- 15 Previously everyone hated you and ignored you, but now your city will be majestic/honored forever;
and I will cause you to be joyful forever.
- 16 People of all nations and their kings will gladly bring [MET] their wealth to you.
And when that happens, you will realize that I truly am Yahweh, the one who saves you and rescues you from your enemies, and that I am the mighty one to whom you Israeli people belong.
- 17 Instead of metals that are not valuable, like bronze and iron,
I will bring to you silver and gold.
Instead of wood and stones,
I will bring you bronze and iron for your buildings.
There will be peace in your country, and your rulers will do what is fair/just.
- 18 People in your country will no longer act violently, and people will no longer destroy your land and cause it to become desolate/ruined.
The people in the city will be safe, and everyone there will praise me [MTY].
- 19 And you will no longer need the sun and moon to give you light, because I, Yahweh, will give you more light than the sun and moon;
I will be a glorious light for you forever.
- 20 It will seem as though the sun and moon will always be shining [LIT], because I, Yahweh, will be an everlasting light for you.
You will never again be sad because of things that happen to you.
- 21 Your people will all be righteous, and they will occupy the land forever, because I myself have put you there like people plant trees [MET] in order that you will show others that I am very great.

<sup>22</sup> At that time, the groups that are very small now will become very large clans, and small clans will become great nations. All those things will happen because, I, Yahweh, will cause them to happen at the right time."

61

Good news for oppressed people

- <sup>1</sup> The Spirit of Yahweh our Lord is on me;
 he has appointed [MTY] me to bring good news to those who are oppressed, to comfort those who are discouraged, to free all those who are as though they are chained/tied [DOU] by the wrong things that they continually do.
- <sup>2</sup> He has sent me to tell those who mourn about the members of their families who died (OR, who are still in Babylonia) that now is the time when Yahweh will act kindly toward his people;
 now is the time when our God will ◀get revenge on/punish▶ their enemies.
- <sup>3</sup> To all those in Jerusalem who mourn,
 he will give flower necklaces to wear;
 instead of ashes that they put on their heads to show that they are sad; he will cause them to rejoice [MTY] instead of being sad; he will enable them to be [MET] happy instead of being discouraged.
 They will be called "people who continually do what is right, people who are like tall/strong oak trees that Yahweh has planted" to show others that he is very great.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who return from Babylon will rebuild the cities that the soldiers from Babylon tore down.
Even though those cities have been destroyed and abandoned for many years, they will be restored/rebuilt.
- <sup>5</sup> Foreigners will be the ones who will take care of your flocks of sheep and goats, and plow your fields and take care of your grapevines.
- <sup>6</sup> But you are the ones who will be like the priests to serve Yahweh, to work for God.
 You will enjoy valuable goods that are brought from other nations, and you will be happy that those things have become yours.
- <sup>7</sup> Previously you were shamed and disgraced, but now you will have great blessings;
 previously your enemies humbled you, but now you will have many good things;
 you will be happy because of being in your land again,
 and you will rejoice forever.
- <sup>8</sup> "I, Yahweh, am very pleased with those/judges who decide matters fairly;
 I hate those who illegally take things from other people.
 I will surely repay my people ◀for/because of▶ all that they have suffered in the past.
 And I will make an everlasting agreement with them.
- <sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be honored by people of other nations [DOU].
 Everyone who sees them will know that they are a nation that I, Yahweh, have blessed."

- <sup>10</sup> I greatly rejoice because of what Yahweh has done!
 I am happy,
 because he has saved me and declared that I am righteous;
those blessings are like [MET] a robe that he has put on me.
 I am as happy as [SIM] a bridegroom in his wedding suit, or a bride wearing jewels.
- <sup>11</sup> Just as seeds sown in a garden sprout from the soil and grow [DOU], Yahweh our God will cause people of all nations to act righteously, with the result that they will praise him for doing that.

62

Isaiah's prayer for Jerusalem

- <sup>1</sup> Because I am very concerned about the people of Jerusalem [DOU],
 I will do something to help them.
 I will not stop praying for them until they are rescued/freed from their oppressors, until that becomes as apparent to everyone as the dawn every morning, until people can see it as clearly as [SIM] they see a torch shining brightly at night.
- <sup>2</sup> Some day the people of many nations will know that Yahweh has rescued you, his people.
 Their kings will see that your city is very great/glorious.
 And Yahweh [MTY] will give your city a new name.
- <sup>3</sup> It will be as though Yahweh will hold you up in his hands in order that everyone can see you.
 Under his authority [MTY], you will be like a glorious headband/turban worn by a king.
- <sup>4</sup> Your city will never again be called "the deserted/abandoned city" and your country will never again be called "the desolate land";
 it will be called "the land that Yahweh delights in",
 and it will also be called "married to Yahweh".
 It will be called that because Yahweh will be delighted with you, and it will be as though you are his bride [MET].
- <sup>5</sup> You people will live in all the country of Judah like [SIM] a young man lives with his bride.
 And our God will be happy that you belong to him like [SIM] a bridegroom is happy that his bride belongs to him.
- <sup>6</sup> You people of Jerusalem, I have placed watchmen on your walls;
 they will [LIT] earnestly pray to Yahweh day and night.
 You watchmen, you must not stop praying and reminding Yahweh about what he has promised to do!
- <sup>7</sup> And tell Yahweh that he should not rest until he causes Jerusalem to be a city that is famous throughout the world.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh has raised his right hand to solemnly promise to the people of Jerusalem,
 "I will use my power [MTY] and never again allow your enemies to defeat you;
soldiers from other nations will never come again to take away your grain and the wine that you worked hard to produce."
- <sup>9</sup> You yourselves grew the grain, and you will be the ones who will praise me, Yahweh, while you eat the bread made from that grain.

 Inside the courtyards of my temple you yourselves will drink the wine made from the grapes that you harvested.”

<sup>10</sup> Go out through the city gates!
 Prepare the highway on which people will return from other countries!
 Cause the road to become smooth;
 clear off all the stones;
 set up signal flags to help the people-groups to see where the road to Jerusalem is.

<sup>11</sup> This is the message that Yahweh has sent to the people of every nation:
 “Tell the people of Israel, ‘The one who will rescue/save you is coming!
 Look! He will be bringing to you ◀your reward/what you deserve for the good things that you have done▶;

those whom he is setting free will be going ahead of him.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> They will be called “Yahweh’s own people, the ones whom he rescued”.
 And Jerusalem will be known as the city that Yahweh loves, the city that is no longer abandoned.

63

Yahweh’s punishment on the nations

<sup>1</sup> I ask, “Who is this who is coming from Bozrah city in Edom, whose clothes are stained red from blood?
 Who is this who is wearing beautiful robes?”
 He replies, “It is I, Yahweh, declaring that I have defeated your enemies, and I am able to rescue you!”

<sup>2</sup> I ask him, “What are those red spots on your clothes?
 It appears that [SIM] you have been treading/tramping on grapes to make wine.”

<sup>3</sup> He replies, “I have been treading on my enemies, not on grapes.
 I did it myself; no one helped me.

I punished them because I was very angry with them, and my clothes became stained with their blood.

<sup>4</sup> I did that because it was time for me [SYN] to get revenge;
 it was time to rescue my people from those who had oppressed them.

<sup>5</sup> I searched for someone who would enable me to help my people, but I was amazed/shocked that there was no one to help me.

So I defeated their enemies with my own power/strength [MTY];
 I was able [PRS] to do that because of my being very angry.

<sup>6</sup> Because I was extremely angry, I punished the nations;
 I caused them to stagger like [MET] drunk men, and I caused their blood to pour out on the ground.”

Yahweh’s kindness to his people

<sup>7</sup> I will tell about Yahweh faithfully loving his people, and I will praise him for all that he has done.
 Yahweh has done good things for us people [MTY] of Israel;
 he has acted mercifully toward us,

and he has steadfastly and faithfully loved us.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh said, "These are my people;
they will not deceive me;"

so he rescued us.

<sup>9</sup> When we had many troubles, he was sad also.

He sent his angel to rescue us.

Because he loved us and was merciful to us,
he saved us;

it was as though he picked our ancestors up and carried them all those years during which they were oppressed in Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> But we rebelled against him, and we caused his Holy Spirit to be sad.

So he became like [MET] an enemy who fought against us.

<sup>11</sup> Then we thought about what happened long ago, during the time when Moses led our ancestors out of Egypt.

We cried out, "Where is the one who brought our ancestors through the Red Sea while Moses led them?"

Where is the one who sent his Holy Spirit to be among our ancestors?

<sup>12</sup> Where is the one who showed his glorious power [MTY], and caused the water to separate when Moses lifted his arm above it, with the result that he will be honored/praised forever?

<sup>13</sup> Where is the one who led our ancestors while they walked through the sea bed?
They were like [SIM] horses that were racing along and never stumbled.

<sup>14</sup> They were like [SIM] cattle that walk down into a valley to rest, and the Spirit of Yahweh enabled them to go to a place where they could rest.

Yahweh, you led your people, and you caused yourself [MTY] to ◀get a wonderful reputation/be greatly honored▶."

A prayer for God's mercy and pardon

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh, look down from heaven;
look down on us from your holy and glorious home.

You were [RHQ] previously very concerned about us, and you acted powerfully to help us.

But it seems that you do not act mercifully and zealously for us any more.

<sup>16</sup> You are our father.
Abraham does not know what is happening to us, and Jacob is not concerned about us, either, but Yahweh, you are our father;

you rescued us long ago.

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh, why did you cause us to wander away from your road [RHQ]?

Why did you cause us to be stubborn, with the result that we no longer revere you [RHQ]?

Help us like you did previously, because we are the people who serve you and belong to you.

<sup>18</sup> We, your holy people, possessed your sacred temple for only a short time, and now our enemies have destroyed it.

<sup>19</sup> Now it seems as though we never were ruled by you, as though we were never part of your family [MTY].

64

- <sup>1</sup> “Yahweh, I wish that you would tear open the sky and come down, and cause the mountains to shake in your presence.
- <sup>2</sup> Be like a fire that burns twigs and causes water to boil!
Come down in order that your enemies will know who you are,
and the people of other nations will tremble in your presence.
- <sup>3</sup> You have done awesome things which we were not expecting you to do;
the mountains shook when you came down at Horeb Mountain.
- <sup>4</sup> Since ◀long ago/the world began▶, no one [SYN] has ever seen or heard about a God like you;
you help those who ▶depend on/trust in▶ you.
- <sup>5</sup> You help those who joyfully do what is right, those who conduct their lives as you want them to.
But we did not do that; we continued to sin,
and so you became angry with us.
We have been sinning for a long time, so only if we continually do what you want us to do will we be saved.
- <sup>6</sup> We have all become people who are not fit to worship you;
all of the good things that we have done are only like [SIM] filthy/blood-stained rags.
Because of our sins, we are like [SIM] leaves that dry up and are blown away by the wind.
- <sup>7</sup> None of our people worships you,
and no one is completely dedicated to [IDM] you.
You have turned away from us.
It is as though you have caused us to be forced to continue our sinful behavior.
- <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, you are our father.
We are like [MET] clay, and you created us, like [MET] a potter creates pottery.
- <sup>9</sup> Yahweh, do not continue to be angry with us;
do not keep thinking about our sins forever.
Do not forget that we are all your people.
- <sup>10</sup> All of your towns in Judah have become like [MET] deserts;
even Jerusalem has been destroyed.
- <sup>11</sup> Your glorious temple on Zion Hill, where our ancestors worshiped you, has been destroyed by fire.
And all our other beautiful things have been ruined.
- <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, you see all those things, so we worry that you will refrain from helping us, and that you will cause us to suffer much more.

65

God's punishment of the rebellious Israelis

- <sup>1</sup> This is what Yahweh said: “I was ready to reply to my people, but no one requested me to help them.
I was ready to help even those who did not call out to me.
I continued to say, ‘I am here to help you!’

- <sup>2</sup> It is as though I have continually held out my arms to show that I am ready to help my people who rebel against me, and who continually do the evil things that they want to do.
- <sup>3</sup> They boldly continue to do things that cause me to be angry:
They offer sacrifices to their idols in their gardens, and they burn incense to them on altars made of bricks.
- <sup>4</sup> They secretly remain awake at night in burial caves, talking with the spirits of ◀dead people/their ancestors▶.
They eat the meat of pigs, and their pots are full of other meat that is also unacceptable to me.
- <sup>5</sup> Then they say to others,
'Stay away from me; do not come near me, because I am very holy,
with the result that you should not touch me.'
People like that are like [MET] smoke in my nose from a fire that burns continually.
- <sup>6</sup> I have written a record of all the evil things that they have done.
And I will not do nothing about all those things;
I will certainly punish them
<sup>7</sup> for the sins that they and their ancestors have committed.
They have mocked/insulted me by burning incense to their idols on the hilltops.
So I will punish them like they deserve for doing those things."
- <sup>8</sup> This is also what Yahweh said:
"When there is a cluster of nice grapes on a vine, people do not throw them away, because they know that there is good juice in those grapes.
Similarly, because there are some people in Judah who faithfully serve/worship me,
I will not get rid of all of them.
- <sup>9</sup> I will spare some of the descendants of Jacob who are living on the hills of Judah.
I have chosen them, and they will possess that land;
they will worship/serve me, and they will live there.
- <sup>10</sup> Then all the land from the Sharon Plain near the Mediterranean Sea and as far east
as Achor Valley near Jericho will become pastureland where their cattle and sheep will rest.
- <sup>11</sup> But it will be different for you who have abandoned me, you who do not worship me on Zion, my sacred hill, you who worship Gad and Meni, the gods who you think will bring you good luck and good fortune.
- <sup>12</sup> It is I, not Meni, who will decide/say what will happen to you;
you will all be slaughtered by swords.
That will happen because you did not answer
when I called out to you.
I spoke to you,
but you did not pay attention.
Instead, you did things that I said are evil;
you chose to do things that do not please me.
- <sup>13</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, will give to those who worship and obey me things to eat and drink,

and they will be happy;
but all you evil people will be hungry and thirsty,
and you will be sad and disgraced.

14 Those who worship and obey me will sing joyfully, but you evil people will wail loudly because you will be suffering in your inner beings.

15 Those whom I have chosen will use your names when they curse people;
I, Yahweh the Lord, will get rid of you.

But I will give to those who worship and obey me a new name that they will use when they bless people.

16 The people in this land have had many troubles, but I will cause those troubles to occur no more.
Therefore those who ask me to bless them and those who solemnly promise to do something should never forget that I am God, who faithfully do what I promise to do."

Yahweh's new creation

17 "Note this: Some day I will create a new heaven and a new earth.
They will be very wonderful, with the result that you will no longer think about all the troubles you had previously.

18 Be glad and always rejoice because of what I will do:
Jerusalem will be a place where people rejoice;
the people who live there will always be happy.

19 I will rejoice about Jerusalem, and I will be delighted with my people.
People will no longer weep or cry because of being distressed.

20 No child will die when it is still an infant;
all people will live until they are very old.
*People will consider that anyone who is 100 years old is still young;
they will consider that anyone who dies who is younger than that has been cursed.*

21 My people will build houses and then live in them.
They will plant vineyards and then eat grapes from those vineyards.

22 As for the houses that they build, no one will take those houses away from them and live in them.

No one will take a vineyard away from its owner.
My chosen people will live a long time, like trees do, and they will enjoy what they have accomplished—
the houses that they have built and the crops that they have planted.

23 They will not work hard in vain, and their children will not die from some ◀calamity/terrible thing happening to them▶.

I will certainly bless their children and their grandchildren.

24 Before they call to me to help them, I will answer;
I will answer their prayers while they are still praying for me to do something for them.

25 No one will be harmed or injured anywhere on Zion, my sacred hill:
Wolves and lambs will eat grass together peacefully;
lions will eat hay like oxen do, and they will not attack people.
Snakes will not hurt anyone; they will lie on the ground and eat only dirt.
That is surely what it will be like because I, Yahweh, have said it."

66

Yahweh will judge all the nations

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh also said this:

“All of heaven is like my throne,
and the whole earth is like my footstool.
So you could certainly not [RHQ] build a house that would be adequate for me to live in and rest!

<sup>2</sup> I [MTY] have created everything;
all things exist because I made them.

That is true because I, Yahweh, have said it.

The people I am most pleased with are those who are humble, who patiently endure it when they ◀suffer/are afflicted▶, and who tremble when they hear me rebuking them.

<sup>3</sup> You have enjoyed continually doing the things that you want to do:

Some of you slaughter oxen to sacrifice them to me, but you also bring human sacrifices to your idols!

You sacrifice lambs to me, but you kill dogs to offer them to your gods.

You offer grain to me,
but you also bring pigs' blood to your idols.

You burn incense to me,
but you also praise your idols.

You enjoy doing those disgusting things.

<sup>4</sup> When I called out to you,
you did not answer.

When I spoke, you did not pay attention.

You did many things that I say are evil;
you chose to do things that I did not like.

So now I will punish you by causing you to experience the things that you are very afraid of.”

Yahweh will help the people of Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup> But you people who tremble when you hear what Yahweh says, listen to what he says now:

“Some of your people hate you and reject you because you belong to me.

They make fun of you, and they say, ‘Yahweh should show his glorious power!

We want to see him do something to cause you to be truly happy.’

But some day those people will be very disgraced.”

<sup>6</sup> At that time, you will listen to the noise in the city.

You will hear the shouting in the temple.

It will be the sound of Yahweh shouting while he is punishing his enemies!

<sup>7</sup> No one [RHQ] ever heard that a woman gave birth to a baby when she was just starting to have birth pains.

<sup>8</sup> Certainly no one [RHQ] ever heard about such a thing happening, and no one has ever seen it happen.

Similarly, no one ever [RHQ] heard that a nation was created in one instant, not even in one day.

But Jerusalem is like [MET] a woman who gives birth to children as soon as she starts to have birth pains.

<sup>9</sup> Women certainly do not [RHQ] bring infants to the time when they are ready to be born and then do not allow them to be born.

*Similarly, he will do for Jerusalem [MET] what he has promised to do:
He will cause Jerusalem to be full of people again.*

That will happen because Yahweh has said it.

<sup>10</sup> You people in [APO] Jerusalem, rejoice!

And all you people who love Jerusalem should also be happy.

You people who were sad because of what happened to Jerusalem, you should now be glad.

<sup>11</sup> You people in Jerusalem will have everything that you need like [MET] a baby that gets all it needs from its mother's breasts.

You will enjoy all the abundant and glorious things [MET] in the city.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh has promised,

"I will cause Jerusalem to be full of valuable things that come from other nations;
those things will pour into Jerusalem; it will be like [SIM] a big flood.

I will take care of the people of Jerusalem like women care for the babies that they nurse.

<sup>14</sup> When you see those things happen, you [SYN] will rejoice.

Your old bones will become strong again like [SIM] grass that grows quickly/well in the springtime.

When that happens, everyone will know that Yahweh has power [MTY] to help those who worship and obey him, but that he is angry with his enemies.

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh will come down with flames of fire, and his chariots will come down like [SIM] a whirlwind;

he will be extremely angry, and he will punish his enemies by burning them in a fire.

<sup>16</sup> It is as though [MET] Yahweh has a big sword, and he will judge and execute many people.

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh says, "Some of you people purify/bathe yourselves and then go to a garden to worship your gods. You eat the meat of pigs and lizards and mice, and other things that I have forbidden you to eat. So I will get rid of you for doing that."

<sup>18</sup> I know all the evil things that you think and do. It is now time for me to gather together the people who live in all nations and who speak all languages, and to show them that I am very great.

<sup>19</sup> I will put a mark on them, and those whom I have spared will go to various distant countries: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Meshech, Tubal, Javan, and to distant islands. I will send them to proclaim to nations that have never heard about me that I am very great and glorious. <sup>20</sup> Then they will bring back here your relatives who have been ◀exiled/forced to go to other countries▶, to be like [SIM] an offering to me. They will come on horses, in chariots, on mules, and on camels. They will come to Zion, my sacred hill in Jerusalem. That will be like [SIM] the offerings that my Israeli people used to bring in the correct manner to the temple. <sup>21</sup> I solemnly promise that I will appoint some of them to be priests, and others to do other work in my temple. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.

<sup>22</sup> I also promise that just like the new heaven and the new earth will last forever, you will always have descendants, and you [MTY] will always be honored. <sup>23</sup> At every festival to celebrate the Sabbath each week and the new moon each month, everyone will come and worship me. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it. <sup>24</sup> Then they will go out of Jerusalem and look at the corpses of those who rebelled against me. The maggots in those corpses will never die, the fire will never stop burning them, and everyone who sees their corpses will detest them.”

This book is the account of Jeremiah foretelling about God punishing the Israeli people because they rejected him and would not repent. We call this book Jeremiah

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> I, Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, am writing these messages. I am a priest, from Anathoth town in the area where the tribe of Benjamin lives. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh started to give me these messages when Josiah had been ruling Judah for almost 13 years. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh continued to give me more messages when Josiah's son Jehoiakim was the king, and he continued to do that until Zedekiah had been the king of Judah for almost eleven years. It was in August of that year that the people of Jerusalem were ◀exiled/taken as prisoners▶ to Babylon.

Yahweh chose Jeremiah to be his prophet

<sup>5</sup> "I knew you before I finished forming you in your mother's womb. Before you were born, I ◀set you apart/chose you▶ and I appointed you to be my prophet whose messages would be for all nations."

<sup>6</sup> I replied, "O, Yahweh my God, I am not qualified to speak for you, because I am very young!"

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh replied, "Do not say that, because you must go to everyone to whom I will send you, and you must tell them everything that I tell you to say. <sup>8</sup> And you must not be afraid of the people to whom you will speak, because I will protect you from being harmed by them. This will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it!"

<sup>9</sup> Then it was as though Yahweh touched my mouth and said, "Listen to me! I am ◀putting my message into your mouth/telling you what you must speak▶. <sup>10</sup> Today I am appointing you to warn nations and kingdoms. You will tell them that I will completely destroy and get rid of [DOU] some of them and that I will establish [MET] others and cause them to be strong."

I replied, "I see a branch from an almond tree."

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh said, "That is correct. And because the word for 'almond' resembles the word for 'watching', it means that I am watching what will happen, and I will make certain that what I have said to you about destroying nations will happen."

<sup>13</sup> Then Yahweh spoke to me again and said, "What do you see now?"

I replied, "I see a pot full of boiling water [MTY]. It is tipping toward me from the north."

I am summoning the armies of kingdoms that will come from the north of Judah to Jerusalem.

Their kings will set up their thrones at the gates of this city to indicate that they are now the kings of Judah.

Their armies will attack and break down the walls of this city, and they will do the same thing to all the other towns in Judah.

<sup>16</sup> I will punish [MTY] my people because of all the evil things that they have done; they have abandoned me and they worship gods/idols.

They worship idols that they have made with their own hands!

<sup>17</sup> So, get up and put on your clothes to get ready for action! Then go to the people of Judah and tell them everything that I tell you to say. Do not be afraid of them, because if you are afraid of them, I will cause you to be truly terrified in front of them! <sup>18</sup> But listen! I will cause you to be strong, like [MET] a city that has strong walls around it. You will be as strong as [MET] an iron pillar or a bronze wall. None of the kings or officials or priests will be able to defeat you. <sup>19</sup> They will oppose you, but they will not be able to defeat you, because I will be with you and will protect you. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it!"

2

The Israelis sinned in spite of God's care for them

<sup>2</sup> to proclaim to everyone in Jerusalem. He said that I should tell them this [MET]:
"I, Yahweh, remember that you very much wanted to please me long ago.

You tried to please me like a bride tries to please her husband;

You loved me,

and you followed me through the desert [DOU].

<sup>3</sup> At that time you Israelis ◀were set apart/belonged only▶ to me;

you belonged to me like the first part of the harvests belong to me [MET].

I promised to punish all those who harmed you, my people, and truly I did send disasters on them.

That happened because I, Yahweh, said that it would happen."

<sup>4</sup> So, you descendants of [MTY] Jacob, all you people of [MTY] Israel,

"◀What sin did I commit [RHQ] that caused your ancestors to turn far away from me?/Though your ancestors found no fault in me, they turned far away from me.▶

They worshiped worthless idols, and they themselves became worthless.

<sup>6</sup> They did not say, 'Yahweh brought us safely out of Egypt, and he led us through a desert where there were a lot of pits;

he led us where there was no water and where it was very dangerous, through a land where no one lives, and no one even travels.

◀So where is Yahweh now?/So he should be helping us now!▶ [RHQ]'

<sup>7</sup> And when I brought you into a very fertile land, in order that you could enjoy all the fruit and other good things that you would harvest, you caused the land that I promised to give to you to be unfit for me and to become disgusting/detestable to me.

<sup>8</sup> Your priests also did not say,

'◀Where is Yahweh now?/Yahweh should be helping us now!▶' [RHQ]

Those who teach/explain my laws do not want to know me, and your leaders have rebelled against me.

Your prophets gave you messages from their god Baal,
and they worship worthless idols.”

Yahweh accused the Israeli people

<sup>9</sup> “So, I will accuse you in court.

In future years, I will say what your children and your grandchildren have done that is wrong.

That will happen because I, Yahweh, have said that it will happen.

<sup>10</sup> If you go west to the island of Cyprus, or if you go east to Kedar land,
and if you ask people in those places, they will tell you that no people from their countries have ever done the wicked things that you people have done!

<sup>11</sup> The people of no other nation have ever [RHQ] abandoned their gods that they thought were glorious and started to worship gods that are not really gods, but you people have abandoned me, your glorious God,
and are worshiping gods that are useless.

<sup>12</sup> It is as though everything in the sky is surprised and dismayed/appalled about what you have done;
it is as though they tremble because they are very horrified.

<sup>13</sup> You, my people, have done two evil things:

You have rejected me, the one who is like [MET] a fountain where you can obtain fresh water, and you are worshiping gods that are like [MET] pits in the ground that are cracked and which are not able to hold any water.

<sup>14</sup> You Israeli people, you were certainly not [RHQ] slaves when you were born; you were captured by your enemies.

Now your towns have been burned, and no one lives in them.

<sup>16</sup> Soldiers from Memphis and Tahpenes, cities in Egypt, have defeated you and shaved your heads to show that you are their slaves.

<sup>17</sup> But it is [RHQ] because you abandoned me, Yahweh, that these disasters have happened to you.

<sup>18</sup> So ◀why are you trying to make an alliance with [MET] the rulers of Egypt?/it certainly will not help you to make an alliance with the rulers of Egypt▶ [RHQ]. Why are you trying to make an alliance with [MET] the rulers of Assyria who live near the Euphrates River?

<sup>19</sup> It is because you have been very wicked that I [PRS] will punish you.

It is because you have turned away from me that I [PRS] will condemn you.

When I do that, you will realize that painful and evil [DOU] things will happen to you because you have forsaken me, Yahweh, your God, and you no longer revere me.

That will certainly happen because I, Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels in heaven, have said it.

<sup>20</sup> Long ago, you stopped obeying me [MET], and you would not allow me to lead you [MET];

you refused to worship me.

Instead, you worship idols that are under trees on the top of every hill, and your young women have sex with [EUP] men at those places.

<sup>21</sup> It is as though [MET] you were a grapevine that I planted when it was a cutting from a very good vine.

So now it is disgusting that [RHQ] you have become like a rotten worthless vine.

<sup>22</sup> Your guilt from your sins is like [MET] very bad stains on a cloth, and you cannot get rid of those stains even by using very strong soap.

This is true because I, Yahweh, have said it.

<sup>23</sup> You say that you have not sinned.

You say 'We have not become unacceptable to God; we have not worshiped Baal.'

But think about the disgusting things that you do very eagerly in Hinnom Valley outside Jerusalem.

You are like desperate female camels, running here and there to find male camels to have sex with.

They sniff the air to find where the male donkeys are, and no one can [RHQ] restrain them.

The male donkeys that want them do not become tired searching for them, because at mating time they find them easily.

<sup>25</sup> You constantly run here and there to find idols to worship, with the result that your sandals are worn out, and your throats have become dry.

I told you to stop doing that, but you said, 'We cannot stop, because we love foreign gods, and we must worship them.' "

<sup>26</sup> Yahweh says this:

"A robber is disgraced when he is caught.

And all of you, including your kings and priests and prophets, are similarly disgraced.

<sup>27</sup> You say to a piece of wood that is carved to become a sacred idol, 'You are our father!'

And you say to a stone that you have set up, 'You are our mother!'

You have rejected [IDM] me, but when you experience troubles, you cry out to me to rescue you.

<sup>28</sup> Why do you not [RHQ] cry out to the gods that you made?

You have as many gods as you have cities and towns in Judah.

So why do you not plead with them to rescue you when you experience disasters?

<sup>29</sup> You complain that it was wrong for me not to have rescued you, but you have all rebelled against me.

<sup>30</sup> I punished some of you, but you did not learn anything from my doing that.

You have killed many of the prophets that I sent to you, like [SIM] fierce lions kill other animals.

- <sup>31</sup> You people of Israel, pay attention to what I say.
I have certainly [RHQ] never abandoned you in a desert;
I have never left you in a land full of darkness.
So, why do you, my people, say 'We are free from God's control;
we will not return to worship God any more'?
- <sup>32</sup> A young woman would certainly never [RHQ] forget to wear her jewelry, and a bride would never [RHQ] forget to wear her wedding dress, but you my people have forgotten me for many years.
- <sup>33</sup> You know how to easily find gods from other countries whom you can love.
You can find them as easily as a prostitute can find men to sleep with.
- <sup>34</sup> Although you have on your clothes the blood of poor people whom you have murdered,
people who ◀were innocent/had not done things that are wrong▶,
- <sup>35</sup> you say 'We have not done anything that is wrong;
so surely Yahweh is not angry with us.'
But I will punish [MTY] you severely for saying 'We have not sinned.'
- <sup>36</sup> Previously you requested the army of Assyria to help you, but they were not able to help you.
Now you have requested the army of Egypt to help you, but they will not be able to help you, either.
- <sup>37</sup> They will capture you, and you will be their prisoners [MTY], led to Egypt, very ashamed with your hands on your heads.
That will happen because I, Yahweh, have rejected those nations that you are relying on,
and they will not be able to help you at all."

3

- <sup>1</sup> "Moses wrote that if a man divorces his wife and then she marries another man, her first husband certainly must not [RHQ] take her back again to be his wife, because that would certainly [RHQ] cause the whole nation to become unacceptable to me.
But you have more idols than prostitutes have men whom they have slept with!
So, why should I accept you if you return to me?" [RHQ] says Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup> "Look up at the barren hilltops.
On every hilltop there are [RHQ] idols that you have worshiped.
It is as though they are all lovers with whom you have had sex.
It is as though you have sat along the roadsides like an Arab, waiting to attack and steal things from those who pass by.
Because of worshiping idols and all the other wicked things that you have done, you have caused the entire land to become unacceptable to me.
- <sup>3</sup> That is why I have not sent you any rain at the times of the year when you needed
it.
But you are like prostitutes [MET] who are not at all ashamed for what they have done.
- <sup>4</sup> Now each of you says to me, 'You are my father!
You have loved me ever since I was young!
- <sup>5</sup> So surely you will not [RHQ] be angry with me forever!
But you will not quit sinning!"

Israel's idolatry

<sup>6</sup> One day when Josiah was the king of Judah, Yahweh said to me, “Have you seen what the people of Israel have done? They have turned away from me, like a woman who has abandoned her husband and sleeps with other men. They have gone up on every hilltop and under every big tree and worshiped idols there [MET]. <sup>7</sup> I thought that they would return to me, so I said to them, ‘Come back to me!’ But they refused. So I sent them away to other countries, like a man writes a note saying that he is divorcing his wife and then sends his wife away because she has committed adultery [MET]. <sup>8</sup> The people of Judah saw what I did to them. But they are just like the people of Israel. They are not afraid of what I will do to them. They also have turned away from me and are worshiping idols like women who abandon their husbands and go to other men [MET]. <sup>9</sup> They thought that worshiping idols did not matter to me, so they have made the entire land unacceptable to me by worshiping idols of wood and stone. <sup>10</sup> The people of Judah have pretended to return to me, but they have not really done that. This is true because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “The people of Israel have turned away from me, but what the people of Judah have done is worse. <sup>12</sup> So go and tell this to the people of Israel:

‘Yahweh says this to you Israeli people who have turned away from him:
I am merciful.

I will not continue to be angry with you forever.

So return to me.

<sup>13</sup> But you must admit/say that you are guilty, and that you have rebelled against me, Yahweh, your God, that you have worshiped idols under big trees everywhere, and you have not obeyed me.

You have turned away from me.

<sup>14</sup> But you belong to me.

So I will take you, one from each city and two from each clan, and bring you back to Jerusalem
from the countries to which you were exiled.

<sup>15</sup> If you do that, I will appoint for you leaders with whom I am pleased, leaders who will guide you well because they will know and understand what pleases me.

<sup>16</sup> And when you become very numerous [DOU] in your land, you will not need to talk about the Sacred Chest that contained the Ten Commandments.

You will not think about it, and you will not want to make a new one.

<sup>17</sup> At that time people will say, “Jerusalem is the place where Yahweh’s throne is.”
People from all nations will come there to worship me.

And they will no longer stubbornly do the evil things that they desire.

<sup>18</sup> At that time you people [MTY] of Israel and the people of Judah will return from being ◀exiled/forced to live▶ in lands to the northeast.

You will return to the land that I gave to your ancestors to belong to them forever.

<sup>19</sup> You people of Israel, I wanted to accept you to be my children.

I wanted to give you this delightful land.

It is a land more desirable/pleasant than the land of any other nation!

I wanted you to call me ‘father’, and I wanted you to never turn away from me.

<sup>20</sup> But you have abandoned me like wives who have abandoned their husbands.’ ”
That is what Yahweh said, and I told it to the people of Israel.

- 21 People will hear a noise on the barren hilltops.
It will be the noise made by people weeping and pleading for God to be merciful to them.
They will be admitting/saying that they have forgotten Yahweh their God, and that they turned away from behaving as God wanted them to.
- 22 Yahweh will say to them, "You Israeli people, come back to me!
If you do that, I will cause you to never turn away from me again."
- The people will reply*, "We are returning to you, because you are Yahweh, our God.
- 23 We did not get any help from the idols that we worshiped on the hilltops;
we did not get any help from making all that noise up there.
- 24 From the time when we were young, the shameful god Baal has taken away from us everything that our ancestors worked hard to acquire.
He has taken away their flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, their sons and their daughters.
- 25 So, now we should lie down feeling very ashamed [DOU], because we and our ancestors have sinned against Yahweh our God, and we have never obeyed him."

4

What Yahweh says about returning to him

- 1 Yahweh says, "You Israeli people, come back to me!
If you get rid of those detestable idols and do not turn away from me again,
- 2 and if you declare, 'Just as surely as Yahweh lives, what he says is true,' and if you start to always say what is true and act justly/fairly and righteously, then the people in the other nations of the world will request that I bless them as I have blessed you, and they will all come and honor/praise me."
- 3 This is what Yahweh says to the people of Jerusalem and the other cities in Judah:
"Prepare yourselves to receive my messages like farmers plow up hard ground in order that they can plant seed in it.
Just as farmers do not waste good seed by sowing seeds among thorny plants,
I do not want to waste my time telling you messages that you are not ready to receive.
- 4 Purify your inner beings and your minds for me.
If you do not do that, my being angry with you [MTY] because of all the sins that you have committed will be like a fire that will be impossible to extinguish."
- Disaster from the north*
- 5 "Declare this [DOU] to all the people in Jerusalem and the rest of Judea; blow the trumpets everywhere in the land to warn the people.
Tell them that they should flee to the cities that have high walls around them.
- 6 Shout to the people of Jerusalem,
'Run away now! Do not delay, because I am about to cause you to experience a terrible disaster [DOU] that will come from the north.

<sup>7</sup> An army that has destroyed many nations will attack you like [MET] a lion that comes out of its den to attack other animals.

The soldiers of that army have taken down their tents and they are ready to march toward your land.

They will destroy your cities and leave them without any people still living in them.'

<sup>8</sup> So, put on sackcloth/rough clothes and weep and beat your chests to show that you are very sorry for what you have done, because Yahweh is still very angry with us.

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh said that at the time he punishes you, the King of Judah and all his officials will be very afraid.

The priests and the prophets will be terrified.

<sup>10</sup> Then I replied, "Yahweh my God, you completely deceived the people by telling them that there would be peace in Jerusalem, but now our enemies [PRS] are ready to slaughter us with their swords!"

<sup>11</sup> When that happens, Yahweh will say to the people of Jerusalem, "A huge army will come to attack you.

They will not be like a gentle breeze that separates wheat from chaff.

They will be like a very hot wind that blows in from the desert [MET].

<sup>12</sup> They will be like [MET] a strong blast that I will send. Now I am declaring that I will punish/destroy you."

It will be terrible for us!

<sup>14</sup> You people of Jerusalem [APO], purify your hearts/inner beings, in order that Yahweh will rescue you.

How long will you continue to think about doing evil things?

<sup>16</sup> Tell this to the people in other nations but also announce it in Jerusalem:

Yahweh says, "An army is coming to Jerusalem from far away; they will shout a battle-cry against the cities in Judah.

<sup>17</sup> They will set up tents around Jerusalem like people set up temporary shelters [SIM] around a field at harvest time.

That will happen because the people of Judah have rebelled against me.

<sup>18</sup> You will be punished very severely; it will be as though a sword has stabbed your inner beings.

But you are causing those things to happen to you because of the evil things that you have done."

<sup>19</sup> I am extremely anguished/sad; the pain in my inner being is very severe. My heart beats wildly.

But I cannot remain silent because I have heard our enemies blowing their trumpets to announce that the battle against Judah will start immediately.

- <sup>20</sup> Disasters will occur one after another until the whole land is ruined.
Suddenly all our tents will be destroyed;
even the curtains inside the tents will be ripped apart.
- <sup>21</sup> How long will this battle continue?
How long will I continue to see the enemy battle flags and hear the sound of their trumpets being blown?

- <sup>22</sup> Yahweh says, "My people are very foolish!
They do not have a relationship with me.
They are like [MET] stupid children who do not understand anything.
They very cleverly do what is wrong, but they do not know how to do what is good."

Jeremiah's vision of the coming disaster

- <sup>23</sup> God gave me a vision in which I saw that the earth was barren and without form.
I looked at the sky,
and there was no light there.
- <sup>24</sup> I looked at the mountains and hills, and they shook and moved from side to side.
- <sup>25</sup> I looked and saw that there were no more people, and all the birds had flown away.
- <sup>26</sup> I looked and saw that the fields that previously were fertile had become a desert.
The cities were all ruined;
they had all been destroyed by Yahweh because he was extremely angry.

The coming destruction of Jerusalem/Judah

- <sup>27</sup> This is what Yahweh is saying:
"The entire land of Judah will be ruined, but I will not destroy it completely.
- <sup>28</sup> I will do to my people what I said that I would do, and I will not change my mind.
So when that happens, it will be as though the earth will mourn and the sky will become very dark."
- <sup>29</sup> When the people hear the sound of the enemy army marching,
they will be terrified as they flee from their cities.
Some of them will find places to hide in the bushes, and others will run toward the mountains/hills to escape being killed by their enemies.
All the cities in Judah will be abandoned;
not one person will remain in them.
- <sup>30</sup> So you who will surely be destroyed,
why are you doing the things that you are doing now?
Why are you wearing beautiful clothes and jewelry?
Why are you putting paint around your eyes?
Doing those things will not help you, because the people in other countries that you think love you actually despise you, and they will try to kill you.

<sup>31</sup> It is as though I already hear the people in Jerusalem crying very loudly, like [SIM] a woman cries when she is giving birth to her first child;

she gasps for breath and pleads for someone to help her.

It is as though Jerusalem is crying, "Something terrible is happening to me! They are about to murder me!"

5

No one in Judah is honest

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to the people of Jerusalem, "Go up and down every street. Search in the marketplaces to find people who do what is fair/right, who try to be faithful to me.

If you find even one person like that,

I will forgive the people of Jerusalem and not destroy their city.

<sup>2</sup> But when people there say, 'I solemnly declare that as surely as Yahweh lives, I will do what he says,' they are lying."

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh, you are certainly [RHQ] searching for people who tell the truth.

You struck/punished your people, but they did not pay any attention.

You crushed them, but they ignored what you were telling them to do.

They were extremely stubborn [IDM] and refused to return to you.

<sup>4</sup> I thought, "We cannot expect these people to act righteously, because they are poor; they do not have any sense.

They do not know the way Yahweh wants them to conduct their lives; they do not know what God requires them to do.

<sup>5</sup> So, I will go and talk to their leaders, because they surely know how God wants them to conduct their lives."

But they also have stopped obeying Yahweh [MET], and they will not allow him to lead them.

<sup>6</sup> Because of that, lions will come out of the forests and kill them; wolves from the desert will attack them; leopards that lurk/wait outside their cities will maul anyone who walks outside the cities.

Those things will happen because the people have sinned very much against God and have turned away from him very frequently.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh says, "I cannot [RHQ] forgive these people; even their children have abandoned me.

When they solemnly declare something, they ask their gods to show that what they say is true.

I gave my people everything that they needed, but they often went to the shrines of their idols and committed adultery there.

<sup>9</sup> ◀Should I not punish them for this [RHQ]?/I will certainly get revenge on this nation for this!▶

I will certainly get revenge [RHQ] on this nation whose people behave like that!

10 I will say to your enemies, 'The people of Judah and Israel are like a vineyard.

Go along the rows in their vineyards and get rid of most of the people, but do not kill all of them.

These people do not belong to me,

so get rid of them,

like a gardener [MET] lops/cuts off branches from a vine.

11 The people of Israel and Judah have turned away from me completely.'

12 They have lied about me and said,

'He will not punish us!

He will not cause us to experience disasters!

We will not experience wars or famines!

13 What God's prophets say is nothing but hot air!

They do not have messages from God!

We would like the disasters that they predict to happen to them!' "

14 So, this is what Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels in heaven, has said to me:

"Because my people are saying those things,

I will give you a message to tell them [MTY] that will be like [MET] a fire, and these people will be like [MET] wood that the fire will burn up.

15 Listen to this, you people of Israel:

I will bring the army of a distant nation to attack you.

It is a very powerful nation that has existed for a long time.

They speak a language that you do not know and which you will not be able to understand.

16 Their soldiers are all very strong, and the arrows from their quivers [MET] will ◀send many Israeli men to their graves/cause many Israeli people to die▶.

17 They will eat the food that you have harvested from your fields, and eat your bread.

They will kill your sons and daughters, and they will kill your flocks of sheep and herds of cattle.

They will eat your grapes and your figs.

They will also destroy your cities that have high walls around them and kill the people with their swords.

18 But even when those things happen, I will not get rid of all of you.

19 And when the survivors ask, 'Why is Yahweh our God doing this to us?'

you will tell them, 'You rejected him and worshiped foreign gods in your own land, so now you will become slaves of foreigners in a land that is not your land.' "

20 Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim this to the people of Israel and Judah:

21 Listen to this, you people who are foolish and who do not have any sense:

You have eyes, but it is as though you cannot see;

you have ears, but it is as though you cannot hear.

22 Why do you not revere me [RHQ]?

You should [RHQ] tremble when you are in my presence!

I, Yahweh, am the one who put a barrier along the shores so that the waters of the ocean cannot cross it and flood the land.

The waves roll and roar, but they cannot go past that barrier.

- 23 But you people are not like the waves that obey me.
You people are very stubborn and rebellious.
You have constantly turned away from me.
- 24 You do not say to yourselves,
'We should revere Yahweh our God, the one who sends us rain at the times when we need it, the one who causes the grain to become ripe at the harvest season.'
- 25 It is because of the wrong things that you have done, that those good things have not happened;
it is because of the sins that you have committed that you have been prevented from receiving those blessings.
- 26 Among my people are wicked people who hide along the roads to ambush/attack people like [SIM] men who hunt birds ◀put out nets/set traps▶ to catch them.
- 27 Like a hunter has a cage full of birds that he has captured, their homes are full of things that they have gotten by deceiving others.
So now they are very rich and powerful.
- 28 They are big and fat, and there is no limit to the evil things that they have done.
They do not try to defend orphans in the courtrooms, and they do not help poor people to get what they have a right to receive.
- 29 So I will certainly [RHQ] punish them for doing those things.
I will certainly [RHQ] ◀get revenge on their nation/do to their nation what they deserve▶.
- 30 Very appalling/horrible and terrible [DOU] things are happening in this country:
- 31 Prophets speak only lies and priests rule by their own authority, and you people like that!
But when you start to experience disasters, what will you do [RHQ]?"

6

Jeremiah warned the people of Jerusalem

- 1 "You people in Jerusalem who are from the tribe of Benjamin, flee from this city!
Blow the trumpets in Tekoa city south of Jerusalem!
Send up a smoke signal in Beth-Haccherem town
to warn the people of the coming danger!
A powerful army will come from the north,
and they will cause great destruction.
- 2 Jerusalem is like a beautiful pasture full of sheep, but it will soon be destroyed.
- 3 Enemy kings, not shepherds [MET], will come with their armies and set up their tents around the city, and each king will choose a part of the city for his soldiers to destroy like [MET] shepherds divide their pastures for their flocks of sheep.
- 4 The kings will tell their troops,
"Get ready for the battle."

We should attack them before noontime.
 But if we arrive there late in the afternoon when the shadows are becoming long, <sup>5</sup> we will attack them at night and tear down their fortresses.”

Yahweh predicts what will happen to Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup> Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels in heaven, says this:
 “I will command those soldiers to cut down the trees outside Jerusalem and to build dirt ramps up to the top of the city walls in order that they can enter the city.

This city must be punished because everyone there continually oppresses others.

<sup>7</sup> It is as though the wicked things that the people do pour out of the city like [SIM] water flows out of a spring.
 The noise from people doing violent and destructive actions is heard everywhere.
 I continually see people who are suffering and wounded.

<sup>8</sup> Listen to what I am warning you, you people of [APO] Jerusalem, because if you do not listen, I will reject you and cause your land to become desolate, a land where no one lives.”

<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels in heaven, also says this:
 “I will tell your enemies to cause your country to become as desolate [SIM] as a vineyard from which all the grapes have been completely stripped from the vines.
 Their soldiers will seize the possessions of those who remain in Israel after the others have been exiled like [SIM] farmers go to the vines again to pick any grapes that were ◀left/not picked▶.”

<sup>10</sup> Then I said, “If I speak to the Israeli people to warn them,
 ◀who will listen to me?/No one will listen to me.▶ [RHQ]
 It is as though their ears are closed, and as a result they cannot hear what I say.

They scorn Yahweh’s messages;
 they do not want to listen to them at all.

<sup>11</sup> So now I am extremely angry, like Yahweh is angry, and I cannot restrain it any longer.”

So Yahweh said to me, “Tell everyone that you are very angry with them.
 Tell the children in the streets and the young men who gather together.
 Tell the men and their wives;
 tell the very old people [DOU], also.

<sup>12</sup> Tell the men that I will give their houses to their enemies, and I will give their property/fields and their wives to them, also, when I punish [IDM] the people who live in this land.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone is trying to get money by tricking others, from the most important people to the least important people;
 even the prophets and the priests are trying to deceive people to get money.

14 They act as though the sins of my people are like [MET] small wounds that they do not need to put bandages on.

They continually greet people by saying 'I hope things are going well with you,' when things are not going well.

15 They should be [RHQ] ashamed about the disgusting things that they do, but they are not ashamed at all.

They do not even know how to ◀blush/show on their faces that they are ashamed▶.

So, they also will be among those who will be killed.

They will be destroyed when I punish them."

16 This is also what Yahweh said to the Israeli people:

"Stand at the crossroads and look at the people who pass by.

Ask them what was the good behavior that their ancestors had long ago.

And when they tell you, behave that way.

If you do that, you will find rest for your souls."

But you replied, 'We do not want to do that!'

17 I sent my prophets who were like [MET] watchmen.

They said, 'Listen carefully when we blow the trumpets to warn you that your enemies are approaching,'

but you said, 'No, we do not want to listen.'

18 Therefore, you people in the other nations, listen to this:

Pay attention to what is going to happen to the Israeli people.

19 Listen, all of you!

I am going to cause the Israeli people to experience disasters.

That is what will happen to them because they have refused to listen to what I told them.

They have refused to obey my laws.

20 You Israeli people, when you burn frankincense that came from far away in Sheba, and when you offer to me sweet-smelling anointing oil that came from far away,

I will not [RHQ] be pleased with your sacrifices.

I will not accept the sacrifices that are completely burned on the altar;

I am not pleased with any of your sacrifices.

21 Therefore, I will put obstacles on the roads on which my people will travel.

Men and their sons and people's neighbors and friends will stumble over those obstacles and fall down;

everyone will die."

22 Yahweh also says this:

"You will see a huge army marching towards you from the north.

An army of a great nation very far away is preparing to attack you.

23 They have bows and arrows and spears;

they are very cruel, and do not act mercifully to anyone.

As they ride along on their horses,

the horses' feet sound like the roaring of the ocean waves;

they are riding in battle formation

to attack you people of Jerusalem."

24 The people of Jerusalem say,

"We have heard reports about the enemy;

so we are very frightened, with the result that we feel weak.
We are very afraid, and worried, like [SIM] women who are about to give birth to babies.

<sup>25</sup> So one person says to another,

'Do not go out into the fields! Do not go on the roads, because the enemy soldiers have swords and they are everywhere;
they are coming from all directions, and we are extremely afraid.'

<sup>26</sup> So I say, "My dear people, put on ◀sackcloth/rough clothes▶ and sit in ashes to show that you are sorry for your sins.

Mourn and cry very much, like [SIM] a woman would cry if her only son had died, because your enemies are very near,

and they are going to destroy everything."

<sup>27</sup> Then Yahweh said to me,

"Jeremiah, I have caused you to become like [MET] someone who heats metal very hot to completely burn the impurities.

You will examine my people's behavior.

<sup>28</sup> You will find out that they are very stubborn rebels, they are always slandering others.

Their inner beings are as hard as bronze or iron;
they all continually deceive others.

But just as a fire does not cause all the waste material to run off, it is impossible to separate the righteous people from the wicked people, and punish only the wicked people.

<sup>30</sup> I, Yahweh, have rejected them;

I say that they are like [MET] worthless silver."

7

Jeremiah spoke at the temple

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said to me,

<sup>2</sup> "Go to the entrance of my temple, and give this message to the people:
You people of Judah who worship here, listen to this message from Yahweh!

<sup>3</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels says to you,
'If you stop doing evil things and start doing what is right,
I will allow you to remain living in your land.'

<sup>4</sup> But some people are repeatedly saying to you,

'The temple of Yahweh is here,
so we will be safe;

he will not allow us and the temple to be destroyed.'

But do not pay attention to what they say, because they are deceiving you.

<sup>5</sup> I will act mercifully to you only if you change your behavior and stop doing evil things, and if you start to act fairly/justly toward others,

<sup>6</sup> and if you stop oppressing foreigners who live in your country, and orphans and widows, and if you stop murdering people, and if you stop worshipping ◀foreign gods/idols▶.

However, if you continue to do those things, you will be destroyed.

<sup>7</sup> If you do what I have told you, I will allow you to stay in this land that I promised to your ancestors that it would belong to them and their descendants forever.

<sup>8</sup> People are repeatedly telling you, ‘The temple is here, so we are safe’, and you are trusting/believing that what they are saying is true, but it is a lie. Those people are deceiving you, and what they say is worthless.

<sup>9</sup> You think that [RHQ] you can steal things, murder people, commit adultery, tell lies in court, and worship Baal and all those other gods that you did not know about previously, <sup>10</sup> and then come here and stand in front of this temple, which is my temple, and say ‘Nothing bad will happen to us!’, while you continue to do all those abominable things.

<sup>11</sup> Do you realize that you are causing this temple, which is my temple, to become like [MET] a den where bandits hide [RHQ]?

Do you not know that I see all the evil things that you people do there?

<sup>12</sup> Long ago I put my Sacred Tent at Shiloh city, to be a place where people would worship me [MTY].

Think about how I destroyed it because my people, the Israeli people, did many wicked things there.

<sup>13</sup> And while you were continually doing those wicked things, I told you about it many times, but you refused to listen.

I called out to you,

but you refused to answer me.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, just like I destroyed Shiloh, I will now destroy this temple that was built for people to worship me [MTY], this temple that you trust in, that is in this place that I gave to you and your ancestors.

<sup>15</sup> And I will expel you from this land and send you to other countries far away from me, just like I did to your relatives, the people of Israel.”

The warning from Yahweh

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh said to me, “Jeremiah, do not pray for these people any longer.

Do not cry for them or plead for me to help them, because I will not pay any attention to you.

<sup>17</sup> Do you see the wicked things that they are doing in the streets of Jerusalem and in the other towns in Judah?

<sup>18</sup> The children gather firewood and their fathers use it to make fires on the altars to burn sacrifices.

The women knead/make dough to make cakes to offer to their goddess Astarte who is called the Queen of Heaven.

And on their altars they pour out offerings of wine to their other idols.

All of those things cause me to become extremely angry!

<sup>19</sup> But I am not [RHQ] the one whom they are hurting;

they are really [RHQ] hurting themselves by doing these things for which they should be very ashamed!”

<sup>20</sup> So Yahweh the Lord says this:

“Because I am extremely angry with what happens at this place, I will punish these people severely [MTY]; my being very angry will be like [MET] a fire that will not be extinguished, and I will destroy the people, their animals, their fruit trees, and their crops.”

- <sup>21</sup> Therefore, this is what the Commander of the armies of angels says: “Take away [IRO] your offerings that you bring to burn completely on your altars and your other sacrifices;
don't give them to me; eat them yourselves!
- <sup>22</sup> When I led your ancestors out of Egypt, it was not offerings to be completely burned on the altar or other sacrifices that I wanted from them.
- <sup>23</sup> What I told them was, ‘Obey me;
if you do that, I will be your God and you will be my people.
 If you do the things that I want you to do, everything will go well for you.’
- <sup>24</sup> But your ancestors would not pay any attention [DOU] to me.
 They continued to do the evil things that they wanted to do, everything that in their stubborn inner beings they desired to do.
 Instead of coming closer to me, they went further away from me.
- <sup>25</sup> From the day that your ancestors left Egypt until now, I have continued to send my prophets to you.
- <sup>26</sup> But you, my people, have not listened to me or paid attention to what I said; you have been stubborn, and you have done more sinful things than your ancestors did.”

- <sup>27</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “When you tell all this to my people, they will not listen to you.
 When you call to them, they will not answer.
- <sup>28</sup> Say to them, ‘You people of Judah have not obeyed Yahweh, your God; you have not accepted it when he tried to correct you.
 No one among you is truthful;
 you do not say anything that is true; you speak only lies.’
- <sup>29</sup> So, tell them to cut off their hair to show that they are mourning;
 tell them to go up into the hills and sing a sad funeral song, because I have completely rejected [DOU] this generation of people who have made me angry.”

The Valley of Slaughter

- <sup>30</sup> Yahweh says this: “The people of Judah have done many things that I say are evil.
 They have set up their disgusting idols in my temple, causing it to become an unacceptable place to worship me.
- <sup>31</sup> They have built altars at Topheth in Ben-Hinnom Valley outside Jerusalem, and they sacrifice their sons and daughters on those altars.
 I never commanded them to do that;
 I never even thought that anyone would do that.
- <sup>32</sup> So they should beware!
 There will be a time when that place will no longer be called Topheth or the Hinnom Valley;

instead, it will be called the Valley of Slaughter.

There will be a huge number of people who will be buried there, with the result that there will be no space to bury more bodies.

<sup>33</sup> The corpses of my people that are not buried and are left on the ground will be eaten by vultures and wild animals, and there will be no one to shoo/chase them away.

<sup>34</sup> There will be no one singing and laughing any more in the streets of Jerusalem; there will be no more joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides in Judah, because the land will be completely destroyed.”

8

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh says, “At the time that your corpses are scattered on the ground, your enemies will break open the graves of your kings and other officials who lived in Judah, and the graves of your priests and prophets and other people who lived there.

<sup>2</sup> They will take out their bones from their graves and dishonor them by scattering them on the ground under the sun and the moon and the stars— those are the gods which my people loved and served and worshiped.

No one will gather up their bones and bury them again;
they will remain scattered on the ground like dung.

<sup>3</sup> And all the people of this wicked nation who are still alive and whom I have exiled to other countries will say,

‘We would prefer to die than to continue to stay alive here in these countries.’
That will be true because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

The people will not admit their sins

<sup>4</sup> Yahweh said to me, “Jeremiah, tell the people that this is what I, Yahweh, am saying to them:

‘When people fall down, they get up again, do they not [RHQ]?’

When people are going along a road and find out that they are walking on the wrong road, they go back and find the correct road, do they not [RHQ]?’

<sup>5</sup> Yes, they do, so why do these people of Judah continue trusting in those idols that have deceived them?

They continue turning away from me,
even though I have warned them.

<sup>6</sup> I have listened carefully [DOU] to what they say, but they do not say what they should say.

Not one of them is sorry for having sinned.

No one says, “I have done [RHQ] wicked things.”

They are sinning and doing what they want to as fast as [SIM] a horse that is running into a battle.

<sup>7</sup> All the birds that fly south for the ◀winter/cold season▶ know the time that they need to fly south, and they all return at the right time the following year.

But my people are not like those birds!

They do not know what I, Yahweh, require them to do.

<sup>8</sup> Your men who teach you the laws that Moses wrote have been saying false things about those laws.

So, why [RHQ] do they continue saying, “We are very wise because we have the laws of Yahweh”?

- <sup>9</sup> Those teachers, who think that [IRO] they are wise, will be ashamed/disgraced and dismayed when they are taken to other countries by their enemies because they sinned by rejecting what I told them.
Truly, they were not [RHQ] very wise to do that!
- <sup>10</sup> So, I will give their wives to other men;
I will give their fields to the enemy soldiers who conquer them.
All the people, including those who are important and those who are not important, deceive others in order to obtain their possessions.
Even my prophets and my priests do that.
- <sup>11</sup> They act as though the sins of my people are not serious, like [MET] wounds that do not need to be cleaned and bandaged.
They tell the people that everything will go well with them, but that is not true; things will not go well with them.
- <sup>12</sup> They should be [RHQ] ashamed when they do disgusting things [RHQ], but they do not even know how to show on their faces that they are ashamed about their sins.
So, they will be killed, and their corpses also will lie among the corpses of others who have been slaughtered by their enemies.
They will be killed when I punish them.
- <sup>13</sup> I will allow their enemies to take away the figs and grapes that the people would have harvested from their fields.
Their fruit trees will all wither.
They will not receive all the blessings that I prepared for them.
This will certainly happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "
- <sup>14</sup> Then the people will say, "◀Why should we wait here in these small towns?/We should not wait here in these small towns.▶ [RHQ]!
We should go to the cities that have high walls around them, but even if we do that we will be killed there, because Yahweh our God has decided that we must be destroyed; it is as though [MET] he has given us a cup of poison to drink, because we sinned against him.
- <sup>15</sup> We hoped/desired that things would go well for us, but things have not gone well.
We hoped that bad things would not happen to us any more, but only things that terrify us are happening to us.
- <sup>16</sup> People far north in Israel in the city of Dan can already hear the snorting of the horses of their enemies who are preparing to attack us.
It is as though the entire land of Judah is shaking as their army approaches; they are coming to destroy our land and everything in it, the people and the cities."
- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh says, "I will send those enemy soldiers to Judah, and they will be like [MET] poisonous snakes among you.
No one will be able to stop them from attacking you [MET]; they will attack you like snakes do, and kill you."

Jeremiah mourned for the people

- <sup>18</sup> I grieve very much for the people of Judah, and my grieving does not end.
I am very sad [IDM].

<sup>19</sup> Throughout our land, the people ask,
 “Has Yahweh abandoned Jerusalem?
 Is he, our city’s king, no longer there?”
 Yahweh replies, “Why do the people cause me to become very angry by worshipping idols and foreign gods?” [RHQ]

<sup>20</sup> The people say, “The harvest season is finished, the ◀summer/hot season▶ has ended,
 and we hoped that we would receive blessings from Yahweh, but he has not rescued us from our enemies.”

<sup>21</sup> I cry because my people have been crushed.
 I mourn, and I am completely dismayed.

<sup>22</sup> I ask, “Surely there is [RHQ] medicinal balm in the Gilead region!
 Surely there are [RHQ] doctors there!”
 But my people have been badly wounded in their spirits, and nothing can heal them.

9

<sup>1</sup> I wish that my head was like [MET] a spring of water, and that my eyes were like a fountain of tears.
 Then I would cry night and day for all of my people who have been killed by our enemies.

<sup>2</sup> I wish that I could leave my people and forget them, and go and live in a shack/shelter in the desert, because they have not remained faithful [MET] to Yahweh;
 they are a mob of people who deceive others.

Yahweh replied to Jeremiah

<sup>3</sup> Yahweh replied to me,
 “They use their tongues to tell [MET] lies like people shoot arrows with bows.
 It is because they tell lies that they have become more powerful in this land, and they do not know me.

<sup>4</sup> Do not trust your neighbors and even your brothers!
 They all are as deceitful as Jacob was.
 They slander each other and tell lies about each other.

<sup>5</sup> They deceive their friends and never tell the truth.
 They lie continually and, because of that, they have become skilled liars;
 they do one oppressive thing after another, and are unable to stop doing it.

<sup>6</sup> They habitually lie and deceive each other,
 and no one will admit/say that I am God.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say this:
 Listen carefully to what I say: I will cause my people to experience great afflictions, like a metalworker puts metal in a hot fire [MET] to completely burn out the impure bits.
 Because of all the evil things that my people have done, there is absolutely nothing else [RHQ] that I can do.

- 8 What they say [MTY] injures people like [MET] poisoned arrows do. They say to their neighbors, 'I hope things will go well for you,' while they are planning to kill them.
- 9 Should I not punish them for doing that [RHQ]?
Yes, I should certainly ◀get revenge on/give what they deserve to▶ the people of a nation that does things like that!"
- 10 So, I will weep and wail for the people who live in the mountains and in the ◀pastures/places where the livestock eat the grass▶, because those areas will be desolate, and no one will live there. There will be no cattle there to call to each other, and all the birds and wild animals will have fled to other places.
- 11 Yahweh also says, "I will cause Jerusalem to become a heap of ruins, and only jackals/wolves will live there. I will destroy the towns of Judah, with the result that they will be completely deserted; no one will live there."
- 12 I said, "Only people who are very wise [RHQ] can understand these things. Only those who have been taught by Yahweh can [RHQ] explain these things to others. The wise people are [RHQ] the only ones who can explain why the land will be completely ruined with the result that everyone [RHQ] will be afraid to travel through it."
- 13 Yahweh replied, "These things will happen because my people have rejected my laws which I gave to them; they have not obeyed me or my instructions.
- 14 Instead, they have stubbornly done the things that they wanted to do. They have worshiped the idols that represent the god Baal, which is what their ancestors did.
- 15 So now listen to what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God of the Israelis, say:
What I will do will be like [MET] giving these people bitter things to eat and poison to drink:
- 16 I will scatter them to many nations which neither they nor their ancestors have known anything about;
I will enable their enemies to strike them with swords until I have destroyed them."
- 17 This is also what the Commander of the armies of angels says:
"Think about what is happening,
then summon those women who mourn when someone has died.
- 18 Tell them to come quickly and start to wail, with the result that tears will stream down from your(pl) eyes.
- 19 Listen to the people of Jerusalem crying/lamenting, saying,
'We have been ruined/destroyed!
We have experienced a terrible disaster!
Now we are very ashamed, because our houses have been destroyed by our enemies, and we are being forced to leave our land.' "
- 20 You women, listen to what Yahweh says [MTY].

Pay attention to his words [DOU].
Teach your daughters to wail.

- Teach each other how to sing funeral songs, <sup>21</sup> because people will be dying [PRS] in your houses and in palaces.
 There will be no more children playing in the streets, there will be no more young men gathering in the city squares/marketplaces.
<sup>22</sup> There will be corpses scattered across the fields like dung;
 their dead bodies will lie there like [SIM] grain that has been cut by reapers/farmers, and there will be no one still alive to bury them.
<sup>23</sup> Yahweh says this:
 "Wise men should not boast about their being wise, strong men should not boast about their being strong;
 and rich people should not boast about their being rich.
<sup>24</sup> Instead, those who want to boast should boast about their knowing me and about understanding that I am Yahweh, that I am kind and just and righteous, that I faithfully love people, and that I am delighted with people who act that way.
<sup>25-26</sup> There will be a time when I will punish all those people of Egypt and of the Moab people-group and of the Edom people-group and of the Ammon people-group, all those people who live close to desert areas (OR, who cut their hair short to please their gods) far from Judah, all those people who have changed their bodies by circumcising them [MET] but who have not changed their inner beings.
 I will punish the people of Judah also, because they have not changed their inner beings, either."

Worthless idols

- <sup>1</sup> You people of Israel, listen to what Yahweh says: <sup>2</sup> "Do not act like the people of other nations act, and do not be terrified by strange/unusual things that you see in the sky, even though they cause the people of other nations to be terrified.
<sup>3</sup> The customs of the people of other nations are worthless.
For example, they cut down a tree in the forest.
 Then a skilled worker/craftsman cuts a section of it and uses his chisel to carve an idol from that section.
<sup>4</sup> Then people decorate the idol with silver and gold.
Then they fasten it securely with nails in order that it will not topple/fall over.
<sup>5</sup> Then the idol stands there like [SIM] a scarecrow in a field of cucumbers/melons!
 It cannot speak,
 and people must carry it,
 because it cannot walk.
 Do not be afraid of idols, because they cannot harm anyone, and they cannot do anything good to help anyone."

Hymn of praise to Yahweh

- <sup>6</sup> Yahweh, there is no one like you.
 You [MTY] are great, and you are very powerful.

- <sup>7</sup> You are the king of all the nations!
Everyone should [RHQ] revere you, because that is what you deserve.
Among all the wise people on the earth and in all the kingdoms where they live, ◀there is no one like you./who can compare with you?▶
- <sup>8</sup> Those people who think that they are very wise [IRO] are stupid and foolish [DOU].
The idols that they worship are only made of wood!
Those idols certainly cannot teach them anything.
- <sup>9</sup> People hammer into thin sheets silver from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz, and then they give those sheets of silver and gold to skilled workers/craftsmen to cover the idols.
Then they put on those idols expensive purple robes that are made by skilled workers.
- <sup>10</sup> But Yahweh is the only true God;
he is the all-powerful God,
the king who rules forever.
When he is angry, all the earth shakes/quakes; and the people of the nations cannot endure what he does when he is angry with
them.
- <sup>11</sup> You Israeli people, tell this to those people: “Those idols did not make the sky and the earth, and they will disappear from the earth.”
- <sup>12</sup> But Yahweh made the earth by his power;
he established it firmly by his wisdom and stretched out the sky by his understanding.
- <sup>13</sup> When he speaks loudly, there is thunder in the sky;
he causes clouds to form over every part of the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain
and releases the winds from his storehouses.
- <sup>14</sup> People are senseless and know very little [HYP];
those who make idols are always disappointed
because their idols do nothing for them.
The images/statues that they make are not real gods;
they are lifeless.
- <sup>15</sup> Idols are worthless; they deserve to be ridiculed;
there will be a time when they all will be destroyed.
- <sup>16</sup> But the God whom we Israelis worship is not like those idols;
he is the one who created everything that exists;
we, the tribe/people of Israel, belong to him;
he is the Commander of the armies of angels.

The coming destruction

- <sup>17</sup> Yahweh says this to the people of Jerusalem:
“The army of your enemies surrounds your city, so gather up your possessions and prepare to leave the city.
- <sup>18</sup> I will soon throw you out of this land and cause you to experience great troubles, with the result that you will have severe pain (OR, none of you will be left here).”

- 19 The people replied, "It is as though we have been badly wounded, and we are very grieved; It is as though we have a very serious illness, and we must endure the pain.
- 20 It is as though our great tent is destroyed; the ropes that held it up have been cut; our children have gone away from us and will not return; there are no people left to rebuild our great tent.
- 21 Our leaders [MET] no longer have any sense; they no longer ask Yahweh to ◀guide them/tell them what to do▶, so they will no longer prosper, and all those over whom they rule [MET] will be scattered.
- 22 Listen! Our enemies' armies in the north are making a very big noise/commotion as they march toward us.
The towns in Judah will be destroyed, and they will become a place where jackals/wolves live."

Jeremiah's prayer

- 23 Yahweh, I know that no person controls what will happen to him; no one is able to direct the events that he will experience.
- 24 So correct/discipline us, but do it gently. Do not correct/punish us when you are angry, because we would die if you did that.
- 25 Punish [MTY] all the nations whose people do not acknowledge/say that you are God; punish all the nations whose people do not worship you, because they are completely destroying [DOU] us people of Israel and they are causing our land to soon be only a desert.

11

The people of Judah did not keep the agreement with Yahweh

<sup>1</sup> This is another message that Yahweh told me: <sup>2</sup> "Listen to the agreement that I made with the ancestors of the people of Jerusalem and the other cities in Judah. Then remind them of that agreement. <sup>3</sup> Then tell them that I, Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people worship, said that I will curse everyone who does not obey what was written in that agreement that I made with them. <sup>4</sup> It is the same agreement that I made with their ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt. What happened to them in Egypt was terrible; it was as though they were living in a hot furnace [MET]. When I brought them out of Egypt, I told them to obey me, and to do everything that I had commanded them to do. I also told them that if they obeyed me, they would be my people and I would be their God. <sup>5</sup> Now tell these people that if they obey me, I will do what I promised to do for their ancestors. I will enable them to continue living in this very fertile [IDM] land in which they now live."

I replied, "Yahweh, I hope that what you said will happen."

<sup>6</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, "Go into the streets of Jerusalem and to the other cities in Judah. Proclaim my message to the people. Tell them to listen to the agreement that I made with their ancestors, and to obey it. <sup>7</sup> When I brought their ancestors out of Egypt, I solemnly pleaded with them many times to obey me, and I am still pleading with them now. <sup>8</sup> But they did not obey me or even pay any attention to me. Everyone continued to be stubborn and to do the evil things that they wanted to do.

I commanded them to do what was written in the agreement, but they refused. So I punished them in all the ways that I promised that I would.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “The people of Jerusalem and the other cities in Judah are rebelling against me. <sup>10</sup> Their ancestors refused to do what I told them to do, and now these people have returned to committing the sins that their ancestors committed. They are worshiping other gods. The people of Israel disobeyed the agreement that I made with their ancestors, and now the people of Judah have done the same thing. <sup>11</sup> So now I, Yahweh, am warning them that I will cause them to experience disasters, and they will not escape them. And when they cry out for me to help them, I will not pay attention. <sup>12</sup> When that happens, the people in Jerusalem and other cities in Judah will offer sacrifices and burn incense to their gods and ask for their help, but those gods will not be able to save them when those disasters come to them. <sup>13</sup> There are more gods in Judah than there are towns in Judah, and the people of Jerusalem have erected as many altars to burn incense to those gods as there are streets in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> Jeremiah, do not pray for these people, and do not plead with me to rescue them. If you plead with me, I will not pay attention; and if they cry out to me for help when they are in distress, I will not listen to them.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Yahweh said,
 “The people of Judah whom I love certainly no longer have [RHQ] a right to come to my temple, because they continually do many evil things.
They think that continually making sacrifices of meat to me certainly will [RHQ] protect them from disasters, with the result that they will be able to rejoice.
<sup>16</sup> I previously said that they were like an olive tree full of green leaves with a lot of good olives on it, but now I will send their enemies to attack them furiously;
it is as though I will break off their branches, and their city will be destroyed by fire.
<sup>17</sup> It is as though the people of Judah and Israel were a beautiful olive tree that I, the Commander of the armies of angels, planted, but now, by burning incense to their god Baal, they have caused me to become very angry.
 So now I have decided to destroy them.”

Jeremiah's enemies planned to kill him

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh revealed to me that my enemies were planning to kill me. <sup>19</sup> Before he did that, I was like a lamb that was being led away to be slaughtered; I did not know what they were planning to do. I did not know that they were saying, “Let’s get rid of this tree and its fruit,” so I did not know that they intended to kill me, in order that no one would remember me [MTY].

<sup>20</sup> Then I prayed, “Commander of the armies of angels, you judge people justly/fairly, and you examine everything that we are thinking [DOU].
 Allow me to watch you getting revenge on the people who want to kill me, because I trust that you will do for me what is right.”

<sup>21</sup> It was the men of my own town, Anathoth, who wanted to kill me, and they told me that they would kill me if I did not stop prophesying what Yahweh told me to say.

<sup>22</sup> So the Commander of the armies of angels said about them, “I will punish them. Their young men will be killed in wars, and their children will die because they have no food. <sup>23</sup> I have set a time when I will bring disasters to the people of Anathoth, and when that happens, none of them will remain alive.”

12

Jeremiah complained to Yahweh

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, whenever I tell you that I am unhappy about what is happening to me, you always act justly/fairly.

So now allow me to ask about one more thing that I do not understand:

Why are wicked people often very prosperous?

Why do things go very well for dishonest/wicked people?

<sup>2</sup> You allow them to prosper like [MET] trees that grow tall and bear a lot of fruit.

They always say [MTY] good things about you, but their hearts are really far from you.

<sup>3</sup> But Yahweh, as for me, you know what is in my inner being.

You see what I do and you are able to know what I am thinking.

So drag away those wicked people, like people drag away sheep that they are going to butcher.

Set them aside like sheep that are about to be slaughtered!

<sup>4</sup> This land is [RHQ] becoming very dry and even the grass is withering.

The wild animals and the birds have all died because the people are very wicked.

All that has happened because the people have said,

“Yahweh does not know what we are doing (OR, what will happen to us)!”

Yahweh replied to Jeremiah

<sup>5</sup> Then to show me that I needed to be prepared to endure even greater difficulties, Yahweh said to me,

“It is as though you have become exhausted from racing against men;

so how will you be able to race against horses?

If you stumble and fall when you are running on open/bare/smooth ground, what will happen to you when you are running through the thornbushes near the Jordan River?

<sup>6</sup> Already your brothers and other members of your own family oppose you.

They ◀plot against/plan to do evil things to▶ you and they say bad things about you.

So even if they say nice things about you, do not trust them!

<sup>7</sup> I have abandoned my Israeli people, the people whom I chose to belong to me.

I have allowed their enemies to conquer the Israeli people, whom I love.

<sup>8</sup> My people have become to me like [SIM] a lion in the forest.

It is as though they roar at me like a lion, so now I hate them.

that are surrounded by vultures waiting to eat their flesh after they are dead.

Tell all the wild animals to come and eat the flesh of their corpses.

<sup>10</sup> Many rulers from other countries have come with their armies and devastated/destroyed my people whom I care for like a farmer takes care of his vineyard.

 They have caused my beautiful land to become a barren desert where no one lives.
<sup>11</sup> They have caused it to become completely empty;
it is as though I hear the land crying sadly/mournfully.
 The whole land is desolate, and no one ◀worries about/pays any attention to▶ it.
<sup>12</sup> The soldiers of our enemies have marched across all the barren hilltops.
 But I, Yahweh, am using those armies [MTY] to punish your land from one end to the other,
 and no one will escape.
<sup>13</sup> It is as though my people planted wheat, but now they are harvesting thorns.
 They have become very tired because of much hard work,
 but they have gained nothing from all that work.
 They will be very disappointed because their harvests will be very small, and that will happen because I, Yahweh, am extremely angry with them.”

<sup>14</sup> This is also what Yahweh said to me: “I will punish the evil nearby nations that have been trying to take away the land that I gave to my Israeli people, and I will force them to leave their own land. But I will throw the people of Judah out of their land, also. <sup>15</sup> But later I will act mercifully toward those nations again, and I will bring them back to their own lands again. Each clan will come back to its own land. <sup>16</sup> And if the people of the other nations whose armies have invaded Israel learn the religious customs of my people, and if they learn that I am listening when they solemnly promise that they will do something good, like they taught my people to believe that their god Baal was listening when they made solemn promises, I will cause them to become prosperous, and they also will be my people. <sup>17</sup> But I will expel any nation whose people refuse to obey me, and I will destroy that nation and its people. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

13

Jeremiah's linen waistcloth

<sup>1</sup> One day Yahweh said to me, “Go and buy a linen waistcloth. Put it on, but do not wash it.” <sup>2</sup> So I bought a very nice waistcloth, which is what Yahweh told me to do, and I put it on.

<sup>3</sup> Then later Yahweh gave me another message. <sup>4</sup> He said, “Go to the small Perath Stream near Jerusalem and hide your waistcloth in a crevice/hole in the rocks.” <sup>5</sup> So I went to the stream and did what Yahweh told me to do.

<sup>6</sup> A long time later, Yahweh said to me, “Go back to that stream and get the waistcloth that I told you to hide there.” <sup>7</sup> So I went to the Perath Stream and dug out the waistcloth from the crevice/hole in which I had hidden it. But it was ruined, and useless.

<sup>8</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>9</sup> “What happened to your waistcloth shows that I will destroy the things that the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah are very proud of. <sup>10</sup> Those wicked people refuse to pay attention to what I say. They stubbornly do just what they desire to do; they worship other gods. Therefore, they will become completely useless, like your waistcloth. <sup>11</sup> Just like a waistcloth clings closely/tightly to a man's waist, I wanted the people [MTY] of Israel and Judah to cling closely to me. I wanted them to be my people, people who would praise me and honor me. But they would not pay attention to me. “

<sup>12</sup> “So, tell this to them: ‘Yahweh, the God whom you Israeli people worship, says that every leather wineskin should be filled with wine.’ And when you tell that to them, they will reply, ‘◀Of course/Certainly▶ we know [RHQ] that all wineskins should be filled with wine!’ <sup>13</sup> And then you must tell them, ‘No, that is not what Yahweh means. What he said means that he will cause this land to be filled with people who are drunk. That will include all of you—the king who sits on the throne that King David previously sat on, the priests and the prophets, and even the common people of Jerusalem.’ <sup>14</sup> He is saying, ‘I will cause you to bash each other. Even parents will bash their children. I will not pity you or act mercifully toward you at all; pitying you will not prevent me from getting rid of you.’ ”

A warning that the people of Judah will be exiled

<sup>15</sup> You people of Judah, pay very careful attention [DOU].

Do not be proud, because Yahweh has spoken to you.

<sup>16</sup> It is as though he is ready to bring darkness on you and to cause you to stumble and fall as you walk on the hills when it is becoming dark.

So praise/honor Yahweh your God before that happens.

If you do not do that, you will look for light, but all you will see is darkness and gloom.

<sup>17</sup> And if you still refuse to heed what he says, what will happen to you because of your being proud will cause me to cry when I am alone.

My eyes will be filled with tears because you, Yahweh’s people, whom he takes care of like a shepherd takes care of [MET] his flock, will all be captured by your enemies and taken to other countries.

<sup>18</sup> You people of Judah, say to the king and to his mother, “Come down from sitting on your thrones and humbly sit in the dust, because your enemies will soon snatch from your heads your glorious crowns.”

<sup>19</sup> The towns in the southern part of Judah will be surrounded by your enemies, and no one will be able to get through their lines to rescue the people in those towns.

You people of Judah will be captured and taken away;
you will all be ◀exiled/taken to foreign countries▶.

<sup>20</sup> You leaders of Jerusalem, open your eyes and look:
The enemy armies are ready to march down from the north.

When that happens, what will happen to [RHQ] the people of Judah who are like a beautiful flock of sheep, people that he gave to you to take care of?

<sup>21</sup> What will you say [RHQ] when Yahweh appoints people from other countries to rule over you, people who you mistakenly thought were your friends?

You will [RHQ] suffer very much pain, like a woman who is about to give birth to a baby.

<sup>22</sup> You will ask yourselves, “Why is this happening to us?”
I will reply that it is because of your many sins.

That is why soldiers of the invading armies will lift up the skirts of your women and rape them.

<sup>23</sup> A man from Ethiopia certainly cannot [RHQ] change the color of his black skin, and a leopard certainly cannot [RHQ] change its spots.

Similarly, you cannot start doing what is good, because you have always done what is evil.

<sup>24</sup> Yahweh says, "I will scatter you like chaff that is blown away by the wind from the desert.

<sup>25</sup> That is what is certainly going to happen to you; the things that I have determined will happen to you, because you have forgotten me, and you are trusting in false gods.

<sup>26</sup> It is as though I myself will pull your skirts up over your faces and cause you to be very ashamed because everyone will be able to see your sex organs.

<sup>27</sup> I have seen that you act like men who are eager to commit adultery; you are like male horses that whinny when they desire to have sex with a female horse.

I have seen that you worship disgusting idols in the fields and on the hills.

You people of Jerusalem, terrible things will happen to you!

How long will it be [RHQ] until you are acceptable to me again?"

14

The terrible drought

<sup>1</sup> After there had been no rain in Judah for a long time, Yahweh gave me this message:

<sup>2</sup> The people in Judah are very distressed; people are sitting on the ground and mourning; in all of Jerusalem people are crying loudly.

<sup>3</sup> The rich people send their servants to wells to get water, but all the wells are dry.

The servants return with empty pitchers; they cover their heads because they are ashamed and humiliated/disappointed and sad.

<sup>4</sup> The ground is extremely dry and cracked open because there has been no rain.

The farmers are very worried, so they also cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup> Even the ◀does/female deer▶ abandon their newborn babies/fawns because there is no grass in the fields for them to eat.

They become blind

because there is no grass to eat.

<sup>7</sup> The people say, "Yahweh, we have turned away from you and sinned many times, and now we know that we are being punished because of our sins, but please help us in order that everyone can see that you are very great [MTY].

<sup>8</sup> You are the one whom we Israelis confidently expect to do good things for us when we have many troubles/difficulties.

So, why do you not help us?

You act as though you are a stranger in our land, like you are someone who is staying here for only one night.

<sup>9</sup> Are you also surprised about the terrible things that are happening to us?

Why do you act like you are unable to save anyone, even though you are a strong warrior?

Yahweh, you are here among us, and others know that we are your people,
so do not abandon us!"

<sup>10</sup> And this is what Yahweh says to those people:

"You love to wander away from me;
you run [MTY] from one idol to another.
Therefore, now I will no longer accept you, and I will punish you for your sins."

<sup>11</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, "Do not pray for these people any more. <sup>12</sup> When they fast/abstain from food in order to honor me, I will not pay any attention. When they bring to me their offerings of animals to be completely burned on the altar and their offerings of grain, I will not accept them. Instead, I will get rid of them by wars, by famines, and by diseases."

<sup>13</sup> Then I replied to him, "Yahweh my God, their prophets are telling the people that they will not experience wars [MTY] or famines. They are telling the people that you will surely allow us to have peace in our land for many years."

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh replied to me, "Those prophets say that they are speaking what I tell them to say [MTY], but they are telling lies. I did not send them, so what they are saying is false. They say that they have received visions from me, and that they are telling things that I have revealed to them, but that is not true. They are saying foolish things that they have only thought of themselves. <sup>15</sup> So this is what I say about those prophets who are predicting what will happen, saying that I told them those things: They are saying that we Israelis will not die from wars or famines, but I did not send those prophets. And they themselves will die from wars or from famines. <sup>16</sup> And the people to whom they are predicting these things, they and their wives and their sons and their daughters, will also die from wars or from famines. Their corpses will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem, and there will not be anyone to bury them. I will punish them like they deserve to be punished.

'Day and night my eyes are full of tears.

I cannot stop crying.

I cry for my people, who are very precious to me, as if they were [MET] my daughters.

I cry for them because they have been severely wounded;
they have been severely crushed [DOU].

<sup>18</sup> If I go out into the fields,

I see corpses of people who have been slaughtered by our enemies.

If I walk along the streets of the city,

I see corpses of people who died from hunger.

The prophets and the priests travel through the land, preaching to people, but they do not know what they are doing (OR, in a land that they know nothing about).' "

Jeremiah's prayer

<sup>19</sup> Then I prayed this:

"Yahweh, have you completely rejected the people of Judah?

Do you really despise the people of Jerusalem [MTY]?

Why have you [RHQ] wounded us very badly, with the result that we will never be healed?

We hoped that we would have peace,
but there was no peace.

We hoped that there would be a time when we would be healed, but all that we received were things that terrified us.

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh, we admit/know that we are wicked people, and that our ancestors also did many wicked things.

We have all sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup> But Yahweh, in order that we may honor [MTY] you, do not despise/abandon us.

Do not dishonor the city where [MTY] your glorious throne is.

Please do not forget us, and do not ◀break your agreement with us/stop doing what you agreed to do for us▶.

<sup>22</sup> Those idols that have been brought from other nations certainly cannot [RHQ] bring rain to us, and the sky certainly cannot [RHQ] cause rain to fall.

Yahweh our God, you are the only one who can do things like that.

So we will confidently expect you to help us."

15

Yahweh said what would happen to the people of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Then Yahweh said this to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel could come back from their graves and stand in front of me and plead with me for these Israeli people, I would not act mercifully [IDM] toward these people. I would tell you, 'Send them away from me. Cause them to leave me!' <sup>2</sup> And if they ask you, 'Where shall we go?', tell them, 'This is what Yahweh says:

The ones that I say must die, will die:

The ones that I say must die in wars [MTY], will die in wars.

The ones that I say must die from hunger, will die from hunger.

The ones that I say must be captured and taken to other countries, will be captured and taken to other countries.

<sup>3</sup> I will send four things that will get rid of them: I will send enemy soldiers using swords to kill them. I will send wild dogs to drag away their corpses. I will send vultures to eat their corpses. And I will send other wild animals to eat what remains of their corpses. <sup>4</sup> Because of the wicked things that King Manasseh did in Jerusalem, I will cause people in all the kingdoms of the earth to be horrified about what will happen in Judah to my people.

<sup>5</sup> You people of Jerusalem, no one will [RHQ] feel sorry for you.

No one will [RHQ] weep/cry for you.

No one will [RHQ] ask ◀how you are/if you are well▶.

<sup>6</sup> You people have abandoned me;

you have continued to walk away from me [DOU].

So, I will lift up my fist to smash you;

I will not act mercifully toward you any longer.

<sup>7</sup> At the gates of your cities, I will scatter you like a farmer scatters the chaff from his grain by ◀winnowing it/throwing it up to allow the wind to blow the chaff away▶ [MET].

You, my people, have refused to turn away from your evil behavior.

So, I will get rid of you, and I will even cause your children to be killed.

<sup>8</sup> I will cause there to be more widows in Judah than there are grains of sand on the seashore [HYP].

At noontime, when people will not be expecting it to happen, I will cause an enemy army to attack you, an army that will destroy your young men and cause their mothers to weep.

I will cause you to suddenly experience great suffering/pain and become very terrified.

<sup>9</sup> A woman who has seven children will become faint and ◀gasp for breath/be hardly able to breathe▶;

it will be as though daylight will become darkness for her, because most of her children will be dead, and she will be disgraced and humiliated [DOU].

And her children who are still alive, I will enable your enemies to kill them.

That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "

Jeremiah's complaint and Yahweh's reply

<sup>10</sup> I said to my mother, "I am very sad;

I wish that you had not given birth to me;

everyone in this land opposes me and quarrels with me.

I am not a person who lends money to people and threatens to sue/harm them if they do not pay me back when they should,

and I am not a person who borrows money from others and then refuses to pay it back, but everyone [HYP] curses me."

<sup>11</sup> But Yahweh replied to me,

"Jeremiah, I will take care of you.

And at times when your enemies have troubles and disasters, they will come to you and plead for you to help them."

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh also told me to say to the people of Judah,

"Your enemies, who are as strong as iron or bronze, will attack you from the north; no one will be able to stop them.

<sup>13</sup> I will give all the valuable possessions of the people of Judah to their enemies, without them paying for it.

Their valuable possessions will be the payment/reward that I will give them because of all the sins that you have committed throughout your country.

<sup>14</sup> I will tell your enemies to force you to become their prisoners, and to take you to other lands that you do not even know about, and force you to become their slaves.

That will happen because I am extremely angry with you; my being angry is like [SIM] a fire that will burn forever."

Another complaint by Jeremiah, and Yahweh's reply

<sup>15</sup> Then I said, "Yahweh, you know what is happening to me.

Please come and ◀help me/take care of me▶.

Punish those who are ◀persecuting me/causing me to suffer▶.

Please do not continue to be patient with them and do not allow me to die now.

 It is ◀for your sake/because I serve you▶ that I am suffering.
 16 Yahweh my God, you are the Commander of the armies of angels;
 and when you spoke to me,
     I was delighted with your message; it caused me to be joyful, and I eagerly accepted [MET] what you said because I belong to you. [IDM, MTY] 17 When the people were carousing together,
     I never joined them;
 I sat alone, because you [MTY] are the one who controls what I do.
     I was very angry with those people because of their sins.
 18 So, ◀why do you allow me to continue to suffer?/I do not understand why you allow me to continue to suffer.▶ [RHQ]
     It seems that [RHQ] my wounds cannot be healed.
Sometimes you help me, sometimes you do not help me.
     It seems that you are as undependable as a brook that has water in it only during certain seasons;
     you are like a spring that has dried up.”

19 Then Yahweh replied,
 “If you begin again to trust in me,
 I will restore you,
     in order that you can continue to serve me.
 If you proclaim good/valuable messages and not worthless ones, you will continue to be the one who speaks what I tell you to say.
 You must cause the people to pay attention to what you say;
     you must not pay attention to what they say.
 20 They will fight against you, but I will protect you, like [SIM] people are protected from their enemies by a bronze wall.
 They will not defeat you,
     because I will be with you,
     and I will protect and rescue [DOU] you.
 21 Truly, I will keep you safe from those wicked people,
     I will rescue you when you are seized by cruel people.

16

Jeremiah was warned about the coming disaster

<sup>5</sup> This is also what Yahweh said to me: “Do not go to funerals to mourn or to show those whose relatives have died that you feel sorry for them, because I have stopped protecting them, and I have caused that things will not go well for them. I have stopped faithfully loving them and acting mercifully toward them. <sup>6</sup> Very many people will die in this land, including those who are important and those who are not important. And no one will mourn for them, or even bury their corpses. No one will cut himself or shave his head to show that he is very sad.<sup>7</sup> No one will bring food to comfort those who are mourning, not even if it is their father or their mother who has died. No one will give them a cup of wine to cheer them up.

<sup>8</sup> And do not go into the houses where people are feasting. Do not eat or drink anything with them. <sup>9</sup> I want you to do this because this is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say: 'While you are still alive and seeing it happen, I will cause there to be no more singing and laughing in this land. There will be no more joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides.'

<sup>10</sup> When you tell these things to the people, they will ask, 'Why has Yahweh declared that these terrible things will happen to us? What have we done for which we deserve to be punished like this? What sin have we committed against Yahweh our God?'

<sup>11</sup> Then this is what you must tell them that I am replying to them: 'It is because your ancestors turned away from me, Yahweh. They worshiped other gods and served them. They abandoned me and did not obey my commands. <sup>12</sup> But you who are living now have done more wicked things than your ancestors did! Each of you stubbornly does the evil things that he desires and refuses to pay attention to what I say. <sup>13</sup> So, I will throw you out of this land, and I will send you to a land that you and your ancestors have never known about. There you will worship other gods day and night. And I will not act mercifully toward you.'

<sup>14</sup> But there will be a time when people who are solemnly promising to do something will no longer say, 'I will do this, just as surely as Yahweh lives—the one who brought the Israeli people here from Egypt.' <sup>15</sup> Instead, they will say 'I will do this, just as surely as Yahweh lives—the one who brought us Israeli people back to our own land, from the lands to the north and from all the other lands to which he had ◀exiled us/forced us to go▶.' They will be able to say that because some day I will bring your descendants back to this land that I gave to your ancestors.

<sup>16</sup> But now I am summoning your enemies who will seize the people of Judah like [MET] fishermen catch fish. I am summoning those who will search for them on every mountain and hill, and in every cave, like [MET] hunters search for animals to kill. <sup>17</sup> I am watching them carefully. I see every sin that they commit. They will not be able to hide from me [MTY]. <sup>18</sup> Because of all the wicked things that they have done [DOU], I will punish them twice as much as I would punish other people. I will do that because they have caused my land to become unacceptable to me because of their worshipping lifeless statues of detestable gods, and also because they have done many other evil things throughout my land."

Jeremiah prayed again, and Yahweh replied

<sup>19</sup> Then I prayed, saying, "Yahweh, you are the one who strengthens me and protects me [MET];

you are the one to whom I go when I have troubles.

Some day people from nations all over the world will come to you and say,

'Our ancestors left/gave us only something that was false;

they worshiped idols that are completely worthless [DOU].

<sup>20</sup> No one can [RHQ] make their own gods;

the gods that they make are only idols; they are not real gods.' "

<sup>21</sup> Then Yahweh said, "Now I will show my power to the people of Judah;

I will show them that I am truly very powerful [DOU].

Then, finally, they will know that I, Yahweh, am the true God."

17

Yahweh's promise to punish Judah

- <sup>1</sup> *Yahweh said, "It is as though a list of the sins committed by the people of Judah is engraved with an iron chisel, or engraved using the fine point of a very hard stone, on the altars where they worship idols.
And it is as though this list is engraved on their inner beings!*
- <sup>2</sup> Even their children are happy to go to the altars to worship their gods, and to the poles that represent the goddess Asherah at which their parents worshiped, shrines that are underneath all the big trees and on all the high hills.
- <sup>3</sup> So, I will allow your enemies to capture Zion, your holy hill, and all your wealth and your ◀treasures/valuable things▶, and even the shrines on all those hills, because of the sins that you people have committed throughout your land.
- <sup>4</sup> The wonderful land that I gave to you will no longer belong to you. I will tell your enemies to take you to a land that you do not know about, and you will become their slaves. I will do that because I am extremely angry with you; my being angry is like a fire that will burn forever."
- <sup>5</sup> *This is also what Yahweh says:
"I will curse/condemn those who trust in human beings to help them, those who rely on their own strength and turn away from me.*
- <sup>6</sup> They are like dry bushes in the desert, they are people who will not experience any good things. Those people will live in the barren desert in a salty area, where nothing grows.
- <sup>7</sup> But I am pleased with those who trust in me, Yahweh, and who confidently expect me to take care of them.
- <sup>8</sup> Those people are like [SIM] fruit trees that have been planted along a riverbank, trees that have roots that go down into the wet ground beside the water. They are trees whose leaves remain green when it becomes hot, trees that continue to bear fruit when there are many months in which there is no rain.
- <sup>9</sup> Human minds are extremely corrupt/deceitful, and you cannot change that. It is also completely impossible [RHQ] for anyone to understand that.
- <sup>10</sup> But I, Yahweh, search what is in everyone's inner being, and I examine what they are thinking. I will give all people rewards, what they deserve for what they have done."
- <sup>11</sup> I, Jeremiah, agree, because I know that people who become rich by doing things that are unjust are like birds that hatch eggs that they ◀did not lay/stole from another nest▶.

So, when those people have lived only half of the years that they expect to live, their wealth will disappear.

Then other people will realize that those rich people have been foolish.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh, your temple is like a glorious throne that is still on a high hill.

<sup>13</sup> You are the one whom we Israeli people confidently expect to bless us, and all those who turn away from you will be disgraced.

Their names will be written only in the dust, and will soon disappear, because they have abandoned you, who are like [MET] a fountain where people obtain fresh water.

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh, please heal me, because if you heal me, I will truly be healed. If you rescue me, I will truly be safe, because you are the only one whom I praise.

<sup>15</sup> People often ridicule me and say,

“You tell us messages that you say came from Yahweh, but ◀why have the things that you predicted not happened?/those predictions have not come true!▶” [RHQ]

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh, you appointed me to take care of your people like a shepherd takes care of his sheep [MET]; I have not abandoned that work, and you know that I have not previously wanted this time of disaster to come to people who ridicule me.

And you know everything that I have said [MTY] to your people.

<sup>17</sup> Do not cause me to be terrified!

When disasters come/occur, you are the one to whom I will go to be safe.

<sup>18</sup> So now, cause those who ◀persecute me/cause me to suffer▶ to be ashamed and dismayed, but do not do things to me that will cause me to be ashamed and dismayed.

Cause them to be terrified!

Do to them many things that will completely destroy them!

Keeping the Sabbath day holy

<sup>19</sup> This is what Yahweh said to me: “Go to the city gates in Jerusalem. First go to the gate where the kings of Judah go in and out of the city, and then go to each of the other gates. <sup>20</sup> Say to the people at each gate, ‘You kings of Judah and everyone else who is living in Jerusalem and all you other people of Judah who enter these gates, listen to this message from Yahweh! <sup>21</sup> He says, “Listen to this warning carefully! Stop doing work on ◀Sabbath/our rest▶ days! Stop carrying loads through these gates on those days! <sup>22</sup> Do not carry loads out of your houses or do any other work on Sabbath days! Instead, cause Sabbath days to be ◀holy/set apart for me▶. I commanded your ancestors to do that, <sup>23</sup> but they did not listen to me or obey me. When I did things to correct them, they stubbornly [IDM] refused to pay attention to what I said or to accept it. <sup>24</sup> But I say that if you obey me, and if you do not carry loads through these gates on Sabbath days or do any other work on Sabbath days, and if you dedicate the Sabbath days to me, <sup>25</sup> kings of Judah [MTY] and their officials will continue to go in and out of these gates. There will always be someone who is a descendant of [MTY] King David ruling here [MTY] in Jerusalem. Kings and their officials will go in and out of these gates, riding in chariots and on horses, and there will be people living in this city forever. <sup>26</sup> And people will come to Jerusalem bringing offerings to be completely burned on the altar and other offerings. They will bring to the temple grain offerings and incense and offerings to thank me. People will bring those offerings from the towns in Judah and the villages near Jerusalem and from the land where the tribe of Benjamin lives and from the western foothills and from the desert in the south. <sup>27</sup> But if you do not pay attention to what I say, and if you refuse to dedicate the Sabbath days to me, and if you continue to carry loads through these gates into the city on Sabbath days, I will burn these gates completely. The fire will spread to the palaces, and no one will be able to put out that fire." ' ' "

The potter and the clay

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave another message to me. He said, <sup>2</sup> "Go to the shop of the man who makes clay pots. I will give you a message there." <sup>3</sup> So I went to that shop, and I saw the man who makes pots. He was working at the wheel that he uses to form pots. <sup>4</sup> But when he finished making one jar, it was not as good as he hoped/wanted it to be. So, he took that clay and formed it into another jar, shaping it as he desired.

<sup>5</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>6</sup> "Perhaps the people of Israel think that I cannot do to them like this man who makes pots has done [RHQ]. But what they think is wrong. I can control what happens to them like this man controls what he does with the clay in his hands. <sup>7</sup> There may be a time when I proclaim that I will get rid of a nation or kingdom, like someone pulls up a plant with its roots, and smashes it, and destroys it. <sup>8</sup> But if the people of that nation repent of doing evil things, I will not send to them the disasters that I planned to send. <sup>9</sup> And there may be a time when I proclaim that I will establish a nation or kingdom and cause it to be strong [MET]. <sup>10</sup> But if the people of that nation start to do evil things and refuse to obey me, then I will not bless them as I said that I would do.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, Jeremiah, go and warn all the people in Jerusalem and in other places in Judah. Say to them, "This is what Yahweh says: "I am planning to cause you to experience a disaster [DOU]. So, each of you should turn from your evil behavior and start doing what is right, in order that you will not experience that disaster." ' ' "

<sup>12</sup> So I told that message to the people, but they replied, "It is useless for you to tell us that. We will continue to be stubborn and behave as we want to."

<sup>13</sup> So, this is what Yahweh says:

"Ask the people who live in other nations if they have [RHQ] ever heard of such a thing.

My Israeli people, who have been pure like [MET] virgins, have done a terrible thing!

The cold streams that flow down from those distant mountains never [RHQ] cease flowing.

<sup>15</sup> But my people are not as reliable as those streams:

They have abandoned me.

They burn incense to honor/worship worthless idols.

It is as though they have stumbled as they walked along very old roads that are good roads, and now, instead, they are walking on dirt paths.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, their land will become desolate, and people who see it will hiss to ridicule it.

Everyone who passes by will be appalled;

they will shake their heads to show that they are shocked.

17 I will scatter the people when their enemies attack them like dust is scattered by an east wind.
And when they experience all those difficulties/disasters,
I will turn my back on them and refuse to help them."

Jeremiah complained to Yahweh again when the people planned to attack him

18 Then some of the people said, "Come, let's plan to attack Jeremiah. We have many priests who teach us God's laws, and wise men who give us good advice, and prophets who tell us what will happen. We do not need Jeremiah! So, let's slander him and not pay attention to anything that he says."

19 Then I prayed, "Yahweh, please listen to me!

And listen to what my enemies are saying about me.

20 I am doing things that are good, so it is disgusting that [RHQ] they are paying me back by doing evil things to me.
It is as though they have dug a pit for me to fall into and die.

Do not forget that one time I stood in front of you and pleaded for you to help them, and I tried to prevent you from punishing them [MTY], even though you were very angry with them.

21 So now, allow their children to die from hunger!

Or cause them to be killed by their enemies' swords!

Cause their wives to become widows, whose children are all dead!

Cause their old men to die in a plague,
and cause their young men to be killed in battles!

22 Cause people to scream in their homes when enemy soldiers suddenly come into their houses!

Cause all those things to happen to them because they want to kill me.

It is as though they have dug a pit for me to fall into,
and they have hidden traps along my path.

23 Yahweh, you know all the things that they are planning to do to kill me.

Do not forgive them for their crimes or blot out the record of their sins.

Cause them to be destroyed;

punish them because of your being angry with them!"

19

Judah will be like a smashed jar

1 This is another message that Yahweh gave to me: "Go and buy a clay jar from a man who makes them. Then take with you some of the elders of the people and leaders of the priests. 2 Go out of the city past the Gate of Broken Pots, to the place overlooking the dump for broken pottery in the Ben-Hinnom Valley. Then give them a message. 3 Say to them, 'This message is for you kings of Judah and other people of Jerusalem. Listen to what Yahweh is saying! The Commander of the armies of angels says that he will cause there to be a terrible disaster in Jerusalem. Those who hear about it will be stunned/shocked [IDM]. 4 That will happen because you Israeli people have stopped worshiping me, and have caused this place to be a place where you worship foreign gods. You burn sacrifices to gods that neither you nor your ancestors nor even the kings of Judah ever heard about. And you have filled this place with the blood of innocent people whom you have killed. 5 You have built shrines to honor your god Baal, and at those shrines you have killed your own children and offered them to be sacrifices to Baal. I never commanded you to do that, I never spoke about doing that, I never even thought about anyone doing that. <sup>6</sup> So, beware, because I, Yahweh, say that there will be a time when this garbage dump will no longer be called Topheth or Ben-Hinnom Valley; it will be called Slaughter Valley.

<sup>7</sup> In this place I will ruin the plans of you people who live in Jerusalem and in other places in Judah. I will allow your enemies who want to kill you to kill many of you with their swords. Then I will allow your corpses to remain on the ground to be food for vultures and wild animals. <sup>8</sup> I will completely destroy Jerusalem and cause it to become a heap of ruins that people will despise. All the people who pass by will be appalled, and they will be shocked when they see that the city has been destroyed. <sup>9</sup> I will enable your enemies who want to kill you to surround the city for a long time. Then the food will be all gone, and you people will be extremely hungry, with the result that you people in the city will eat the flesh of your own children and your neighbors' children.

<sup>10</sup> Jeremiah, after you tell that to them, while the people who are with you are watching, smash the jar that you brought. <sup>11</sup> Then say to them, 'This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says: "Just like this jar has been smashed and cannot be repaired, I will smash this city of Jerusalem and other places in Judah. You will bury some of your corpses here in this dump, until there is no more space to bury any more corpses. <sup>12</sup> That is what I will do to this city and to you people who live here. I will cause this city to be desecrated, like King Josiah caused Topheth to be a place that was unfit for people to worship me there. <sup>13</sup> The houses in Jerusalem and the palaces of the kings of Judah will be desecrated like this place will be. All the houses where you burned incense on the rooftops to honor the stars that you worshiped, and where you poured out wine to be an offering to your gods, will become ◀desecrated/unacceptable places for people to worship me▶." ' "

<sup>14</sup> Then I returned from the garbage dump where Yahweh had sent me to tell them that message. Then I stood in the courtyard of Yahweh's temple and said this to all the people who were there: <sup>15</sup> "This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says: 'I will cause there to be a disaster in this city and in the villages around it like I promised, because you people have stubbornly [IDM] refused to pay attention to what I said to you.' "

Pashhur arrested Jeremiah

<sup>1</sup> Pashhur, the son of Immer, was a priest who supervised the temple guards. He heard those things that I had prophesied. <sup>2</sup> So he arrested me. Then he commanded guards to whip me and fasten my feet in ◀stocks/a wooden frame▶ at the Benjamin Gate of Yahweh's temple. <sup>3</sup> The next day, when Pashhur released me, I said to him, "Pashhur, Yahweh is giving you a new name. From now on, your name will be 'Surrounded by Terror', <sup>4</sup> because Yahweh says this to you: 'I will cause you and your friends to be terrified. You will watch them being killed by your enemies' swords. I will enable the army of the king of Babylon to capture the people of Judah. Those soldiers will take some of the people to Babylon, and they will kill others with their swords. <sup>5</sup> And I will enable their soldiers to take away other things in Jerusalem. They will take to Babylon all the very valuable things that belonged to your kings. <sup>6</sup> And as for you, Pashhur, they will take you and all your family to Babylon. You and your family and all your friends who have prophesied things that are lies will die there and be buried there.' "

Jeremiah complained to Yahweh again

<sup>7</sup> One day I said this to Yahweh:

"Yahweh, when you chose me to be a prophet, you deceived me, and I allowed you to deceive me.

You insisted that I become a prophet and you are stronger than I am.

And now everyone [HYP] ridicules me.

They make fun of me all the day.

<sup>8</sup> When I tell people your messages, I shout saying,

'Yahweh is going to cause you to experience violence and destruction!'

So because I tell them those messages from you, they insult me and scoff at me all day long.

<sup>9</sup> But if I would say, 'I will never mention Yahweh or say anything about him, [MTY]'

it would be as though your message would burn in my inner being like [SIM] a fire;

it would be like a fire in my bones.

Sometimes I try to remain silent and not proclaim your messages, but I am not able to do that.

<sup>10</sup> I hear many people whispering about me, saying 'He is the man who proclaims that there will be things that cause us to be terrified everywhere.

We must tell the authorities what he is saying! We must denounce him!'

Even my best friends are waiting for me to say something that is wrong.

They are saying, 'Perhaps we can cause him to say something wrong, and if he does, we will be able to discredit him.'

so it is as though you will cause those who persecute me to stumble, and they will not defeat me.

They will be completely disgraced because of being unable to defeat me;

and other people will never forget that they were disgraced.

<sup>12</sup> Commander of the armies of angels, you examine all those who are righteous;

you know all that is in their inner beings and what they think.

Allow me to see you getting revenge on those who want to harm me, because I trust that you will do for me what is right."

<sup>13</sup> Sing to Yahweh!

Praise Yahweh!

He rescues poor and needy people, from those [SYN] who are wicked.

<sup>14</sup> But I hope/desire that the day that I was born will be cursed.

I do not want anyone to celebrate that day.

<sup>15</sup> And as for that man who brought to my father the news, and caused him to be very happy, by saying

"You wife has given birth to a son for you",

I hope/desire that he also will be cursed.

<sup>16</sup> Allow him to be destroyed like the cities that Yahweh destroyed long ago, without acting mercifully toward them.

Cause that man to hear the people wailing in the morning, and to hear the enemy soldiers shout their battle cries at noon.

<sup>17</sup> I want that to happen to him because he did not kill me before I was born.

I wish that I had died in my mother's womb, and that my mother's body would have been like [MET] my grave.
 18 I have continually experienced much trouble and sorrow, and I am disgraced now when I am about to die;
 why was it necessary [RHQ] for me to be born?

God rejected King Zedekiah's request

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message when King Zedekiah of Judah sent a man who was also named Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, and a priest named Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah, to talk to me. They pleaded with me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "The army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking Judah. Please speak to Yahweh for us. Ask him if he will help us. Perhaps he will force Nebuchadnezzar's army to leave by performing a miracle for us, like the miracles he performed previously."

<sup>3</sup> I replied to them, "Go back to King Zedekiah. Tell him, <sup>4</sup> 'This is what Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: "I will cause your weapons to be useless in fighting against the king of Babylon and his army that is outside the walls of Jerusalem, attacking. I will enable them to enter into the center of this city. <sup>5</sup> I myself will fight against your army with my very great power, [MTY, DOU] because I am very angry with you. <sup>6</sup> I will send a very ◀terrible plague/big sickness▶ on the people of this city, and on their domestic animals, and many of them will die." <sup>7</sup> And Yahweh says there are many people in this city who want to kill you. So, he will enable the army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and other people in this city to capture you, King Zedekiah, and your officials, and all the other people who do not die from the plague. His army will slaughter your soldiers; they will not act mercifully toward you(pl) or pity you at all. [DOU]'

<sup>8</sup> And tell this to all the people: 'Yahweh says that you must decide whether you want to die or to remain alive. <sup>9</sup> Everyone who remains in Jerusalem will die. They will be killed in battles or die from being hungry or from diseases. But those who surrender to the army of Babylon that is surrounding your city will remain alive. They will escape dying. <sup>10</sup> That will happen because I, Yahweh, have decided to cause this city to experience disasters, not to experience something good. The army of the king of Babylon will capture this city and will destroy it completely by fire.' "

Yahweh will punish Judah's kings

<sup>11</sup> Yahweh also told me to say this to the family of the king of Judah: "Listen to this message from Yahweh! <sup>12</sup> This is what he says to you descendants of King David: 'Every day, make fair decisions for the people whom you judge.

Help those who have been robbed.

Rescue/Save them from those [SYN] who ◀oppress them/treat them cruelly▶.

If you do not do that,

I will be angry and punish [MTY] you with a fire that will be impossible to extinguish,

because of all the sins that you have committed.

<sup>13</sup> I will fight against you people of Jerusalem, you who live on top of a rocky hill above the valley.

I will fight against you people who boast, saying,

"No one can attack us and break through our defenses."

<sup>14</sup> I will punish you for your wicked deeds like you deserve to be punished;
 It will be as though I will light a fire in your forests that will burn up everything around you!’ ”

22

A message about punishing the evil kings of Judah

<sup>1</sup> This is another message that Yahweh gave to me: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and say this to him: <sup>2</sup> ‘You are the king of Judah. You are the ruler [MTY], like King David was. You and your officials and your people must listen <sup>3</sup> to what Yahweh says: “Act fairly and justly. Do what is right. Help those who have been robbed. Rescue people from those who oppress them. Stop doing evil things. Do not mistreat those who have come here from other countries, and do not mistreat orphans and widows. Stop murdering here in Jerusalem [MTY] those who ◀are innocent/have not done things that are wrong▶. <sup>4</sup> If you obey those commands carefully, there will always be some descendant of King David who will be ruling here [MTY] in Jerusalem. The king and his officials and other people will ride through the gates of the city in chariots and on horses. <sup>5</sup> But if you refuse to pay attention to those commands, I, Yahweh, solemnly declare, with myself [MTY] as a witness, that this palace will become a pile of rubble.” ’ ”

<sup>6</sup> And this is what Yahweh says about the king’s palace:
*“I like this palace, like I like the forests in the Gilead region and the mountains in Lebanon.
 But I will cause this palace to become a desert, a place that no one lives in.*

<sup>7</sup> I will summon enemy troops who will destroy this palace;
 each of their soldiers will use his own tools to wreck the building.
 They will cut into pieces the beautiful big cedar beams and throw them into a fire.”

<sup>8</sup> People from many nations will walk past the ruins of this city and say to each other, “Why did Yahweh destroy this city that was very great?” <sup>9</sup> And other people will reply, “He did it because his people stopped obeying the agreement that they had made with Yahweh their God. Instead, they worshiped [DOU] other gods.”

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh also says, “Do not mourn for King Josiah; do not cry because he has died.

Instead, mourn for King Jehoahaz, his son,
because he will be captured and taken to another country, and he will never return to see his own country, Judah, again.”

<sup>11</sup> Jehoahaz became king after his father, King Josiah, died, but Jehoahaz indeed was captured and taken to Babylonia. And this is what Yahweh says about him: “He also will never return to Judah. <sup>12</sup> He will die in that far-away country and will never see his own country again.”

A message about King Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup> And Yahweh said to me, “Terrible things will happen to King Jehoahaz’s brother, King Jehoiakim.

He unjustly forced men to build his palace.

The rooms on the upper level were built by men who were forced unjustly to do that work;

he forced his neighbors to work for nothing;

he did not pay them anything.

<sup>14</sup> He said, ‘I will force my workers to build a huge beautiful palace with very large rooms and many windows.

They will cover the walls with fragrant cedar panels/timber and paint them bright red.' "

15 But it is certainly not [RHQ] having a beautiful cedar palace that causes a king to be great!

Jehoiakim's father, Josiah, also had [RHQ] plenty of things to eat and drink.
But Josiah always did things that are right and just,
and that is why God blessed him.

16 Josiah acted justly/fairly and helped poor and needy people, so things went well for him.

Yahweh says, "That is [RHQ] the way a person should behave who knows me.

17 But Jehoiakim, you [MTY] are greedy and desire only to obtain things by acting dishonestly.

You murder [MTY] innocent people, you oppress poor people,
and you treat people cruelly and violently."

18 Therefore, this is what Yahweh says about Jehoiakim, the son of King Josiah:
"When he dies, people will not mourn for him.

They will not say to each other, 'It is very sad; we are so sorry!'
The people whom he ruled will not mourn for him, saying,
'We are sad that our king is dead; we are so sorry that the wonderful things that happened while he was king are ended.'

19 When he dies, people will do to his corpse what they do to a dead donkey; his corpse will be dragged out of Jerusalem and dumped outside the gates!

20 You people of Judah, go to the mountains in Lebanon and weep, shout in the mountains of the Bashan region, cry out in the mountains of Moab, because all your friends in those areas have been destroyed.

21 When you were prosperous, I warned you, but you replied, 'We will not pay attention to what you say.'
You have been acting like that since you were young;
you have never obeyed me.

22 So, now I will punish all your leaders; it will be as though they have been blown away by the wind. They will be captured by your enemies and taken to another country. When that happens, you will truly be ashamed and disgraced because of all the wicked things that you have done.

23 Now, your king enjoys living in the cedar rooms in his palace, but soon he will be punished, and then he will groan like [SIM] a woman who is giving birth to a baby."

God will punish King Jehoiachin

24 Yahweh says this: "Jehoiachin, son of King Jehoiakim of Judah, as surely as I am alive, I will punish you. Even if you were the ring on my finger that shows that I am the king, I would pull you off. 25 You are afraid of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his huge army, because they are wanting to kill you. I will enable them to capture you. 26 I will expel you and your mother from this land, and you will be taken to another country. Neither of you was born there, but you will both die there.

<sup>27</sup> You will never return to this land that you will very much desire to return to.”

<sup>28</sup> Someone said, “Jehoiachin will be [RHQ] like a broken pot that is despised and which no one wants.

He and his children will be ◀exiled/forced to go▶ to a foreign land.

<sup>29</sup> I want the people in this land to listen carefully to this message from Yahweh.”

“In the record about the kings of Judah, write down that it will be as though this man Jehoiachin had no children, and that he has not been successful during his life, because none of his children/descendants will ever become king to rule over the people of Judah.”

23

God will punish the evil leaders

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh declares, “Terrible things will happen to *the leaders [MET] of my people—those who are like shepherds of the people who are like my sheep—*because they have scattered my people and sent them away, and have not taken care of them. <sup>2</sup> So, this is what I, Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people worship, say to those leaders: ‘Instead of taking care of my people and leading them to places where they are safe, like a shepherd does for his sheep, you have scattered them. So I will punish you for the evil things that you have done. <sup>3</sup> But later I will gather those who are still alive, from the countries where I have forced them to go. I will bring them back to their own country, where they will have many children, and their number/population will increase. <sup>4</sup> Then I will appoint other leaders for my people, leaders who will take care of them. And my people will never be afraid [DOU] of anything again, and none of them will be like a lost sheep.’ ”

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh also says,

“Some day I will appoint for you a righteous man who will be a descendant of King David.

He will be a king who rules wisely.

He will do what is just and right throughout the land.

<sup>6</sup> At that time, all the Israeli people [DOU] will be saved from their enemies, and they will be safe.

And his name will be

‘Yahweh, the one who vindicates/defends us.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh also says that at that time, people who are solemnly promising to do something will no longer say, “I will do it as surely as Yahweh lives, who rescued the Israeli people from Egypt.” <sup>8</sup> Instead, they will say, “I will do it as surely as Yahweh lives, who brought us Israeli people back to our own land, from the land to the northeast and from all the other countries to which he had exiled us.” And they will live in their own land again.

The false prophets will be punished

<sup>9</sup> I am very shocked because of the sacred message that Yahweh has spoken about what will happen to the false prophets;

it is as though all my bones shake.

I stagger like a man who is drunk

after drinking a lot of wine.

<sup>10</sup> The land is full of people who commit adultery;

and Yahweh has cursed the land.
Even the pastures in the desert are all dried up, because the people do what is evil, and the false prophets use their power to do things that are not just/fair.

11 Yahweh says, “Yes, even the priests and the prophets are ungodly; they do wicked things even in my temple.

12 Therefore, it will be as though the paths that they walk on are slippery.
It will be as though they are being chased in the darkness, and there they will fall down, because I will cause them to experience disasters at the time that I will punish them.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

13 Previously I saw that the prophets in Samaria were doing something that was wrong;
they were prophesying, saying that Baal gave them the messages that they were proclaiming,
and they were deceiving my people.

14 And now I have seen the prophets in Jerusalem doing terrible things.
They commit adultery and habitually tell lies.

They encourage evil people to continue to do evil things, with the result that the people do not stop sinning.

Those prophets are as wicked as the people in Sodom and Gomorrah were.

15 So, this is what the Commander of the armies of angels says about those false prophets:

“I will give those prophets bitter things to eat and poison to drink, because it is because of them that this land is filled with people who do wicked things.”

16 This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says:

“Do not pay any attention to what those false prophets say to you, because they are just deceiving you.

They tell you about visions that they have thought/created only in their own minds, not about visions that I have given them.

17 They habitually say to those who hate me,
‘Yahweh says that you will have peace.’

And they say to those who stubbornly do what they want to do, ‘Nothing bad will happen to you because of your doing those things.’

18 But none of them has ever been in a council meeting in heaven in order to listen to a message from me.

None of them has paid attention to anything that I, Yahweh, have said.

19 So, listen to this: I will punish them; it will be like a great storm;
it will come down like a whirlwind, swirling around the heads of those wicked people.

20 I will not stop being angry until I completely accomplish all that I have planned.
In the future, you will understand all of this clearly.”

21 Yahweh also says, “I have not appointed those prophets, but they run around telling people their messages.”

I did not speak to them,
but they continue to prophesy.

<sup>22</sup> If they had been in my council meetings, they would have been able to speak messages from me, and they would have caused people to turn away from committing evil things.”

<sup>23</sup> Yahweh also says, “Am I a God who is only nearby?
No, I am a God who is far away, also.

<sup>24</sup> So, no one can hide in some secret place with the result that I cannot see him.
I am everywhere, in heaven and on the earth!

That is what I, Yahweh, say!

<sup>25</sup> I have heard those prophets prophesy lies, saying that they are telling people messages from me. They say, ‘Listen to me tell you the dream that God gave me last night! I really had this dream!’ <sup>26</sup> How long will they continue to do this? How long will those lying prophets continue to prophesy things that come only from their own minds? <sup>27</sup> They think that because of the dreams that they tell to each other, people will forget me, like their ancestors forgot about me when they started to worship Baal. <sup>28</sup> Allow those false prophets to tell people their dreams, but those who have messages that really come from me should proclaim those messages faithfully. I, Yahweh, say that like straw and grain are certainly very different, my messages and the messages from those false prophets are certainly very different. <sup>29</sup> It is as though my messages burn like a fire; they strike people’s inner beings like someone strikes a rock with a hammer and smashes it into pieces.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, I, Yahweh say, ‘I oppose all those prophets who steal messages from each other and claim that those messages came from me. <sup>31</sup> I oppose those prophets who speak their own messages but claim that those messages came from me. <sup>32</sup> I oppose those prophets who falsely say that I told them something in a vision, but they are only telling lies that cause my people to sin. I did not send those prophets. I did not even appoint them to be prophets. And they have no messages that will benefit my people at all.’ That is what I, Yahweh, declare.”

Messages from false prophets

<sup>33</sup> Yahweh said to me, “If one of those prophets or priests or one of the other people asks you, ‘What problem has Yahweh told you about now?’ you must reply, ‘You are the problem! And Yahweh says that he will abandon you!’ <sup>34</sup> And if any prophet or priest or anyone else falsely says, ‘I have a prophecy from Yahweh,’ I will punish that person and his family. <sup>35</sup> What you should continually ask each other is, ‘When you spoke to Yahweh, what did he reply? What is he saying to us?’ <sup>36</sup> But stop saying ‘I have a prophecy/message from Yahweh,’ because those who say that are doing it only because they want people to accept their ideas, and by doing that they distort/change the messages that are from our God, the Commander of the armies of angels. <sup>37</sup> This is what you should ask each prophet: ‘What did Yahweh reply when you talked to him? What is he saying to us?’ <sup>38</sup> If he replies, ‘What I told you is a prophecy/message from Yahweh,’ you should say to him, ‘You have continued to say, “I received a prophecy/message from Yahweh” even though I told you to not claim that you have received prophecies/messages from Yahweh.’ <sup>39</sup> So I, Yahweh, will get rid of you false prophets. I will expel you from my presence. And I will get rid of this city that I gave to you and to your ancestors. <sup>40</sup> I will cause people to make fun of you forever. People will never forget that you were disgraced.”

Good figs and bad figs

<sup>1</sup> The army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon captured Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, and his officials, and all his skilled workers [DOU] and took them to Babylon. After that happened, Yahweh gave me a vision. In the vision I saw two baskets of figs that had been placed in front of the temple. <sup>2</sup> One basket was full of good figs, like the kind that ripen first. The other basket was filled with figs that were bad/rotten, with the result that they could not be eaten.

I replied, “I see some figs. Some are very good ones, but some are very bad, with the result that no one would eat them.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>5</sup> “This is what I, Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people say that they worship, say: ‘The good figs represent [SIM] the people of Judah whom I exiled to Babylonia. <sup>6</sup> I [SYN] will ◀watch over/take care of▶ them well, and some day I will bring them back here to Judah. I will establish them and cause them to be strong. I will cause them to be prosperous [MET], and I will not exile them again. <sup>7</sup> I will enable them to desire to know [IDM] that I am Yahweh. They will be my people, and I will be their God, because they will return to me sincerely.’

<sup>8</sup> But I, Yahweh, also say, ‘The bad figs represent [SIM] Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and his officials, and all the other people who remain in Jerusalem, and those who have gone to Egypt. I will do to them like people do to rotten figs. <sup>9</sup> I will get rid of them, with the result that people in every nation on the earth will be horrified, and will hate them because they are evil people. Wherever I scatter them, people will make fun of them, and say that they are disgraced, and ridicule them, and curse them. <sup>10</sup> And I will cause them to experience wars and famines and diseases, until they have disappeared from this land which I gave to them and to their ancestors.’ ”

A prediction about being exiled for 70 years

<sup>1</sup> After Jehoiakim had been ruling Judah for almost four years, Yahweh gave me this message for all the people of Judah. It was during the year that King Nebuchadnezzar started to rule in Babylon. <sup>2</sup> I spoke this message to all the people in Jerusalem and other places in Judah: <sup>3</sup> “Yahweh has been giving me messages for 23 years. He started giving me messages when Josiah, the son of Amon, had been ruling Judah for almost 13 years. And I have faithfully told you those messages, but you have not paid any attention to them.

<sup>4</sup> Many times Yahweh has sent to you the prophets who served him, but you have not listened to them or paid any attention to what they said. <sup>5</sup> Each time their message was this: ‘Turn from all your evil behavior [MET], from all the evil things that you have continually been doing. If you do that, you will be able to stay in this land that Yahweh gave to you and to your ancestors, to belong to you forever. <sup>6</sup> Do not cause Yahweh to become angry by serving and worshiping idols that you have made with your hands. If you do not cause him to be angry, he will not punish/harm you.’

<sup>7</sup> And Yahweh says, ‘But you would not pay attention to the messages that I gave to those prophets. You caused me to become extremely angry by your worshiping idols that you had made with your own hands. That resulted in my punishing you.

<sup>8</sup> So now, I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say that because you have not paid attention to what I said, <sup>9</sup> I will gather all the armies of the nations that will come from the northeast. I have appointed King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to lead them. I have appointed him to do my work for me. I will bring those armies to attack this land and nearby countries. I will completely destroy them, and cause them to be places that people are horrified about, and that people will ◀ridicule/act contemptuously toward▶, places that will be ruined forever. <sup>10</sup> I will cause happy singing and laughing to cease in your land. There will no longer be brides and bridegrooms talking joyfully. There will not be the sound of people grinding grain with millstones. There will be no lamps lit in your houses. <sup>11</sup> All of this land will become a desert where no one will live. And the people of Israel and of the nearby countries will will be exiled to Babylonia and ◀work for/be slaves of▶ the kings of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup> Then, after they have been in Babylonia for seventy years, I will punish the King of Babylonia and his people for the sins that they have committed. I will cause Babylonia to become a wasteland/desert forever. <sup>13</sup> I will cause them to experience all the terrible things that Jeremiah has written about—all the punishments that he predicted will happen to all those nations. <sup>14</sup> The leaders of many nations will cause the people of Babylonia to become their slaves, like the people of Babylonia caused my people to become slaves. I will punish them like they deserve for having caused my people to suffer. ”

The wine that symbolized God's punishment

<sup>15</sup> Then Yahweh, the God we Israelis worship, gave me a vision. In the vision he was holding a cup of wine. He said, “Take from me this cup that is full of wine that represents punishment [MTY]. I will cause all the leaders of the nations to which I will send you to drink some of the wine in this cup. <sup>16</sup> When they drink the wine, they will stagger and act like crazy people, because they will realize that I will ◀massacre many of their people/cause many of their people to be killed▶ [MTY] with swords.”

<sup>17</sup> So, in the vision, I took that cup full of wine from Yahweh, and I took it to all the nations to which he sent me, and caused the leaders of those nations to drink some of that wine. <sup>18</sup> I went to Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah, and the king and the other officials drank some of the wine from that cup. And, starting from that day, they all eventually were removed from having authority, and became people whom others ◀ridiculed/acted contemptuously towards▶, who were despised, and cursed. <sup>19</sup> In the vision I went to Egypt and gave some of the wine to the king and his officials and many of his people, <sup>20</sup> and to foreigners who were living there. In the vision I also went to Uz land and to Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and Ashdod cities and gave some of the wine to the kings of those places. <sup>21</sup> Then in the vision I went to the Edom, Moab, and Ammon people-groups, <sup>22</sup> and to Tyre and Sidon cities and to areas across the Mediterranean Sea, and gave some of the wine to the kings of those places. <sup>23</sup> In the vision I then went to Dedan, Tema, and Buz cities in Arabia and to other distant places (OR, places where people cut their hair short), and gave some of the wine to leaders in those areas. <sup>24</sup> In the vision I also went to other places in Arabia and to the kings of tribes in the desert <sup>25</sup> and to the kings of the Zimri, Elam, and Media people-groups, <sup>26</sup> and to kings in countries to the north that are near to Israel and to countries that are far from Israel, one after the other— I went to all the kingdoms in the world [HYP]. And finally, in my vision I went to Babylon, and gave some of the wine to the king of Babylon—the wine that symbolized that Yahweh would punish the people of Babylon because he was angry with them [MTY].

<sup>27</sup> Then in the vision Yahweh said to me, “Tell them that this is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: ‘Drink from this cup some of the wine that represents the punishment that I will give you. Drink a lot of it and become drunk and vomit. You will fall down and not get up again, because I will cause you to be killed in wars [MTY] that I will send to you. <sup>28</sup> If any of those to whom you give this wine [MTY] refuse to drink it, tell them that the Commander of the armies of angels says that they must drink it. <sup>29</sup> I am starting to cause the people of my own city to experience disaster. Do you think that you should not be punished [RHQ]? No, you will surely be punished [LIT] because I am causing there to be wars in all the nations on the earth. That will surely happen because I, the Commander of the armies of angels, have said it.'

<sup>30</sup> Now tell them all those things that I have said, and also say this to them:

'Yahweh will shout to them from his holy dwelling in heaven [MTY] and it will sound like the roar of a lion.

He will shout like [SIM] people shout when they are treading on grapes to make juice for wine;

he will shout to everyone on the earth.

<sup>31</sup> Even people in very remote places around the earth will hear him shouting, because he will say why he will judge and punish all the nations.

He will cause the wicked people to be slaughtered with swords.

That will surely happen because Yahweh has said it.'

<sup>32</sup> Then tell them that this is what the Commander of the armies of angels says: 'Listen to this!

There will be disasters in one nation after another. I am preparing to punish them like [MET] a great storm that starts in the most distant places on the earth.

<sup>33</sup> When that happens, the corpses of those whom I have caused to be slaughtered will fill the earth from the east to the west.

And no one will mourn for them, and no one will gather their corpses to bury them. They will be scattered on the ground like manure.

You who should take care of my people, fall down and roll in the dust/dirt. It is time for you to be slaughtered; you will fall down and be shattered like a fragile vase shatters when it falls to the ground.

<sup>35</sup> You will not find any place to hide, there will be no place to which you can escape.

<sup>36</sup> People will listen to your leaders crying when I, Yahweh, am ruining your nation.

<sup>37</sup> Your peaceful meadows will become a wasteland/desert because I will be extremely angry.

<sup>38</sup> I will leave my dwelling like [SIM] a lion leaves its den to attack other animals, and I will cause your land to become desolate when I, because I am very angry with you, cause your enemies to slaughter you with their swords.' "

26

Jeremiah escaped being killed

<sup>2</sup> "This is what I, Yahweh, am telling you: Stand in the courtyard in front of my temple, and speak to all the people from the various towns in Judah who come there to worship me. Tell them everything that I tell you; do not omit anything. <sup>3</sup> If you do tell them everything, perhaps they will pay attention, and each one of them will turn away from his evil behavior. Then I will change my mind, and not cause them to experience the disaster that I was planning to cause them to experience because of the evil things that they have done. <sup>4-5</sup> Say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh says: I sent to you the prophets who serve me, to tell you what you should do. I sent them to you many times, but you have not paid attention to what they said. If you will not pay attention to what I say and do not obey the message that I have given to you, and if you do not pay attention to what the prophets say, <sup>6</sup> I will destroy this temple like I destroyed Shiloh, the place where the Sacred Tent was put. And I will cause Jerusalem to be a place whose name people in every nation on the earth will say when they curse someone.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> When I did what Yahweh told me to do, the priests, the false prophets, and many other people listened to me as I told them that message outside the temple. <sup>8</sup> But as soon as I finished telling them everything that Yahweh had commanded me to say, they all seized me and said, “You must be executed! <sup>9</sup> Why [RHQ] are you prophesying that this temple will be destroyed like Shiloh was destroyed? Why are you saying that this city will be destroyed, and that no one will live here any more? (OR, You should not be prophesying) [RHQ]” All the people surrounded me as I stood in front of the temple.

<sup>10</sup> When the officials of Judah heard about all this that was happening, they rushed from the palace and sat down at the gate of the temple named The New Gate, to judge my case. <sup>11</sup> The priests and the false prophets told the officials and the other people who were there, “This man should be executed, because he has prophesied that this city will be destroyed, and you yourselves [MTY] have heard him say that!”

<sup>12</sup> Then I replied to the officials and the other people, saying, “Yahweh sent me to prophesy all the things that you heard me say about what will happen to this temple and this city. <sup>13</sup> But if you change your behavior and stop sinning, and start to obey Yahweh our God, he will change his mind, and not cause you to experience the disasters that he said that he would send. <sup>14</sup> As for me, I am not able to free myself from your grasp. So you can do to me whatever you want to do. <sup>15</sup> But you need to know that if you kill me, you will be killing a man [SYN] who ◀is innocent/has not done anything wrong▶. And you and everyone else in this city will be guilty, because the truth is that it was Yahweh who sent me to speak every word that you have heard me say.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and the other people said to the priests and the false prophets, “This man does not deserve to be executed, because he has spoken to us the message [MTY] that Yahweh gave him!”

<sup>17</sup> Then some of the elders stood up and spoke to all the people who were gathered there. <sup>18</sup> They said, “◀Remember/Think about▶ what Micah, the prophet from Moresheth town, prophesied during the years that Hezekiah was the King of Judah. He told the people of Judah this:

‘This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says:

*Some day Zion Hill will be plowed like fields are plowed;
Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins.*

There will be a large clump/group of trees on top of the hill where the temple is now.’

<sup>19</sup> But did [RHQ] King Hezekiah or anyone else in Judah kill Micah for saying that? No! Instead, Hezekiah revered Yahweh, and pleaded that he would ◀act mercifully toward/not destroy▶ them. So, Yahweh changed his mind about causing them to experience the terrible disaster that he said he would send. And now if we kill Jeremiah, we are going to cause ourselves to experience a terrible disaster!”

<sup>20</sup> At that time, Uriah the son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-Jearim city was also prophesying/proclaiming messages [MTY] from Yahweh. He was predicting that the city and the rest of the land would experience the same disasters that I was predicting.

<sup>21</sup> When King Jehoiakim and his army officers and officials heard what Uriah was saying, the king sent someone to kill Uriah. But Uriah heard about it, and became very afraid, and he ◀escaped/ran away▶ to Egypt. <sup>22</sup> Then King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan the son of Achbor along with several other men to Egypt. <sup>23</sup> They captured Uriah and took him back to Jerusalem to King Jehoiakim. The king then had a soldier kill Uriah with a sword. Then they buried his corpse in a place where poor people are buried.

<sup>24</sup> However, Ahikam the son of Shaphan defended me, and persuaded the officials not to allow [MTY] the mob to murder me.

Jeremiah urged them to surrender to Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>1</sup> Soon after Zedekiah became the King of Judah, Yahweh gave a message to me. <sup>2</sup> This is what he said to me: “Make a ◀yoke/set of wooden bars to fasten around the neck of an ox▶, but fasten it around your own neck with leather straps. <sup>3</sup> Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, by telling those messages to the ambassadors from those countries who have come to Jerusalem to talk to King Zedekiah. <sup>4</sup> Tell them to give this message to their kings: This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom the Israeli people worship, says: <sup>5</sup> ‘With my very great power [MTY, DOU] I created the earth and the people and the animals that are on the earth. And I can give my power to anyone whom I want to. <sup>6</sup> And now I am going to enable King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who does what I want him to do, to control your countries. I am going to enable him to rule everything, even the wild animals. <sup>7</sup> The people of all the nations will work for him, and later for his son, and later for his grandson, until the time for them to rule is finished. Then the armies of many great kings from many nations will conquer Babylon.’

<sup>8</sup> But now I tell you that you must do what the king of Babylon wants you to do [MET], like an ox that has a yoke on its neck must do what its master wants it to do. I will punish any nation that refuses to do that. I will cause those people to experience war and famine and diseases, until the armies of Babylon have conquered that nation. <sup>9</sup> So, do not pay attention to your false prophets and fortune-tellers and people who predict what will happen by working magic or by talking with spirits of dead people. Those people say that the king of Babylon will not conquer your country. <sup>10</sup> Those people are all liars. If you believe what they say, it will result in your being exiled from your land. I will cause you to be taken from your land, and you will die far away. <sup>11</sup> But the people of any country who do what the King of Babylon wants them to do will remain in their own country and be able to plant their crops [MTY] as they always have done. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

<sup>12</sup> After I gave that message to those ambassadors, I gave the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah. I said to him, “If you want to remain alive, do what the King of Babylon and his officials want you to do [MET]. <sup>13</sup> It would be foolish for you not to do that, because the result would be that you and your people would die by your enemies’ swords or by famine or diseases, which Yahweh will cause any nation to experience that refuses to allow the King of Babylon to rule them. <sup>14</sup> Do not pay attention to those prophets who say to you, ‘The King of Babylon will not conquer your country.’ They are liars. <sup>15</sup> This is what Yahweh says: ‘I have not appointed those prophets. They are saying that I [MTY] gave them messages, but they are lying. So, if you believe them, I will expel you from this land. And you and all those prophets will die in Babylon!’ ”

<sup>16</sup> Then I spoke to the priests and the other people, and I said, “This is what Yahweh says: ‘Do not believe your prophets who tell you that all the gold items that were taken from my temple by soldiers from Babylon will soon be returned from Babylon, because what they are prophesying is a lie. <sup>17</sup> Do not pay attention to what they say. Surrender to the king of Babylon. If you do that, you will remain alive. If you do not do that [RHQ], this entire city will be destroyed. <sup>18</sup> If they are really prophets who speak messages from me, tell them to plead to me, the Commander of the armies of angels, that the soldiers from Babylon will not be allowed to take away to Babylon the valuable items that still remain in the temple and in the king’s palace and in the other palaces in Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> I say this because the huge pillars that are in front of the temple and the large water tank and the ten water carts and all the other items that are used for offering sacrifices are still in this city. <sup>20</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon left those things here when he exiled Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, to Babylon, along with all the other leaders of Jerusalem and the leaders of other places in Judah. <sup>21</sup> I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom the Israeli people worship, say this about all those valuable things that are still outside the temple and in the palace of the king of Judah and in other places in Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup> They will all be carried away to Babylon. And they will stay there until I say that they should be brought back to Jerusalem. Then they will be bought back here. That is what I, Yahweh, say.’ ”

Jeremiah condemned Hananiah

<sup>1</sup> When Zedekiah had been the King of Judah for more than three years, late in the ◀summer/hot season▶, Azzur’s son Hananiah, a prophet from Gibeon city, spoke to me in the courtyard of the temple, while all the priests and other people were listening. He said, <sup>2</sup> “This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: ‘I will cause the king of Babylon to stop ruling/controlling [MET] all of you. <sup>3</sup> ◀Within two years/Before two years have ended▶, I will cause to be brought bring back to this temple all the valuable things that King Nebuchadnezzar’s soldiers took from this temple and took to Babylon. <sup>4</sup> And I will also cause King Jehoiachin to be brought back here, and all the other people who were captured and taken to Babylon. The king of Babylon has forced you to do what he wants, like someone puts a yoke on the neck of an ox to force it to do what he wants [MET] it to do. But I will cause that to end. That will happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.’ ”

<sup>5</sup> I replied to Hananiah in front of all the priests and other people who were standing outside the temple. <sup>6</sup> I said, “◀Amen/May that happen▶! I desire/hope that what you have predicted will happen. I hope/desire that Yahweh will do everything that you have said! I hope/desire that he will cause men from Babylon to bring back from Babylon all the valuable things that were in this temple, and all the people who were taken to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> But now listen to what I say to you while all these people are listening. <sup>8</sup> Many years ago, those who were prophets before you and I became prophets spoke messages about many nations and great kingdoms. They predicted/prophesied that wars and disasters and plagues/diseases would occur in those nations. <sup>9</sup> So now you or any other prophet who predicts that things will go well for us must show that your message is correct. Only if what you predict actually happens will we know that you were truly appointed by Yahweh.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Hananiah took the yoke off my neck and broke it. <sup>11</sup> Then he said this to all the people who were there: “This is what Yahweh says: ‘Just like Hananiah has broken this yoke, within two years I will cause King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to stop forcing the people to do what he wants, which has been like a heavy yoke on all their necks [MET].’ ” After Hananiah said that, I left the temple area.

<sup>12</sup> Soon after Hananiah had broken the yoke that was around my neck, Yahweh gave this message to me: <sup>13</sup> “Go and say this to Hananiah: ‘Yahweh says that you have broken a wooden yoke, but that he will replace it with an iron yoke. <sup>14</sup> I have forced the people of all these nations to become slaves of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. That is like [MET] an iron yoke around their necks. I have put everything, even wild animals, under his control.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> Then I went to Hananiah and said to him, “Hananiah, listen to this: Yahweh has not appointed you; instead, you have told lies to the people, and they have believed your lies. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what Yahweh says: ‘You will soon die. Before the end of this year, you will die, because you have rebelled against Yahweh.’ ”

The letter Jeremiah sent to the people of Judah who had been exiled to Babylonia

<sup>1-2</sup> After King Jehoiachin, his mother, his palace officials, other officials in Judah, and all the various kinds of craftsmen [DOU] had been exiled to Babylon, I wrote a letter to the elders, the priests, the prophets and all the other people who had been taken from Jerusalem to Babylon by soldiers of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>3</sup> I gave the letter to Elasah the son of Shaphan, and to Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, when they were about to go to Babylon to be ambassadors from King Zedekiah to King Nebuchadnezzar. This is what I wrote in the letter:

<sup>4</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says to all you people who were captured here in Jerusalem and taken there to Babylon: <sup>5</sup> “Build houses there, and plan to stay there because you will be there for many years. Plant gardens, and eat the food that is produced in the gardens. <sup>6</sup> Get married and have children. Then when they grow up, choose wives for your sons, and husbands for your daughters, in order that they also may have children. In that way, the number of you people will increase, not decrease. <sup>7</sup> Also, do things that will cause things to go well for the other people there in the city where I sent you. Pray that things will go well for the people in that city, because if things go well for them, things will go well for you, also.”

<sup>8</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israeli people worship, says: “There are false prophets and fortune-tellers among you. Do not allow them to deceive you. Do not pay attention to them when they tell you their dreams, <sup>9</sup> because they are telling you lies, saying that [MTY] I have given them the messages that they are telling you. But, I have not appointed them.”

<sup>10</sup> This is also what Yahweh says: “After you and your children have been in Babylon for seventy years, I will help you, and do for you the things that I promised, and I will enable you to return here to Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> I, Yahweh, know what I have planned for you. I am planning to cause things to go well for you, not to cause you to experience disasters. I am planning to give you many things that you confidently expect to receive in the future. <sup>12</sup> At that time, when you pray, I will heed you. <sup>13</sup> If you earnestly desire for me to bless you, you will experience me blessing you. <sup>14</sup> I will make my help available to you [IDM]. I will cause you to no longer be slaves in Babylon. I will gather you from all the nations to which I have exiled you, and I will bring you back here to your own land, to the place from which you were taken.”

<sup>16</sup> But this is what Yahweh says about the king who rules here in Jerusalem, and about all the other people who are still living here—your relatives who were not taken to Babylon with you. <sup>17</sup> The Commander of the armies of angels says this: “I will cause them to experience wars and famines and diseases. I will cause them to become like [SIM] bad figs that are very rotten, with the result that no one can eat them. <sup>18</sup> I will not stop causing them to experience wars and famines and diseases. And I will scatter them all around the world. In every country where I ◀force them to be taken/exile them▶, I will cause them to be people whom others curse and be horrified about and make fun of [DOU]. <sup>19</sup> That will happen because they have refused to pay attention to my messages, messages that I gave to the prophets whom I sent to them. And you who have been exiled to Babylon have not paid attention to them, either.” That is what Yahweh says.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, you people who have been ◀exiled/forced to go▶ from Jerusalem to Babylon, listen to this message from Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says about Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and about Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, who are telling lies to you, saying that they are giving messages [MTY] from him: “They will be seized and taken to [MTY] King Nebuchadnezzar, who will cause them to be executed while you are watching. <sup>22</sup> Because of what will happen to them, all you people who have been taken from Judah to Babylon will say this when they curse someone: ‘I hope/wish that Yahweh will do to you the same thing that he did to Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the King of Babylon caused to be killed by being burned in a fire.’ <sup>23</sup> They have done terrible things to my Israeli people. They have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and they have spoken lies, saying that they were messages [MTY] from me. They have said things that I did not tell them to say, and I, Yahweh, have heard them say those things.”

A message for Shemaiah

<sup>24</sup> Yahweh told me to send this message to Shemaiah, a man from Nehelam town who was living in Babylon: <sup>25</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: “You wrote a letter that no one told you to write. You sent it to Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, and you sent copies to the other priests and all the other people here in Jerusalem. This is what you wrote to him:

<sup>26</sup> Zephaniah, Yahweh has appointed you to be the priest instead of Jehoiada, to supervise those who work in the temple. Anyone who acts like a crazy man and who claims that he is a prophet, you should put his arms and legs and head into ◀stocks/a wooden frame so that he cannot move▶. <sup>27</sup> So why have you not done anything to stop Jeremiah, the man from Anathoth town, who pretends that he is a prophet among you? <sup>28</sup> He sent a letter to us who are here in Babylon, saying that we will be here for a long time. He said that therefore we should build houses and plan to stay here, and plant gardens, and eat the food that is produced in the gardens.”

<sup>29</sup> But when Zephaniah the priest received the letter from you, he brought it to me and read it to me. <sup>30</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>31</sup> “Send this message to all the people from Judah who are there in Babylon. Say that this is what Yahweh says about Shemaiah, the man from Nehelam: ‘I did not appoint him, but he has deceived you and caused you to believe the lies that he prophesied. <sup>32</sup> So, I will punish him and his family. He has incited you to rebel against me. Because of that, all of his descendants will soon die. I will do many good things for you, my people, but he and his descendants will not see those things, because they will be dead. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it! ”

30

Yahweh promised to bring his people back

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “I, Yahweh, the God whom the Israeli people say they belong to, am telling you that you should write down everything that I have said to you. <sup>3</sup> I want you to know that some day I will free my people, the people of Israel and Judah, from being slaves in Babylon. I will bring them back to this land that I gave to their ancestors, and this land will belong to them again. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

<sup>5</sup> This is what he said:

“I hear people screaming because they are terrified [DOU];
there is no peace in the land.

<sup>6</sup> But think about this:

Men certainly do not [RHQ] give birth to babies.

Therefore, why do strong men stand there, with their faces very white/pale,

with their hands pressed against their stomachs, like women who are about to give birth to babies?

<sup>7</sup> Terrible things will soon happen;

that will be a terrible day!

There has never been such a time.

It will be a time when my Israeli people will experience great trouble, but finally they will be saved from their sufferings.”

“At that time it will be as though I will sever/cut the ropes that are around my people, and I will free them from being ◀slaves/forced to do what the King of Babylon wants them to do▶ [MET].

People in other countries will no longer be their bosses.

<sup>9</sup> My people will again serve me, Yahweh, their God, and they will serve a king who is a descendant of King David;

they will serve the king whom I will appoint for them.

<sup>10</sup> So, you people of Israel who serve me, do not be dismayed/worried now,

because some day I will bring you back from distant places;

I will bring your descendants back home from the land to which they were exiled.

Then you Israeli people will again live peacefully and safely, and there will not be any nation that will cause you to be terrified.

<sup>11</sup> I, Yahweh, say that I will be with you and will rescue you;

I will completely destroy the nations to which I have scattered you.

But I will not completely destroy you.

I will punish you for your many sins, but I will punish you only as severely as you deserve:

I would be doing wrong if I did not punish you at all.”

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh also says this:

“You have ◀suffered very much/endured many disasters▶;

it is as though you have a terrible wound that cannot be cured.

13 There is no one to help you,
no one to put a bandage on your wound.
There is no medicine that will heal you.

14 All your allies [MET] have deserted you and they do not want to help you any more.

It is true that I have punished you severely,
like your enemies would wound you, because you have committed many sins and you are very guilty.

15 Because that is true, why do you protest about my punishing you, as though I had caused a wound that could not be cured [RHQ]?

It was necessary for me to punish you, because you had committed many sins and you were very guilty.

16 But some day all those who are trying to destroy you will be destroyed;
all your enemies will be exiled to other nations.

All those who have stolen things from you will have their valuable possessions stolen, and all those who attack you will be attacked.

17 Everyone says that you are ◀outcasts/people that they no longer associate with▶, and that you live in Jerusalem, a city that no one cares about."

But Yahweh says,

"I will heal your injuries/wounds and cause you to be healthy again."

18 This is what Yahweh says:

"I will bring the people of Israel back from the lands to which they were taken and enable them to possess their land and their houses again.

When that happens, Jerusalem will be rebuilt on top of its ruins, and the king's palace will be rebuilt to be like it was before.

19 People will again sing joyfully to thank me, and I will cause there to be more people in Jerusalem, not fewer;
I will cause them to be honored, not despised.

20 Their children will prosper like they did before.
I will cause them to be a group of people who worship me, and I will punish any nation that oppresses them.

21 One of their own people will be their king, and I will invite him to come close to me to worship me, because no one [RHQ] would ◀dare/have courage▶ to come close to me
if I did not invite him.

22 You Israeli people will be my people, and I will be your God."

23 Yahweh will punish [MTY] your enemies;
it will be like a great storm;
it will come down like a whirlwind, swirling around the heads of wicked people.

24 He will not stop being angry until he completely accomplishes all that he has planned.
In the future, you will understand all of this clearly.

31

Israel will be restored

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh says that at that time, he will be the God who is worshiped by all the clans in Israel, and they will be his people.

“Those people who remained alive and were not killed by their enemies’ swords were blessed by me even in the desert;
I enabled them to have peace.

<sup>3</sup> Long ago I, Yahweh, said to your ancestors, the Israeli people, ‘I have loved you and I will continue to love you forever.
By faithfully loving you, I have brought you close to myself.’

<sup>4</sup> And now I tell you, my Israeli people whom I love [MET], that I will cause you to be a nation again.

You will joyfully dance as you play your tambourines.

<sup>5</sup> Again you will plant your vineyards on the hills of Samaria, and you will eat the grapes that grow there.

<sup>6</sup> There will be a time when watchmen will call out from the hills of Samaria [MTY], ‘Come, let’s go up to Jerusalem to worship Yahweh, our God!’ ”

<sup>7</sup> And now Yahweh also says this:

“Sing joyfully about what I have done for the people of Israel!
Shout about your nation, the greatest nation!

Shout joyfully, praising me and saying, ‘Yahweh, rescue your people,
the ones who are still alive!’

<sup>8</sup> Do that because I will bring them back from the northeast, from the most distant places on the earth.

Among them will be blind people and lame people, women who are pregnant and women who are ◀having labor pains/about to give birth to babies▶.

They will be a huge group of people!

<sup>9</sup> They will be crying as they return, and they will be praying to me.

I will guide them along streams of water, on level paths where they will not stumble.

I will do this because I am like a father to the Israeli people;
it is as though Israel is my oldest son.”

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh says, “You people in the nations of the world, listen to this message from me.

Then proclaim it to people who live along the coasts far away.

I scattered my people, but I will gather them again and will take care of them like [SIM] a shepherd takes care of his sheep.

<sup>11</sup> I will buy my Israeli people back from those who conquered them because they were more powerful than my people.

<sup>12</sup> My people will return to Jerusalem and shout joyfully on the slopes of Zion Hill.

They will rejoice about the things that I have abundantly given to them—grain and new wine and olive oil and young sheep and cattle.

They themselves will be like a well-watered garden, and they will no longer be sad.

<sup>13</sup> The young women will dance joyfully, and all the men, young ones and old ones, will join with them.

I will cause them to rejoice instead of mourning;

I will comfort them and cause them to be happy instead of being sad.

<sup>14</sup> The priests will have plenty of things to eat and drink, and all my people will be filled with the good things that I give them.

That will certainly happen because I, Yahweh, have said it!"

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh also says this:

"Women were weeping in Ramah town on the border between Israel and Judah;
they were mourning and crying very loudly.

The women who were the descendants of Ephraim and Manasseh, the two grandsons of Rachel the wife of Jacob, were weeping about their children, and no one could comfort them because their children were all dead.

<sup>16</sup> But now this is what I, Yahweh, say:

'Do not cry any more, because I will reward you for the good things you have done for your children.

Your children will return from the land where their enemies have taken them.

<sup>17</sup> I, Yahweh, am telling you that there are things that you can confidently expect me to do for you in the future.

Your children will return to their own land.'

<sup>18</sup> I have heard the people of Israel grieving very much and saying to me,

'You punished us severely, like [SIM] calves are beaten by their owners to train them for pulling a plow.

So bring us back to obey/worship you again,

because we are ready to return to you, because you alone are Yahweh, our God.

<sup>19</sup> We turned away from you,

but we repented;

after you caused us to realize that we were guilty.

We beat our chests to show that we were very ashamed [DOU] of the sins that we committed when we were young.'

<sup>20</sup> But I, Yahweh, say this:

The Israeli people certainly are [RHQ] still my dear children [DOU].

It is often necessary for me to threaten to punish them, but I still love them.

That is why I have not forgotten them, and I will certainly act mercifully toward them.

<sup>21</sup> You Israeli people, set up road signs;

put up posts along the roads

to mark the road on which you walked when you were taken from Jerusalem.

My precious/beloved Israeli people, come back to your towns here.

<sup>22</sup> You people who have been like [MET] daughters who have forsaken their parents, how long will you continue to wander away from me [RHQ]?

I, Yahweh, will cause something to happen on the earth that ◀is new/has not happened before▶:

The women of Israel will be protecting their husbands as they travel back here!”

<sup>23</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israeli people worship, says: “When I bring them back from the countries to which they have been exiled, all the people from the towns in Judah will again say, ‘I hope that Yahweh will bless this my home, the holy place where righteous people will live!’ <sup>24</sup> The people of Judah who live in the towns, including the farmers and the shepherds, will all live together peacefully. <sup>25</sup> I will enable weary people to rest, and enable people who are very exhausted to become strong again.”

<sup>26</sup> I, Jeremiah, woke up after dreaming all those things, and I looked around. I had slept very delightfully!

<sup>27</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, “There will be a time when I will greatly increase [MET] the number of people and the number of livestock here in Israel and Judah. <sup>28</sup> Previously, I caused their enemies to remove the people from their land and to destroy their land and to cause them to experience many disasters [DOU]. But in the future, I will enable them to build houses and to plant crops here in Israel again. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it. <sup>29</sup> Previously the people often said, ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, but it is the children’s teeth that ache.’ They meant that it was not fair for them to be punished for their ancestors’ sins. But when I bring them back to their land, they will no longer say that.

<sup>30</sup> But now all people will die because of the sins that they themselves have committed. <sup>31</sup> I, Yahweh, say this: “There will be a time when I will make a new agreement with the people of Israel and Judah. <sup>32</sup> This new agreement will not be like the agreement that I made with their ancestors when I took them by their hands and led them out of Egypt. They broke that agreement, even though I loved them like [MET] husbands love their wives.’ <sup>33</sup> This is what I, Yahweh, say: ‘This is the new agreement that I will make with the people of Israel some day: I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their inner beings. I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>34</sup> And it will not be necessary for them to teach their neighbors or their relatives and say, “You need to know Yahweh,” because everyone, including unimportant people and very important people, will already know me. And I will forgive them for having been very wicked, and I will never think again about the sins that they have committed.’ ”

He stirs up the seas, with the result that waves roar.

His name is the Commander of the armies of angels, and this is what he says:

<sup>36</sup> “I will not reject my Israeli people any more than I will get rid of the laws that control the universe.

‘No one can measure the sky, and no one can find out what is supporting the earth. Similarly, I cannot reject forever the descendants of Jacob because of all the evil things that they have done.’

That is certain, because I, Yahweh, have said it!

<sup>38</sup> I, Yahweh, also say that there will be a time when everything in Jerusalem will be rebuilt for me, from the tower of Hananel at the northeast corner, west to the gate named the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup> Workers will stretch a measuring line/string over Gareb Hill all the way southwest to Goah. <sup>40</sup> And the whole area, including the place where corpses and ashes are thrown in the Kidron Valley, and all the fields to the east as far as the Horse Gate, will become set apart for me. And the city of Jerusalem will never again be captured or destroyed.”

Jeremiah bought some land

<sup>1</sup> After Zedekiah had been ruling Judah for almost ten years, Yahweh gave me another message, during the time that Nebuchadnezzar had been ruling Babylonia for almost 18 years. <sup>2</sup> His army was surrounding Jerusalem, and I was in a prison area in the courtyard where the guards of the king’s palace stayed. <sup>3</sup> King Zedekiah had put me there. I continued to prophesy there about what would happen. I continued to say, “Yahweh says that he is about to allow the army of the king of Babylon to capture this city [DOU]. <sup>4</sup> And the soldiers of Babylonia will capture King Zedekiah and ◀take him to/put him in the hands of▶ the king of Babylon. <sup>5</sup> Then his soldiers will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will remain there until I arrange for him to be punished. And if he tries to fight against the soldiers from Babylonia, he will not succeed.”

<sup>6</sup> At that time, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>7</sup> “Your cousin Hanamel, the son of Shallum your uncle, will come to you. He will say to you, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth, your hometown. Because you are my closest relative, it is written in our laws that you have the right to buy it before I ask if anyone else wants to buy it.’”

<sup>8</sup> And just as Yahweh had predicted, my cousin Hanamel came to see me in the courtyard of the palace. He said, “Please buy my field at Anathoth in the area where the descendants of Benjamin live. It is written in our laws that you have the right to buy it before I ask if anyone else wants to buy it.” When he said that, I knew that the message that I had received was truly from Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup> So, I bought the field at Anathoth. I paid Hanamel 17 pieces of silver for it. <sup>10</sup> I signed the paper/papyrus on which it was written that I was buying it, while others were watching/witnessing it. Then I weighed the silver and gave it to him. <sup>11</sup> Then I took two copies of the paper/papyrus. One was sealed and the other was not sealed. On both of them was written the price and conditions of the purchase. I took both copies <sup>12</sup> and I gave them to Baruch, who was the son of Neraiah and the grandson of Mahseiah. I did this while my cousin Hanamel, the other witnesses who had signed the paper/papyrus, and other men of Judah who were there in the courtyard, were watching.

<sup>13</sup> Then, while they were all listening, I said to Baruch, <sup>14</sup> “This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: ‘Take both copies of this paper/papyrus and put them in a clay jar, to preserve them for a long time. <sup>15</sup> Do that because this is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israelis worship, say: “Some day people will again own property in this land, and they will buy and sell houses and vineyards and fields.’”

Jeremiah’s query about buying the land

<sup>16</sup> After I had given the papers/papyri to Baruch, I prayed to Yahweh, saying this:

<sup>17</sup> “Yahweh, you are my Lord! You made the sky and the earth by your very great power. [MTY, DOU] Nothing is too difficult for you to do. <sup>18</sup> You show thousands of people that you faithfully love them, but you punish people for the sins that their parents have committed. You are the great and powerful God, the Commander of the armies of angels. <sup>19</sup> You make wise plans and you do mighty deeds. You see how all people behave [DOU], and you do to them what they deserve. <sup>20</sup> You performed many miracles [DOU] in Egypt, and you continue to perform miracles here in Israel and everywhere else in the world. Because of that, you have ◀become very famous/caused many people to know that you are very great/powerful▶. <sup>21</sup> You brought our Israeli ancestors out of Egypt by performing many great miracles [DOU], using your very great power [DOU], causing our enemies to be terrified. <sup>22</sup> You gave to us Israeli people this land that you solemnly promised to give to our ancestors, a land that is very fertile [IDM]. <sup>23</sup> Our ancestors came here and conquered this land and started to live in it, but they refused to obey you or to do what you commanded them to do. Because of that, you have caused us to experience all these disasters.

<sup>24</sup> And now, the army of Babylonia has built ramps up against our city walls in order to attack our city. Because of our enemies' swords and because of famines and diseases, they will be able to conquer it easily. The things that you said would happen have now happened. <sup>25</sup> And it is evident that the Babylonian army will soon conquer this city. So now, Yahweh my Lord, I do not understand why you told me to buy this field with my silver, while others were watching. It seems that I have just been wasting my money by doing that!"

Yahweh's reply about buying the land

<sup>26</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>27</sup> "I am Yahweh, the God who rules all the people in the world. There is absolutely nothing [RHQ] that is too difficult for me to do. <sup>28</sup> So, this is what I say: It is true that I will enable the Babylonian army and King Nebuchadnezzar to capture this city. <sup>29</sup> The soldiers of Babylonia who are now outside the walls around the city will enter and burn this city. They will burn down all the houses where people caused me to become angry by burning incense on the tops of their roofs to honor Baal and by pouring out offerings of wine to other gods.

<sup>30</sup> The people of Israel and Judah have continually done only evil things from the time that they became a nation. They have caused me to become very angry by all their evil deeds. <sup>31</sup> From the time that this city was built until now, the people of this city have done only things that caused me to be very angry [DOU]. So now I will destroy it. <sup>32</sup> The people of Israel and Judah, including their kings, their officials, the priests, the false prophets, and all the other people in Jerusalem have committed many sins that have caused me to become angry. <sup>33</sup> My people have turned away from me and have refused to return to me. Even though I taught them things many times, they would not pay attention to what I taught them, and they would not obey me. <sup>34</sup> They have set up their detestable idols even in my own [MTY] temple and ◀defiled it/caused it to become a place that is unacceptable for people to worship me▶. <sup>35</sup> They have built shrines to honor Baal in Ben-Hinnom Valley outside Jerusalem, and there they sacrifice their sons and daughters to their god Molech. I never commanded them to do such horrible things. I never even thought that anyone might do such a terrible thing. And by doing it they have caused all the people of Judah to be guilty of having sinned."

The promise to restore Judah and Israel

<sup>36</sup> "But now I will say something more about this city. You people of Jerusalem have been saying, 'The army of the King of Babylon will conquer it, either by their swords or because of famines or diseases.' But this is what I, Yahweh, the God whom you Israeli people say you belong to, say: <sup>37</sup> 'I will certainly bring my people back here again, from all the countries to which I will force them to go because I am extremely angry [DOU] with them. I will bring them back to this city and allow them to live here safely. <sup>38</sup> They will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup> I will cause them to have one way of thinking [IDM] and behaving, in order that they may revere me, for their good and for the good of their descendants. <sup>40</sup> I will make an agreement with them that will last forever: I will never stop doing good things for them, and I will encourage them to revere me and never turn away from me. <sup>41</sup> I will be happy to do good things for them, and I will surely enable them to return to this land and remain here [MET]; I will do that with all my inner being and all my strength.'

<sup>42</sup> And this is also what I, Yahweh, say: 'I have caused them to experience all these disasters. Similarly, some day I will do for them all the good things that I have promised. <sup>43</sup> By buying land you, Jeremiah, have predicted that some day people will buy and sell fields in this land about which you people of Jerusalem now say, "The Babylonian soldiers have destroyed it. It is now desolate. It is a land where there are no longer any people or animals." <sup>44</sup> But some day people will again buy and sell fields here. People will sign documents about buying those fields, and other people will witness them doing that. That will happen in the land where the descendants of Benjamin live and here in the villages near Jerusalem, in other towns in Judah, in the hilly areas and in the foothills to the west, and in the southern desert area, too. Some day I will cause them to prosper again. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "

33

The promise that God will enable the Israeli people to prosper again

<sup>1</sup> While I was still being guarded in the courtyard of the palace, Yahweh gave me this second message: <sup>2</sup> "This is what I, the one who made the earth, who formed/shaped it and put it in its place, say to the people of Jerusalem: 'My name is Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Call out to me, and then I will tell you great and wonderful things that you have not known before.' <sup>4</sup> This is what I, Yahweh, the God whom you Israeli people say you belong to, say: 'The men in this city have torn down some of their houses, and even parts of the king's palace, to get materials to strengthen the walls around the city, in order that the soldiers of Babylonia will not be able to break through the walls after they climb up the ramps that they have built against the walls, and kill the inhabitants with their swords. <sup>5</sup> You are expecting to fight against the army from Babylonia, but what will happen is that the houses of this city will be filled with the corpses of the men of this city whom I will allow to be killed because I am extremely angry [DOU] with them. I have abandoned them because of all the wicked things that they have done.

<sup>6</sup> However, there will be a time when I will cause the people in this city to be healthy and strong again. I will enable them to be prosperous and have peace. <sup>7</sup> I will bring the people of Judah and Israel back from the lands to which they were exiled. I will enable them to rebuild their towns. <sup>8</sup> I will get rid of their guilt for all the sins that they have committed against me, and I will forgive them for their sin of rebelling against me. <sup>9</sup> When that happens, all the nations of the world will rejoice, and they will praise me and honor me. They will hear about all the good things that I have done for this city and, because of that, they will revere me, and they will tremble because I have caused the people in this city to have peace and to prosper.'

<sup>10</sup> And this is also what I, Yahweh, say: 'You people have said that this is a land where there are no longer any people or animals. But in the streets of Jerusalem that are now completely empty [DOU], and in the other towns in Judah, <sup>11</sup> some day people will again be happy and laugh. Brides and bridegrooms will again sing joyfully. And many other people will also sing joyfully as they bring their offerings to me to thank me for what I have done for them. They will sing this song:

"We thank you, the Commander of the armies of angels, because you are good to us.

You faithfully love us forever."

They will sing that because I will cause the people of this land to be as prosperous as they were before.'

<sup>12</sup> This land is now desolate. There are no people or animals living here. But I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say this: 'In this land there will again be pastures/fields where shepherds will lead their sheep. <sup>13</sup> Shepherds will again count their sheep as the sheep walk by, outside the towns in the hilly area, in the western foothills, in the southern desert area, in the land where the descendants of Benjamin live, around Jerusalem, and outside all the other towns in Judah.' That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.

<sup>14</sup> Listen to this! I, Yahweh, say that there will be a time when I will do for the people of Israel and Judah all the good things that I promised to do for them.

<sup>15</sup> At that time [DOU] I will appoint a righteous man who will be a descendant [MET] of King David.

Throughout the land, he will do what is just and right.

<sup>16</sup> At that time, the people of Judah will be rescued from their enemies, and the people of Jerusalem will be safe.

And people will say that the name of the city is 'Yahweh is the one who vindicates/defends us'.

<sup>17</sup> And this is also what I, Yahweh, say: 'There will be descendants of King David ruling [MTY] Israel forever. <sup>18</sup> And there will always be priests who are descendants of Levi who stand in front of me and offer sacrifices that will be completely burned on the altar and who will burn grain offerings and other sacrifices.' "

<sup>19</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>20</sup> "This is what I, Yahweh, say: 'You certainly cannot annul my promise/agreement to cause nighttime to follow daytime each day.

<sup>21</sup> Similarly, you cannot annul the promise/agreement that I made with King David, who served me well, that there will always be descendants of his who will rule Judah. The same is true for my agreement with the descendants of Levi who are priests who do work for me. <sup>22</sup> No one can count the stars in the sky, and no one can count the grains of sand at the seashore. Similarly, I will cause there to be a huge number of priests who are descendants of David and descendants of Levi who will work for me.' "

<sup>23</sup> Yahweh gave another message to me. He said, <sup>24</sup> "Have you noticed/heard that some people are saying, 'Yahweh chose two groups, the people of Judah and the people of Israel, and later abandoned them.' They are despising my people and saying that Israel no longer deserves to be considered a nation. <sup>25</sup> But this is what I say: 'I will not change my laws that control the day and the night, the sky and the earth. <sup>26</sup> Similarly, I will never abandon the descendants of David or the other descendants of Jacob, and I will always allow descendants of David to rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I will bring my people back to their land, and I will act mercifully toward them.' "

34

Jeremiah warned King Zedekiah

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with the armies of all the kingdoms that he ruled, and they fought against Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah. At that time, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>2</sup> “Go to Zedekiah the King of Judah, and say to him, “This is what Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: “I am about to enable the army of the King of Babylon to capture this city, and they will burn it down. <sup>3</sup> You will not escape from them; they will capture you and take you to the king of Babylon. And then they will take you to Babylon.” ’

<sup>4</sup> But King Zedekiah, listen to this that Yahweh has promised: ‘You will not be killed in a battle [MTY]; <sup>5</sup> you will die peacefully. When you die, people will burn incense to honor/remember you just as they did for your ancestors who were kings before you became king. They will mourn for you, crying, “We are very sad that our king is dead!” I, Yahweh, promise that will happen.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> So I took that message to King Zedekiah. <sup>7</sup> At that time the army of Babylonia had surrounded Jerusalem and Lachish and Azekah. Those three cities were the only cities in Judah that had high walls around them that still had not been captured.

<sup>8</sup> King Zedekiah had decreed that the people must free their slaves. <sup>9</sup> He decreed that the people must free their Hebrew slaves, both the men slaves and the women slaves. No one would be allowed to force a fellow Jew to continue to be his slave. <sup>10</sup> The officials and the rest of the people had obeyed what the king decreed, <sup>11</sup> but later they changed their minds. They forced the men and women whom they had freed to become their slaves again.

<sup>12</sup> So Yahweh gave me this message to tell to them: <sup>13</sup> “I, Yahweh, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, ◀made an agreement with/gave this command to▶ your ancestors long ago, when I rescued them from being slaves in Egypt. <sup>14</sup> I told them that they must free all their Hebrew slaves after the slaves had worked for them for six years. But your ancestors did not pay any attention to what I said. <sup>15</sup> Recently, you obeyed my command and stopped doing what was wrong and did what was right. You made a solemn agreement at my temple that you would free your slaves, and then you freed them. <sup>16</sup> But now you have disregarded what you solemnly promised, and you have shown contempt for what I [MTY] said by taking back the women and men whom you had freed and said they could live wherever they wanted to. Now you have forced them to be your slaves again.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh, say: ‘Because you have not obeyed me by freeing your fellow Israelis, I will free you to be destroyed by the swords of your enemies and by famines and diseases. All the nations of the earth will be horrified because of what happens to you. <sup>18-19</sup> Because you have disregarded what I said in my agreement with you, I will do to you just like you did to the calves that you cut in half to show that you would surely do what you solemnly promised that you would do. I will enable your enemies to cut you into pieces, you officials of Judah and you officials of Jerusalem, and you officials in the palace, and you priests and all you common people. I will do that because you have disregarded what you solemnly promised about freeing your slaves. <sup>20</sup> I will enable your enemies to capture you, and they will kill you. And your bodies will be food for vultures and wild animals.

<sup>21</sup> I will enable the army of the king of Babylon to capture King Zedekiah and his officials. Although the king of Babylon and his army have left Jerusalem for a short time, <sup>22</sup> I will summon them back again. This time, they will fight against this city and capture it and burn it down. I will make sure that all the towns in Judah are destroyed, with the result that no one will live there any more.’ ”

35

The lesson from the Rechabites

<sup>1</sup> Several years earlier, when Jehoiakim was the King of Judah, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>2</sup> “Go to the place where families of the Rechab clan live. Invite them to my temple. When they arrive, take them into one of the inside rooms and offer them some wine.”

<sup>3</sup> So I went to see Jaazaniah and all his brothers and sons who represented the Rechab clan. Jaazaniah was the son of another man named Jeremiah and grandson of Habazziniah. <sup>4</sup> I took them to the temple, and we went into the room where the sons of Igdaliah’s son Hanan, who was a prophet, stayed. That room was next to the room that was used by the men who were in charge of the entrances to the temple. It was above the room that belonged to Maaseiah, who was the temple gatekeeper and the son of Shallum.

<sup>5</sup> I set jugs of wine in front of them and urged them to drink some, <sup>6</sup> but they refused. They said, “We do not drink wine, because our ancestor Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, commanded us, saying ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine. <sup>7</sup> And you must not build houses or plant vineyards or other crops. Instead, you must always live in tents. If you obey those commands, you all will live for many years in this land.’ <sup>8</sup> So we have obeyed him in all those matters. We have never drunk wine. Our wives and our sons and our daughters have also never drunk wine. <sup>9</sup> We have not built houses or planted vineyards or other crops or worked in fields. <sup>10</sup> We have lived in tents. We have obeyed all the commands that Jehonadab, our ancestor, gave us. <sup>11</sup> But when the army of King Nebuchadnezzar attacked this country, we said, ‘We must go to Jerusalem to escape from the armies of Babylonia and Syria.’ So, we came to Jerusalem and we are living here.”

<sup>12</sup> Then Yahweh gave this message to me: “This is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom the Israeli people say that they belong to, say: <sup>13</sup> ‘Go and tell this to the people in Jerusalem and in other places in Judah: “Why do you not [RHQ] listen to me or learn something about how to obey me? <sup>14</sup> The Rechab clan still do not drink wine, because their ancestor Jehonadab told them to not do that. In contrast, I have spoken to you many times, but you refuse to obey me. <sup>15</sup> Many times I sent prophets to you. They told you, ‘Turn away from your wicked behavior, and do things that you should do. Stop worshipping other gods, in order that you will be able to live peacefully in this land that I gave to you and your ancestors.’ But you would not pay attention to what I said or obey me. <sup>16</sup> The descendants of Jehonadab have obeyed their ancestor, but you have refused to pay attention to what I told you.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, this is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israeli people say you belong to, say: ‘You have refused to listen to me and you did not answer when I called you. Therefore, I will cause the people in Jerusalem and other places in Judah to experience all the disasters that I said that I would cause to happen.’ ” ‘ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then I turned to the Rechab clan and said, “This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis say we belong to, says: ‘You have obeyed what your ancestor Jehonadab told you. You have obeyed all his instructions. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what I say: “There will always be descendants of Jehonadab who will do work for me.” ’ ”

36

They read Jeremiah’s scroll

<sup>1</sup> When Jehoiakim had been the king of Judah for almost four years, Yahweh gave this message to me: <sup>2</sup> “Get a scroll, and write on it the messages that I have given to you regarding Israel, Judah, and the other nations. Write all of the messages, starting from the time that I gave you the first message, when Josiah was the king, up until now. <sup>3</sup> When the people of Judah hear again about all the disasters that I plan to cause them to experience, perhaps each one of them will repent. If they do that, I will be able to forgive them for the wrong/evil things that they have done.”

<sup>4</sup> So I summoned Baruch, the son of Neraiah. Then, as I dictated to him all the messages that Yahweh had spoken to me, he wrote them on a scroll. <sup>5</sup> Then I said to him, “I am not allowed to leave here and go to the temple. <sup>6</sup> So, you go to the temple on the next day when the people are ◀fasting/abstaining from food▶, and read to them the messages from Yahweh that you wrote while I dictated them to you. Read them aloud to all the people who are there, including the people of Judah who come there from their towns. <sup>7</sup> Perhaps they will turn from their evil behavior and request Yahweh to act mercifully toward them. They must do that, because Yahweh is very angry with them and has threatened to punish them severely.”

<sup>8</sup> Baruch did what I told him to do. He went to the temple and read to the people all those messages from Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> He did it in December on a day when their leaders had proclaimed that all the people in Jerusalem and the people who had come there from other towns in Judah should fast to please/honor Yahweh. It was when Jehoiakim had been king for almost five years. <sup>10</sup> Baruch read to all the people the messages that he had written on the scroll. He read them while he was in the temple, in the room where Gemariah stayed. He was the son of Shaphan, who had previously been the king’s secretary. That room was close to the upper courtyard of the temple, near the entrance to the temple that is called the New Gate.

<sup>11</sup> When Micaiah, who was the son of Gemariah and grandson of Shaphan, heard those messages from Yahweh, <sup>12</sup> he went down to the secretary’s room in the palace, where all the king’s officials were meeting. Elishama the king’s secretary was there. Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Acbor, Gemariah, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the other officials of the king were also there. <sup>13</sup> When Micaiah told them about the messages that Baruch had been reading to the people, <sup>14</sup> the officials sent Jehudi, who was the son of Nethaniah and grandson of Shelemiah and great-grandson of Cushi, to tell Baruch to come and read the messages to them, also. So Baruch took the scroll and went to them. <sup>15</sup> They said to him, “Please sit down and read it to us.” So Baruch did what they requested.

<sup>16</sup> After they had heard all the messages, they were afraid. They looked at each other and then they said, “We must tell these messages to the king!” <sup>17</sup> Then they asked Baruch, “How did you get this scroll? Did Jeremiah dictate to you all the messages on this scroll?”

<sup>19</sup> Then the officials told Baruch, “You and Jeremiah must both hide. Do not tell anyone where you are!”

<sup>20</sup> They put the scroll in the room of Elishama, the king’s secretary. Then they went to the king, who was in the courtyard, and reported to him everything that Baruch had read to them.

The king burned Jeremiah’s scroll

<sup>21</sup> Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought it from Elishama’s room and read it to the king, while all the king’s officials were standing there. <sup>22</sup> It was in the cold season, and the king was in a part of the palace where he stayed when it was cold. He was sitting in front of a fire to keep/be warm. <sup>23</sup> Each time Jehudi finished reading three or four columns, the king cut off that section of the scroll with a knife and threw it into the fire. He did that, section by section, until the entire scroll was burned up. <sup>24</sup> Neither the king nor his officials showed that they were afraid that God would punish them. They did not tear their clothes to show that they were sorry for what they had done. <sup>25</sup> Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah pleaded with the king not to burn the scroll, but he did not pay any attention. <sup>26</sup> Then the king commanded his son Jerahmeel, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch and me. But they were unable to do that because Yahweh had hidden us.

Jeremiah had another scroll written

<sup>27</sup> After the king had burned the scroll on which were written the messages that I had dictated to Baruch, Yahweh said this to me: <sup>28</sup> “Get another scroll, and tell Baruch to write everything again, the same messages that he had written on the scroll that the king burned. <sup>29</sup> Then go to the king and say to him, ‘Yahweh says this: “You burned the scroll because you did not like what was written on it, that the king of Babylon would surely [RHQ] come with his army and destroy this land and get rid of all the people and the animals. <sup>30</sup> Now this is what I, Yahweh, say about you, Jehoiakim: ‘None of your descendants will rule this kingdom [MTY]. Your corpse will be thrown out on the ground and not be buried; it will be under the hot sun during the days and struck by frost during the nights. <sup>31</sup> I will punish you and your family and your officials for their sins. And I will cause the people of Jerusalem and the people of the other towns in Judah to experience all the disasters that I promised, because you all would not pay attention to what I said!’ ” ‘ ”

<sup>32</sup> So I took another scroll, and again I dictated the messages to Baruch. He wrote everything that had been written on the other scroll, the one that King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. But this time, I added more messages.

King Zedekiah summoned Jeremiah

<sup>1</sup> After Jehoiakim died, his son Jehoiachin became king for only three months, after which King Josiah’s son Zedekiah became the King of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar, the King of Babylon, appointed him to be the new king. <sup>2</sup> But King Zedekiah and his palace officials and the other people in the land paid no attention to the messages that Yahweh gave me.

<sup>3</sup> However, one day King Zedekiah sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the priest, who was the son of Maaseiah, to me. They requested me to pray to Yahweh our God for our nation.

<sup>4</sup> At that time I had not yet been put in prison, so I could come and go wherever and whenever I wanted to, without being hindered.

<sup>5</sup> At that time, the army of Hophra, the King of Egypt, came to the southern border of Judah. When the army of Babylonia heard about that, they stopped surrounding Jerusalem and left there to fight against the army from Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> Then Yahweh gave this message to me: <sup>7</sup> “I, Yahweh, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, say this: ‘The King of Judah has sent messengers to you to ask me what is going to happen. Tell the king that even though the army of the King of Egypt came to help him, they are about to return to Egypt. <sup>8</sup> Then the army of Babylonia will return here and capture this city and burn everything in it.’

<sup>9</sup> So, this is what I say to you Israelis: ‘You should not deceive yourselves, thinking that the army from Babylonia has gone and will not return. That is not true. <sup>10</sup> And even if your soldiers could destroy almost all of the soldiers from Babylonia who are attacking you, and allow only a few of them who were wounded to remain alive in their tents, they would come out of their tents and burn this city completely!’ ‘ ’ ”

Jeremiah was put into a prison

<sup>11</sup> When the army from Babylonia left Jerusalem because the army from Egypt was approaching, <sup>12</sup> I started to leave the city. I intended to go to the area where the descendants of Benjamin live, in order to take possession of my share of the property from my family. <sup>13</sup> But as I was walking out the Benjamin Gate, a guard seized me and said, “You are deserting us and going to the soldiers from Babylonia!” The man who seized me was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah and grandson of Hananiah.

<sup>14</sup> But I protested and said, “That is not true! I was not intending to do that!” But Irijah would not pay attention to what I said. He took me to the king’s officials. <sup>15</sup> They were very angry with me. They commanded the guards to beat me and then to put me in the house where Jonathan the king’s secretary stayed. They had changed Jonathan’s house to make it become a prison.

<sup>16</sup> They put me in a dungeon/cell in that prison, and I remained there for several days. <sup>17</sup> Then King Zedekiah secretly sent a servant to me, who took me to the palace. There the king asked me, “Do you have any messages from Yahweh?” I replied, “Yes, the message is that you will be handed over to the king of Babylon.”

<sup>18</sup> Then I asked the king, “What crime have I committed [RHQ] against you or against your officials or against the Israeli people, with the result that you have commanded that I be put in a prison? <sup>19</sup> Your prophets predicted that the army of the king of Babylon would not attack you or this land. Why were [RHQ] their messages not fulfilled? <sup>20</sup> Your majesty, I plead with you to listen to me. Do not send me back to the dungeon/cell in the house of Jonathan your secretary, because if you do that, I will die there.”

<sup>21</sup> So King Zedekiah commanded that I not be sent back to the prison cell. Instead, I was allowed to be watched by the guards in the courtyard of the palace. The king also commanded that they should bring me a loaf of fresh bread every day, until there was no bread left in the city. So they put me in that courtyard and I remained there.

Jeremiah was put in a dry well

<sup>1</sup> Four officials, Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malkijah, heard what I had been telling all the people. <sup>2</sup> I had been telling them that Yahweh was saying, “Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die. They will be killed by their enemies’ swords or from famines or from diseases. But those who surrender to the Babylonian army, they will be spared. They will not be killed. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh also says that the army of the King of Babylon will certainly capture this city [DOU].”

<sup>4</sup> So those officials went to the king and said, “This man Jeremiah should be executed! Because of what he is saying, he is discouraging our soldiers who remain in the city. He is also discouraging the people. He is not saying things that will help us; he is saying things that will defeat us.”

<sup>5</sup> King Zedekiah said, “All right, do to him what you want to; I do not have the power to stop you.”

<sup>6</sup> So those officials took me from my cell and lowered me by ropes into a well in the courtyard. The well belonged to Malkijah, who was a son of the king. There was no water in the well, but there was a lot of mud, so I sank down deep into the mud.

<sup>7</sup> But Ebed-Melech, a palace official from Ethiopia, heard someone say that I was in the well. At that time the king was deciding/judging people's cases at the Benjamin Gate. <sup>8</sup> Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to the king, <sup>9</sup> "Your majesty, those men have done a very evil thing. They have put the prophet Jeremiah in a well. Almost all the food in the city is gone, so they will not be able to bring him any food and as a result he will die from hunger!"

<sup>10</sup> So the king told Ebed-Melech, "Take thirty of my men/soldiers with you, and pull Jeremiah out of the well, in order that he does not die!"

<sup>11</sup> So Ebed-Melech took thirty men with him and they went into a room in the palace below the room where they stored very valuable things. There they found some old rags and discarded clothing. They took those things and went to the well. They fastened them to a rope and lowered the rope to me. <sup>12</sup> Then Ebed-Melech called down to me, "Put these rags underneath your armpits, to protect you from being injured by the ropes!" So I did that. <sup>13</sup> Then they pulled me out of the well. I returned to the courtyard where the palace guards stayed, and I stayed there.

Zedekiah questioned Jeremiah

<sup>14</sup> One day King Zedekiah summoned me, and I was brought to the king, who was waiting for me at the entrance of the temple. He said to me, "I want to ask you something. I want you to answer me truthfully, and and to not conceal anything."

<sup>15</sup> I replied, "If I tell you the truth, you will command that I be executed. And if I give you good advice, you will not pay attention to what I say."

<sup>16</sup> But King Zedekiah secretly promised me, "Tell me the truth! And as surely as Yahweh lives, I will not cause you to be executed, and I will not hand you over to those who are wanting to kill you."

<sup>17</sup> So then I said to Zedekiah, "This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: 'If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, you and your family will ◀be spared/not be killed▶, and this city will not be burned. <sup>18</sup> But if you refuse to surrender to them, you will not escape. And the army from Babylonia will capture this city and completely burn it.' "

<sup>19</sup> The king replied, "But I am afraid to surrender to the soldiers from Babylon, because their officers may hand me over to the people of Judah who have already joined the soldiers from Babylonia, and those people from Judah will mistreat me."

<sup>20</sup> I replied, "If you obey Yahweh by doing what I tell you to do, they will not hand you over to our people. Things will go well for you, and you will remain alive. <sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, this is what Yahweh has revealed to me: <sup>22</sup> All the women who remain in your palace will be brought out and given to the officers of the king of Babylon. Then those women will say to you:

'You had friends whom you thought you could trust, but they have deceived you and caused you to make a wrong decision.

Now it is as though you are stuck in mud, and your friends have abandoned you.'

<sup>23</sup> All of your wives and children in the city will be led out to the soldiers from Babylonia, and you also will not escape. The soldiers of the King of Babylon will seize you, and they will burn down this city."

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah said to me, "Do not tell anyone what you told me; if you tell anyone, my officials may kill you. <sup>25</sup> If my officials find out that I talked to you, perhaps they will come to you and say, 'Tell us what you and the king were talking about. If you do not tell us, we will kill you.' <sup>26</sup> If that happens, just tell them that you pleaded with me not to send you back to the dungeon/cell in Jonathan's house, because you were afraid that you would die if you were put there again."

<sup>27</sup> And that is what happened. The king's officials came to me and asked why the king had summoned me. But I told them what the king told me to tell them. So they did not ask me any more questions, because no one had heard what the king and I had said to each other.

<sup>28</sup> So I remained being guarded in the courtyard of the palace, until the day that the army of Babylonia captured Jerusalem.

39

Jerusalem was captured

<sup>2</sup> One and a half years later, after Zedekiah had been ruling for almost eleven years, on July 18, soldiers from Babylonia broke through the city wall. Then they rushed in and captured the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then all the officers of the king of Babylon came in and sat down at the Middle Gate to decide what they would do to the city. They included Nergal-Sharezer from Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim who was one of the chief army officers, another Nergal-Sharezer, the king's advisor, and many other officials.

<sup>4</sup> When King Zedekiah and all his soldiers realized that the army of Babylonia had broken into the city, they fled. They waited until it was dark. Then they went out of the city through the king's garden, through the gate that was between the two walls. Then they started running toward the Jordan River Valley.

<sup>5</sup> But the soldiers from Babylonia pursued the king, and they caught him on the plains near Jericho. They took him to the King of Babylon, who was at Riblah town in the Hamath region. There the king of Babylon told his soldiers what they should do to punish Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup> They forced Zedekiah to watch while they killed his sons and all the officials from Judah. <sup>7</sup> Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes. They fastened him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> Meanwhile, the Babylonian army burned the palace and all the other buildings in Jerusalem. And they tore down the city walls. <sup>9</sup> Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king's bodyguards, forced to go to Babylon most of the other people who remained in the city and the Jews who had joined the soldiers of Babylonia. <sup>10</sup> But he allowed some of the very poor people to remain in Judah, and he gave them vineyards and fields to take care of.

Jeremiah stayed in Judah

<sup>11</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar had previously told Nebuzaradan to find me. He said, <sup>12</sup> "Make sure that no one harms him. Take care of him, and do for him whatever he requests you to do." <sup>13</sup> So he and Nebushazban, who was one of their chief officers, and Nergal-Sharezer the king's advisor, and other officers of the King of Babylon <sup>14</sup> sent some men to bring me out of the courtyard outside of the palace. They took me to Gedaliah who was the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. Then Gedaliah took me to my home, and I stayed in Judah among my own people who had been allowed to remain there.

<sup>15</sup> While I was still being guarded in the palace courtyard, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>16</sup> "Say this to Ebed-Melech, the official from Ethiopia: 'This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: "I will do to this city everything that I said that I would do. I will not enable the people to prosper; I will cause them to experience disasters. You will see Jerusalem being destroyed, <sup>17</sup> but I will rescue you from the people whom you are afraid of. <sup>18</sup> You trusted me, so I will save you. You will not be killed by your enemies' swords; you will remain alive. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "

40

Jeremiah decided to stay with Gedaliah

<sup>1</sup> The soldiers from Babylonia captured me and many other people from Jerusalem and other places in Judah. They planned to take us to Babylon. So they fastened chains around our wrists and took us to Ramah town north of Jerusalem. While we were there, I was released. This is how it happened: <sup>2</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king's bodyguards, found that I was there. He summoned me and said to me, "Yahweh your God said that he would cause this land to experience a disaster. <sup>3</sup> And now he has caused it to happen. He has done just what he said that he would do, because you people sinned against Yahweh and refused to obey him. <sup>4</sup> But today I am going to take the chains off your wrists and release you. If you want to come with me to Babylon, that will be fine. I will take care of you. But if you do not want to come with me, do not come. Stay here. Look, the entire country is available; you can choose whatever part you want to go to. You can go wherever you wish." Then he took the chains off my wrists. <sup>5</sup> He said, "If you decide to stay here, go to Gedaliah. The King of Babylon appointed him to be the governor of Judah. You will be allowed to stay here with the people that he is governing. But you can do whatever you want to."

Then Nebuzaradan gave me some food and some money, and he allowed me to go.

<sup>6</sup> I returned to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and I stayed in Judah with the people who still remained in the land.

Many people returned to Judah

<sup>7</sup> The Israeli soldiers who had not surrendered to the army of Babylonia were roaming around in the countryside. Then their leaders heard someone say that the King of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah to be the governor of the very poor people who were still in Judah, who had not been taken to Babylon. <sup>8</sup> So they went to talk to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Those who went included Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai from Netophath, and Jezaniah from Maacah, and the soldiers who were with them. <sup>9</sup> Gedaliah solemnly promised that the soldiers from Babylonia would not harm them. He said, "Do not be afraid to do things for them. Stay here in this land and do things for the King of Babylon. If you do that, things will go well for you. <sup>10</sup> As for me, I will stay here at Mizpah to be your representative to the officials from Babylonia who come to talk with us. But you should return to your towns, and eat the things that are produced on your land. Harvest the grapes and the fruit that ripen in the ◀summer/hot season▶ and the olives, make wine and olive oil, and store it."

<sup>11</sup> Then the Jews who had fled to Moab, Ammon, Edom, and other nearby countries heard people say that the King of Babylon had allowed a few people to remain in Judah, and that he had appointed Gedaliah to be their governor. <sup>12</sup> So they began to return to Judah. They stopped at Mizpah to talk with Gedaliah. Then they went to various places in Judea, and they harvested a great amount of grapes and summer fruit.

The plot to kill Gedaliah

<sup>13</sup> Some time later, Johanan and all the other leaders of the Israeli soldiers who had not surrendered to the army of Babylonia came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>14</sup> They said to him, “Do you know that Baalis, the king of the Ammon people-group, has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to assassinate you?” But Gedaliah did not believe what they said.

<sup>15</sup> Later Johanan talked with Gedaliah privately. He said, “Allow me to go and murder Ishmael secretly. It would not be good [RHQ] to allow him to come and murder you! If you are killed, what will happen to all the Jews who have returned to this area? They will be scattered, and the other people who remain in Judah will all be killed!”

<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah said to Johanan, “No, I will not allow you to do that. I think that you are lying about Ishmael.”

41

Gedaliah was murdered

<sup>1</sup> Ishmael was a member of the king’s family. He had been one of King Zedekiah’s important officials. In October of that year, he went to Mizpah with ten other men to talk with Gedaliah. While they were eating together, <sup>2</sup> Ishmael and the other ten men jumped up, and with their swords they killed Gedaliah—the man whom the king of Babylon had appointed to be their governor! <sup>3</sup> Ishmael and the other men also killed all the Jews and the soldiers from Babylonia who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah.

<sup>4</sup> The next day, before anyone had found out that Gedaliah had been murdered, <sup>5</sup> eighty men from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria cities came to worship at the temple of Yahweh in Mizpah. They had shaved off their beards and torn their clothes and cut themselves to show that they were mourning. And they had brought grain offerings and incense to burn on the altar. <sup>6</sup> Ishmael went out of the city to meet them, crying as he went. When he reached them, he said, “Come and see what has happened to Gedaliah!”

<sup>7</sup> But as soon as they had all entered the town, Ishmael and his men killed most of them and threw their corpses into a well. <sup>8</sup> There were only ten of them whom they ◀spared/did not kill▶. They were not killed because they promised to Ishmael that if he allowed them to remain alive, they would bring him lots of wheat and barley and olive oil and honey that they had hidden. <sup>9</sup> The well where Ishmael’s men had thrown the corpses of the men whom they had murdered was the deep well that King Asa’s men had dug in order that they would have water in the city if the army of King Baasha of Israel would surround the city. Ishmael’s men filled that well with corpses.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael and his men captured the king’s daughters and some of the other people who had been left in Mizpah by Nebuzaradan in order that Gedaliah would take care of them. Ishmael and his men took those people and started back toward the Ammon area.

<sup>11</sup> But Johanan and all the other leaders of the Israeli soldiers who had not surrendered to the army of Babylonia heard about what Ishmael and his men had done. <sup>12</sup> So they immediately went with all their men to stop them. They caught up with them at the large pool near Gibeon city. <sup>13</sup> When all the people whom Ishmael and his men had captured saw Johanan and the soldiers who were with him, they shouted joyfully. <sup>14</sup> So all those who had been captured in Mizpah escaped, and they started to help Johanan. <sup>15</sup> But Ishmael and eight of his men escaped and fled to the Ammon area. <sup>16</sup> Then Johanan and the men who were with him gathered together all the people whom they had rescued at Gibeon. They included soldiers and women and children and some of the king’s palace officials. They were all people whom Ishmael and his men had captured after they had killed Gedaliah. <sup>17</sup> They took them all to Geruth-Kimham village near Bethlehem. And they all prepared to go to Egypt. <sup>18</sup> They were worried about what the soldiers of Babylonia would do to them when they found out that Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, who had been appointed by the King of Babylonia to be their governor.

Jeremiah warned them to not go to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Then Johanan and Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and all the other leaders of the Israeli soldiers who had not surrendered to the army of Babylonia, and many [HYP] other people, including those who were important and those who were not important, came <sup>2</sup> to me. They said, "Please listen to our request and pray to Yahweh our God for all of us. Although we were previously a huge number of people, you can see that now we are only a small number of people who have survived." <sup>3</sup> Pray that Yahweh our God will show us what we should do and where we should go."

<sup>4</sup> I replied, "Okay, I will pray to Yahweh our God, like you have requested, and I will tell you what he says. I will ◀tell you everything/not hide anything from you▶."

<sup>5</sup> They replied to me, "We hope/wish that Yahweh our God will be a faithful witness against us if we refuse to do everything that he tells us to do. <sup>6</sup> We are requesting you to ask Yahweh our God what we should do. When he replies, we will obey him, whether we like what he says or not. We will do that because we know that things will go well for us if we obey him."

<sup>7</sup> So I prayed to Yahweh, and ten days later he gave me his reply. <sup>8</sup> So I summoned Johanan and all his other soldiers and all the other people, including those who were important and those who were not important. <sup>9</sup> I said to them, "You told me to tell Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, what you were requesting. This is what he replied: <sup>10</sup> 'You should stay here in this land. If you do that, I will cause your nation to be strong and not be weak. I will cause you to prosper and not be exiled again. I am sorry about the disasters that I was forced to cause you to experience. <sup>11</sup> But do not be afraid of the king of Babylon any more, because I will ◀be with/help▶ you. I will rescue you [DOU] from his power [MTY]. <sup>12</sup> I will be merciful to you by causing him to act kindly toward you. So as a result, he will allow you to stay here in your land.'

<sup>13</sup> But if you refuse to obey Yahweh our God, and if you say 'We will not stay here; <sup>14</sup> instead, we will go to Egypt. There we will not experience any wars, we will not hear trumpets signaling our soldiers to prepare for battles, and we will not be hungry,' <sup>15</sup> then listen to what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt, and you go and live there, <sup>16</sup> you will experience those wars and famines that you are afraid of, and you will all die there. <sup>17</sup> That is what will happen to all you who are determined to go to Egypt and live there. Some of you will be killed by the swords of your enemies, and others of you will die from famines and from diseases. None of you will escape the disasters that I will bring on you.'

<sup>18</sup> And the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, also says this: 'Because I was very angry, I severely punished [MTY] all the people of Jerusalem. I will do the same things to you when you go to Egypt. The result will be that people will curse you. They will be horrified about what has happened to you. They will make fun of you, and you will never see this land again.'

<sup>19</sup> You little group of people of Judah who are still alive, listen to me: Yahweh has told you, 'Do not go to Egypt.' So do not forget what I have warned you today. <sup>20</sup> I know that you were lying when you requested me to pray to Yahweh our God. <sup>21</sup> And today I have told you exactly what he said, but I know that you will not obey Yahweh our God now, just as you have not obeyed him previously. <sup>22</sup> You want to go to Egypt and live there. So now, you can be sure of this: All of you will die there. Some of you will be killed by the swords of your enemies and others will die from famines or from diseases."

Jeremiah was taken to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> So I finished telling to the people that message from Yahweh our God. <sup>2</sup> But then Johanan and Azariah and some other insolent/arrogant men said to me, "You are lying! Yahweh our God has not told us that we should not go to Egypt! <sup>3</sup> We think that Baruch has urged/persuaded you to say this, in order that if we stay here, the soldiers from Babylonia will seize us and kill us or take us to Babylonia."

<sup>4</sup> So Johanan and the other leaders of the Israeli soldiers and many of [HYP] the other people who were there refused to obey Yahweh's command to stay in Judah. <sup>5</sup> Johanan and all the other leaders gathered together all the people who had returned from the other countries to which they had been scattered. <sup>6</sup> They included men, women, children, the king's daughters, and all those whom Nebuzaradan had left with Gedaliah, and they also took Baruch and me. <sup>7</sup> They refused to obey Yahweh, and they took us all to Egypt, as far as Tahpenes city.

<sup>8</sup> While we were at Tahpenes, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>9</sup> "While the people of Judah are watching you, take some large rocks and bury them under the brick pavement at the entrance to the king's palace there at Tahpenes. <sup>10</sup> Then say to the people of Judah, 'This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, says: "I will summon Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon, who does my work, to come with his army to Egypt. I will set up his throne over these stones that I told Jeremiah to bury. And Nebuchadnezzar will set up his tent there to show that he has become the King of Egypt. <sup>11</sup> When his army comes, they will attack Egypt. Then those will die who I have determined must die, those who I have determined must be captured will be captured, and those who I have determined must be killed by swords will be killed by swords. <sup>12-13</sup> Nebuchadnezzar's soldiers will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt. But before they burn the temples, they will take away their idols as souvenirs. His troops will clean Egypt like a shepherd cleans lice from his cloak. They will tear down the sacred pillars that are in the temple of their sun god. And then Nebuchadnezzar's troops will leave there, without having been harmed." ' "

Jeremiah predicted disaster would come because of their idolatry

<sup>1</sup> This is the message that Yahweh gave me concerning the Jews who were living in northern Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpenes, and Memphis cities, and in the Pathros region in southern Egypt: <sup>2</sup> "This is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, say: 'You saw the disaster that I caused the people in Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah to experience. Those towns are now ruined and deserted. <sup>3</sup> That happened because I was extremely angry with them on account of their being very wicked. They burned incense to other gods and worshiped them. They were gods that you previously did not know about, and your ancestors also did not know about them. <sup>4</sup> Many times I sent my prophets who served me, to say to them, "Do not do those abominable things that I hate!" <sup>5</sup> But my people would not pay any attention [DOU] to what I said to them. They would not turn away from their wicked behavior, or stop burning incense to worship/honor other gods. <sup>6</sup> So I poured out my anger [MTY] on them. I punished people on the streets of Jerusalem and on the other towns in Judah. It caused those towns to be ruined and deserted, and they are still like that.'

<sup>7</sup> So now I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, ask you: 'Why are you causing yourselves to experience these disasters? Do you not realize that because of what you are doing, soon there will be no more men or women or children or infants left among you who have come here to Egypt from Judah? <sup>8</sup> Why are you [RHQ] provoking me and causing me to be very angry by burning incense to the idols that you have made here in Egypt? If you continue doing this, you will destroy yourselves, and you will cause yourselves to be people whom all the nations on the earth will curse and despise. <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten how I punished your ancestors for the wicked things that they did, and how I punished the kings and queens of Judah for what they did, and you and your wives for the sins that you committed in the streets of Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah? <sup>10</sup> Up until this day you have not humbled yourselves or revered me. You have not obeyed the laws and decrees [DOU] that I gave to you and your ancestors.'

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, this is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom you Israelis say you belong to, say: 'I am determined to cause all of you to experience disasters and to get rid of every one of you. <sup>12</sup> You people from Judah who have survived were determined to come and live here in Egypt. So I will get rid of all of you here in Egypt. Every one of you will die, including those who are important and those who are not important. Some of you will be killed by your enemies' swords, some will die from famines. You will become people whom others curse, be horrified about, and make fun of. <sup>13</sup> I will punish you here in Egypt like I punished others in Jerusalem, some of whom were killed by their enemies' swords and some of whom died from famines or diseases. <sup>14</sup> You people who did not die in Judah fled here to Egypt, hoping that some day you would return to Judah. But very few [HYP] of you will survive and escape. You are longing/wanting to remain alive and return to Judah, but only a very few of you will escape and be able to do that.' "

<sup>15</sup> Then a large group of the people who had started to live in northern Egypt and southern Egypt, including all the men who knew that their wives had been burning incense to other gods, and all the women who were standing there, said this to me: <sup>16</sup> "You are saying that [MTY] Yahweh gave messages to you, but we will not pay any attention to your messages! <sup>17</sup> We will certainly do everything that we said that we would do. We will burn incense to worship our goddess Astarte, the Queen of Heaven, and we will pour out offerings of wine to her, just like we and our ancestors and our kings and their officials have always done in the streets of Jerusalem and in the other towns in Judah. At that time, we had plenty of food, and we were prosperous and we did not have any troubles. <sup>18</sup> But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and giving her offerings of wine, we have had many troubles, and some of our people have been killed by our enemies' swords and some have died from hunger."

<sup>19</sup> And the women said, "Furthermore, we burned incense and poured out wine offerings to the Queen of Heaven, and we also made small cakes that resembled her idol, to offer to her. But our husbands certainly knew about and approved of [RHQ] what we were doing!"

<sup>20</sup> Then I said to all the men and women who had answered me, <sup>21</sup> "Do not think [RHQ] that Yahweh did not know that you and your ancestors and your kings and their officials and all the other people in Judah were burning incense to worship/honor idols in the streets of Jerusalem and in the other towns in Judah! <sup>22</sup> It was because Yahweh could no longer endure/tolerate your wicked actions and the detestable things that you were doing that he caused your land to be a place whose name people say when they curse someone, a land that is ruined and which has no one living in it. And your land is still like that. <sup>23</sup> It is because you burned incense to worship/honor idols and committed other sins against Yahweh that you experienced all those disasters. It is because you have not obeyed him or his laws and decrees and commandments.”

<sup>24</sup> Then I said to all of them, including the women, “All you people of Judah who are here in Egypt, listen to this message from Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says to you Israeli men: ‘You and your wives have said that you would continue to do what you promised, to burn incense and pour out wine to the goddess whom you call the Queen of Heaven. And you have proved by your actions that you intend to continue to do that. So go ahead and continue doing what you have promised to do for her.’

<sup>26</sup> But now, all you people from Judah who are now living here in Egypt, listen to this message from Yahweh. He says, ‘I have solemnly declared, using my great name, that soon none of you people from Judah who are here in Egypt will ever again use my name. There will be none of you who, when you solemnly promise to do something, will ever again say, “I will do it as surely as Yahweh lives.”’ <sup>27</sup> Because I will be watching over you, not to cause good things to happen to you but to cause things to happen that will harm you. Almost everyone [HYP] from Judah who is now here in Egypt will experience being killed by their enemies’ swords, or dying from famine. <sup>28</sup> Only a very few of you will not die, and will return to Judah. When that happens, all those who came to Egypt will find out whose words ◀were true/were fulfilled▶, theirs or mine.’

<sup>29</sup> And Yahweh also says, ‘I will do something that will prove to you that everything that I have said will happen, and that I will punish you here in this place. <sup>30</sup> I will cause Hophra, the king of Egypt, to be captured by his enemies who want to kill him, just like I caused King Zedekiah of Judah to be captured by the soldiers of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.’ ” And that is what happened several years later.

A message for Baruch

<sup>1</sup> After Jehoiakim the son of King Josiah had been ruling Judah for almost four years, I, Baruch, wrote down all the messages that the prophet Jeremiah had dictated to me. Then Jeremiah gave me a message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Baruch, Yahweh, the God whom we Israelis worship, has a message for you. <sup>3</sup> You have said, ‘Terrible things are happening to me! I have endured much pain already. And now Yahweh is causing me to be very sad, in addition to my having pain. I am exhausted from my ◀groaning/being sad▶, and I am unable to rest!’

<sup>4</sup> But Baruch, this is what Yahweh says: ‘I will destroy this nation that I established. This nation is like a tree [MET] that I planted and that I will now pull up with its roots.’ <sup>5</sup> So, should you [RHQ] desire that people do things to honor you in a special way? Do not desire that. It is true that I will cause all these people to experience a great disaster, but wherever you go, I will protect you, and you will not be killed.’ ”

46

Messages about other nations

<sup>1</sup> These are messages that Yahweh gave to the prophet Jeremiah about other nations.

Messages about Egypt

<sup>2</sup> After Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah, had been ruling Judah for almost four years, this message about Egypt was given by Yahweh. It was when the army of King Neco of Egypt was defeated by the army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon along the Euphrates River.

This is what Yahweh said: "The officers of the army of Egypt are saying to their troops,

<sup>3</sup> 'Prepare your shields and march out to fight the battle!

<sup>4</sup> Put harnesses on your horses, and get on their backs.

◀Get into your positions/Line up▶ for the battle;
put on your helmets.

Sharpen your spears,
and put on your armor!'

<sup>5</sup> But what [RHQ] do I see?

I see that the soldiers of Egypt will be terrified and will be fleeing.
Even the bravest of their soldiers will be running away, without even looking backward!

I, Yahweh, say that their soldiers will be terrified on all sides!

<sup>6</sup> Even the fastest runners will try to run away, but even the greatest of their warriors will not escape.

In the north, by the Euphrates River,
they will stumble and fall.

<sup>7</sup> What group is this that will be covering the land like the water of the Nile River covers the land when it floods?

<sup>8</sup> It is the army of Egypt that will be covering the land like a surging/huge flood, and they will boast that they will cover the earth and will destroy cities and the people who live in them.

<sup>9</sup> You riders of horses, charge/rush into the battle!
You drivers of chariots, drive furiously!

All you warriors from Ethiopia and Libya who carry your shields, you warriors from Lydia who shoot arrows,
you come!

<sup>10</sup> But, you need to know that this is the day when I, Yahweh, the Commander of the armies of angels, will get revenge on my enemies.

With my sword [PRS] I will kill my enemies until I am satisfied;
my sword will be like a monster that [MET, PRS] drinks the blood of the animals it kills until it is no longer thirsty.

The enemy soldiers who will be killed in the north beside the Euphrates River will be like [MET] a sacrifice to me, the Commander of the armies of angels.

<sup>11</sup> You people [IDM] of Egypt, go up to the Gilead region to obtain medicine;
but it will be useless to take all those medicines;
you will not be healed.

<sup>12</sup> People in the other nations will hear how you were humiliated.

People all over the earth will hear you wailing.
Your mighty warriors will stumble over each other and they will all fall down together.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message about King Nebuchadnezzar when he planned to attack Egypt with his army:

<sup>14</sup> “Shout this message throughout Egypt!
 Proclaim it in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpenes cities!
 ‘◀Get into your positions/Line up▶ for the battle;
 Prepare to defend yourselves,
 because everyone around you will be killed.’ [PRS, MTY]

<sup>15</sup> Your god is a bull;
 Why does he fall down?

He will not be able to stand up, because Yahweh will knock him down.

<sup>16</sup> The soldiers from other countries will stumble and fall over each other, and then they will say to each other,

‘Let’s get up and go back to our own people, to our own land.
 Let’s get away from the swords of our enemies!’

<sup>17</sup> There in Egypt they will say,
 ‘The king of Egypt talks loudly, but when our army had an opportunity to defeat our enemies, they failed.’

<sup>18</sup> I, the King, who am called the Commander of the armies of angels, say this:

‘As surely as I live, someone’s army will be coming to fight against the army of Egypt.
 They will be extremely powerful,
 as though they were as tall as Tabor Hill, or as high as Carmel Mountain close to the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>19</sup> All you people who live in Egypt, pack your possessions/clothes and prepare to be exiled.
 Memphis city will be destroyed;
 it will become a ruin, and no one will be living there.

<sup>20</sup> Egypt is like [SIM] a beautiful young cow, but the army of a powerful king from the northeast will come to attack it like a horsefly [MET] bites a cow.

<sup>21</sup> The ◀mercenaries/soldiers from other countries who have been hired▶ will become like [SIM] fat calves;
 but they also will turn around and run away;
 they will not stand there and fight, because it will be a day when there will be a great disaster in Egypt, a day when their people will be greatly punished.

<sup>22</sup> The soldiers of Egypt will run away, as silently as a snake scurries/crawls away.
The army of the enemy will advance;
 they will march along carrying their axes like [SIM] men who cut down trees.

<sup>23</sup> I, Yahweh, say that they will kill the soldiers of Egypt
 as though [SIM] they were a forest of trees, because the enemy soldiers will be as numerous as a swarm of locusts.

<sup>24</sup> The people of Egypt will be humiliated;
they will be conquered by people from the northeast.'

<sup>25</sup> I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom the Israelis worship, say, 'I will punish Amon, the god whom the people of Thebes city worship, and all the other gods in Egypt. I will punish the King of Egypt and all those who trust in him.

<sup>26</sup> I will cause them to be captured by those who want to kill them—Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon, and his army officers. But many years later, people will live in Egypt again. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.'

<sup>27</sup> But you people of Israel who serve me, do not be at all dismayed [DOU] now,
because some day I will bring you back from distant places;
I will bring your descendants from the land to which they were exiled.
Then you Israeli people will again live peacefully and safely, and there will not be any nation to cause you to be terrified.

<sup>28</sup> I, Yahweh, say to you people of Israel who serve me,
'Do not be afraid,
because I will be with you.

I will completely destroy the nations among whom I have scattered you, but I will not completely get rid of you.

I will punish you, but I will punish you only as severely as you deserve:
It would be wrong if I did not punish you at all.' "

47

A message about Philistia

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave to the prophet Jeremiah a message about the people of Philistia. The message was given to me before Gaza city in Philistia was captured by the army of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> This is what Yahweh said:
"An army [MET] will be coming from the northeast that will cover the land like a flood.
They will destroy the land and everything in it;
they will destroy people and cities.

People will scream;
everyone in the land will wail.

<sup>3</sup> They will hear the sound of the hooves of the enemy horses, and they will hear the rumble/noise of the wheels of their enemies' chariots.

Men will run away;
they will not stop to help their children;
they will be completely weak and helpless [MTY].

<sup>4</sup> It will be the time for all the people of Philistia to be destroyed, and the time to prevent the remaining soldiers from helping the people of Tyre and Sidon cities.

I, Yahweh, will get rid of the people of Philistia, those whose ancestors long ago came from Crete island.

<sup>5</sup> The people of Gaza will be humiliated;
they will shave off all the hair on their heads to indicate that they are ashamed.
The people of Ashkelon city will all be silent because they will be mourning.
All you people who live along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea who are still alive, how long [RHQ] will you gash yourselves because you are mourning?"

- <sup>6</sup> *The people of Philistia say, “Yahweh, when [RHQ] will you tell our enemies to stop killing us with [PRS] their swords?
Tell them to [PRS] put them back into their sheaths and keep them there!”*
- <sup>7</sup> *But it would not be right [RHQ] for their swords to stay there, because Yahweh has commanded their enemies to do something more;
Yahweh intends to tell them to attack all the people living in Ashkelon and in other cities along the coast.*

48

A message about Moab

- <sup>1</sup> *This is a message about Moab. The Commander of the armies of angels said: “Terrible things will happen to Nebo town;
it will soon be ruined.
Kiriathaim city will be captured and all its people will be humiliated;
the high wall around their city will be ruined, and its people will become ashamed.*
- <sup>2</sup> *No one will boast about Moab again;
the enemies of Moab will plan to destroy the capital city, Heshbon.
They will say, ‘Come, let’s cause Moab to no longer be a nation.’
You people in Madmen town, you also will be silenced; enemy armies [MTY] will pursue you.*
- <sup>3</sup> *Listen to the people of Horonaim town screaming;
they will be wailing because their town will have been devastated and destroyed [DOU].*
- <sup>4</sup> *All of Moab will be ruined;
even the little children will cry loudly.*
- <sup>5</sup> *They will cry bitterly as they climb up Luhith Hill.
Others will wail on the road down to Horonaim, being very sad because of their town being destroyed.*
- <sup>6</sup> *Someone will say to them, ‘Flee!
Hide in the desert!’*
- <sup>7</sup> *But you trusted that because you were rich and powerful, you would be safe;
so you will be captured.
The statue of your god Chemosh and all his priests and officials will be taken away to distant lands.*
- <sup>8</sup> *All the towns in Moab will be destroyed;
none of them will escape.
Towns in the valleys and on the plateau will all be destroyed, because I, Yahweh, have said that is what will happen.*
- <sup>9</sup> Spread salt on the ground in order that it will become a wasteland with nothing growing there any more, and no one will be living in it!”
- <sup>10</sup> Yahweh will curse anyone who will not eagerly do what he desires, anyone who refrains from using his sword to kill [MTY] others in Moab.
- <sup>11</sup> *The people of Moab have always felt secure;
they have never been ◀exiled/forced by their enemies to go to other countries▶.
They are like [MET] wine that has been left undisturbed in a container for many days to give it good flavor,*

so now it smells good,
and it tastes good.

12 But Yahweh says that there will be a time when he will send enemies to attack them; they will get rid of the people of Moab like people pour out wine on the ground and then smash the wine jar.

13 Then the people of Moab will be ashamed of their god/idol Chemosh because it did not help them, like the Israeli people were ashamed because their gold statue of a calf was smashed at Bethel.

14 The soldiers of Moab previously said, "We are warriors; we have fought bravely in battles!"

15 But now our King, who is Yahweh, who is called 'the Commander of the armies of angels', says that the country of Moab and all the towns in it will be destroyed. Their fine young men will all be slaughtered.

16 Moab will very soon be destroyed.
It will soon experience disaster.

17 You people who live in nations near Moab, who know that it is very famous, should mourn for Moab, and say, "Its glorious power [MTY, DOU] is completely ended/broken."

18 You people of Dibon city, stop being proud because of being honored, and sit in the dust/dirt, because those who will destroy other places in Moab will attack your city and destroy your high walls.

19 You people of Aroer town, stand along the road and watch. Shout to the men and women who will be fleeing from Moab, "What has happened there?"

20 They will reply, "Moab is ruined and we are disgraced!"

So weep and wail [DOU].
Proclaim at the Aroer River that Moab has been destroyed.

21 Yahweh will have punished the towns in Moab that are on the ◀plateau/high level▶:

Holon and Jahaz and Mephaath,

22 Dibon and Nebo and Beth-Diblathaim,

23 Kiriathaim and Beth-Gamul and Beth-Meon,

24 Kerioth and Bozrah, cities that are near each other and towns that are far away from each other.

25 Yahweh says, "The power [MTY] of Moab will be ended; it is as though [MET] Moab will have a broken arm.

26 You people of Moab have rebelled against me, Yahweh; so now I will cause you all to stagger like [SIM] drunken people. You people of Moab will wallow in your own vomit and be ridiculed.

27 You people of Moab ridiculed the people of Israel [RHQ].

You treated them as though they were thieves [RHQ].

You shook your head at them scornfully and despised them [RHQ].

28 You people who live in Moab, you should abandon your towns and go and live in caves.

Be like [SIM] doves that make their nests in the entrances of caves.”

<sup>29</sup> We have all heard that the people of Moab are very proud;
they are extremely proud and conceited/arrogant. [IDM, DOU]

<sup>30</sup> But Yahweh says, “I know about that, but it is useless for them to boast because it will accomplish nothing.

<sup>31</sup> So now I will wail for Moab;
I will cry about all its people.
I will moan for the men of Kir-Hareseth city, the old capital of Moab.

<sup>32</sup> You people of Sibmah city, you have many vineyards.
It is as though the branches of your vines extend across the Dead Sea to Jazer city.

<sup>33</sup> But no one will be joyful or happy in Moab now; your fruit and grapes that ripen in the ◀summer/hot season▶ will soon be destroyed.

There will be no grape juice coming from the winepresses, so there will be no wine.

People will not shout joyfully
as they tread on the grapes;

people will shout,
but they will not be shouting joyfully.

<sup>34</sup> Instead, the sound of their wailing will rise from Heshbon city to Elealeh town and Jahaz village, from Zoar city as far as Horonaim town and Eglath-Shelishiyah village.

Even the water in Nimrim Stream will be dried up.

<sup>35</sup> I, Yahweh, say that I will get rid of the people who offer sacrifices on the hilltops, and burn incense to their gods.

<sup>36</sup> I [SYN] moan for the people of Moab and Kir-Hareseth like [SIM] someone playing a funeral song on a flute, because all their wealth will disappear.

<sup>37</sup> The men will shave their heads and their beards to show that they are mourning.
They all will slash their hands and wear ◀rough cloth/sackcloth▶ around their waists.

<sup>38</sup> In every home and in the town plazas/centers in Moab there will be people who are mourning, because I will have destroyed Moab like [SIM] someone smashes an old jar that no one wants any more.

<sup>39</sup> Moab will be completely shattered!
And you will hear the people wailing loudly!
They will be disgraced.

Moab will become a nation that people ridicule.
The people in nearby countries will be horrified about what has happened there.

<sup>40</sup> This is what I, Yahweh, say:

‘Look! Their enemies will be swooping/rushing down over Moab like an eagle [SIM] swoops down to seize an animal.

<sup>41</sup> Its cities will be captured, its fortresses will be seized.
Even their warriors will be afraid, like [SIM] a woman who is about to give birth.

- 42 The leaders of Moab boasted against me, Yahweh, so Moab will be destroyed.
- 43 I, Yahweh, say that you people of Moab will be terrified, and fall into pits and traps.
- 44 Those who are terrified and try to run away will fall into deep pits.
Whoever climbs out of a pit will be caught in a trap, because I will punish them at the time that I have chosen.'
- 45 The people will flee as far as Heshbon city, but they will not be able to go any further,
because a fire will burn in Heshbon,
which is the city where King Sihon lived long ago, and it will burn up all the people [SYN] in Moab who noisily/loudly boasted very much.
- 46 You people of Moab, terrible things will happen to you!
You people who worship your god Chemosh, you will be destroyed.
Your sons and your daughters will be captured and taken away to other countries.
- 47 But some day, I will enable the people of Moab to return to their land again.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."
That is the end of what I prophesied about Moab.

49

A message about Ammon

- 1 This message is about the Ammon people-group. This is what Yahweh says:
"There are [RHQ] plenty of Israeli people left to occupy the land of the tribe of Gad.
So, why are [RHQ] the people who worship the god Molech living in those towns?
- 2 There will be a time when I will sound the battle-cry for their enemies to attack their capital city, Rabbah.
Then it will become a heap of ruins,
and all the nearby towns will be burned.
Then the people of Israel will again possess the land that the Ammon people-group took away from them.
- 3 You people of Heshbon city [MTY], wail, because Ai town nearby will be destroyed.
You people of Rabbah city, weep;
put on ◀rough clothing/sackcloth▶ to show you are mourning;
run back and forth in confusion inside the city walls, because your god Milcom, along with its priests and officials, will be taken away ◀in exile/to other countries▶.
- 4 You are [RHQ] very proud of your very fertile valleys,
but they will soon be ruined.
You rebellious people, you trusted in your wealth, and you said, 'Certainly no [RHQ] army will be able to attack us!'
- 5 But listen to this: 'I, the Commander of the armies of angels, will cause you to become terrified.
You will all be forced to flee to other countries, and no one will be able to bring you together again.'
- 6 But some day I will enable the Ammon people-group to return to their land.

That will surely happen, because I, Yahweh, have said it."

Messages about Edom

<sup>7</sup> This message is about the Edom people-group. This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says:

"It seems that [RHQ] there are no wise people in Teman district in Edom!

There are no people left who can give others good advice.

The people who were wise [PRS] have disappeared.

<sup>8</sup> You people of Dedan city in the south of Edom,

turn and flee and hide in deep caves,

because when I cause the Edom people-group to experience disaster,

I will punish you, too.

<sup>9</sup> Those who harvest grapes

always [RHQ] leave some on the vines.

When thieves come at night,

they surely [RHQ] steal only as much as they want.

<sup>10</sup> But I will cause everything in Edom to be destroyed, and there will be nothing left, and there will be no place for people to hide.

Many of [HYP] the children, their relatives and their neighbors, will die, and Edom will not exist any more.

<sup>11</sup> But I will protect the orphans, and the widows also will be able to depend on me to help them."

<sup>12</sup> And this is also what Yahweh says: "If those who do not deserve to suffer [MET] must suffer, you people of Edom must [RHQ] suffer much more [DOU]! You will not escape being punished. <sup>13</sup> I, Yahweh, have solemnly promised, using my own name, that your chief city Bozrah will become a place that people will be horrified about. It will be a heap of ruins. People will make fun of it and use its name when they curse people. All the nearby towns and villages will be a ruins forever."

<sup>14</sup> I heard this message from Yahweh:

"I have sent an ambassador to many nations,

to tell them to gather together to attack Edom.

They must prepare for battle!"

<sup>15</sup> And Yahweh says to the people of Edom,

"I will cause your nation to become very unimportant among the other nations.

They will all despise your country.

<sup>16</sup> You have caused people of other nations to be terrified, and you [MTY] have been very proud,

but you have deceived yourselves.

You live in caves in the rock cliffs;

you think that you are safe there because you live high up there.

But even if you make your homes as high up as the eagles' nests,

I will cause you to come crashing down.

<sup>17</sup> Edom will become a place about which people are horrified;

people who pass by will be horrified and will ◀gasp/be shocked▶ when they see the destruction.

<sup>18</sup> Edom will be destroyed as completely as Sodom and Gomorrah and the nearby towns were destroyed long ago.

As a result, no one will live there any more [DOU].

19 I will come to Edom suddenly like [SIM] a lion comes out of the jungle and leaps on the sheep that are eating in the good pastureland. I will quickly chase the people of Edom from their land. And then I will appoint for them a leader whom I will choose; I can do that because there is no one [RHQ] like me who can object to what I do. No ruler can oppose me.

20 Listen to what I have planned to do to the people of Teman town and the rest of Edom:

Even the little children will be dragged away, and I will completely get rid of the people [MET] who live there.

21 When Edom is destroyed, the noise will be extremely great, with the result that the earth will shake, and the wailing of the people will be heard as far away as the Red Sea.

22 Look! The enemy troops will swoop/rush down over Bozrah like an eagle spreads its wings when it swoops down to seize an animal. On that day, even the strongest warriors of Edom will be afraid like [SIM] a woman who is about to give birth."

A message about Damascus

23 This message is about Damascus. This is what Yahweh says: "The people in the nearby cities of Hamath and Arpad are confused, because they have heard bad news about Damascus. They are very anxious and restless, like [SIM] a sea in a big storm.

24 The people of Damascus have become very weak, and they all have ◀panicked/fled because they are very afraid▶. The people are anguished and in pain like [SIM] a woman experiences who is about to give birth.

25 That famous city, that I was previously pleased with, will be abandoned.

26 Its young men will fall in the streets. Its soldiers will all be killed in one day.

27 And I, the Commander of the armies of angels, will start a fire to burn the walls that surround Damascus, and the palaces of King Ben-Hadad will be burned down."

A message about Kedar and Hazor

28 This is a message about the Kedar people-group and the kingdom of Hazor which the army of Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon attacked. This is what Yahweh says: "I will cause an army to advance to attack Kedar and destroy those people who live east of Judah.

29 Their tents and their flocks of sheep will be captured. The curtains in their tents and their camels and their other possessions will be taken away.

Everywhere men will shout, 'We are terrified because terrible things are happening all around us!'

30 So I, Yahweh, say, 'Run away quickly! You people who live in Hazor, go and hide in deep caves, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon wants to attack you with his army; he is planning to destroy you!'

- <sup>31</sup> But I say to Nebuchadnezzar,
 'Go up and attack that nation whose people feel secure;
 they do not have allies who will help them and do not have walls with gates that have bars in them.
- <sup>32</sup> Your troops will seize their camels and other livestock.
 I will scatter in every direction [IDM] those people who live in remote places (OR, who cut their hair short).
 I will cause them to experience disasters from every direction.
- <sup>33</sup> Hazor will become a place where jackals/wolves live, and it will be deserted forever.
 No one will live there again;
 no one will settle there [DOU].' "

A message about Elam

- <sup>34</sup> I received this message from Yahweh when King Zedekiah was starting to rule Judah.
- <sup>35</sup> This is what the Commander of the armies of angels says:
 "The men of Elam are famous ◀archers/men who shoot arrows well▶;
 that is how they have made their country very powerful.
 But I will get rid of them [MET].
- <sup>36</sup> I will bring their enemies from all directions [IDM, DOU], and they will scatter the people of Elam in all directions.
 The people of Elam will be exiled to every nation on the earth [LIT, HYP].
- <sup>37</sup> Because I am very angry with the people of Elam,
 I will enable their enemies to smash Elam;
 I will cause the people of Elam to experience great disasters.
 I will enable their enemies, who want to kill them, to pursue them and kill them with swords
 until I completely get rid of all of them.
- <sup>38</sup> I, Yahweh, will judge them there [MTY], and then I will get rid of their king and his officials.
- <sup>39</sup> But some day, I will enable the people of Elam to return to their land.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

A message about Babylon

- <sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave to me, Jeremiah the prophet, a message about Babylon city and the country of Babylonia.
- <sup>2</sup> This is what Yahweh says:
 "Proclaim [DOU] a message among the nations;
 do not withhold any of it;
 raise up a signal flag
 to announce that Babylon will be captured.
Its chief god Marduk, whose other name is Bel, will be completely disgraced, and all the other statues and idols will be shattered.
- <sup>3</sup> The army of a nation will come from the north to attack Babylon and destroy the city very thoroughly,
with the result that no one will live there again.
 Both people and animals will run away."

The people of Israel will return from Babylon

- 4 “But I, Yahweh, say that in the future, when that is about to happen, the people of Israel and the people of Judah will join together.
They will be weeping and wanting to worship me, their God.
- 5 They will inquire about the road to Jerusalem, and then they will start traveling [IDM] toward it.
They will say to each other,
‘We must return to Yahweh again!’
They will make an everlasting agreement with me that they will never forget.
- 6 My people have been like [MET] lost sheep.
Their leaders/rulers have caused them to abandon me like [MET] shepherds who have allowed their sheep to wander in the hills and mountains.
My people are like [MET] sheep that do not know the path to return to the sheepfold.
- 7 All their enemies who found them attacked them.
They said, ‘We did not sin by attacking them, because they sinned against Yahweh;
he is the one who provides what they need;
he is the one to whom they should have remained faithful;
he is the one whom their ancestors confidently expected to help them.’
- 8 But now, I say to the leaders of my people, ‘Flee from Babylon!
Leave the land of Babylonia!
Be like [SIM] male goats that go in front of the rest of the flock;
lead my people back to their own land.
- 9 Do that because I am going to gather an army of great nations to the north of Babylon.
They will join together to attack Babylon and will capture it.
Their arrows will be like [SIM] skilled warriors that always hit what they aim at.
- 10 Babylonia will be conquered, and those who conquer it will take away everything they want.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”
- The conquest of Babylon*
- 11 “You people of Babylon who ◀plundered/stole everything valuable from▶ my chosen people,
now you are very happy [DOU].
You run around joyfully like [SIM] a calf in a meadow, and are happy like [SIM] male horses are happy when they are neighing.
- 12 But soon your people will be very disgraced [DOU] as a result of being conquered.
Your country will be the most insignificant nation;
it will be a desert, a dry and deserted land.
- 13 Because I, Yahweh, am angry with you people of Babylon,
I will cause your city to become completely deserted.
All who pass by will be horrified and will ◀gasp/be shocked▶ because of the destruction there.
- 14 All you nations that surround Babylon, prepare to attack it!

Tell your archers to shoot at their enemies;
shoot all of your arrows at them [LIT], because the people/leaders of Babylon have sinned against me, Yahweh.

15 Shout war-cries against Babylon from all sides of the city.

The soldiers of Babylon will surrender;
the towers and walls will be torn down.

It is I, Yahweh, who will be getting revenge on the people of Babylon, so help me to get revenge.

Do to the people of Babylon what they have done to others!

16 Take away from Babylon those who plant crops and those who reap the harvests!

Because of the swords carried by those who will attack Babylon, those people in Babylon who have come from other countries should all run away, back to their own countries [DOU]!"

God's people will return to Israel

17 "The Israeli people are like [MET] sheep that have been scattered by lions.

First the army of the King of Assyria defeated them.

Then the army of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon smashed them.

18 So this is what I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom the Israeli people worship, say:

'Now I will punish the King of Babylon and the people of his land, like I punished the King of Assyria.

19 And I will bring the people of Israel back to their own land where they will eat the food that grows in the fields of the Carmel and Bashan regions,

and the people in the hilly areas of Ephraim and Gilead will have all they want to eat.

20 At that time, there will not be people in Israel and in Judah who are still guilty for having sinned [DOU],

because I will forgive the small group of people whom I enable to still be alive.' "

God's punishment on Babylon

21 "So, I, Yahweh, say to the enemies of Babylonia, 'Attack the people who live in the Merathaim region

and the people in the Pekod region of Babylonia.

Pursue them, kill them, and completely get rid of them, as I have commanded you to do.

22 Shout your battle cries throughout the land;
shout when you are causing great destruction.

23 The army of Babylon is like [MET] the most powerful hammer on the earth, but it will be completely shattered.

Babylon will be deserted among the other nations.'

24 You people of Babylon, listen, because I have set a trap for you;

you will be caught in that trap,
because you fought against me.

25 It is as though I have opened the place where I store my weapons, and I have brought out all the weapons
to use against the people with whom I am angry.

I, the Commander of the armies of angels, have a lot of work to do

- to punish* the people of Babylonia.
- 26 So, you enemies of Babylonia, come from distant lands and attack it.
Break open the places where they store the grain.
Crush the walls of the city and the houses and pile up the rubble like [SIM] heaps of grain.
Destroy everything;
do not leave anything that is not destroyed.
- 27 Destroy all the young men who are as strong as [MET] bulls;
take them to where you will slaughter them.
It will be terrible for them, because it will be time for them to be punished.
- 28 Listen to the people who have fled and escaped from Babylon while they tell in Jerusalem how I, Yahweh, have gotten revenge against those who destroyed my temple in Jerusalem.
- 29 Summon archers [DOU] to come to attack Babylon; surround the city
in order that no one will escape.
Do to the people of Babylon what they have done to others [DOU], because they have defied me, the Holy One of the Israeli people.
- 30 The young men of Babylon will fall in the streets;
all their soldiers will be killed in one day.
- 31 I, the Commander of the armies of angels, say this:
'You arrogant/proud people,
it is now the time;
it is the time [DOU] when I will punish you.
- 32 Your land is full of proud people, but you will stumble and fall,
and no one will lift you up again.
I will light a fire in the cities in Babylonia that will burn up everything that is nearby.'
- 33 I, the Commander of the armies of angels, also say this:
'The people of Israel and Judah were ◀oppressed/treated cruelly▶;
those who captured them guarded them carefully and would not allow them to leave Babylon.
- 34 But I am strong, and I will free them.
I am the Commander of the armies of angels;
I will defend my people and enable them to return to their land where they will have peace, but the people of Babylonia will not have peace.
- 35 I will send enemy soldiers carrying swords [PRS] to strike the people of Babylonia;
they will strike the officials and wise men and all the other people who live in Babylon.
- 36 They will strike their false prophets with swords and they will become foolish.
They will strike the strongest warriors of Babylonia, and they will all be terrified.
- 37 They will strike their horses and chariots and the foreigners who are in the army of Babylonia, and they will all become as weak as [MET] women.

They will seize [MTY] all the valuable things there in Babylon and take them away.

I will do all those things because the entire land of Babylonia is filled with idols, and those horrible idols have caused the people who worship them to become crazy.

<sup>39</sup> Soon only hyenas and other wild creatures will live there;
and it will be a place where owls live.

People will never live there again;
it will be uninhabited forever [DOU].

<sup>40</sup> I will destroy Babylon like I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and the nearby towns;
no one will ever live there again [DOU].

<sup>41</sup> Look! A great army will come from the north.

A great nation far away with many kings is preparing to attack you people of Babylon.

<sup>42</sup> Their army has bows and arrows and spears;
they are very cruel, and do not act mercifully to anyone.

As they ride along on their horses,
the sound of the horses' hooves is like [SIM] the roaring of the ocean waves;
they are riding in battle formation to attack you, you people of Babylon.

<sup>43</sup> The King of Babylon says,

*"I have heard reports about the enemy approaching;
so I am very frightened, with the result that I am weak.*

I am very fearful, and anguished/worried, like [SIM] a woman who is about to give birth to a baby."

<sup>44</sup> I, Yahweh, will come to Babylon suddenly like a lion comes out of the jungle and leaps on the sheep that are eating the good pastureland.

I will quickly chase the people of Babylonia from their land.

And then I will appoint for them a leader whom I will choose;

I will do that because there is no one [RHQ] like me who can say that what I have done is not right.

No ruler can [RHQ] oppose me.

<sup>45</sup> Listen to what I have planned to do to the people of Babylon city and the rest of Babylonia:

even the little children will be dragged away, and I will completely destroy the people [MET] who live there.

<sup>46</sup> When Babylon is destroyed, the noise will be extremely loud, with the result that the earth will shake, and the wailing of the people will be heard by the people of other nations.' "

51

Babylon will be destroyed

"I will inspire/motivate an army to destroy Babylon like a powerful wind [MET], and also to destroy the people of Babylonia.

- <sup>2</sup> I will send a foreign army to come to get rid of Babylonia like a strong wind that blows away chaff.
They will attack from every direction on that day of disaster.
- <sup>3</sup> *I will tell them, 'Do not allow the archers of Babylon to have time to put on their armor or draw their bows.
Do not spare the young men of Babylon.
Completely destroy their army.'*
- <sup>4</sup> Their soldiers will fall dead in Babylonia;
they will die after being wounded in the streets.
- <sup>5</sup> *I, the Commander of the armies of angels, the Israelis' God, have not abandoned Israel and Judah.
Even though their land was full of people who sinned against me, the Holy God of Israel, I am still their God.*
- <sup>6</sup> *You people of Israel and Judah, flee from Babylon!
Run away from there!
Do not stay there and be killed when I punish the people of Babylon!
It will be the time when I will get revenge;
I will do to them what they deserve.*
- <sup>7</sup> *Babylon has been like [MET] a gold cup in my hand, a cup that is full of wine that caused people all over the earth who drank some of it to become drunk.
It is as though the rulers of the nations drank the wine from Babylon, and it caused them to become crazy.*
- <sup>8</sup> *But suddenly Babylon will be conquered.
You foreigners who live in Babylon, weep for its people.
Give them medicine for their wounds;
perhaps they can be healed."*
- <sup>9</sup> *We foreigners would have tried to heal them, but now they cannot be healed.
So we will not try to help them; we will abandon them,
and return to our own lands, because it is as though the punishment they are receiving is so great that it reaches up to the clouds in sky, so great that no one can measure it.*
- <sup>10</sup> *Yahweh has ◀vindicated us/shown that we were right▶;
so let's proclaim in Jerusalem everything that Yahweh our God has done for us.*
- <sup>11</sup> *You enemy soldiers, sharpen your arrows!
Lift up your shields, because Yahweh has incited your kings of Media and Persia to march with their armies to Babylon and to destroy it.
That is how Yahweh will get revenge on those foreigners who entered his temple in Jerusalem and defiled it.*
- <sup>12</sup> *Lift up a battle flag close to the walls of Babylon!
◀Reinforce the/Appoint more▶ guards, and tell the watchmen to stand in their positions!*

Prepare an ambush, because Yahweh is about to accomplish all that he has planned to do to the people of Babylon.

13 Babylon is a city near the great Euphrates River, a city in which there are many rich people,
but it is time for Babylon to be finished;
the time for the city to exist is ended.

14 The Commander of the armies of angels has solemnly promised, using his own name,
“Your cities will be filled with your enemies;
I will cause them to be like [SIM] a swarm of locusts;
and they will shout triumphantly when they conquer your city.”

A song to praise Yahweh

15 Yahweh created the earth by his power;
he established it by his wisdom,
and he stretched out the sky by his understanding.

16 When he speaks loudly, there is thunder in the sky;
he causes clouds to form in every part of the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain
and releases the winds from his storehouses.

17 People are senseless, and they know very little [HYP];
those who make idols are always disappointed,
because their idols do nothing for them.
The images/statues that they make are not real gods;
they are lifeless.

18 Idols are worthless; they deserve to be ridiculed;
there will be a time when they will all be destroyed.

19 But the God whom we Israelis worship is not like those idols;
he is the one who created everything that exists;
we, the people of Israel, belong to him;
his name is ‘the Commander of the armies of angels’.

20 Yahweh says about the army of Babylonia (OR, about a nation that will attack Babylonia),

“You have been like [MET] my battle-axe and war-club;
with your power I have shattered nations and destroyed many kingdoms.

21 With your power I have shattered armies of other nations:
I destroyed their horses and their riders, their chariots and their chariot-drivers.

22 With your power I shattered men and women, old people and children,
young men and young women.

23 With your power I shattered shepherds and their flocks of sheep, farmers and their oxen, governors and their officials.”

24 But, Yahweh also says, “Soon I will repay/punish you people in Babylon and in the rest of Babylonia for all the evil things that you have done in Jerusalem.

- 25 Babylonia is [APO] like [MET] a great mountain from which bandits descend to ◀plunder/steal things from▶ people all over the earth.
But I, Yahweh, am the enemy of you people of Babylonia.
I will raise my fist to strike you.
I will knock you down from the cliffs and cause you to be only a huge pile of burned rubble.
- 26 Your city will be abandoned forever;
even the stones in your city will never again be used for buildings.
Your city will be completely destroyed."
- 27 Tell the nations to lift up a battle flag!
Tell them to shout the battle-cry!
Gather all their armies to fight against Babylon!
Prepare the nations to attack Babylon.
Summon the armies of the kingdoms north of Babylonia—from Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a commander for them,
and bring a great number of horses;
there must be a huge number of horses; that huge number will resemble [SIM] a swarm of locusts.
- 28 Prepare the armies of other nations, armies that will be led by the kings of Media and Persia, their governors and their officials.
- 29 When they attack Babylon, it will be as though the earth will shake and writhe in pain,
because those armies will accomplish everything that Yahweh has planned to do to Babylon;
they will destroy it completely,
with the result that no one will live there again.
- 30 When their enemies attack, the strongest warriors in Babylon will not fight.
They will remain in their barracks, without any strength.
They will be as timid/weak as [SIM] women.
The enemy soldiers will burn the buildings in the city and pull down the bars of the city gates.
- 31 Messengers will go quickly, one after another, to tell the king that his city has been captured.
- 32 The places at which people can cross the river to escape from the city will be blocked.
The dry reeds in the marshes/swamps will be set on fire, and the soldiers of Babylon will be terrified.
- 33 This is what the Commander of the armies of angels, the God whom we Israelis worship, says;
"Babylon is like [SIM] wheat on the ground where it is about to be threshed by animals tramping on it.
Very soon their enemies will trample on the city of Babylon [MET]."
- 34 The army of Nebuchadnezzar, the King of Babylon, has attacked and crushed us Israeli people,
and we have no strength left.
It is as though they have swallowed us like a great monster that filled its belly with all our tasty parts, and then has spit out what it did not like.

<sup>35</sup> So the people of [PRS] Jerusalem say to Yahweh, “Cause the people of Babylon to suffer like they caused us to suffer!

Cause the people of Babylonia to be punished for killing [MTY] our people!”

Yahweh will get revenge on Babylon

<sup>36</sup> And this is what Yahweh replies to the people of Jerusalem:

“I will be like your lawyer to defend you, and I will avenge you.

I will dry up the river in Babylon and all the springs of water.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a heap of ruins, a place where jackals/wolves live.

It will become a place that people are horrified about and will ridicule;
it will be a place where no one lives.

<sup>38</sup> The people of Babylon will all roar like young lions;
they will growl like baby lions.

<sup>39</sup> But while they are extremely hungry,
I will prepare a different kind of feast for them.

It is as though I will cause them to drink wine until they are very drunk,
with the result that they will fall asleep.

But they will never wake up from that sleep!

<sup>40</sup> I will bring them down to a place where they will be slaughtered, like [SIM] someone who takes lambs or rams or goats to where they will be slaughtered for sacrifices.

<sup>41</sup> People all over the earth now ◀honor/praise▶ Babylon;
they say that it is a great city.

But I will cause it to become a place about which people of all nations are horrified.

<sup>42</sup> The enemies of Babylon will cover the city like huge waves of the sea [DOU].

Babylonia will become a dry desert area.

It will be a land in which no one lives and which no one walks through.

<sup>44</sup> And I will punish Bel, the god that the people of Babylon worship, and I will cause the people to give back what they have stolen [MET].

People of other nations will no longer come to worship Bel.

And the walls of Babylon will collapse.”

A message for the Israeli people

<sup>45</sup> Yahweh also says, “My people, come out of Babylon!
Run away from there!

Run, because I, Yahweh, am extremely angry [MTY] with the people of Babylon, and I will get rid of them!

<sup>46</sup> Do not be discouraged/worried [IDM] or afraid when you hear reports about what is happening in Babylon.

People will report rumors like that every year, rumors about violent things being done in the land, and rumors about leaders fighting against each other.

47 But it will soon be the time for me to get rid of the idols in Babylon.
People all over the land will be ashamed because of being defeated;
 and the corpses of their soldiers will lie in the streets.

48 Then all the angels in heaven and all the people on [PRS] the earth will rejoice, because from the north will come armies that will destroy Babylon.

49 Like the soldiers of Babylon killed the people of Israel and also killed others all over the world [HYP],
the people of Babylon must also be killed.

50 You Israeli people who have not been killed [MTY], get out of Babylon!
 Do not wait!
Even though you are in a land far away from Israel, think about Yahweh, and think about Jerusalem!"

51 The Israeli people say,
 "We are ashamed.

We are completely disgraced [DOU], because foreigners have entered Yahweh's temple and ◀defiled it/caused it to become unfit for worship▶."

52 Yahweh replies, "That is true, but there will soon be a time when I will destroy the idols in Babylon, and throughout Babylonia there will be wounded people who will groan.

53 Even if the walls around Babylon could extend up to the sky, and if its walls/fortifications were extremely strong,

I will send armies that will destroy the city.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

Babylon will be completely destroyed

54 Listen to the people of Babylon crying for help!
 And listen to the sounds of things being destroyed all over Babylonia!

55 Yahweh will be destroying Babylon.
 He will cause the loud noises in the city to cease.

56 Enemy troops will surge against the city like [SIM] a great wave.
 They will capture the city's mighty soldiers and break their weapons.

That will happen because Yahweh is a God who punishes his enemies justly;
 he will punish them as they deserve.

57 The king, the Commander of the armies of angels says,
 "I will cause the city officials and wise men, the army captains and soldiers in Babylon to become drunk.
 They will fall asleep,
 but they will never wake up again!"

58 Yahweh also says,
 "The thick walls around Babylon will be flattened to the ground.
 The city gates will be burned.

People from other countries will work hard to save the city, but it will be ◀in vain/useless▶, because everything that they have built will be destroyed by fire."

Jeremiah's message was taken to Babylon

59 Seraiah was the man who made arrangements for the King of Babylon whenever he traveled. He was the son of Neraiah and grandson of Mahseiah. When he was about to go to Babylon with King Zedekiah, after Zedekiah had been ruling Judah for almost four years, the prophet Jeremiah gave him a message. <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah had written on a scroll a list of all the disasters that he had written about, disasters that would soon occur in Babylon. <sup>61</sup> He said to Seraiah, "When you arrive in Babylon, read aloud everything that I have written on this scroll. <sup>62</sup> Then pray, 'Yahweh, you said that you will thoroughly destroy Babylon, with the result that people and animals will no longer live there. You said that it will be desolate forever.' <sup>63</sup> Then, when you have finished reading what I have written on the scroll, tie it to a heavy stone and throw it into the Euphrates River. <sup>64</sup> Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon and its people will disappear and never exist again, because of the disasters that Yahweh will cause to occur there' "

That is the end of Jeremiah's messages.

52

Zedekiah tried to flee from Jerusalem

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> So, on January 15, when Zedekiah had been ruling for almost nine years, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon led his entire army to attack Jerusalem. They surrounded the city and built dirt ramps up to the top of the city walls to enable them to attack the city. <sup>5</sup> They continued to surround Jerusalem until Zedekiah had been ruling for almost eleven years.

<sup>6</sup> When Zedekiah had been ruling for almost eleven years, by July 18 of that year, the ◀famine/lack of food▶ in the city had become very severe, and there was no more food for the people to eat. <sup>7</sup> Then the soldiers of Babylonia broke through a section of the city wall, and all the Israeli soldiers fled. But because the city was surrounded by soldiers from Babylonia, Zedekiah and the Israeli soldiers waited until it became dark. Then they left the city through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden. Then they ran towards the Jordan River Valley. <sup>8</sup> But the soldiers of Babylonia pursued King Zedekiah, and they caught up with him on the plains near Jericho. He was alone because all his men had deserted him and had scattered. <sup>9</sup> The soldiers of Babylonia took him to the king of Babylon, who was at Riblah in the Hamath region. There the king of Babylon told his soldiers what they should do to punish Zedekiah. <sup>10</sup> They forced Zedekiah to watch while they killed his sons and all the officials from Judah. <sup>11</sup> Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes. They fastened him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon. They put him in a prison, and he remained there until the day that he died.

<sup>12</sup> On August 17 of that year, which was when King Nebuchadnezzar had been ruling for almost 19 years, Nebuzaradan, who was the captain of the king's bodyguards and one of the king's officials, arrived in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> He commanded his soldiers to burn down the temple of Yahweh, the king's palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem. They also destroyed all the important buildings in the city. <sup>14</sup> Then he supervised the soldiers from Babylonia while they tore down the walls on all sides of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> Then Nebuzaradan ◀forced to go/exiled▶ to Babylon some of the poorest people, those Israelis who had said they would support the king of Babylon, the rest of the craftsmen, and other people who had remained in Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> But Nebuzaradan allowed some of the very poor people to remain in Judah to take care of the vineyards and fields.

<sup>17</sup> The soldiers from Babylonia broke into pieces the huge bronze pillars that were in front of the temple, and the large bronze water tank, and the ten bronze water carts, and they took all the bronze to Babylon. <sup>18</sup> They also took away the basins for holding the ashes from the burned sacrifices, the shovels for cleaning out the ashes, the tools for snuffing out the wicks of the lamps, the basins for holding the blood of the sacrificed animals, the dishes for incense, and all the other bronze items that were used when sacrifices were made at the temple. <sup>19</sup> Nebuzaradan also told his soldiers to take away the small bowls, the dishes for burning incense, the basins, pots, lampstands, bowls for incense, and the bowls used for pouring out the wine offerings. They took all the other items that were made of pure gold or silver.

<sup>20</sup> The bronze from the two pillars, the large water tank and the twelve statues of oxen that were beneath it, and the water carts, was more/heavier than they could weigh. Those things had been made for the temple during the time that Solomon was the king. <sup>21</sup> Each of the pillars was ◀27 feet/8 meters▶ tall and ◀18 feet/5.5 meters▶ around. They were hollow, and each had sides/walls that were ◀3 in./8 cm.▶ thick. <sup>22</sup> The bronze head on the top of each pillar was ◀7-1/2 feet/over 2 meters▶ high and was decorated all around with a bronze network of figures that represented pomegranates. <sup>23</sup> There was a total of 100 figures of pomegranates on the network at the top, 96 of which could be seen from the ground.

<sup>24</sup> When Nebuzaradan returned to Babylon, he took with him as prisoners Seraiah the Supreme Priest, Zephaniah who was Seraiah's deputy, and the three men who guarded the entrances to the temple. <sup>25</sup> He found some other people who were hiding in the city. So from them he took a commander of the army of Judah, seven of the king's advisors, the army commander's chief secretary who was in charge of recruiting soldiers for the army, and 60 other soldiers. <sup>26</sup> Nebuzaradan took them all to the king of Babylon, who was still at Riblah. <sup>27</sup> There at Riblah in the Hamath region, the king of Babylon commanded that they all be executed.

Many of the people of Judah were ◀forced to leave/exiled from▶ their own land. <sup>28</sup> The number of people who were captured and sent to Babylon at that time, when Nebuchadnezzar had been ruling for almost seven years, was 3,023. <sup>29</sup> Then, when he had been ruling for almost 18 years, his soldiers took 832 more Israeli people to Babylonia. <sup>30</sup> When he had been ruling almost 23 years, he sent Nebuzaradan to Jerusalem again, and he brought back 745 more Israelis to Babylonia. That was a total of 4,600 Israelis who were taken to Babylonia.

Jehoiachin was released from prison

<sup>31</sup> After King Jehoiachin of Judah had been in prison in Babylon for almost thirty-seven years, Evil-Merodach became the king of Babylon. He was kind to Jehoiachin and ordered that he be released from prison. That was on March 31 of the year that Evil-Merodach became king. <sup>32</sup> He always spoke kindly to Jehoiachin and gave him a position in which he was honored more than all the other kings who had been exiled/taken to Babylon. <sup>33</sup> He supplied new clothes for Jehoiachin, to replace the clothes that he had been wearing in prison. He also allowed Jehoiachin to eat with him every day, all during the rest of his life. <sup>34</sup> Every day, the King of Babylon gave him some money to buy the things that he needed. That continued until the day that Jehoiachin died.

This book contains the account of Jeremiah's sorrow because of God punishing Israel. We call this book Lamentations

The sorrows of the people of Jerusalem

- <sup>1</sup> Jerusalem was once full of people, but now it is deserted.
Once it was honored by people all over the world, but now it is grieving/abandoned like [SIM] a widow.
Once it was honored like [MET] a princess is honored among the nations, but now we who live here have become slaves.
- <sup>2</sup> We [PRS] weep bitterly all night long,
with tears flowing down our cheeks.
Among the people in all the nations that loved Jerusalem there are none that comfort us now.
All the rulers of those nations that were previously our allies have betrayed us, and they are all now enemies of the people of Jerusalem.
- <sup>3</sup> The people of Judah have been ◀exiled/forced to go to other countries▶ and caused to suffer greatly as slaves.
They live in other nations where they do not have peace/safety.
Their enemies seized them,
and there was no way for them to escape.
- <sup>4</sup> The roads to Zion Hill are empty [PRS] because no one comes here to celebrate the sacred festivals.
The city gates are deserted, and the priests groan.
The young women of Jerusalem cry
because they are suffering greatly.
- <sup>5</sup> Our enemies have conquered the city,
and now they prosper.
Yahweh has punished the people of Jerusalem
because of all the sins that they have committed.
The children of Jerusalem have been captured and taken to other countries.
- <sup>6</sup> Jerusalem was a beautiful city, but it is not beautiful now.
The leaders of the city are like [SIM] deer that are starving because of being unable to find any grass to eat.
They are very weak, with the result that they are unable to run from their enemies.
- <sup>7</sup> The people of Jerusalem are sad and scattered, and they think about the previous greatness of the city.

But now our enemies have captured the city, and there is no one to help the people.
Our enemies destroyed the city and laughed while they were doing that.

<sup>8</sup> The people of [PRS] Jerusalem have sinned very much;
it is as though [MET] the city has become like a filthy rag.
All those who previously honored the city now despise it, because they see that it has become very disgraced [MET].
Now the people of the city groan, and they cover their faces because they are very ashamed.

<sup>9</sup> The city has become filthy because of [PRS] the sins that the people have committed;
they did not think about what could happen to the city.
Now the city has been destroyed, and there is no one to comfort the people.
The people cry out saying, "Yahweh, look at how we are suffering because our enemies have defeated us!"

<sup>10</sup> Our enemies have taken away all our treasures, all the valuable things that we owned.
We have seen soldiers from other nations, men who do not worship Yahweh, enter our sacred temple,
the place where foreigners/non-Israelis were ◀forbidden/not allowed▶ to enter.

<sup>11</sup> The people of the city groan while they search for food;
they have given their treasures to get food to eat to remain alive.
They say, "Yahweh, look at us, and see that we are despised!"

<sup>12</sup> You people who pass by, you do not [RHQ] seem to care at all about what has happened to us.
Look around and see that there are no other [RHQ] people who are suffering like we are.
Yahweh has caused us to suffer because he was extremely angry with us.

<sup>13</sup> It is as though he sent a fire from heaven [MTY] that burned in our bones;
it is as though [MET] he has placed a trap for our feet, and has prevented us from walking any further.
He has abandoned us;
we are weak/miserable every day, all day long.

<sup>14</sup> He caused the sins that we have committed to be like a heavy load for us to carry;
it is as though [MET] he tied them around our necks.
Previously we were strong,
but he has caused us to become weak.
He has allowed our enemies to capture us, and we were not able to do anything to resist them.

15 Yahweh looked at our mighty soldiers and laughed at them.
He has summoned a great army to come and crush our young soldiers.
It is as though [MET] Yahweh has trampled on us people of Judah like [SIM] people trample on grapes in a pit to make wine.

16 I weep because of all those things;
my eyes are filled with tears.
There is no one to comfort me;
those who could encourage me are far away.
Our enemies have conquered us, so our children have nothing good to ◀hope for/expect to happen▶.

17 We people of [PRS] Jerusalem reach out our hands to get help, but there is no one to comfort us.
Yahweh has decided concerning us descendants of Jacob that the people in nearby nations will become our enemies;
so they consider that Jerusalem has become like [MET] a filthy rag.

18 But what Yahweh has done to us is fair, because we have rebelled against obeying the commands that he gave us.
You people everywhere, listen to us;
look and see that we are suffering greatly.
We had many sons and daughters, but they have been captured and forced to go to distant countries.

19 We pleaded with our allies to help us, but they all refused.
Our priests and our leaders have died from hunger in the city while they were searching for food to eat to remain alive.

20 Yahweh, see that we are suffering very much.
It is as though our inner beings are tormented.
We are sad [SYN]
because we have rebelled against you.
Our enemies kill people in the streets with their swords;
people are dying because they have no food to eat.

21 People have heard us while we groaned, but no one came to comfort us.
Yahweh, you caused us to experience this disaster, and our enemies are happy to see what you have done to us.
But cause it soon to be the time that you have promised,
when our enemies will suffer like we have suffered!

22 Yahweh, see all the evil things that they have done and punish them!
Punish them like you have punished us for all the sins that we committed!

We say this to you because we suffer and groan very much,
 and we ◀faint/are very sad▶.

Yahweh punished Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh was extremely angry with us; as a result, it was as though [MET] he covered Jerusalem with a dark cloud.
 Previously it was a beautiful/glorious city, but he has caused it to become a ruins.
 At the time he punished [MET] Israel,
 he even abandoned his temple [MET] in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh destroyed the homes of the people of [PRS] Judah;
 he did not act mercifully.
 Because he was very angry,
 he broke down the fortresses of Judah.
 He has caused our kingdom and our rulers to become disgraced, and he has gotten rid of them.

<sup>3</sup> Because he was extremely angry, he has caused Israel to not be powerful [MET] any more.
 He has refused to assist us when our enemies attacked us.
 He has destroyed Israel like [SIM] a raging fire destroys everything.

<sup>4</sup> He bent his bow to prepare to shoot us, his people, as though we were his enemies.
 He prepared to kill the people whom we love the most [MET], members of our own families.
 He is extremely angry [MTY] with us people of Jerusalem;
 his anger is like [SIM] a fire.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh has become like an enemy to us Israelis;
 he has destroyed our palaces and caused our fortresses to become ruins.
 He has gotten rid of many people in Jerusalem, and caused us to mourn and weep for those who were killed.

<sup>6</sup> He has caused his temple to be smashed
as easily as [SIM] if it was a shelter in a garden.
 He has caused us, his people, to forget all our sacred festivals and Sabbath days.
 He has caused our kings and priests to be rejected because he was extremely angry with them.

<sup>7</sup> Yahweh has rejected his own altar and abandoned his temple.
 He has allowed our enemies to tear down the walls of our temple and our palaces.

They shout victoriously in the temple of Yahweh, like we previously shouted during our sacred festivals.

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh was determined to cause the walls of our city [MTY] to be torn down.
It was as though he measured the walls and then he completely destroyed [MTY] them.
It was as though he caused the towers and walls to lament/weep,
because they were now ruins.

<sup>9</sup> The city gates have collapsed;
the bars that fastened the gates shut have been smashed.
The king and his officials have been forced to go to other countries.
No longer does anyone teach the people the laws that God gave to Moses.
The prophets do not receive any visions because Yahweh does not give them any.

<sup>10</sup> The old men of Jerusalem [MTY] sit on the ground, and they say nothing.
They wear rough sackcloth and throw dust on their heads to show that they are sad.
The young girls of Jerusalem bow down sorrowfully, their faces touching the ground.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes are very tired because of my tears;
I am very grieved in my soul.
Because very many of my people have been killed,
I grieve and am exhausted.
Even children and babies are fainting and dying in the streets because they have no food.

<sup>12</sup> They cry out to their mothers,
"We need [RHQ] something to eat and drink!"
They faint like wounded men in the streets of the city.
They slowly die
in the arms of their mothers.

<sup>13</sup> You people of Jerusalem [MTY, DOU],
◀what can I/there is nothing that I can▶ say to help you.
No people have [RHQ] suffered like you are suffering;
I do not know what I can do to comfort you.
The disaster [MET] that you have experienced is as great as the ocean is deep;
there is no one [RHQ] who can restore your city.

<sup>14</sup> The prophets among you claimed that they had seen visions from Yahweh, but what they said was false and worthless.
They did not save you from being ◀exiled/forced to go to other countries▶, because they did not proclaim that you had sinned.

Instead, the messages that they gave you deceived you because they were not true.

15 All those who pass by you make fun of [IDM] you;
they shake their heads and they hiss/sneer at you.

*They say, "Is this that great city of Jerusalem?
Is it the city that was the most beautiful city in the world, the city that caused all the people on the earth to be joyful?"*

16 Now all our enemies scoff [IDM] at you;
they hiss/sneer at you and gnash their teeth to show that they hate you.
They say, "We have destroyed them!
This is what we longed/waited for,
and now it has happened!"

17 Yahweh has done what he planned; long ago he threatened to destroy you,
and now he has done it.
He has destroyed your city without acting mercifully toward you;
he has enabled your enemies to be happy about defeating you;
he has enabled your enemies to continually become stronger.

18 I wish/desire that the walls of Jerusalem [APO] would cry out to Yahweh!
You people of Jerusalem [MET],
Cry day and night!
Let your tears flow like rivers.
Do not stop grieving;
do not stop crying.

19 Get up every night and cry out;
tell Yahweh what you are feeling.
Raise your arms to plead to him to act mercifully to prevent our children from dying;
they are fainting on the street corners because they have no food to eat.

20 Yahweh, look, and think about it!
Have you ever [RHQ] caused people to suffer like this before?
It is certainly not right that [RHQ] women are eating the flesh of their own children, the children whom they have always taken care of!
It is not right that [RHQ] priests and prophets are being killed in your own temple!

21 The corpses of people of all ages lie in the streets;
there are even corpses of young men and young women who have been killed by our enemies' swords.
Because you were very angry,
you caused them to be killed;

you have slaughtered them without pitying them at all.

<sup>22</sup> You summoned our enemies to attack us from every direction, as though you were calling/inviting them to come to a feast.
At that time when you showed that you were very angry, no one escaped.
Our enemies murdered our little children, ones whom we took care of and reared/brought up.

3

Hope in the midst of distress

- <sup>1</sup> I, the one who am writing this, am a man who has been afflicted/punished [MTY]
by Yahweh
because he was angry.
- <sup>2</sup> It was as though he caused me to walk in a very dark place without any light at all.
- <sup>3</sup> He has punished [IDM] me many times,
all day, every day.
- <sup>4</sup> He has caused my skin and my flesh to become old.
He has broken my bones.
- <sup>5</sup> He has surrounded me [DOU] with bitterness and suffering.
- <sup>6</sup> It is as though he has buried me in a dark place like [SIM] the graves of those who have been dead for a long time.
- <sup>7</sup> It is as though [MET] he has built a wall around me,
and fastened/tied me with heavy chains,
and I cannot escape.
- <sup>8</sup> Although I call out and cry out for him to help me, he does not pay attention to my prayers.
- <sup>9</sup> It is as though he has blocked my path with a high stone wall and has caused my path to become crooked.
- <sup>10</sup> He has waited to attack me like [SIM] a bear or a lion hides and waits to attack other animals.
- <sup>11</sup> It is as though he has dragged me off the path and ◀mauled me/torn me into pieces▶, and left me without help.
- <sup>12</sup> It is as though [MET] he bent his bow and caused me to become the target at which he shot his arrows.
- <sup>13</sup> It is as though he shot his arrows deep into my body.
- <sup>14</sup> All my relatives laugh at me;
all day, every day they sing songs that make fun of me.
- <sup>15</sup> He has filled me with ◀bitterness/great suffering▶, like [MET] someone who drinks a very bitter liquid suffers.
- <sup>16</sup> It is as though he has caused me to chew gravel that broke my teeth, and he has trampled me in the dirt.

- 17 Things no longer go well for me;
I no longer remember being prosperous.
- 18 I continued to say to myself, "I no longer expect to live much longer;
I no longer confidently expect to receive good things from Yahweh!"
- 19 When I think about my suffering and my wandering away from home, it is like drinking a very bitter [DOU] liquid.
- 20 I will never forget this time when I feel very depressed/discouraged [IDM].
- 21 However, I confidently expect Yahweh to do good things for me again
when I think about this:
- 22 Yahweh never stops faithfully loving us,
and he never stops being kind to us.
- 23 He is the one whom we can always trust/lean on.
Every morning he is merciful to us again.
- 24 So I say to myself, "Yahweh is all that I need;
so I will confidently wait for him to do good things for me."
- 25 Yahweh is good to all those who depend on him, to those who seek his help.
- 26 So it is good for us to wait quietly for Yahweh to save/rescue us.
- 27 And it is good for us to patiently endure suffering while we are young.
- 28 Those who seek his help should sit by themselves, silently, knowing that it is Yahweh who has allowed/caused them to suffer.
- 29 They should lie in the dirt, with their faces on the ground,
because they can still hope that Yahweh will help them.
- 30 If someone strikes us on one cheek, we should turn the other cheek toward that person in order that he may strike it,
too,
and accept/endure it when we are insulted.
- 31 Yahweh does not abandon us his people forever.
- 32 Sometimes he causes us to suffer, but sometimes he is kind to us because he continually and faithfully loves us.
- 33 And he is not happy about causing human beings to suffer or to be sad.
- 34 If people ◀mistreat all the prisoners/crush all the prisoners under their feet▶ 35 or if they rebel against God by refusing to give to people the things that it is right for them to receive,
- 36 or if they cause judges to decide matters unjustly, ◀does Yahweh not see all those things?/Yahweh certainly sees all those things!▶
[RHQ]
- 37 No one can [RHQ] command something to happen and then cause it to happen
if Yahweh has not already decided that it should happen.
- 38 God in heaven [MTY] is [RHQ] the one who causes disasters to happen, and he also causes good things to happen.

39 So it is certainly not [RHQ] right for us, who are only humans, to complain when he punishes us for the sins that we have committed.

40 Instead, we should ◀examine/think carefully about▶ our behavior;

we should turn back to Yahweh.

41 We should pray [IDM] sincerely and lift up our arms toward God in heaven, and say, 42 “We have sinned and rebelled against you, and you have not forgiven us.

43 You have surrounded us with your anger and pursued us; you have slaughtered us without pitying us.

44 You have hidden yourself in a cloud, with the result that you do not hear us when we pray.

45 You have caused the people of other nations to consider us to be only garbage [DOU].

46 All our enemies have insulted us.

47 We are constantly afraid [DOU], because we have experienced disasters and ruin [DOU].”

48 I cry a lot because my people have been destroyed.

49 My tears continually flow; they will not stop until Yahweh looks down from heaven and sees us.

51 I am very grieved because of what has happened to the women of my city.

52 Those who are my enemies hunted for me like [SIM] people hunt for a bird to kill it even though there was no reason for them to do that.

53 They threw me into a pit to kill me, and they threw stones on top of me.

54 The water in the pit rose above my head, and I said to myself, “I am about to die/drown!”

55 But from the bottom of the pit I cried out to you [MTY], “Yahweh, help me!”

56 I pleaded with you, “Do not refuse to heed [MTY] me while I cry out to you!”

57 Then you answered me and said, “Do not be afraid!”

58 Yahweh, you defended me; you did not allow me to die.

59 Now, Yahweh, you have seen the evil things that my enemies have done to me, so decide my case and show that I am right!

60 You know the evil things that they have planned to do to me.

61 Yahweh, you have heard them insult me and what they have planned to do to me.

<sup>62</sup> Every day they whisper and mutter things about me, all day long.

<sup>63</sup> Look at them! Whether they are standing or sitting they make fun of me with the songs that they sing.

<sup>64</sup> Yahweh, cause them to suffer in return for their causing me to suffer!

<sup>65</sup> Curse them [IDM]
for their being very stubborn [IDM].

<sup>66</sup> Because you are angry with them, pursue them and get rid of them, until none of them remain on the earth.

What happened when Jerusalem was destroyed

<sup>1</sup> Previously our people were like [MET] pure gold, but now they are worthless.

Like [MET] the sacred stones in the temple have been scattered,
our young men have been scattered.

<sup>2</sup> The young men of Jerusalem were as valuable as [MET] large amounts of gold, but now people consider that they are as worthless as ordinary clay pots.

<sup>3</sup> Even the female jackals/wolves feed their pups, but my people act cruelly toward their children;
they are like [SIM] ostriches in the desert that abandon their eggs.

<sup>4</sup> My people's infants' tongues cling to the roofs/tops of their mouths because they are extremely thirsty;
the children plead for some food, but no one gives them any.

<sup>5</sup> People who previously ate fine food are now starving in the streets;
those who previously lived luxuriously [MTY]
now paw/dig through rubbish heaps to find some food.

<sup>6</sup> The people of Sodom were struck with a disaster very suddenly, and there was no one to rescue them;
but my people have been punished more severely than the people of Sodom were punished.

<sup>7</sup> Our leaders' behavior was previously very pure, whiter and brighter than snow and milk;
their bodies were redder than red coral/stones;
they were very strong and healthy [MET].

<sup>8</sup> But now their faces are blacker than soot, and no one recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones, and it has become as dry as [SIM] a wooden stick.

- <sup>9</sup> It is better to die in a battle [MTY] than to die of hunger.
There was no food to harvest in the fields,
so the people slowly starved until they died.
- <sup>10</sup> Women who usually/previously were very kind have killed and cooked their own children;
they ate them when there was no other food,
when Jerusalem was surrounded by enemy soldiers.
- <sup>11</sup> Yahweh has shown that he was extremely angry;
it is as though he started/ignited a fire in Jerusalem that burned everything to ashes.
- <sup>12</sup> None of the kings on the earth or anyone else believed that any of our enemies could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
- <sup>13</sup> But that is what happened;
it happened because the prophets sinned;
and the priests also sinned
by causing innocent people to be executed [MTY].
- <sup>14</sup> The prophets and priests wandered through the streets as though they were blind.
No one would touch them because their clothes were stained with the blood of people who had been killed.
- <sup>15</sup> The people who were alive shouted, "Stay away from us [DOU]! You are defiled/untouchable!
Do not touch us!"
So the prophets and priests fled from Israel, and they wandered around from one country to another, because people in each country kept saying to them, "You cannot stay here!"
- <sup>16</sup> It is Yahweh himself who has scattered them;
he no longer is concerned about them.
People do not respect our priests or leaders.
- <sup>17</sup> We [SYN] continued to look for someone to help us, but it was useless.
We continued to watch to see if one of our allies would save us, but none of the nations that we were waiting for could help us.
- <sup>18</sup> Our enemies were hunting for us, so we could not even walk in our streets lest they seize us.
We were about to be captured;
it was time for us to be killed.
- <sup>19</sup> Those who pursued us were faster than eagles flying in the sky.
Even if we fled to the mountains or hid in the desert,
they went there ahead of us and waited to attack us.

<sup>20</sup> Our king, whom Yahweh appointed, was the one who enabled us to remain alive [MTY];
 he was the one whom we trusted to protect us [IDM] from the armies of other nations.

But he was captured
like animals are [MET] caught in a pit.

<sup>21</sup> You people of [IDM] Edom and Uz,
you may be happy about what is happening to us now, but Yahweh will be punishing [MTY] you also.
 You will become drunk and will be ashamed
because your enemies will have stripped off your clothes.

<sup>22</sup> You people of [APO] Jerusalem, the time of your being punished will end;
 Yahweh will not allow you to continue to live in ◀exile/foreign countries▶.
 But you people of [APO] Edom, Yahweh will punish you;
 he will reveal the wicked things that you have done.

A prayer for God's mercy

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, think about what has happened to us.
 See that we have been disgraced.

<sup>2</sup> Foreigners have seized our property,
and now they live in our homes.

<sup>3</sup> Our enemies have killed our fathers;
 they caused our mothers to become widows.

<sup>4</sup> Now we are required to pay for water to drink, and we must pay a lot of money for firewood.

<sup>5</sup> It is as though those who pursue us are at our heels;
 we are exhausted, but they do not allow us to rest.

<sup>6</sup> In order to get enough food to remain alive,
 we went to Egypt and Assyria and offered to work for the people there.

<sup>7</sup> Our ancestors sinned, and now they are dead, but we are being punished for the sins that they committed.

<sup>8</sup> Officials from Babylon who were previously slaves now rule over us, and there is no one who can rescue us from their power.

<sup>9</sup> When we roam around in the desert searching for food, we are in danger of being killed,
 because people there kill strangers with their swords.

<sup>10</sup> Our skin has become hot like [SIM] an oven, and we have a very high fever because we are extremely hungry.

<sup>11</sup> Our enemies have raped the women in Jerusalem, and they have done that to the young women in all the towns of Judea.

<sup>12</sup> Our enemies have hanged our leaders, and they do not respect our elders.

<sup>13</sup> They force our young men to grind flour with millstones, and boys stagger while they are forced to carry heavy loads of firewood.

<sup>14</sup> Our elders no longer sit at the city gates to make important decisions;

the young men no longer play their musical instruments.

- 15 We [SYN] are no longer joyful;
instead of dancing joyfully, we now mourn.
- 16 The wreaths of flowers have fallen off our heads.
Terrible things have happened to us because of the sins that we committed.
- 17 We [SYN] are tired and discouraged [IDM], and we cannot see well because our eyes are full of tears.
- 18 Jerusalem is completely deserted, and jackals/wolves prowl around it.
- 19 But Yahweh, you rule forever!
You continue to rule [MTY] from one generation to the next generation.
- 20 So why [RHQ] have you forgotten us?
Why [RHQ] have you abandoned us for a very long time?
- 21 Please enable us to return to you, and enable us to prosper [MTY] as we did previously.
- 22 Please do that, because we hope that [RHQ] you have not rejected us forever and that [RHQ] you do not continue to be extremely angry with us!

This book contains the account of Ezekiel foretelling about Jerusalem being destroyed and rebuilt. We call this book Ezekiel

Ezekiel saw Yahweh's glory

<sup>1-2</sup> I am Ezekiel, a priest, the son of Buzi. When I was 30 years old, I was living among the Israeli people who had been ◀exiled from/forced to leave▶ Judah and had come to Babylon. I was living along the Kebar River/Canal south of Babylon. Almost five years after King Jehoiachin had been ◀exiled/forced to leave Judah▶, on the fifth day of the fourth month of that year, it was as though the sky was opened and I saw visions from God.

On that day, <sup>3</sup> God gave me messages in visions here in Babylonia, and I felt the power [MTY] of Yahweh on me.

<sup>4</sup> In one of the visions, I saw a windstorm coming from the north. There was a huge cloud, and lightning was flashing continually, and a brilliant light surrounded the cloud. In the center of where the lightning was flashing there was something that resembled glowing bronze. <sup>5</sup> In the center of the storm I saw what resembled four living creatures. They resembled humans, <sup>6</sup> but each of them had four faces and four wings [DOU]. <sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight. Their feet resembled the hooves of calves, and the creatures shone like polished bronze. <sup>8</sup> On their four sides under their wings there were hands like humans have. <sup>9</sup> As the four creatures stood there, they formed a circle/square, with their wings touching each other. They did not turn when they were moving; they went straight ahead.

<sup>15</sup> While I looked at the four living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of them. <sup>16</sup> Each of the wheels was the same, and they all shone like [SIM] ◀chrysolite/a valuable green stone▶. Each seemed to have one wheel inside another wheel. <sup>17</sup> Whenever they moved, they would go straight in one of the four directions that they faced; they did not turn in another direction while they moved. <sup>18</sup> The rims of the wheels were covered with eyes.

<sup>19</sup> Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels moved with them. So whenever the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose up. <sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit that controlled the creatures wanted the creatures to go, they went, and the wheels went with them, because the spirit that controlled/guided them was in the wheels [DOU]. <sup>21</sup> Whenever the creatures moved, the wheels moved. Whenever the creatures stoodstill, the wheels stopped. Whenever the creatures rose up from the ground, the wheels rose up with them.

<sup>22</sup> Above the heads of the creatures there was something that resembled a dome. It shone like ice (OR, crystal) shines, and it was awesome. <sup>23</sup> Under the dome, the creatures stretched out their wings. Each one had two wings; each wing stretched towards the creature that was next to it, and two wings that were against the creature's body. <sup>24</sup> Whenever the creatures moved, their wings made a sound that resembled the roar made by a rushing stream. It also sounded like the voice of Almighty God, and like [SIM] the noise of a huge army marching. Whenever the creatures stood still on the ground, they lowered their wings.

<sup>25</sup> While they stood on the ground with their wings lowered, there was a voice from the dome that was over their heads. <sup>26</sup> Above the dome was something that resembled a huge throne that was made of a huge ◀sapphire/valuable blue stone▶. Sitting on the throne was someone that resembled a human. <sup>27</sup> I saw that above his waist his body resembled metal that was glowing as though it had a very hot fire inside it. And I saw that below his waist there was a very brilliant light that surrounded him. <sup>28</sup> It shone like [SIM] a rainbow shines in the clouds on a rainy day.

That was the brilliant light that represented the presence of Yahweh. When I saw it, I prostrated myself on the ground, and I heard him speak.

2

Ezekiel was called to be a prophet

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, "You human, stand up while I speak to you." <sup>2</sup> While he spoke to me, God's Spirit entered me and enabled me to stand up. Then I heard him speak to me.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "You human, I will send you to the Israeli people. They are people who have turned away from me and rebelled against me. Their ancestors rebelled against me, and they themselves are still rebelling against me. <sup>4</sup> The people to whom I will send you are very stubborn [DOU]. But say to them, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says to you.' <sup>5</sup> And when you tell them my messages, perhaps those rebellious people will heed those messages and perhaps they will not heed them, but they will know that you are a prophet who has been among them. <sup>6</sup> And you human, you must not be afraid of them or afraid of what they say. Living among them will be like living in the midst of briars or scorpions, but do not be afraid of them. They are rebellious people [MTY], but do not allow them to cause you to become afraid. <sup>7</sup> Tell them my message, but do not expect them to pay attention to it, because they are very rebellious. <sup>8</sup> But human, you must pay attention to what I say. Do not be rebellious like they are. Now open your mouth and eat what I give to you."

<sup>9</sup> Then, as I watched, I saw his hand that was stretched toward me. In his hand was a scroll. <sup>10</sup> He unrolled the scroll. On both sides of it were written words that expressed sorrow and mourning and words about trouble/disaster.

3

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, "You human, eat this scroll that is in front of you. Then go and speak to the Israeli people [MTY]." <sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat it.

<sup>3</sup> Then he said to me, "You human, eat the scroll that I have given to you. Fill your stomach with it." So I ate it, and in my mouth it tasted as sweet as honey.

<sup>4</sup> Then he said to me, "You human, go to the Israeli people [MTY] and tell them my message. <sup>5</sup> The people to whom I am sending you are not people whose language is very difficult to learn, a language which you do not understand. I am sending you to your Israeli people [MTY]. <sup>6</sup> I am sending you to people whose language you understand very well. If I were sending you to people whose language was difficult for you to understand, they would be surprised and pay attention to what you say to them. <sup>7</sup> But the Israeli people do not want to listen to you because they do not want to listen to me. They do not want to listen because they are all very stubborn [DOU]. <sup>8</sup> But I will enable you [SYN] to be as stubborn and tough as they are. <sup>9</sup> I will cause you to be as firm/unbreakable as [SIM] the hardest stone, like flint. So, even though they are very rebellious people, do not be afraid of them; do not allow them to cause you to be afraid."

<sup>10</sup> He also said to me, "You human, listen very carefully to what I say, and keep thinking about it [IDM]. <sup>11</sup> Go to your fellow Israelis who are here after being ◀exiled/forced to leave their country▶, and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says,' and then tell them my message, whether they want to hear it or whether they do not want to hear it."

<sup>12</sup> Then in the vision the Spirit of God lifted me up, and I heard behind me someone speaking very loudly, like a loud rumbling sound. I heard someone say, "Praise our glorious Yahweh in the place where he lives in heaven!" <sup>13</sup> I heard the sound of the wings of the four living creatures brushing against each other, and I also heard the sound of the wheels that were beside them. It was a loud rumbling sound. <sup>14</sup> The Spirit took me away. Within me I was very bitter and angry [DOU], but I felt Yahweh holding me very powerfully. <sup>15</sup> I came to the exiles who lived at Tel Abib town near the Kebar River/Canal south of Babylon. Then, where they were living, I sat for seven days. I was shocked about everything that I had seen.

The warning to the Israeli people

<sup>16</sup> After those seven days had ended, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>17</sup> "You human, I am appointing you to be like a watchman [MET] for the Israeli people [MTY]. So listen to these messages that I will give you, and tell them those messages to warn them. <sup>18</sup> When I say about some wicked people, 'They will surely die because of their sins,' if you do not warn them or tell them that they must turn from their wicked behavior if they want to ◀save their lives/remain alive▶, those wicked people will die because of the sins that they have committed, but I will consider that you are responsible for their deaths [MTY]. <sup>19</sup> But if you warn the wicked people and they do not turn from all their wicked behavior [DOU], they will die because of their sins, but you will have saved yourself from my punishing you.

<sup>20</sup> Similarly, when righteous people turn from their righteous behavior and do evil deeds, I will cause bad things to happen [IDM] to them. But you must warn them. If you do not warn them, and if they do not stop their sinful behavior, they will die because of their sins; I will not think about the righteous things that they did previously, but I will consider that you are responsible for their deaths [MTY]. <sup>21</sup> But if you warn righteous people not to sin, and they do not sin, they will surely remain alive because they heeded your warning, and you will have saved yourself from my punishing you."

<sup>22</sup> I felt Yahweh take control [MTY] of me, and he said to me, "Get up and go out from the city down to the plain/valley, and there I will speak to you." <sup>23</sup> So I got up and went down to the valley. And I saw the glory of Yahweh there, like the glory that I had seen along the Kebar River/Canal. And I prostrated myself on the ground.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit of God entered me and enabled me to stand up. He said to me, "Go into your house and stay inside it. <sup>25</sup> People will tie you with ropes, with the result that you will be unable to go out among the people. <sup>26</sup> Even though they are very rebellious people, I will cause your tongue to stick to the roof of your mouth, with the result that you will be unable to talk and to rebuke them. <sup>27</sup> But then when I speak to you again, I will enable you to talk [MTY], and you will say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says,’ and you will tell them my message. Those who are willing to listen to what you say will listen, but many will refuse to listen, because they are rebellious people [MTY].”

4

Ezekiel symbolized the coming destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh also said to me, “You human, take a large clay tablet/brick and put it in front of you. Then on the clay grave/draw on it lines that represent Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Then draw figures around it to represent enemy soldiers who will surround the city. Make mounds around it and a dirt ramp up against the wall around the city. Set figures around it that represent ◀battering rams/heavy logs that will break through the walls▶.

<sup>3</sup> Then take an iron pan, and place it to be like an iron wall between you and the drawing of the city. Then turn your face toward the drawing. It will symbolize that enemy troops will surround the city to attack it. That will be a warning to the Israeli people [MTY].

<sup>4-5</sup> Then lie on your left side, and stay like that for 390 days. That will symbolize that the Israeli people will be punished for their sins; you must lie like that one day for each year during which they will be punished.

<sup>6</sup> After that, lie down again. This time, lie on your right side for 40 days. That will symbolize that the Israeli people will be punished more for their sins, one day for each year during which they will be punished. <sup>7</sup> Turn your face toward the drawing of Jerusalem and bare your arm like a soldier does who prepares to go into a battle [MTY], and prophesy about what will happen to the city. <sup>8</sup> You will not be able to move; it will be as though I have tied you with ropes in order that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished symbolizing how many years the city will be ◀besieged/surrounded by enemy soldiers▶.

<sup>9</sup> Before you do that, take some wheat and barley, beans, lentils, spelt and millet, and put them in a storage jar, and use that to bake bread for yourself. That is what you will eat during the 390 days while you lie on your left side. <sup>10</sup> You will eat ◀8 ounces/a small loaf▶ of bread each day. <sup>11</sup> Also measure out ◀1.5 pints/0.6 liter▶ of water to drink each day. <sup>12</sup> Eat that bread like you would eat a loaf of barley bread. But use your own dried dung for fuel to bake the bread while people are watching. <sup>13</sup> That will symbolize that the Israeli people will be forced to eat food that is unacceptable to me when they are living in the nations to which I will force them to go.”

<sup>14</sup> Then I said, “No, Yahweh God! Do not force me to do that! I have never caused myself to become unacceptable to you by doing anything like that. From the time when I was young, I have never eaten meat of any animal that was found dead or that had been killed by wild animals. And I have never eaten any meat that is unacceptable to you.”

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh replied, “Okay, I will allow you to bake your bread using dried cow manure instead of human dung for fuel.”

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to me, “You human, I will cause the supply of food to Jerusalem to be cut off. Then the people will eat the small amounts of food and drink the small amounts of water that the government permits them to have, and they will be very distressed and anxious as they do that, <sup>17</sup> because water and food will be very scarce. They will see each other becoming extremely thin, and they will be appalled; but this will happen because they are being punished for the sins that they have committed.”

5

<sup>1</sup> “Also, you human, when you start doing those things, take a sharp sword and use it like [SIM] a razor to shave your head and your beard. Then put the hair that you shaved off on scales, and divide the hair into three equal parts. <sup>2</sup> When the time during which you will symbolize that the city will be surrounded by enemy troops ends, put a third of the hair inside the drawing of the city and burn it. Take another third of the hair, scatter it all around the drawing of the city, and then strike it with your sword. That will symbolize that I will strike the people of Jerusalem with their enemies’ swords. Then allow the wind to scatter the other third of the hair. That will symbolize that even if they flee from the city, I will still cause their enemies to pursue them and attack them with swords. <sup>3</sup> Take a few of your hairs and tuck them into the folds of your robe. <sup>4</sup> Then take a few of those hairs, throw them into the fire, and burn them up. That will symbolize that a fire will spread from Jerusalem and destroy things throughout Israel.

<sup>5</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: ‘This drawing will represent Jerusalem, the city which I have set in the center of the nations, with other countries around it. <sup>6</sup> But the wicked people of Jerusalem rebelled against obeying my commands, and they show that they are more wicked than the people of the surrounding countries. They rejected my laws and refused to obey my commands.’

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: ‘You people of Jerusalem have been more rebellious than the people of the nations around you; you have not obeyed any of my laws [DOU]. You have not even obeyed the laws of the nations around you!’

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: ‘I am opposed to you people of Jerusalem. I will punish you, and the people of other nations will see it happen. <sup>9</sup> Because of all your detestable idols, I will punish you people of Jerusalem like I have never done before and will never do again. <sup>10</sup> As a result, parents among you will eat their children, and children will eat their parents because there will be nothing else to eat. I will punish you severely, and I will cause those who will still be alive to be scattered in all directions [IDM].’ <sup>11</sup> Therefore, I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that as surely as I am alive, because you have polluted my temple with all your disgusting statues of idols and by the other detestable things that you do, I will no longer bless you. I will not pity you or act mercifully toward you. <sup>12</sup> One-third of your people will die inside the city because of the plagues they will experience or by ◀famine/lack of food▶. One-third of your people will be killed by your enemies’ swords outside the city. And one-third I will cause to be scattered in all directions; but your enemies will still pursue you and kill you with their swords.

<sup>13</sup> Then I will no longer be angry with you; I will stop punishing [MTY] you after I have gotten revenge on you. And when I stop punishing you, you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken to you because I have been very strongly concerned about what you have done.

<sup>14</sup> I will cause your city to be a ruins, with the result that people of other nations that are around you will pass by and see it and sneer at you. <sup>15</sup> They will make fun of you and taunt you. When I severely punish you because of my being very angry [DOU] with you, they will be horrified and they will be warned. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it. <sup>16</sup> When I cut off your food supply and cause there to be more famine, it will be as though [MET] I am shooting at you with my arrows that will destroy you. <sup>17</sup> I will cause you to experience a famine, and I will send wild beasts to attack you and your children, and all your children will be killed. You will experience plagues and wars, and I will cause your enemies to attack you with their swords. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, turn toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy about what will happen to them, and say, <sup>3</sup> ‘You mountains and hills of Israel [APO], listen to what Yahweh the Lord says to you: “I am about to send enemy soldiers with swords to come and destroy all the shrines on your hilltops. <sup>4</sup> They will smash all the altars for worshiping idols and the altars for burning incense. And they will kill many Israeli people in front of those idols. <sup>5</sup> Their corpses will lie in front of their idols, and their bones will be scattered around their altars. <sup>6</sup> Wherever the Israelis live, their towns will be ruined, and the shrines where they worship idols will be smashed. Their altars will be completely smashed [DOU], their idols will be completely smashed [DOU], and everything that they own will become a pile of ruins. <sup>7</sup> Many of their people will be killed; and then they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do the things that I say that I will do.

<sup>8</sup> But I will allow some of the Israelis to remain alive. They will escape being killed when their enemies scatter them among many other nations. <sup>9</sup> When that happens, in those nations to which they have been forced to go, those who have escaped from being killed will think about me. They will remember that I was very grieved because of their turning away from me [IDM] with their inner beings, and because they very much desired [IDM] to worship their idols. They will hate/be very displeased with themselves because of the evil and detestable things that they have done. <sup>10</sup> And they will realize that I, Yahweh, have punished them. They will realize that when I threatened to punish them, I surely intended [LIT] to do that.

<sup>11</sup> So this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to you, Ezekiel: ‘Wring your hands and stamp your feet and cry out to show that you are distressed, and groan about what will happen to your Israeli people [MTY] because of all their wicked and detestable behavior. They will be killed by their enemies’ swords, they will die from hunger, and they will die from plagues. <sup>12</sup> Those who are far from Jerusalem will die from plagues, those who are close to Jerusalem will be killed by their enemies’ swords, and those who are still alive will die from hunger. That is how I will punish [MTY] them. <sup>13</sup> Some of your people’s corpses will lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hilltop and on all the mountaintops, under every big tree [DOU]—at all the places where they burned incense to honor their idols. Then they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>14</sup> And I will stretch out my arm and cause your entire country to become an empty wasteland, from the desert in the far south to Diblah town in the far north. Then they will realize that I, Yahweh, have the power to do the things that I say that I will do.’ ”

7

Israel will soon be destroyed

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said <sup>2</sup> “You human, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to the people [MTY] of Israel: All of Israel will soon be destroyed. <sup>3</sup> You people of Israel, the end has come. I will punish you severely. I will judge you for all the wicked things that you have done, and pay you back for your disgusting behavior. <sup>4</sup> I will not pity you or act mercifully toward you. I will surely punish you for your wicked behavior [DOU]. Then you will know that it has happened because I, Yahweh, have done it.”

<sup>5</sup> This is also what Yahweh the Lord says: “You will soon experience many terrible disasters! <sup>6</sup> This will be the end of Israel; your country will be finished! And your lives will be ended [PRS]! <sup>7</sup> It will be the end of you people who live in the land of Israel. The time has come; the day when you will be destroyed is near. At that time the people who worship idols on the mountains will not be happy; they will panic. <sup>8</sup> I am very angry with you and am about to pour out my punishment [MTY] on you. I will judge you for all the wicked things that you have done and pay you back for your disgusting behavior. <sup>9</sup> I will not pity you or act mercifully toward you. I will surely punish you for your wicked behavior [DOU]. Then you will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have punished you.

<sup>10</sup> The day of your punishment is here! It has arrived! Disasters have come. <sup>11</sup> People are acting violently and doing more wicked things. And nothing that belongs to those people will be left, none of their money, nothing that is valuable. <sup>12</sup> Now is the time; that day has arrived. <sup>13</sup> People who buy things should not rejoice because of buying things very cheaply, and those who sell things should not be sad because they had to sell things cheaply, because Yahweh will be punishing [MTY] everyone. During the rest of their lives, people who sell some of their property will never be able to buy it back, because I, Yahweh, will never change my mind about what I have declared; because of your sins, I will destroy all of you people. <sup>14</sup> Even though your soldiers blow trumpets to prepare for a battle, no soldier will go into a battle, because I will have killed all of them.

<sup>15</sup> When those things happen, your enemies will be outside the city with their swords, and there will be plagues and famines inside the city. Those who flee from the city into the countryside will be killed by their enemies' swords, and those who stay in the city will die from famines and plagues. <sup>16</sup> Those who survive and escape will flee to the mountains, and they all will moan like doves because of their sins. <sup>17</sup> Because everyone will be very afraid, all the people's hands will become limp and their knees will become very weak. <sup>18</sup> They will put on clothes made from rough cloth, and they will be terrified. Their faces will show that they are ashamed, and they will shave their heads to show that they are very sad. <sup>19</sup> They will throw their silver into the streets, and consider that their gold is only like [SIM] garbage, because they will realize that their silver and gold will not be able to rescue them when I, Yahweh, punish them. They will not be able to use their gold and silver to buy things to fill their stomachs, because having a lot of gold and silver has led them to sin. <sup>20</sup> They were proud of their beautiful jewelry, and they used it to make their detestable idols and disgusting statues of their gods. So I will cause them to be disgusted with those things. <sup>21</sup> I will give their silver and gold to foreigners who invade your country and take away your valuable treasures. I will give those things to wicked people, and they will do disgraceful things to those treasures that I give them. <sup>22</sup> I will not ◀interfere with/stop▶ [IDM] robbers when they enter my sacred temple and desecrate it.

<sup>23</sup> Prepare chains to be fastened on you. People are being murdered [MTY] throughout the country, and people are acting violently throughout the city. <sup>24</sup> So I will bring armies of the nations whose people are extremely wicked to occupy the houses of the Israeli people. I will cause Israeli people who think that they are [IRO] strong/mighty to no longer be proud. Your enemies will cause your places of worship to no longer be acceptable to be used. <sup>25</sup> When your enemies cause you to be terrified, you will plead for them to make peace, but there will be no peace. <sup>26</sup> You will experience many disasters, and you will continually hear rumors about disasters that are happening in other places. People will plead with prophets to tell them what visions they have received, but the prophets will not have received any visions. Priests will no longer teach people the laws that I gave to Moses. <sup>27</sup> Your king will mourn, and his son will no longer expect that good things will happen. The hands of people throughout the country will tremble. And I will do to them what they deserve for their wicked behavior. I will judge and condemn them the same way they have judged and condemned others. Then they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

Idol worship in the temple

<sup>1</sup> On the fifth day of the sixth month of that year, almost six years after we Israeli people had been ◀exiled/forced to go to Babylon▶, I was sitting in my house. The elders of Judah were sitting in front of me. Suddenly the power [MTY] of Yahweh the Lord came on me. <sup>2</sup> Then in a vision I saw someone who resembled a man. Below his waist, his body was like fire, and above his waist his body was glowing like very hot metal. <sup>3</sup> He reached out what seemed to be a hand and grabbed me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up high above the earth, and in visions God took me from Babylon to Jerusalem. He took me to the temple, to the north gate, to the place where there was an idol that caused Yahweh to be very disgusted and furious. <sup>4</sup> And there in front of me was the brilliant light that indicated the presence of the God whom the Israeli people previously worshiped. It was like the vision that I had seen alongside the Kebar River/Canal.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, look toward the north!" So I looked, and I saw in the entrance of the gate near the altar that idol that caused Yahweh to be disgusted and furious.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, "You human, do you see what those Israeli people [MTY] are doing? They are doing detestable things here, things that will cause me to abandon my temple. But you will see things that are even more detestable."

<sup>7</sup> Then he brought me to the entrance of the courtyard. I looked and saw a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup> He said to me, "You human, dig through the wall here." So I dug through the wall, and I saw a doorway inside.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked and detestable things that they are doing there!" <sup>10</sup> So I went in through the doorway and looked, and I saw, all over the wall of a big room, drawings of all kinds of creatures that scurry across the ground and other detestable animals, and drawings of all the idols that the people of Israel were worshiping. <sup>11</sup> In front of them stood 70 elders of Israel. Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan, was standing among them. Each of them was holding a pan in which incense was burning, and fragrant smoke of the burning incense was rising up.

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, look at [RHQ] what the Israeli elders are doing here in the darkness, each of them standing in front of the shrine of his own idol! They are saying, 'Yahweh does not see us; Yahweh has deserted this country.' " <sup>13</sup> He also said, "But you will see things that are even more detestable!"

<sup>14</sup> Then he took me to the entrance at the north gate of the temple. I saw women sitting there, mourning for the death of the god of the people of Babylonia, Tammuz. <sup>15</sup> He said to me, "You human, you see this [RHQ], but you will see things that are more detestable than this!"

<sup>16</sup> Then he took me into the courtyard outside the temple. There at the entrance of the temple, between the porch and the altar, were about 25 men. Their backs were toward the temple and their faces were toward the east, and they were bowing down to worship the sun as it rose in the east.

<sup>17</sup> He said to me, "You human, you see [RHQ] what they are doing. Do you think that it is not important that these men of Judah are doing these detestable things here? But they are doing other terrible things. They are acting violently throughout their country, and continually causing me to be angry. Look at them! They are insulting me by their actions [IDM]! <sup>18</sup> So I will show them that I am very angry. I will not pity them or act mercifully toward them. And even if they shout to me to help them, I will not pay attention to them.”

The command to punish Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then I heard Yahweh call out loudly, “You men who are going to punish this city, bring here the guards of the city, each carrying a weapon.” <sup>2</sup> Then I saw six men coming from the north gate of the temple area. Each one was carrying a weapon. With them was a man wearing a white linen robe. He carried at his side a case containing things to write with. They all came into the temple and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup> Then the ◀glory/dazzling light▶ that symbolized the presence of the God of Israel rose up from above the four winged creatures and moved to the entrance of the temple. Then Yahweh called to the man wearing the linen robe, <sup>4</sup> and said to him, “Go throughout Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who are very sad [DOU] because of the detestable things that are being done inside the city.”

<sup>5</sup> While I was listening, he said to the other six men, “Follow the man wearing the white robe, and kill people. Do not pity them or act mercifully toward them. <sup>6</sup> Slaughter old men, young men and women, older women and children, but do not harm any of those who have that mark on their forehead. Start at my temple.” So they began by killing the elders who were worshipping idols in front of the temple.

<sup>7</sup> Then Yahweh said to those men, “Pollute the temple by filling the courtyard with the corpses of those whom you kill! Start now!” So they went out and starting killing people throughout the city. <sup>8</sup> While they were doing that, I was left alone. I prostrated myself on the ground and cried out, “Yahweh my Lord, are you going to get rid of all the people of Israel and Judah who are still alive, while you are severely punishing [MTY] the people of Jerusalem?”

<sup>9</sup> He replied, “The sins of the people [MTY] of Israel and Judah are extremely great. People are murdered [MTY] everywhere in this country, and this city is full of people who act unjustly. They say, ‘Yahweh has abandoned this country, and he does not see what we are doing.’ <sup>10</sup> So I will not pity them or act mercifully toward them. I will do to them the evil things that they have done to other people.”

Yahweh’s glory leaves the temple

<sup>3</sup> The four winged creatures were standing on the south side of the temple when the man wearing the linen robe entered. Then a cloud filled the inner courtyard of the temple area. <sup>4</sup> And the ◀glory/dazzling light▶ of Yahweh rose up from above the winged creatures and went to the entrance of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the courtyard was full of the ◀glory/dazzling light▶ of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> The sound made by the wings of the winged creatures could be heard as far away as the courtyard outside the temple. It was very loud, like [SIM] the voice of Almighty God when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup> When Yahweh commanded the man wearing the linen robe to take burning coals from among those winged creatures, the man went into the courtyard and stood beside one of the wheels. <sup>7</sup> Then one of those winged creatures reached out his hand to the fire that was there among them. He picked up some of the coals and put them in the hands of the man wearing the linen robe, and that man took them and left. <sup>8</sup> Under the wings of the winged creatures was something that resembled a human's hands.

<sup>9</sup> Then in the vision I saw four wheels alongside the winged creatures. There was one wheel beside each of the winged creatures. The wheels shone like [SIM] very valuable stones. <sup>10</sup> The wheels were all alike: Each had one wheel inside another wheel. <sup>11</sup> Whenever they moved, they went straight in whatever direction one of the winged creatures faced. The wheels did not turn in another direction while the winged creatures flew. <sup>12</sup> Their bodies, including their backs and hands and wings, were covered with eyes. The wheels were also covered with eyes. <sup>13</sup> I heard someone call them 'the whirling wheels'. <sup>14</sup> Each of the winged creatures had four faces. One face was like the face of a bull, one face was like the face of a human, one face was like the face of a lion, and one face was like the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup> Then the winged creatures rose up. They were the same living creatures that I had seen alongside the Kebar River/Canal. <sup>16</sup> When the winged creatures moved, the wheels moved with them. When the winged creatures spread their wings to fly over the ground, the wheels did not leave them. <sup>17</sup> When the winged creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. When the winged creatures started to fly, the wheels flew with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>18</sup> Then the ◀glory/dazzling light▶ left the entrance of the temple and stopped above the winged creatures. <sup>19</sup> While I watched, the winged creatures spread their wings and started to fly, and the wheels went with them. They stopped at the gate on the east side of the temple area, and the ◀glory/dazzling light▶ of God, the one whom the Israelites had worshiped, was above them.

<sup>20</sup> Those were the same four living creatures that I had seen alongside the Kebar River/Canal, and I realized that they were the winged creatures. <sup>21</sup> Each of them had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was what resembled a human's hands. <sup>22</sup> Their faces were the same as the faces that I had seen at the Kebar River/Canal. Each of them flew straight ahead.

11

Israel's wicked leaders are condemned

<sup>1</sup> Then God's Spirit lifted me up and took me to the gate on the east side of the temple area. There at the gate were 25 men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, who were leaders of the people. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, these are the new leaders in Jerusalem who are planning to do evil things and who are giving wicked advice to people in this city. <sup>3</sup> They say, 'Everything will go well for us, so it will surely soon be [RHQ] time to build houses. We are like [MET] fine/choice pieces of meat that are carefully stored in covered pots, and we are protected from the bad things that will happen to others.' <sup>4</sup> So, you human, prophesy about the terrible things that will happen to them."

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit of Yahweh came upon me and told me to say to the people, "This is what Yahweh says: You Israeli people [MTY] are saying those things, but I know what you are thinking. <sup>6</sup> You have killed many people in this city and filled the streets with their corpses.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what Yahweh the Lord says: The corpses of the people whom you have killed here are like the meat [MET], and this city is like the pot [MET], but I will expel you from this city. <sup>8</sup> You are afraid of being killed by enemies' swords, and that is what I will cause to happen to you. <sup>9</sup> I will expel you from this city and enable foreigners to capture you and punish you. <sup>10</sup> They will kill [EUP] you with their swords; you will be punished right here in Israel. Then people will realize that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>11</sup> This city will not be a place where you will be protected like [MET] meat in a covered pot. I will punish you wherever you are in Israel. <sup>12</sup> And you will know that I, Yahweh, have predicted that would happen, because you have not obeyed my commands and decrees; instead, you have imitated the wicked behavior of the people of the nearby nations."

<sup>13</sup> While I was prophesying that, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah suddenly died. Then I prostrated myself on the ground and cried out loudly, "Yahweh my Lord, are you going to similarly get rid of all the Israeli people who are still alive?"

<sup>14</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>15</sup> "You human, the people who are still in Jerusalem are talking about you and your own relatives and about all the other people who were exiled/forced to go to other countries, saying, 'They are in Babylonia, far from Yahweh. They have left their property here in Israel, so their property now belongs to us!'"

God's promise that the exiles will return

<sup>16</sup> So tell them, "This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Although I caused them to be taken far away from Israel and scattered them among other nations, for a short time I will be like a refuge for/protect them in the countries to which they have been taken."

<sup>17</sup> So also tell them, "This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Some day I will gather you from the nations to which you have been taken and bring you back to Israel, and you will live in your country/land again."

<sup>18</sup> When you return to your country, you will get rid of all the vile statues of gods and detestable idols. <sup>19</sup> I will put a new way of thinking [IDM] within you. I will cause you to no longer be stubborn [IDM], and I will enable you to obey me completely [IDM]. <sup>20</sup> When I do that, you will carefully obey all my laws [DOU]. You will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>21</sup> But as for those who are devoted to worshiping their vile statues and detestable idols, I will punish them as they deserve for the evil things that they have done.'"

12

Ezekiel symbolizes what will happen when they are exiled

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, you are living among people who are very rebellious. They have eyes, but they do not see what I want them to see; they have ears, but they do not hear what I want them to hear, because they are rebellious/stubborn people.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, you human, pack your belongings as though you were ◀going into exile/being forced to go to another country▶. Then, during the daytime, while people are watching, prepare to go to another place. Even though the people are rebellious, perhaps they will understand what you are symbolizing. <sup>4</sup> During the daytime, while they are watching, bring out the things that you want to take and pack them. Then in the evening, while they are watching, do what those who are preparing to go into exile do. <sup>5</sup> Dig through the city wall and take your things through the hole. <sup>6</sup> Then put them in a sack on your shoulder while they are watching and leave at dusk. Cover your face in order that you cannot see the path. I want you to do this because I want you to warn the Israeli people.”

<sup>7</sup> So I did what Yahweh told me to do. During the day I brought things out of my house as though I was packing to go into exile. Then in the evening I dug through the city wall. Then while people watched, I put my sack of belongings on my shoulder and left.

<sup>8</sup> The next morning, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>9</sup> “You human, the rebellious people [MTY] of Israel asked you, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>10</sup> So go back and say to them, ‘What I did is about the king in Jerusalem and all the other people of Israel who are there.’ <sup>11</sup> Tell them, ‘What I did is a warning to you.’ What has happened to you will happen to them. They will be captured and forced to go to another country. <sup>12</sup> Their king will put his belongings on his shoulder at dusk and leave. His servants will dig a hole through the city wall, and he will take his belongings through it. He will cover his face in order that others will not recognize him. <sup>13</sup> But it will be as though I will spread a net for him to be captured; enemy soldiers will capture him and take him to Babylon city. But he will not be able to see it; and there he will die. <sup>14</sup> I will scatter in all directions [IDM] all those who have been around him—his advisors and his soldiers—and I will cause his enemies to pursue them, with their swords ready to strike them.

<sup>15</sup> Then, when I scatter them among many nations [DOU], they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>16</sup> But I will spare/save a few of them from being killed by swords and from dying from famines or plagues, with the result that in the nations to which they are forced to go, they will realize/admit that they have been doing disgusting things, and they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>18</sup> “You human, tremble while you eat your food, and shudder fearfully while you drink your water. <sup>19</sup> Tell this to the Israeli people: ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says about those who are still living in Jerusalem and in other places in Israel: They also will be very anxious/worried [DOU] while they eat their food and drink their water, because their country will soon have everything taken away. That will happen because the people who live there continually act very violently. <sup>20</sup> The towns where people live will be devastated, and the land will become barren/empty. Then you people will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have the power to do what I say that I will do.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>22</sup> “You human, the people in Israel have this proverb/saying: ‘The days pass, and what the prophets predict never happens.’ <sup>23</sup> So say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: I am going to prove that ◀what they say/that proverb▶ is not correct, and then they will never say that again in Israel.’ Tell them, ‘It will soon be the time when everything that the prophets have predicted will happen. <sup>24</sup> No longer will false prophets tell to the Israeli people false visions, or prophecies that try to please people. <sup>25</sup> Instead, I, Yahweh, will say what I want to tell the people, and what I predict will quickly happen. You rebellious people, I will cause to happen everything that I say will happen. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say.' "

<sup>26</sup> Yahweh also gave me this message: <sup>27</sup> "You human, the Israeli people are constantly saying about you, 'The things that he sees in visions will not happen soon. They are about things that will happen many years from now, far in the future.'

<sup>28</sup> Therefore say to them, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord [DOU] says: I will no longer delay causing to happen any of the things that I have prophesied. Whatever I have predicted will very soon happen.'

Ezekiel condemned the false prophets

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, prophesy a warning against the prophets in Israel who are prophesying. Some of them are prophesying things that they themselves have imagined/thought. Say to them: 'Listen to what Yahweh says! <sup>3</sup> He says, "Terrible things will happen to those wicked prophets who proclaim their own ideas and have not seen any visions from me. <sup>4</sup> You Israeli people, your prophets are useless as [SIM] jackals/wolves that only dig through the ruins of a city. <sup>5</sup> Those prophets have not helped you Israeli people [MTY] to repair the places where the city walls have been broken/crumbled. That needs to be done in order that the walls will be strong at the time when I, Yahweh, allow your enemies to attack you. <sup>6</sup> The visions and prophecies of those prophets are false. They say, 'Yahweh told me this,' but I have not sent them to you to be my prophets. But they expect that what they prophesy will truly happen! <sup>7</sup> They say that they have seen visions, but those visions are false, and the things that they prophesy are lies [RHQ]. They say, 'Yahweh told me this,' but I have told them nothing!"

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: "Because you prophets have said what is false, and because your visions are lies, I am opposed to you. <sup>9</sup> I will strike/punish all you prophets who falsely say that you have seen visions and prophesy things that are lies. You will not have any place among my people, your names will not be listed in the records of the Israeli people, and you will never return to Israel. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

<sup>10</sup> They deceive my people, saying "Things will go well for us," when things will not go well. It as though [MET] the people have built a shaky/weak wall, and the prophets cover it with whitewash/white paint to make people think that it is a very strong wall. <sup>11</sup> So, tell those prophets who cover the wall with whitewash that the wall will surely fall down. It will rain very hard. I will send big hailstones to fall. Very strong winds will blow against it. <sup>12</sup> When the wall falls down, the people will certainly say to those prophets, "The white paint certainly did not [RHQ] make the wall strong!"

<sup>13</sup> So this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: "Because I am very angry with you, I will send enemy armies to destroy Jerusalem. It will be as though [MET] I will send a very strong wind and hailstones and very heavy rains to destroy you." <sup>14</sup> The false prophecies of your prophets are like [MET] a wall that they have covered with whitewash, but I will break it down, and shatter it down to the ground, with the result that people can see its foundations. When the wall collapses, you also will be killed, and everyone will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>15</sup> In that way I will show that I am very angry with the people who built the wall and those who covered it with whitewash/white paint. Then I will say to you, "The wall is destroyed/gone, and those prophets who put whitewash/white paint on it have been killed.” <sup>16</sup> Those are the prophets who prophesied that things would go well for the people in Jerusalem, when things would not go well for them.

<sup>17</sup> So, you human, show that you are angry with [IDM] the women of Jerusalem who prophesy things that they themselves have imagined. <sup>18</sup> Tell them, “This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Terrible things will happen to you women who fasten magic charms on your wrists and make veils of various sizes to put on your heads in order to deceive the people. You think that [RHQ] you will deceive others by telling them that you know what will happen in the future, and that you will save your own lives.

<sup>19</sup> You dishonored me by telling lies in order to get from my people a few handfuls of barley and a few pieces of bread. My people listen to lies; and you women who are lying to them have caused to be killed people who did not deserve to die and have ◀spared/allowed to remain alive▶ those who should not continue to live.”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to those women: “I detest your magic charms by which you deceive people like [SIM] people trap birds. I will tear those charms off your wrists, and I will cause the people whom you have deceived to no longer be deceived by you. <sup>21</sup> I will also tear off your veils and rescue my people from continuing to be deceived by you, and they will no longer be under your control. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>22</sup> You have discouraged righteous people by telling them lies when I did not do things to cause them to be sad. And you have encouraged wicked people to not turn away from their wicked behavior; if they had done that, they would have continued to remain alive. <sup>23</sup> Therefore, you will no longer falsely say that you have seen visions or tell people what will happen in the future in order to please them. I will rescue my people from being deceived by you. And then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.” ‘ ’ ”

Ezekiel condemned the idol worshipers

<sup>1</sup> One day some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. <sup>2</sup> Then Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>3</sup> “You human, these men want to [IDM] worship idols, and they are allowing idols to induce them to sin [IDM]. So I will certainly [RHQ] answer them if they ask me for advice. <sup>4</sup> So say this to them: ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: When any Israeli person wants to worship idols which will induce him to sin, and he goes to a prophet to get advice, I, Yahweh, will give him the answer that he deserves to receive because he worship idols. <sup>5</sup> I will do that in order that the Israeli people, who have abandoned me in order to worship their idols, will sincerely [IDM] worship me again.’

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, say to the Israeli people, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: ◀Repent/ Stop sinning▶! Stop worshiping your idols, and stop all your other detestable behavior!’

<sup>7</sup> When any of you Israeli people or any foreigner living among you turns away from me and starts worshiping idols [IDM] that induce him to sin, and then goes to a prophet to find out what I want him to do, I myself will answer him. <sup>8</sup> I will show that I detest him, and cause what happens to him to be a warning to others, and cause him to be someone whom people despise. I will cause him to no longer be allowed to associate with my people. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>9</sup> And if a prophet is deceived and gives a false prophecy, even though I have allowed him to give that message, I will get rid of him and remove him from among my Israeli people. <sup>10</sup> Both the prophet and the one who asks him for advice will be guilty, and I will punish both of them. <sup>11</sup> Then you Israeli people will no longer abandon me, and you will no longer become unacceptable to me because of your sins. You will be my people, and I will be your God. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say."

Yahweh will punish Jerusalem

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>13</sup> "You human, if the people of some country sin against me by abandoning me, and I punish [IDM] them by cutting off their food supply and by sending a famine, with the result that people and animals die, <sup>14</sup> even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, they would save only themselves because of their being righteous. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>15</sup> Or, if I send wild animals throughout the country, and they attack and kill many of [HYP] the people, with the result that travel in that country becomes very dangerous and no one travels through that country, <sup>16</sup> as surely as I am alive, even if those three men were in that country, they could not save even their own sons or daughters from being killed. Only those three would ◀be saved/remain alive▶, and the country would become desolate. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>17</sup> Or, if I bring enemy soldiers [MTY] to attack that country, and they kill [MTY] people and animals throughout that country with their swords, <sup>18</sup> as surely as I am alive, even if those three men were in that country, they would not be able to save even their own sons or daughters from being killed. They would save only themselves. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>19</sup> Or, if I send a plague into that land and cause the people and the animals to die from the plague because I am very angry with those people, <sup>20</sup> as surely as I am alive, even if Noah, Daniel and Job were in that country, they would not be able to save even their sons and daughters. They would save only themselves because of their being righteous. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>21</sup> So now this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: I will cause four things to happen to the people of Jerusalem to punish them very severely. Some people and animals will be killed by swords, some will die from famines, others will be attacked and killed by wild animals, and others will die in plagues. <sup>22</sup> But some of your people will remain alive, both adults and children. They will come to you, Ezekiel, in Babylon. And when you see their disgusting behavior and actions, you will realize that I had good reasons for causing the people of Jerusalem to experience those many great disasters [DOU] that I have sent to them. <sup>23</sup> When you see those things that they do, you will know that there were very good reasons [LIT] for me to do everything that I caused to happen to them. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare."

The people of Jerusalem are like useless grapevines

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: The wood of grapevines is useful only for fuel in a fire. Similarly, the people who live in Jerusalem are useless. <sup>7</sup> I will reject [IDM] them. It will be as though they have escaped from a fire, but there will still be a fire that will burn them up. And when I punish [EUP] them, you people who remain alive will know that I, Yahweh, have done it. <sup>8</sup> I will cause your country to become a wasteland because your people have not been loyal to me. That is what I, Yahweh, the Lord, say.”

An illustration about Jerusalem being unfaithful

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, cause the people of Jerusalem to think about their detestable behavior. <sup>3</sup> Say to them, “This is what Yahweh the Lord says to you people of Jerusalem: It is as though you are a woman who [MET] was born in the country where the Canaan people-group lived. It is as though [MET] your father belonged to the Amor people-group and your mother belonged to the Heth people-group. <sup>4</sup> It is as though [MET] on the day that you were born, your umbilical cord was not cut, and your body was not washed in water, and it was not rubbed with salt or wrapped in strips of cloth, like Israeli babies always are. <sup>5</sup> No one pitied you or acted kindly toward you by doing those things for you. Instead, it was as though [MET] you were thrown into a field, because on the day that you were born, you were despised {everyone despised you}.

<sup>6</sup> Then it was as though [MET] I passed by and saw you lying in your own blood and kicking. And while you lay there kicking in your own blood, I said to you, “I want you to remain alive!” <sup>7</sup> It was as though I caused you to grow up, like plants in the field grow; you grew up and became tall and became like [MET] a very beautiful jewel. It was as though [MET] your breasts ◀formed/became large▶, and your hair became long, although you were still naked [DOU].

<sup>8</sup> When I saw you several years later, it was as though [MET] I saw that you were old enough to have sex [EUP]. So it was as though [MET] I spread the corner of my robe over you to symbolize that I would marry you, with the result that you were no longer naked. I solemnly promised that I would marry you and made a marriage agreement with you, and you became my wife. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say.

<sup>9</sup> And then it was as though [MET] I bathed you and washed the blood from you and put ointment on your body. <sup>10</sup> It was as though [MET] I put a fine linen robe on you and gave you other expensive clothes. I put an embroidered dress on you and put leather sandals on your feet. <sup>11</sup> It was as though [MET] I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. Those things all had nice jewels fastened to them. <sup>12</sup> I put a gold ring in your nose and fastened earrings to your ears and put a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup> So it was as though you wore gold and silver ornaments. You had clothes made from fine ◀linen/white cloth▶ and other expensive embroidered material/cloth. You ate bread made from fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You became very beautiful, like [MET] a queen. <sup>14</sup> You were very beautiful, with the result that people in other nations heard about you, because they knew that I, Yahweh the Lord, am the one who had caused you to become very beautiful.

<sup>15</sup> But it was as though [MET] you realized that because people knew that you were very beautiful, you could earn a lot of money by becoming a prostitute. It was as though you had sex with [EUP] every man who came along, and they all enjoyed your beauty. <sup>16</sup> It was as though you took some of your clothes to make beautifully decorated shrines, and that is where you had sex with those men. Those things should certainly never occur! <sup>17</sup> You took the fine gold and silver jewelry that I gave you, and you made male idols for yourself, in order to have sex with them. <sup>18</sup> You took some of your embroidered clothes to put on those idols, and you burned oil and incense in front of them to honor them. <sup>19</sup> And the bread that was made from fine flour and the olive oil and honey that I gave to you to eat, you offered to be a fragrant sacrifice to those idols. I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that is what happened.

<sup>20</sup> And you even took your sons and daughters who were as though they were [MET] my children, and sacrificed them to be food for the idols. That was much worse [RHQ] than your becoming a prostitute. <sup>21</sup> You slaughtered those who were like [MET] my children, and offered them to be sacrifices to the gods! <sup>22</sup> All during the time when you were acting like a prostitute and doing other detestable things, you did not think about the time when it was as though you were very young, naked [DOU], lying in your own blood and kicking.

<sup>23</sup> So I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that terrible things will happen to you. In addition to all the other wicked things that you did, <sup>24</sup> you built a shrine to worship idols in every city square/plaza. <sup>25</sup> At the beginning of every street you built a shrine, and showed people your beautiful body, offering it to have sex with every man who walked by, becoming a better known prostitute every day. <sup>26</sup> It was as though [MET] you had sex with men from Egypt who were eager to have sex with you, men who lived near to Israel. You caused me to become very angry because you became more eager to have sex with more and more of them. <sup>27</sup> So I punished [IDM] you and caused your enemies to capture some of your country. I enabled your greedy enemies from Philistia to defeat you; and even they were shocked because of your disgraceful behavior. <sup>28</sup> It was as though you had sex with soldiers from Assyria, too, because you always wanted more sex. And after that, you still were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup> So you also had sex with soldiers from Babylonia, a country full of merchants/businessmen, but even that did not satisfy you.

<sup>30</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that when you did all those things, acting like [MET] a bold prostitute, you were showing that you were ready to do anything that you wanted to [IDM]. <sup>31</sup> When you built shrines to worship idols on every street corner and in every city square/plaza, you were not like a prostitute: Prostitutes charge money, but you refused to take money for what you did.

<sup>32</sup> You are like [MET] a woman who commits adultery: You prefer to have sex with strangers rather than with your husband. <sup>33</sup> Prostitutes are paid, but it is as though you give gifts to all your lovers; you bribe them to come to you from everywhere to have sex with you. <sup>34</sup> So although you act like [MET] a prostitute, you are not like other prostitutes: No one needs to request you to have sex [EUP] with them. You are the opposite of other prostitutes; instead of them giving any money to you, you give men money to have sex with you.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, you people of Jerusalem, who are like a prostitute [MET], listen to what I, Yahweh the Lord, am saying about you! <sup>36</sup> I say that what you have done is as though [MET] you took off your clothes and acted like a prostitute and had sex with men who are not your husband. What I mean is that you have been worshiping detestable idols, and you have murdered [MTY] your own children to be sacrifices to them. <sup>37</sup> So what I am going to do is as though I will gather those who you think have loved you and those whom you hated. I will gather them around you to attack you, and what I will do is as though I will strip your clothes off you, and they will see you when you are completely naked. <sup>38</sup> I will punish you like women who commit adultery and who murder people [MTY] are punished. I will get revenge on you and get rid of you because I am extremely angry with you. <sup>39</sup> I will allow your enemies who you thought loved you [IRO] to defeat you, and they will tear down your shrines. It will be as though they will strip off your fancy clothes and take away your fine jewelry and cause you to be completely naked [DOU]. <sup>40</sup> They will bring a mob to attack you, and that mob will throw stones at you and cut you to pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup> They will burn down your houses and punish you while many women are watching. I will cause your acting like a prostitute and paying your lovers to have sex with you to end. <sup>42</sup> Then I will no longer be angry [DOU] with you. I will stop being jealous because of your worshiping gods other than me only.

<sup>43</sup> You have forgotten the wonderful things that I did for you in previous years [MET]. You have caused me to become extremely angry because of all the evil things that you have done. In addition to all the other detestable things that you did, you committed many sexual sins. So I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that I will punish you [IDM] for doing those things.

<sup>44</sup> People who like to quote proverbs will quote this proverb about you: “Daughters behave like their mothers behave.” <sup>45</sup> You are like your mother; it was as though she detested her husband and her children. You are like your sisters, who also despised their husbands and their children. It was as though [MET] your father belonged to the Amor people-group and your mother belonged to the Heth people-group. <sup>46</sup> And it was as though [MET] your older sister was Samaria, and she and her daughters lived to the north of you, and it was as though your younger sister was Sodom, and she and her daughters lived to the south of you. <sup>47</sup> You not only imitated all [DOU] their detestable behavior, but you quickly became more sinful than they were. <sup>48</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, solemnly declare that as surely as I am alive, the people who lived in [MTY] Sodom and other nearby cities never did the detestable things that you people in Jerusalem and other places in Judah have done.

<sup>49</sup> These are the sins of the people who lived in Sodom, who were like your sister [MET]: The people who lived there and in nearby cities were arrogant. In spite of having more food to eat than they needed, they refused to help the poor and needy [DOU] people among them. <sup>50</sup> The people of Sodom and nearby cities [MET] were proud and did detestable things in my presence, so I got rid of them when I saw what they had been doing. <sup>51</sup> Also, the people of Samaria did not commit half as many sins as you have committed. You have done more disgusting things than they have done. You cause the people of Samaria to appear to be good, compared to you. <sup>52</sup> Your sins are worse than their sins, so they seem to be less wicked than you are. So I will punish you more than I punished them. As a result, you will be ashamed and disgraced [DOU].

<sup>53</sup> However, some day I will cause the people of Sodom and Samaria and the cities near to them [MET] to prosper again. And I will cause you to prosper again, too. <sup>54</sup> You will be very ashamed [DOU] of the wicked things that you have done, and that will cause the people of those cities to be encouraged. <sup>55</sup> The people of Sodom and Samaria will prosper again, and you and the people in nearby cities will prosper also. <sup>56</sup> You ◀sneered at/despised▶ the people of Sodom when you were proud, <sup>57</sup> before it was revealed that you were very wicked. And now the people of Edom and the people of Philistia all insult you and despise you. <sup>58</sup> And you are being punished for all your immoral behavior and other detestable things that you do.

<sup>59</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: I will continue to punish you like you deserve to be punished, because by rejecting the agreement that I made with you, you have despised that solemn agreement that you promised to obey. <sup>60</sup> But I will not forget the agreement that I made with you long ago [MET], and I will make an agreement with you that will endure forever. <sup>61</sup> Then you will think about what you have done, and you will be ashamed about those things when you welcome the people of Sodom and Samaria, cities which are like [MET] older and younger sisters to you people of Jerusalem. I will put them under your control by causing them to become like [MET] your daughters, but they will not have the same agreement that I will make with you. <sup>62</sup> I will establish my agreement with you, and you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>63</sup> Then when I have forgiven you for all your sins, you will think about all the sins that you committed and you will be ashamed, and you will never again boast about them, because you will be humiliated.’ ”

An illustration about two eagles and a vine

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, tell this story/parable [DOU] to the people [MTY] of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: A huge eagle that had strong wings and long beautiful feathers of many colors flew to Lebanon. It grasped the top of a cedar tree <sup>4</sup> and broke it off. Then the eagle carried it away to Babylonia, a country that had many merchants/businessmen, and planted it in one of the cities there.

<sup>5</sup> Then that eagle took a seedling from your country and planted it in a fertile field. He planted it like people plant a willow tree, alongside a stream that had plenty of water. <sup>6</sup> It grew and became a low grapevine that spread along the ground. Its branches turned up towards the eagle, but its roots grew down into the ground. So it became a good vine and produced lots of branches and leaves.

<sup>7</sup> But there was another huge eagle that had strong wings and beautiful feathers. And some of the roots of the vine grew toward that eagle, and its branches also turned toward it, hoping that the eagle would bring more water to it. <sup>8</sup> That happened in spite of the fact that the vine had already been planted in good soil, where there was plenty of water, with the result that it had produced branches and produced grapes and had become a very healthy/productive vine.’

<sup>9</sup> Then after you have told that to the people, say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: That vine will certainly not [RHQ] remain healthy/productive. It will be [RHQ] pulled up by its roots by the eagle that planted it, and all its fruit will be stripped off and its leaves will wither. And it will not need someone with strong arms or many people to pull it out by its roots. <sup>10</sup> Even if that vine is transplanted, it certainly will not continue to grow [RHQ]. When the hot wind from the east blows against it, it will completely wither, there where it was planted! [RHQ]’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Then Yahweh gave this message to me: <sup>12</sup> “Ask these rebellious Israeli people, ‘Do you know what this parable/story means?’ Tell them that it signifies that the King of Babylon went to Jerusalem with his army and captured the King of Judah and his officials, and took them back to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> Then he took one of the king’s close relatives and appointed him to be the king, and made an agreement with him, forcing him to solemnly promise to remain loyal. The King of Babylon also took to Babylon the other important citizens of Judah, <sup>14</sup> in order that the kingdom of Judah would not be able to become powerful again. The King of Babylon intended that the kingdom of Judah would not continue to exist if the people did not obey that agreement that he made with the King of Babylon. <sup>15</sup> But the King of Judah rebelled against the King of Babylon by sending officials to Egypt to request from them horses and a large army to fight against the army of Babylonia. But the King of Judah will certainly not [RHQ] be successful. Rulers who rebel like that and refuse to obey solemn agreements will never [RHQ] escape.

<sup>16</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that as surely as I am alive, the King of Judah will die in Babylon, in the city where the King of Babylon appointed him to be the King [MTY] of Judah. He will die because he despised the solemn agreement and refused to do what he promised to do. <sup>17</sup> The King of Egypt with all his very huge army [DOU] will not be able to help the King of Judah: The soldiers from Babylonia will build ramps up against the walls of Jerusalem and set up devices to batter the walls. They will enter Jerusalem and kill many of its people. <sup>18</sup> The King of Judah despised the solemn agreement by disregarding the treaty. Although he had solemnly promised to be under the control of the King of Babylon, he sent officials to request help from Egypt. Therefore he will not escape being punished by the King of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'Just as surely as I am alive, I will cause the King of Judah to be punished [IDM] for ignoring the solemn agreement that he made with the King of Babylon and then refusing to obey it. <sup>20</sup> It will be as though I will spread a net to capture him, and he will be caught in it. He will be captured and taken to Babylon and punished because he rebelled against me. <sup>21</sup> Most [HYP] of his soldiers who try to escape will be killed by their enemies' swords, and those who survive will be scattered in all directions. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.' "

<sup>22</sup> This is also what Yahweh the Lord says: "It will be as though I will take a shoot from the top of a very tall cedar tree and plant it [DOU] in another place. I will plant it on a very high [DOU] mountain. <sup>23</sup> It will be as though I will plant it on a mountain in Israel, and it will grow and become a beautiful cedar tree. Many [HYP] kinds of birds will make their nests in the tree, and they will have shade in its branches. <sup>24</sup> And it will be as though all the trees in the field will know that I, Yahweh, get rid of tall trees and make little ones grow. I cause big green trees to wither, and I cause dry trees to become green.

I, Yahweh have said this, and I will certainly do what I have said that I will do."

18

It is those who sin who will be punished

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You people quote [RHQ] this proverb and say that it is about Israel:

'Parents/People eat sour grapes, but it is their children who have a very sour taste in their mouths', which means that you think that it is not fair for you to be punished for your ancestors' sins.

<sup>3</sup> But I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that as surely as I am alive, you Israeli people will no longer quote that proverb. <sup>4</sup> Everyone who is alive belongs to me. That includes children and their parents; they all belong to me. And it is those who sin who will die because of their sins.

<sup>5</sup> So, suppose there is a righteous person who always does what is fair and right [DOU].

<sup>6</sup> He does not eat meat sacrificed to idols on the hilltops, he does not request help from idols.

He does not have sex with someone else's wife or have sex with a woman during her monthly menstrual period.

<sup>7</sup> He does not mistreat/oppress people;
if someone *borrow*s money from him and gives him his cloak to guarantee that he will pay the money back, he always gives the cloak back to that person before the sun goes down.

He does not rob people.

He gives food to hungry people.

He gives clothing to people who need clothes.

<sup>8</sup> When he lends money to people, he does not do it just to charge big interest.

He does not do [SYN] things that are evil.

He always decides things fairly.

<sup>9</sup> He faithfully obeys all [DOU] my laws.

That man is truly righteous;
he will remain alive.

That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, promise.

<sup>10</sup> But suppose that man has a son who acts violently, who murders people and does any of these other things, even though his father has not done any of them:

<sup>11</sup> He eats meat sacrificed to idols on the hilltops.

He has sex with other people's wives.

<sup>12</sup> He mistreats/oppresses poor and needy people.

He robs people.

If someone gives him his cloak to guarantee that he will pay the money back, he never gives the cloak back to him before the sun goes down.

He seeks help from idols.

He does other detestable things.

<sup>13</sup> When he lends money, he charges very big interest.

If you think that such a person will be allowed to remain alive [RHQ], you are certainly wrong. Because he has done those detestable things, he will surely be executed, and it will be his own fault [IDM].

<sup>14</sup> But suppose that man has a son who sees all the sins that his father commits, but he does not do those things:

<sup>15</sup> He does not eat meat sacrificed to idols on the hilltops.

He does not request help from idols.

He does not have sex with other people's wives.

If he lends money to someone, he does not require that person to give him his cloak to guarantee that he will pay the money back.

He does not rob anyone.

He gives food to those who need it.

He gives clothes to those who need clothes.

<sup>17</sup> He does not commit sins, like his father did, and does not charge big interest [DOU] when he lends money.

He faithfully obeys all [DOU] my laws.

That person will not be executed for his father's sins; he will surely remain alive.

<sup>18</sup> But his father will be executed for the sins that he committed, because he cheated people and robbed people and did other things that are evil.

<sup>19</sup> If you ask, 'Why should the man's son not ◀suffer/be punished▶ for the evil things that his father did?', I will answer that the son has done what is fair and right [DOU] and has obeyed all my laws, so he will surely remain alive. <sup>20</sup> It is those who sin who will die because of their sins. People will not be punished for the sins of their parents, or for the sins of their children. Good/Righteous people will be rewarded for their being good/righteous, and evil people will be punished for their doing evil.

<sup>21</sup> But if a wicked person ◀turns away from/quits▶ doing all the evil things that he did previously, and if he starts to obey faithfully all my laws, and does what is fair and right [DOU], he will surely remain alive; he will not be executed. <sup>22</sup> He will not be punished for the sins he committed previously. Because of the good/righteous things that he has done since that time, he will be allowed to remain alive. <sup>23</sup> I, Yahweh

the Lord, declare that I certainly am not [RHQ] happy about wicked people dying. Instead, I am happy when they turn away from their wicked behavior, and because of that, they remain alive.

<sup>24</sup> But if a righteous person stops doing righteous things and starts to commit sins and does the same detestable things that wicked people do, he will certainly not [RHQ] be allowed to remain alive. I will not think about the righteous things that he did previously. Because he did not faithfully do what pleases me, and because of all the sins that he has committed, he will be executed.

<sup>25</sup> But you say, ‘Yahweh does not act fairly!’ You Israeli people, listen to what I say: It is certainly not [RHQ] what I do that is unfair; it is what you continually do that is not fair/right! <sup>26</sup> If a righteous person ◀turns away from/quits▶ doing what is righteous and commits sins, he will die for committing those sins. <sup>27</sup> But if a wicked person turns away from doing wicked things and does what is just and right [DOU], he will save himself from being executed/punished. <sup>28</sup> Because he has thought about all the evil things that he did and has turned away from doing them, he will surely be allowed to live. He will not be executed for having done evil things. <sup>29</sup> But you Israeli people [MTY] say, ‘Yahweh does not act fairly.’ You people of Israel, my behavior is certainly not [RHQ] unfair! It is your behavior that is not right.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, you Israeli people [MTY], I, Yahweh the Lord, will judge each of you according to what you have done. Repent! Turn away from all your wicked behavior! Then you will not be destroyed [PRS] because of your sins. <sup>31</sup> Get rid of all your wicked behavior, and get a new way of thinking [IDM, DOU]. You Israeli people [MTY], ◀do you really want to be executed for your sins?/you act as though you want to be executed for your sins▶ [RHQ]. <sup>32</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that I am not pleased about your dying. So repent, and remain alive!”

A funeral song for Israel's leaders

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to me, “Ezekiel, sing a sad funeral song a which will be a parable about two of the kings of Israel. <sup>2</sup> Say to the Israeli people,

‘It is as though [MET] your mother was a brave female lion who raised her cubs among other lions.

<sup>3</sup> She taught one of them to hunt for other animals to kill,
and he even learned to kill and eat people.

<sup>4</sup> When people from other nations heard about him, they trapped him in a pit.

Then they used hooks to drag him to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> His mother waited for him to return, but soon she stopped hoping/expecting that he would return.

So she raised another cub who also became very fierce.

<sup>6</sup> He hunted along with other lions for animals to kill,
and he even learned to kill and eat people.

<sup>7</sup> He destroyed forts, and he ruined cities.

When he roared loudly,
everyone was terrified.

<sup>8</sup> So people of other nations planned to kill him, and men came from many places to spread out a net for him, and they caught him in a trap.

 9 They tied him with chains and took him to Babylonia.
 And there he was locked in a prison, with the result that no one on the hills of Israel ever heard him roar again.'

Also, say to the Israeli people, 10 'It is as though [SIM] your mother was a grapevine that was planted along a stream.
 There was plenty of water,
 so it had lots of branches and produced a lot of grapes.
 11 That grapevine grew and became taller than all the nearby trees;
everyone could see that it was very strong and healthy.
 And those branches were good for making scepters that symbolize the power/authority of a king.
 12 But Yahweh became very angry, so he pulled up the vine by its roots and threw it on the ground, where the very hot winds from the desert dried up all its fruit.
 The strong branches wilted and were burned in a fire.
 13 Now that vine has been planted in a hot, dry desert.
 14 A fire started to burn its stem, and then started to burn the branches and burned all the grapes.
Now not even one strong branch remains;
 they will never become scepters for a king.'
 That funeral song must be sung very sadly."

The people of Israel continued to rebel

1 Almost seven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us had been captured and taken to Babylonia, on the tenth day of the fifth month of that year, some Israeli elders came to me to ask if I had a message for them from Yahweh.

2 Then Yahweh gave me a message. He said, 3 "You human, speak to the Israeli elders and say to them, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says: You say that you have come to ask if there is any message from me [RHQ], but as surely as I am alive, I will not answer you if you ask me to tell you anything.'

4 If you are [RHQ] willing to warn them, remind them of the detestable things that their ancestors did. 5 Then say to them, 'On the day that I chose you Israeli people to belong to me, with my hand lifted up, I made a solemn promise to your ancestors while they were still in Egypt. I said to them, "I am Yahweh, your God. 6 I will bring you out of Egypt and lead you to a land that I have chosen for you. It is a very fertile [IDM] and ◀very beautiful/more beautiful than any other▶ land. 7 Each of you must get rid of the disgusting idols that you loved [IDM], and do not defile yourselves by worshiping those idols that you saw in Egypt. I, Yahweh your God, am saying this to you." '

8 But they rebelled against me. They would not pay attention to me. They did not get rid of the disgusting idols they loved, and they did not reject those idols that they saw in Egypt. So because I was angry with them, I said that I would punish [MTY] them in Egypt. <sup>9</sup> But for the sake of my own reputation, I decided to do something in order that I would not be dishonored by the people of the nations who would see it when I brought my people out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the desert. <sup>11</sup> I gave them all my laws and decrees [DOU], in order that they would obey them, and as a result they would live for a long time. <sup>12</sup> Also, I established the Sabbath/rest days to be a symbol between us to show that I, Yahweh, had caused them to be set apart from the other nations.

<sup>13</sup> But the Israeli people rebelled against me in the desert. They did not obey my commands [DOU]; they rejected them, even though they tell people who obey them that they will live for a long time, and they profaned the Sabbath days. So I said that I would get rid of them in the desert, and that would show that I was very angry with them. <sup>14</sup> But again, for the sake of my own reputation, I decided to do something else in order that I would not be dishonored/despised by the people of the nations who had seen me bring my people out of Egypt. <sup>15</sup> I lifted up my hand and solemnly declared to them in the desert that I would not take them into the land that I had promised to give them, a land that was very fertile [IDM] and ◀very beautiful/more beautiful than any other▶ land. <sup>16</sup> The reason that I promised that was because they rejected and disobeyed all my laws [DOU] and ◀desecrated/refused to rest on▶ the Sabbath days. They did that because they [SYN] were devoted to worshipping their idols. <sup>17</sup> But, I still pitied them and did not get rid of all of them in the desert. <sup>18</sup> I said to their children, 'Do not do the things that your parents continually did, or defile yourselves by worshipping their idols. <sup>19</sup> I am Yahweh your God. Carefully obey [DOU] my laws and commands. <sup>20</sup> Respect my Sabbath days, in order that by doing that [PRS], it will remind you that you belong to me, Yahweh your God.'

<sup>21</sup> But their children also rebelled against me. They did not carefully obey my laws [DOU], even though the people who obey them will live for a long time; and they profaned the Sabbath days. So again I said that by getting rid of them in the desert, I would show that I was very angry with them. <sup>22</sup> But I did not do that [IDM]. Again, for the sake of my own reputation, I decided to do something in order that I would not be dishonored/despised by the people of the nations who had seen it when I brought my people out of Egypt. <sup>23</sup> I lifted up my hand and solemnly declared to them in the desert that I would cause them to be scattered among many nations [DOU], <sup>24</sup> because they had rejected and disobeyed all my laws [DOU] and desecrated the Sabbath days, and they had eagerly desired to worship the idols that their parents had worshiped. <sup>25</sup> I also allowed them to obey laws that were not good, and laws that would not enable them to live a long time if they obeyed them. <sup>26</sup> I allowed them to become unacceptable to me by their sacrificing their firstborn children in the fire. I did that in order that they would be horrified, and in order that they would know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, you human, speak to the Israeli people. Say this to them, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says to you: This is one way that your ancestors dishonored me by turning away from me. <sup>28</sup> After I brought them into the land that I had solemnly promised to give to them, every time that they saw a high hill or a big green tree, they offered sacrifice to idols there. They made offerings to them, and that caused me to become angry. They presented to those idols their fragrant burning incense, and poured out wine offerings to them. <sup>29</sup> Then I asked them, "Who [RHQ] told you to worship at a shrine like this, here on this hilltop?" So they are still called "hilltop shrines".'

Punishment and restoration

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, say this to the Israeli people [MTY]: 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says: "You are going to [RHQ] defile yourselves like your ancestors did by strongly desiring to worship their disgusting statues of idols. <sup>31</sup> When you sacrifice your children in the fire, you are still continuing to make yourselves unacceptable to me by worshipping your many idols. You Israeli people, should I allow you to inquire what I want you to do? I, Yahweh the Lord, say that as surely as I am alive, I will not answer if you inquire.'

<sup>32</sup> You say, 'We want to be like the other nations, like the other people-groups in the world. We want to worship idols made of wood and stone like they do.' But what you want will never happen. <sup>33</sup> I, Yahweh your Lord, say that as surely as I am alive, I will use my great power [DOU, MTY] to rule over you, and show that I am angry with you. <sup>34</sup> With my great power I will gather you from the places to which you have been scattered, <sup>35</sup> and I will bring you to a desert that is surrounded by other nations. There, while I am looking at you, I will judge you. <sup>36</sup> I will punish you, like I punished your ancestors in the desert near Egypt. <sup>37</sup> I will count you [MTY] as you walk by, and I will force you to obey the agreement that I made with you. <sup>38</sup> I will get rid of those people among you who rebel [DOU] against me. Although I will bring them out of Babylonia, where they are now living, they will not enter Israel. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>39</sup> As for you Israeli people [MTY], this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'Go and worship your idols now [IRO], each of you. But afterwards, you will surely heed me and no longer dishonor me [MTY] by taking gifts to your idols. <sup>40</sup> I, Yahweh your Lord, declare that there on my sacred hill, Zion, that high hill in Israel, you will bring gifts to me, and I will accept them. I will require you to bring to me gifts and offerings there, and your sacrifices that are dedicated to me. <sup>41</sup> When I bring you out from the other nations [DOU] to which you have been scattered, I will accept you as though you were fragrant incense. By doing that, I will show the people of other nations that I have set you apart to belong to me. <sup>42</sup> Then, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land that I solemnly promised with my hand lifted up that I would give to your ancestors, you will know that I, Yahweh, have done it. <sup>43</sup> And therein Israel you will remember how you conducted your lives previously, you will remember the actions that caused you to become unacceptable to me, and you will hate/despise yourselves for all the evil things that you have done. <sup>44</sup> When I act toward you Israeli people to protect my reputation, and not just because of your evil deeds and corrupt behavior, you Israeli people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.' That is what Yahweh the Lord declares."

Prophecy against the southern part of Israel

<sup>45</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>46</sup> "You human, turn toward the south. Preach about what will happen to that dry land, to the forest there. <sup>47</sup> Say to the forest in the south part of Israel: 'Listen to this message that Yahweh the Lord is saying about you: "I am about to start a fire in your midst, and it will burn up all your trees, both the green trees and the withered/dry trees. Nothing will extinguish the blazing flames. And the fire will scorch the faces of everyone who lives in that area, from the south to the north. <sup>48</sup> Everyone will see that it is I, Yahweh, who have lit this fire, and no one will be able to put it out.'" ' "

<sup>49</sup> Then I said, "Yahweh, my Lord, when I tell things like this to people, they do not believe me. They say about me, 'He is only telling parables.' "

Yahweh will punish Israel

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, turn toward Jerusalem. Preach about what will happen to the temple there. Preach about what will happen to the Israeli people. <sup>3</sup> Say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh says: I am opposed to you. <sup>4</sup> Sowhat I will do to you will be as though [MET] I will pull my sword from its sheath and strike you. I will kill everyone, including righteous people and wicked people [DOU]. I will get rid of everyone, from the south to the north. <sup>5</sup> Then everyone will know that it is as though I, Yahweh, have struck people with my sword, and I will not put it back in its sheath again.’

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, you human, groan! Groan in front of the Israeli people very sadly and sorrowfully [IDM, DOU]. <sup>7</sup> And when they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ tell them, ‘Because of the news that they soon will hear. Everyone will be very fearful [IDM], and their knees will become as weak as [SIM] water. A great disaster will soon occur. That is what Yahweh the Lord is promising.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>9</sup> “You human, prophesy and say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh says:

I have sharpened my sword and polished it.

<sup>10</sup> It is sharpened in order that I can slaughter many people with it;
it is polished so that it will flash like lightning.

The people of Judah will not celebrate their being punished like this, but they did not repent when I only struck them with a stick.

<sup>11</sup> A sword should be polished, and be grasped in someone’s hand.

It should be sharpened and polished, ready for someone to use it to kill people.

<sup>12</sup> So, you human, cry and wail, because I will use my sword to kill my people, including the leaders of Israel.

They and all the other people, my people, will be killed by swords,
so beat your chest to show that you are sad.

<sup>13</sup> I am about to test my people, and the kings [MTY] of Judah will not escape being punished.
That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say.

<sup>14</sup> So, you human, prophesy;
clap your hands to show that you are very happy about what is going to happen.

My sword will strike them again and again;
it is a sword for slaughtering many people,
while I attack them from every side.

<sup>15</sup> In order that people will be very much afraid [IDM] and many people will be killed,

I have placed soldiers holding my swords at every city gate, ready to slaughter people.

Those swords will flash like lightning, as the soldiers grasp them to slaughter people.

<sup>16</sup> Their swords [APO] will slash to the right and then to the left, whichever way they turn the blades.

<sup>17</sup> Then I will clap my hand triumphantly;
and then I will no longer be angry.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "

The sword of the King of Babylonia

<sup>18</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>19</sup> "You human, make a map, and on it mark two roads for the King of Babylonia to march on along with his army, carrying their swords. When they depart from their country, they will come to a sign post where the road divides. <sup>20</sup> If they continue on the one road, they will attack Rabbah city, the capital of the Ammon people-group. If they continue on the other road, they will come to Judah and to Jerusalem, a city with walls around it. <sup>21</sup> When the army of Babylonia comes to where the road divides, they will stop, and the king will perform magic rituals to decide which road to go on. He will throw arrows; then consult his idols about which road to go on, and he will ◀examine/look at▶ the liver of a sheep. <sup>22</sup> With his right hand he will pick up the arrow marked 'Jerusalem'. He will then command his soldiers to go to Jerusalem. When they arrive there, they will set up ◀rams/devices to batter down the walls,▶ and then the king will give the command for them to slaughter the people. They will shout a battle-cry, and they will set up the rams against the city gates. They will build a dirt ramp against the walls around the city, and set up things to bash those walls. <sup>23</sup> The people in Jerusalem who had promised to be loyal to the King of Babylonia will think that those rituals must be wrong. They will think that his army should not be attacking them. But he will remind them of the sins [MTY] that they had committed, and his army will capture them.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, tell the Israeli people that this is what Yahweh the Lord says: 'You people have allowed everyone to see that you are openly rebelling against the King of Babylonia, and by doing that you have shown that everything that you do is sinful. Therefore you will be captured and taken to Babylonia.'

<sup>25</sup> Also, say, 'You very wicked [DOU] king of Israel, it is your time to die. It is the time for you to be punished.' <sup>26</sup> And this is what Yahweh the Lord says to you soldiers from Babylonia: 'Take off the king's turban and his crown, because now things will be different than they were before. Those in Jerusalem who had no authority will now be given authority, and those who had authority will have their authority taken from them. <sup>27</sup> Jerusalem will be completely ruined. I will cause it to be ruined, and it will not be rebuilt/restored until the king to whom the city truly belongs comes; I will give it to him to rule it.' "

A prophecy about Ammon

<sup>28</sup> "And, you human, prophesy and say this: 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says about the Ammon people-group, and about what they have said to insult Israel:

"The King of Babylon says,

'My soldiers have swords' [APO];

they have pulled out those swords to slaughter many people.

They have polished them in order to kill people, and to make those swords flash like lightning.

<sup>29</sup> Your prophets have given you false visions about what will happen to you, and they have given you messages that are not true.

So swords will strike the necks of those wicked people;

it is time for them to be killed;

it is the day when they will be punished for their sins.

<sup>30</sup> You must put your swords back in their sheaths

because the days for you to slaughter your enemies are ended.

I will judge those people in the country where they were born.

<sup>31</sup> I will pour out my punishment [MTY] on them.

Because I am very angry with them, my breath on them will scorch them like a fire [MET].

I will allow brutal men to capture them, men who are experts in killing people.

<sup>32</sup> You will be like fuel [MET] that is burned in a fire.
Your blood will be shed in your own land.

No one will remember you any more.

That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it. ' ' "

22

The sins of the people of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, are you ready to condemn the people of Jerusalem? It is [RHQ] a city full of murderers [MTY]. Remind them of all the detestable things that they have done. <sup>3</sup> Then say, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says: By your murdering people and by ◀defiling yourselves/making yourselves unacceptable to God▶ by making idols, you people of this city [APO] have brought to yourselves the time when you will be destroyed. <sup>4</sup> You have become guilty by doing both of those things [DOU]. You have brought to an end your time to remain alive [DOU]. Therefore I will cause you to become a group whom the people of other nations will scorn; they will all laugh at you [DOU]. <sup>5</sup> People in countries that are near you and people who live far from you will make fun of you, because your city is full of lawless people and full of confusion.

<sup>6</sup> Think about how each of your Israeli kings have used their power to cause people to be murdered [MTY]. <sup>7</sup> Your people do not respect/honor their parents; they have oppressed foreigners; they mistreat orphans and widows. <sup>8</sup> You despise my sacred places and ◀dishonor/do not respect▶ the Sabbath days. <sup>9</sup> Among you are men who tell lies in order to cause others to be executed [MTY]. There are those who eat food offered to idols at the hilltop shrines, and they perform disgusting sexual acts. <sup>10</sup> There are men who have sex with their father's wives [EUP], and men who have sex with women during their monthly menstrual periods. <sup>11</sup> There are men who have sex with someone else's wife. Some men have sex with their daughters-in-law or with their sisters or half-sisters. <sup>12</sup> There are among you men who accept bribes in order to cause someone to be executed [MTY]. You charge high interest when you lend people money. You become rich by forcing people to give you money. And the worst thing is that you have forgotten me, Yahweh the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> So I will shake my fists at you to show that I am angry with you because of your stealing money from people and murdering [MTY] people who live among you.

<sup>14</sup> When I finish punishing you, you will no longer [RHQ] be courageous/brave [DOU]. I, Yahweh, have said what I will do to you, and I will do it. <sup>15</sup> I will cause you to be scattered among many nations [DOU], and I will cause you to stop your sinful behavior. <sup>16</sup> When the people of other nations see that you have been humiliated, you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. "

The people of Jerusalem must be purified

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh also said to me, <sup>18</sup> "You human, your Israeli people [MTY] have become useless to me. They are like [MET] dross/slag to me. They are like [SIM] the worthless copper, tin, iron, and lead that remains after silver is melted in a very hot furnace. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: Because you have all become like dross/slag, I will gather you in Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> People put ore containing silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin in a very hot furnace and melt them in a blazing fire to burn up the impurities. Similarly [SIM], I will gather you together inside Jerusalem, and because I am very angry with you, what I will do will be as though I am melting you. <sup>21</sup> It will be as though I will blow on you with a hot breath that shows that I am very angry, and it will be as though you will be melted, <sup>22</sup> as though you will be melted like [SIM] silver is melted in a furnace, and then you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my punishment [MTY] on you.”

The sins of the leaders in Jerusalem

<sup>23</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>24</sup> “You human, say to the Israeli people, ‘When Yahweh is angry with you, there has been no rain or showers in your country.’ <sup>25</sup> Your leaders are like [SIM] lions that tear apart the animals that they have killed. Your leaders destroy their people. They steal treasures and other valuable things from people, and they cause many women to become widows by murdering their husbands. <sup>26</sup> Their priests disobey my laws and disrespect my sacred things by saying that there is no difference between things that are sacred and those that are not sacred, and by ignoring my laws about honoring the Sabbath days. As a result, they no longer honor me. <sup>27</sup> Their officials are like [SIM] wolves that tear apart the animals that they have killed: They murder people [DOU] in order to get their money. <sup>28</sup> Their prophets, by falsely saying they have received visions from God, and by giving false messages, try to ◀cover up [MET]/say that it is all right to commit▶ those sins. They say, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says,’ when I have said nothing to them. <sup>29</sup> The Israeli people force others to give them money, and they rob people. They oppress poor [DOU] people, and they mistreat foreigners among them by not treating them fairly in the courts.

<sup>30</sup> I looked among them to find a man who would cause the people of the city to repent [MET] so that I would not need to get rid of them. But I did not find anyone. <sup>31</sup> So because I am very angry with them, I will severely punish them [MTY] for all the wicked things that they have done. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have said it.”

A parable about Jerusalem and Samaria

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to me, <sup>2</sup> “You human, listen to this parable about Jerusalem and Samaria. Once there were two women, daughters of the same mother. <sup>3</sup> They lived in Egypt. And from the time that they were young women, they became prostitutes. In that land, men fondled their breasts and caressed their bosoms [DOU]. <sup>4</sup> The older sister was Oholah, and her younger sister was Oholibah. It was as though they became my wives. Later they gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah represents Samaria, and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Oholah acted like a prostitute while she was still my wife. She desired to have sex with those she loved—soldiers from Assyria. <sup>6</sup> Some of them were army officers and commanders. They wore beautiful blue uniforms. They were all handsome young men. Some of them rode horses. <sup>7</sup> She acted like a prostitute toward all the important Assyrian officials, and became unacceptable to me by worshiping all the idols of the men she wanted to have sex with. <sup>8</sup> When she was a young woman in Egypt, she started being a prostitute, and young men caressed her breasts and had sex with her; and when she became older, she did not quit acting like a prostitute.

<sup>9</sup> So I allowed the Assyrian soldiers, whom she wanted to have sex with, to capture her. <sup>10</sup> They stripped all her clothes off her. They took away her sons and daughters. And then they killed her with a sword. Other women started talking about what had happened to her, about how she had been punished.

<sup>11</sup> Her younger sister Oholibah saw those things that happened to Oholah, but she was a prostitute, and she desired to have sex with men more than her older sister had desired. <sup>12</sup> Oholibah also wanted to have sex with the Assyrian soldiers. Some of them were army officers and commanders. They all wore beautiful blue uniforms. They were all handsome young men. Some of them rode horses. <sup>13</sup> I saw what she did that caused her to become unacceptable to me, just like her older sister.

Yahweh will punish Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup> “Oholibah represents you people of Jerusalem. Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord say: ‘I will cause those soldiers who loved you but whom you turned away from because you became disgusted with them, to be angry with you. I will cause them to come and attack you from every side— <sup>23</sup> soldiers from Babylon and all the other places in Babylonia, and their allies from Pekod and Shoa and Koaregions, and all the army of Assyria. Yes, all of them are handsome young men, army officers and commanders, officers who ride in chariots, all riding on horses. <sup>24</sup> Their huge army will attack you with weapons, riding in chariots and pulling wagons that will carry their army supplies. They will surround you, carrying large and small shields, and wearing helmets. I will allow them to capture you and punish you in the way that they always punish their enemies. <sup>25</sup> Because I am very angry with you, I will cause them to act very furiously toward you. They will cut off your noses and your ears. Then, those who are still alive, they will kill with their swords. They will take away your sons and daughters, and a fire will burn up those who remain alive. <sup>26</sup> They will strip off your clothes and your fine jewelry and take them away. <sup>27</sup> In that way, I will stop all the immoral behavior that began when you became a prostitute in Egypt. You will no longer desire to do those things, or think about what you did in Egypt.’

<sup>28</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord say: ‘I am about to allow those whom you hate, those you became disgusted with and turned away from, to capture you. <sup>29</sup> They will be cruel and take away everything that you have worked hard to acquire. They will leave you completely naked [DOU], and everyone will see that you truly are a prostitute. <sup>30</sup> It is because of what you have done that you will be punished like that; you have been an immoral prostitute; you have had sex with men of other nations, and you have caused yourselves to become unacceptable to me by worshipping their idols. <sup>31</sup> You have behaved like the people of Samaria, who are like your older sister. So I will cause you to be punished [MET] like they were punished.'

<sup>32</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'You will suffer like people suffer when they drink from a cup a lot of strong alcoholic drink:

It will be as though you will drink from the cup that the people of Samaria drank from;
a big and tall cup.

Because of your drinking what is in that cup, many people will scorn you and make fun of you because there is a lot of liquid in that cup.

<sup>33</sup> When you become very drunk,
you will become very sad, because drinking what is in that cup [MTY] will cause you to become ruined and deserted, like what happened [MET] to the people of Samaria, who are like [MET] your sister.

<sup>34</sup> You will drink all the liquid that is in that cup;

then you will break that cup into pieces and use those pieces to gash/cut your breasts because you will be very sad.'

That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'Because you have forgotten me and rejected me [IDM], you must be punished for your immoral behavior and for being like a prostitute.' "

God will punish Samaria and Jerusalem

<sup>36</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, you must [RHQ] judge the people of those two cities represented by Oholah and Oholibah. You must remind them of their detestable behavior: <sup>37</sup> It is as though the people of those cities have committed adultery and have murdered [MTY] people. They have been unfaithful to me by worshipping idols.

They have even sacrificed their own children, who belonged to me, to be food for their idols. <sup>38</sup> They have done other disgraceful things: They have caused my temple to be an unacceptable place for worship, and have not respected the Sabbath days.

<sup>39</sup> On the same day that they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my temple, which caused it to be an unacceptable place for worshipping me.

<sup>40</sup> They sent messages to men in countries far away. And when those men arrived, the women of those two cities bathed themselves for them, painted their eyebrows, and put on jewelry. <sup>41</sup> They sat on a beautiful couch, with a table in front of it on which they had put incense and olive oil that belonged to me.

<sup>42</sup> Soon there was a noisy crowd around them. Among the crowd there were men from Sheba who had come from the desert of Arabia. They put bracelets on the arms of the two sisters and put beautiful crowns on their heads. <sup>43</sup> Then I said about the woman who had become exhausted by her having sex with many men, 'Now allow those men to act toward her as though she is a prostitute, because that is all that she is.' <sup>44</sup> So they had sex [EUP] with those two women, Oholah and Oholibah, like men have sex with prostitutes. <sup>45</sup> But righteous men will condemn them to be punished, like women who commit adultery and who murder others are punished, because those women commit adultery and they murder [MTY] others.

<sup>46</sup> So this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: Bring a mob to attack Samaria and Jerusalem, and allow that mob to cause the people of those cities to be terrified, and to rob them. <sup>47</sup> The mob will throw stones at them to kill them; they will cut them into pieces with their swords, they will kill their sons and daughters, and burn down their houses.

<sup>48</sup> In that way I will cause them to stop their immoral behavior. It will warn other women to not imitate/do what you people of Jerusalem are doing. <sup>49</sup> You people of Jerusalem will be punished for your immoral behavior and for your worshiping idols. Then you will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A parable about meat cooking in a pot

<sup>1</sup> Almost nine years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the tenth day of the tenth month of that year, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>2</sup> "You human, write down what day of the month this is. On this day the army of the King of Babylon has surrounded Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> Tell those rebellious Israeli people [MTY] in Babylon a parable. Say this to them: This is what Yahweh the Lord says:

'Pour water into the cooking pot and put the pot on the fire.

<sup>4</sup> Put into the pot some pieces of meat from one of your best sheep:
Put in the leg and shoulder, which are the best pieces.

Then fill the rest of the pot with the best bones.

<sup>5</sup> Pile wood on the fire, and cook the bones and the meat in the boiling water.'

<sup>6</sup> Do that because this is what Yahweh the Lord says:

'Terrible things will happen to Jerusalem;
it is city that is full of murderers [MTY],
a city that is like [MET] a scorched pot whose black residue inside cannot be removed.
Take the pieces of meat out of the pot,
but do not choose which pieces to take out.

<sup>7</sup> The blood of the people who were murdered in Jerusalem is still there;
they were murdered on the bare rocks, not on the soil, where their blood could be covered.

<sup>8</sup> But I am the one who caused the blood of those who were murdered [MTY] to be smeared on the bare rock, where their blood could not be covered;

I did that in order that I could see it and then be angry and get revenge.'

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord say:

'Terrible things will happen to that city that is full of murderers [MTY]!
It will be as though I also will pile high the wood in the fire.

<sup>10</sup> So, heap on the wood and light the fire!

Cook the meat well,
and mix some spices with it;
cook it until the bones are charred.

<sup>11</sup> Then set the empty pot on the coal of the fire until the pot becomes very hot and the copper glows, with the result that the impurities and the rust will be burned up.

<sup>12</sup> It is as though I tried to get rid of that rust, but I was not able to do it,
not even by putting that pot in a fire.

<sup>13</sup> The rustin the pot represents your immoral behavior. I tried to cleanse you from your wicked behavior, but you did not allow me to do that. So you will not be cleansed from the guilt of your sin until I have punished you and I am no longer angry.

<sup>14</sup> I, Yahweh, have said that I will surely punish you. And it is time for me to do that. I will not change my mind; I will not refrain from punishing you, and I will not pity you. I will judge you and punish you as you deserve to be punished for your sinful behavior. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have said it. ' ' "

Ezekiel's wife died

<sup>15</sup> One day Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>16</sup> "You human, I am going to suddenly take from you your wife, whom you love very much. But when she dies, do not show that you are sad or lament or cry. <sup>17</sup> Groan quietly; do not cry openly for her. Keep your turban wrapped around your head, and instead of being barefoot, keep your sandals on your feet. Do not cover the lower part of your face to show that you are sad. And do not eat the kind of food that people who are mourning usually eat."

<sup>18</sup> So one morning I talked to the people as usual, and that evening my wife suddenly died. The next morning I did what Yahweh had told me to do.

<sup>19</sup> Then the people asked me, "What do the things that you are doing signify to us?"

<sup>20</sup> So I said to them, "This is what Yahweh told me: <sup>21</sup> "Tell the Israeli people [MTY] that I am about to destroy the temple, the building that you are very proud of, the building that you delight to look at. Your children whom you left in Jerusalem when you were forced to come to Babylon will be killed by their enemies' swords. <sup>22</sup> When that happens, you will do like I have done: You will not cover the lower part of your faces, or eat the kinds of food that people who are mourning usually eat. <sup>23</sup> You will keep your turbans wrapped around your heads and keep your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or cry, but your bodies will become very thin and slowly die because of your sins. And you will groan to each other. <sup>24</sup> Ezekiel will be a warning to you, and you must do what he has done. When that happens, you will know that I, Yahweh the Lord have the power to do what I say that I will do."

<sup>25</sup> Then Yahweh said to me, "You human, soon I will destroy their sacred temple, which they rejoice about and which they respect and delight to look at, and I will get rid of their sons and daughters also. <sup>26</sup> On that day, someone will escape from Jerusalem and come and tell you what has happened there. <sup>27</sup> When that happens, you will be able to speak again [MTY] without constraint. You two will talk together [DOU]. You will be a warning to the people; and they will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A prophecy about the people of Ammon

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, turn toward where the Ammon people group lives, and prophesy about what will happen to them. <sup>3</sup> Say about them, "This is what Yahweh the Lord says: "You shouted joyfully when my temple in Jerusalem was destroyed, and when the country/land of Israel was ruined, and when the people of Judah were exiled/forced to go to Babylonia. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, I am going to allow you to be conquered by people who will come from the east. They will set up their tents in your country and live there. And they will eat the fruit from your fruit trees and drink the milk from your cattle. <sup>5</sup> I will cause your capital city Rabbah to become a pasture for camels, and the rest of Ammon to become only a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do." <sup>6</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: "You clapped your hands joyfully and stomped your feet, and laughed because you despised the people in the land of Israel. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, I will use my power [MTY] against you, and I will enable other nations to conquer you and take away your valuable possessions. I will destroy you completely [DOU], with the result that you no longer will be a nation. When that happens, people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A prophecy about the people of Moab

<sup>8</sup> This is also what Yahweh the Lord says: "The people of Moabsouth of Ammon and the people of Seirsouth of Moab despised Israel and said, 'The people [MTY] of Israel have become as unimportant as all the other nations!'" <sup>9</sup> Therefore, I will destroy the cities that protect the borders of Moab, starting at Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon, and Kiriathaim, the finest cities in Moab. <sup>10</sup> I will enable people from the east to conquer Moab and also to conquer Ammon. As a result, I will cause that Ammon will no longer be remembered by other nations. <sup>11</sup> I will also punish the people of Moab. When that happens, they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A prophecy about the people of Edom

<sup>12</sup> This is also what Yahweh the Lord says: "You people of Edom are guilty of getting revenge on the people [MTY] of Judah." <sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'I will use my power against the people of Edom and will get rid of their men and their animals. I will ruin the land from Teman region in central Edom to Dedan region in the south of Edom, and many of their men will be killed by their enemies swords.' <sup>14</sup> The Israeli people will use their power [MTY] to get revenge on the people of Edom. They will show the people of Edom that I have been angry with them, and I will punish [MTY] them. The people of Edom will experience my getting revenge on them. Then they will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A prophecy about the people of Philistia

<sup>15</sup> This is also what Yahweh the Lord says: "The Philistia people-group wanted very much to get revenge on the people of Judah. They very maliciously wanted to destroy Judah. <sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: I am about to use my power [MTY] against the Philistia people. I will get rid of the Kereth people-group and all those who live along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>17</sup> By the way I punish them, I will get great revenge on them and show that I am angry with them. And when I get revenge on them, they will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

A prophecy about the people of Tyre

<sup>1</sup> Almost twelve years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the first day of the month, Yahweh gave me another message. He said to me, <sup>2</sup> "You human, the people of Tyre city shouted joyfully and said about Jerusalem, 'Jerusalem, the city from which many traders/merchants went to many nations, is now destroyed. And now people from all over the world will come to us to buy and sell things. Because Jerusalem has now been ruined, we will prosper!' <sup>3</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'I am now the enemy of you people of Tyre. I will cause the armies of many nations to come and attack your city, like the waves of the sea beat against the shores. <sup>4</sup> Their soldiers will destroy the walls around Tyre and tear down its towers. Tyre will become a place where people from many nations steal valuable things, and then the city will be completely destroyed. Then they will scrape away the rubble and cause the city to become a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> Out in the sea, Tyre will become an island where men spread their fishing nets to dry them. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have predicted it. <sup>6</sup> The people in small villages on the coast near Tyre will be killed by their enemies' swords. Then people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.'

<sup>7</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, sayis going to happen: 'From the north, I am going to bring the most powerful king in the world, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, with his army to attack Tyre. They will bring horses and chariots, and men who ride the horses and men who drive the chariots; it will be a huge army. <sup>8</sup> In the battles in the small villages on the coast, their soldiers will kill many people with their swords. Then they will set up devices to batter the wall around the city of Tyre, and they will build a dirt ramp up to the top of the wall, and they will all hold up shields to protect themselves from arrows being shot from the ground. <sup>9</sup> The king will direct the soldiers who operate the rams/things to batter the walls, and who will use their iron bars to tear down the towers in the wall. <sup>10</sup> The king will have a huge number of horses, and the stamping of their hooves will result in the city being covered with dust. It will be as though the walls will tremble because of the noise made by the horses, the supply wagons, and the chariots when they enter the city where the walls have been broken down. <sup>11</sup> The horses will trample all of the streets of the city with their hooves. The soldiers will kill the people with their swords; and they will cause your strong pillars to collapse/fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They will take away all the people's valuable possessions and steal the things that the merchants sell. They will tear down the walls of the houses and destroy their fine houses. Then they will throw into the sea the stones from the walls of those houses and the timber and the rubble. <sup>13</sup> No longer will you sing noisy songs, and people will not play their harps any more. <sup>14</sup> The enemy soldiers will cause the city to become a bare rock and only a place where men spread their fishing nets. And the city will never be rebuilt. Those things will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have declared that they will happen.'

<sup>15</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say about the people of Tyre: 'When the wounded people in Tyre groan and many people are slaughtered and the city is destroyed, it will surely be as though [RHQ] the areas along the coast will tremble. <sup>16</sup> Then all the kings in the cities along the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and their embroidered clothes. They will be terrified, and they will sit on the ground, trembling. They will be appalled because of what has happened to the city of Tyre. <sup>17</sup> Then they will sing a sad song about the city, and they will sing this:

"The famous city [APO], in which many men who sailed on the seas lived, is now destroyed!

The people of that city had great power because they had many ships that sailed on the seas;

they caused all the people who lived near them to be terrified.

<sup>18</sup> Now on the day when that city is destroyed, it is as though the people in the areas along the coast tremble and the the people on the islands in the sea are terrified because of that city being ruined." '

<sup>19</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'When I cause the city of Tyre to become desolate/empty, like other cities in which people no longer live, and when I cause the huge waves of the sea to cover it, <sup>20</sup> then I will bring the people of that city down to be with those who have gone down to where the dead people are, people who lived long ago. I will cause them to remain in the place below the earth that is like old/ancient ruins, with those who have gone down to that pit previously, and they will never return to the earth, to where people are alive. <sup>21</sup> I will cause them to die in a horrible way (OR, people will be very afraid because of what happens to that city), and that will be the end of ◀them/their lives▶. People will search for that city but it will no longer exist. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare will happen.' "

The trade with Tyre

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said this to me: <sup>2</sup> "You human, sing a funeral song about Tyre. <sup>3</sup> The city of Tyre is located on an island at the edge of the sea, and their merchants ◀traded/bought and sold goods▶ with people-groups who live along many seacoasts. This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say that you should tell them:

'You people of Tyre said that your city was very beautiful.

<sup>4</sup> You controlled what was bought and sold by people who lived along the sea. Those who built your city caused it to become very beautiful.

<sup>5</sup> You were like [SIM] a huge ship that was built from the from pine/cypress trees on Hermon Mountain. Then they took cedar wood from Lebanon to make a mast for the ship.

<sup>7</sup> The sails for the ship were made from fine embroidered linen from Egypt, and those sails were like flags that people could see far away. For shade they hung pieces of blue and purple cloth brought from people living on Cyprus island.

<sup>8</sup> Men from Sidon and Arvad cities pulled the oars; the men who steered the boat were skilled men from Tyre.

<sup>9</sup> Experienced craftsmen from Byblos city on the coast ◀did the caulking/filled the spaces between the planks in the sides▶ of the ship. Sailors from many countries came in their ships to buy and sell goods there.

<sup>10</sup> Men from as far away as Persia, Lydia, and Libya were soldiers in your army. They hung their shields and helmets on the walls of your city, and that caused people to admire your city.

<sup>11</sup> Men from Arvad and Helech cities were watchmen on the walls of your city; men from Gammad town were in your towers.

They also hung their shields on your walls; they also caused your city to be very beautiful.

<sup>12</sup> Because of the many things that you had to trade, men from Tarshish in Spain sent merchants who brought silver, iron, tin, and lead to trade for things that you had.

<sup>13</sup> Merchants from Greece, Tubal, and Meshech brought slaves and things made from bronze to trade for things that you had.

<sup>14</sup> Men from Beth-Togarmah in Armenia brought work horses, war horses, and mules to trade for things that you had.

People from nations along the coast traded with you; they brought ◀ivory/elephant tusks▶ and valuable black ebony wood to trade for things that you had.

16 Because you had very many things to trade, people from Syria brought to you valuable turquoise stones, purple cloth, embroidered cloth, fine linen cloth, and jewelry made from coral and rubies to trade for your things.

17 Men from Judah and Israel brought wheat from Minnith city in Ammon, and figs, honey, olive oil, and ointment to trade for your things.

18 Because you had very many things to trade, men from Damascus brought wine from Helbon town and white wool from the Zahar area to trade for many things that you had.

19 Greek men from the Uzal area brought things made of iron, and cassia spice, and fragrant calamus seeds to trade for things that you had.

20 Merchants came from Dedan in southern Edom bringing saddle blankets to trade for things that you had.

21 Men from Arabia and all the rulers of the Kedar region sent merchants to trade lambs and rams and male goats for things that you had.

22 Merchants from Sheba and Raamah in Arabia brought many kinds of very good spices and jewels and gold to exchange for things that you had.

23 Men came from Haran, Canneh, Eden, Sheba, Asshur and Kilmad in Mesopotamia with their goods. 24 They brought pretty things to trade: Blue cloth, embroidered cloth, and rugs of many colors that were rolled up and tied with ropes.

25 Cargo ships from Tarshish carried all those things that you traded; and the warehouses on your island were full of all those things.' "

The destruction of Tyre

26 " "The men who row your boats took the ships full of cargo out on the stormy seas. But the strong east wind wrecked those cargo boats.

27 Everything in the boats ◀was lost/sank to the bottom of the sea▶— all the valuable cargo [DOU] and many of [HYP] the sailors and ship pilots, the ship workers and merchants and soldiers.

On the day that the ships were wrecked, many of those on the ships sank to the bottom of the sea.

28 The people in cities along the coast trembled when they heard your ship pilots cry out.

29 All the men who remained who pulled the oars left the ships; the sailors and pilots go to the shore and stand on the beach.

30 They cry aloud because of what has happened to your wealth, and they weep bitterly.

They throw dirt on their heads and roll around in ashes.

31 They shave their heads to show that they are very sad because of what has happened to you, and they put on rough sackcloth.

They weep for you very bitterly and mourn for you.

32 While they wail and mourn because of what has happened to you, they sing this sad funeral song:

"There was certainly never [RHQ] a city like Tyre that now is silent, covered by the waves of the sea."

33 The goods that your merchants traded were things that pleased the people of many countries.

Kings in very distant places became rich from the wealth that they obtained from trading with you.
<sup>34</sup> But now your city is like a ship [MET] that is wrecked in the sea, and everything that was in it is broken, at the bottom of the sea.
 All of your cargo and your sailors have sunk to the bottom of the sea along with the ships.
<sup>35</sup> All the people who live along the seacoast are appalled/horrified because of what has happened to you.
 Their kings are very horrified,
causing their faces to be twisted as they watch.
<sup>36</sup> The merchants of the other nations shake their heads because it is difficult for them to believe what has happened;
 your city has disappeared, and it will not exist any more.' "

28

A message about the king of Tyre

<sup>1</sup> Then Yahweh gave me another message. He said: <sup>2</sup> "You human, give to the king of Tyre this message from me, Yahweh the Lord:
 'You have very proudly claimed, "I am a god!
 I sit on a throne of a god in a city on an island in the sea!"
 You boast that you are a god;
 but you are only a man, not a god.
<sup>3</sup> You think that you are wiser than Daniel was,
and you think that you can understand every secret.
<sup>4</sup> By being wise and understanding a lot, you have become very rich;
 you have acquired much gold and silver for your treasuries.
<sup>5</sup> Yes, it is true that by trading wisely, you have been enabled to become very rich, and because you are rich, you have become very proud.
<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what Yahweh the Lord says:
 "Because you think that you are as wise as a god, <sup>7</sup> I will now bring a foreign army to attack your country, an army that causes other nations to be terrified.
 They will pull out their swords to strike you,
you who think that [IRO] you have marvelous/great wisdom, and they will destroy all your beautiful things.
<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to your grave;
 you will die violently like [MET] those who died in the sea.
<sup>9</sup> Then you will certainly not [RHQ] say to those who are killing you,
 'I am a god!'
because they will know that you are not a god;
 you are only a man.
<sup>10</sup> You will die like other people who are unacceptable to me die, killed by foreigners."
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.' "
<sup>11</sup> Yahweh also gave me this message: <sup>12</sup> "You human, sing a sad/funeral song about the king of Tyre. Say to him, "This is what Yahweh the Lord says:

"You thought that [IRO] you were completely perfect, extremely wise and handsome.

<sup>13</sup> You had a wonderful life, as though you were in my beautiful garden in Eden. Your clothes were decorated with many [HYP] kinds of very valuable stones—ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, turquoise, and beryl stones.

Those stones were set/placed in gold mountings.

They were prepared for you on the day that you were born.

<sup>14</sup> I appointed [DOU] you to be like [MET] a strong angel to guard the people. It was as though I put you on my holy mountain, and you walked among fiery stones.

<sup>15</sup> You were completely good in all that you did, from the day that you were created/born, until you started to do wicked things.

<sup>16</sup> Then you became busy trading things, and you started to act violently, and you sinned.

So I caused you to be disgraced; and the angel who was guarding you forced you to leave my holy mountain, forced you to leave your place among those fiery stones.

Because you loved beautiful things, you did things that wise people do not do.

So I threw you to the ground, and allowed other kings who saw you to laugh at you.

<sup>18</sup> By committing many sins and by trading things dishonestly, you caused your places of worship to become unacceptable to me.

So I caused a fire to burn down your city.

Your city was burned completely; the people who were watching it saw that only ashes remained on the ground.

<sup>19</sup> All the people who knew what your city was like previously were appalled.

Now your city has disappeared, and it will not exist any more." ' "

A message about Sidon

<sup>20</sup> Then Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>21</sup> "You human, turn toward Sidon city, and declare the terrible things that will happen to it. <sup>22</sup> Give the people of Sidon this message from me, Yahweh the Lord:

'I am your enemy, you people of Sidon, and by what I do to you,

I will reveal that I am very great/glorious.

When I punish you and reveal that I am holy,

everyone who is watching that will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>23</sup> I will send a plague upon you, and I will send enemies to come and kill [MTY] you in your streets.

They will attack you from every direction, and your people will be slaughtered inside the walls of your city.

Then everyone will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.'

<sup>24</sup> No longer will those who live near you people of Israel hurt you like [MET] painful briars and sharp thorns hurt people. And then the Israeli people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

Restoration for Israel

<sup>25</sup> And this is also what Yahweh the Lord says: "Some day the people of Israel will live in their own land again, the land that I gave to Jacob, who also served me. I will gather them from distant countries where I have scattered them. And I will reveal to the nations that I am holy among my people. <sup>26</sup> My people will live safely in Israel; they will build houses and plant vineyards. And when I punish the nearby nations that despised them, they will know that it is I, Yahweh their God, who has done it."

A message about Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Almost ten years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the twelfth day of the tenth month of that year, Yahweh gave me another message. He said to me, <sup>2</sup> "You human, turn toward Egypt and proclaim the terrible things that will happen to the king of Egypt and all his people. <sup>3</sup> Give the king this message from me, Yahweh the Lord:

'You king of Egypt, I am your enemy;

you are like [MET] a great monster/crocodile that lies in the streams along the Nile River.

You say, "The Nile River is mine;

I made it for myself."

<sup>4</sup> But it will be as though I will put hooks in your jaws and drag you out from the river onto the land, with fish sticking to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will leave you and all those fish to die in the desert; you will fall onto the ground, and your corpse will not be picked up and buried, because I have declared that your flesh will be food for the wild animals and birds.

<sup>6</sup> When that happens, all the people of Egypt will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have the power to do what I say that I will do.

The Israeli people trusted that you would help them. But you have been like [MET] a reed pole in their hands. <sup>7</sup> And when they leaned on that pole, it splintered and tore open their shoulders. When they leaned on you, it was as though you were a pole that broke, and as a result you wrenched their backs.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: "I will bring your enemies to attack you with their swords, and they will kill your people and your animals. <sup>9</sup> Egypt will become an empty desert. Then the people of Egypt will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do."

You proudly said, "The Nile River is mine; I made it!" <sup>10</sup> Therefore I am opposed to you and your streams, and I will cause Egypt to be ruined, and cause it to be an empty desert, from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south, as far south as the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup> For 40 years no one will walk through that area, and no one will live there. <sup>12</sup> Egypt will be barren/empty, and it will be surrounded by other desolate nations. The cities in Egypt will be empty and deserted for 40 years, surrounded by ruined cities in nearby nations. I will cause the people of Egypt to be scattered to countries far away.

<sup>13</sup> But this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, also say: “At the end of 40 years, I will enable the people of Egypt to return home again from the nations to which they were scattered. <sup>14</sup> I will bring back the people of Egypt who had been captured, and I will enable them to live again in the Pathros area in the south, where they lived previously. But Egypt will be a very unimportant [DOU] kingdom. <sup>15</sup> It will be the least important of all the nations; it will never again be greater than the nearby countries. I will cause Egypt to be very weak, with the result that it will never again rule over other nations. <sup>16</sup> When that happens, the leaders of Israel will no longer be tempted to ask Egypt to help them. Egypt will be punished, and that will cause the Israeli people to not forget that they previously sinned by trusting that Egypt could help them. And the people of Israel will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do.” ‘ ‘ ”

Yahweh promises that the Babylonians will conquer Egypt

<sup>17</sup> Almost twenty-seven years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the first day of the new year, Yahweh gave me this message: <sup>18</sup> “You human, the army of king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon fought very hard against Tyre, with the result that their heads were rubbed bare and their shoulders became ◀raw/full of blisters▶. But Nebuchadnezzar and his army did not get any valuable things from Tyre to reward them for their hard work to destroy Tyre. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: ‘I will enable King Nebuchadnezzar’s army to conquer Egypt. They will carry away from there all the valuable things, in order that the king can give them to his soldiers. <sup>20</sup> I will enable them to conquer Egypt as a reward for what they did to Tyre, because I, Yahweh say that it was as though his army was working for me, doing what I wanted them to do, when they destroyed Tyre.’ ”

<sup>21</sup> And some day Israel will become a glorious nation [MET] again. When that happens, I will cause the Israeli people to respect what you say [MTY]. And then they will know that it has happened because I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.” ‘ ‘ ”

30

Yahweh will punish Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, prophesy about what will happen to Egypt. Say, “This is what Yahweh the Lord says:

“Weep and wail [DOU],
because terrible things will happen some day.

<sup>3</sup> That day is near,
the day when I, Yahweh, will punish people;
it will be a day of dark clouds and disaster for many nations.

<sup>4</sup> An enemy army [PRS] will come to attack Egypt with their swords, and there will be great distress among the people in Ethiopia.

Many people will be killed in Egypt;
everything valuable will be taken away, and even the foundations of the buildings will be torn down.

<sup>5</sup> Soldiers of Ethiopia, Libya, Lydia, and from all of Arabia, and all the other groups who are their allies, will be killed in the battles.”

“The allies of Egypt will be defeated, and the power that the people of Egypt are proud of will end.

From Migdol city in the north to Aswan city in the south, the soldiers of Egypt will be killed by their enemies' swords";
that is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>7</sup> Egypt will become the most deserted country in the world, and its cities will be ruined, surrounded by ruined cities in nearby nations.

<sup>8</sup> Then, when I cause everything in Egypt to be burned in fires, and all their allies are defeated, people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>9</sup> At that time, I will send messengers to go swiftly up the Nile River in boats to cause the people of Ethiopia who are complacent/confident/think that nothing terrible will happen to them to become afraid. They will be terrified [PRS] when Egypt is destroyed; and it will soon be that time!"

<sup>10</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say:
"By the power of [MTY] of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon
I will get rid of very many people in Egypt.

<sup>11</sup> Nebuchadnezzar and his army, whose soldiers are extremely ruthless, will come to destroy Egypt.

They will pull out their swords and fill Egypt with the corpses of those whom they have killed.

<sup>12</sup> I will cause the Nile River to become dry, and I will sell the nation to evil men.

By the power [MTY] of foreigners
I will ruin the land and everything that is in it.
That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have predicted it."

<sup>13</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say:
"I will cause the idols and statues of idols [DOU]
in Memphis city to be destroyed.

No longer will there be a king in Egypt, and all over the land, people will be terrified.

I will cause the people of Egypt to be very afraid.

<sup>14</sup> I will cause the Pathros area in southern Egypt to be abandoned.
I will start fires in Zoan city in northeast Egypt and punish the people in Thebes, the capital of southern Egypt.

<sup>15</sup> I will pour out my punishment [MTY] on the fortress in Pelusium at the eastern end of Egypt, and I will get rid of very many people in Thebes.

<sup>16</sup> I will burn Egypt by fires;
the people in Pelusium will suffer severe pain.

Enemies will conquer Thebes, and the people in Memphis will constantly be terrified.

<sup>17</sup> Many young men in Heliopolis and Bubastis cities in northern Egypt will be killed by their enemies' swords, and the others from those cities will be captured and taken to Babylon.

<sup>18</sup> It will be a dark day of destruction at Tahpenes city in northeast Egypt
when I cause the power [MET] of Egypt to end; that country will no longer be proud of being strong.

It will be as though a dark cloud will cover Egypt, because the people of its villages will be captured and forced to go to Babylon."

<sup>19</sup> That is how I will punish Egypt, and people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. ”

The king of Egypt will be defeated by Nebuchadnezzar's army

<sup>20</sup> Almost eleven years after we had been taken to Babylon, on the seventh day of the first month of that year, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>21</sup> “You human, I have enabled the army of Nebuchadnezzar to defeat the army of the King of Egypt. It is as though I have broken one of the arms of the King of Egypt, and it has not been bandaged in order that it could be healed, and it has not been put in splints in order that after it heals the arm will be strong enough to hold a sword. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: ‘I am the enemy of the King of Egypt. I will completely destroy the power of Egypt; it is as though now I will break both of the king's arms, the good/strong one and the broken one, and cause the sword to fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup> I will cause the people of Egypt to be scattered among the nations [DOU]. <sup>24</sup> It is as though I will strengthen the arms of the King of Babylon and put a sword in his hand, and as though I will break the arms of the king of Egypt, and he will groan in front of the King of Babylon like [SIM] a soldier who is wounded and about to die. <sup>25</sup> I will cause the power [MTY] of the King of Babylon to become greater, and the power of the king of Egypt will be useless [MET]. When that happens, when I give power to the army of the King of Babylon, they will use that power to attack Egypt. <sup>26</sup> I will cause the people of Egypt to be scattered among the nations [DOU]. And when that happens, the people of Egypt will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do [DOU].’ ”

Egypt is compared to defeated Assyria

<sup>1</sup> Almost eleven years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the first day of the third month of that year, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, say to the King of Egypt and all of his people, ‘You think that there is [RHQ, IRO] no country whose power is as great as the power of your country.

<sup>3</sup> You think that your country is as great as Assyria was:
Assyria was previously like [MET] a tall cedar tree in Lebanon;
it was as though it had big beautiful branches that provided shade for other trees in the forest.

It was very tall;
its top was above the leaves of the other trees.

<sup>4</sup> Water came from deep springs, and as a result that cedar tree grew tall and very green.
Then water flowed around the base of the tree into channels that took water to other nearby trees.

<sup>5</sup> That huge tree grew very tall, higher than all the other trees around it.
Its branches grew very thick and long [DOU] because of the abundant water at the base of the tree.

<sup>6</sup> Birds built their nests in the branches, and wild animals gave birth to their babies under those branches.
And it was as though people of all the great nations lived in the shade of that tree.

<sup>7</sup> It was majestic and beautiful; its branches spread out widely because the roots of the tree grew down into the ground where there was a plentiful supply of water.

<sup>8</sup> The cedar trees in my garden in Eden were not as great as that tree, and the branches of the pine/cypress trees were not as long and thick as the branches of that cedar tree.

And the branches of the plane trees were not as long and thick, either.

No tree in my garden was as beautiful as that cedar tree.

<sup>9</sup> Because I caused that tree to become very beautiful with its magnificent green branches, all the leaders of other countries represented by [MET] those other trees in Eden envied the country represented by that tree.'

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'That tree, which represents Assyria, grew very tall, and its top was higher than the other trees, and it became very proud because of being very tall. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, I enabled another mighty nation to conquer it and to destroy it as it deserved to be destroyed. I have already discarded it. <sup>12</sup> A foreign army, one that has caused people of other nations to be terrified, cut it down and left it. Its branches fell on the mountains and in the valleys. Some of its branches lay broken in all the ravines in the land. All the people of other nations came out from being under its shade and left it. <sup>13</sup> Birds ◀settled/went to live▶ on the fallen tree, and wild animals lived among its branches. <sup>14</sup> The result of what I have done is that no other trees, even if they have plenty of water, will ever grow very high and become proud, and lift their tops above the branches of other trees. I do not want any other tree to grow high like that cedar tree did; trees will all certainly die and decay in the ground, like people die and go down to their graves.'

<sup>15</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: 'When that great tree was cut down, it was as though the springs that watered it mourned for it, because I caused the plentiful water from the springs to dry up. I caused the mountains in Lebanon to become black, and all the trees there to wither. <sup>16</sup> I caused the people of other nations to tremble when they heard that tree fall to the ground. They realized that it would decay, like all people who die and are buried decay. And all the leaders of other countries represented by other beautiful trees in my garden in Eden and in Lebanon, were like beautiful trees that were very proud. They were ones which had roots that grew down deep into the ground where there was plenty of water. They were comforted when the king represented by [MET] that cedar tree was there with them in the place where the dead people are. <sup>17</sup> The leaders of other countries represented by [MET] trees that grew in the shade of the huge tree, the allies of the great nation that the cedar tree represents, had also joined those who had been killed by the sword and gone down to where the dead people are.

<sup>18</sup> This parable is about you people of Egypt. You think that [RHQ, IRO] there is no other nation that is as great and glorious as yours is. But your nation will also be destroyed, as Assyria was, along with those other nations. Your people will be there among the other people who are not fit to worship me, people who have been killed by their enemies' swords. That is what will happen to the king of Egypt and all his people. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have predicted it.' "

A funeral song for the king of Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Almost twelve years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the first day of the twelfth month of that year, Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, sing a sad/funeral song about the king of Egypt. Sing this to him:

'You think that you [IRO] are like [SIM] a lion among the nations; or like [SIM] a monster/crocodile in the river thrashing around in the water, churning/stirring up the water with your feet and causing the water to become muddy.

<sup>3</sup> But this is what Yahweh the Lord says:

"I will send many people to throw my net over you, and they will haul/drag you up onto the land in my net.

<sup>4</sup> They will throw you into a field [DOU] to die;

I will allow the birds to sit on you, and all the wild animals will eat the flesh of your corpse until their stomachs are full.

<sup>5</sup> I will cause them to scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your bones.

<sup>6</sup> I will cause them to fill the land with your blood, all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.

<sup>7</sup> When I get rid of you,
I will cover the sky and not allow the stars to shine.

I will put a dark cloud in front of the sun, and the moon will not shine.

<sup>8</sup> I will cause the stars in the sky to be dark, and there will be darkness over your entire land;
that will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have said it.

<sup>9</sup> And when the people of many nations hear about your being destroyed, many of them will be afraid/worried—people living in countries that you have never known about.

<sup>10</sup> I will cause many people to be appalled because of what has happened to you, and their kings will be horrified and shudder/shake because of your being destroyed,
when I swing my sword in front of them.

At the time that you will be destroyed,
all of them will tremble,
fearing that they also will be killed."

<sup>11</sup> This is what Yahweh the Lord says:

"The swords of the army of the King of Babylon will strike you.

<sup>12</sup> I will cause very many of your people to be killed by the swords of mighty soldiers from Babylonia, who are more ruthless/cruel than the soldiers of all other nations.
They will cause the people of Egypt to quit being proud, because very many [HYP] of their people will be killed.

<sup>13</sup> I will destroy all the cattle in Egypt that ◀graze/eat grass▶ alongside the streams.

As a result, the water in those streams will never again become muddy because of people and cattle walking in them.

<sup>14</sup> Then I will allow the streams in Egypt to become calm again and flow as smoothly [SIM] as olive oil flows.

<sup>15</sup> When I cause Egypt to become empty/desolate and strip off everything that grows on the land, and when I get rid of all the people who live there, people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do." ' "

<sup>16</sup> That sad song about Egypt will also be sung by the people.

Women of many nations will sing it.

They will chant it about Egypt and all its people;

that will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said that it would happen."

Egypt will be destroyed

<sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of that same month, Yahweh gave me another message. He said,

<sup>18</sup> "You human, wail about the many people of Egypt, because I will send them to the place under the earth, where they and people of other mighty nations will be. I will send them there, along with others, down to the place where the dead are. <sup>19</sup> Say to them, 'You people of [APO] Egypt, you think that [IRO, RHQ] you are more beautiful than the people of other nations. But you also will descend to the place where the godless dead people are. <sup>20</sup> Your enemies will pull out their swords and kill many of you. A huge number of the people of Egypt who remain will be dragged away. <sup>21</sup> In the place where the dead people are, mighty leaders of other countries will make fun of the people of Egypt and say, "They have come here to lie with us godless people who were killed by our enemies' swords!" ' "

<sup>22</sup> The corpses of the people of Assyria will be there. They will be surrounded by corpses of soldiers who were killed by their enemies' swords. <sup>23</sup> The people's graves are there in the deep pit, and corpses of soldiers of their army lie around their graves. Corpses of all those who had caused many others in other places to be terrified also will be there, having been killed by swords.

<sup>24</sup> A great number of the people of Elam will be there. They also were killed by their enemies' swords. They had caused people in many places [HYP] to be terrified. At that time they will lie there in that deep pit below the earth, and they, along with the others who have gone there, will be disgraced.

<sup>25</sup> They will lie there among others who were slaughtered, surrounded by the graves of a huge crowd of other people. While they were alive, they caused people of other nations to be terrified; but they were godless, and now, having been killed by their enemies' swords, they will lie with others in that deep pit, disgraced, all of them avoiding each other.

<sup>26</sup> Corpses of soldiers of Meshech and Tubal will be there, surrounded by the graves of a huge crowd of their people. They were all godless people who were killed by swords because while they were alive, they also caused people in many places [HYP] to be terrified. <sup>27</sup> They will surely [RHQ] not be buried honorably like the soldiers who have died, whose shields were buried with their corpses, whose swords were placed on their skulls in the graves. While those godless people were alive, they had caused many people in the land to be terrified, so they were punished for their sins.

<sup>28</sup> You king of Egypt, you also be killed and will lie there with other godless people who have been killed by their enemies' swords.

<sup>29</sup> People of the Edom people-group will be there, along with their kings and leaders. They were powerful, but they will be killed and lie there in the place where the other dead people are. They will lie there in that deep pit, with the other godless people.

<sup>30</sup> All the rulers of countries north of Israel, including people from Sidon, will be there. Because of their power, they caused people to be terrified, but they will lie there. They were godless, and they will lie there along with others who were killed by their enemies' swords. They, along with everyone else who descends into that deep pit, will be disgraced.

<sup>31</sup> The king of Egypt and all his army will see them, and they will be comforted to know that there were other huge groups of people who were killed by their enemies' swords. <sup>32</sup> While he was living, I allowed him to cause others in many countries to be terrified, but he and his huge army will be there among other godless people who had been killed by their enemies' swords. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, am the one who has said that it would happen."

Ezekiel was appointed to be a watchman

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, speak to your fellow Israelis and say this to them: 'When I bring an enemy army [MTY] to attack a country, and the people of that country choose one of their men and appoint him to be a watchman, <sup>3</sup> if he sees the enemy army [MTY] coming to attack his country, and he blows a trumpet to warn the people, <sup>4</sup> if anyone hears the trumpet and does not heed the warning, and as a result he is killed by the sword of one of his enemies, he will be responsible for his own death [MTY]. <sup>5</sup> If he had heeded the warning, he would have ◀have saved his life/still be alive▶. But because he heard the sound of the trumpet and did not heed that warning, his death will be his own fault. <sup>6</sup> But if the watchman sees the enemy army [MTY] coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people, and one of his people is killed by an enemy sword, that person will die because of his sin, but I will consider that the watchman is responsible for that man's death.'

<sup>7</sup> So, you human, I have appointed you to be a watchman for the Israeli people [MTY]. So always listen to what I say and warn the people for me. <sup>8</sup> When I say to some wicked person, 'You wicked person, you will surely die because of your sins,' you must tell him that. If you do not speak to that person to warn him that he should turn away from his sins, that wicked person will die because of his sins, but I will say that you are responsible for his death [MTY]. <sup>9</sup> But if you warn that wicked person that he should turn away from his sins, and he does not do that, he will die because of his sins, but you will have saved your life.

<sup>10</sup> You human, say to the Israeli people, "This is what you all are saying: "The guilt that we have for disobeying God's laws and sinning is like a heavy weight on us, and it is hurting us, and we are slowly dying. So what can we do to continue to remain alive?" ' <sup>11</sup> Say to them, 'Yahweh the Lord says, "As surely as I am alive, I am not happy when wicked people die; I would prefer that they turn away from their wicked behavior and continue to live. So repent! Turn away from your evil behavior! You Israeli people, do you really want to die [RHQ]?" ' ' "

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, you human, say to your fellow Israelis, 'If righteous people start to disobey me, their being righteous previously will not save them from being punished. And if wicked people turn away from their wicked behavior, they will not die because of the sins that they committed previously. And if righteous people start to sin, they will not be allowed to remain alive because of their formerly being righteous.' <sup>13</sup> If I tell righteous people that they will surely remain alive, but then they trust/think that because they have been righteous previously, they can start to do evil and not be punished, I will not think about the righteous things that they did previously; they will die because of the evil things that they are doing. <sup>14</sup> And if I say to some wicked person, 'You will surely die because of your sins,' that person may turn away from his sinful behavior and do what is just and right [DOU]. <sup>15</sup> For example, he may return what he took from another person to guarantee that that person would pay back what he owes, or he may return things that he has stolen, and he may obey the laws that will enable those who obey them to remain alive, and he will not continue to do evil things. If that happens, he will surely remain alive; he will not die because of the sins that he committed previously. <sup>16</sup> I will not think about the sins that he has committed; he will surely remain alive.

<sup>17</sup> Your fellow Israelis say, 'What Yahweh does is not fair.' But it is your behavior that is not fair. <sup>18</sup> If a righteous person turns away from doing what is righteous and starts to do what is evil, it is fair that he die because of his sins. <sup>19</sup> And if a wicked person turns away from his wicked behavior and does what is right and fair [DOU], it is fair for him to remain alive because of doing that. <sup>20</sup> But you Israeli people still say, 'What Yahweh does is not fair.' But I will judge each of you for what you do."

What will happen to those who remained in Israel

<sup>21</sup> Almost twelve years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the fifth day of the tenth month of that year, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me in Babylonia and said, "Jerusalem has been captured!" <sup>22</sup> The evening before that man arrived, Yahweh took control [MTY] of me, and when that man arrived, Yahweh enabled me to speak again; I was no longer forced to be silent.

<sup>23</sup> Then Yahweh gave a message to me. He said, <sup>24</sup> "You human, the people who are living in the ruins in Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one person, but Yahweh promised him that he and his descendants would possess this land. But we are many; so surely this land has been given to us by Yahweh to continue to possess.' <sup>25</sup> So send a message to them. Say, 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says: You eat meat that still has the animal's blood in it. You still worship idols. And you still murder others [MTY]. So, ◀should this land belong to you?/this land should certainly not belong to you!▶ [RHQ] <sup>26</sup> You rely on using your swords to obtain things that you want. You do many detestable things. Each of you has sex with other men's wives. So ◀why should you continue to possess the land of Israel?/you should not continue to possess this land!▶ [RHQ]'

<sup>27</sup> Send this message to them: 'This is what Yahweh the Lord says: As surely as I am alive, those who are left in the ruins in Jerusalem will also be killed by their enemies' swords, and those who are living in the countryside will be killed by wild animals, and those who are living in forts and caves will die from a plague. <sup>28</sup> I will cause your country to become a desolate wasteland. You will no longer be proud of being a strong country. The mountains of Israel will become very desolate, with the result that no one will walk across them. <sup>29</sup> Then, when I have caused your country to become a desolate wasteland because of all the detestable things that you have done, you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.'

<sup>30</sup> As for you, you human, your fellow Israelis here in Babylonia are talking about you along the city walls and at the doors of their houses. They are saying to each other, 'Come and listen to the message that has come from Yahweh!' <sup>31</sup> My people come to you as they often have done, and they sit in front of you to listen to what you say. But they do not do what you tell them that they must do. With their mouths they say that they love me, but in their inner beings they are eager to acquire things by doing what is unjust. <sup>32</sup> To them, you are only a man who sings love songs with a beautiful voice, and you play a musical instrument well. They hear what you say, but they do not do what you tell them to do.

<sup>33</sup> The terrible things that I have said will happen to them will surely happen. And then they will know that a prophet has been among them, and that you are that prophet."

34

A parable about the leaders of Israel

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> “You human, prophesy about the leaders of Israel. They should be taking care of my people like [MET] shepherds take care of their sheep. Say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Terrible things will happen to you leaders [MET] of Israel who only take care of yourselves! You should certainly [RHQ] take care of your people like [MET] a shepherd takes care of his flock of sheep! <sup>3</sup> It is as though you eat the curds, you slaughter the very good animals and wear clothes made from their wool. But you do not take care of the flock. <sup>4</sup> You have not enabled those who are weak to become strong. You have not healed those who were sick. You have not bandaged those who were wounded/injured. You have not brought back those who went astray. You have not searched for those who became lost. You have ruled your people harshly and cruelly. <sup>5</sup> So they were scattered, because you did not take care of them like [MET] a shepherd takes care of his sheep. And when they were scattered, it was as though wild animals attacked and killed them and ate their flesh. <sup>6</sup> My people wandered like sheep all over the high hills and mountains. They were scattered all over the earth, and no one searched for them [DOU].

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, you who should be acting like shepherds, listen to what I, Yahweh the Lord say: <sup>8</sup> As surely as I am alive, my people are like a flock of sheep that has no shepherd, and as a result it is as though wild animals have attacked my people and eaten them. You did not search for them; instead, you only wanted to provide food for yourselves. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, you who should be like [MET] shepherds, listen to what I, Yahweh say: <sup>10</sup> I am opposed to you leaders who should be like [MET] shepherds for my people. I will remove you from taking care of my people, with the result that you will no longer feed yourselves instead of feeding them. I will rescue my people from you, with the result that you will longer be able to butcher them and eat them.

<sup>11</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to you leaders: I myself will search for my sheep and take care of them. <sup>12</sup> Like a shepherd finds his scattered sheep, I will rescue my people from all the places to which they have been scattered, at a time when things were very gloomy and they experienced disasters. <sup>13</sup> I will bring them back from many countries and gather them together again in their own land. Because my people are like sheep [MET], it is as though I will enable them to find good pastureland on the hills of Israel, and in the ravines, and in the villages of Israel. <sup>14</sup> It is as though I will allow them to graze in good pastures on the mountaintops. They will lie down in good ◀grazing areas/grassy fields▶ there [DOU]. <sup>15</sup> I myself will take care of my people and enable them to lie down and rest. <sup>16</sup> I will search for those who are lost and bring back the ones who have strayed away. I will bandage those who have been injured and strengthen those who are weak. But I will get rid of those who are fat and powerful. I will act fairly toward the people who are like [MET] my sheep. That is what I, Yahweh, promise.

<sup>17</sup> And as for you who are like [MET] my sheep, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: I will judge between each of you; and I will separate those that are peaceful like sheep from those that are always trying to dominate others like goats. <sup>18</sup> It is bad that [RHQ] some of you keep the best pastures for yourselves. It is even worse that [RHQ] you trample the good grass with your feet. You yourselves drink the clear water [RHQ]. But with your feet you cause the other water to become muddy [RHQ]. <sup>19</sup> It is as though you [RHQ] are forcing my flock to eat the grass that you have trampled and to drink the water that you have caused to become muddy!

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to you: I myself will judge between those of you who are like [MET] the fat sheep and those of you who are like the thin sheep. <sup>21</sup> You who are like strong sheep, it is as though with your shoulders and buttocks you have shoved away those who are like thin sheep, and you have butted them with your horns, until you have chased them all away from the good pastureland. <sup>22</sup> But I will rescue my people, and they no longer will be ◀harassed/treated cruelly▶. I will judge between one person and another. <sup>23</sup> And I will appoint one leader [MET] for them, someone who will be like King David, who served me very well. That leader will take care of them and be like their shepherd. <sup>24</sup> I, Yahweh, will be their God, and the one who is like [MET] King David will be their king. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.

<sup>25</sup> I will make a peace agreement with the people of Israel. In this agreement I will promise to get rid of all the wild animals in Israel, in order that my people may live safely, even in the desert and in the forests. <sup>26</sup> I will bless them, and I will bless the places close to my sacred hill. I will bless them by sending them rain showers at the right season; they will be showers to bless them. <sup>27</sup> The fruit trees will produce fruit and the ground will produce crops. And my people will live safely in their land. When I rescue them from people who caused them to be slaves [MET, DOU], they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>28</sup> Soldiers from other nations will no longer take away their valuable possessions, and wild animals will no longer attack them. They will live safely, and no one will cause them to be afraid. <sup>29</sup> I will cause their land to be famous/well-known for its good crops. There will no longer be famines in the land, and people in other nations will no longer ridicule them. <sup>30</sup> Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am helping them, and they will know that they, the Israeli people, are my people. <sup>31</sup> It will be as though [MET] my people are my sheep whom I will take care of, and I will be their God. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.' "

A prophecy about the destruction of Edom

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup> "You human, turn toward Edom and prophesy what will happen to its people. Say that this is what Yahweh says to them: <sup>3</sup> 'You who live near Seir Mountain in Edom, I am opposed to you, and I will use my power [MTY] to strike you and cause your country to become a wasteland. <sup>4</sup> I will cause your country to be ruined and desolate. When that happens, people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>5</sup> You have always been enemies of the Israeli people. You rejoiced when they experienced a great disaster: their enemies attacked them with swords, when I punished them for the sins that they had committed. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that as surely as I am alive, I will allow your enemies to slaughter [MTY] you and continue to slaughter you. You were happy when [LIT] others were slaughtered; <sup>7</sup> so I will cause Seir Mountain to be abandoned/deserted, and I will get rid of anyone who enters it or leaves it. <sup>8</sup> I will cause your mountains to be filled with the corpses of those who have been killed. The corpses of those who have been killed by your enemies' swords will lie on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup> I will cause your land to be deserted forever. No one will live in your towns again. When that happens, you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>10</sup> You people said, "Israel and Judah will become ours. We will take over their territory!" You said that even though I, Yahweh, was still there and protecting them.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that as surely as I am alive, I will punish [MTY] you for being angry with my people, envying them, and hating them. <sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have heard all the disgusting things that you have said about the mountains in Israel. You said that they have been ruined/devastated, and that they have been given to you to occupy [MET]. <sup>13</sup> When you insulted me, I heard all that you said about me. <sup>14</sup> So this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: You people who live on Seir Mountain and in all the other places in Edom, when I cause your land to become desolate, everyone in the entire world will rejoice. <sup>15</sup> You were happy when the land [MTY] of the Israeli people became desolate, so I will cause your land to become desolate. When that happens, people will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do. ”

A prophecy about Yahweh bringing his people back to Israel

<sup>1</sup> You human, prophesy about the mountains in Israel. Say to them, “You mountains in Israel, listen to what Yahweh says. <sup>2</sup> This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Your enemies happily said about you, ‘Aha! The mountains in Israel that have existed for a long time have become ours!’ ” <sup>3</sup> Therefore prophesy about those mountains and say, “This is what Yahweh the Lord declares: Armies of other nations attacked you [DOU] from every direction, with the result that your land became abandoned, and people of other nations occupied you, and they spoke maliciously about you and slandered you. <sup>4-6</sup> Therefore, you mountains in Israel, listen to this message from me. I, Yahweh the Lord, have something to say to the hills and mountains, to the ravines and valleys, to the deserted ruins and towns whose valuable possessions have been taken and their people ridiculed by the people of other nations around them. This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare: I am very angry [DOU] with the people of Edom and other nations; they have forced you Israeli people to endure them insulting you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: Lifting up my arm, I solemnly declare that the people of the nations that are around you will also endure being insulted.

<sup>8</sup> But I say to you mountains in Israel that huge crops of fruit will grow on your trees for my Israeli people, because they will soon return home from Babylonia. <sup>9</sup> I ◀am concerned about/will take care of▶ you, and I will bless you. I will enable farmers to plow the ground and plant seed there. <sup>10</sup> I will cause the number of people who live on you mountains and everywhere else in Israel to greatly increase. People will live in the towns and rebuild houses where there are now only ruins. <sup>11</sup> I will cause the number of people and domestic animals to increase. People will have many children [IDM, DOU]. I will enable people to live there like they did previously, and I will enable them to prosper like they did before. Then you will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>12</sup> I will enable my Israeli people to walk through your mountains. They will own you; you will be their permanent possession. Never again will their children die.

<sup>13</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to you: People say that only a small amount of food is produced on your mountains, and as a result the people of Israel die from hunger. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that no longer will that happen. <sup>15</sup> No longer will the people of other nations ridicule you; no longer will they laugh at you; no longer will the armies of other nations conquer you. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have declared that it will happen.”

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>17</sup> “You human, when the Israeli people were living in their own land, they ◀defiled it/caused it to become unacceptable to me► by the things that they did. I considered that their behavior was disgusting, like [SIM] the rags/cloths that women use during their monthly menstrual periods. <sup>18</sup> So I severely punished [MTY] them, because they had murdered [MTY] many people and because they had defiled the land by worshipping idols there. <sup>19</sup> I caused them to be scattered among many nations [DOU]. I punished [MTY] them like they deserved to be punished because of their very evil behavior [DOU]. <sup>20</sup> And wherever they went among those nations, they caused my reputation [MTY] to be disgraced. What has happened is that the people in those countries said about the Israeli people, ‘They belong to Yahweh, but they were forced to leave the land that he gave to them.’ <sup>21</sup> But I was concerned about my reputation, which the people of Israel had disgraced among the nations to which they were forced to go.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, say to the Israeli people, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: You Israeli people, it is not for your sake that I am going to do these things. Instead, it is for the sake of my sacred reputation, which you have disgraced among the nations to which you were forced to go. <sup>23</sup> I will show that my reputation is sacred, a reputation which you have disgraced among the nations to which you were forced to go. And when I show the nations that I am holy, the people of those nations will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>24</sup> What I will do is to bring you back from those nations. I will gather you from all the countries to which you were forced to go, and bring you back to your own land.

<sup>25</sup> It will be as though [MET] I will sprinkle clean water on you, and then you will be clean. I will cause you to be cleansed from everything that has defiled you, and I will cause you to stop worshiping idols. <sup>26</sup> I will give you a completely new way of thinking [IDM]. I will enable you to stop being stubborn [IDM], and I will enable you to obey me from your inner beings [IDM]. <sup>27</sup> I will put my Spirit within you and enable you to carefully obey all my laws [DOU]. <sup>28</sup> You will again live in the land that I gave to your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup> I will free you from all your disgraceful behavior. I will cause your grain to be plentiful, and I will not send a famine to you again. <sup>30</sup> I will cause your fruit trees to produce plenty of fruit and your ground to produce plenty of good crops, with the result that you will no longer be ridiculed by the people of other nations because of your not having enough food. <sup>31</sup> When that happens, you will think about your previous evil behavior and wicked deeds, and you will ◀be very displeased with/hate► yourselves for your sins and the detestable things that you did. <sup>32</sup> But I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that I want you to know that it is not for your sake that I will do those things. You Israeli people ought to be ashamed of your behavior.

<sup>33</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: At the time that I forgive you for all the sins that you have committed, I will enable you to live in your towns again and to build houses where there are now only ruins. <sup>34</sup> People who walk through your country will see that your land is again cultivated instead of ◀being desolate/having nothing growing in it►. <sup>35</sup> They will say, ‘‘This land that was ruined has become very fertile/productive like [SIM] the garden of Eden! The cities that were piles of ruins, empty and destroyed, now have walls around them, and people live in those cities.’’ <sup>36</sup> When that happens, the people in the nations that are around you that still exist will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have enabled you to rebuild what was destroyed, and to again plant crops in the fields that had nothing growing in them. I, Yahweh, have said that it will happen, and I will cause it to happen.

<sup>37</sup> This is also what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: Again I will heed what you Israeli people are pleading for me to do for you. I will cause your people to be as numerous as your sheep, <sup>38</sup> as numerous as the flocks of sheep that will be needed for offerings in Jerusalem during your regular festivals. The cities that are now ruined will be filled with people, and then you will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do. ”

The vision about the valley of dry bones

<sup>1</sup> One day Yahweh gave me another vision. In the vision I felt the power [MTY] of God on me, and by his Spirit he took me to the middle of a valley. It was full of bones of people who had been killed. <sup>2</sup> He led me to walk back and forth among those bones. I saw that there were very many bones there, bones that were very dry. <sup>3</sup> He asked me, “You human, do you think that these bones can become living people again?”

I replied, “Yahweh my Lord, only you know if that can happen.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he said to me, “Prophecy to these bones. Say to them, ‘You dry bones, listen to what Yahweh says. <sup>5</sup> This is what Yahweh the Lord says to you bones: I will put my breath into each of you, and you will become alive again. <sup>6</sup> I will fasten tendons to your bones, and cause your bones to be covered with flesh. I will cover the flesh with skin. Then I will breathe into you, and you will become alive. When that happens, you will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do what I say that I will do.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> So I spoke to the bones what Yahweh commanded me to speak. As I was speaking, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bones joining to each other. <sup>8</sup> While I was looking, I saw tendons fastening to them and flesh covering them, and then skin covered the flesh, but they did not breathe.

<sup>9</sup> Then he said to me, “You human, prophecy to the wind. Say to the wind, ‘Wind [APO], Yahweh says to you, blow from all four directions. Breathe into these people who have been killed, in order that they can become alive again!’ ” <sup>10</sup> So I said what he commanded me to say, and then breath entered them. They became alive and stood up, like a huge army.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, “You human, these bones represent all the Israeli people [MTY]. The people say, It is as though our bones are dried up; there are no more good things that we can ◀hope for/confidently expect to happen to us▶; our nation is destroyed/finished.’ <sup>12</sup> So prophecy and say to them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: My people, it will be as though I will open your graves and cause your corpses to become alive again. I will bring you back to Israel. <sup>13</sup> Then, what that happens, you my people will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>14</sup> I will put my Spirit in you, and it will be as though you will become alive again, and I will enable you to live in your own land again. Then you will know that it is I, Yahweh, who said that it would happen and who has caused it to happen. That is what I, Yahweh, declare.’ ”

A prophecy about being one nation with one king

<sup>15</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>16</sup> “You human, take a piece of wood and write on it, ‘This represents Judah and all the tribes of Judah.’ Then take another piece of wood and write on it, ‘This represents Israel and all the tribes of Israel.’ <sup>17</sup> Then join them together to become as though they were one piece of wood in your hand.

<sup>18</sup> When your fellow Israelis ask you, ‘What does ◀this action/what you just did▶ mean?’, <sup>19</sup> tell them, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: One of the pieces of wood in my hand represents Israel and all the tribes of Israel. I am joining it to the piece of wood that represents Judah, to form one piece of wood in his hand.’ <sup>20</sup> Then, you human, hold up the pieces of wood that you have written on, in order that the people can see them. <sup>21</sup> Say to the people, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: I will take you Israeli people out of the countries to which you have been forced to go. I will gather you from all those nations and bring you back to your own land. <sup>22</sup> And I will cause you to again be one nation in that land, on the mountains in Israel. And there will be one king to rule over all of you. Never again will you be two nations or divided into two kingdoms. <sup>23</sup> No longer will you ◀defile yourselves/make yourselves unacceptable to me▶ by worshipping idols and disgusting statues of your gods, because I will enable you to quit your sinful behavior and to stop rejecting me. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>24</sup> Someone who will be like [MET] King David who served me well will be the king of your descendants, and it will be as though [MET] he will be their shepherd. They will carefully obey all my laws [DOU]. <sup>25</sup> They will live in the land that I gave to Jacob, who also served me well; they will live in the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their grandchildren will live there forever, and the one who will be like [MET] King David will be their king forever. <sup>26</sup> I will make a peace agreement with them; it will be an agreement that will endure forever. I will again give them that land and cause their population to increase. And I will put my temple among them forever. <sup>27</sup> The place where I will live will be among them; I will be their God and they will be my people. <sup>28</sup> Then, when my temple is forever there among them, the people of other nations will know that I, Yahweh, have caused the Israeli people to be set apart to belong to me.’ ”

A prophecy about Gog

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh gave me another message. He said to me, <sup>2</sup> “You human, turn and face Magog, the country where Gog is the king. He is also the ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy about the terrible things that will happen to him, <sup>3</sup> and say, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: Gog, you who rule Meshech and Tubal, I am opposed to you. <sup>4</sup> It will be as though I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws and bring you to Israel—you and all of your army, including your horses and men carrying weapons who ride the horses, and many other soldiers carrying large shields and small shields, all of them carrying swords. <sup>5</sup> Armies from Persia, Ethiopia, and Put/Libya will also come, all of them with shields and helmets. <sup>6</sup> An army from Gomer north of Israel will come, and an army from Togarmah far north of Israel will come. Armies of many nations will accompany you.’

<sup>7</sup> Tell Gog, ‘Get ready and be prepared to be the commander of all those groups of soldiers. <sup>8</sup> At some future time, I will command you to lead those armies to attack Israel, a country whose buildings have been rebuilt after they were destroyed in wars. Their people will have been brought back from many nations to live again on the hills of Israel, which had been deserted for a long time. They had been brought back from other nations and will be living peacefully. <sup>9</sup> You and all those armies from many nations will go up to Israel, advancing like [SIM] a big storm. Your army will be like a huge cloud that covers the land.

<sup>10</sup> But this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: On that day, you will have an idea about [DOU] doing an evil thing. <sup>11</sup> You will say to yourself, “My army will invade a country where the villages do not have walls around them. We will attack people who are peaceful and do not suspect/think that they will be attacked. Their towns and villages do not have walls with gates and bars. <sup>12</sup> So it will be easy for us to attack the people who are living again in those towns that were previously destroyed. They are people who have been gathered from many countries where they had lived for many years, people who now live safely in their land with all their livestock and other possessions. They are living in the country that is in the middle of the most important countries (OR, that they think is [IRO] the most important country) in the world. Our soldiers will take away [DOU] all their valuable possessions.” <sup>13</sup> Then people of Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and nearby villages will come and say to you, “Are you gathering all your soldiers in order to attack Israel and take away all their silver and gold? Do you plan to take away their livestock and all their other valuable possessions [DOU]?” ’

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, you human, prophesy about Gog and say to him, ‘This is what Yahweh the Lord says: At that time, when my people of Israel are living safely, you will certainly think about that. <sup>15</sup> So you will come from your place far north of Israel, with the armies of many other nations, all riding horses, a huge army. <sup>16</sup> You will march toward my Israeli people, and your soldiers will cover the land like a huge cloud. Gog, I will bring your army to attack the country that belongs to me, but what I do for you will show the people of other nations that I am holy.

<sup>17</sup> This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say to Gog: In past years, when I gave messages to my servants, the prophets in Israel, there were messages [RHQ] about you. At that time, they prophesied for many years that I would bring your armies to attack my people. <sup>18</sup> So this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say will happen: When your army attacks Israel, I will be very angry with you. <sup>19</sup> I will be very furious, and to show that I am angry, there will be a great earthquake in Israel, where your armies will be. <sup>20</sup> The fish in the sea, the birds, the wild animals, and the animals/creatures that crawl on the ground, and all the people on the earth will tremble because of what I am doing. Mountains will fall down, cliffs will crumble, and walls everywhere will fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup> Gog, on all the mountains in the country that belongs to me I will cause your soldiers to fight against each other with their swords. <sup>22</sup> I will punish [MTY] you and your soldiers with plagues and murders [MTY]. And I will send down from the sky, on you and your troops that have come from many nations, huge amounts of rain and hail and burning sulfur. <sup>23</sup> By doing that, I will cause the people of many nations to know that I am very great and holy, and they will know that I, Yahweh, have the power to do the things that I say that I will do. ’ ”

39

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh said to me, “You human, prophesy about more terrible things that will happen to Gog, and say this to him: ‘Gog, I am opposed to you who rule Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup> I will turn you around and drag you and your armies from far north of Israel and send you to fight on the mountains in Israel. <sup>3</sup> When you are there, I will snatch your bows from your left hands and cause your arrows to fall from your right hands. <sup>4</sup> You and all the soldiers that are with you will die on the mountains in Israel. I will give your corpses to be food for the birds that eat dead flesh, and to the wild animals. <sup>5</sup> You will die in the open fields. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh the Lord, have said that it will happen. <sup>6</sup> I will cause many fires to burn in Magog and among all those who live safely in the areas along their coasts, and they will know that it is I, Yahweh, who have the power to do what I say that I will do.

<sup>7</sup> I will enable my Israeli people to know that I am holy. I will no longer allow people to damage my reputation, and people in other nations will know that I, Yahweh the Lord, am the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup> I, Yahweh the Lord, declare that it will soon be the day that those things will happen. It will be the day that I have spoken to you about.

<sup>9</sup> At that time, those Israelis who live in the towns will go out and gather the weapons from your dead soldiers, and use them to make fires to cook their food. They will burn the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the war clubs, and spears. There will be enough weapons to use as firewood for seven years. <sup>10</sup> They will not need to gather firewood in the fields or cut wood from trees in the forests, because those weapons will be all the firewood that they will need. And they will take valuable things from those who took valuable things from them, and steal things from people who stole things from them. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare will happen.

<sup>11</sup> At that time I will create a graveyard for you, Gog, and your soldiers, in the valley east of the Dead Sea. That graveyard will block the road that travelers usually walk on, because you, Gog and all the soldiers of your huge army will be buried there. So it will be named 'the Valley of Gog's Huge Army'.

<sup>12</sup> For seven months the people of Israel will be burying those corpses. It will be necessary to bury all of them, in order that the land will not be ◀defiled/considered unacceptable to me▶ because of any unburied corpses. <sup>13</sup> All the people of Israel will do the work of burying them. The day when I win that victory they will honor me.

<sup>14</sup> After those seven months are ended, the Israeli people will appoint men to go throughout the land to bury corpses, in order that the land will not remain defiled. <sup>15</sup> When they go through the land, when one of them sees a human bone, he will set up a marker beside it. When the gravediggers see the markers, they will pick up the bones and bury them in the Valley of Gog's Huge Army. <sup>16</sup> There will be a city there named Hamonah, which means 'huge army'. And by doing this work of burying the corpses, they will ◀cleanse the land/cause the land to be acceptable to me again▶.' "

<sup>17</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, this is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: Summon every kind of bird and wild animal. Say to them, 'Gather together from everywhere and come to the feast that Yahweh is preparing for you. It will be a great feast on the mountains in Israel. There you will eat men's flesh and drink their blood. <sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of strong soldiers and drink the blood of kings as if they were fat animals—rams and lambs, goats and bulls—from the Bashan region. <sup>19</sup> At that feast that Yahweh is preparing for you, you will eat fat until your stomachs are full, and you will drink blood until it is as though you are drunk. <sup>20</sup> It will be as though you are eating at a table that I have set up for you. You will eat all you want of the flesh of horses and their riders, strong soldiers [DOU] of every kind.' That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare.

<sup>21</sup> I will show people of many nations that I am glorious, and all those nations will see how I punish them [DOU]. <sup>22</sup> After that time, the Israeli people will know that I, Yahweh their God, have the power to do what I say that I will do. <sup>23</sup> And the people of other nations will know that the Israeli people had been forced to go to other countries because they sinned by not being faithful to me. I ◀turned away from/abandoned▶ them, and allowed their enemies to capture them [IDM], and many [HYP] of them were killed by their enemies' swords. <sup>24</sup> I punished them like they deserved to be punished because of their disgusting behavior and sins, and I turned away from them [MTY].

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, this is now what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: I will now bring back from exile/Babylonia the descendants of Jacob; I will pity all the Israeli people, and I will also jealously protect my reputation. <sup>26</sup> When the Israeli people are back in their own country, they will live safely in their land, with no one to cause them to be afraid, but they will be ashamed when they think about the disgraceful and unfaithful things that they did previously. <sup>27</sup> When I have brought them back from their enemies' countries and gathered them together in Israel, the people of many nations will know that I am holy. <sup>28</sup> And the Israeli people will know that I, Yahweh their Lord, have the power to do what I say that I will do. They will know that because even though I forced them to go to other countries, I will gather them together in their own country. I will not leave any of them in those countries. <sup>29</sup> I will no longer turn away from them; I will pour out my Spirit on the Israeli people. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

In a vision, Ezekiel was taken to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Almost 25 years after we had been taken to Babylonia, on the tenth day of the first month of that year, almost 14 years after Jerusalem had been destroyed, in a vision I felt the power [MTY] of Yahweh on me, and he took me to Israel. <sup>2</sup> He set me on a very high mountain. On the south side of that mountain there were some buildings that appeared to be part of a city. <sup>3</sup> When he took there, I saw a man whose face was like [SIM] bronze. He was standing in the entrance of a building. He had a linen cord and a measuring stick in his hand. <sup>4</sup> He said to me, "You human, look carefully at everything that I am going to show you, and pay attention to everything that I say and everything that I will show you, because that is why you have been brought here. And then later you must tell the Israeli people everything that you have seen here."

The east entryway to the outer courtyard

<sup>5</sup> In the vision I saw that there was a wall that completely surrounded the temple area. The measuring stick in the man's hand was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ long. He measured the wall: It was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ thick and ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ high.

<sup>6</sup> Then he went to the entryway on the east side of the temple. He climbed the steps and measured the outer threshold/opening for the entryway: It was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ deep. <sup>7</sup> Next, there was an entry hallway with three ◀alcoves/very small rooms▶ along each side where the guards stood. Each of the alcoves was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ on each side. There was a dividing wall between each alcove that was ◀8-3/4 feet/2.7 meters▶ wide. At the end of the entry hallway was the inner threshold/opening for the entryway, ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ deep. It led to the entry room to the inner courtyard and faced the temple.

<sup>8</sup> Then he measured the entry room at the end of the entry hallway. <sup>9</sup> It was about ◀14 feet/4.2 meters▶ long, and its supporting columns were ◀3-1/2 feet/1.1 meters▶ thick. The entry room of the entryway was at the end of the entry hallway that faced the temple and extended into the courtyard. <sup>10</sup> Inside the east entryway there were three alcoves on each side of the entry hallway. They each had the same length and width. And the measurements of the walls that divided the alcoves were all identical.

<sup>11</sup> Then he measured the threshold/opening for the entryway: It was ◀17-1/2 feet/5.3 meters▶ wide, and the entry hallway between the alcoves was ◀22-3/4 feet/6.9 meters▶ wide. <sup>12</sup> In front of each alcove was a low wall about ◀21 inches/53 cm.▶ high, and the alcoves were ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ on each side. <sup>13</sup> Then he measured the width of the roof of the entrance hallway, the distance between the rear wall of one alcove to the rear wall of the opposite alcove, including the supporting walls along each side. It was ◀43-3/4 feet/13.3 meters▶. <sup>14</sup> Then he measured all along the dividing walls between the alcoves all along the inside of the entry hallway: It was ◀105 feet/31.8 meters▶. He measured as far as the entry room of the entryway. <sup>15</sup> The length from the outer opening of the entryway to the far end of the entry room was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶. <sup>16</sup> There were small windows in the outside walls of all the alcoves, and also in the inner dividing walls between the alcoves. There were also small windows in the entry room. The dividing walls were decorated with carvings of palm trees.

The outer courtyard

<sup>17</sup> Then in the vision he brought me to the outer courtyard. There I saw some rooms, and a stone path/pavement along the walls around the courtyard. There were thirty rooms along the path. <sup>18</sup> The stone path was all around the courtyard, and it extended out from the walls into the courtyard for the same distance as the entry room of the entryway. That was the lower path. <sup>19</sup> Then the man measured the distance across the outer courtyard of the temple, between the inner entrance of the entryway and the wall surrounding the inner courtyard: It was ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ on the east side and on the north side of the courtyard.

The north entryway

<sup>20</sup> Then he measured how long and how wide was the entryway that was on the north side, the entrance into the outer courtyard of the temple. <sup>21</sup> There were three alcoves on each side of the entryway hall. The measurements of the alcoves, the dividing walls between the alcoves, and the entry room were the same as those in the first entryway. The length from the outer opening of the entryway to the far end of the entry room was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶. The entryway was ◀43-3/4 feet/13.3 meters▶ wide. <sup>22</sup> Its windows and the entry room and the palm tree decorations all measured the same as the ones on the east side. There were seven steps up to the outer threshold/opening for the entryway, and an entry room was at the other end of the entryway. <sup>23</sup> There was an entryway to the inner courtyard that faces the north entryway, like there was on the east side. The man measured the distance from the north entryway to the entryway on the other side; it was ◀175 feet/53 meters▶.

The south entryway

<sup>24</sup> Then he brought me through the south entryway into the outer courtyard, and he measured it. It measured the same as the other entryways. Its alcoves, its dividing walls between the alcoves, and its entry room measured the same as the ones on the other sides. <sup>25</sup> The alcoves and the entry room had narrow windows along the walls, like on the other sides. The length of the outer opening of the entryway to the far end of the entry room was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ and the entryway was ◀43-3/4 feet/13.3 meters▶ wide. <sup>26</sup> There were seven steps up to the outer threshold/opening for the entryway, and an entry room was ◀opposite it/at the end of the entryway facing the courtyard▶. It also had carvings of palm trees on the dividing walls that were between the alcoves. <sup>27</sup> The inner courtyard also had an entryway on the south side. He measured from that entryway to the entrance on the south side of the outer courtyard; it was also ◀175 feet/53 meters▶.

Entryways to the inner courtyard

<sup>28</sup> Then in the vision he brought me through the south entryway into the inner courtyard, and he measured the south entryway. It measured the same as the other entryways. <sup>29</sup> Its alcoves along the entry hallway, its dividing walls between the alcoves, and its entry room measured the same as the ones on the other sides. The alcoves and the entry room had windows. The length of the outer opening of the entryway to the far end of the entry room was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ and the entryway was ◀43-3/4 feet/13.3 meters▶ wide. <sup>30</sup> The entry rooms around the inner courtyard were ◀43-3/4 feet/13.3 meters▶ wide and ◀8.7 feet/2.6 meters▶ long. <sup>31</sup> The entry room faced the outer courtyard. There were carvings of palm trees that decorated the columns, and there were eight steps up to the entryway.

<sup>32</sup> Then he led me to the east side of the inner courtyard, and he measured the entrance. It had the same measurements as the other entrances <sup>33</sup> Its alcoves and dividing walls and entry room measured the same as the others. <sup>34</sup> Its entry room faced the outer courtyard. It also had carvings of palm trees that decorated the walls, and it had eight steps up to it.

<sup>35</sup> Then he led me to the entrance on the north side and measured it. It measured the same as the other entrances. <sup>36</sup> And its alcoves and walls between them and the entry room all had small windows in the walls. It was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ long and ◀43.7 feet/13.3 meters▶ wide. <sup>37</sup> Its entry room faced the outer courtyard. There were carvings of palm trees that decorated its walls, and there were eight steps up to the entryway.

The rooms for preparing sacrifices

<sup>38</sup> In the vision, I saw that in the inner entry room of the north entryway there was a door to a side room. That side room was where the carcasses of the animals that would be burned completely on the altar were washed. <sup>39</sup> In the entry room, there were two tables on each side of the room. On those tables would be slaughtered the animals that would be completely burned, and the animals for offerings for sins that people had committed, and offerings to cause people to longer be guilty for having sinned. <sup>40</sup> Along the outside wall of the entry room, on each side of the steps at the opening to the entryway on the north side, were two tables. <sup>41</sup> So there were four tables outside the entrance and four tables inside the entry room, on which the animals to be sacrificed were slaughtered. <sup>42</sup> There were also four tables of cut stone for the offerings to be completely burned, ◀31-1/2 in./80 cm.▶ on each side and ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ high. On those stone tables would be placed the tools for slaughtering all the animals for the sacrifices. <sup>43</sup> The meat for the offerings would be placed on stone tables. There were hooks on which the meat was hung, each with two prongs, each ◀3 in./8 cm.▶ long, fastened to the walls of the entry room.

Rooms for the priests

<sup>44</sup> Outside the inner entryway, inside the inner courtyard, were two rooms, one on the north side and one on the south side. <sup>45</sup> The man said to me, "The room whose door faces south is for the priests who are in charge of the work in the temple. <sup>46</sup> The room whose door faces north is for the priests who are in charge of the work at the altar. They are the descendants of Zadok; they are the only descendants of Levi who are permitted to approach Yahweh while they work for him."

<sup>47</sup> Then he measured the courtyard: It was square, ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ long and ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ wide. The altar was in front of the temple.

The temple

<sup>48</sup> Then in the vision he brought me to the entry room of the temple, and measured the walls on each side of the entrance: They were ◀8-3/4 feet/2.6 meters▶ thick. The entrance was ◀24-1/2 feet/7.4 meters▶ wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were ◀5-1/4 feet/1.6 meters▶ long. <sup>49</sup> The entry room was ◀35 feet/10.6 meters▶ wide on each side. There were ten steps up to it, and there were pillars on each side of the entrance.

41

<sup>1</sup> Then in the vision the man brought me to into the Holy Place in the temple and measured the walls on each side of the doorway of that room: They were about ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters▶ thick. <sup>2</sup> The entrance was ◀17-1/2 feet/5.3 meters▶ wide, and the walls of each side of it were ◀8-3/4 feet/2.6 meters▶ wide. He also measured the Holy Place, it was ◀70 feet/21.4 meters▶ long and ◀35 feet/10.7 meters▶ wide.

<sup>3</sup> Then he entered the inner room of the temple and measured the walls of the entrance; each was ◀3-1/2 feet/1.1 meter▶ thick. The doorway was ◀10-1/2 feet/

3.3 meters► wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were ◀12-1/4 feet/3.7 meters► long. <sup>4</sup> Then he measured the inner room: It was ◀35 feet/10.7 meters► long and ◀35 feet/10.7 meters► wide. He said to me, "This is the Very Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the temple: It was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters► thick. There was a row of rooms along the outside wall of the temple. Each of those rooms was ◀7 feet/2.1 meters► wide. <sup>6</sup> There were three levels of rooms, one above the other. There were thirty rooms on each level. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple that were supports for those side rooms; so those supports were not built into the wall of the temple. <sup>7</sup> Each of those side rooms was wider than the one below it. The most narrow rooms were built first, at the bottom. Then a wider set of rooms was built over it, and the widest set was at the top. A set of stairs was built from the lowest level through the middle level to the highest level.

<sup>8</sup> I saw that there was a terrace (OR, raised platform) around the temple. The terrace was the foundation for those side rooms; it was ◀10-1/2 feet/3.3 meters► high. <sup>9</sup> The outer wall of those side rooms was ◀8-3/4 feet/2.6 meters► thick. All around those side rooms there was an open area that was ◀35 feet/10.6 meters► wide. <sup>10</sup> There was a row of rooms for the priests on each side of the outer wall of the inner courtyard. <sup>11</sup> There were two doors from those side rooms into another open area; one faced north and one faced south. That open area was ◀8-3/4 feet/2.6 meters► wide.

<sup>12</sup> There was a large building on the west side of the temple area. It was ◀122-1/2 feet/37.1 meters► wide and ◀157-1/2 feet/47.7 meters► long. And its walls were also ◀8-3/4 feet/2.6 meters► thick.

<sup>13</sup> Then the man measured the temple. It was ◀175 feet/53 meters► long, and the temple courtyard, where the large building was, including its walls was also ◀175 feet/53 meters► wide. <sup>14</sup> The courtyard on the east side of the temple, across the front of the temple, was also ◀175 feet/53 meters► wide.

<sup>15</sup> Then he measured the building on the west side. Including its walls it was also ◀175 feet/53 meters► wide.

The outer walls of the Holy Place, the Very Holy Place, and the entry room, <sup>16</sup> the inner walls above and below the windows, and the frames of the windows were all covered with thin panels of wood. <sup>17</sup> All the walls inside the temple were decorated with carvings of winged creatures and palm trees: Between each figure of a winged creature was a carving of a palm tree. Each winged creature had two faces: <sup>18-19</sup> One was a face of a human, and one was the face of a lion. Those figures were carved on the walls all around the inside of the temple. <sup>20</sup> They covered all the walls, from the floor to the top of the walls.

<sup>21</sup> At the entrance to the Holy Place of the temple there were square doorposts. In front of the Very Holy Place there was something that resembled <sup>22</sup> a wooden altar. It was ◀5.2 feet/1.6 meters► high and ◀3-1/2 feet/1.1 meters► wide on all four sides. Its corners and base and sides were all made of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is in the presence of Yahweh." <sup>23</sup> The Holy Place and the Very Holy Place had double doors. <sup>24</sup> Each doorway had two doors that swung on hinges. <sup>25</sup> On the doors of the Holy Place there were carvings of winged creatures and palm trees, like those on the walls of the Holy Place. There was also a wooden roof over the front of the entry room of the temple. <sup>26</sup> On the side walls of the entry room were narrow windows with figures of palm trees carved on the sides of the windows. The side rooms around the temple also had roofs.

<sup>1</sup> Then in the vision the man led me out of the inner courtyard, through the entrance on the north side. We entered the outer courtyard and came to a building that was built against the north wall of the inner courtyard. <sup>2</sup> That building was ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ long and ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ wide. Its doorway faced north. <sup>3</sup> In that building were two rows of rooms, built on three levels, that faced each other. One row of rooms was built against the wall of the inner courtyard, and the other row was built against the wall facing the outer courtyard. The building was 34 feet from the temple. <sup>4</sup> Between the two rows of rooms there was a walkway that was ◀17-1/2 feet/5.3 meters▶ wide and ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ long. All its doors were on the north side. <sup>5</sup> Each of the upper rows of rooms was narrower than the row of rooms below them, because the upper rows needed to have a walkway in front of them. <sup>6</sup> The rooms on the upper levels had no pillars to support them like the ones in the courtyard. Instead, each of those row of rooms were supported by the walls of the row of rooms on the level below. <sup>7</sup> The wall of the building extended ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ past the set of rooms built along the outer courtyard, separating all the rooms from the outer courtyard. <sup>8</sup> The row of rooms that were along the outer courtyard was ◀87-1/2 feet/26.5 meters▶ long, and the set of rooms that faced the temple was ◀175 feet/53 meters▶ long. <sup>9</sup> The lowest row of rooms had an entrance from the outer courtyard, on the east side.

<sup>10</sup> On the south side, along the wall of the outer courtyard, next to the temple courtyard, was a a building with two rows of rooms, <sup>11</sup> with a walkway between them. Those rooms were like the rooms on the north side: they were the same length and width, and had the same kind of entrances. <sup>12</sup> The doorways on the south side were similar to the doorways on the north side. There was an entrance in the wall that faced the doors of the set of rooms, and there was an entrance on the east side, at the end of the inside walkway.

<sup>13</sup> Then the man said to me, "These rooms that overlook the temple on the north and south sides are holy. Here the priests who offer sacrifices to Yahweh will eat their portions of the sacred offerings. Because these rooms are holy, they will be used to store the sacred offerings: the grain for the grain offerings, the offerings for the sins that people have committed, and offerings in order that people will no longer be guilty for having sinned. <sup>14</sup> When the priests leave the temple, they will not be allowed to immediately enter the outer courtyard. First, they must remove the clothes that they had been wearing inside the temple, because those clothes are holy. They must put on other clothes before they enter the parts of the temple area where the other people gather."

<sup>15</sup> When the man had finished measuring the inside of the temple area, he led me out through the east entrance of the outer courtyard and measured all the way around the temple area. <sup>16-19</sup> He measured the four sides of the area. There was a wall around the area that was ◀875 feet/265 meters▶ long on each side. <sup>20</sup> That wall separated the area which was sacred/holy from the areas that were not sacred.

Yahweh's glory returned to the temple

<sup>1</sup> Then in the vision the man brought me to the entrance on the east side. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly I saw the glory/brightness of the God of Israel coming from the east. The sound of his coming was like the roar of a rushing river, and all that area shone with his glory. <sup>3</sup> What I saw in this vision was like what I saw in the visions that I had seen previously, first by the Kebar River and later when God came to destroy Jerusalem. I prostrated myself on the ground. <sup>4</sup> The glory of Yahweh entered the temple through the east entrance. <sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner courtyard, and the glory of Yahweh filled the temple.

<sup>6</sup> Then while the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speak to me from inside the temple. <sup>7</sup> He said, "You human, this is my temple, the place where I sit on my throne and where I rest my feet. This is where I will live with the Israeli people forever. The Israeli people and their kings will never again disgrace me [SYN] by worshiping other gods [MET] at the shrines on their hilltops, or by building monuments to honor their kings who have died. <sup>8</sup> They placed their altars near mine, and the doorposts of their temples were next to the doorposts of my temple. There was only a wall between them. And they disgraced me by the detestable things that they did. So, being very angry with them, I got rid of them. <sup>9</sup> Now they must stop this disgusting worship of idols and these rituals to honor their kings who have died. If they stop doing those things, I will live among them forever.

<sup>10</sup> You human, describe to the Israeli people what this temple that I have shown you in a vision is like, in order that they will be ashamed of the sins that they have committed which resulted in their temple in Jerusalem being destroyed. <sup>11</sup> If they are ashamed of all the evil things that they have done, tell them all about the temple that I showed you: its design/shape, the exits and entrances, and everything else about it. And tell them all my laws and regulations about worshiping me there. Write all these things down while they watch you, in order that they will be able to faithfully obey those laws.

<sup>12</sup> And this is the supreme law about the temple [DOU]: All of the area on top of the hill where the temple will be built must be kept sacred and holy."

The altar

<sup>13</sup> These are the measurements of the altar, using the same kind of measuring stick that was used for the temple area: There is a gutter around the altar that is ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ deep and ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ wide. There is a rim around it that is ◀9 in./23 cm.▶ wide. <sup>14</sup> The lower part of the gutter is ◀3-1/2 feet/1.1 meters▶ high to the lower ledge/rim that surrounds the altar. The lower ledge is ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ wide. The upper part of the altar is ◀7 feet/2.1 meters▶ high, up to the upper ledge. That ledge is also ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ wide. <sup>15</sup> The ◀hearth/place where the sacrifices are burned▶ at the top of the altar is another ◀7 feet/2.2 meters▶ high, and there is a projection that juts/extends up from each of the four corners. <sup>16</sup> That place at the top of the altar is square, ◀21 feet/6.4 meters▶ on each side. <sup>17</sup> The upper ledge is also a square, ◀24-1/2 feet/7.4 meters▶ on each side. There is a ◀21 in./53 cm.▶ gutter at the bottom of the altar, and a ◀10.5 in./26.6 cm.▶ rim all around it. There are steps up to the east side of the altar."

<sup>18</sup> Then the man said to me, "You human, this is what Yahweh the Lord says: These are the regulations for sacrificing offerings that will be completely burned and for sprinkling the blood against the sides of the altar when it is built: <sup>19</sup> You must present to the priests a young bull to be an offering to cause the altar to be acceptable to me. The priests are descendants of Levi, from the clan of Zadok, who come near to the altar to serve me. <sup>20</sup> You must take some of the blood from the bull that is sacrificed, and smear it on the four projections of the altar and on the four corners of the upper ledge, and all around the rim, to cause the altar to be acceptable to me, and to consecrate it. <sup>21</sup> You must burn that bull outside the temple in the part of the temple area that I have designated for that.

<sup>22</sup> The next day, you must offer a male goat that has no defects, to be an offering to cause the altar to be acceptable to me. Then you must purify the altar again, like you did with the bull that was sacrificed. <sup>23</sup> When you have finished doing all that, you must offer a young bull and a ram, both of them without any defects. <sup>24</sup> You must offer them to me, Yahweh, and the priests must sprinkle salt on them and completely burn them on the altar for a sacrifice to me.

<sup>25</sup> Then, each day for seven days, you must bring to the priest a male goat to be sacrificed for an offering to cause the altar to be acceptable to me. You must also sacrifice a young bull and a ram, each without any defect. <sup>26</sup> For seven days the priests will consecrate the altar and cause it to be acceptable to me. By doing that they will dedicate it to me. <sup>27</sup> At the end of those seven days, starting on the following day, the priests will continue to put on the altar offerings to be completely burned and offerings to maintain fellowship with me. Then I will accept you. That is what I, Yahweh the Lord, declare."

The king, the Levites, and the priests.

<sup>1</sup> Then in the vision the man brought me back to the outer entryway to the temple area, the one on the east side, but the outer entrance was shut. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to me, "This entrance must remain shut. It must not be opened by anyone; no one will be permitted to enter it. It must remain shut because I, Yahweh, the God of Israel, have caused it to be sacred by entering through it. <sup>3</sup> Only the king of Israel will be permitted to sit inside this entryway to eat food in the presence of Yahweh. But he will must enter and leave the temple area through the entry room of this entryway."

<sup>4</sup> Then the man brought me through the north entryway to the front of the temple. I looked and saw that the glory of Yahweh filled his temple, and I prostrated myself on the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to me, "You human, look carefully, and listen carefully to everything that I tell you about all the regulations concerning the temple. Note carefully the temple entrance and all the exits. <sup>6</sup> Say this to the rebellious Israeli people: 'This is what I, Yahweh the Lord, say: You Israeli people, I will no longer endure the detestable things that you do! <sup>7</sup> In addition to all the other detestable things that you do, you brought into my temple foreign men who had not been circumcised and who were godless [IDM]. By doing that, you caused my temple to be an unacceptable place to worship me, while you offered food and fat and blood, and you disobeyed my agreement with you. <sup>8</sup> Instead of doing what I commanded you to do in regard to my holy things, you appointed foreigners to be in charge of my temple. <sup>9</sup> But this is what I, Yahweh, have said: No foreigners, no men who are not circumcised, no godless people are permitted to enter my temple, not even foreigners who live among you Israelis permanently."

<sup>10</sup> Most of the descendants of Levi abandoned me along with most of the Israeli people, and started to worship idols. They must be punished for their sin. <sup>11</sup> They are still permitted to work in my temple and to be in charge of the entrances of the temple, and they are permitted to slaughter the animals that will be completely burned on the altar, and to burn other sacrifices for the people, and they will be able to help the people. <sup>12</sup> But because they helped the people to worship idols and caused many of the Israeli people [MTY] to sin by worshiping idols, I have lifted up my arm and solemnly declared that they must be punished for their sin. <sup>13</sup> They must not come near me to serve as priests. They must not come near any sacred things or the holy offerings. They must be ashamed of the shameful things that they did. <sup>14</sup> But I will still put them in charge of the work in the temple and allow them to do all the work that needs to be done there.

<sup>15</sup> But most of the priests who are descendants of Levi and from the clan of Zadok worked in my temple when the other Israelis abandoned me. So they are permitted to come near to me to work for me. They will stand in my presence to offer sacrifices of animals' fat and blood. <sup>16</sup> They are the only ones who are permitted to enter my temple. They are the only ones who are permitted to come near my altar to serve me and do what I tell them to do.
