Jonah	1

This book is the account about Jonah, when he disobeyed God, was three days in a big fish's belly, and finally went to warn the wicked people in Nineveh city that God was going to destroy them. We call this book
JONAH

Jonah refuses to obey Yahweh

¹ One day Yahweh said to the prophet Jonah, Amittai's son,

² "I have seen how wicked are the people who live in the great city called Nineveh. Therefore, go there and warn the people that I am planning to destroy their city because they d sinned." *One*Onethethe

³ But Jonah did not go to Nineveh. Instead, he went in the direction opposite to where Yahweh told him to go. He went (down) to Joppa city. There he paid the fare to travel on a ship that was going to Tarshish city. Jonah wanted to escape from Yahweh and avoid doing what Yahweh had told him to do. He got on the ship, and then he went down to a lower deck inside the ship. He lay down, and went to sleep. wentwent

⁴ Then Yahweh caused a very strong wind to blow. There was such a violent storm that the sailors thought the ship would break apart.

⁵ The sailors were very frightened. So, they each started to pray to their own gods to save them. Then they threw the cargo into the sea to make the ship lighter in order that it would not sink easily. they

⁶ Then the captain went down to where Jonah was sleeping deeply. He awoke him and said to him. "You should not be sleeping during a storm like this one! Get up and pray to your god! Perhaps he will pity us and save us, so that we will not drown!"

⁷ Then the sailors said to each other, "We must cast lots to determine who has caused all this trouble!" So they did that, and the lots showed that Jonah had caused the storm.

⁸ So various ones among them asked Jonah, "Are you the one who has caused all this trouble for us?" "What work do you do?" "Where are you coming from?" "What country and what people-group do you belong to?" castcastcausedthe

⁹ Jonah replied, "I am a Hebrew. I worship Yahweh, who lives in heaven. He is the God who made the sea and the land. I am trying to escape from doing what Yahweh told me to do." I

¹² Jonah replied to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. If you do that, then the sea will become calm. I know that this terrible storm is caused by my not doing what Yahweh told me to do."

¹³ But the sailors did not want to do that. Instead, they tried hard to row the ship back to land. But they could not do so, because the storm continued to get worse. *didrow

¹⁴ Therefore, the sailors prayed to Yahweh, "O Yahweh, please do not cause us to drown after we cause this man to die. O Yahweh, we beg you, do not consider us to be guilty when we cause this man to die. We know that you have sent this storm for your own good reasons." you

¹⁵ Then they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea. Then the sea became calm.

The people in Nineveh repented after Jonah warned them

Then 2:4 I thought/said, 'Although You OR Then I thought that although You Then 2:4 I thought/said, 'Although You Jonah 2:7 Then 2:4 I thought/said, 'Although You Since Jonah is thinking and not speaking out loud, in your translation, you might want to use an indirect quote rather than a direct speech quote. You 2:4 have banished me OR You have expelled/cast me away from your presence/sight Yet 2:4 I will OR But surely I will Yet 2:4 I will There is a text translation issue with this part of verse 4. The Hebrew text introduces Jonah's second thought with a word meaning 'yet' or 'surely', expressing hope. But there is one alternate Greek translation from the Hebrew that uses a word meaning 'how', expressing a sense of hopelessness, that Jonah might never again see the Lord. English versions are divided in how they render this meaning. Many follow the second alternative, even though it has little textual support. So, it is recommended that you follow the Hebrew text and the options given here. (TN Jonah) to 2:4 see your holy temple again OR to see the holy place where you/Yahweh live to 2:4 see your holy temple again There is disagreement among scholars concerning whether the temple mentioned in chapter 2, verses 4 and 7, refers to the earthly temple in Jerusalem, or to Yahweh's eternal dwelling place in heaven. So, if possible, avoid referring to the location of the temple in these verses. In both verses, the sense seems to be "the holy place where you (the Lord) live." (TN Jonah, Hohulin, 2000)Both the Jerusalem temple and the temple in heaven were true dwelling places for Yahweh. The Glory of Yahweh Himself used to dwell in the tabernacle and later in the temple. Jonah had "come down" from Jerusalem to Joppa, and contemplated returning to Jerusalem. In the context of Jewish "cosmic geography," Judah was Yahweh's land, and Nineveh was a dwelling place for demons. GC seaweed 2:5 OR sea plants rescued 2:6 me from going down to the place where the dead go OR rescued me from death OR rescued me back from dying rescued 2:6 me from going down to the place where the dead go We do not know if Jonah died physically or only metaphorically (figuratively speaking). When 2:7 I was almost dead OR As I was dying When 2:7 I was almost dead Jonah 2:4 who 2:8 could act kindly *OR who is faithful to keep his promises * who 2:8 could act kindly The Hebrew word here is khesed. (Here rendered kindly) The common meaning of the Hebrew term khesed seems to include loyalty or reliability, faithfulness and kindness or steady compassion. But 2:9 I OR But, as for me, I offer 2:9 a sacrifice to thank you OR offer to sacrifice animals to thank you offer 2:9 a sacrifice to thank you In ancient times, pagans commonly offered sacrifices to bribe their gods or to placate them. In Israel, however, sacrifices were for purifying dirty/polluted things, worshiping and honoring Yahweh, and expressing thanks to Yahweh. Yahweh, 2:9 you are the only one who is able to save us OR Because it is Yahweh alone who saves anyone. that 3:2 great city OR that large/important city that 3:2 great city Jonah 1:2 that 3:2 great city How you described the city in Jonah 1:2, be consistent to describe it the same way here.

³ So, this time Jonah obeyed Yahweh, and he went to Nineveh. That city was so big that a person had to walk for three days to go everywhere in it. ^{aa}

⁴ On the first day after Jonah arrived, he began walking through the city. He started proclaiming to the people, "Forty days from now, God will destroy Nineveh!"

⁵ The people in Nineveh believed God's message. They all decided that everyone should stop eating food, and they must dress themselves with old/rough clothes, to show that they were sorry for having sinned. So, everyone, including important people and unimportant people, did so. stop

⁶ Nineveh's king heard the news about Jonah and what the people were doing. So, he took off his royal robes, and he also put on old/rough clothes. He left his palace, and sat down on cold ashes, to humble himself and show that he also was sorry for having sinned.

⁷ Then he sent messengers to proclaim to everyone in Nineveh:

"My advisors and I have decreed that no one may eat or drink anything. Do not even allow your animals to eat or drink.

⁸ Instead, every person must put on old/rough cloth. Put old/rough cloth on your animals, too. Then everyone must pray fervently to God. And everyone must stop doing evil actions/things, and stop acting violently toward others.

⁹ Perhaps, if everyone does so, then God may change his mind and be merciful to us. Maybe God will stop being very angry with us, with the result that we will not die."

¹⁰ When they all did that, God saw what they were doing, and he saw that they had stopped doing evil things. So, he pitied them, and he did not destroy them as he had threatened to do.

Yahweh teaches Jonah that he has/shows mercy and compassion

¹ But when Yahweh did not punish Nineveh, this distressed/displeased Jonah very much! And he became very angry. (The people in Nineveh were not Jews, and Jonah did not think that God should act mercifully toward people who were enemies to the Jews.)

² So, Jonah complained to Yahweh, saying: "O Yahweh, what you have done is what I thought that you would do, before I left home. That is why I decided immediately to run away, and go to Tarshish city. I did so because I knew that you, O God, act very kindly and compassionate toward all people. ⁵ Jonah did not reply. He went out from the city to its east side. He made a small shelter so that he could sit under it and be protected from the sun. He sat under the shelter and waited to see what would happen to the city.

⁶ Then Yahweh God caused a vine to grow up immediately to shade Jonah's head from the sun and make him feel more comfortable. Jonah was very happy about having the vine over his head. He He

⁷ But before dawn the next day, God sent a worm that chewed the vine, with the result that the vine withered.

⁸ Then, when the sun rose high in the sky, God sent a very hot wind from the east. The sun shone very strongly on Jonah's head, with the result that he felt faint. He wanted to die, and he said, "It would be better for me to die than to continue to live!" a who 4:11 do not know right from wrong OR who do not know that they are living not knowing about My laws/ways OR who do not know the difference between their right hand and their left hand who 4:11 do not know right from wrong The Hebrew here says literally, "people who do not know the difference between their right and left hands". Some scholars think this is referring to children. That is possible, but this is probably an idiom meaning that the people, no matter their age, have no discernment, no education, or no knowledge about God's teaching on what is true and what is not true. Translate it so that it communicates a clear meaning. there 4:11 are also many animals/livestock/cows OR there are also many herds/cattle (and none among these have done anything to displease me.) it 4:11 is right for me OR Is it not right/good for me OR Therefore I should it 4:11 is right for me This may be a rhetorical question or a real question that Yahweh asks Jonah, so that Jonah will reconsider and repent of his bad attitude. (God is making a strong distinction between Jonah's attitude and his behavior.) But we do not hear Jonah's response. The book intentionally ends with this question or statement, so that people hearing this book will think about it for themselves. show 4:11 compassion to OR feel sorry for
